

Chapter 1179

He looked back at Suzi, who was sitting next to him and knew nothing.

The man's heart smiled extremely coldly.

This is his father.

When he was young, he made so many irreparable mistakes that hurt the three of them, he didn't mention them.

He just bitten Suzi and didn't let go.

Suzi has been with him for half a month. Whenever she has time, she will find Dalia everywhere. Where does she have time to seduce men outside?

Arron said to his father in a colder and gloomy tone: "Is there anything else?"

Fu Zhengxiong: "Of course, her wild man..."

"Pop!" Arron cut off the phone.

Suzi looked at the disharmony between her own man and his father, she also worriedly asked: "Arron, can't you be more patient to communicate with your dad?"

Arron held his own woman in his arms.

Looking at her, after a long time, he kissed her on the forehead.

Suzi looked up at the man: "What happened, tell me, I can solve and share it for you."

The man looked at the tough little woman in his arms.

She was forced into that by Elder Shu, she didn't even ask him to fall out with Elder Shu, she was always considering his feelings.

Arron sometimes felt that he gave her a sense of security so much. Give her a strong pillar and help her clean up all those people who have bullied her.

Rather, in spirit, she is actually his attachment.

She looked weak, but she was unyielding.

Moreover, no matter how difficult life is, she never becomes decadent.

Six years ago, she was destitute and still pregnant with a child. She was even homeless for several nights, but she was still able to survive.

Not only that, she was able to save Joan's life fearlessly in such a distressing situation.

Compared with Joan's rescue of Suzi and the only one, Suzi was much more dangerous at the time, so it's no wonder that Joan would always like Suzi.

Because Suzi's soul completely conquered Joan.

The same is true for Sanford.

Just before going to Jiaying Island, Arron and Sanford were on the phone.

Sanford's legs are almost good, and he has no other concerns on the phone.

Only to Suzi.

Sanford asked Arron on the phone: "Four Lord, I want to know how Suzi and the only two of them have lived?"

At that time, Arron's tone was extremely cold and hard: "Now Suzi loves me very much, and the only one is also very sticky to me. If you miss my wife and daughter in this way, how did I connect your leg nerves to you? Up!"

At that end, Sanford said without any fear: "What about it? You give it to me now, Master, you give it to me, even if I climb, I will climb to Suzi's side."

"In my whole life, as long as I can see Suzi and the only one who has no worries about food and clothing, and no longer have to worry about fear, even if my legs are amputated, I will be satisfied."

Arron: "Don't you want your own life? When you were mixed up with Joan, it was not like this!"

Sanford: "Because of Suzi, she let me see her charm, I will protect her to the death in my life!"

Arron: "..."

At that moment, he suddenly couldn't tell whether he was moved or jealous?

His woman was born to be too much loved by men.

However, he didn't seem to hate those men.

At this moment, Suzi's cell phone rang suddenly, and she picked it up to connect: "Hello?"

At the other end, a distant, bleak and gloomy male voice came: "Suzi, are you... okay?"

Chapter 1180

Suzi: "You are..."

He only felt that the voice on the other side was so familiar, and after hesitating for a second, she denied it again.

She must have never heard this sound.

"Have you been... okay recently?" The other party's tone was like her old friend, and her old friend, and she had too much to do with her but couldn't give up. Can't bear to let go of the entanglement.

When Suzi listened here, there was a sense of sorrow and grief in his heart.

She subconsciously looked back at Arron.

Arron noticed that her eyebrows frowned.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

He thought it was his father's call. He hung up his father's call, and then his father called Suzi's cell phone again?

Suzi handed the phone to Arron, and Arron connected, with a cold tone like a cold sword: "Hey!"

There is no sound at that end.

There was no breathing sound.

But Arron could obviously hear the 'click' when the other party hung up the phone.

He and Suzi glanced at each other, wondering about each other.

After a while, Suzi smelled: "Could it be... my brother called?"

Suzi's brother, there is only one person.

That is Sanford.

"It's not your brother!" Arron said in a very quick and very cold tone.

He could hear Sanford's voice at once.

Because he often communicated with Sanford about Sanford's condition!

Moreover, Sanford was concerned about Suzi's tone, and he was not as reluctant as the man was so entangled just now.

Even though Arron heard the man's voice just now, he could hear the entanglement and reluctance in that voice.

But Sanford is different.

Sanford is full of concern for Suzi's voice, just like his family.

At this time, Arron was not only angry at Sanford or the man who called just now.

Rather, one thing my father said was right.

Suzi is a real man!

From Joan to Sanford, from Sanford to Darius, from Darius to the project director she used to be in Quxian.

Then, there was Pan Haoyang from Jiaxing Island, the nearest distance.

He is Arron's twin brother.

Pan Haoyang!

Arron's heart suddenly froze.

Where is his twin brother at this time?

Arron originally wanted to find Pan Haoyang, but since he came back from Jiaxingdao, things have happened one after another. Arron has not been able to find his twin brother.

At this moment, a thought suddenly flashed in his heart, the call just now, was it him?

Arron was not sure.

The woman leaning on his shoulder looked at him with innocent eyes: "Arron, what's the matter with you? Are you angry?"

The driver driving in front: "Puff..."

The driver Christopher had noticed this moment.

My grandfather is angry, very angry.

And this is the fire ignited by jealousy.

Christopher really did not expect that to this day, the Fourth Master has completely changed from being a cold-blooded and ruthless, very forbidden

The man of desire has evolved into the kind of iron-blooded tenderness he is today, who not only protects his wife, but also jealous of him.

But the Fourth Master is still like this, and it looks even more scent of fireworks in the world.

Suzi turned his head and looked at Christopher who was driving in front of him: "Assistant Yan, what's wrong with you?"

She felt that Christopher was laughing, but she was not sure, because Assistant Yan's laughter seemed too choked by something.
