

Chapter 1077

He laughed a little awkwardly.

Jenny Jing looked at An An and said with concern, "How are you guys doing in China? Did you listen to your grandparents?"

Ann nodded heavily and then whispered, "We just miss Mommy, when are you coming home, Mommy?"

Jenny's heart melted as he looked at the aggrieved and sentimental eyes of the little bun.

Even soothingly, "Mommy and Daddy will be back tomorrow, so be good, don't be naughty, and don't make your grandparents angry, okay?"

Ann nodded heavily again.

At that moment, little Competeze leaned in, a soft face and soulful eyes dark and bright.

There was a robot in hand, offering it to her treasure style.

"Look Mommy, this is the robot I assembled and will give it to you when you get back oh."

Jenny looked at him, probably inheriting his high IQ from Biden Lu, little Jing Ze was now only 5 years old but could already do many things on his own, including designing his own robot.

He was very interested and talented in this area, and sometimes made things that put them to shame as adults.

Jenny looked at a pair of children and was incredibly satisfied.

Talked to them for a while longer before hanging up the phone.

Both Quexu and Mo Caiwei knew that it was Ann who had called, and when they saw her hang up, they laughed and asked her about her children.

Jenny replied one by one, and the family drank happily until midnight before dispersing.

Tonight Biden Lu drank a lot of wine and was already a little tipsy when he returned to his room.

But he still remembered that Jenny was pregnant, so he kept holding on to her, not daring to touch her.

Jenny somewhat disliked the smell of alcohol on him and urged him to take a shower as soon as he entered the room.

After Biden Lu got into the bathroom, Jenny Jing dialed Bella Qiao's phone.

Bella Qiao and the others left in the afternoon, and by this time, they were already in Lin City.

Jenny made sure they were safe and gave Bella Qiao a few words of comfort before hanging up the phone.

After a lively day today, Jenny was also a little tired.

After hanging up the phone, he passed out on the bed and fell asleep.

Sometime later, the bathroom door suddenly opened.

When Biden Lu came out of the shower, he saw Jenny Jing lying crookedly on the bed, having fallen asleep.

He was not dumbfounded.

I was going to talk to her about the old days in the evening, but now I don't think it's necessary.

Biden Lu walked over and bent over to k*ss her on the forehead before going to bed and embracing her to sleep.

The next morning, Jenny Jing and Biden Lu embarked on the plane back to China.

Mo Caiwei and Quexu were also going to return home with them, which had been agreed upon a long time ago.

Only with this stall in the middle, there were a lot of things that got delayed.

There are some things on the Quexu side that are still not finished and will take a while.

Mo Caiwei originally planned to go with Jenny and the others first.

But because of this incident, the more she felt the need to cherish more time with the person she loved, so she also decided to stay put until Quexu's side had made arrangements to go over with him.

When Biden Lu and Jenny Jing saw this, neither of them were reluctant.

After all, it wasn't just Quexu and Mo Caiwei who had this kind of perception, they actually had it too.

So, the same day, the two of them personally put Jenny and Biden Lu on the plane.

The flight time was over seven hours.

It was evening by the time we arrived in Kyoto.

Vicky arranged a car to pick them up, and Mo Nan was also in the car, this trip to the desert, everyone had a feeling of living again, and there was also a lot of emotion when they saw each other again.

Back home, both Ann and Little Competeze are excited.

Because both buns had been received by the old man and the old lady at the old mansion, Jenny and Biden Lu also went straight back to the old mansion and did not return to the Maple Bridge Villa first.

The two little ones had known that they were coming back this third, so they waited at home on purpose.

Jenny had just gotten out of the car, and before he could even enter the door, the two little guys came flying all the way out, their mouths screaming with excitement.

"Daddy!Mummy!"

Jenny caught them with a smile, and Biden Lu was worried that they would throw Jenny over, helping her slightly in the back.

Look at them with the eyes that have always been angry.

"How old is it?And so fluffy."

Ann threw her tongue out at him, then hugged Jenny's waist and affectionately said, "Mommy, I miss you so much."

Jenny had been away for so long, why didn't he miss them too?

One left and one right led them inside.

The old lady and the old man were also sitting in the living room, and when they saw them enter the house, they even smiled and asked the maid to take the luggage.

"Back, was it a safe trip?"

Jenny nodded, "It's fine, nothing happened."

"It's fine, it's fine."

What happened abroad, they probably guessed some of it, even though they didn't know the whole picture.

The two old men naturally knew of Biden Lu's other identity.

