

Chapter 1201: I Noticed

"I will allow you five minutes to scrutinize these eight images. Some of those individuals are wearing cosmetics, while others are not. Those people are in different rooms. I will pick you up in five minutes. You need to identify each of them."

"Is this the second or third round?" Jiang Yao shook the photos. "Five minutes? Will someone drag me to another place later?"

"This is the second round's second half. Do not be concerned. It will be five minutes." Colonel Lin began counting down for Jiang Yao. Then he stayed on the sidelines and watched her. He wondered where Lu Xingzhi had dug up the treasure when he was looking for a wife. With Jiang Yao's qualities, she would be an outstanding female soldier after two years of training at the Military Academy.

Colonel Lin was even calculating in his heart. He did not know how likely it was to persuade Lu Xingzhi's wife to transfer to the Jindo City Military Academy.

It would be a shame if the army could not make use of such a potential talent.

The essential point was that she was also a skilled medical professional. Even if she were assigned to the military, she would undoubtedly be a skill that all military districts wanted.

Five minutes was far too short to browse those eight photos. Furthermore, it was still acceptable if the people in the images were not wearing a disguise. After a few more glances, one might recall their facial features. The ones with disguises, on the other hand, were extremely difficult to remember. Furthermore, they were not only wearing mild makeup. Two of the girls wore heavy makeup. It was too hard to see their original appearances.

"Time's up." Colonel Lin took the time to remove all the photos and placed them in his pocket. Then, he pulled eight cards from another pocket. Each card had the Arabic numerals 1 to 8 on it.

Then, with a smirk, Jiang Yao heard Colonel Lin said, "I am not sure if you have noticed that each of those eight images has a number printed on the back. Those are the code names for those people. Take these eight cards and walk to the opposite room to find the matching person and pass them the corresponding numbers."

Jiang Yao was speechless. She did not know how to respond to Colonel Lin other than with a smirk.

However, she was not surprised. She would be suspicious if there were not a trap in every step.

Every photograph did have a number on the back. The numbers were about the size of her thumb. If she did not look closely, her fingers would conceal it easily. Furthermore, the numbers were not organized in the order of the photographs; they were random.

Jiang Yao's immediate thought was to return home and kidnap Lu Xingzhi to beat him up to relieve her rage. What questions did he come up with? Was he racking his brains just to trick her?

Was she not his wife?

"You can't possibly have missed the numbers on the back of the images, right? Look at me, I completely forgot to remind you." Colonel Lin had an evil grin on his face as he grabbed his pocket. "But I am afraid I can't reveal it to you. Even though our families are so close, I can't break the regulations. Lu Xingzhi was the one who made the rule. You can tell him to kneel on the washboard if you are angry."

"I noticed," Jiang Yao said, smiling.

"Oh, you didn't remember it, did you?" Colonel Lin laughed. "It's fine; go ahead and try your luck! If you do not pass the test, go to the market and get a washboard for your husband."

Jiang Yao glanced at Colonel Lin, who was holding back a smirk. She took the card, got up, and walked out of the room.

Chapter 1202: Buy Me A Cactus

Colonel Lin claimed they were opposite each other, but they had to turn a corner before they got to the opposite end. He had not been telling the truth all morning.

"Colonel Lin!" A young criminal police officer suddenly called out to him and said, "Our captain asked me to tell you to go and look for him after you're done here."

"Of course." Colonel Lin nodded and then urged Jiang Yao. "Let's get started. There's a police officer at the door of the two rooms in front."

Jiang Yao nodded and bowed her head to reach into her pocket for her phone. She walked with Colonel Lin as she sent a text message to Big Ke.

The police officer at the entrance noticed the two of them approaching. He saluted Colonel Lin before taking the initiative to unlock the door for them. He locked the door again once they entered the room.

Big Ke was in the car near the Police Crime Squad entrance. He was holding his phone and staring at the new text message with a puzzled expression. Then he prodded Ah Lu and asked, "What does Director Jiang mean?"

