

“How dare the Lu and the Xur families do this! How dare they insult me! Dad, please permit me to bring men into China to slaughter those clans! They have to pay the price for humiliating the Chu family!”

Inside the room, Chu Qi-Tian’s furious voice boomed.

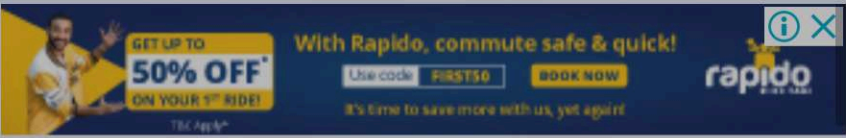

Chu Qi-Tian had never suffered such a colossal insult before.

How could they scold his ancestors and call him a bastard?

Who could swallow this?

However, Chu Qi-Tian was too young after all. In comparison, Chu Zheng-Liang didn’t seem particularly upset.

He comforted him, “Qi-Tian, calm down. They are just two insignificant families. It’s a piece of cake for us to destroy them. As the future leader of the Chu family, how can you get angry over ants like them? You have to focus on why this happened. These families had always treated us with respect for years. Now both of them suddenly decided to sever ties with the Chu family. There must be some reason they are doing this. Gather any information on China, especially those regarding these families, and find out why things have changed.”

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

Since Chu Zheng-Liang was capable of taking over Chu Zheng-Hong as the head of the family, he was naturally an able man.

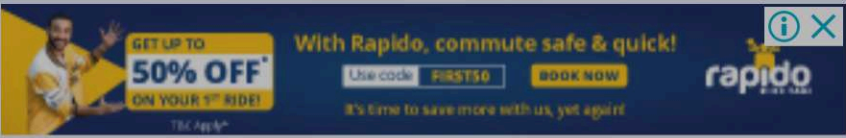

Amid Chu Qi-Tian’s fury, he had already recognized the problem at the root.

He had a feeling that that was a bigger problem behind these actions.

Sure enough, Chu Qi-Tian hurried back ten minutes later.

“Dad, as you expected, something happened to the Lu and Xur families. Xur Jun-Lin, the leader of the Xur family, passed away and was quietly buried. Of his two sons, one was jailed while the other was suspended and demoted in the army. As for the Lu family, their entire clan was banished from Yanjing completely!” Chu Qi-Tian reported the matter to his father anxiously.

Chu Zheng-Liang’s expression immediately fell and darkened.

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

Chu Zheng-Liang couldn't help feeling more worried when he heard the outcome of the report.

“Why? Were you able to find out why?” asked Chu Zheng-Liang even though he had an inkling.

Chu Qi-Tian shook his head. “The channels have all been sealed. All our informants in China were incapable of finding out the details.”

Chu Zheng-Liang laughed coldly. “It seems that abandoned kid has gotten to the two families alright.”

“That abandoned kid?” Chu Qi-Tian’s face twitched. “Dad, do you mean the trouble these families are causing have something to do with Chu Tian-Fan? But didn’t you kill him at sea? Do you mean he survived?”

Chu Qi-Tian was shocked.

Although they had been investigating into Ye Fan’s death since they still couldn’t find any concrete proof of his death, Chu Qi-Tian felt Ye Fan was already dead. It was impossible for him to have survived that attack.

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

Hence, he couldn't help trembling when he heard what his father said.

Chu Zheng-Liang nodded. "Sato and the others were killed one after another. The powers I sent to Jiangdong were attacked. All signs suggest he is alive. We really underestimated him. I didn't expect him to survive. Also, he already started to retaliate so quickly. Well done. He certainly is my brother's son and has the Chu family's blood running through him."

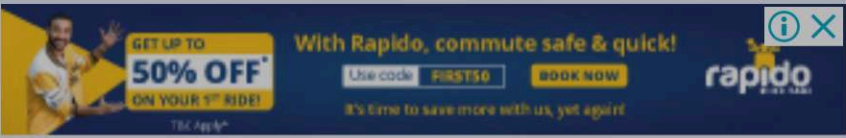

Chu Zheng-Liang laughed coldly, but his voice sounded murderous.

"Dad, since you are certain he is alive, then give me some men so that I can enter Jiangdong in secret tomorrow and slaughter him to finish him off for good!"

Chu Qi-Tian hated Ye Fan to the core.

He hated Ye Fan for his status as the first born son of the family, and also his terrifying speed of growth.

He would rather finish off this powerful opponent as soon as he could.

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

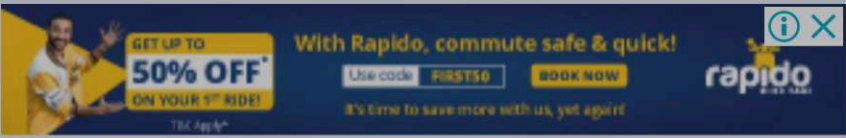

Or else, Chu Qi-Tian would probably end up losing sleep worrying about him.

However, Chu Zheng-Liang waved his hand and said, "We don't have to keep such a close eye on him just yet. I just got news from Chu Sect. The spirit energy fruit in the north will mature in a few days. All eyes are on it and Chu Sect has prioritized this matter. The sect leader will be back in a few days. When she returns, a meeting will be convened to decide who to send to the north."

"During this time, we shouldn't worry about handling the punk. Once everything is over, I will encircle him and kill him at all costs. Only one 'Tian' character descendant should be allowed to live, and that is you, my son!" Chu Zheng-Liang spoke deeply as his dark eyes glinted.

Chu Qi-Tian nodded in agreement with an unbridled smile on his face.

"Then I will let the country bumpkin live for a few more days. When is Master coming back? I haven't seen her for over half a year. Did anything happen to her?" asked Chu Qi-Tian somewhat worriedly.

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

The master he was talking about was none other than the leader of the most formidable sect in the world, Chu Sect, Tang Yun!

“Did something happen?” Chu Zheng-Liang shook his head and laughed. “It seems you don’t understand the sect leader’s prowess. To think you are even her disciple. Have you heard of Sky Ranking? It is the most internationally recognized ranking of martial artists. Your master is number one on the ranking. Since she is first on the ranking, that makes her the most powerful martial artist in the world. Do you think anyone is capable of making trouble for her?”

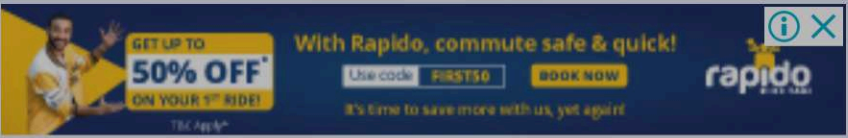

Chu Zheng-Liang laughed gently.

There weren’t a lot of women whom Chu Zheng-Liang admired in the world.

However, Tang Yun, the chief of Chu Sect, was certainly one of them!

All this time, Chu Zheng-Liang treated Tang Yun as his idol and lifelong ambition.

He even made his progeny treat her with the same respect and admiration.

Chapter 1174 Number One on the Sky Ranking

“That’s true. Master is number one on the Sky Ranking, so what could possibly happen to her? I was just too worried.”

Chu Qi-Tian laughed in self-deprecation before retiring for the night.

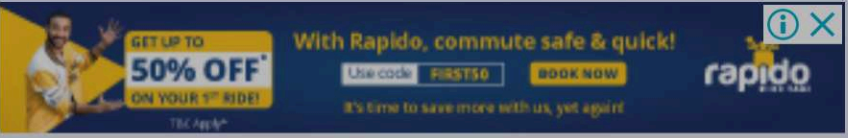

The study reverted to silence.

The night went by quickly.

The next day, Long Bai-Chuan’s flight landed at Jiangdong International Airport.

According to Ye Fan’s orders, they could go on their way after the mission was completed.

Before they parted ways, Long Bai-Chuan bowed to the man in black and said reverently, “It is my honor to be able to work with Dragon God on this mission. Now that we are saying goodbye, I wonder if I have the honor of knowing your name?”

Even though the two of them had spent a lot of time together in Japan, they barely exchanged a few words. Since this Dragon God was taciturn in nature, Long Bai-Chuan didn't dare to ask for his name despite his curiosity.

Now that they were about to part ways, Long Bai-Chuan was incapable of suppressing his curiosity.

The man in black said nothing and didn't even stop walking.

Just as Long Bai-Chuan lost all hope, a bright laughter came from in front of him.

“I am the God of Bronze and Fire, Owen!”

His proud voice reverberated through the air.

Long Bai-Chuan looked up to see that the man in black had already disappeared.

However, Long Bai-Chuan continued to stand where he was for a long time wrapped in thought. “God of Bronze and Fire, Owen?”

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

In Yunzhou, at the villa in the suburbs.

It was dawn, and sunlight was just peeking out from the sky. The weather was perfect.

Qiu Mu-Cheng had already gone to the office at this hour, so only Ye Fan remained in the villa.

Ye Yu-Yan and the others had already returned to the base.

After all, they hadn't finished working on the training that Ye Fan had set out for them. Since they were done with their business in Yunzhou, they ought to return to the base and continue training.

Ye Fan was on the phone talking to someone.

"Dragon Master, mission accomplished. All the targets are dead. Do you have any other orders for me?"

A man's reverent voice came from over the phone.

It was none other than the Dragon God who had just parted ways with Long Bai-Chuan,

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

Owen.

Ye Fan nodded and asked, “Considering the major commotion you caused in Japan, the Japanese martial arts circle must be pissed, right?”

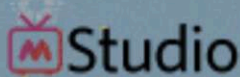

These two grandmasters invaded Japan and killed countless people.

Any country would have regarded this as a major international problem.

From the start, Ye Fan already anticipated retaliation from the Japanese martial arts circle.

“Uh huh. Just like you expected, we were encircled by the Japanese martial artists after we slaughtered the targets. Also, even the Moon God got involved. I have to admit that she certainly lives up to her name as the Japanese martial arts goddess. She had such profoundly incredible skills that even I probably wouldn’t have survived a single blow from her. If not for you, River Dragon and I would have died on foreign soil.”

Owen’s deep voice came from over the phone.

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

Even till now, fear lingered in Owen's heart as he recalled that fateful scene with Moon God.

It had been unprecedentedly scary.

It felt as though someone was strangling his throat and could kill him anytime.

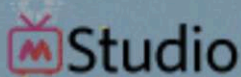

However, Ye Fan didn't seem the least bit shocked to hear this. Instead, he laughed gently and said, "Even I can't outdo Eigetsuchan, so it's normal for you to feel this way."

"Oh yes, Dragon Master. Moon God has a message for you. She said no matter what happens, you will remain her most beloved master. Even if she loses all consciousness and cease to exist, she will continue to protect you."

Owen's deep voice came from over the phone.

Ye Fan couldn't help feeling touched when he heard this.

He didn't expect that the young woman would care about him so much even now.

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

He didn't expect that the things he did out of sympathy for the girl back in the day would have such a lasting effect.

“That was thoughtful of her. Sadly, she leads such a pitiful life.”

Despite the few words Suzumiya Eigetsu had for him, Ye Fan could tell she didn't have much time left in the world.

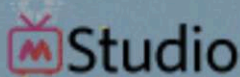

In hindsight, how could two souls coexist in a single body?

Sooner or later, Suzumiya Eigetsu's soul would disappear.

Even Ye Fan didn't know whether she would still recognize him when the day came.

“Sigh. It's too bad that I wasn't powerful enough. If I could master the ninth level of Invoke the Celestial Cloud, I would be able to destroy Tsukuyomi Tenshin or any other Japanese god for that matter with a flick of my finger.”

Ye Fan shook his head and sighed in his heart.

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

Invoke the Celestial Cloud was capable of absorbing energy on earth and changing fate.

Chu Sect had managed to rise and stand at the pinnacle of the martial arts circle with just half the Invoke the Celestial Cloud manual.

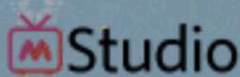

According to his great-grandmother, other than their ancestor who created Invoke the Celestial Cloud, no one else in the family had been able to master it entirely all these years.

However, just half the Invoke the Celestial Cloud was enough to make the clan the most formidable force in the world for a century. Hence, its powers were evident.

Even Ye Fan couldn't imagine how powerful it would be when he managed to master everything.

While Ye Fan was lost in his thoughts, Owen's voice came from over the phone.

"Dragon Master, I can tell Moon God really loves you. In that case, why don't you marry her? Since she is both stunning and powerful, only a man like you is good enough for her. If you can take her into your harem, she would be a major help in the future. Dragon God Hall might finally have a greater chance of surpassing the Chu family,” Owen spoke so energetically that it felt as though the world was at his feet.

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

Veins throbbed on Ye Fan’s face as he scolded Owen, “What harem? Haven’t I suffered enough with just one wife? If I have one more, I might just die. From now on, don’t say such things! If Mu-Cheng hears this, I might get killed!”

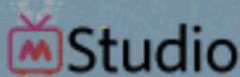

Ye Fan didn't know whether to laugh or cry when he heard what Owen said.

How could that idiot come up with such a rotten idea?

Firstly, Ye Fan was married. But even if he was single, he didn't want to marry the Moon God either.

After all, the Moon God was a Japanese religion and guardian of Japan.

Wouldn't it drive the Japanese martial arts circle insane if he married a woman like her and take her back to China?

Chapter 1175 God of Bronze and Fire

Moreover, the Moon God only had feelings for Ye Fan because of Suzumiya Eigetsu.

After her consciousness blended with that of Suzumiya Eigetsu's completely, all her feelings would disappear too.

The things Owen had talked about never once crossed Ye Fan's mind.

"Enough. Since you've completed your mission, you can go back from where you came."

Ye Fan seemed disinterested in chatting, so he was ready to hang up on Owen.

"Okay. But Dragon Master, when will Operation Ablaze start?" asked Owen.

Ye Fan replied deeply, "Go back and wait for orders."

Ye Fan hung up the phone after that.

Sato was now dead, and the first division was destroyed. Ye Fan had avenged most of the surprise attack on the Pacific Ocean. All that was left was the Chu family.

"I, Chu Tian-Fan, will settle both our old and new scores soon!"

Ye Fan clenched his fists tightly as a menacing light radiated from his eyes.

The events that happened on that little island that day appeared in his mind again.

Ye Fan would never forget that sinister and heartless face and silhouette till the day he died.

However, now was not the time to settle the score with the Chu family.

Ever since Jiangdong's crisis occurred, Ye Fan found it even more important to create a defense formation.

Ye Fan wasn't talking about the battle arrays used during the warring eras, but the sort of formations that used spiritual energy to defend its user.

It was mentioned in Book of Celestial Cloud that it could be built using yasakani jade.

Ye Fan went to Japan with Suzumiya Eigetsu so that he could obtain the Japanese sacred object, the yasakani jade.

He could build a defense formation using it.

Sadly, so many things happened since that Ye Fan only had the time to consider it now.

In order to build the defense formation, he had to select a location.

At first, Ye Fan wanted to do it in one of two places.

The first choice was Mount Yunding at Yunzhou. If he set the formation here, he could protect Yunzhou and Qiu Mu-Cheng.

The second choice was the Ye estate in Jingzhou.

That way, he could protect his mother, grandfather, and his other relatives at Jingzhou in times of crisis.

Ye Fan kept deliberating between both these locations and couldn't make up his mind.

Ye Fan also considered moving his mother and his relatives to Yunzhou to stay under one roof with Qiu Mu-Cheng. That way, he only needed to create one main formation here.

However, Ye Fan found this unwise after much consideration.

Firstly, there was a Mufan Group branch office in Jingzhou which needed his mother's attention.

Secondly, while it was alright for in-laws to stay under one roof for a short period of time, conflicts would probably arise in the long term.

Moreover, were his grandfather and his other relatives going to live with Qiu Mu-Cheng too?

In the end, Ye Fan decided to create two formations after weighing all pros and cons.

The main formation would be located in Yunzhou while he created a secondary one in Jingzhou!

That way, all his loved ones would be protected.

However, now was not the time to create the formation.

The villa had been destroyed, so Li Er and the others were reconstructing it at top speed.

If Ye Fan wanted to create the formation, he had to wait until the construction of Mount Yunding Villa was completed.

Hence, Ye Fan had to postpone Operation Ablaze while waiting for the construction to finish.

Just as Ye Fan was contemplating details about how to set up the formation, a car suddenly drove towards the villa.

The door opened, and Li Er's courteous voice came, "Mr Chu, it's Li Er. I am here to pick you up like you asked."

Ye Fan nodded before walking out of the house to tell Li Er to send him to Mount Yunding Villa.

"Hmm? Mr Chu, why are you going there? The place is under construction, so everything is a mess," asked Li Er quizzically.

Ye Fan replied calmly, "Tell them to take the day off. All the workers are to leave the mountain and come back tomorrow."

"Er..."

Li Er's lips twitched. He had no idea what Ye

Fan meant by this.

Why did he suddenly want to give the workers a day off?

However, Li Er didn't keep probing when Ye Fan didn't plan on explaining. Instead, he sent all the workers away and gave them a day off like Ye Fan ordered.

Li Er drove the car and brought Ye Fan to Mount Yunding's peak.

There were all kinds of construction materials and machines at the peak.

The lavish villa located there had already been demolished.

The entire area looked like it was undergoing rebuilding in the aftermath of some natural catastrophe. Li Er couldn't understand why Ye Fan insisted on coming.

“Li Er, get the men to clean up a small space and set up a coffee table, two seats, a pot of tea, and two teacups. I'm meeting someone here. Hurry up,” said Ye Fan after reaching the peak.

Li Er felt even more puzzled.

“Mr Chu, are you meeting guests here? Are you sure? Why don't I give Haiyuan Restaurant a call so that they can give you a private room instead? It will be more comfortable for your guests,” asked Li Er as he looked at Ye Fan.

Ye Fan waved his hand. “It's fine. I want to do it here. If we change locations, she might not be able to find me.”

Since Ye Fan insisted, Li Er stopped trying to convince him otherwise.

He shook his head as he smiled sadly. Brilliant people like Mr Chu certainly thought out of the box.

Li Er made arrangements to set up the table and chairs.

30 minutes later, everyone left the mountain.

Only a single man, table, and two cups of tea remained on the peak.

A young man sat on the ground on the peak as the fragrance of tea filled the air.

It felt as though he was a highly skilled hermit waiting for someone of destiny to turn up.

In the distance, a gentle breeze left Yunwu Lake undulating.

Ye Fan's bangs fluttered in the wind.

By his side was an exquisitely wrapped package.

No one knew what was in the package.

Meanwhile, at a small restaurant not far from the peak, a woman dressed in purple was seated quietly.

She had an extraordinary aura. Despite the veil on her face, it was impossible to conceal her stunning beauty.

She was so beautiful that all the women around her paled in comparison.

The men around her kept looking over in awe and envy.

If they hadn't seen her beauty firsthand, no one would believe such a beautiful woman

She had a perfect figure and a cold yet surreal goddess-like aura.

During this time, countless good-looking rich men's sons attempted to talk to her and get close.

After all, the woman was simply stunning.

She was far more beautiful than the female celebrities whom they had flings with.

However, she turned a deaf ear to their flirting and ignored them.

She continued to look out the window towards Mount Yunding peak.

She could almost see a young man sitting on the ground on Mount Yunding's peak.

Amid everyone's stares, she looked at the young man at the peak.

Time went by swiftly.

At noon, a gorgeous young woman suddenly came in from outside.

"Oh my. Another beauty?"

"What's going on today?"

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

“Why are there suddenly so many beautiful women in Yunzhou?”

“Look at those legs? Look at her fine figure and slender waist? Damn it! If I could marry someone as beautiful as her, I don’t mind exchanging ten years of my life for her.”

All humans had a penchant for beauty.

It didn't matter where it was. Beautiful women always became the center of attention.

Even though the woman who had just arrived couldn't compare to the woman in purple in terms of looks and aura, she could easily surpass countless other women.

Even rich young men who had seen their fair share of women couldn't help sighing when they caught sight of this beautiful woman who was more beautiful than any woman in Yunzhou.

After the young woman turned up, she walked to the window and was instantly delighted when she saw the woman in purple.

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

“Master, I finally found you. I came the moment I received your message. Shall we head back? The sect elders are looking for you everywhere. I think they have something important to discuss with you.”

The young woman seemed delighted to find the woman in purple and kept persuading her to go.

Instead, the woman in purple had no intention of leaving. She replied gently when she caught sight of the young woman, “Hang on.”

“Okay.”

The young woman assumed that her master had some business to attend to, so she nodded in agreement.

However, a few hours later, her master continued sitting there looking out the window motionlessly while the sky turned dark and the sun had set.

“Master, what are you waiting for? You have left the sect for a long time now. It's about time you went back. If you don't have any urgent business, then let's go. All the sect elders are so anxious to see you.” In the end, the young woman couldn't contain her anxiety and convinced her master again.

However, the woman in purple shook her head again and replied, “Wait a while more.”

Time went by slowly.

All the other patrons in the restaurant came and went.

On Mount Yunding's peak, the tea was replaced each time it went cold.

They were in the same city but in different places. One was in a restaurant while the other sat on the peak. However, both of them were waiting.

He was waiting for her, and she was waiting for him.

It was almost midnight. Before long, it would be the next day.

However, the silhouette on Mount Yunding kept waiting there.

In the end, her heart softened. Some warmth

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

finally appeared in her heart that had been lonely and solitary for so long.

She turned to tell her disciple, “Wan-Yu, go to Mount Yunding’s peak and help me look for someone. I have a message for him.”

“Huh? Look for someone?”

Meng Wan-Yu was surprised. She wondered who her master wanted her to see.

Did her master have friends in Yunzhou?

On Mount Yunding’s peak, the damp night breeze swept through the air.

The young man continued sitting there while making tea to drink under the moonlight.

“Mr Chu, it’s already the next day. I don’t think your friend is coming. It’s getting late, and it’s very humid now. Why don’t we head back?” persuaded Li Er.

Since he was the one who sent Ye Fan here, he didn’t dare to leave without Ye Fan.

However, Ye Fan laughed gently at Li Er. “It’s her choice whether she wants to come or not, but it is my business to wait as well. Since I have promised to wait for her here, I must keep my promise. I will not leave before the day is over.”

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

Li Er sighed deeply and didn't go on talking and simply waited with Ye Fan.

