

Chapter 118 Drive Audrey Away

"I trusted Audrey and got Mr. Hunter in trouble, but it didn't work. That day, I was angry and called Audrey. Audrey asked me to tell how Leon beat me up and let the media condemn Leon. I was so angry that I agreed."

Speaking of this, Mr. Nell sighed helplessly.

Now thinking about what he had done before, he thought he was just so stupid. The whole A City was under Leon's control. No matter what he did, he couldn't hide it from Leon.

He put himself in an even more embarrassing situation.

Before, he didn't know this. Now that he knew, he thought he was really stupid. He had even tried to hurt Leon!

He was clear about it now. If he didn't confess now, he would simply get himself killed.

Mr. Nell kept his mouth shut after making things clear.

Audrey was defiant after being exposed. Her attitude remained cold, "You must have evidence for what you say. I didn't tell you these things. How can you say that I approached you? You can't put these things on me. Did someone make you say that on purpose? Did someone want to destroy our family harmony on purpose?"

She turned her head and didn't even look at Mr. Nell. On the surface, she looked disdainful, but in reality, she was afraid to look at Mr. Nell.

What she had done was about to come to light. She didn't know what to do. She had thought that this idiot would escape, but she didn't expect him to be found.

"Audrey, you can't deny this. When I met with you, I recorded everything you said. I gave the recordings to Mr. Hunter. If anything happens to me, you won't be able to get away with it. You're the one who told me to do so."

"You ... you are talking nonsense! Dad, don't trust this man. This man is up to no good. He just wants to tear our family apart." Speaking of this, Audrey got some confidence, "I wouldn't do anything to hurt the Hunters, let alone anything bad to Leon."

She said with confidence, "I'll sue you if you slander me like that. Our family has a hard-earned harmony. Leon, you are not a child anymore. Don't be fooled by others."

"What's done is done, Mrs. Hunter. If you could be more honest, our family relationship would be better."

Leon glanced at Audrey. He had no desire to talk to her anymore.

He looked at Mr. Nell next to him, "Mr. Nell, the matter of Derick and Bell is already over. I'm not going to implicate anyone who has nothing to do with this."

"You're telling the truth?"

"Yes."

Leon had no intention of implicating anyone else. Besides, it was over. He wouldn't trouble anyone else who had anything to do with it.

"You can leave now!" Leon waved his hand and let Mr. Nell go first.

Mr. Nell nodded, hurriedly stood up, and left.

Watching Mr. Nell go, Audrey breathed a sigh of relief. But the next second, she saw two men in black walk in with two men who were covered in bruises. She knew these two men. They were the very men she had privately contacted to teach Leon a lesson. No wonder she couldn't even contact them before.

She glanced at Leon and noticed that both men were looking in her direction. So, she hurriedly turned around and looked at the other side.

One of the bodyguards immediately said, "That's her! She said that if we killed that woman, she would not only send us away safely but also give us money. We met in private. We know this woman."

The bodyguard in black looked at Audrey with certainty.

Audrey immediately said, "Who will believe your words? Who told you to say that? Did Leon ask you to say that? Leon, I've always kept a low profile. But I am, after all, George's mother, your father's wife. What are you going to do? Are you going to force me to leave the Hunters?"

Audrey stood up and confronted Leon.

She would not leave the Hunters under any circumstances, not even if she was skinned.

George still had to stay at the Hunters. She had to look out for her son, if not for herself.

But she didn't even notice that as soon as she stood up, all her previous statements about how she was worried about affecting the Hunters' harmony were overturned.

Because now she was completely on the opposite side of Leon. She even began to criticize Leon.

When Leon looked at Audrey's face, his face was even more gloomy, "A week ago, you took a million yuan from Hunter Group through my secretary. My secretary has told me all about it. Because this is a family matter, I did not say anything about it. But if you refuse to admit it, I can tell everyone about it."

Hearing these words, Audrey was completely frozen.

She looked at Leon and noticed that Leon's face was serious. What he said should be true. If she didn't make everything clear, what she had done might really become public knowledge.

But right now she couldn't admit defeat.

She just needed to keep quiet now. She lowered her head and pretended she hadn't heard Leon's words.

Audrey didn't say anything and she wasn't angry. So Leon said softly, "I don't want to make a big deal out of this. It's best if you leave the Hunters voluntarily."

Audrey froze, but she still remained quiet. She couldn't say anything now. If she spoke, she would make a mistake.

But Leon was running out of patience. He said indifferently, "If you don't leave, I'll have to call the police."

Audrey hurriedly said, "Okay, I'll agree to whatever you say. I will go, but this matter has nothing to do with others. I did it all by myself."

The matter had come to this.

It was better for her to leave alone than to drag George into it.

She turned around and went upstairs to pack her things, but soon she was held down and dragged out by Leon's men directly. She was dragged outside the door.

Audrey shouted from the outside, but the door was already closed.

Even after a long time, Audrey's screams could still be heard.

Kevin looked at Leon, "It's all done. That's it for today! You guys go back!"

"I can forget about that million, just to save George's face. Although she tried to hurt me before and instigated Mr. Nell to make a move against me, I can leave her alone for your sake. However, she put Alyssa in danger. I can't let her go easily."

"Alyssa, do you mind about this?"

Kevin looked at Alyssa lovingly and waved at her.

Seeing that Kevin called her over, Alyssa gave Leon a look. Even though Leon didn't seem to have any expression right now, she could sense that Leon was angry.

She couldn't offend either his grandpa or Leon.

Alyssa said, "It doesn't matter whether I mind or not, what matters is that Leon can protect me and keep me safe and sound. After grandpa knows about this, you also protect me so that there is no more danger around me. I feel very happy."