Ah Lu peeked at the message on Big Ke's phone. There was a message from Jiang Yao.

[Go to the market and buy me a high-quality washing board with waves.]

"Perhaps Director Jiang's washing board is broken, and she needed to buy a new one," Ah Lu said.

Big Ke shook his head. "That's not right. Director Jiang is going back to school in a few days, and Young Master Lu will be transferred to a new unit. Why would she buy a new washing board?"

"In any case, Director Jiang wants you to buy it, so go ahead and do so. What's with the questions? Director Jiang and Colonel Lin are in the Police Crime Squad, and I am here to keep an eye on them. You may go out and buy it," Ah Lu said.

"Oh," Big Ke muttered, scratching his brow. Then he opened the door and was about to exit the vehicle. A new text message arrived on his phone in a matter of seconds. He saw that it was from Jiang Yao, so he opened it immediately. When he saw it, he was dumbfounded; he continued to poke Ah Lu's arm.

"What do you think Director Jiang is trying to do?" Big Ke's confused expression became even more apparent.

Ah Lu snatched Big Ke's phone and examined it.

[I no longer require the washing board. Instead, get me a cactus. I do not want it if it is too small. It should be as big and as long as the washing board.]

Ah Lu was speechless. He handed the phone back to Big Ke silently. "Is it popular to use cactus to wash clothes instead of a washing board? Is it cleaner to wash clothes like that?"

"Are you retarded?" Big Ke looked at Ah Lu with disdain. "Using cactus to wash clothes will damage your clothes!"

"If she tells you to buy it, then go and buy it!" Ah Lu yelled at Big Ke.

"Where can I find a cactus the size of a washing board?" Big Ke shook his head. "How can there be such a large cactus sold in the market?"

"I don't care about that. Director Jiang asked you to go buy it, not me." Ah Lu laughed gloatingly.

Jiang Yao put her phone away after she sent the second message as she entered the room. She was dressed in a white down jacket with an evident coffee stain, but she was unaffected by it.

"You have five minutes." Colonel Lin returned to the door and motioned for Jiang Yao to take a seat.

"Don't tell me that I have to give them my number so that they can return it later, and then I'd have to identify them while keeping an eye on them?" Jiang Yao asked suspiciously.

"How can that be? If that's the case, even if I give you two more pairs of eyes, it won't be enough." Colonel Lin shook his head. "Don't worry; there's no such thing."

Chapter 1203: An Outstanding Female Soldier

Jiang Yao was relieved to hear Colonel Lin's answer. Then, she began to observe the people in the room while Colonel Lin counted down.

Lu Xingzhi's round of assessment was simply too abnormal.

Jiang Yao cast a glance around her and recognized only two of the more easily identifiable individuals. She went forward and handed the two individuals their numbers. Then, she lowered her head and placed No. 1 and No. 6 at the end of the numbers. Only then did she continue to identify the remaining people.

Jiang Yao was especially curious about whether Lu Xingzhi's brain was different from the other people's. How could he think of such an assessment method?

If the medical system did not improve her memory, she would have most likely failed that round.

Not only did she have to remember the faces of everyone in the images in that round, but she also had to find the numbers behind the photos. She even had to recall the individuals' corresponding phone numbers. If any of those were overlooked, she would fail the test.

Most importantly, she might not have noticed it just by looking at the photo because many of them were in disguise, and the photo could cover many things from an angle. However, when she saw the actual person, she realized that many of them had disguised their gender too.

One of the women in the photo with heavy makeup and lipstick was actually one of the men in the room.

Five minutes later, Jiang Yao only managed to give out four of the eight numbers; she had only identified four people in the photo.

“How?” Jiang Yao rolled her eyes. “Number one is the police officer who stopped you just now and told you to look for the chief after this is over. Number six is the police officer at the door. Number one’s photo is from that police officer’s from high school, right? It’s so childish. Number six’s photo must have been taken a few days ago. I don’t know where he borrowed his jeans and shirt, but he pretended to be a hooligan.”

