

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1061

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1061-Nial had a small medical box in hand.

At the living hall...

Grandma Bailey, Senior Bailey, Susan, Darryl, and a few other relatives were present.

Grandma Bailey was pulled back as she stood under the beam with a thick rope hung to it.

When she saw someone getting closer, she yelled, "Let go of me! Let go! Let me die! I want to die!" "Okay, enough of the acting," Anthony's elegant voice was heard as he walked in with Charmine. The Baileys felt the chills as they saw the pair.

Whenever they saw him, Anthony would always exude that oppressive temperament of his.

However, they quickly spotted Guy following behind Anthony and Charmine, and the sight of him took everyone by surprise. They could hardly believe what they saw. 1

They came home, but they brought Guy along with them!?

What was it for? To cause a scene?

Grandma Bailey's eyelids fluttered wide open. Did Charmine not say she would never fall for Guy? Why were they both together?

"Do you know why we're asking to see you today, Charmine?" began Susan, growing as she spoke. “We spent almost a billion preparing your wedding, but you? You ran away and got married to General Granger! You didn’t give us an answer until now, yet you come in strutting, bringing him with you?”

Her tone was unpleasant.

Before Charmine could speak, Guy who was behind her came forward and argued coldly, “Mrs. Bailey, is this how you’re going to treat your daughter-in – law? You haven’t seen her for long, but instead of asking how she feels, instead of asking for the truth, you blame her for everything? Is this how you’re taught?”

i

Guy’s tone was cold and hard like iron.

Raised with a soldier’s temperament, Guy emanated a stern, unyielding aura.

The Baileys were stunned. Even though the Baileys were powerful, they must not offend someone like the Grangers.

Grandma Bailey glared at Susan and walked in front of her. “General Granger is right. Susan is acting like this because she’s too anxious. What’s the matter with you and Charmine? Don’t you owe them an explanation so they can be at ease?”

Guy looked at Charmine and explained in a serious tone, “Everything started with the red wolf bone. Ms. Jordan came to the Granger mansion in hopes of getting the red wolf bone to cure Chris’ illness, but my family likes Ms. Jordan very much, and they made it a condition that unless Ms.

Jordan and I get married, they won’t let her have it. Therefore, Ms. Jordan and I had to fake the wedding to get the red wolf bone.”

Grandma Bailey listened and her brows relaxed.

So that was the reason?

So there was nothing between Charmine and Guy? Was it all due to Chris’ illness?

Susan mumbled, “If it’s for the illness, why publish the news? How are we supposed to receive Charmine? What would the others think?” “Right. Although it makes sense, we’re facing a big mess right now, and none of you have gone forward to make a public statement.” i “Everyone thinks Charmine is your wife now. You two even show up together. How’re you going to fix this?”

The other relatives aired their complaints, 1

Charmine did not want to speak, but when she heard what they said, she glared at the crowd with displeasure. “How dare you say such things? Did everyone here genuinely think I want to come here with Mr. Granger? Do you know what I’ve been through in the past few days? None of this would’ve happened had it not been for your meddling hands!”

Her cold and clear voice was heard.

Everyone was petrified at her bold words. What did they have to do with this?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1066-Charmine was on the verge of losing consciousness at that moment and did not hear anything. All she felt was pain.

This was the first time Chris saw Charmine suffering from the migraines. He only knew Guy had to give blood to her, but he did not know it was so painful.

Chris cried by Charmine's side, "You have to hold on, Mommy! Please hold on!

Don't scare Momo! Nial! Uncle Nial! Hurry and save Mommy!"

Nial rushed and knelt beside them with syringe needles readied.

He went to Guy and naturally extracted blood from him before he quickly transfused the blood into Charmine.

Charmine, who was in pain, quickly grew calm.

Anthony walked to her side. Although his expression was still dark, he still reached out to hold on to her.

Susan quickly walked forward to stop him. "Anthony, didn't you hear what I said? Charmine hugs Guy instinctively-Guy is that important to her! They've only just met, but if this goes on, she'll cheat on you one day!"

Charmine, leaning into Guy's hold at that moment, heard the alarm bells ringing when she noticed her predicament.

She quickly stood up and distanced herself from Guy.

Guy also stood up and said, "Mrs. Bailey, I hope you'll tell the truth! You pushed Charmine to me, and I had no choice but to catch her!" "Ha! Of course you'd say that since Anthony is here! Who'd admit to cheating?" Susan scowled at Guy before she looked at Anthony. “Anthony, I’m your mother; I won’t lie to you. Do you want to believe this woman or your mother?” 1

Charmine jolted. Naturally, everyone would choose to trust their mother.