The night air was perfect, and the moon was beautiful.

On Mount Yunding's peak, a gentle breeze left the trees and grass swaying.

In the distance, the chirping of insects rang melodiously.

The young man continued to wait.

He had already had countless pots of tea.

Anyone else would have left angrily after waiting like this all day.

However, Ye Fan didn't seem the least bit impatient and remained calm. He looked so nonchalant that he seemed like a still lake.

Li Er secretly felt shocked by the sight.

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

He couldn't help feeling curious about who on earth could make Ye Fan wait for an entire day willingly.

In Li Er's opinion, no one else in China could compare to Ye Fan in terms of power after he had been made supreme grandmaster.

After all, Ye Fan even managed to trample elite clans like the Lu and Xur families under his feet.

Ye Fan's power was no longer restricted only to Jiangdong and had major impact throughout the rest of China.

Even the provincial secretary of Jiangdong didn't have the right to make Ye Fan wait all day.

"Who could it be?"

Li Er kept trying to guess who it was but couldn't figure it out.

Time went by gradually.

At midnight, Li Er walked up to him while the rest of the city slept. He said to Ye Fan courteously, "Mr Chu, it's almost midnight.

Chapter 1177 Was She Here?

Let's go back."

"Oh? It's nearly midnight?" Ye Fan shook his head and sighed. His eyes instantly welled with disappointment.

She really wasn't coming after all.

"This woman refuses even to give me the chance to thank her." Ye Fan exhaled deeply before giving up and going back.

However, a beautiful silhouette suddenly appeared in the darkness quietly.

The young woman seemed young but had exquisite features and an extraordinary aura.

The long green dress perfectly complimented her flawless figure.

She was captivating under the soft moonlight.

Li Er was instantly awestruck by her beauty.

In his heart, he wondered how much of a stunner she would end up in the future when she was already so stunning at this tender age.

The young woman was here to look for Mr Chu?

Li Er was instantly stunned.

He wondered whether this was the person whom Mr Chu was waiting for.

Li Er instantly smiled.

He was initially curious as to who on earth could keep Mr Chu waiting.

From the looks of it now, it wasn't a bigshot but a lover.

However, Li Er quickly realized that his imagination had run wild.

"Who are you?" Ye Fan nodded and acknowledged her before walking over to ask her curiously who she was.

"Are you Mr Chu?" Meng Wan-Yu's eyes narrowed when she saw Ye Fan.

She was clearly startled by how young Ye Fan was.

She didn't expect that the person whom her master had spent the entire day waiting for before sending her to pass a message was a young man around her age.

After spending so many years with her master, Meng Wan-Yu was keenly aware of her personality.

She was always cold and lived alone. Other than sect business, she barely spoke to others.

Even her disciples barely had any opportunity to speak to her.

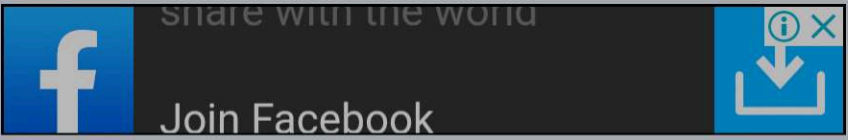

But now her master wasted an entire day for this unknown Chinese man.

Meng Wan-Yu couldn't help feeling surprised.

She couldn't help feeling curious about how this man was related to her master.

"Uh huh." Ye Fan nodded. "Who are you?"

"You don't need to know. I'm here at Master's orders to tell you not to wait. She won't come even if you wait until daybreak. Everything is in the past. Since Yu Yun doesn't exist to begin with, there is no need for you to think about her.”

Her cold words quietly rang in the night air.

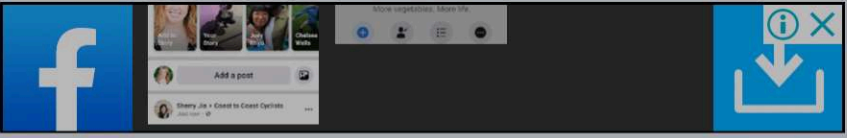

Meng Wan-Yu turned to leave without lingering.

“Hold on, Miss. She must be nearby, right? Can you take me to see her? I just want to thank her in person for helping me!” said Ye Fan anxiously. He instantly stood up to stop Meng Wan-Yu from leaving.

“It's fine. Master made it clear. If she doesn't want to see you, even if you chased her to the ends of the world, you won't be able to see her,” refused Meng Wan-Yu bluntly.

Ye Fan shook his head and smiled. “That's true. Based on her personality, if she didn't want to see me, I wouldn't be able to do anything even if I chased after her. Forget it. Let's leave it at that. Miss, can you pass her something for me? It's something I owe her, so it's about time I returned it.”

Ye Fan handed an exquisitely wrapped package to Meng Wan-Yu as he spoke.

Chapter 1178 Ye Fan's Gift

Meng Wan-Yu thought Ye Fan wanted to give her master something to ingratiate himself to her, so she wanted to turn him down.

But she accepted it when she realized Ye Fan was trying to return it to her master.

"Please thank her for me when you see her. I will always remember the help she gave me at Jingzhou! Regardless of whether she exists or not, she will live in my heart forever."

A few minutes later, Meng Wan-Yu left with Ye Fan's gift.

Ye Fan continued to stand at Mount Yunding's peak as he watched Meng Wan-Yu walk away into the distance.

"Mr Chu, if you really want to see her, why don't we follow her secretly?" suggested Li Er.

Ye Fan shook his head. "It's fine. Since she doesn't want to see me, why force her? All I need to know is that she is in Yunzhou."

Ye Fan smiled as he spoke in a deep voice with an inexplicable light radiating from his Ye Fan thought the woman wasn't going to come.

After all, they barely knew each other and only happened to spend a few months together due to a coincidence.

Moreover, Ye Fan knew the woman was always unusually proud and distant, so she probably didn't take his parting words to heart.

But it seemed like she did remember their date.

"Let's go. Send me back."

Ye Fan waved his hand and laughed brightly before taking the car back to the bungalow in the western suburbs.

At Yunwu Lake, a woman dressed in purple stood waiting.

Meng Wan-Yu repeated Ye Fan's message to the woman.

When the woman heard what Ye Fan had to say, a wave of emotions suddenly surged in her calm heart.

“Anything else? Did he say anything else?” her cold voice rang.

Some women's voices sounded as melodious as the song of birds.

If Long Bai-Chuan and Owen were around, they would be shocked to see how much this woman resembled the Moon God of Japan when she spoke.

Meng Wan-Yu felt shocked and curious.

It was the first time she saw her master so eager.

“That's all.” Meng Wan-Yu shook her head. “He has something for you. He said he promised to return it to you.”

She handed her master the package as she spoke.

The woman in purple took the package from Meng Wan-Yu. She glanced at it without opening it right away.

Instead, she said, "Wan-Yu, I'm thirsty. Can you see if you can buy some water?"

"Yes, Master."

Meng Wan-Yu didn't put much thought into it and instantly went to buy some drinks.

After Meng Wan-Yu left, only the woman in purple was left standing by the lake.

She walked up to the street lamp before she looked down and opened the package carefully.

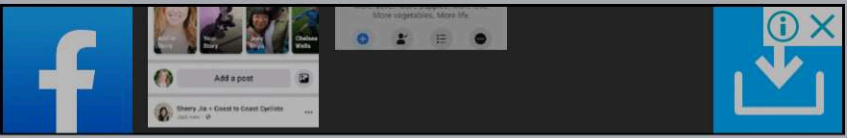

She wanted to see what that idiot wanted to give her.

She had spent days in Jiangdong.

But why?

She had stayed on account of the promise he made when they parted ways at the old Chu residence.

Although Yu Yun had already asked Ye Fan's mother to tell him that she wouldn't be coming, she couldn't help remembering his promise.

Chapter 1178 Ye Fan's Gift

In the end, she stayed in Jiangdong until now.

Firstly, she wanted to see whether Ye Fan would remember his promise.

Secondly, she wanted to know what Ye Fan wanted to give her.

The moment she opened the package, the mighty martial artist who was known to be cold and vicious suddenly felt a little happy and eager.

Even she found her emotions inconceivable.

“After cultivating all my life and remaining unmoved by status and wealth, I didn’t expect to feel so emotional from receiving this tiny gift from that prick.”

She laughed weakly in self-ridicule.

After she finished laughing, she had unwrapped the package.

She looked down to see what the beautiful gift box was filled with...

The box carried a set of underwear.

The panties were bikini-shaped with lace on the side.

They looked particularly sexy and well-made.

They were exactly the same as the set Ye Fan stole from her when they were inside the Chu clan's ancestral grounds.

“Asshole! That pervert! That shameless creep!”

The moment Yu Yun caught sight of Ye Fan's gift, her face instantly blushed.

She blushed so hard that it spread from her neck all the way up to her ears.

From a distance, she looked like a ripe peach ready for the picking.

Yu Yun felt both angry and embarrassed when she saw these undergarments.

She became so angry she almost went mad.

If Ye Fan were in front of her now, she would

Chapter 1179 Utter Shamelessness definitely slap him. She would slap him so hard that he'd sink into the ground and be incapable of coming out.

She had looked forward to this day that she disregarded the work waiting for her at the sect and spent ten days in Jiangdong waiting.

In the end, this was the gift he had for her.

"Shameless pervert!" Yu Yun spat furiously. She had never met someone as brazen as Ye Fan.

He was simply a shameless bastard.

In her fury, Yu Yun picked up the package and wanted to throw it into the river.

However, she didn't throw it out in the end.

She laughed helplessly instead.

This bastard was still as brazen as before.

Amid her laughter, Yu Yun could almost envision the times she spent with Ye Fan living at the old Chu residence.

Chapter 1179 Utter Shamelessness

Didn't he keep teasing her shamelessly just like this?

Hence, Yu Yun accepted the gift. Even if she never wore it, she could keep it as a memento.

She was human after all!

After spending so much time with Ye Fan at the old Chu residence, she could not help having feelings for him.

However, that was it.

Yu Yun was keenly aware that they would probably never meet again after parting ways today.

After all, the distance between her and Ye Fan was simply too far and wide.

They were as disparate as the light from a firefly and the moon.

From now on, they belonged to different worlds.

They were like two straight lines that had encountered each other briefly before running parallel without touching for the rest of their lives.

“What’s wrong, Master?”

Just as Yu Yun was lost in thought, Meng Wan-Yu’s voice came from beside her.

Meng Wan-Yu had just come back from a 24-hour convenience store with drinks when she noticed something amiss with her teacher.

Her master’s typically cold, stern face was now blushing a little.

After being with her for so long, it was Meng Wan-Yu’s first time seeing her master this way, so she couldn’t help feeling curious and surprised.

A sense of shock flashed across Yu Yun's eyes when she heard her voice.

She quickly reverted to her normal calmness and replied coldly, “Nothing. Let’s go back to the sect.”

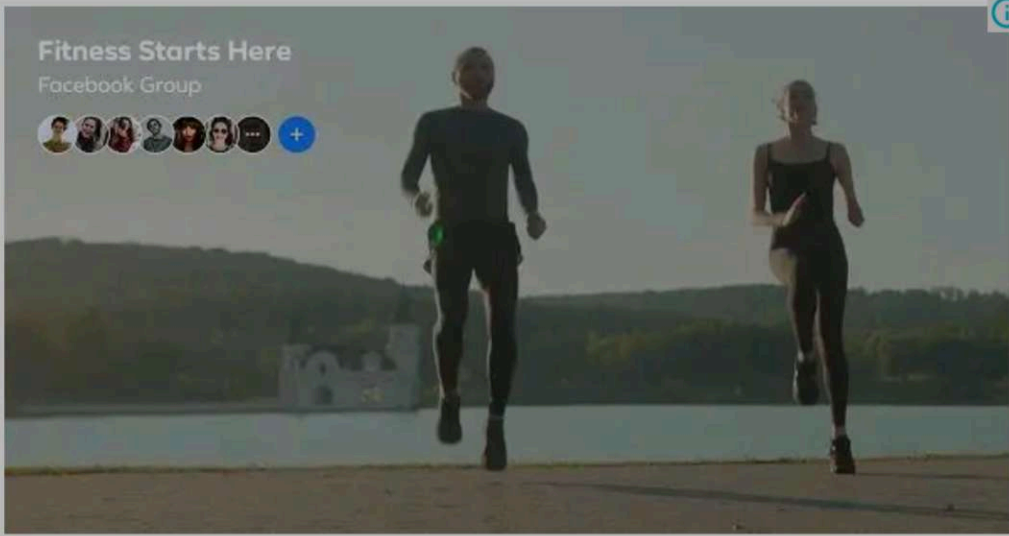

Yu Yun turned to leave as she spoke.

She held Ye Fan's gift in her arms as she left.

The two women quickly vanished into the darkness.

On the other end, Ye Fan noticed that the villa's lights were off when he arrived home.

It seemed Qiu Mu-Cheng was already sleeping.

Ye Fan was afraid to disturb Qiu Mu-Cheng, so he climbed into bed without turning on the light.

"Where did you go today?"

In the darkness, a voice suddenly rang.

Ye Fan was so startled that his face trembled. "Can you not suddenly talk like that? Do you know how scary it is to do that in the middle of the night?"

Ye Fan was truly terrified.

"If you aren't guilty of doing something wrong, why would you be feeling afraid? Spit it out now. Where have you gone all day? Why are you back so late?" interrogated Qiu

Mu-Cheng.

Ye Fan had no intention of withholding the truth to begin with, so he told Qiu Mu-Cheng he went to see someone.

“My mother was in danger, and it was thanks to her help that I’m not an orphan now, so I should see her and thank her face to face.”

“Uh huh. That’s true. Why don’t you arrange a proper date and time and invite her over so that we can buy her dinner and thank her?” asked Qiu Mu-Cheng.

Ye Fan smiled sadly and shook his head as he said, “It’s fine. We probably won’t get to cross paths in the future. I waited all day for her, but she didn’t turn up. Since we couldn’t meet today, there’s probably no chance I will ever get to see her again.”

Ye Fan’s voice was filled with a vague hint of disappointment.

Ye Fan had to admit that Yu Yun left a deep impression on him after all the time they spent together at the old Chu residence.

Her stubbornness, determination, coldness, elegance and aura seemed to leap into Ye Fan's view.

Chapter 1179 Utter Shamelessness

Also, the sight of Yu Yun hunting him down in his ancestral ground flashed before his eyes.

At that time, he thought he was about to die.

In hindsight, Ye Fan found it funny and interesting.

However, Ye Fan and Yu Yun were both keenly aware that they were just passersby in each other's lives.

After parting ways, it would be hard for them to ever meet again.

Life was simply filled with ups and downs and all kinds of encounters!

After that night, Ye Fan's life in Jiangdong became unusually peaceful.

The construction of Mount Yunding Villa went on feverishly.

Qiu Mu-Cheng continued to conduct her duties at Mufan Group and helped to boost its growth.

After the wedding dinner, Ye Fan's reputation in Jiangdong had certainly soared to new heights.

All the Jiangdong bigshots bowed to Ye Fan, and even the provincial head of Jiangdong was indebted to him.

After all, Han Dong-Min would never have soared through the ranks from a deputy mayor of a small town to become the Jiangdong provincial committee secretary if not for Ye Fan.

Shortly after Li Hong-Ze left, Han Dong-Min had received written official orders from his higher-ups for this new appointment.

Han Dong-Min brought his entire family along with him to show his gratitude for Ye Fan.

Han Dong-Min was keenly aware that it would take him at least 20 years to get to the position he was at if it weren't for Ye Fan's support.

Chapter 1179 Utter Shamelessness

That was a fact.

The government appointed Han Dong-Min as the leader of Jiangdong because he was capable. More importantly, they did it on account of Ye Fan in the hope of creating stronger ties with him.

After all, it was impossible to quantify the effects of the favors a supreme grandmaster owed you using status and money alone.

After Han Dong-Min invited Ye Fan to dinner, all the other bigshots in Jiangdong arrived at his door to suck up to him. They came bearing gifts, money, or even women.

People trying to ingratiate themselves to Ye Fan kept coming.

However, Ye Fan didn't care for people like them who simply acted this way because he was in power.

Hence, he turned down all their gifts and invitations.

He just claimed that he didn't enjoy lively engagements.

Ye Fan didn't waste any time.

He had been spending almost all his time on cultivation.

He had recently mastered the third level of Invoke the Celestial Cloud, so he needed to stabilize it.

Other than that, Ye Fan would also practice the Cloud and Mist Sword Technique that he had learnt from Yu Yun.

More importantly, Ye Fan had been preparing to make the defense formation.

The Invoke the Celestial Sky Formation wasn't a simple technique, so even Ye Fan needed a few days to finish it.

Also, he needed almost an entire month to prepare and check everything.

However, Ye Fan had no other choice. Regardless of the difficulties, he had to do it.

Otherwise, if any other families like the Lu and the Xur families wanted to enter Jiangdong while Ye Fan wasn't around, who else could protect his family?

Chapter 1180 Recommending Chen Lan

Qing Tan and Tong Shan lacked experience after all. In order to resolve this concern once and for all, creating the Invoke the Celestial Sky Formation was Ye Fan's best option.

However, Ye Fan's peaceful life in Yunzhou was not meant to last. At night, he suddenly received a call from Lin Qing-He.

He called to say it was almost Commander Wu Yang's 50th birthday and told Ye Fan to come over and celebrate it.

Since Ye Fan abhorred social events, he rejected him.

The next day, Wu Yang's birthday celebrations commenced.

Many soldiers from Jiangdong came by to celebrate Wu Yang's birthday, so the place was packed.

Celebrities and elites from all industries gathered at Wu Yang's home.

"Qing-He, where is Instructor Chu? Get him to come over and drink with me. I'd like to matchmake him with someone," Wu Yang brought up Ye Fan halfway through the banquet.

But he was unable to find Ye Fan after looking around for a long time, so he decided to ask Lin Qing-He.

Wu Yang admired Ye Fan a lot.

Since Ye Fan was able to accomplish so much at such young age, he had a bright future.

Wu Yang naturally wanted such talent to be a part of his family.

Hence, he wanted to match-make Ye Fan with his own niece.

“Commander, I don't even want to talk about him. He's an ingrate and definitely has some flaws in his character. Even though you always have him on your mind, he didn't even bother to turn up and celebrate your birthday. I called him yesterday, but he said he wasn't free and hung up on me right away,” said Lin Qing-He as he shook his head.

“Oh? Is that so? So he's not coming?” asked

Chapter 1180 Recommending Chen Lan

Wu Yang as he frowned and seemed unhappy.

But Wu Yang wasn't the narrow-minded sort. Instead, he spoke up for Ye Fan, "He's probably caught up with training and doesn't have the time. Since he's young, it's normal for him to be less aware of the importance of networking. The most important thing is that he works hard. If he succeeds in training the Green Dragon Force, it will be the best birthday gift I would ever receive! After the banquet, let's go over to the training grounds to extend our regards and see how the Green Dragon Force is doing."

"Sure!" Lin Qing-He nodded before he added, "Commander, allow me to introduce someone to you."

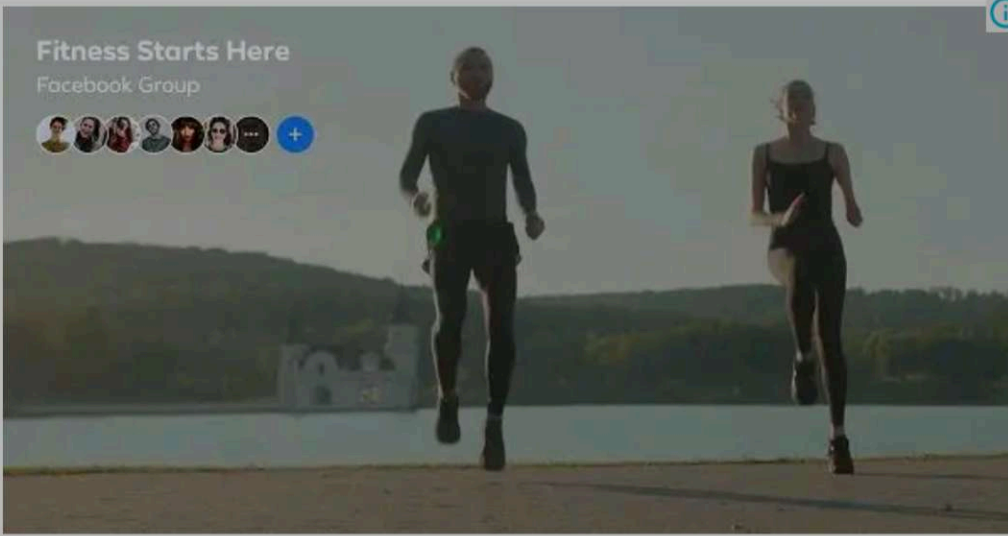

A hale and hearty elderly man walked over as he spoke.

The elderly man was dressed in a gray robe. Despite his white hair, he had a strong gait. It was obvious he was a martial artist.

"Who is this?" asked Wu Yang curiously in an instant when he realized the elderly man was extraordinary.

Chapter 1180 Recommending Chen Lan

“Commander, this is Chen Lan, president of Jiangbei Martial Arts Association and the 29th master of Xingyi Sect. He is a highly respectable martial artist! Also, Master Chen is not only highly skilled, but he also has a lot of disciples. All these years, he has accepted at least ten disciples. Every one of them is iconic in the Chinese martial arts world,” introduced Lin Qing-He.

The moment Wu Yang heard who he was, he was instantly stunned. He hurriedly smiled and said, “I see, Master Chen. Pardon my ignorance. Have a seat, Master Chen!”

Wu Yang was always enthusiastic, so he was even warmer when talking to talent and seemed to have no airs as the commander.

“Haha! I can’t believe you came to my birthday party. I’m so touched,” said Wu Yang as he laughed. However, Chen Lan didn’t respond to Wu Yang’s enthusiasm.

He remained seated the entire time with no expression on his face. At best, he would nod at Wu Yang and appeared very aloof and conceited.

“Commander Wu, I’ve invited Master Chen to celebrate your birthday with you and to recommend him to become the deputy instructor of the Green Dragon Force,” suggested Lin Qing-He after they had a few drinks.