That was the reason why she sent those two text messages to Big Ke.

Jiang Yao cursed Lu Xingzhi in her heart when she saw the person who called out to Colonel Lin. She was so angry that she wanted a washboard for Lu Xingzhi.

When she saw the police officer at the door, the washboard could no longer dispel the burning emotions in her heart. So she told Big Ke to look for a cactus.

However, when she went into the room, she realized that the cactus was not enough. She probably needed an imported durian.

“So you’ve discovered that so early?” Colonel Lin chuckled as he took the photo from his pocket again. He took out one of the photos and placed it in front of her. He said, “Actually, this should be easy to recognize. Even though he is wearing a skirt and a wig in the photo, he is not wearing makeup. You should be able to recognize his facial features at a glance.”

“That’s a trap. Don’t think that I don’t know that.” Jiang Yao pouted. “That’s a woman in the photo. It’s probably his twin sister or sister. The woman in the picture has ear holes, but that man doesn’t have any.”

“Amazing. You could even notice such a tiny detail,” Colonel Lin complimented Jiang Yao. “Not bad, not bad at all. Jiang Yao, I realize that it’s a loss for you to study medicine. If you enter the Military Academy, you will definitely be an outstanding female soldier after you graduate and join the army.”

Chapter 1204: Irreplaceable

“I can be an excellent doctor even if I study medicine.” Jiang Yao was full of confidence.

If Jiang Yao had participated in that day’s assessment before her rebirth, even if she did not test her marksmanship, she would have probably failed the round in the coffee shop.

She was able to pass all of the tests and reach that location due to Lu Xingzhi’s teachings.

The amount of time she had spent with Lu Xingzhi might not have been much, but he had taught her things that she could use for the rest of her life.

Lu Xingzhi slowly opened her eyes to see a different world. He made her understand that she could also solve many other problems besides using her brain for medical skills.

She appeared to have developed into an even more remarkable Jiang Yao because of him.

“Your medical skills are already amazing. Speaking of which, you saved my legs!” Colonel Lin patted his legs and sighed. “If it were not for you, I would be a cripple lying on the bed right now. When I was injured, I did not think that I could still recover and stay in the army.”

After he finished lamenting, Colonel Lin put on an extremely amiable smile and patted Jiang Yao’s shoulder like an older brother, “Look at how amazing your medical skills are already. Now, do you want to consider going to the military academy to further your studies, join the army and become a female soldier? After you graduate, you can join the army and become Lu Xingzhi’s comrades-in-arms.”

Jiang Yao shook her head. “I don’t want to think about that. It’s enough that he and I are fighting for the country. I want to be the woman in his life, not his comrade-in-arms.”

Furthermore, Lu Xingzhi would not allow her to transfer to the military academy. He would not want her to be in any of those dangers, nor would he want her to be as busy as him in the future and not have much time to spend at home.

Lu Xingzhi had already been transferred to the special forces. Unless she went to the Military Academy for Advanced Studies and returned to join the same team, she would still have to be separated from him. They would still work in two different forces.

However, even if she could be part of the special forces, Jiang Yao’s responsibilities would be as heavy as his. She might be sent out to carry out missions as often as he did, and she would be away for several days.

Then, they would spend their lives waiting for each other to come home. She would be worried about him, and he would miss her.

That was not the life that Jiang Yao wanted. She wanted to be his wife, not his comrade-in-arms. She wanted to be a woman who could give him children and build a warm family with him.

His comrade-in-arms were people who could be replaced, but his wife was irreplaceable.

The remaining people in the photo were not in that room. They were only there to make up the numbers and mix the information. Jiang Yao passed the assessment smoothly.

As Colonel Lin had said, her first two rounds were excellent, so the requirements for close combat skills were relatively low.

The police force only sent Xiao Li to fight with Jiang Yao. Even though Xiao Li was from the archives department, she was pretty good at close combat in the police academy.

However, Jiang Yao had the medical system’s combat power to suppress Xiao Li quite easily.