I just never told Jenny, and now that I'm facing Jenny again, I can't help but feel a pang of guilt.

"Jenny, come sit over here with Grandma, so she can take a good look at you."

Mrs. Sham was smiling.

Jenny let go of the hands of the two buns as he did and walked over.

It was only after sitting down next to the old lady that she took her hand and exclaimed, "This one scared you, didn't it? Was the baby in your belly shocked?"

Jenny didn't want to worry the old man, so he only smiled, "It's fine, it moved the fetus, but it'll heal up later."

Only then did the old lady nod her head in a heartbeat.

"About Biden's identity, we didn't tell you before because we didn't want you to be a little unnecessarily worried if you knew, you wouldn't blame us, would you?"

Jenny was silent.

At this time, Biden Lu had returned from putting away the luggage with the maids, and when he heard her words, his face sank.

"Grandma, what are you talking to Jenny?"

The old lady looked up at him with some anger in her eyes.

"Say what? Can't you say it now that it's over? It's your fault! I told you not to get involved in these matters at first, but you insisted on not listening, how your grandfather and I have been burdened with fear all these years, you little brat just never thought about it!"

The old lady's words caused Biden Lu's handsome face to darken slightly.

Jenny couldn't hold back a puff of laughter.

When she smiled, the atmosphere, which was still a little tense, eased up.

She laughed lightly, "Grandmother, Biden knows that you are worried about him and he feels guilty, so you should stop blaming him."

The old lady shouted immediately yo yo.

"Look, look, look, one second I'm feeling sorry for you, and the next you're speaking for the brat, it really is all little heartless."

Although the old lady's mouth was heartless, her eyebrows couldn't help but smile already.

Obviously, she also knew that Jenny's smile was considered to be really no longer minding the things they had hidden from her before.

Biden Lu was also relieved.

Chapter 1078

He had been afraid that Jenny would centrifuge from him by hiding things from him, but now it didn't look like that would be possible.

Biden Lu finally put his mind at ease.

But reassurance is reassurance, and what needs to be explained still needs to be explained.

So late at night when it was quiet, he pulled Jenny along and told her all about what happened back then.

It turned out that Biden Lu was not a simple businessman from the start.

He studied abroad a long time ago, but the only thing people on the outside know about him is that he studied business administration, but in reality he secretly studied military school as well.

It was in the military academy that an old general picked him out to be an intelligence officer for X agency.

He was considered a direct descendant of the old general, and because of his excellent performance, the position of leader was given to him after the old general retired.

And the task of capturing Nangong Jin was given to him as well.

From that time the war between Biden Lu and Nangong Jin began.

Jenny thought about it carefully, but it was before her first encounter with Biden Lu.

But come to think of it, wasn't the reason they had met then because he had met her on his way to track down Nangong Jin?

Because this is a big nuisance, and there are some elements in it that are not clearly explained by science, this matter has to be kept absolutely secret.

It was also because of the secrecy of the matter that Biden Lu's identity naturally became a secret.

Along with the x-organ that was in charge of this matter, it could not be known to outsiders.

It is easy to imagine how Biden Lu took on this huge responsibility all by himself during those lonely years.

There is no one to understand, and no one to complain to.

No matter what happens, you have to carry it alone, and no matter how tired you are, you can't say a word about it.

Jenny suddenly didn't blame him at all, she suddenly felt very sorry for Biden Lu.

She knew that it must have been hard for Biden Lu during those days, but for the safety of the people, he still persisted.

It took nearly ten long years, but finally Nangong Jin was apprehended.

He was so difficult, if he still blamed him, was he still worthy of being his wife?

Jenny couldn't bear to hear any more and hugged Biden Lu.

"Okay, stop it."

Biden Lu wrapped his arm around her shoulders and gently embraced her in his arms.

He sighed and whispered, "I'm sorry, Jenny, I shouldn't have intentionally hidden it from you."

Jenny Jing, however, only shook his head and said only half-heartedly, "I don't blame you, I know you have your reasons, but now that Nangong Jin is dead, does that mean that the danger is lifted?"

She tilted her head slightly to look at his face, and Biden Lu absently smiled, reaching out and gently scratching her nose.

"How can it be that easy, danger is always present in this world, there is another when one danger is lifted, how can you just say it's gone?"

He quickly touched the worry in Jenny's eyes, and in the end, she couldn't stand her worrying.

And then enlightened, "But don't worry, I'll do my best to keep myself safe, and don't forget that we're going to grow old together."

Jenny giggled, a little touched and a little saddened.