Wu Yang was caught by surprise. “Huh? Why the sudden suggestion? Don’t you know that we promised Instructor Chu to leave Green Dragon Force’s training wholly to him? No one is to interfere. If he finds out about this, he is going to be pissed.”

“Commander, I’m just thinking of the big picture here! I admit Instructor Chu is remarkable, but he is very young. Is he really capable of teaching those troops and leading them? If anything goes wrong with the Green Dragon Force, it’s not just a matter of embarrassment. Wouldn’t we be held accountable too?” said Lin Qing-He deeply.

Lin Qing-He certainly made sense.

Wu Yang couldn’t help feeling worried. His face looked serious, but he didn’t say a word.

Lin Qing-He continued, “Also, Master Chen is highly respected, capable, experienced, and has many exceptional disciples. If you let him be the deputy trainer, it would help to make up for Instructor Chu's shortcomings and help keep an eye on him. It's perfect, right?"

Wu Yang nodded. "I agree. Since Instructor Chu is pretty young, he certainly is more inexperienced than Master Chen. It would be a boon for Master Chen to assist with training."

"Why don't we bring Master Chen to the base and have a chat with Instructor Chu after lunch?"

Although Wu Yang was the commander, he had to consider his subordinate's feelings.

He couldn't decide right away, and it all hinged on how Ye Fan reacted.

Since the banquet started early, it ended early too.

The party was over by 2PM and all the guests had left.

Wu Yang and Lin Qing-He hurried over to the Green Dragon Force's training grounds.

It was almost 3PM when Wu Yang and the rest reached the training grounds.

Most of the soldiers in the military zone had already started their daily routine training.

However, Wu Yang was surprised when he noticed that not a single Green Dragon Force member could be found.

"Huh? Where are they?" Wu Yang was puzzled.

"Where is Instructor Chu? Where are you, Instructor Chu? Come over and see me now!" Wu Yang shouted for quite a long time on the training grounds, but no one even responded.

"Could he have gone out for training? Maybe he is not at the base." Wu Yang thought that Ye Fan might have taken the troops for training away from the base.

Just as Wu Yang was about to give up, Chen Lan suddenly broke the silence and said deeply, "Someone is inside the room."

"I don't think so, right? If anyone was in there, they would have heard me and come out to see me by now. Master Chen, are you mistaken?"

Wu Yang laughed in disbelief.

However, Chen Lan ignored him and walked to the room with his disciple.

"Commander Wu, why don't we go over and have a look?" Lin Qing-He called Wu Yang to go over too.

Sure enough, a strong scent came sweeping towards them the moment Chen Lan opened the door.

They swiftly caught sight of Li Zi-Yang and the others soaking in tubs of hot water naked.

Also, some of them seemed to have fallen asleep because it felt so good.

Tai Shan was even snoring.

Even after Wu Yang and the others went in, they had failed to detect their presence and continued sleeping.

Chen Lan shook his head and laughed gently. "Commander Wu, Instructor Chu certainly has interesting methods of training. This is the first time I have ever seen troops being trained like this."

Chen Lan spoke in a frivolous and mocking tone.

He seemed to be treating this as a joke.

Wu Yang could sense Chen Lan's sarcasm, so his face instantly blushed as he found it absolutely embarrassing. Also, he was enraged.

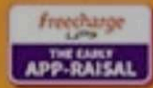

Before Wu Yang said anything, Lin Qing-He scolded them angrily, "How dare you! The army spent so many resources to groom you. Was it all done so you can soak in a hot tub? Get your asses out of there right now!"

Amid his scolding, Lin Qing-He stepped forward and kicked all four wooden tubs. Lots of Chinese herbs soaked in water flowed from the tubs.

Tai Shan tumbled right out on the ground while he was fast asleep, only to reveal his naked bottom.

In an instant, Li Zi-Yang and the others woke up in a start.

They were instantly stunned to see Wu Yang and the others.

“Commander, what brings you here?” asked Li Zi-Yang and the others quizzically.

“Humph! If we didn’t turn up, are you going to do this all day? Where is Instructor Chu? Tell him to get his ass over and see me! I’m going to see what he has to say about this training! What has bathing and sleeping got to do with training? Is this training at all? It’s more like raising pigs! Even I don’t have such a good life in the army!”

Wu Yang’s expression darkened as he suppressed the fury in his voice.

There was no doubt that this Instructor Chu was going to face the brunt of Wu Yang’s anger.

“Commander, he isn't around,” replied Li Zi-Yang.

Chapter 1181 Wu Yang's Fury

“Not around?” Lin Qing-He and the others were all shocked.

“Where is he? How can he leave his post when he is a soldier? Tell me!” shouted Lin Qing-He furiously.

Li Zi-Yang and the others didn't attempt to withhold the truth.

After all, they had nothing to hide. Ye Fan had been given the right to come and go as he pleased.

Li Zi-Yang and the others quickly told Wu Yang and the others that Ye Fan had gone home.

“Gone home? When did he go? Why didn't I know about this?”

Wu Yang and the others used to think that Ye Fan couldn't stand staying on camp and merely wanted to head out to the city for some fun with his free access.

They didn't realize that Ye Fan literally went home without telling them.

Also, they became even more outraged when they learned that he had gone home for more than ten days.

“That’s bullshit! How can a soldier behave like that? He’s actually left his post for ten days? What is he trying to do? Is he trying to rebel or something?” shouted Lin Qing-He furiously.

Wu Yang said nothing. However, his face looked livid, and he was clearly furious.

“Commander Wu, I already said that this punk is unreliable. See what happened? He's just taking his pay without doing his job! If we didn't discover it quickly enough, we might end up in big trouble!”

Lin Qing-He continued to vilify Ye Fan unrelentingly.

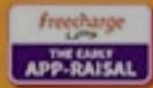

Lin Qing-He never liked Ye Fan from the start.

After all, Ye Fan ruined his chances of getting Wei Qing to become the instructor and even instigated Ye Yu-Yan to maim his son.

Lin Qing-He already treated Ye Fan as his mortal enemy and couldn't wait to finish him off.

He wanted to recommend Chen Lan to become deputy instructor so that he could find the chance to get rid of Ye Fan in due course.

From the looks of it now, he didn't have to wait. The perfect opportunity had already fallen into his lap.

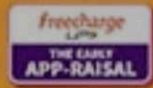

Lin Qing-He quickly took the chance to suggest that Wu Yang dismiss Ye Fan and remove him as major general. Also, he wanted Ye Fan thrown into military jail on the grounds of dereliction of duty!

"You can't, Commander. Instructor Chu hasn't been slacking. He has taken great care to teach us well. We have improved by leaps and bounds thanks to him," explained Ye Yu-Yan as she hurriedly ran in. She had been taking her medicinal bath next door when she heard the commotion.

"That's right, Commander. Instructor Chu definitely hasn't been negligent. He left us clear instructions on what to do before he left. Besides, how can this be a dereliction of duty since you gave him the freedom to come in and out of the military compound?" Li Zi-Yang and the others defended Ye Fan.

"Shut up! That's absolutely unreasonable! The commander didn't give him such privileges so that he could abuse them. He has left his post for more than ten days without telling his superiors. He has no sense of hierarchy, discipline, or respect for his superiors! Commander, we cannot condone his actions. I suggest that we strip him of his rank and throw him into jail!" said Lin Qing-He sternly. He refused to give up until Ye Fan was thrown into jail.

But Wu Yang said nothing and only kept a stern look on his face.

He was clearly hesitant about whether to punish Ye Fan.

"Commander Wu, it's easy to decide whether Instructor Chu is slacking off. You just need to test the effects of his training."

“Oh? How should we test this out?” asked Wu Yang quizzically as he looked at Chen Lan.

“Of course, you should test the Green Dragon Force’s abilities. Didn't this young lady say that they have improved in leaps and bounds under this instructor's tutelage? I happen to have my new disciple with me. I have only taught him for only a month or so. Why don't you use him to test the Green Dragon Force’s accomplishments and see how capable Instructor Chu is? What say you Commander?” said Chen Lan slowly with a smile as he looked at Wu Yang.

In reality, Chen Lan had deliberately brought his disciple so that he could spar with the Green Dragon Force.

Chen Lan only intended on embarrassing Ye Fan a little and improving Wu Yang’s impression of him.

However, they happened to run into such a well-timed situation which would undoubtedly become the last straw for Wu Yang.

Chen Lan was keenly aware of how suspicious Wu Yang was feeling about Ye Fan's abilities.

Hence, Wu Yang had no reason to deny his proposal now.

"What about all of you? Any problem with that?" asked Wu Yang coldly as he looked at the Green Dragon Force members.

Since Tai Shan and the others were young and full of vigor, they never backed down from a single fight.

Moreover, they had recently defeated Lu Cang-Qiong's supposed special troops and stole all the limelight.

They accepted the challenge without hesitation.

"Tell us. How should the challenge go?" asked Li Zi-Yang as he looked at Chen Lan's disciple proudly.

"Don't bother. All of you can attack together," said the man expressionlessly in a cold voice.

shocked to hear his suggestion. “What? Dude, you are bold! Regardless of your abilities, I already like you for your confidence. Since we are sparring, it has to be a fair fight. Li Zi-Yang's expression instantly turned cold as he shouted, “Let the fight begin!”

BAM!

He clenched his fist hard.

Li Zi-Yang swung his fist towards the man's chest viciously.

However, Chen Lan shook his head and scoffed at Li Zi-Yang as he said, “You are too slow.”

Sure enough, Chen Lan's disciple instantly attacked the moment he finished his sentence.

Ma Ming-Bo instantly blew up. “Asshole! How dare you insult us! Go to hell!”

Ma Ming-Bo charged over furiously.

However, Ma Ming-Bo was incapable of even coming close to the disciple this time. The disciple sent Ma Ming-Bo flying several meters right away.

“I told you to attack together if you want any chances of winning. You are asking for insult by fighting me alone,” said the man deeply in an indifferent voice that was filled with contempt.

They sandwiched him as they struck him repeatedly.

However, Chen Lan’s disciple remained calm despite their combined attacks. He stood with his hands behind him with utter calmness in his deep eyes.

He jumped into the air and served them perfect flying kicks to their heads.

Of the five members of the Green Dragon Force, four of them were defeated in seconds.

Also, Chen Lan's disciple hadn't even finished executing one move when he fought them.

"Beautiful!" Lin Qing-He instantly clapped and applauded the disciple's brilliant moves.

He kept praising the disciple and Chen Lan, "Famous masters have great disciples."

"You are too kind. Although my disciple is talented, he mainly succeeded due to his weak opponents. It's not easy to teach someone. Not any Tom, Dick, or Harry is up to the job." Chen Lan smiled proudly as he accused Ye Fan of being a lousy teacher.

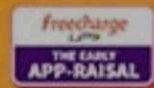

"Shall we go on?"

After finishing off four of the Green Dragon Force's members, Chen Lan's disciple stood with his hands behind him as he looked at the last person standing, Ye Yu-Yan.

with their faces livid. “Come on! Again!”

“We aren’t going to accept defeat!”

Just as they were about to charge forward and engage, Wu Yang finally blew his top after watching in silence all this time as he suppressed his disappointment.

“Enough! Aren't you embarrassed with how you turned out? None of you were capable of withstanding a single blow from him. What has all these days of training done for you? Do you think you can become China’s elites with these moves? Dream on!”

Wu Yang was certainly furious.

Even though Wu Yang had been mentally prepared for this outcome when he saw Li Zi-Yang and the others sleeping while they soaked in tubs during training hours, Wu Yang didn't think that the Green Dragon Force would be this disgraceful.

There were so many of them but they couldn’t even hold up against one move.

he had entrusted the troops to the wrong man.

“Commander, we...” Ye Yu-Yan wanted to explain.

“Enough. Don’t say a word. Stay put and wait for your orders! You are forbidden to leave during this time,” shouted Wu Yang furiously before turning to leave.

Lin Qing-He and Chen Lan looked at each other and smiled like they were villains who had gotten their way.

They didn't linger and quickly followed behind Wu Yang.

However, Chen Lan told his so-called disciple to leave first.

“That’s all, Junior. Go ahead and leave.”

“Sure. Senior, all the best. I hope you’ll become the chief instructor!” The man who defeated Li Zi-Yang and the others overwhelmingly smiled as he spoke to Chen Lan before he left.

Chapter 1183 Dismissal

Indeed, the so-called disciple was in fact Chen Lan's junior. He had practiced martial arts for decades and was as powerful as Chen Lan.

Li Zi-Yang and the others had only started training with Ye Fan for about a month. They were incapable of catching up with a martial artist who had practiced for decades, even with the medicinal bath and the Green Dragon Technique.

It was completely normal for them to lose.

But Wu Yang didn't know that.

He was simply a soldier and didn't understand martial arts, so he was incapable of knowing whether what level Chen Lan and his disciple were at.

All he could see was how Li Zi-Yang and the others had been incapable of surviving a single blow from Chen Lan's disciple.

This fight had left Wu Yang undoubtedly infuriated.

After Wu Yang went back to his room, he instructed Lin Qing-He to contact Ye Fan and order him to return to the base and face punishment for dereliction of duty!

“Commander, I just called him, but he refused to answer the phone. It seems he knows he was in the wrong and feels too guilty to answer,” lied Lin Qing-He as he exaggerated matters.

“Keep calling him. Tell him to return to camp immediately at my order,” said Wu Yang angrily as he suppressed his annoyance.

“Commander, to put it bluntly, he doesn't care about you. Or else, why didn't he turn up for your birthday banquet? All this time, he has been disrespecting you. There are plenty of youngsters like him who think too highly of themselves and end up arrogant and cocky. It's impossible for people like them to succeed in life. I already told you that we couldn't hire a man like him! I suggest immediate demotion and capture, then throw him into military jail to await trial. Also, we can't let the Green Dragon Force be affected by this. We should immediately choose a new instructor and commence training!” suggested Lin Qing-He.

However, Wu Yang sighed, “Our higher-ups gave us three months to train but a month has already passed. Is it too late if we engage a new trainer now? Sigh! I am to blame for being too trusting and holding up the mission,” Wu Yang spoke with a heavy heart and worry in his voice.

“Commander, don't worry. Even if the Green Dragon Force fails, we still have the Eagles Force! They have been around for three years, and I have been training them hard all this time. Also, I have already engaged Chen Lan as their honorary instructor half a year ago to teach them once a week. The Eagles Force have no problem taking over the Green Dragon Force! We can use the two remaining months to get Chen Lan to instruct them day and night to make up for the lost time. I guarantee that the Jiangdong Eagles Force will shock everyone and become the strongest troops in China!”

Wu Yang's eyes glinted, and he instantly laughed. “You're right. How could I have forgotten about our very own elite force? Yanjing only asked for an elite force, but it doesn't have to be Green Dragon.”

“Let's do as you suggested. Summon the Eagle Force back to base and proceed with training. Get Master Chen to be the chief instructor and teach them personally.” Wu Yang promptly decided on their training schedule.

“What about Green Dragon? Should we dismiss them?” asked Lin Qing-He tentatively.

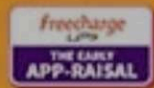

Wu Yang contemplated before he shook his head and said, “Don't dismiss them yet. Get them to train side by side with the Eagles. At the end of their training, we will keep a winning team from elimination.”

After coming to a decision, Wu Yang turned to look at Chen Lan guiltily and said courteously, “Master Chen, I have embarrassed myself today. I trusted the wrong man and picked the wrong instructor. Now I have to count on you to be the chief instructor and help train the Green Dragon and Eagles Forces.”

Chen Lan nodded. “Commander, you're too kind. It is my honor to serve the nation. I promise that within two months, I will transform the Eagles Force into the most powerful special forces in China. As for Green Dragon, I can only promise to do my best. Since they had a bad foundation, it's hard for them to start over." Chen Lan shook his head as he spoke.

Wu Yang nodded. "It's okay. No pressure. I am only keeping Green Dragon around as a backup for emergencies. Of course, I will disband them if they turn out to be useless."

After their discussion, Wu Yang decided to remove Ye Fan as chief instructor and let Chen Lan take over.

Also, the focus of the training was moved from Green Dragon to their veteran special forces, the Eagles.

Both special forces were to go through Chen Lan's training.

"Okay, Master Chen. Let's not waste any time and commence training immediately. I will draft your appointment letter and send it tomorrow at the very latest! Master Chen, our honor is in your hands! I'm counting on you!"

Wu Yang looked at Chen Lan with his hope in his eyes.

“Commander Wu, trust me. I promise to do my job well!” Chen Lan responded immediately before leaving the room with Lin Qing-He.

After leaving the room, Lin Qing-He congratulated Chen Lan, “Instructor Chen, congrats. You took over his job and became general so quickly.” Lin Qing-He chuckled as he flattered Chen Lan.

Chen Lan’s eyes were filled with pride and vigor. “Haha! I have you to thank for ensuring things go so smoothly today. I will not forget your help.”

Lin Qing-He smiled as he replied, “I didn’t think it would be so easy. Initially, I wanted to make you deputy instructor first and replace him in the future. Who knew Ye Fan would give us such a lovely surprise? Haha!”

In Lin Qing-He’s opinion, if Ye Fan hadn’t left his post so openly and offended Wu Yang, Chen Lan would never have taken over so smoothly.

The two of them walked away as they bantered.

Lin Qing-He went back to his quarters. Chen Lan returned home to pack up and prepare to move to the army and start his military career.

However, Chen Lan swung back to the Green Dragon Force training grounds before he left.

The atmosphere in the room was gloomy.

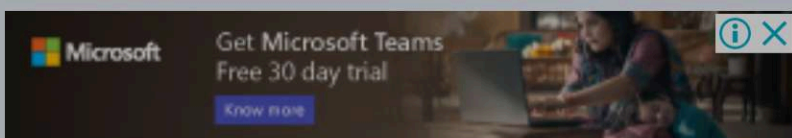

Li Zi-Yang and the others slumped their shoulders after losing and sat dejectedly without saying a word.

They looked absolutely defeated.

They were clearly very affected by their crushing defeat.

They didn't think that they wouldn't even survive a single blow from their opponent.

"Captain, do you think we are not cut for martial arts? I feel like I have disgraced Instructor Chu after losing so badly. I'm sure they will definitely blame him for it, right?"

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

Tai Shan looked at Ye Yu-Yan sadly and felt worried for Ye Fan's situation.

Even though they were the ones who had been defeated, the one who was disgraced was Ye Fan.

Tai Shan and the others naturally felt guilty.

"It's all our fault."

"We are hopeless pieces of shit!"

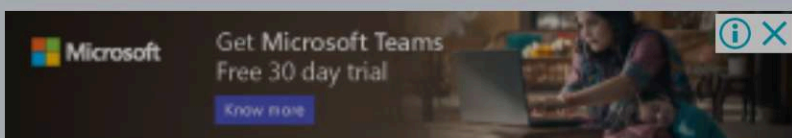

"We got Instructor Chu into trouble."

"Why don't we just back out of the Green Dragon Force and get Instructor Chu to choose new talent? This way, we won't keep dragging him down."

Li Zi-Yang and the others spoke guiltily.

They had no doubt Ye Fan was a capable man who deserved obeisance from the troop. Since he was bestowed the title of the Unrivalled Grandmaster, he was an extraordinary man.

Hence, the only reason for their defeat was them and them alone. They were simply too mediocre.

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

In an instant, the proud soldiers started to doubt themselves.

That kick from Chen Lan's disciple had defeated them not only physically but also in spirit, and had destroyed all their pride.

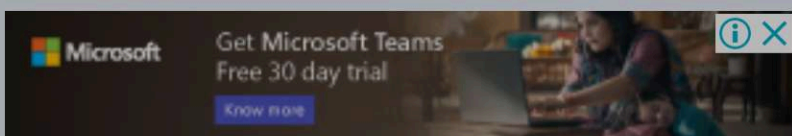

BAM!

The moment Li Zi-Yang and the others finished saying all these things, Ye Yu-Yan suddenly kicked them to the ground.

"Captain?"

Tai Shan and the others were all bewildered and stared at Ye Yu-Yan in surprise.

"Don't call me captain! I don't have useless comrades like you! How can you think of backing out the moment you encounter some difficulty? Are you men? Are you still the same people whom Instructor Chu has personally selected? As a woman, I despise you! I honestly feel bad for Instructor Chu. Do you know how much effort he put in to train us during this month? He specially came up with a training plan and created the Green Dragon Technique just for us to learn. He even helped concocted medicinal baths to help nurse our injuries. But here you are, saying you want to give up and leave the forces. How can you answer to him and our country? You are just a bunch of cowards! I despise all of you!" shouted Ye Yu-Yan viciously with her eyes red.

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

"Yes, we suffered an embarrassing defeat earlier. But does a single failure mean anything? Instructor Chu once said we would have the power to create heaven only after experiencing great suffering. Only after we train until our fingers bleed will we be capable of playing the most beautiful music on earth. If you can't even withstand a little failure, what right do you have to succeed? You keep saying you've embarrassed Instructor Chu, but I think a few losses isn't embarrassing. If you want to back out every time you feel intimidated, you are deserters and cowards and will be a true disgrace. You won't be fit to be a part of Green Dragon. You won't deserve Instructor Chu's tutelage."

Every one of Ye Yu-Yan's furious words struck them like lightning as her voice exploded in the room.

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

Every word struck them deep inside.

Amid Ye Yu-Yan's reprimanding, Li Zi-Yang and the others felt completely embarrassed. They hung their heads and didn't even dare to look her in the eye.

Moments later, Tai Shan suddenly stood up.

"We deserved that scolding! Captain, you are right! It is not embarrassing to lose. It is only an embarrassment to give up. Since we were handpicked by Instructor Chu, we cannot give up easily. We must accomplish something and show Commander Wu, Instructor Chu and everyone what we are made of!"

"Yeah!"

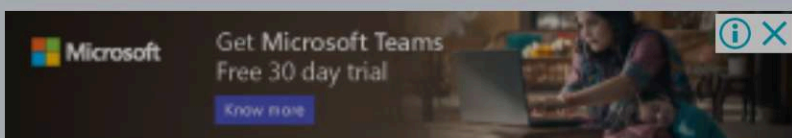

"What's one single defeat?"

"We can always try fighting him again!"

"We still have time."

"We cannot give up and disgrace Instructor Chu."