Jiang Yao only spent one morning to pass all the tests. However, she was still unable to rush back to the army to have lunch with Lu Xingzhi because she had a meeting with Colonel Lin in the Police Crime Squad in the afternoon. She had to memorize the mission information, and she also had to understand the contents of that mission before she could go back.

Chapter 1205: Keep It A Secret

Jiang Yao and Colonel Lin only saw the contents of that mission when they were in the bureau chief's office. Clearly, she had officially passed the test and successfully became Lu Xingzhi's partner.

"You will have to memorize all the information this afternoon before returning home. Set a time and set off the day after tomorrow. This is your background information. You must remember every character trait and the complicated family relationship." Colonel Lin placed a thick stack of information in front of Jiang Yao. "The criminals that we're facing this time have a strong sense of precaution. According to the informant, every new member of that group will have their information dug up and investigated as soon as they enter their hub."

Jiang Yao nodded with a serious expression. The stack was even thicker than her textbooks. There was family background information and some other information about the things she had done as her character. She had to remember every single word about Lu Xingzhi's character.

"Colonel Lin, does the couple that Xingzhi and I are playing really exist in that town?" Jiang Yao asked in a low voice as she flipped through the information in her hands.

"They do exist, but the police station had arranged for them to go to a very secret and safe place, allowing you and Lu Xingzhi to replace them," Colonel Lin said. "For the sake of authenticity, all of our identities have been carefully processed. All the information is authentic."

Jiang Yao's expression became more serious. It was only after she had obtained the information that she understood the severity of that mission.

Furthermore, only the people who had accepted that mission would know its difficulty.

They did not have much time to prepare, but they had to memorize a lot of information. Other than their new identities, they also had the information and photos of the senior and core members of the organization. Some of them had information but no images of that person. They needed to confirm the person's identity later.

The most important thing to note was that those people were extremely vicious. They had guns in their hands.

Jiang Yao only had one afternoon to memorize all the information. To ensure that the information did not leak out, the police team would encrypt the information after Jiang Yao was done.

"When we go back tonight, are you going to tell him that you're replacing Lu Xingzhi's other partner?" Colonel Lin asked.

Jiang Yao shook her head. "Let's keep it a secret. Before the mission starts, don't let him know about it. Otherwise, he will find a way to replace me if he has even an hour to do that."

“That’s true.” Colonel Lin could understand Lu Xingzhi’s thoughts. No one would be willing to put their own wife in danger.

Even though he felt that Lu Xingzhi had molded Jiang Yao very well and was tempted to pamper his wife the same way, it was still only instructions. He would have never thought that his wife would follow him to the front line to carry out missions and go to the battlefield.

Colonel Lin nodded. “Okay, then I will keep it a secret for you. Right now, only the chief and I know about this. Even Commissar Wang doesn’t know about this, so Lu Xingzhi won’t know either.”

“He probably won’t expect me to do this either.” Jiang Yao smiled.

“Alright, then you keep an eye on things here. I’ll go back to the army first.” Colonel Lin patted Jiang Yao’s shoulder to encourage her. “Take it easy. There’s a lot of information, so you need to remember it with special techniques.”

Chapter 1206: Memorizing The Information

After that, he chuckled. “I’ll organize your assessment content and bring it back to the unit for Lu Xingzhi to take a look and hear what he has to say about you.”

After Colonel Lin left, Jiang Yao placed all her attention on the stack of information on the table. She was the only one left in the room. Finally, Moe could not stand it anymore. He poked his head out of Jiang Yao’s pocket on her jacket and jumped onto the table. Then, he leaned on Jiang Yao’s stack of information and clicked his tongue as he sighed. “Your man only needed an afternoon to memorize all that information.”

“Colonel Lin and Zhou Junmin also did it,” Jiang Yao said.

Moe wagged his tail and looked at Jiang Yao. “Ask the system butler to check how many other favorability values you can change. Add them all to your memory. Otherwise, with your current situation, you won’t be able to memorize all that information in half a day.”