Furthermore, Anthony already hated Guy, and he was not on good terms with Charmine before they came to the Bailey mansion.

With all that had happened, surely Anthony would...

What Charmine did not expect, however, was for Anthony to walk up and put his hands on her waist.

He said in a low voice, “I trust no one. I want to hear Charmine explain to me.”

As he spoke, he looked at Charmine’s body. “You tell me, I trust you.”

Charmine’s racing heart grew steady at that moment as she met his gaze.

“Will you believe me if I tell you your mother pushed me?”

Anthony frowned as he turned to Susan. ‘You pushed my wife, Susan. What shall I do?’ 2

Charmine was shocked at that. She thought Anthony was joking, but she did not expect Anthony to actually trust her! 1

He would go against his mother for this?

Even Susan was shocked. Was Anthony not supposed to get mad at Charmine?

Why would he believe Charmine?

The infuriated Susan scowled, “Anthony, what did she do to you!? Why would she admit to cheating on you-“

Slap!

Before she could finish speaking, Grandma Bailey slapped Susan on the back of her head, causing Susan's clipped-up hair to cascade. She, at that moment, looked vulgar. 1 'You're one of us,' scoffed Grandma Bailey. "Since when have you learned to lie? Do you think we don't know what kind of person Charmine is? I saw you pushing her when I happened to look out the window! Apologize to Charmine, now!"

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1067-Susan was so frustrated that she wanted to cry!

Grandma Bailey and Anthony were in another room, and they were nowhere close to this area. Even the window did not face this direction! How would she have seen it?

She was intentionally helping Charmine! That was bad enough, yet she wanted her to apologize to Charmine? 1

No way!

She haughtily argued, "Grandma Bailey, please be more rational! Charmine still has to spend two months with Guy Granger. She needs his blood every day.

How will they not develop some feelings down the road? Furthermore, in two months, how are we going to tell the world about this? The D'Cruz family is pestering us! We won't be able to drag on for two months!

Anthony can be with Waverly or even McKenzie, while Charmine could be with Guy. Everything will be resolved! Isn't that good?" 1 'You're very wrong! If Charmine would fall for Guy, she wouldn't be suffering all the pain right now!

She has the determination to endure the pain! Do you think she'd easily fall for someone else? As for what we have to say to the public, well, the Baileys never have to say anything! Charmine and Anthony will be wed once she recovers; just tell them the photos had been photoshopped!" Grandma Bailey glared at Susan. "No matter how bad the situation becomes, you have no reason to insult her. You must apologize to Charmine, now! And you'll spend sometime reflecting in the prayer room!"

Susan had more to say but Grandma Bailey continued, "What now? You won't even do as you're told?"

Susan had no choice but to agree to it. She looked at Charmine reluctantly, embittered and furious. 1

She was Anthony's mother, yet she had to apologize to someone like Charmine? 1

Alas, she had no choice. As long as Grandma Bailey was alive, she must not offend her. i

With much difficulty, she managed to say, "Sorry..."

It was soft and almost implausible, but to her, it felt like her dignity was tossed to the ground and shattered into pieces.

With that said, she ignored everyone else and turned to walk away.

Charmine did not make it harder than it was-she did not want to waste time.

Grandma Bailey walked up to Charmine then. "I'm so sorry, Charmine. I've spoiled her in the past for her to act this way. Don't worry, I fully support you to be with Anthony. I made a scene to ask you two to come home because I thought you ran away with another man. Now that it's cleared up, go home and take good care of your body. Once you recover, I'll officiate your wedding ceremony." 1

Charmine looked at her and nodded.

Grandma Bailey used to hate her so much, yet at that moment, she was incredibly supportive...

This was all because of her accomplishment. This was because of how she beautifully crushed Waverly during their birthday banquets...

Anthony put his arms around Charmine's waist while she held Chris' hand. They walked out together.

At that moment, Grandma Bailey suddenly recalled something as she said, "Hold on, Charmine. I need a favor from you and Anthony."

As she spoke, a young lady walked to her.

Grandma Bailey introduced, "She's from my family, my daughter's daughter. Her name is Yvonne Eckert, and she's only twenty. She came over to spend her winter break with me, but as you've seen, I'm old and I can't take good care of her. How am I supposed to look after her? Susan doesn't take it well when it comes to younger women, and she had been trying different ways to harm Yvonne in the past two days, so I need a favor from you two to bring Yvonne home with you for a while. She'll go back to college when term starts." 2

Charmine frowned. They had to bring Yvonne home with them?