Li Zi-Yang, Ma Ming-Bo, and the others stood up one after another.

After Ye Yu-Yan reprimanded the Green Dragon Force, a fighting spirit sparked in everyone once more.

“That’s good! That’s more like it. In that case, let’s continue with Instructor Chu’s training plan after dinner and keep training!”

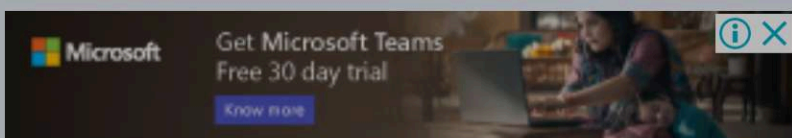

It was already 7PM, and the sky was turning dark.

Based on Ye Fan’s training plan, they were to dine at 7PM, and train from 730PM till midnight before meditating in the medicinal bath. Ye Fan demanded that they meditate even in their sleep.

This part of the training was passive. All they had to do was to soak in the medicinal bath and allow their body to absorb all the goodness of the medicine.

The cooks walked in with the dinner specially prepared for the Green Dragon Force.

Tai Shan picked up his bowl and wolfed his dinner down.

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

For a martial artist, food and rest were as important as grueling training.

Hence, Ye Fan paid a lot of attention to these two areas.

But halfway through dinner, an older man dressed in a gray robe walked in.

The old man was none other than Chen Lan, who had just received his appointment.

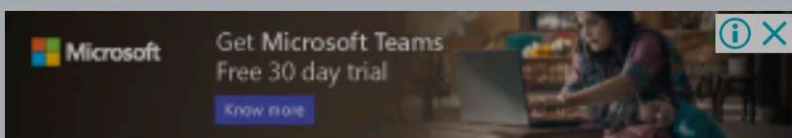

“Hmm? What’s he doing here?”

Li Zi-Yang and the others frowned when they saw him while an ominous sensation rose in their hearts.

After Chen Lan walked in, he said nothing and only looked around to check out their food.

There was abalone, ginseng, black chicken soup, and all kinds of rare ingredients used for their dinner.

Chen Lan frowned as he shouted deeply, “You useless idiots. You can’t get anything right, but you certainly eat well. The country pays you to train hard and defend the nation.

Chapter 1184 The New Green Dragon Leader

You aren't paid to have fun and become degenerates!”

BAM!

Chen Lan shouted as he walked over and kicked their dishes and rice pot away.

“You...”

“Damn you!”

“Who do you think you are? How dare you shout at us and kick our food away?”

They watched Chen Lan smashed all their cutlery to the floor. Tai Shan and the others instantly exploded and leapt up to fight him.

However, Chen Lan merely scoffed at their reactions.

He stood with his hands behind his back and spoke loftily in a cold voice, “Forget everything Instructor Chu has taught you and learn as I instruct you. From now on, I am the boss of the Green Dragon Force!”

What?

“What? Treat you as our boss? Dream on! Who the hell do you think you are? How dare you take Instructor Chu’s position? How dare you demand our respect? You’re just an old geezer! You aren’t worthy of our respect!”

The moment Chen Lang finished his cocky words, Li Zi-Yang and the others trembled in shock. Tai Shan’s bad temper acted up, and he immediately talked back to Chen Lan angrily.

The other Green Dragon Force members looked at Chen Lan with hostility and resentfully refused to accept his leadership.

After all, Instructor Chu was their revered trainer and their religion.

Ye Fan was irreplaceable in their hearts.

How dare Chen Lan even dream of replacing Ye Fan? He had undoubtedly crossed their boundaries, so they were incapable of staying calm.

But Chen Lan didn’t seem angry at their reaction. Instead, he sneered and laughed, BOOM...

Chen Lan’s words struck them like a bolt of lightning.

Tai Shan and the others were dumbstruck.

They stared dead-straight at him in disbelief.

Li Zi-Yang couldn’t suppress his fury and scolded him to the face, “Fuck you! Instructor Chu is the unsurpassable Unrivalled Grandmaster! Commander Wu must be blind to dismiss him! That’s impossible! This is sheer nonsense!”

Li Zi-Yang’s turned red as he roared deeply.

Chen Lan couldn’t be bothered to explain. Instead, he turned around and stood with his back facing them and hands behind him.

“I have said everything I should. Tomorrow, you will find out whether it is the truth. I can't be bothered to argue with you. However, let me make things clear before I officially take over tomorrow. From now on, you fools from the Green Dragon Force will no longer get to enjoy life like a bunch of degenerates. I suggest you prepare yourself mentally and train hard. Otherwise, the Green Dragon Force will be disbanded, and only the Eagles Force will be left standing! Good luck!”

Chen Lan strode out with his head held high as he laughed coldly.

“You...You...You bastard! You must have been slandering Instructor Chu in front of the commander! I’m going to kill you!” shouted Tai Shan with his eyes red as he chased after Chen Lan and wanted to beat him up.

“Tai Shan, stop it! Haven’t you caused enough trouble?” said Ye Yu-Yan sternly to Tai Shan as she stopped him.

“But Captain, he...he...” Tai Shan gritted his teeth and wanted to speak. He ended up sighing deeply.

In reality, Tai Shan knew that even if Chen Lan spoke the truth, they were powerless to change things.

What could they do? Stop training and protest?

It might work if the Eagles Force did not exist.

But the commander had clearly already picked another group to replace them.

Tai Shan was keenly aware that if they continued to argue with their superior and defy their orders, they would end up getting disbanded and replaced.

"Suck it up! We have to suck it up no matter what happens. We have to wait for Instructor Chu to come back and decide what to do!"

Ye Yu-Yan kept reminding Tai Shan and the others that night.

She told them to swallow everything for the time being until Ye Fan returned to the barracks.

Despite their fury, Tai Shan and the others suppressed their anger and continued to train even after Chen Lan left, just like Ye Fan told them to.

Chapter 1185 Green Dragon's Loss

The night passed quickly.

The next day, a new day began at first light.

Their new day started with a new appointment by the commander.

“The ex-chief instructor showed dereliction of duties and has proven he lacks character, has no respect for authority, is undisciplined, and unfit for the task. After discussion, we have decided to dismiss him from his post. From now on, Chen Lan will take over as chief instructor!”

This announcement instantly exploded in Jiangdong armed forces.

Everyone started gossiping about it.

“Oh my. Did Instructor Chu seriously get dismissed? Really?”

“He barely started! How did he get dismissed before he even warmed his seat?”

“I just knew it. Instructor Chu is too arrogant and doesn't know how to get along with anybody else. Just think about it. The moment he took the position, he instigated his men to maim the deputy commander's son. Also, I heard he got the position after snatching it from the hands of the deputy commander's friend. In a month, Instructor Chu has already made an enemy of the deputy commander, so it's only a matter of time that he gets dismissed."

"Also, I heard that the new chief instructor, Chen Lan, is friends with the deputy commander and got the job because of that. The deputy commander's son, Lin Fan, got called away earlier. I heard he's going to join the Eagles Force. From now on, the Eagles will be Jiangdong's elite forces and not Green Dragon! Eagles will get dibs on all resources!"

All kinds of rumors emerged in the military camp.

Some of the people felt sorry for Ye Fan, while some of them lamented how corrupt this society could be.

Some of them had noticed that all new appointments in the military zone were the handiwork of Lin Qing-He.

However, officers at the lowest level only dared to discuss the politics within the camp privately and didn't dare to involve themselves.

But some people stood up for Ye Fan.

One of them was Colonel Wang Dong-Sheng, who once knelt and begged for Ye Fan's mercy!

In reality, Wang Dong-Sheng didn't know Ye Fan was the new chief military instructor when he first crossed paths with him in Yunzhou.

Wang Dong-Sheng only realized that he had offended a fellow soldier when Ye Fan disclosed he was the leader of the Green Dragon Force.

Wang Dong-Sheng only realized how impressive this Green Dragon leader was when Yanjing sent officials to bestow Ye Fan the title of the Unrivalled Grandmaster.

However, Wang Dong-Sheng didn't think someone with a godlike existence such as Ye Fan would end up getting dismissed by Wu Yang.

“This won’t do. I have to look for Commander Wu and speak to him.” Worried, Wang Dong-Sheng decided to look for Wu Yang directly in a bid to persuade him to retract his order.

“Commander Wu, we really cannot afford to offend Instructor Chu!”

“What nonsense!”

Wang Dong-Sheng had only just started to speak, but before Wu Yang could even reply, Lin Qing-He exploded and scolded him angrily, “Wang Dong-Sheng, what do you mean by this? Commander Wu is the head of the Jiangdong military camp and even a deputy commander like me has to obey all his given orders, what more Ye Fan who is only an instructor?”

“Commander Wu is considered the king of the Jiangdong military camp and yet you are saying that Commander Wu cannot afford to offend that rascal? Are you implying that Commander Wu cannot be compared to an unknown youngster who only joined the military camp for a month?”

“Wang Dong-Sheng, do you know that you are being insolent to Commander Wu?! This is an offence!”

The harsh words from Lin Qing-He made Wang Dong-Sheng turn pale with fright and he rushed to explain himself, “No, no, I don’t mean it that way. It’s just that we really cannot afford to offend Instructor Chu. He is someone that even the leaders of our country admire.”

“In addition, Instructor Chu has the ability to suspend himself and walk in the air and make thousands retreat with just one word. His existence is godlike!” Wang Dong-Sheng had no choice but to speak of Ye Fan’s capabilities. He thought that he could convince them if they understood Ye Fan’s prowess.

However, Lin Qing-He and Wu Yang looked at him as though he was an idiot.

“What did you say? Ye Fan can walk in the air? The leaders of our country admire him? Godlike?!”

“What the hell?! You are full of nonsense!”

“You must have read too many fantasy novels and you can't even differentiate between reality and illusion anymore. You are a colonel and yet you are spreading superstition here? Do you want to be like Ye Fan and be dismissed from your duties for self-reflection? Get out of here!" Lin Qing-He berated Wang Dong-Sheng angrily and had him chased out of the office.

"Who would have thought that a youngster like Ye Fan is so good at winning people over? He had only joined us for such a short period of time and had already managed to win Wang Dong-Sheng over."

"And this Wang Dong-Sheng even dared to spout nonsense in an attempt to speak up for Ye Fan! He is treating us like fools! Commander Wu, why don't we make an example out of Wang Dong-Sheng and have him dismissed too?" Lin Qing-He continued to badmouth Wang Dong-Sheng to Wu Yang.

Wu Yang replied as he waved his hand, "Forget it, Dong-Sheng is one of the old guards in the Jiangdong military camp. He probably did this in a moment of foolishness, so let's not pursue this."

"Alright, you can go now. Instructor Chen has just taken over his duties and must be unfamiliar with a lot of things. I will need your help to get him up to speed on the training matters regarding the Eagles and Green Dragon Forces,” Wu Yang dismissed Lin Qing-He from his office as he felt disturbed and wanted some time alone to sort out his thoughts.

Lin Qing-He went to the training ground to help Chen Lan get familiarized with the tasks.

But there was nothing to be familiarized with, actually. Everyone just had to follow the training method that Chen Lan had put together, and Lin Qing-He would support him fully with whatever resources he required.

“Master Chen, I am handing my son over to you. I hope he can become someone great under your training, so please go ahead and scold him or beat him if you need to!”

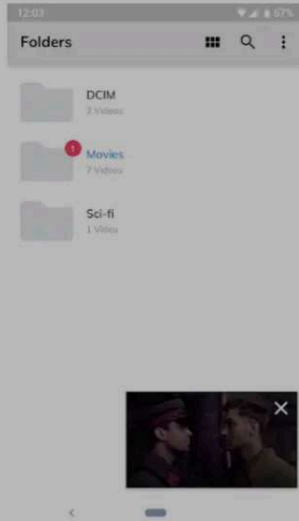

Lin Qing-He had wanted his son, Lin Fan, to join the Green Dragon Force but was rejected by Ye Fan.

into the Eagles Force.

With Ye Fan's dismissal, the Green Dragon Force would only be a reserve team whereas the Eagles Force would be the elite force with all the resources directed to them.

The future for members of the Eagles Force could only get brighter.

Lin Qing-He had to seize this opportunity and ensure Lin Fan became a member of the Eagles Force!

"Haha! Rest assured, Deputy Commander Lin, your son is gifted and has what it takes. I will hone him and in days to come, he will become as good as you!" Chen Lan said as he laughed heartily.

It was on this day that the military camp ended the era of Ye Fan and a new era belonging to Chen Lan started.

Chen Lan overturned all the training programs crafted by Ye Fan.

The food allocated to Green Dragon Force was changed to be even worse than those prepared for the ordinary soldiers.

Chapter 1186 Torture

It also became impossible for them to have the medicinal baths!

The custom-made wooden tubs that Ye Fan had specifically made for the members were destroyed by Chen Lan and used as firewood.

In a matter of days, all traces of Ye Fan were wiped out in the Jiangdong military camp.

The Green Dragon Force was also forced to train according to Chen Lan's requirements.

Their training started at 3AM and ended only at 11PM without a siesta.

They had less than four hours of sleep every day.

Worse still, they were not allowed to return to their bunks at night and had to sleep in the open field.

When Ye Yu-Yan broke her leg in a fall, Chen Lan did not care and insisted that she complete her 10 kilometer run.

"Instructor, our captain has broken her leg and can't run anymore."

Chapter 1186 Torture

“She has to be treated immediately, otherwise she would never be able to recover fully and her future will be ruined!” Tai Shan and the rest pleaded with Chen Lan.

But Chen Lan ignored all their pleas and replied coldly, “Crawl to the finish line if you can’t run! No one would care if your bones were broken out in the battlefield.”

His words were cold but carried an authoritative tone.

“To hell with you!”

“Chen Lan, you despicable bastard! I’ve had enough of you! You are not training us, you are just abusing us until we die! You are not treating us like humans!” Tai Shan could no longer tolerate the ill treatment and exploded as he questioned Chen Lan’s training method directly.

“How dare you question me! As I said before, you have to bear hardships in the military camp. This is not a place for you to enjoy life! If you can’t even take this hardship, how can you achieve greater things in future? How are you going to protect our country? Every soldier has to be able to endure hunger, afflictions and pain at the very least,” Chen Lan spoke confidently with a dark expression on his face.

“What the heck?! Don’t use these principles to bluff us! Let me ask you then. You said that soldiers have to endure hardships. Why is it that the Eagles Force get delicacies for their meals but we only get to eat bran and wild vegetables?”

“Why do the Eagles start their training only at 5AM but ours start at 3AM?”

“Why are they able to apply for medical leave when they get sick or injured but we have to grit our teeth and continue with training instead?”

“We are also humans and we train under the same instructor. Why is it that we have the worst treatment but have to train twice as much when compared to the Eagles?”

The rest of the Green Dragon Force members also glared at Chen Lan angrily as they waited for an explanation from Chen Lan.

This unfair treatment would be tough for anyone to accept.

Ye Fan had also set strict requirements for them. The training load that he had set for the five members of the Green Dragon Force was a few times of an ordinary soldier.

But he had made sure the team had enough rest and nourishment at the same time.

So even though the training was grueling, these conditions made it possible for Tai Shan and the rest to feel that they were improving every day.

But now?

Chen Lan had not only increased their training load, but he had also cut back on their rest time and nutrition drastically.

Only half a month had passed and the team of five had already lost 10 kilograms on average.

Chapter 1187 Who Commands the Green Dragons?

What was unacceptable to the team was that they could not see any improvement despite training according to Chen Lan's requirements for half a month. In fact, they were getting weaker.

This was testament to the fact that Chen Lan's exploitation of the Green Dragon Force members was more than what they could bear.

If this continued, someone was bound to collapse and die suddenly from exhaustion!

Chen Lan showed no signs of remorse even when he was challenged by Tai Shan. He stood with his hands behind his back, his eyes icy as he scornfully looked at the team of five in front of him. The words that came out from his mouth were unfeeling and filled with disdain.

"You are just a group of scum soldiers taught by a scum instructor, and you think you can be compared to the elite team like the Eagles? I personally picked every single member of the Eagles Force and they are all extremely gifted soldiers. Under my special care and training program, one day of their training is equivalent to 10 days of yours!"

Chapter 1187 Who Commands the Green Dragons?

“But the five of you? You are just five useless soldiers. Ye Fan had been too accommodating to you previously and it had made your willpower even weaker. To me, the five of you are just like the mud on the ground.”

“I had your best interests at heart when I set these requirements. Otherwise, the gap between you and the Eagles would just become bigger! Don’t you scums understand the saying, ‘If you don’t have the smarts, you have to make it up by working even harder’?”

Chen Lan continued to degrade the team by referring them as scums.

He had never taken a liking to the members of the Green Dragon Force.

If Wu Yang hadn’t insisted that he train the Green Dragons at the same time, Chen Lan couldn’t be bothered about these people.

Even so, Chen Lan spent most of his time training the Eagles Force. He only came over to the Green Dragon Force occasionally to supervise their training.

To think that this group of scums had the audacity to flare up and go against him!

“Shut up! Chen Lan, you can insult us but not Instructor Chu. If you dare to insult Instructor Chu one more time, don’t blame me for what I will do!” Tai Shan roared at Chen Lan when he heard how Chen Lan had called Ye Fan a scum instructor. The words from Chen Lan only served to further enrage the members of the Green Dragon Force.

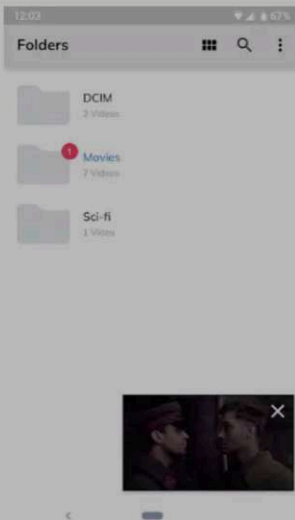

Chen Lan arched his eyebrow as his expression turned chilly.

“I told you before to forget everything that scum instructor has taught you! I am your instructor now, so the Green Dragons have to follow my orders! But it looks like you guys have a problem with your ears. Or are you saying that I cannot be compared to your precious Instructor Chu?” Chen Lan said these with a frosty look and a dark surly aura surrounded him.

He was an extremely prideful person.

But now, Tai Shan was defending his previous instructor in his face. This was an outright challenge to his authority and a slap to his face. Chen Lan was furious.

Chapter 1187 Who Commands the Green Dragons?

“You think you are good enough to be compared with our Instructor Chu? Let me tell you, the commander of Green Dragon will always be Instructor Chu, not you!”

BAM!

Just as Tai Shan had completed his sentence, Chen Lan executed a kick towards him.

His kick was very forceful and could send even the 100 kilogram Tai Shan flying.

Tai Shan flew outwards like a ball and crashed into a wall that was two meters high. The wall crumbled upon impact and Tai Shan lay among the ruins.

PFFT!

With a slight tremble, Tai Shan threw up blood.

“Tai Shan!”

“Bro!”

“You asshole! How could you be so ruthless?!”

Chapter 1187 Who Commands the Green Dragons?

Li Zi-Yang and the rest hurried over worriedly to help Tai Shan up as they criticized Chen Lan.

Chen Lan walked over and looked down at Tai Shan with an expressionless face that was devoid of any signs of mercy as the latter threw up blood. He asked in an icy and authoritative voice, "Let me ask you again, who is the instructor of the three troops? And who commands the Green Dragons?"

His words were heavy and frosty.

It would strike fear into those who had heard him speak!

But Tai Shan refused to be intimidated and growled even with his mouth full of blood, "HA! Chen Lan, my answer will be the same no matter how many times you ask. The instructor of the Green Dragon Force has always been Instructor Chu, and it can only be Instructor Chu! You are not fit to replace him!"

BAM!

It was another kick from Chen Lan.

Chapter 1187 Who Commands the Green Dragons?

Tai Shan flew outwards again and vomited out a mixture of fresh blood and bile this time.

With a menacing look on his face, Chen Lan asked again, "I will ask you one last time, who commands the Green Dragons?"

"Even if you kill me, the Green Dragons will only submit to Instructor Chu," Tai Shan laughed bleakly. He remained unafraid of Chen Lan even as he lay on the ground and continued to vomit blood.

"You are asking for it!" Enraged, Chen Lan's eyes turned cold and a sinister aura came over him.

He looked all ready to beat Tai Shan to his death.

Right at this moment, Wang Dong-Sheng, who had been bringing food secretly to the members of the Green Dragons, arrived and rushed up to Chen Lan in an attempt to stop him.

"Have mercy, Instructor Chen! He will really die if you continue to beat him." Wang Dong-Sheng ran over and grabbed hold of Chen

Lan.

“Humph, these scum soldiers went against my orders, were insolent towards me and refused to train according to my instructions. All they did was to take shortcuts and play punk. Don’t they deserve a beating? Or to be taught a lesson?” Chen Lan said angrily.

“Instruction Chen, you can’t blame them for this. Your training method is flawed. How can they train the right way when they don’t even get enough food? How will they have enough energy to train if they are not able to rest decently at night?”

“Didn’t you tell the Eagles Force during your training with them that nutrition and rest are just as important as training? You have to feed the horses first before they can run!” Wang Dong-Sheng persuaded Chen Lan.

Wang Dong-Sheng had been monitoring the Green Dragon Force during this time.

This team was built by that man. Wang Dong-Sheng had also seen what this team was capable of during the battle at Yunzhou.

So, be it for the sake of Ye Fan, or because he valued talents, Wang Dong-Sheng wasn't going to just stand by and watch Chen Lan destroy these soldiers.

Upon hearing what Wang Dong-Sheng said, Chen Lan's expression turned chilly. He turned to glare at Wang Dong-Sheng, "What? Who are you to question my training method?"

He had only been in the military camp for half a month and so, he did not know who Wang Dong-Sheng was, or his rank in the military camp.

"Instructor Chen, I am Colonel Wang Dong-Sheng from platoon 258 of the Jiangdong military camp."

What?

"You are only a colonel and you have the nerve to comment on a general's training method? Are you also not submitting to me as the chief instructor of the military camp?" Chen Lan spoke aggressively to Wang Dong-Sheng, his words laced with ice.