Jiang Yao only had half a day. If she did not return to Lu Xingzhi at night, there was a high chance that he would be suspicious.

Jiang Yao had always felt that her memory was excellent. Even without the medical system, she had always been proud of her memory because she loved studying and had her own memorization methods.

In high school, she only needed five minutes between classes to memorize an English text.

However, when she met Colonel Lin and the others that day, Jiang Yao was shocked to learn that Lu Xingzhi, Colonel Lin, and Zhou Junmin only needed one afternoon and one night to memorize the information.

Lu Xingzhi and the other two only spent a few hours at it after dinner until they returned to the army at 11 at night and not a few hours in the early morning.

Moe was right. If she did not rely on the memory boost from the medical system, given her current memory, she would not be able to memorize all the information in the same amount of time as Lu Xingzhi.

Jiang Yao had entered the medical system, but she had been staying with Lu Xingzhi in the army. She had not done anything, nor had she performed any surgery, so her favorability value had not increased by much. When converted into numbers and added to her memory, it would only increase by a few points.

Fortunately, the medical system had the ability to scan. Not only could it scan a patient, but it could also scan information.

Just like a photocopier, everything that Jiang Yao glanced at could be scanned into the medical system. Once the information entered the medical system, it would be part of the same as the knowledge content that Jiang Yao could access in the system. She could check it at any time.

While Jiang Yao was memorizing the information in the office, Colonel Lin had already driven back to the army. Once he arrived, he did not go anywhere. He went straight to the office building to look for Lu Xingzhi. He did not see anyone else in the office building, but he found someone to get Lu Xingzhi.

As he waited for Lu Xingzhi's break, Colonel Lin sorted out the assessment report. That had been done before he left the Police Crime Squad, so Lu Xingzhi could clearly see the assessment process after he confirmed the report.

Lu Xingzhi returned to his office drenched in sweat. He was wearing a spring and autumn training uniform in such cold weather, yet he did not seem to feel cold at all. Those who did not know better would have thought that it was summer. However, the temperature in Tianjin City dropped sharply after the New Year, and it had snowed for several days in a row.

Chapter 1207: He Was Very Satisfied

"Is it over?" Lu Xingzhi took a dry towel to wipe his sweat after returning to the office. Then, he put on his clothes and looked at Colonel Lin. "That's pretty fast."

"It is pretty fast. The woman is very smart." Colonel Lin smirked. "Lu Xingzhi, congratulations. Your new partner will definitely satisfy you a hundred times over."

Lu Xingzhi looked at the report in Colonel Lin's hand. Without waiting for Colonel Lin to give it to him, he grabbed it and lowered his head to look at it.

Colonel Lin did not get a reply from Lu Xingzhi. He did not give up and continued to say, "Do you want to hear my comments about your new partner?"

"Speak." Lu Xingzhi only said one word to Colonel Lin; his eyes were still on the report. It was as if listening to Colonel Lin was just a passing thing.

Did Lu Xingzhi want to hear it?

Colonel Lin's interest was piqued. He thought for a few seconds and said, "Your partner is very young. The most important thing is that she is gorgeous! I can guarantee that she is definitely your type."

"How beautiful?" Lu Xingzhi asked casually.

"So beautiful that..." Colonel Lin quickly changed the topic. He thought to himself that Lu Xingzhi was a clever fox. Therefore, Colonel Lin changed his words. "In any case, she's lovely! When she first entered the Police Crime Squad, many police officers had stared at her. Before I came back, someone asked me about her. He asked me if she had a partner, what her name was, how old she was, and even had the cheek to ask me to help set them up!”

Lu Xingzhi snorted with pride. “No woman in the world is more beautiful than my wife.” It was clear that he was not curious about his partner’s appearance—the woman that Colonel Lin continued to praise.

Colonel Lin choked and thought, ‘Isn’t she your beautiful wife?’