Yvonne was Anthony's cousin. What motive did Grandma Bailey have to put a cousin with them? 1

Strange...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1068-Before Charmine could make sense of it all, Yvonne walked up to her and naturally hooked her arms around hers, smiling as she did. "Sorry to be disturbing you in the following days, Charmine, hope you don't mind."

Charmine was never one to be so jovial to others. Not only that, but she would suffer migraines every day, and she would not be able to accompany Yvonne.

She could not even leave home.

She wanted to turn it down but Anthony said, "Alright, come with us." i Charmine eyed Anthony strangely.

Did her ears play tricks on her, or did Anthony just agree to it?

Anthony was always cold even to his own mother, yet all of a sudden, he agreed to bring a cousin home?

This was very strange...

'Yay! Thank you, Anthony!'" beamed the happy Yvonne as she grabbed her hand, walking her out.

Though wary, Charmine could care less of it all. She grabbed Chris' hand and left.

It was only then Chris snapped out from the shock he had after watching Charmine in pain. When he saw someone else holding his Mommy's hand, he did not seem happy and quickly left with them.

Anthony nodded at Grandma Bailey before saying to Guy, “Mr. Granger, thank you for protecting my wife. Let’s go home; I must make a toast to you.” 1

As he spoke, he made a gentlemanly gesture, one of invitation.

Guy frowned. Anthony looked like he would kill him before this, so why the sudden genial mannerism?

Why was this such an out-of-body experience?

Even Nial found it hard to believe. Since when did his brother change?

Although they were weirded out, they were more concerned about Charmine’s illness. None of them dared to stay too far from her. They all went inside the car.

The seven-seater Lincoln drove away slowly.

The three men sat in front while Charmine, Yvonne, and Chris sat at the back.

Charmine held Chris’ hands as she comforted, “Don’t be scared, Momo.

Forget what you saw. Mommy will recover soon.” “Don’t worry, Mommy, I’m not scared. I’ll stay with Mommy and protect Mommy!” 1

Chris was very understanding and mature. He knew his Mommy was ill, thus he must not make her worry.

Still, his gaze would avert to Yvonne who sat just next to Charmine. He could not help it.

He had never seen this Aunt, yet she suddenly showed up in their house.

No doubt, it was not a good thing!

Yvonne met his gaze. ‘You must be Momo, yes? You’re so squishy and cute!

Don't worry, I won't harm your Daddy and Mommy, and I won't harm you. Also...
I'll help you all!"

Her last sentence was very soft as it came as a whisper to Charmine's ear.

Charmine frowned. Help them?

What could a small woman like her do?

Yvonne said nothing else as she eyed Guy who was sitting in front. She was looking at his figure.

Her lips curled up into a smile from time to time.

Charmine sensed something and she vaguely understood.

The car pulled over by Violet Residence.

After they all entered the villa, Charmine said, 'Til arrange a room for Yvonne. Everyone else should get some rest.'

Agreeing to her suggestion, Anthony then thought of something and reminded her, 'Yvonne is always scared, so just let her stick close to us.' 2

Charmine understood and led Yvonne upstairs.

Alas, Yvonne's large suitcase overwhelmed her small stature.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1069-Charmine was about to help Yvonne with her luggage when Guy, who was by the side, went forward. "Let me have it."

Anthony's eyes squinted as his pupils instantly darkened.

It was apparent Guy cared about Charmine, always seemingly attentive to Charmine's needs...

Anthony looked at Yvonne.

Yvonne quickly turned to Guy and said, “It’s okay, Mr. Granger. I’m an adult, and I can carry it myself.”

With that said, she used her strength to pick up the suitcase. She went upstairs with the suitcase, her small figure looking capable of hauling it.

Charmine followed behind her and they all went upstairs, with Chris behind them as always.

When the three of them were in, Yvonne placed down her suitcase and closed the door.

Alert at that, Chris instantly jumped in front of Charmine in a shield-like manner.

He glared at Yvonne. “What do you want to do?” “Momo, be good. Don’t worry, Ms. Yvonne has good-intentions. She’s here to help us,” Charmine comforted.

Yvonne frowned and looked at Charmine suspiciously. ‘You know why I came here?’ “If I’m not wrong, Grandma Bailey spoke to Anthony and convinced him to let you stay with us. You’ll try to make Guy fall for you,” answered Charmine emotionlessly. 1

Yvonne seemed impressed. “You’re indeed a woman my cousin fell for.

You’re clever, but that’s not all...”

As she spoke, her cute and innocent face turned serious. Her hands turned into fists as she swung at Charmine.

Charmine frowned. They broke into a fight. 1

While Chris initially wanted to call out for help, he stopped and instead cleverly studied Yvonne's attacks.