Fear arose in Wang Dong-Sheng when he felt the hostility from Chen Lan, but he stood his ground. "Instructor Chen, it's not that I'm not submitting to you. The key problem lies with your training method. It is really not appropriate. These kids will be destroyed if you insist on your training method!"

"Shut up!" Chen Lan exploded once he heard what Wang Dong-Sheng had to say. "How dare you! You have the audacity to suggest that I am an irresponsible instructor?"

"I have taught countless disciples for many decades and my sect has produced numerous great men and heroes! A small captain like you is like the ants and rats of the world, and you have the audacity to question my prowess? You must have thought that I can be a push-over since you have not seen my power."

"But since it's your first time making this mistake, I will forgive you! Now, scram! I will not tolerate meddling from the likes of you when I am training my people!” Chen Lan spoke to Wang Dong-Sheng with a frosty stare. He even tried to humiliate Wang Dong-Sheng by asking him to scram immediately.

But Wang Dong-Sheng was not someone who would take this lying down. Anger rose in him and he exploded at Chen Lan as well, “You old fool, why are you so conceited and just throwing your weight about here?! Even Commander Wu does not talk in such a condescending manner!”

“When I had risen to the rank of a colonel, you were probably still somewhere out there fooling around with women! Did you really think you could do whatever you like just because you are an instructor now? You have only just joined the military camp!”

“I don’t care, I am going to interfere in this matter! Tai Shan and his team are good soldiers, and they have a bright future if given proper training. I will not allow you to destroy them!”

Wang Dong-Sheng’s unflinching stare was fixed on Chen Lan as he berated him.

Chapter 1188 | Miss Instructor Chu

As a soldier for decades, it would take a lot more to scare him. He wasn't going to buckle no matter how much Chen Lan tried to scare him with his rank!

He didn't think that a newcomer like Chen Lan would have the guts to take on an old guard like him.

"Really? It looks like you won't learn your lesson unless you suffer!" Chen Lan sneered, unaffected by what Wang Dong-Sheng had said.

Chen Lan gave orders immediately to have Wang Dong-Sheng arrested and to be charged with causing disruption and being insolent to his superior. Chen Lan wanted Wang Dong-Sheng to be thrown into the military prison!

"You asshole, are you serious about having me arrested?"

"Which of you dares to arrest me!" With a shout of anger, Wang Dong-Sheng kicked the two soldiers who came forward to arrest him.

"How dare you resist arrest!" Chen Lan's expression darkened when he saw what Wang Dong-Sheng did.

He walked up and swiveled his body with a back kick towards Wang Dong-Sheng. This kick sent Wang Dong-Sheng flying.

“Arrest him! And confine him!” Chen Lan commanded with a cold voice.

The two soldiers came forward to pull Wang Dong-Sheng up from the ground and escorted him to the military prison for imprisonment.

“Colonel Wang!”

“Let him go!”

“You old dog, deal with us directly! Don’t take it out on others!”

Their eyes reddened at once when Li Zi-Yang and the rest saw Chen Lan arresting Wang Dong-Sheng.

It was Wang Dong-Sheng who had been secretly sending them food over the past two weeks.

If it wasn't for him, the five of them would not have been able to last this long with the torturous training and lack of nutritious food.

Hence, the members of the Green Dragon Force were filled with gratitude towards Wang Dong-Sheng.

Li Zi-Yang and the rest were filled with anger and guilt as they saw how Wang Dong-Sheng had been injured and sent to the military prison just because he had stood up and spoken up on their behalf.

In a fit of anger, they ran over in an attempt to save Wang Dong-Sheng.

Chen Lan stopped them even before they had taken a few steps forward. With a series of palm moves, Chen Lan struck Li Zi-Yang and the rest and had sent them flying.

"A bunch of scums! You can't even save yourselves and you want to save others? You are fools who don't even your own limitations! Looks like I have to teach you guys a lesson today. Once I beat the insubordination and stubbornness out of you, you will be a lot more compliant in future, “ said Chen Lan coldly as he walked towards Li Zi-Yang and the rest.

He looked like he was going to bash them up on the spot.

Just at this moment, Chen Lan’s phone rang.

Chen Lan exclaimed soon after he picked up the call, “What did you say? Deputy Commander Lin’s son has fainted? Why didn’t you guys take good care of him? You rascals, call the military doctor quickly. I am on my way!”

Chen Lan hung up after a short lashing out at the party over the phone. He looked anxious as he quickly turned to leave.

But just before leaving, Chen Lan warned the members of the Green Dragon Force, “Count your lucky stars that I don’t have time to teach you a lesson today. But I will be back tomorrow. If you still refuse to submit to my authority, then you will end up just like him!”

Chen Lan pointed in Tai Shan’s direction, then turned to leave.

He had to attend to Lin Fan as the latter was Ling Qing-He's son. It would be tough for Chen Lan to explain to Lin Qing-He should anything happen to Lin Fan under his care.

So, it was better for Chen Lan to personally ensure that Lin Fan was alright.

"Tai Shan, are you alright?"

"Wake up, don't close your eyes..." Li Zi-Yang and the rest crowded around Tai Shan after Chen Lan left.

"It's all my fault!" Ye Yu-Yan was filled with so much guilt that she started crying.

Chen Lan had been really ruthless. With the two kicks from him, Tai Shan had suffered several broken ribs and his chest had caved in from the impact.

If they had not been practicing the Green Dragon Technique to increase the physical defense of their bodies, Tai Shan would not have survived these two kicks from Chen Lan.

But even so, Tai Shan was not far from death. Fresh blood kept trickling down from his open mouth as he laid on the ground.

Chapter 1188 | Miss Instructor Chu

Tai Shan started murmuring something faintly even though he was bleeding profusely.

Li Zi-Yang and the rest moved closer and after listening intently for a while, they could finally make out what Tai Shan was saying.

“I...I...”

“I...I miss...Instructor Chu...”

It was just a few words but it immediately caused tears to flow from every member of the Green Dragon force!

If Instructor Chu was here, Chen Lan wouldn't be so arrogant and they would not have been abused and humiliated in this manner.

The Green Dragon Force would not have fallen into this state if Instructor Chu was here.

These words from Tai Shan were everyone's sentiments.

In this moment, everyone in the team became depressed.

Even Ye Yu-Yan, who had always been strong and independent, was overwhelmed with emotions and felt like crying.

Up till this point, Ye Yu-Yan's life could be considered smooth sailing as things had always been going smoothly for her. With her good looks and outstanding abilities, she had always been the center of attention regardless of where she was.

She had become Lu Tian-He's disciple and the captain of a special troops force at a young age.

At that time, Ye Yu-Yan thought she was invincible.

Nothing could bring her down.

In her eyes, setbacks were only meant as stepping stones for her. They were temporary and it was a given that she would eventually overcome them.

It was only now that Ye Yu-Yan realized she was just a miniscule being.

It was under the protection and backing of Ye Fan that she could do what she liked in the Jiangdong military camp.

In the past, there was no one who had dared to challenge her in the military camp.

Now, with Ye Fan's dismissal, the privileges and status that she used to enjoy were gone.

In the eyes of others, she was just a useless person who would never amount to anything great.

She was nothing without Ye Fan.

She could not even fight back when faced with oppression.

She was like a lamb to the slaughter.

The sun was shining brilliantly and the sky was clear. But the hearts of the Green Dragon Force members were filled with gloom.

In the past, they were able to look forward to their future with so much hope.

But now, their hearts were only filled with despair!

The morale of the Green Dragon Force members was very low.

But even though their future seemed grim, Li Zi-Yang and the rest quickly sent Ye Yu-Yan and Tai Shan to the military hospital for treatment.

Li Zi-Yang and the rest started discussing about what they could do in the hospital ward.

“Captain, Chen Lan is obviously up to no good.”

“He will not rest until we are all dead.”

“What should we do?”

“Are we supposed to just sit around and wait to be killed?”

The team was aggrieved when they thought about what had happened. Ma Ming-Bo could not help but ask these questions miserably as he looked at Ye Yu-Yan, who was now lying on a hospital bed.

Ye Yu-Yan was silent.

She did not know what to do. She had no idea what path the Green Dragon Force was supposed to take in the future either.

“Captain, how about you contact Instructor Chu and ask him to come back? Once Instructor Chu is back, there won’t be anyone in the Jiangdong military camp who would dare to touch us,” Gao Da-Zhuang tried to persuade Ye Yu-Yan.

Ye Fan had always been the backbone of the Green Dragon Force. He was someone whom they revered greatly.

The desperate circumstances that they were in had made them pin their hopes on Ye Fan.

Their hope was to have Ye Fan return to the military camp and lead them out of this predicament.

But Ye Yu-Yan shook her head and sighed, "It's no use. Instructor Chu has already been dismissed. It wouldn't make any difference even if he comes back. The chief military instructor of the Jiangdong military camp is now Chen Lan. Instructor Chu no longer has any say in these matters."

Ye Yu-Yan had already thought of contacting Ye Fan.

But she gave up on this idea after a lot of considerations.

Wu Yang had already dismissed Ye Fan from all duties.

Ye Fan might have to face the military court in a trial if he returned to the military camp.

Besides, knowing Ye Fan, he would become outraged by what the Green Dragon Force members had suffered through. They were ultimately part of a team that Ye Fan had built, so he would never have been able to tolerate his team suffering a humiliation like they did. There was no knowing what Ye Fan might do in retaliation to Chen Lan and the rest.

It would be a huge offence to fight and cause chaos within a military zone. This would only cause more harm to Ye Fan presently.

Hence, Ye Yu-Yan had decided not to contact Ye Fan.

“But captain, do we just keep quiet and continue to let Chen Lan abuse us?” Ma Ming-Bo and the rest raised their voices indignantly.

“Shit! What kind of life is this? I joined the military camp to learn skills and make contributions, to carve for myself a good future and be a successful man. I’m not here to be abused! Damn it! I refuse to continue living like this. I am not staying in the military!” Li Zi-Yang went into an outburst suddenly while Ma Ming-Bo and the rest were still feeling indignant.

He took off his military uniform and thrashed it onto the floor.

The rest of them were shocked and asked Li Zi-Yang immediately, “Yang, what are you doing?”

“Are you crazy?”

“You are not thinking of deserting, are you?”

“The security in the Jiangdong military camp is very tight, you won’t be able to escape.”

“Chen Lan will not let you off if you are arrested!”

“So what?” Li Zi-Yang asked, “At the very worst, I will be beaten to death if I’m caught. But if I stay, I will be tortured to death like an animal. Since both outcomes are the same, why don’t I take a gamble and try to escape? There’s a chance that I might make it out alive. A true man would rather die standing upright than to suffer humiliation here!”

“You are right, I had enough too! Yang, I will go with you,” Gao Da-Zhuang spoke up suddenly after remaining silent all this while.

Chapter 1189 There is No Point Staying

“It is meaningless to stay in the Jiangdong military camp with Instructor Chu gone. Yang, let’s go together. Let’s leave this place and look for Instructor Chu! It’s pointless to keep the uniform on when it no longer has any meaning!” Gao Da-Zhuang removed his uniform and thrashed it to the floor as well.

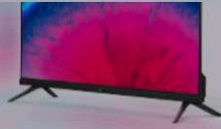

“OK, I will count you in.”

“Ming-Bo, what about you? Do you want to leave too?” Li Zi-Yang looked at Ma Ming-Bo and asked in a low voice.

Ma Ming-Bo hesitated. Desertion was a serious offence in any military camp. The consequences would be severe if one was caught.

There was a look of uncertainty on Ma Ming-Bo’s face as he struggled to reach to a decision.

Finally, with a determined look, Ma Ming-Bo said, “Alright, Yang, I will follow you! You are right, I joined the military to learn skills for a good future, and I’m certainly not here to be abused. There’s no point in staying here anymore. Let’s go and look for Instructor Chu!”

Chapter 1189 There is No Point Staying

With Ma Ming-Bo's consensus, Li Zi-Yang turned to look at Ye Yu-Yan and Tai Shan.

"Captain, Tai Shan, what about both of you?"

"Do you want to join us?"

Li Zi-Yang and the other two extended the question to Ye Yu-Yan and Tai Shan.

Ye Yu-Yan wanted to dissuade them initially. The plan was absurd and could be considered treacherous in the military.

But after hearing what Li Zi-Yang and the rest had said, Ye Yu-Yan felt that their reasons made sense.

They were right. Their purpose in the military had become meaningless without Instructor Chu.

It was worth a shot to try get out of this hopeless place instead of waiting around to be killed.

Ye Yu-Yan finally nodded her head, "We had said before that Instructor Chu will always be our master. The Green Dragon Force was established by Instructor Chu, and therefore,

After much discussion, Li Zi-Yang and the rest decided to escape from the military that very night.

They decided to head towards Yunzhou to look for Ye Fan.

The team was strongly attached to Ye Fan as the Green Dragon Force was established by him.

Chen Lan and the military camp had forsaken them first, and it was them who had forced the Green Dragon Force members to rebel!

But to their surprise, Tai Shan refused to participate in their plan.

“Tai Shan, are you out of your mind? You want to stay on despite how Chen Lan has been treating us? Have you forgotten how he treated you today? If it wasn’t for the timely intervention by Colonel Wang Dong-Sheng, you would have died at the hands of Chen Lan today.”

Chu? Has your brain been kicked by a donkey?" Li Zi-Yang couldn't help but scold Tai Shan when he was rejected. He had expected Tai Shan to agree to their escape plan.

Tai Shan was quiet throughout Li Zi-Yang's scolding.

Tai Shan said as he turned his back towards the rest of them, "You don't have to persuade me anymore, I have made up my mind. The rest of you can go ahead, I will stay behind. If you manage to find Instructor Chu, please send my regards to him."

After he had said this, Tai Shan closed his eyes and pulled the blanket over his head to sleep.

"You..."

"You are really hopeless!"

"Alright, you can stay behind and wait for your death since that is what you want."

"Captain, let's go. We need to head back and get ourselves prepared."

When Li Zi-Yang and the rest saw how determined Tai Shan was in his decision, they decided to leave him alone.

The four of them headed back to their dormitories to prepare for their escape.

After a check by the doctor, Ye Yu-Yan's leg had not been broken but had only been dislocated. So while there was still some pain after moving the bone back into position, she didn't really have any mobility issues.

As soon as they had left, the crowded hospital ward became very quiet with Tai Shan left all alone.

Tai Shan opened his eyes when he was sure that Li Zi-Yang and the rest were gone.

He was a big-built and tough looking man, but tears started to well up in Tai Shan's eyes as he watched his comrades leave from his window.

Did he really not want to leave with them?

Did he not want to escape from this place and look for Instructor Chu?

Of course not!

He had the same strong desire to leave this place as the rest of the Green Dragon Force members.

But he had decided to stay when Li Zi-Yang posed the question to him earlier.

His reason was simple. He could not even walk with his current injuries, let alone try to escape from the heavily guarded military camp.

He would only be a burden to the rest of the Green Dragon Force members in their escape plan!

It was likely that their escape plan would fail because of him.

It was this reason that made Tai Shan determined to stay even if it meant that he was the only one left.

He would not be a burden to his comrades!

“Farewell, Captain, Zi-Yang, Ming-Bo and Da-Zhuang. I wish the best for all of you.”

Soon, it was nightfall.

In front of his hospital ward window, Tai Shan was praying silently for his comrades' escape plan.

His wish was for them to escape safely.

The night grew heavy with darkness as time crept by.

Midnight finally arrived.

The military camp was quiet with most of the people asleep. Only the patrol and sentry guards remained awake.

After an entire day of activity, the camp was like a wild beast that had fallen asleep.

It was so quiet that one could only hear the call of the crickets and whispering of the wind.

“Captain and the rest should be making their move soon. I pray that everything goes smoothly,” Tai Shan prayed softly as he stood in front of the window. As much as he wanted to join them, he had decided to stay as he did not want to be a burden to his comrades. Praying was all that he could do now.

Creeaaak...

The door to the ward suddenly creaked opened as Tai Shan stood in front of the window, worrying about his comrades.

“Who’s there?” Tai Shan frowned and became wary when he heard the door creak open.

“Rascal! Quick, change into your clothes and follow us!” Li Zi-Yang’s impatient voice sounded from the door.

Tai Shan turned and saw the Green Dragon Force members appearing in front of him.

“Why...why are you guys back here?” Tai Shan asked in bewilderment.

“Stop wasting time! Quick, change into your clothes, put on your shoes and come with us! Don’t you even dare dream about abandoning us! Let me tell you, as a member of the Green Dragon Force, you have to be with us even in death! We will not allow you to break away from us!” Li Zi-Yang chided

Tai Shan while he motioned for Ma Ming-Bo to help him get Tai Shan changed into his clothes and shoes. Once they were done helping Tai Shan, Gao Da-Zhuang ran over and carried Tai Shan on his back.

Before Tai Shan could react to what was happening, he was already on Gao Da-Zhuang's back and on his way down the hospital building.

"Captain, I..." In the darkness of the night, tears rolled down Tai Shan's face as he tried to speak with a trembling voice. He was choked with emotions as he looked at his comrades.

Ye Yu-Yan cut him off and said, "Enough, we can speak later when we are out of here. You just have to remember one thing, the five of us in the Green Dragon Force are united as one. We rise as one and we fall as one. We will not leave anyone behind."

The words from Ye Yu-Yan resounded in the dark.

The rest of the Green Dragon Force members did not speak but nodded their heads solemnly.

It was impossible for Li Zi-Yang and the rest to be unaware of what Tai Shan was thinking about when he refused to go with them.

And it was precisely because they knew, so they could not leave Tai Shan behind.

Hence, they had come straight to the hospital for Tai Shan when it was time to leave.

The Green Dragon Force carefully made their way towards the edge of the military camp under the cover of the dark night.

They had encountered a number of soldiers who had stood sentinel along the way but had managed to avoid them and passed each checkpoint with their agile skills and speed.

As special troops soldiers trained by Ye Fan, they had developed skills and strength that were above an average person. It was not difficult for them to avoid the sentinels.

Within ten minutes, they had arrived safely at the edge of the camp.

Only a wall now stood between them and “Quick! Let’s not waste any more time and hurry up!” Ye Yu-Yan’s anxious voice sounded in their ears.

Li Zi-Yang and the others nodded.

They held their breaths, stomped their feet heavily on the ground and with a hard thrust, leapt into the air.

They were like birds soaring in the dark night as they leaped over towering walls and made their way out of the Jiangdong military camp.

“We’re finally out! We’re free!” Li Zi-Yang and the others appeared visibly moved as they stepped foot on the soil outside of the military camp. They were in the land of the free now.

They had never realized how precious freedom truly was.

“That’s right, we’re finally out of that hell hole.” Ye Yu-Yan turned, glanced at the tall walls of the military camp, and burst out into a laugh. “We’re not out of danger yet. We have to get as far as we can from this place before they realize that we’re gone!”

After a moment of respite, Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates got ready to be on their way and leave this place.

“Leave? Do you really think you can get out of here?” A mirthless laugh rang out and reverberated in the night.

Bright lights erupted from within the military camp.

The blinding lights spilled across the night sky and, like numerous suns rising into the sky, colored the night as bright as day!

It was then that Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates realized that what they had thought had been utter darkness had been in fact dark masses of soldiers gathered together.

Thousands of soldiers had had them surrounded all along.

They were akin to floodwaters that had swept away all roads to escape, leaving the Green Dragon Force with nowhere to run.

Standing at their helm was the newly appointed chief military instructor of the

“It’s you!”

The Green Dragon Force was startled when they saw the man. Their pupils contracted with wariness.

“This is impossible. How did you know we were leaving?”

Despair threatened to swallow them whole as they surveyed the masses of soldiers surrounding them.

They knew then that their plan had failed.

If their only opponent were Chen Lan and Chen Lan alone, a few of them might stand the chance of escaping.

But they were now trapped by a full battalion.

The Green Dragon Force had no chances of escape at all.

They felt rage and helplessness drowning them from the inside.

They had made it out of the campsite itself.

They had been one step away from making a successful escape.

Why had the gods thwarted their success at the very last moment?

Waves of despair, rage and helplessness swelled inside them and threatened to pull them under like a tsunami.

Eyes reddening with anger, Li Zi-Yang began to growl at Chen Lan.

Chen Lan merely smiled at them smugly.

“You’re just a bunch of trash. Do you really think you can fool me? You really think you can slip through my fingers? I knew exactly what you were up to and had planned for it right from the start. My men were watching your every move and have hacked your phones to monitor your communications. I knew every single thing that you were up to. There was no way you could have escaped at all. Chapter 1191 Utter Despair

“How dare you! You’re despicable! How could you spy on us like that? You’re an absolute scoundrel! Chen Lan, you’ll going to suffer a horrible death!”

Li Zi-Yang and his teammates were furious when they heard Chen Lan’s words.

Their eyes reddened with fury. If looks could kill, Chen Lan would have died a thousand deaths.

Chen Lan merely smiled.

“You seem really concerned about my death. I think you should be worried about your own fates instead. You left the military camp without permission and attempted to escape from the camp. You disobeyed your superiors, defied orders, attacked your instructor, broke the rules of the military and caused harm to your comrades. You should have been shot on sight,” said Chen Lan coolly as he kept his hands folded behind his back. His words were as cold as the passing wintry wind in the night.

Alarm flashed across Ye Yu-Yan’s face instantly.

Gao Da-Zhuang, Li Zi-Yang and the others were furious.

Anger twisted their features as they began to curse out loud.

“That’s utter rubbish! Chen Lan, you’re a fucking liar! When did we disobey orders? When did we attack you? When did we hurt our comrades? Those are utter lies! All of them!”

They had been accused of something that they had not done and that naturally infuriated the Green Dragon Force.

No one would stand by and allow their good names to be tarnished that way.

Chen Lan simply smiled. “Well, I said you have, and so you did.”

“You! How dare you! We want to speak to the commander-in-chief. We’ll make sure that Commander Wu sees you as the liar you are!”

The Green Dragon Force was livid when they heard what Chen Lan had said.

In the midst of their anger, they threatened to expose his lies to Wu Yang.

“You want to speak to the commander-in-chief? You have to be alive to do that. Do you really think I’m going to let you live to see him?” said Chen Lan before bursting into a loud brazen laughter that filled the air.

“You bastard! I’m going to kill you!” snarled Li Zi-Yang as he lost control of his temper and a burning and uncontrollable rage erupted within him.