She held Biden Lu's hand and whispered, "You must be well, if anything happens to you, I'll..."

"If anything happens to me, you must be strong and live, no imagination, and no foolishness, understand?"

Biden Lu's tone suddenly became serious and serious, Jenny Jing

My nose was sore and tears were rolling down my face.

Because she suddenly realized that Biden Lu wasn't joking, but was serious.

Seeing her cry, Biden Lu also panicked a bit.

He even coaxed, "Okay, okay, don't cry, it's my fault, if you keep crying like that, my heart will break."

But where could Jenny hold back?

She was already pregnant and more prone to mood swings.

Being told so by Biden Lu, he only felt grief, as if the two of them were going to be separated at any moment, and his emotions simply couldn't be endured.

When Biden Lu saw this situation, he knew that he had said the wrong thing.

In order to coax her to stop crying, busy changing her words: "Okay, okay, I promise you, I will live well, will never go ahead of you, okay?"

You must stop crying like that, I'm not in danger of dying of heartache first."

The man said as he wiped her tears with his hand.

Jenny's emotions couldn't hold back for a moment and hugged him crying even louder.

As I was crying, there was a sudden thumping on the door outside.

Biden Lu was stunned and asked, "Who?"

Outside came the crunchy voices of Ann and Little Competeze.

"Daddy, Mommy, what are you guys doing? Daddy, are you bullying Mommy again? We all heard Mommy's cries."

Both of them were stiff, and Biden Lu was so angry and amused that he yelled at the outside, "Cut the nonsense and go to your sleep! Your mommy is fine and not being bullied!"

Jenny was also a little embarrassed, she blushed and wiped her tears, pushing Biden Lu away to go outside.

Opening the bedroom door, I did see two small packets standing outside with serious faces.

Seeing her out, Ann pulled GaJenny Jing over in one hand.

First, I looked her up and down with concern, noting that her eyes were red, and even said, "Mommy, are you really crying? Did daddy bully you? Well, if daddy bullies you, you tell us and we'll go get revenge for you!"

I said, going to rush into the bedroom.

Jenny was busy pulling them back, only to find them funny.

The pang of sadness I had just felt was suddenly washed away.

She laughed, "Don't be ridiculous, your daddy didn't bully me! We're talking. It's late. Why are you still out there? Don't you have to sleep?"

She purposely tigers her face, pretending to be serious.

Who knew that the two little packets had already eaten her temper to death and weren't afraid of her at all.

Ann said, "I don't have to go to school tomorrow, and I can sleep in a little later as a rule."

Jenny thought about it, as if it were.

Tomorrow is the weekend, so you can sleep late when you don't have school.

Then he turned his attention to the little competitor beside him.

Don't look at little Competeze, he's only four and a half years old, but he's already ghostly.

He averted his eyes and said, "My sister doesn't have to go to school. I can sleep late, little Jing Chul is smart, and I've already finished my early morning classes."

Jenny heard him say that and couldn't help but giggle.

In all my life, I've never seen anyone boast about being smart and so righteous.

But what the two little buns said was true again, they were both smart and sweet kids with high IQs and EQs, and usually didn't need to worry too much about Jenny.

So Jenny didn't want to be too strict with them.

Chapter 1079

Not to mention it's like just that even if she wanted to be strict, she might not be able to be strict.

After all, who could resist two soft little things like that.

Jenny Jing helplessly took them into his arms and sighed, "Okay, then you can play a little longer, you have to be in bed by eleven. May I?"

Both buns nodded heavily.

And suddenly took his hand again.

"Mummy, Mummy, we want to sleep with you tonight."

Jenny was stunned and hadn't had time to reply. The cold voice of Biden Lu came from right behind him.

"Good thinking! It's getting late, get back to bed!"

After saying that, he pulled Jenny over.

As we were about to close the door, the door was unexpectedly stopped by two small packets.

The two little buns looked righteously at Biden Lu and said loudly, "Daddy, you've been dominating mommy for a long time, and we didn't even steal from you during the time we were abroad! Now that Mommy's back with us after all this trouble, do you still want to steal Mommy from us? Daddy, you're so bad! Mommy, let me sleep with us tonight, okay?"

The two little buns were pestering Jenny left and right, and Jenny's heart melted, where else could he refuse?

She didn't even bother to say yes.

"Okay, okay, I'll sleep with you tonight."

As soon as this was said, Biden Lu's face was completely gloomy.

But it's clear that no one cares about his feelings anymore.

Jenny didn't say anything else and dragged the two buns to their room.

So the scene was left with only Biden Lu standing alone in the bedroom.