She did not mean to harm-Yvonne did not intend to harm Charmine.

Still...

Charmine fought with Yvonne, and the former was always known for her precision and violence. It took them less than ten moves before Charmine's hand was at Yvonne's neck.

Yvonne halted, though it was not long until that adorable and friendly smile returned to grace her features. "You're quite good at this. You're good enough for my cousin!" i Charmine retrieved her hand but before warning Yvonne, "Don't pull that kind of stunt next time. I might end up hurting you." "Oh, you don't want to hurt me. You should be pleasing me. Do you know who sent me here?" asked Yvonne.

Charmine frowned. "Not Grandma Bailey?" "To be honest with you, Susan came looking for me even before Grandma did. Guess what she asked me to do?"

Yvonne had a cheeky smirk as she, without waiting for Charmine to continue, continued, "Susan told me that you're not good enough for my cousin. She wants me to break you two up and stop you two from getting together."

Charmine had a look of concern on her face.

Susan had searched for Yvonne and asked her to do that?

Yvonne smiled. "Though it doesn't matter if she finds me or not. I have eyes to tell whether you're good enough for my cousin or not, and I'll be studying that in the following days. If you please me, I won't ruin things. I might even help you two to go against Susan. There's one thing you don't know, that I know a big secret of hers. With this secret, she'll have to say yes to anything." 3 Charmine frowned. What secret would Susan have?

If that was true, this could save them a lot of trouble...

She looked up at Yvonne. "How do you want to examine us? Just tell me the conditions."

Charmine liked to keep things direct; she did not like to hide things. Yvonne's lips curled up.

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1070

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1070- vonne then said to Charmine, "Don't worry, I'm not a mean person. I'll know you well after spending a few days with you, and I'll then decide whether or not

I'll tell you Susan's secret. If you want to pass my examination, you'll do well to treat me nicely."

With that said, she gave a cheeky smile and winked at Charmine, much to her silent confusion.

'You'll sleep in here. Let us know if there's anything.'

With that said, Charmine held onto Chris' hand as they turned to walk out.

Yvonne was baffled.

Anyone else would have tried to please her upon hearing such an opportunity, yet Charmine just left?

She left?

“Hey, is this how you’re going to treat me?” blurted Yvonne. “Shouldn’t you be treating me nicer? Help me to unpack or something?” “My apologies, but I’ve never been a pleaser, and I never try to,” came Charmine’s calm reply as she led Chris out through the bedroom door. 1

Although she wanted to learn Susan’s secret, she would not please someone just for that.

Yvonne remained perplexed in the room for a good while before she snapped out of her daze.

Anthony was single all these years, just to end up with a woman like that?

She was so arrogant!

However, it would not be as easy to be with her cousin... 1

After quickly unpacking, she opened the door and went out.

Downstairs...

Anthony had his staff prepare a feast. Someone even came over to rearrange the space Guy and Nial lived in.

The originally simple living area had been carpeted and cushioned; it was more comfortable to live in. 1

Guy sat before the table, confused.

“Mr. Bailey, you-” “I suddenly had an epiphany today. Mr. Granger is risking his life to save my wife, and I shouldn’t be making your life harder than it is. Let this be my apology to you. If you ever need anything in the future, please mention them to me. I’ll do anything I can,” confessed Anthony as he picked up the red wine and filled Guy's glass before his own. 1

Guy watched his gesture and his brows furrowed.

Anthony would act like this?

Charmine walked over to Anthony and sat down beside him, equally weirded out as well.

It seemed that Grandma Bailey not only arranged Yvonne to stay with them, but she even offered Anthony a therapy session.

That was good. Hopefully, no more conflict would ensue in the following two months.

If Yvonne and Guy could genuinely catch feelings for one another, that would be ideal...

With that in mind, Charmine signaled Chris.

Chris ran over and quickly sat by Nial's side. This was so that there was only one seat left empty, which was beside Guy's.

When Yvonne came down, she saw the seat and had to sit beside him.

She said to Guy enthusiastically, "Nice to meet you, Mr. Granger. I'm Yvonne Eckert, but you may call me Yvonne. I hope we'll get along well in the following days." i

As she spoke, she reached out her hand at Guy.

Guy halted. While he did not want to take her hand, he knew Anthony would take it as him trying to behave in front of Charmine if he decided not to shake her hand.

Eventually, Guy reached out his hand and shook hands with Yvonne.

When Yvonne saw his hand, she frowned. “Mr. Granger, what’s up with your hand? Is it that dangerous in the army base?” “No, just some minor scars during the daily training. It’s normal,” answered Guy.