Eyes red with fury, he charged at Chen Lan like a crazed man and swung his fist at the latter.

But Li Zi-Yang was a soldier who had but a few months of training in martial arts while Chen Lan had trained in martial arts for his whole life. Li Zi-Yang wasn’t a match for Chen Lan at all.

In the darkness of the night, they watched as Chen Lan lifted his hand and caught Li Zi-Yang’s arm effortlessly. Then, just as easily, he bent Li Zi-Yang arm.

A sharp cry pierced the air as Li Zi-Yang’s

Chen Lan's palm shot out and hit Li Zi-Yang squarely in the chest.

The sound of ribs breaking could be heard as Li Zi-Yang spat out a mouthful of blood and flew into the distance.

"Yang! You bastard, I'm going to kill you!"

This ruthless attack on their comrade appeared to be the final straw.

The Green Dragon Force knew that they were no match for Chen Lan. Nevertheless, they weren't going to back down. The remaining members of the Green Dragon Force leapt into the air and lunged at Chen Lan.

"You have no idea who you're dealing with. You're just going to get yourself killed," scoffed Chen Lan as the members of the Green Dragon Force made their charge at him.

He unleashed a flurry of attacks, every fist and every palm aiming to maim and decapitate.

One blow snapped a few of Ma Ming-Bo's ribs.

Blood splattered everywhere as organs were crushed and bones broken.

Chen Lan unleashed a flurry of kicks and punches, every blow delivering devastating damage to his enemies.

Within a span of seconds, the members of the Green Dragon Force had fallen to the ground. Blood flowed freely from their mouths as they lay on the ground, severely injured and on the verge of death.

Chen Lan was clearly trying to kill everyone in the Green Dragon Force.

“What a bunch of useless trash you are. I would have spared your lives if you’d stayed put in the military camp as you were told to. Instead, you spurned my gesture of mercy, disrespected my authority and even tried to mount an escape. You’ve betrayed me and nearly humiliated me with your betrayal.”

Chen Lan cared deeply for his reputation. Wu Yang would have blamed him for negligence if the Green Dragon Force had deserted the military while under his charge. He would have been made the laughing stock of the military force.

They would mock him for his incompetency and his failure to control and discipline his men.

That had been why Chen Lan had been so furious when he had found out that the Green Dragon Force had attempted to break out of the military camp.

He had led thousands of men to corner Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates, launched a merciless attack against the Green Dragon

Force and had nearly killed them.

“There’s one thing that I cannot bear the most and it’s betrayal. But I know you’re young and foolish, and I’m willing to give you another chance. Get on your knees and address me respectfully as your commander and instructor. Swear your undying loyalty and obedience to me and that you’ll forget your beloved Instructor Chu. Do that and I’ll spare your lives.”

Chen Lan’s words were filled with ferocity.

A cold wind suddenly began to howl.

Leaves stirred on the ground while branches rustled uneasily.

Chen Lan’s icy tone sent tremors rippling through everyone’s bodies.

He expected these young soldiers to be cowed by his display of authority and submit to his will.

He did not expect Li Zi-Yang and his teammates to holler at him in fury. In the face of a thousand soldiers and stuck in a precarious situation, these young men and women continued to be defiant.

“You old scoundrel, you’re not worthy. We will never kneel to you!”

“The Green Dragon Force only has one instructor and that’s Instructor Chu.”

“Do what you want with us! You can kill us if you want to!”

“But you best be prepared. Instructor Chu’s going to avenge us!”

“When he returns, he’s not going to let any one of you off easily! He’ll avenge our deaths!”

The members of the Green Dragon Force lay helplessly on the ground and in their own blood. They appeared to be hovering on the edge of death.

Yet, they were stubborn to the end as they growled in anger and refused to submit to their enemy.

They would rather die than betray Instructor Chu.

“I see how it is. You’ve got guts, but that’s not going to save you from my fists.”

Chen Lan had not expected them to be so obstinate.

Despite the predicament that the Green Dragon Force was in, its members continued to hurl curses at him and show their defiance openly.

In a fit of fury, Chen Lan charged at Li Zi-Yang and the others, ready to unleash another series of attack on the Green Dragon Force.

“I would have let you all live if you had shown remorse for what you’ve done and repented. It’s a pity that you’re all stubborn, blind fools. There’s no point in letting fools live. I’m going to do my duty as the chief instructor of the Jiangdong military camp and serve you the punishment that you deserve!”

His voice boomed like thunder and reverberated in the air.

Fury had twisted Chen Lan's features and lit his eyes in a cold fire.

Everyone watched as he took a huge bound and soared into the air.

He curled his fingers inwards and drove his clawed hands towards his enemy's throat as he dived down.

There was no doubt that when the hit landed, someone's head was going to be severed from their spine. Death was imminent.

Yet the members of the Green Dragon Force appeared fearless in the face of impending death.

They did not regret their actions, nor did they regret declaring their undying loyalty to Ye Fan, their one and only instructor.

They had but one regret, and it was that they could not see Instructor Chu one last time before they were killed and that they couldn't thank him for what he had taught and given them.

"So long, ants," laughed Chen Lan evilly.

The gust of wind that rushed towards the Green Dragon Force was akin to the sharp claws of death himself.

Was this what one felt before he or she died?

Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates' eyes fell shut in despair as they awaited Chen Lan's fatal blow and for his claws to rip through their bodies.

In the dark, no one saw the tears glistening in the corner of their eyes.

Were they truly unafraid of death?

Of course not.

They were in the prime of their youth. Their lives had barely begun and they had not yet realized their dreams. But their lives were going to end now.

Inconsolable sorrow swelled within them.

“Farewell, Fan.”

The last thought that remained in their mind was that of a young and slim man.

Chen Lan's claws approached them steadily.

It was then that a sudden wind began to howl.

A voice filled with power thundered in the night and reverberated in the forest.

“Invoke the Celestial Cloud! Cloud Sun Kick!”

A shadow darted across the night sky like a bolt of lightning, slicing through darkness and appearing out of nowhere.

The new arrival hovered in mid-air momentarily before thrusting his foot downward.

The weight of his foot was akin to that of a mountain as it landed squarely on Chen Lan.

Chen Lan clenched his jaw and tried to retaliate. Fierce winds lashed at his clothes wildly.

Just as he thought that he had successfully countered the attack and that danger had passed, he was faced with a second attack.

"What on earth?!"

Chen Lan's pupils contracted in alarm while his eyes widened when the immense force of the attack hit him.

The punch flung him away like a puppet cut of its strings and sent him staggering numerous steps backwards when he finally landed on the ground.

He smashed into the wall, denting concrete and metal and destroying a dozen meters of what should have been an impenetrable wall.

A tremor coursed through Chen Lan's body as the bittersweetness of iron filled his mouth. He nearly spat out a mouthful of blood.

Everyone froze.

The members of the Green Dragon Force widened their eyes in surprise.

“Is that you...Instructor Chu?” Ye Yu-Yan’s voice trembled.

Tai Shan’s head whipped up.

Li Zi-Yang and the others gasped in shock.

Bloodied and sprawling on the ground, the members of the Green Dragon Force stared incredulously at the figure obscured in the dark.

Light fell across the figure’s face as he approached and Ye Fan’s face finally appeared in the sight of Ye Yu-Yan and the rest.

The members of the Green Dragon Force were beside themselves.

Tears streamed down their cheeks.

“Save us, Instructor Chu!”

“I knew it! I knew Instructor Chu wouldn’t leave us in the lurch!”

Tai Shan and his teammates went wild with joy. Their laughter was interrupted by bouts of joyful weeping as tears streamed down their cheeks and were carried away by the winds.

They had suffered so much humiliation during Ye Fan’s absence.

They had to bury their resentment and rage deep within them.

But now, Ye Fan was back.

The sight of the man seemed to have triggered something. A dam broke inside the members of the Green Dragon Force, unleashing a flood of emotions that they had kept pent up for so long.

Ye Yu-Yan threw herself into Ye Fan’s arms and started to wail.

She felt like a boat that had been lost at sea for so long and had finally found her harbor.

It didn't matter how much danger they appeared to be in right now. The sight of this man gave the Green Dragon Force strength and exorcised all their fears and worries.

“Instructor Chu, we thought we'd never get to see you again!”

Ye Fan had walked up to them. The two grown men, Tai Shan and Gao Da-Zhuang, were weeping like children.

They had barely slipped through the jaws of death. Such an experience would have shaken anyone.

In addition, they had been keeping their emotions pent up inside them all this while.

The floodgates opened and their emotions rushed out like a tsunami at the sight of Ye Fan.

Their injuries were severe.

Tai Shan had previously been injured. The new injuries that he had just sustained left him hanging by the thread.

The rest were lying in their own pools of

It took all that they had just to speak to Ye Fan.

“How are you holding up?” whispered Ye Fan.

The members of the Green Dragon Force nodded. “Don’t worry, Instructor Chu...You taught us the Green Dragon Technique, remember? We won’t die...that easily.”

Li Zi-Yang tried to force a smile on his face. His pallor and the shakiness in his voice betrayed his weakened state.

Ye Fan nodded. “Just hold on for a few more minutes. We’ll be off in a short while.”

Having said those words of comfort, he turned around and faced the thousands of soldiers who had been standing behind him.

eyes finally landed on the man who was emanating a powerful bloodlust.

Chen Lan felt an instinctive shiver down his spine.

“This man’s not to be trifled with.” A dark look settled on Chen Lan’s face as he eyed the intruder cautiously.

But he did not deem him too big a threat.

He was a young punk, after all. How powerful could a young punk be?

“Are you the so-called Instructor Chu that these useless soldiers kept raving about? I can’t believe your guts. You actually dared to return to the camp. You abandoned your duties and caused a military flight to be delayed. Commander Wu had plans to have you court marshalled. Unfortunately, you were not in camp. That’s why he didn’t order an arrest. Now that you’re back, you should turn yourself in for punishment,” barked Chen Lan authoritatively as he leveled a cold, disdainful look at Ye Fan.

An icy flint flashed across Ye Fan's eyes.

"Silence!" he thundered.

He flipped his sleeve suddenly and sent a forceful gust of wind lashing at the man.

With a shocked yowl, the heavily built man rose into the air and flew into the distance like a ball that had been given a swift, hard kick.

Silence fell over everyone. You could hear a pin drop.

A chilly wind swept through the forest.

Everyone stared at the young man before him in horror.

They had not expected the seemingly harmless looking young man to be so merciless and brutal.

With a simple flip of his sleeve, he had smashed open another man's skull.

The sheer brutality of his attack had everyone stunned.

"Scoundrel, how dare you kill your comrade? What audacity! I can have you shot and killed for that alone!" thundered Chen Lan as he glared furiously at Ye Fan.

Ye Fan ignored his words. He took one step forward, then another, and approached Chen Lan steadily. "I asked you a question. Are you the one who hurt my men?"

"Yes, I was the one who did that. But, so what? They're just a bunch of trash. They should be honored that they get to die by my hand. I won't stop at killing them. Chapter 1194 It's My Turn

As the leader of the Xingyi Sect, Chen Lan was a master of Xingyi Boxing and its array of moves.

He unleashed the Thirteen Xingyi Punches effortlessly, launching a flurry of powerful punches that swung at Ye Fan with a relentless force.

“Dear heavens, is that the Thirteen Xingyi Punches, the most powerful move of the Xingyi Sect? Our instructor is incredible!” one of the soldiers gasped aloud.

A few other soldiers appeared confused. “The Thirteen Xingyi Punches? What’s that, Li? Can it compare to our Military Boxing?”

“Of course! Xingyi Boxing was created during the Qing Dynasty and has a long history that spans two hundred years. When attacking with Xingyi Boxing, the practitioner’s mind and spirit have to be one. So do their mental and physical strengths, the upper and lower halves of their body, their elbows and their knees as well as their arms and their legs. of leader of the Xingyi Sect indeed. I can't believe he's mastered this move! The Green Dragon Force's fate is sealed. They're dead meat," rambled the soldier named Li.

He had been an ardent fan of Chinese martial arts since he had been a child and had dabbled a little in various traditional martial arts like Taiji Boxing and Xingyi Boxing.

He had recognized the well-known move in Xingyi Boxing as soon as Chen Lan had unleashed it.

The other soldiers around him still appeared a little confused, but it didn't matter. All they needed to know was that Chen Lan was an amazing martial artist.

Yet, Ye Fan appeared unfazed by Chen Lan's ferocious attack. A strange emotion danced in his dark eyes.

He looked at Chen Lan and shook his head slightly. "So, you're the one who hurt my people then. That's all I needed to know."

moaning that plunged those who had heard it into the depths of a freezing abyss. The temperature in the air took a sharp plummet.

“Humph! Those are just words of bravado. There’s no way I’m going to lose to a young punk like you.” A deep furrow creased Chen Lan’s brow when he sensed the aura of power emanating from Ye Fan.

Nevertheless, he remained unconvinced that Ye Fan was his match.

Achieving mastery in martial arts wasn’t something that one achieved in a day.

He had been learning martial arts since he had been a child. There was no way a mere young man could rival the years of training he had poured into martial arts.

Besides, he had mastered the Thirteen Xingyi Punches, one of the most powerful techniques in martial arts. He was confident of his victory.

That was why he was convinced that the success of Ye Fan’s earlier attack had been a fluke. He had been caught by surprise, which had been why Ye Fan had managed to

But was that truly the case?

Chen Lan charged at Ye Fan with the ferocity of a tornado. Yet, the other man simply stood there quietly.

His hands were folded behind his back.

There was no hint of emotion, neither joy nor sorrow, on his face.

He was akin to an unmoving boulder rooted to the very earth as the storm raged around him.

"Why isn't he attacking? Has he given up on all hope? Maybe he knows that he's no match for Instructor Chen and has given up on fighting. What trash! He used to be an instructor in our camp, didn't he? He's an utter joke!" Voices of derision rose in the air.

in mockery. Their eyes were filled with scorn as they looked at Ye Fan.

Most of them didn't know Ye Fan at all.

After all, Ye Fan had joined the Jiangdong military camp a month ago.

He had barely spent much time in camp during this period.

Even when he had been in camp, he had spent his time with and on the Green Dragon Force. Ordinary soldiers hardly had the chance to bump into Ye Fan.

Thus, despite the size of the Jiangdong military camp and the vast army of soldiers it housed, the few soldiers who truly felt any sense of loyalty towards Ye Fan were the members of the Green Dragon Force.

One might count Wang Dong-Sheng amongst this small group of soldiers, but honestly, his feelings towards Ye Fan seemed to be primarily that of fear and awe instead of loyalty and respect.

But alarms blared in Chen Lan’s head.

“I told you so! Instructor Chen’s a formidable martial artist. There’s no way that young punk can beat him. Even if the Thirteen Xingyi Punches don’t kill him, he’s going to be maimed for life,” crowed Li as he made a show of his superior knowledge of martial arts.

Everyone around him nodded profusely.

“That’s right! It’s Instructor Chen, after all. He’s the leader of the Xingyi Sect and a powerful Chinese martial artist. Few people are his match.”

No one expected their cheering to be met with Chen Lan’s furious cursing instead of his gratitude.

In fact, the soldiers were dumbstruck by the profanity that Chen Lan had hurled at them.

What had they done wrong? They had simply been cheering for their instructor!

The soldiers stared stupidly at one another as they wondered why they had incurred Chen Lan’s wrath.

They had no way of knowing that Chen Lan wished desperately to give every single one of them a hard kick in the ass.

He wouldn't have minded a few cheers if he had taken Ye Fan down.

But his attack appeared ineffective against Ye Fan. The cheers that his soldiers had called out had become words of mockery that had grated on his ears.

“Damn you! Let's see how long you can withstand my attacks. You're not made of metal.”

Ye Fan's voice thundered in the night.

Everyone could see the icy glint flash across his eyes.

His right arm rose into the air and circled a few times.

The natural energies of heaven and earth appeared to respond to his call as they surged towards Ye Fan and gathered within his palm.

Clouds roiled in the skies while leaves were torn from their branches and swept away by a gust of wind.

The waves of energy emanating from Ye Fan grew more powerful by the moment.

Within the span of a few seconds, the power that exuded from his form had reached a terrifying intensity!

The feat that they were witnessing right now was something that they had only seen in the movies or television dramas.

They were naturally blown away by the sight of this.

Chen Lan himself widened his eyes in shock.

Chen Lan clenched his jaw and struggled to hold his ground.

But the overpowering force of Ye Fan’s attack was simply too much for him. It had driven Chen Lan’s feet deep into the ground.

The enormous palm sank further downward. With a thunderous roar, Ye Fan bellowed.

Amidst the flurry of leaves, Chen Lan watched as Ye Fan approached him steadily.

Staring at his skinny silhouette was akin to staring at the shadowy figure of death.

He was seized by an unbearable terror as death inched towards him.

He couldn't control himself.

His eyes widened in terror.

"No...you can't kill me. I'm the chief instructor of the three armies and a general of the military. I'm the leader of the Xingyi Sect. You're just a lowly nobody...you wouldn't dare to kill me!" hollered Chen Lan, his desperate, hoarse cries filling the night.

Ye Fan's steps never wavered.

Chen Lan watched in despair as Ye Fan lifted his foot, held it above Chen Lan's chest and got ready to send it smashing into his chest.

“Stop, Ye Fan!”

“You scoundrel, don’t you dare do it! I order you to stop!”

Just then, two furious voices thundered simultaneously.

The commotion had caught the attention of both Wu Yang and Lin Qing-He and they had rushed over anxiously.

The sight that they had been greeted with had shocked both Wu Yang and Lin Qing-He, who had yelled at Ye Fan immediately to stop him from killing Chen Lan.

Their commands went unheeded.

Ye Fan’s foot had come crushing down the moment their cries had sounded.

A scream of pain rang out. Everyone stared as Ye Fan sent his foot through the chest of the man who had been the chief instructor of the three armies and a powerful martial artist.

What should have been sturdy bones were smashed like tofu.

The force of Ye Fan's foot nearly crushed Chen Lan's upper torso.

Blood spurted from the hole in Chen Lan's chest like a strong gush of red from a fountain, then vaporized before they could land on Ye Fan.

A dark red mist appeared around Ye Fan.

The Jiangdong military camp's chief instructor had barely served a month before he had been killed.

A deathly silence descended upon them all.

Blood fled the faces of the thousands of soldiers. They instinctively staggered away from Ye Fan.

In their eyes, Ye Fan was the embodiment of the devil!

"You...how dare you! How dare you kill him! You've gone too far, Ye Fan! How could you kill Chen Lan? He's the chief instructor of the Jiangdong military camp!" thundered Lin Qing-He as murderous rage colored his eyes red.

Wu Yang was livid too.

He had not expected Ye Fan to do the unforgivable and kill a high-ranking military official right before his eyes.

“He’s just a nobody. Why would I not dare to kill him?” replied Ye Fan coolly.

His voice remained calm like the smooth surface of a lake, without any ripple of emotion.

It was as if he had just crushed an ant and not a man who had been an instructor of the military and a powerful martial artist.

“You...you have gone too far! You have no respect for authority at all!” Ye Fan’s words had infuriated Wu Yang. His face was dark with rage as he tried to rein in his temper while reprimanding Ye Fan for his actions. “Ye Fan, do you really think you can do whatever you want because you have the backing of people like Lu Tian-He? Do you really think there’s nothing I can do to you? I have every right to instruct every man in the military to shoot you down for the crime that you’ve just committed!”

Wu Yang’s words appeared to be too harsh.

Alarm flashed across the faces of numerous soldiers.

Fear seized Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates.

They didn't care if they died, but they didn't want Ye Fan to suffer alongside them. They didn't want him to be hunted down by Wu Yang and the military.

That wasn't what the Green Dragon Force wanted for their instructor.

Ye Fan didn't seem fazed by Wu Yang's threat at all. He laughed softly.

His laughter betrayed his scorn, disdain and utter callousness for Wu Yang's words.

"Do you really wish to kill me? You could try. I should warn you though. I never leave a debt unpaid or a grudge unsettled. Any man who tries to come after me will be hunted down by me in return."

Ye Fan's softly uttered words exploded like bombs in their midst.

The winds began to howl.

Despite the hundreds of meters that separated them, they could sense a murderous aura emanating from the smiling young man.

Countless faces turned pale then.

Ye Fan had made himself very clear.

If Wu Yang dared to issue an order and command these soldiers to kill Ye Fan, Ye Fan would retaliate and kill Wu Yang.

“Oh my god, is he mad? How could he speak this way to our commander-in-chief?”

Ye Fan’s words had every soldier reeling back in shock.

Wu Yang was the commander-in-chief of the three armies. Under his command were hundreds of thousands of soldiers.

Few men dared to defy such a powerful man.

Yet this young man standing before them had sworn that he would get his just and equal pound of flesh if Wu Yang dared to make an enemy of him.

His words had undoubtedly caused Wu Yang great offense and insult.

There was no way Wu Yang wasn’t going to be infuriated.

“You’re really something, Ye Fan. How dare you threaten me! We shall see who falls first. Will you be trampled by my legions of men first or will I die by your hand first?” growled Wu Yang.

He was the commander-in-chief of the three armies. There was no way he was going to stand by and let a young punk hurl threats of death at him.

He was going to make this audacious young man eat his words. The latter was going to regret what he had said when he was riddled with bullets and lay in a pool of his own blood.

He was going to pay for his arrogance with his life!

“Lin Qing-He, I want you to deploy the heavy artillery units in our base right now!” bellowed Wu Yang.

A man rushed towards Wu Yang and threw his arms around the latter.

Let's talk this out. Please don't put all our lives at stake and get into a fight with Instructor Chu!" the man howled as he pleaded desperately.

The Green Dragon Force was startled when they realized whom the man was.

It was no other than Wang Dong-Sheng, the man who had taken great care of them.

Chen Lan had thrown him into the military prison earlier that day.

But it hadn't been difficult for him to escape from his cell at all. He had been a soldier for many years and had made many friends in the military.

Besides, he hadn't committed anything serious. All he had done was to disagree with Chen Lan.

That shouldn't have warranted any punishment at all. Chen Lan had abused his authority when he had Wang Dong-Sheng thrown into a confinement cell.

All these factors had then culminated in Wang Dong-Sheng's early release.