The villa was so big that usually little Competeze and Ann slept in separate rooms.

But since they both wanted to sleep with Jenny, there was no way they could be apart tonight.

The bed in Ann's room was a little bigger, so Kyunin ended up taking Little Competeze and Ann to Ann's room.

The three of them lay in the same bed, but it wasn't crowded at all.

Because Ann's room, even though it's still a child's design, even a child's bed is more than two meters long and there's no fear of not being able to sleep.

Jenny smiled, "Well, I'm over here now, what do you guys want me to do?"

Ann pulled a children's book out of the side and shoved it into her hand.

"Mummy, I want to hear the story."

Jenny nodded as he flipped through the book and asked, "Okay, what story do you want to hear?"

"I want to hear the story of the Ice Queen."

Little Competeze didn't like to hear about the Ice Queen, but he'd learned from a young age that boys had to give in to girls.

My sister is a girl, and since she likes the Ice Queen, she'll listen to the Ice Queen!

So little competitor stopped talking too.

Jenny just held the book, her voice soft as she told them the story of the Ice Queen.

The two kits leaned into her arms, one on each side, listening to her gentle voice, and it wasn't long before there were soft, long breaths.

Jenny looked down and saw that both of the pouches were asleep.

She smiled without smiling and sidled up to k*ss one of the two buns on the forehead.

Then he gently pulled his arm out again and tucked them in.

I was about to turn off the light and go to sleep when I suddenly saw a furtive shadow at the door and was walking in lightly.

Her eyelids fluttered, and before she could speak, her ankle was gripped.

r

Jenny was shocked and lowered her voice to ask, "What are you doing?"

Biden Lu snorted, "Only they are allowed to sleep with you, not me anymore?"

Jenny couldn't stop laughing and crying.

"What kind of jealousy are you getting? It's your daughter and your son."

Biden Lu snorted again.

In his heart, he searched for the reason that he wouldn't have allowed Jenny to come over if it wasn't for the fact that it was his own seed.

To be able to lend them Jenny's story for half an hour or so was already an extra-legal favor to them.

Biden Lu hugged the two little buns to the side a bit, then squeezed in through the middle with a pillow and took Jenny Jing into his arms.

Jenny was simply so angry and amused that he pushed him.

"Hey, go back to your own room, this bed is too small for all of us."

Biden Lu snorted, "How small is the bed that is more than two squint? It's not like they take up much room for two little kids to sleep in."

Saying that, he hugged Jenny and whispered, "It's getting late, hurry up and go to sleep."

Where could Jenny sleep? Biden Lu's hands hadn't been very honest, moving around her waist.

She was afraid that when two small children woke up and saw this, it would be really less of a scene.

She had to take a step back and say, "Go back to your room and I'll come back when they're asleep."

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows, "Really?"

Jenny sighed helplessly, "Really really, what if it's fake, what if you come over again in the middle of the night?"

Lu Jing deeply thought about it.

So that didn't embarrass her, and she left with the pillow again.

Jenny was really helpless.

The only thing that could be coaxed was to leave quietly after both buns had fallen asleep, making sure they wouldn't wake up again.

So the next morning, when the two pouches woke up, they found no sign of Jenny in bed.

And after going out, Jenny Jing even came out of her and Biden Lu's bedroom.

The two bunnies' grumbling is even greater.

Jenny was also a little embarrassed when she saw the two of them with grumbling expressions.

She touched her nose and smiled, about to explain something.

Ann suddenly grabbed her hand and asked in a serious and serious way, "Mommy, did Daddy steal you away last night when we weren't looking? He must have forced you to do it, right? You sure you want to sleep with us, don't you?"

Jenny Jing's smile stiffened, and the words he was about to explain stuck in his throat.

Her conscience lasted only a few seconds under the expectant gaze of the two pouches before she surrendered completely.

Nodding heavily, "Yes, you're right, she's the one who forced me to do it."

"I knew it!"

Ann shook her fist heavily, looking indignant.

"I knew this would happen, Daddy's so bad!"

Kyozawa also grunted with discontent.

"A man's word is his word, and I don't like daddy anymore when he keeps his word."

Jenny was made to laugh and cry by the little packets, and just then, Biden Lu came out of the bedroom with satisfaction.

When he saw the two indignant-looking kits, his eyes flashed with a guilty conscience, but he quickly calmed down.

Pretending to pass by them as if nothing had happened, he even stretched arrogantly.

Two little buns: "..."

Daddy is really really really bad!

This resentment continued throughout the day.
