

Chapter 1159

Dalia smiled sadly: "I am greedy, I shouldn't be greedy for one million people..."

"But she beat you! Want to kill you?"

Dalia: "Well, if a mountain man hadn't saved me, I might have died on the top of the mountain last night."

"A55hole, D*mn it!" Suzi suddenly scolded.

Dalia smiled relievedly: "It's okay, Suzi, I'm fine now, I'm full and it's not cold. I haven't seen you for more than half a month. What happened to you suddenly occurred to me? Going to the hospital to make trouble, did you hurt you? Are you okay now?"

"I'm fine Sister Shan, my matter has been resolved, thank you for your concern about me, where are you, I will pick you up?" Suzi asked with concern.

"No need, that... Mr. Jun, he... don't you ask me for debts?" Dalia asked worriedly again.

As soon as her voice fell, Kraig grabbed the phone from Suzi again: "Ashan, where are you? Tell me I will pick you up now! Listen, you are too stupid, you can't survive outside. , You come back! Come back to me!"

Dalia: "You...what did you say?"

"Come back!" Kraig ordered.

He is not actually an order, he is just anxious and anxious.

However, his tone became a kind of fear in Dalia's ears.

Dalia immediately hung up the phone.

Kraig: "Ashan, Ashan..."

At that end, there is already a busy tone.

Suzi stared at Kraig with angrily: "Kraig! You idiot! Your Elma almost killed her! If you ask her to come back in such a commanding tone, you will scare her, don't you know? Know, idiot!"

She was really anxious.

If in normal times, she would not talk to Kraig like this.

After all, Kraig is a few months older than Arron, and Arron has always been polite to Kraig.

Why is she arrogant?

But at this moment, Suzi was mad at death.

"Why can't you let me talk to her slowly, tell her slowly, I might get her back, you said it yourself, she has no survival ability, you still scared her like this!"

Kraig: "..."

Suzi suddenly smiled sadly: "Such a good woman, I'm really afraid that I won't be able to find her in this life. I don't know if she will call again."

Suzi guessed right.

Dalia really won't call again.

When she was driven out of the house by Kraig half a month ago, Suzi was in dire straits.

And she remembered that at that time, Kraig blamed her for going to the hospital to make trouble, causing Suzi to be caught by the old man Shu, so at this moment, when she got better, she immediately called to ask about Suzi's situation.

Since Suzi is safe and sound now, she feels less guilt.

As for Kraig, if she didn't owe Kraig, she would never want to see this person in this life.

Because I didn't have a face, because I felt that for so many years, I actually depended on Kraig.

In this life, she will no longer meet with Kraig.

There is no signal on the mountain. Dalia's call was made from someone else's mobile phone rented at the foot of the mountain.

Returning the phone to the family, Dalia stumbled back to the stone house in the deep forest and said to the man who had saved her: "Excuse me, Brother Han, I can't be here anymore, I have to go."

Han asked honestly, "Where are you going?"

"Outside, the farther the better." Dalia said.

Chapter 1160

To be sure, Dalia looked at the old lady who had taken care of her all night, and yelled gently and gratefully: "Old grandma, thank you, I wanted to live here for a while to take care of you and repay your kindness, but I am now, someone is chasing me, I must go. I will repay your kindness later."

The old lady burst into tears: "My child, why is your life so bitter? You have the same bitter life as mine."

Dalia: "..."

She looked at the old lady with a slightly incomprehensible expression, and then at Colli Han in front of her.

Han honestly smiled mildly: "Why don't I leave this place with you with my old mother on my back? Shall we go to the Northeast?"

Dalia: "...Honest brother, you...what do you mean?"

Han said honestly: "I can hear that you are not a local accent. Nancheng is southerly, and your accent is Wu Nong's soft language, but your accent is very pure northern standard dialect. Tell you the truth, I am actually a northerner. ."

Dalia: "You...you are not an old resident in this mountain?"

Han said frankly, "No, my old lady and I had nowhere to go, so I lived in this mountain. I thought I would be like this in my life. Every day I catch a bit of meat in the mountains to improve my old lady, and then I just messed up like this. After the days pass, it's forgotten."

Dalia: "Honest brother, have you been wronged before?"

Han honestly smiled sadly: "It's no better than you."

Dalia: "..."

She immediately looked at Han Honshi with sympathy.

At the same time, the heart has a kind of dependence.

She looked at Han Honest, and listened to Han Honestly talking about his experience.

Colli Han's real name is not Colli Han. It is the nickname given to him after he joined a well-respected one-child family in Nancheng, Colli Han.

His real name is Collin Han.

Collin was born in a small mountain village in the northeast. When he was a child, his family was poor, and because his father died of illness when he was very young, the family owed a share of debt due to his father's illness.

Mother led her to a difficult life alone, and when others were in school, her mother reluctantly let him go to school.

Unfortunately, when others have shoes to wear, he can only wear small shoes with toes on the outside.

However, Collin's academic performance is very good.

He is simple and honest and obedient, but his academic performance is good, his brain is clever and easy to use, so his mother has always been reluctant to delay his studies.

Until he entered high school, his mother worked very hard for him to study, but unfortunately, his mother's health was getting worse and worse.

Later, it was too bad to get out of bed, let alone work on the ground.

Only then did Collin discover that his mother would often go to the black market secretly to exchange money with his own blood in order to help him study and study.

At that time, I had read that high school Collin suddenly knelt before his mother's bed in pain.

He vowed not to study anymore.

What if you don't go to university?

Although college is the only way for him to change the fate of a young man in the mountains, but if he is admitted to college, but his mother is killed because of it, then he has no one and only relatives. What does he want to do in a better life?

No matter how his mother beat and scolded Collin, Collin just stopped studying.

He wants to make money and support his mother.

At first in the small county in the mountains, he really couldn't find a lucrative job. At that time, the real estate hadn't been developed much, and he couldn't even find a job on the construction site.