He had been worried about the Green Dragon Force's safety and that Chen Lan might do something terrible. Wang Dong-Sheng had tried to reach Ye Fan that afternoon and had managed to inform Ye Fan about the Green Dragon Force's predicament.

That had been why Ye Fan had appeared outside the military camp that night.

Wang Dong-Sheng had thought that Ye Fan would simply teach Chen Lan a lesson and give the latter a good thrashing.

He had not expected Ye Fan to kill the man without even batting an eyelid!

In fact, Ye Fan had killed the instructor in front of Wu Yang.

Wang Dong-Sheng had realized the moment that Chen Lan had died that they now had a terrible mess on their hands. This was a disaster.

There was no way Ye Fan could reclaim his position in the military now.

"Step aside, Wang Dong-Sheng. Be mindful of where your allegiance lies. I've told you once and I'll tell you again. Ye Fan has been stripped of his position in the military. No one is to address him as an instructor. He is a criminal!" thundered Wu Yang furiously.

"Commander Wu, even though Mr Chu is no longer an instructor of the military and he's made a huge mistake, we must still remember that he was transferred here upon General Lu's recommendation. We also mustn't forget that he has the favor of General Ye Qing-Tian," said Wang Dong-Sheng as he urged the commander to change his mind.

"You might not care for General Lu, but what about General Ye? Shouldn't you have a care for what he might think? General Ye approves of Mr Chu and regards him highly. Killing Mr Chu would be akin to insulting General Ye. The consequences of that are unthinkable."

Left with no other choice, Wang Dong-Sheng decided to use Lu Tian-He and Ye Tian-Qing as excuses to stop Wu Yang from issuing an order to attack Ye Fan. No one was going to believe him if he told them that Ye Fan was invincible and that no army was going to take him down.

He had made the right move. Wu Yang froze momentarily when he heard the mention of Ye Qing-Tian's name and began to reconsider his decision.

Wu Yang knew that the general had sought Ye Fan out secretly when he had arrived at the Jiangdong military camp.

In fact, before Ye Qing-Tian had departed from their camp, he had told Wu Yang that he had high hopes for Ye Fan and told him to take good care of the young man.

He wasn't particularly concerned about Lu Tian-He but Ye Qing-Tian was a man whom he had to be careful of.

He was akin to a legend in the military.

Even though he did not hold any position in the military and wielded no actual power in this area, Ye Qing-Tian never needed either of those.

His presence alone was enough to remind everyone in the military of his achievements, which they could never hope to surpass.

No one commanded the same level of respect that he did.

That was why Wu Yang had to keep in mind the influence that Ye Qing-Tian wielded.

After a moment of hesitation, he decided not to kill Ye Fan.

But that did not mean that Ye Fan was going to escape punishment.

The young man had defied him openly and killed Chen Lan right before his eyes. He had disrespected his authority. That alone guaranteed that Wu Yang wouldn't let him off that easily.

He stared straight into Ye Fan's eyes. Fury colored his words as he spoke.

"Ye Fan, I trusted you. That was why I entrusted the important office of chief instructor of our military camp to you. But instead of showing gratitude for the trust that I've shown, you failed to carry out your duties and left the camp without seeking permission from your superiors. You have no regard for the military and our rules. You showed your complete disregard for the law when you killed a military officer. You should pay for that murder with your life. Ye's account, I'll spare your life."

What?

"Commander Wu, you can't do that. He killed Chief Instructor Chen and openly defied your orders. According to our regulations, he should be executed. If you let him off, you'll lose the respect of our soldiers," said Lin Qing-He anxiously.

Ye Fan had disrupted his plans repeatedly and killed one of his friends. Lin Qing-He had wanted to get rid of him for some time.

This was the perfect chance for him to do so.

He had not expected Wu Yang to decide to let Ye Fan off.

He couldn't let that happen!

"Commander Lin, this isn't Mr Chu's fault. Chen Lan attacked him first. He wanted to kill Mr Chu. Mr Chu had no choice but to defend himself. If we have to hold anyone responsible, we should hold Chen Lan responsible and not Mr Chu," said Wang Dong-Sheng as he continued to speak up for Ye Fan.

Lin Qing-He blew up instantly. He lifted his foot and threw a hard kick at Wang Dong-Sheng, sending the latter flying into the distance.

“You’re just the leader of a small unit, you’re hardly qualified to speak on this matter. Besides, why are you interrupting me when I’m talking? Stand aside and shut up!” hollered Lin Qing-He furiously as he vented his anger towards Ye Fan on Wang Dong-Sheng.

Lin Qing-He then attempted to persuade Wu Yang to kill Ye Fan.

“I have my own considerations. Nothing you say will change my mind,” said Wu Yang, killing Lin Qing-He’s hopes instantly before turning towards Ye Fan with a stormy look on his face. “Even though Ye Fan has escaped a death sentence, it does not mean that he’s free from punishment. He shall be stripped of all duties and fired from the military. From this day, the military will have nothing to do with Ye Fan. The Green Dragon Force will have nothing to do with Ye Fan as well. change my mind.”

Ye Fan didn't move at all. Instead, he laughed softly. “I have no intention of remaining in the military. You can fire me if you want. But I was the one who created the Green Dragon Force. I personally picked its members and trained them. I came today to take the Green Dragon Force with me.”

“Silence!” Wu Yang thundered furiously. “The Green Dragon Force belongs to the Jiangdong military camp. Its members are soldiers of our military. The resources that the Green Dragon Force received came from the military and from the vaults of our nation and its members are my soldiers and my subordinates. You're a man who's been cast out of the military. You have no right to take the Green Dragon Force with you!”

The smile on Ye Fan's lips grew.

“Commander Wu, you appear to be the person who's least qualified to make any claims on the Green Dragon Force. You claim that they are your men. Yet, how have you treated these men of yours? You ceased their supplies, abused them and forced them to undergo inhumane training. If I don't take them away with me, they might not live to see the sunrise in just a few days. They would probably perish under your abuse!”

Ye Fan’s words were harsh and merciless as he spoke out openly against Wu Yang’s mistreatment of the Green Dragon Force.

His words undoubtedly infuriated Wu Yang. “What about it? They’re my soldiers. As their commander-in-chief, I have every right and freedom to decide how they are to be trained. Even if I were to order them to their deaths, they’d have to obey my orders and execute them without protest. You’re no longer part of the military. You have no right to comment on how the military deals with the Green Dragon Force.”

His words might have been spoken in anger, but they held a measure of truth in them.

As the sages used to say, a lord’s death rested upon his emperor’s will.

“Commander Wu appears to wield tremendous authority! Do you really believe you hold any true command over the Green Dragon Force? I dare say, without my permission, they wouldn’t do anything you tell them to.”

“Utter nonsense! Do you truly think that your words, the words of a young punk, have more weight than mine, the words of an army commander?” roared Wu Yang furiously before he whipped his head around and glared at Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates. “Green Dragon Force, I command you to return to the military camp right now. You shall cut all ties with Ye Fan! From this day, you will have nothing to do with this man!”

His furious words reverberated through the air.

Wu Yang did not expect his command to fall on deaf ears. The Green Dragon Force did not budge at all. In fact, they seemed to be ignoring the commander.

to the military camp right now!” thundered Wu Yang as the frown between his brows deepened.

He received no reaction at all.

Ye Yu-Yan, Li Zi-Yang and their teammates appeared oblivious to Wu Yang’s words.

Ye Fan’s eyes landed on Wu Yang then.

In the dark night, he was a tall and slim figure with his hands folded behind his back and a mirthless smile on his lips.

He surveyed the surrounding, then said, “Answer to my call, Green Dragon Force.”

A cold and harsh wind began howling around him and sent fallen leaves into a flurried dance.

Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates struggled against the agonizing pain coursing through their bodies and staggered to their feet.

The words of the Green Dragon Force erupted like bombs in their midst.

The force of their solemn declaration sent everyone's ears ringing.

Wu Yang nearly fainted from sheer anger.

He lifted a trembling finger at Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates.

"You...how dare you...I'm the commander-in-chief of this military camp! I'm the one whose orders you should be obeying! How dare you disobey me and answer to him instead! Aren't you afraid of being stripped of your military office and cast out of the military like this young punk?" Wu Yang's voice shook with fury as he bellowed at the Green Dragon Force.

The members of the Green Dragon Force appeared unfazed by Wu Yang's threatening words.

"You don't have to go through all that trouble. The Green Dragon Force formally resigns from the Jiangdong military. From this day, we will have nothing to do with the Jiangdong military," said Ye Yu-Yan dispassionately.

“You...you...” Ye Yu-Yan’s cold words were like an icy dagger stabbing repeatedly into Wu Yang’s heart.

Wu Yang could not have expected this. He had lost to a young punk.

The Jiangdong military had lost to a man whom they had expelled from their midst. Its appeal could not compare to the latter’s.

“Commander Wu, please accept our apologies. The military is the one who let us down first. You cannot blame us for doing the same. We bid you farewell!” the members of the Green Dragon Force said in unison before they began to head towards Ye Fan.

Their strides were steady as they walked resolutely away from what had been an absolute hellhole.

“You’re a bunch of ingrates! All of you! I must have been blind when I allowed you to join the military!”

you! Think of how well the military treated you! Is this how you pay us back? With betrayal? What ingrates!" Wu Yang howled like a madman at the Green Dragon Force.

No one blamed Wu Yang for his complete loss of composure. The Green Dragon Force's declaration was akin to a slap to Wu Yang's face. They had just humiliated him in public.

He had been embarrassed in front of his soldiers as the veneer of his authority had been exposed for all to see.

Of course, no one could blame the Green Dragon Force for what they had just done either.

The Jiangdong military had done them wrong in the first place.

They had joined the military because they had wanted to serve as soldiers and protect their nation.

Yet, what they had suffered in the military in the past two weeks had caused them to become utterly disillusioned.

The flames of passion that they had when they had first entered the military had been thoroughly doused after enduring the humiliation and abuse that Chen Lan and his lackeys had put them through.

Perhaps it was true that Wu Yang did not intend to do this to them.

But he was the overall commander of the Jiangdong military after all and should take responsibility for what had happened.

He should have been held accountable for his folly in picking the wrong man for the job and for giving a tyrant and a bully free rein in his military camp.

Chen Lan had tried to kill Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates tonight.

That last attempted act of coldblooded murder had killed whatever remnants of loyalty that the Green Dragon Force had had towards the military.

Ye Fan, on the other hand, had done the complete opposite. He had taught them and groomed them into the powerful fighters they were, and he had traversed thousands of miles to save them.

That alone placed the Green Dragon Force in his eternal debt.

That had been why they had not hesitated when made to choose between Ye Fan and the Jiangdong military.

The Green Dragon Force followed Ye Fan as he headed away from the Jiangdong military camp.

“Commander Wu, we can’t let them leave just like that. Please issue an order and have them shot down. They’ve betrayed the military and insulted you. They deserve a thousand deaths for their crimes!” urged Lin Qing-He as he watched Ye Fan and the Green Dragon Force depart.

Having recovered from his earlier bout of shock and regained his composure, Wu Yang simply shook his head. “Let them leave. These ingrates don’t deserve to remain in the Jiangdong military. Make sure their names are blacklisted so that they can never enlist in the army again!”

because he had been upset by the loss of military talent, but because he had felt humiliated by the Green Dragon Force's betrayal.

In his eyes, the five members of the Green Dragon Force were simply ordinary soldiers whom the military could do without.

There had plenty more of where they had come from.

He wasn't bothered by their departure and wasn't going to try and persuade them to stay.

The thought of killing them had never crossed his mind.

The Green Dragon Force might have caused him offense, but it had not been an act deserving of death.

Besides, these were mere young punks. He didn't need to get that worked up over them.

"They'll regret their actions sooner or later," said Wu Yang with a stormy look on his face as he watched Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates disappear into the distance.

There was no way he could foresee the incredible personalities these young soldiers whom the military had driven away would become in the future.

“Alright, let’s retreat. Everyone should retire tonight and continue their training tomorrow. Wang Dong-Sheng, I want you to stay and clear up this mess. Have Instructor Chen buried.”

Wu Yang appeared tired. He was ready to leave and retire for the night after issuing his orders.

He did not expect Wang Dong-Sheng to approach him.

“Commander Wu, I...I...” stuttered the man. One could see the footprint that Lin Qing-He had left on him after the latter’s hard kick. Wang Dong-Sheng seemed to have something he wanted to say but was struggling to put them into words.

Wu Yang seemed confused. Lin Qing-He, on the other hand, appeared to have reached the limits of his patience. He smacked Wang Dong-Sheng hard on his cheek.

“What the hell are you trying to say? Come on, spit it out! Don’t make Commander Wu wait! He needs his rest!” yelled Lin Qing-He angrily at the man.

Lin Qing-He was secretly furious at Wang Dong-Sheng.

If the man had not stepped in earlier, Ye Fan might already be dead.

Because of his words of persuasion, they had let a fearsome enemy go.

Lin Qing-He was naturally worried about the repercussions he might suffer in the future.

As worry clouded Lin Qing-He’s mind and distracted him, he did not see the slap coming his way until Wang Dong-Sheng smacked him hard on his cheek.

The slap sounded deafening in the quiet night.

“You...how dare you hit me! Wang Dong-Sheng, how dare you! You’re just a colonel! How dare you hit your commander! You’re finished, do you hear me? You’re finished!” bellowed Lin Qing-He at Wang Dong-Sheng as he clutched his swelling cheek and glared murderously at the latter.

He had not expected this low-ranking colonel to hit him back.

With a loud yowl, Lin Qing-He doubled over and fell onto his knees.

“Lin Qing-He, I can’t take this anymore. I enlisted because I wanted to be a soldier, not because I wanted to be an outlet for someone else’s frustrations. You don’t treat me like a proper human, do you? Well, I’m not going to treat you like one either!”

Even Buddha himself had a temper. Wang Dong-Sheng was a soldier who had fought his way to his position as colonel.

Lin Qing-He had humiliated him repeatedly and he could no longer take it anymore.

He threw himself at Lin Qing-He and began thrashing the man, throwing punches and kicks at the latter.

Wu Yang kept yelling.

Two soldiers standing next to him rushed forward and tried to pull Wang Dong-Sheng and Lin Qing-He apart to no avail. Wang Dong-Sheng appeared to have gone mad as he flung his fists at and thrust his feet into Lin Qing-He wildly.

With the help of another two soldiers, they finally managed to pull Wang Dong-Sheng off Lin Qing-He.

Lin Qing-He was beyond recognition at that point.

His nose was broken and his face had swollen up. Blood flowed profusely from his injuries.

The Green Dragon Force’s insubordination had caused him great embarrassment and humiliation in front of his men.

Wang Dong-Sheng was doing the same and this time, Wu Yang wasn’t going to relent. He was adamant to have Wang Dong-Sheng apologize to Lin Qing-He.

He did not expect Wang Dong-Sheng to yank his uniform off and throw it onto the ground.

“Commander Wu, I planned to issue a formal resignation to you. It seems that there’s no need for that now,” said Wang Dong-Sheng.

A tremor coursed through Wu Yang’s body when he heard what Wang Dong-Sheng had said. His eyes widened further in shock. “Are you going to resign from the Jiangdong military too? Have you thought this through, Wang Dong-Sheng? You’re throwing decades of hard work down the drain! You won’t receive any compensation or benefits from the military. Your name will be struck from our records forever! You can still retract your statement. It's not too late yet."

Wu Yang tried to persuade the subordinate who had served him for decades against the folly of his decision.

Wang Dong-Sheng simply shook his head.

"You don't have to say another word. Life is short. I've had enough of suffering other people's tantrums. I know what I'm doing. Men like Lin Qing-He don't deserve my loyalty or devotion. It's to heroes like Instructor Chu whom I should be devoting my life and service to! Commander Wu, I bid you farewell. Please take care. I doubt our paths will cross again."

The colonel's words were loud and clear in the quiet of the night.

He did not care for what Wu Yang had to say and instead, turned and left in pursuit of Ye Fan and the Green Dragon Force.

incompetent commander who did not have his men's loyalty.

Wu Yang could not have foreseen this. Despite his position as the commander, he had been utterly defeated by a young man.

The night ended with Wu Yang fuming in endless rage and frustration.

Meanwhile, Wang Dong-Sheng had caught up with Ye Fan.

"Uncle Wang, why are you here?" asked Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates warmly as they gathered around the man.

This man had taken care of them and watched over them. The Green Dragon Force had developed a kinship with him.

To Ye Yu-Yan's question, Wang Dong-Sheng offered no answer. Amidst the startled looks of Tai Shan and his teammates, he walked up to Ye Fan and fell to his knees.

His knees landed with a resounding thud. He kowtowed to Ye Fan. "Instructor Chu, your power knows no bounds. You are unrivalled in your prowess, the one and only. Since I first witnessed your prowess in Yunzhou, I have harbored nothing but respect and awe for you. I ask humbly that Instructor Chu take me in. I hereby swear my undying loyalty to you. From this day, I shall serve no one but Instructor Chu!”

Determination shone brightly in Wang Dong-Sheng’s eyes as he spoke firmly and resolutely.

Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates were both surprised and elated.

They were overjoyed that Instructor Chu had gained another competent follower.

They were also surprised by their instructor’s charisma. The man had won over Wang Dong-Sheng, a man who had served the military dutifully and devotedly for decades.

Ye Fan seemed unmoved by Wang Dong-Sheng’s words.

His hands remained folded behind his back as he stared at Wang Dong-Sheng dispassionately. “I’m now an enemy of the Jiangdong military. If you become my follower, you too shall become the Jiangdong military's enemy and be hunted down by them. All your efforts in building your career over the decades will be for nothing. Nothing will remain of your accolades and achievements. Are you sure? Have you truly thought this through carefully?"

Wang Dong-Sheng nodded without any hint of hesitation. "Instructor Chu, I've thought this through carefully. The wise bird chooses the branch upon which it makes its nest with care. The good man chooses the lord whom he is to serve with equal care. Wu Yang is a foolish man who doesn't know right from wrong. He does not deserve the loyalty of good men."

"Instructor Chu, on the other hand, has the mark of a hero who will achieve greatness. As the old saying goes, the righteous need no advocates, their heroism naturally draws a following. I'm willing to give up my life's work for Instructor Chu and follow a true hero into the gates of hell!"

Wang Dong-Sheng's words thundered in the quiet and nearly deafened its listeners. The sincerity in his voice was bright and clear in the darkness of the night.

Ye Fan shook his head and laughed softly.

Fear gripped Wang Dong-Sheng's heart and sent his blood running cold.

"Instructor Chu, will you not take me in? I've left the Jiangdong military camp. There is no other place that will have me if you don't take me in. Please, Instructor Chu, take me in as one of your followers. I will do anything. I will follow you into the gates of hell without regret," pleaded Wang Dong-Sheng as his eyes glistened with unshed tears.

Ye Yu-Yang and her teammates couldn't bear to see Wang Dong-Sheng in such devastation.

"Instructor Chu, Uncle Wang has done so much for us. We're eternally indebted to him. Please take him in."

"That's right, Instructor Chu, please allow him to join us."

The members of the Green Dragon Force began to plead on Wang Dong-Sheng's behalf.

Ye Fan's smile grew.

"Wang Dong-Sheng, I have a question for you. Do you swear your loyalty to me because you truly admire and respect me? We barely know each other. I've hardly spoken to you. How well do you know me? You hardly do. Where does your respect and awe come from then?" asked Ye Fan coolly.

"I might not know Instructor Chu as a man, but I know that Instructor Chu is a man who's sent a thousand soldiers to their knees. He's the man whose abilities have been recognized by our state and whom our country has sought as protector and guardian. That alone is enough for me to swear my undying loyalty to you."

Ye Fan shook his head.

"You only see my influence and status. If I did not possess the ability to have an army kneel at my feet or the honor of being knighted by the country, would you still swear to follow me into the gates of hell?"

Chapter 1200 The Storm Brews

“I...” Ye Fan’s question stumped Wang Dong-Sheng. He fell into a long bout of silence.

“The truth is that you decided to leave the military because you knew you weren’t going to get another promotion. You decided to bet your future on me instead. You believe that I will lead you to a better future of wealth and glory.”

“I...” stammered Wang Dong-Sheng as panic flickered across his eyes.

Ye Fan did not give him the chance to explain himself.

“You don’t have to say another word. Anyone would do that. Prestige and wealth are what everyone lives for, after all. Yet, I must caution you. The wheels of fortune are always turning. I may enjoy the respect of the public, the title of pillar of the nation and the regard of the state now, but the title that the country bestowed upon me can be as easily taken away. Should I ever fall into a state of disrepute and disgrace, what will happen to you then? Have you thought about that?” asked Ye Fan as he told Wang Dong-Sheng what he was truly getting himself into.

Chapter 1200 The Storm Brews

Wang Dong-Sheng wasn't like the members of the Green Dragon Force. He had decided to cast his lot with Ye Fan because he believed that it promised him prestige, wealth and a bright future.

The Green Dragon Force, on the other hand, had no ulterior motives. Their loyalty to Ye Fan rested solely upon their faith in the man.

Besides, Ye Fan had built the Green Dragon Force out of nothing. He had trained and groomed them personally, and had patiently and carefully taught them what he had known. They should repay his teaching with their service.

Wang Dong-Sheng fell into a long bout of silence.

Ye Fan had been right. He had been convinced of Ye Fan's great potential. The man was a rising star. If Wang Dong-Sheng jumped on the bandwagon now, he would stand to gain in the future when Ye Fan rose to fame and glory.

But what if Ye Fan were to be pulled down his pedestal in the future?

Chapter 1200 The Storm Brews

Wang Dong-Sheng would suffer then too.

After a long moment of deliberation, Wang Dong-Sheng's mind remained unchanged.

"Nothing is for certain in this world. I am willing to bet my future on Instructor Chu. That means that I'm confident of Instructor Chu's ability to rise to and remain in power. Should the day truly come when Instructor Chu falls from grace, I'll happily accept that I made a mistake. I won't regret my decision!"

The resolute look in Wang Dong-Sheng's eyes was as clear as day.

Ye Fan nodded. "It seems that you've made up your mind. You can stay then. You will help me supervise the Green Dragon Force's training. Don't worry about your future. The wealth and prestige that I will give you will surpass anything that the Jiangdong military can provide you."

Wang Dong-Sheng was overjoyed. He kowtowed and thanked Ye Fan profusely. "Thank you, Instructor Chu. I'll serve you dutifully and do everything you say."

"You don't have to thank you. In fact, you should thank yourself,” Ye Fan said coolly and with a wave of his hand. “I’m keeping you not because of how useful you’re going to be. It’s because of what you did for the Green Dragon Force. I always repay my debts and settle my grudges. I never let my enemies off and I always repay kindness with kindness.”

Chapter 1200 The Storm Brews

Ye Fan paused in his steps then. He whirled around and his eyes fell upon the Jiangdong military camp in the distance. A mirthless smile appeared on his lips.

“Green Dragon Force, remember this night. I promise you that you’ll return to this land again. I’ll make them pay for what they did to you a hundred-fold!”

A wintry wind rushed through the forest and carried Ye Fan’s promise away with it.

Ye Yu-Yan and her teammates nodded.

“We’ll be back. We’ll make those who looked down on the Green Dragon Force regret what they did to us!”

Their voices rumbled in unison as they stared into the distance with a hard and resolute look in their eyes.

The Green Dragon Force and Wang Dong-Sheng followed Ye Fan back to Yunzhou.

Ye Fan got them a place next to his own.

Their departure from the military camp did not spell the end of their training.

The Green Dragon Force had to become a formidable force if they wanted to be of any use to Ye Fan in the future.

After they had recovered from their injuries, they continued with the intensive training that Ye Fan had designed for them.

They trained in the day and soaked their bodies in medicinal bathwater in the night.

It was as if they had returned to the days of Ye Fan's training in the Jiangdong military camp.

However, the recent ordeal that they had suffered spurred the members of the Green Dragon Force into training harder than they had before.

Chapter 1200 The Storm Brews

Anger and resentment had become their sources of motivation.

They were going to prove to Wu Yang, Lin Qing-He and the Jiangdong military that these people were the ones who had made a mistake. The Green Dragon Force wasn't just a bunch of useless men and women like they had thought they were.

The days passed steadily as the Green Dragon Force continued their relentless training.

In the meantime, construction on the mansion on Mount Yunding progressed swiftly as Li Er and the others urged the workers to work more quickly and throughout the night.

During this period, a storm began to gather silently in the martial arts circle.

Ye Fan was oblivious to the storm that was brewing in the martial arts circle.

He didn't care either anyway. Otherwise, he could have easily gotten himself the information that he wanted through Dragon God Hall.

The only thing that occupied Ye Fan's mind now was his personal grudge with the Chu family.

A month passed.

The news of Ye Fan's split with the Jiangdong military and his departure alongside the Green Dragon reached the Yanjing military.

Lu Tian-He and Fang Shao-Hong were dumbstruck when they heard the news.

The former hurried to the Jiangdong military camp that night so that he could personally find out what had happened from Wu Yang.

"Where's your commander? Where's Commander Wu?" yelled Lu Tian-He as he barged into Wu Yang's headquarters.

“How dare you, Lu Tian-He! This is our headquarters! How dare you raise your voice and rant and rave! You might be from the Yanjing military camp, but that doesn’t give you the right to ignore the military hierarchy and disrespect Commander Wu. This is Jiangdong, not Yanjing. Know your place and mind your tone if you want to speak to Commander Wu!”

Wu Yang was nowhere to be seen in the room. There was only Lin Qing-He and a few of his men going through some administrative affairs.

Lu Tian-He’s disrespectful behavior had infuriated Lin Qing-He.

But Lu Tian-He couldn’t be bothered with Lin Qing-He at all. He demanded to know where Wu Yang was.

“Commander Wu isn’t around. You can report to me instead,” said Lin Qing-He arrogantly.

“There’s nothing I have to say to someone like you. I’m going to ask you again. Where’s Commander Wu?” Lu Tian-He shot back.

Lin Qing-He was livid. Lu Qing-He had absolutely no regard for him at all. He was ready to blow up when a few men entered the room. At their helm was Wu Yang.

“What’s all this ruckus? You’re all generals. You should act the part. You might not be embarrassed by your behavior, but I am on your behalf,” said Wu Yang unhappily. He glared at Lu Tian-He. “Why were you causing a commotion as soon as you stepped foot into our camp? Is our humble military camp not good enough for your esteemed self?”

Lu Tian-He paid no heed to Wu Yang’s reprimand.

“Commander Wu,” he asked anxiously. “Did you really drive Instructor Chu and the Green Dragon Force out of the Jiangdong military?”

“Yes. What about it? Ye Fan didn’t deserve the role he was given. As the commander-in-chief, I have the right to strip him of his office. The Green Dragon Force is made up of a bunch of useless trash. I was ridding the military of parasites leeching off our resources.”

What?”

Chapter 1201 Rage

“Commander Wu, what have you done?” lamented Lu Tian-He. “Do you know how much work I had to put in to get Instructor Chu to accept a position in the military? General Ye himself spoke highly of Instructor Chu and his abilities. If he’s not fit to be the chief instructor of the Jiangdong military, then no one in the whole of China is. How could you drive him out of the military? How could you make such a rash decision without consulting us? You should have spoken to me.”

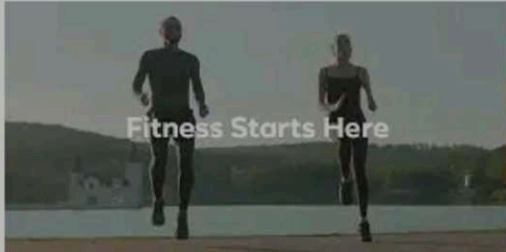

“Instructor Chu’s gone now and so is the Green Dragon Force. Who’s going to represent the camp in the National Special Troops Contest that’s going to be held in two months?”

Bitterness, rage and frustration swelled inside Lu Tian-He.

He was furious at Wu Yang’s folly and his utter blindness. The man couldn’t see talent even if it was standing right in front of him. He was upset and frustrated because a powerful fighter whom he had worked so hard to recruit had been callously cast aside and driven away by Wu Yang.

Chapter 1201 Rage

“Silence! Lu Tian-He, you should remember your place. This is Jiangdong, not Yanjing. You’re just an instructor. I’m the one who’s the commander-in-chief. I don’t have to seek your opinion or justify my actions to you. On your account, I’ve cast the young punk out instead of executing him on the spot that night. He killed a high-ranking officer and defied my orders in public. He should have been shot. You don’t have to worry about the National Special Troops Contest. I’ve been grooming another unit all this while. They’re much more competent than the ineffectual Green Dragon Force! They’ll take the Green Dragon Force’s place in the contest.”

Wu Yang had been fuming for a long time over what Ye Fan had done.

It had taken him a long time to finally let it go. But here was Lu Tian-He bringing the matter up again and accusing him of having made a terrible mistake. Wu Yang was naturally livid and yelled at Lu Tian-He.

Lu Tian-He bared his teeth in an angry smile.

“You wanted to execute him? You wanted to shoot him? Heavens. Do you hear yourself?” The man burst out into laughter.

Chapter 1201 Rage

“What the hell are you laughing at, Lu Tian-He?” thundered Wu Yang furiously.

“You! I’m laughing at your arrogance and your blind folly! I can’t believe you’re the commander-in-chief. You can’t tell right from wrong and talent from a buffoon. I’ve done my homework. Chen Lan was killed because he abused the Green Dragon Force and tried to kill them. He got what he deserved. I can’t believe you thought of executing Instructor Chu. What a joke! You have no idea how powerful the man is and what a martial artist is capable of. If you’d ordered your men to pull the trigger, you would have died that night. You’re a bunch of ignorant fools. You thought you could hold the fate of a grandmaster in your hands? What fools!”

“How dare you, Lu Tian-He! How dare you call us fools! Is the Yanjing military no longer interested in collaborating with the Jiangdong military?” bellowed Wu Yang as he pointed an angry finger at Lu Tian-He. His face had flushed red with fury.

“In your dreams! You’ve driven Instructor Chu and the Green Dragon Force away. How are you going to build your special troops? What a fool I was. Why did I agree to join forces with the Jiangdong military? You're just a bunch of idiots. I hereby declare that the Yanjing military is ceasing all collaborative efforts with the Jiangdong military. The Yanjing military will train our own special forces independently. We're not going to work with fools. Farewell!"

Chapter 1201 Rage

Lu Tian-He's words rumbled furiously like thunder and reverberated forcefully in the room.

"You...you..."

Lu Tian-He had just openly called Wu Yang a fool. In fact, he had gone to the extent of ending the Yanjing military's collaboration with the Jiangdong military.

Wu Yang was livid. He had not expected such harsh words from Lu Tian-He. This was all because of a young punk by the name of Ye Fan.

"Fine! So be it! Lu Tian-He, go ahead and split ways with us! Get out! All of you can get out of my sight! I don't care for you anyway!" thundered Wu Yang as his eyes reddened with fury.

Chapter 1201 Rage

The anger must have been too much. Wu Yang was gripped by momentary blindness as a violent tremor coursed through his body. In the next moment, he collapsed onto the ground and passed out from sheer anger.

“Commander Wu! Quick, we have to get him to the hospital!”

Lin Qing-He and his men hurriedly carried the unconscious Wu Yang out of the room.

Lu Tian-He didn't even spare them a look as he left.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Lu Tian-He was going to blow up.

He had spent a great deal of effort and time to get Ye Fan to accept the position of instructor in the military.

But these idiots had just driven away the man whom he had worked so hard to get into the military.

That wasn't the worst of it all.

Wu Yang had offended Ye Fan. The grave offense that he had caused Ye Fan might result in Lu Tian-He having to suffer Ye Fan's wrath too.

Ye Fan was a man whom Ye Qing-Tian held in high regard and a powerful martial artist who had earned the rights to enter War God Castle. Lu Tian-He would do anything to earn Ye Fan's favor. But now, Wu Yang had done the opposite and offended Ye Fan so terribly that there was no way Ye Fan would think well of them.

Wu Yang should thank the heavens for his position as the commander-in-chief. Lu Tian-He would have killed anyone else with a lesser office for what he had done.

“These idiots have ruined our grand plans!”

They were going to drive Lu Tian-He into an early grave.

The Green Dragon Force had meant a great deal to the military. The two military camps had collaborated to build a special troops unit not because they had wanted to groom a future batch of powerful soldiers but because the special troops were going to play an important role in an upcoming mission.

In fact, the other military camps had been increasing their efforts in training their own special troops as well.

Lu Tian-He had pinned his hopes on the Green Dragon Force and had been looking forward to the unit’s performance. He had hoped that under Ye Fan’s leadership, the Green Dragon Force would shock China with an astounding performance and boost the Yanjing military’s failing reputation.

But Wu Yang had thwarted his plans.

“I can’t just return to Yanjing like that. I have to have find a way to save the situation. I hope I'm not too late." At that thought, Lu Tian-He instructed his chauffeur to turn the car around.

Instead of heading back to Yanjing, the jeep raced into the heart of Jiangdong.

Meanwhile, in a room somewhere in Yunzhou, Jiangdong, Li Er was reporting to Ye Fan the progress of the mansion's construction.

"Mr Chu, the skeleton of the mansion has been fully constructed. We'll have the façade done within three months. But I'm afraid you can only move in at the end of the year."

Even though Li Er had hired hordes of workers to work on the mansion's construction, it remained a massive project that necessitated a year's work before it could be completed.

They might be done with the skeletal structure, but there were still walls to be painted and interiors to be decorated. Those took time too.

Ye Fan frowned slightly. “Three months?”

Ye Fan could only set up the Invoke the Celestial Sky Formation after the exterior of the mansion was fully constructed.

Otherwise, subsequent construction work could damage the formation that he had put in place.

Beads of cold sweat appeared on Li Er’s forehead.

“That’s right, Mr Chu,” said the man nervously. “That’s the quickest we can go without compromising quality and safety. Any quicker and we risk compromising quality.”

Ye Fan nodded.

“Alright, three months it is then. But I will not tolerate any delays. If the main construction is not completed by then, you’ll have to answer for it.”

“Yes, Mr Chu,” said Li Er as he nodded fearfully.

Li Er couldn’t help but feel a suffocating aura exuding from Ye Fan every time they were in the same room. The weight of that aura often left him breathless.

He had become used to the feeling of near suffocation.

But when Ye Fan got angry, Li Er would be seized by sudden terror. It was akin to staring into a deep abyss.

Serving an emperor was akin to serving a ferocious beast that might devour you without reason or cause. Ye Fan might not be an emperor, but he might as well be one.

Jin Bao and Yin Bao pushed the door open and entered the room suddenly.

“Didn’t I tell the two of you to stand guard outside? Why have you interrupted our conversation?” asked Li Er with a hint of displeasure in his voice.

“Master Er, someone wishes to speak to Mr Chu,” reported Jin Bao dutifully.

“Who is it?” asked Ye Fan coolly.

Jin Bao shook his head. “We don’t know.

He's not someone from Jiangdong. He's wearing a military uniform so he might be someone from the military."

"Someone from the military?"

The mention of the military made Ye Fan frown.

Had Wu Yang changed his mind and decided to arrest him and the Green Dragon Force after all?

Ye Fan knew very well that Wu Yang wasn't a forgiving man.

He had been prepared for an all-out war with the Jiangdong military.

After all, Ye Fan had defied Wu Yang's orders in public and had killed Chen Lan, an instructor whom Wu Yang held in high regard. Wu Yang must have been livid. Ye Fan had known that Wu Yang wouldn't let him leave that easily.

That had been why he had been surprised when Wu Yang had reined in his anger and hadn't ordered his soldiers to attack him.

When Jin Bao had said that their visitor appeared to be from the military, Ye Fan's first thought had been that Wu Yang had sent someone after him and the Green Dragon Force.

If that were truly the case, Ye Fan wouldn't hold himself back either.

"Wu Yang, I hope for your sake that you wouldn't do something so foolish. I've massacred the Japanese military and I would happily do the same to the Jiangdong military!" murmured Ye Fan to himself as a murderous glint flashed across his eyes. With a casual wave of his hand, he said coolly. "Let him in."

Jin Bao and Yin Bao left immediately.

Within moments, a sprightly old man hurried into the room.

He seemed overwhelmed with emotion when he saw Ye Fan.

"Instructor Chu, I've finally found you! I went looking for you in Jingzhou, then in Jianghai. I'm so glad to have found you in Yunzhou."

Ye Fan frowned when he saw whom his guest was. "I wasn't expecting you. Did Wu Yang send you to arrest me?"

"Of course not! Instructor Chu's a powerful martial artist who none can rival. I wouldn't dare to disrespect you in any way," Lu Tian-He said hastily. Bitterness and helplessness colored his eyes as he continued speaking.

"I'm here to seek your forgiveness, Instructor Chu. I've heard about the humiliation that you and the Green Dragon Force have suffered in the Jiangdong military. It's all Wu Yang's fault. He's a fool who didn't consult any of us before he put the Green Dragon Force through such hardships and dismissed you. I had no idea what he had done until it was too late. Otherwise, I would have done all that I could to prevent you and the Green Dragon Force from having to suffer such abuse."

Ye Fan burst into a laughter that was cold and sharp with mockery.

"General Lu, it seems like you have nothing to do with this matter. You can't be held accountable for my dismissal or for the Green Dragon Force's suffering. Why are you here seeking forgiveness then? It seems completely unwarranted. Please leave. You don't have to ask me for anything. I have nothing to do with you or the military. Our paths will never cross again.”

“Please don’t say that, Instructor Chu,” said Lu Tian-He hastily as his face paled. “I’m here to apologize. I was blind. I shouldn’t have entrusted my faith in that stupid Wu Yang. If I hadn’t made the mistake of recommending you to Wu Yang and getting you a place in the Jiangdong military, the members of the Green Dragon Force wouldn’t have suffered such abuse and you wouldn’t have endured such insult as well. I will accept any punishment you wish to mete out to me, Instructor Chu.”

“But, please know that I’m earnest in my attempts to serve our nation and that General Ye was sincere in his regard for you. For our nation and for General Ye, please join the Yanjing military alongside the Green Dragon Force. I’ve ended our collaboration with Wu Yang and the Jiangdong military. We are going to build our own special troops. I swear that Instructor Chu will be given the due respect owed to you in the Yanjing military. Our soldiers will treat Instructor Chu as an esteemed guest and as our venerable instructor!”

Lu Tian-He’s pleas echoed in the room.

He desperately hoped that Ye Fan would allow bygones be bygones and give him a second chance, join the Yanjing military, accept the position of chief instructor and continue training the Green Dragon Force as part of the military.

“There’s no need for that. I’m just a nobody. I don’t deserve the honor or prestige that the military wishes to accord me and certainly not the office of an instructor in the military. Please get someone else to do the job. I can train the Green Dragon Force on my own. I don’t need any help from the military.”

Ye Fan was clearly still furious about what the Jiangdong military had done to him and the Green Dragon Force.

That was why he had flatly refused Lu Tian-He’s earnest offer.

He had had enough of the military.

He had had enough of living under another person’s roof and having to follow someone else’s rules. This wasn’t the life that Ye Fan wanted.

His experience with the Jiangdong military had taught him that.

As for the Green Dragon Force, Ye Fan had the resources and wealth to support their training. He didn't need the military's help at all.

He had no reason to reenlist in the military and subject himself to someone else's rules and control.

Despair threatened to swallow Lu Tian-He whole when he heard what Ye Fan had said.

He wasn't going to give up yet though.

"Instructor Chu, I know that you feel constrained by the rules of the military. With your abilities and status, you deserve greater freedom. But have you thought for the members of the Green Dragon Force and what they have to gain from being part of the military? They'll be awarded with titles and offices. Their achievements will bring honor and glory to their families. The country will take care of them and their families and protect them when they face danger."

"Besides, they must be part of the military if they wish to take part in the National Special Troops Contest that's going to be held two months later. That's when they can prove themselves worthy and make those who mocked them eat their words. That's the only way they can make the Jiangdong military pay for what it's done to them."

"Instructor Chu, for the sake of the Green Dragon Force, please reconsider my proposal. Are you willing to let the Green Dragon Force live in dishonor and disgrace and in the shadow of Wu Yang's insults?" pleaded Lu Tian-He tirelessly as his eyes gradually reddened.

His words of sincerity resounded loudly in the room.

The Green Dragon Force had ended their training then and had just returned to the mansion. They were on the way to join Ye Fan for lunch.

They heard every word that Lu Tian-He had just said.

Their eyes turned towards Ye Fan instantly. Within those eyes shone the flames of hope.

It was clear that they wanted to take part in the National Special Troops Contest and prove themselves.

Ye Fan shook his head and sighed.

“So be it then. Lu Tian-He, on account of the Green Dragon Force, I’m going to accept your offer. But all that means is that I agree to let the Green Dragon Force represent the Yanjing military in the upcoming contest. The Green Dragon Force and I do not fall under the military’s jurisdiction. We will not conduct our training in the Yanjing military camp. The Green Dragon Force will continue to train here. We do not truly belong to the Yanjing military. This is but a temporary alliance. Do you understand?”

Joy seized Lu Tian-He when he heard what Ye Fan had said.

“Of course, of course! As long as Instructor Chu permits the Green Dragon Force to represent the Yanjing military in the upcoming contest, we’re willing to accommodate all that you ask.”

Ye Fan nodded. “If there is nothing else, please leave us. Look for me again in Yunzhou when the contest approaches. I will permit the Green Dragon Force to leave with you and enroll in the contest.”

“Of course, Instructor Chu. I'll return to camp immediately and share this piece of good news with my commander-in-chief. I'll have the Green Dragon Force's promotions and benefits ironed out immediately.”

Having gotten Ye Fan's word, Lu Tian-He returned to the Yanjing military camp happily.

Three days later, a set of official documents reached Yunzhou.

Ye Fan was appointed as the honorary chief instructor of the Yanjing military and General Green Dragon, and given full command over the Green Dragon Force.

Wang Dong-Sheng was promoted to honorary deputy chief instructor and commodore and given the role of assisting Ye Fan.

The rank of the commodore was higher than that of the colonel and beneath that of a general.

The five members of the Green Dragon

Force had been enlisted in the Yanjing military and promoted to lieutenant colonels.

Ye Fan didn't pay those documents any heed.

These were but empty titles that added some flourish to their names but had no true benefit or use. Ye Fan did not read the documents at all and instead instructed someone to set them aside.

Even though Ye Fan appeared unmoved by what the Yanjing military had done, that didn't mean that the rest were equally unmoved.

The members of the Green Dragon Force were elated when they found out that they had been promoted to the position of lieutenant colonel.

The next promotion would bring them to the rank of colonel, and the next to general.

They were only a few steps away from being an actual general.

The title was one of the greatest honors that they could bring to their family.

Li Er had a pig slain and roasted that night to celebrate his son's promotion.

The Ye family was overjoyed as well when they found out that Ye Yu-Yan had been promoted to a lieutenant colonel. In fact, Ye Yu-Yan's father couldn't sleep at all that night. Sheer elation kept him up all night.

He was so proud that his daughter had gotten herself made a lieutenant colonel at such a young age. He was convinced that she would become a general in the future.

"The history books write about the famous female generals of the Yang family. Well, the modern age will remember our daughter as the famous general from the Ye family!" laughed Ye Tian as he emptied three cups of wine in succession.

He was convinced that his daughter's achievement rivaled that of Ye Fan's.

No matter how incredible Ye Fan might appear to be, he was still a brute who got everyone to submit to his will through sheer brute force and strength. He had no official title to his name.

Ye Tian's daughter had though. She had received a promotion from the state. He was convinced that she would rise up the ranks to become a general within the decade.

Such an achievement wasn't something that an ordinary ruffian like Ye Fan could attain. He was just a hooligan who had crowned himself ruler of Jiangdong.

Ye Tian had no idea that his joy and pride was Ye Fan's subordinate.

In fact, he had no idea that Ye Fan had been bestowed the title of General Green Dragon long before his daughter had been promoted to lieutenant colonel. He would have been infuriated if he knew that Ye Fan hadn't cared for the title at all.

Ye Fan hadn't mentioned a single word about the title that the Yanjing military had bestowed upon him.

Because he had not said a single word, no one knew anything about it.