“Forget it; I won’t talk about her appearance with you. I’ll talk about her smart brain.” Colonel Lin pointed at the report in Lu Xingzhi’s hand and asked, “Have you finished reading it? Are you satisfied?”

Lu Xingzhi finally raised his eyes and glanced at Colonel Lin. “Are you satisfied with that candidate? It seems that it has been decided, right?”

“Very satisfied. Not only am I satisfied, but the bureau chief is also very convinced. He is also very satisfied,” Colonel Lin admitted without beating around the bush. “She’s memorizing the information right now, so the candidate for your partner has already been confirmed.”

Then, Colonel Lin said, “Please comment on the report.”

Lu Xingzhi threw the report lightly onto his desk and chuckled coldly. “Retard.”

Colonel Lin’s expression froze, and he was dumbfounded.

“Are you talking about your partner?” Colonel Lin thought that Lu Xingzhi must not have said that about his partner, or Jiang Yao would definitely be furious when she found out.

Of course, if Lu Xingzhi had meant that word for him, he would not be happy about that.

The bureau chief would not be thrilled about that either if it were about him.

Lu Xingzhi said, “Whoever was in charge of the assessment staff will be punished. Look for people with mistakes. A fool can’t tell which of those people have problems? Anyone with eyes would know that the person with chalk dust on his head is a teacher, the one with serious mysophobia and the smell of disinfectant is the doctor, and the man who keeps winking at the people in the coffee shop is the staff. Is this the person you found?”

Lu Xingzhi knocked on the table. “Did my new partner come in through the back door so that she could be tested by people who are brainless but not nearsighted?”

Chapter 1208: Connections

Colonel Lin sighed in relief. To his credit, the retard comment was not meant for him or Jiang Yao.

However, his expression darkened upon hearing Lu Xingzhi’s statements. “Those people more or less have some flaws, but everyone has their own occupational quirks. Those quirks allowed people to determine the characteristics of their jobs. There’s nothing wrong with that!”

“Also, in my plan, the memory test is after the marksmanship test. Why was it adjusted to the second half of the second round instead of going according to the original plan?” Lu Xingzhi’s face was even darker than Colonel Lin’s.

“That’s a crazy arrangement!”

Colonel Lin growled, “After the marksmanship test, you’re sending them to the memory test, and you even dug so many holes for them. Honest people are scratching their ears and heads anxiously, aren’t they?”

The chief and the bureau chief had agreed to switch the order of the tests. They were worried that Jiang Yao would treat the test as a particularly severe and rigorous matter once the marksmanship test was over. They did not doubt the test was full of traps. Therefore, after discussing it, they decide to switch the first half and second half of the second round.

After returning from the coffee house, Jiang Yao would begin to understand the essence of that test if she were to pass the first round. It was to lie with her eyes wide open—every ten sentences would have five genuine sentences and five fake ones.

The assessment’s difficulty was decreased because both the bureau chief and Colonel Lin agreed that Lu Xingzhi’s tests were slightly abnormal.

“How can she accept that mission as a spy if she lacks her own judgment?”

“If she believes what other people say, lacks her own thoughts and the ability to think independently, can’t make objective judgments and analysis, you might as well tell her to go home. How could you describe her as a soldier?”

Lu Xingzhi snorted and sat back in his chair with a face full of contempt. “This person has to have some connections to someone on the force. Otherwise, you guys won’t be so considerate of her.”

The corner of Colonel Lin’s mouth twitched slightly. Of course, she was related to someone, and that someone was powerful and a promising talent.

“So, after you read that report, you don’t have the slightest bit of praise or appreciation for your partner?”

Colonel Lin thought, ‘Lu Xingzhi, if your wife finds out that you’re like this, she will definitely cry!’

Fortunately, Lu Xingzhi did not immediately reject his new partner. His eyes paused on the report for a few seconds before he said, “It’s not like there are no redeeming features. Her marksmanship was barely passable. Her performance at the coffee shop was not bad. She was very vigilant and did not let anyone get any information from her. She has good eyesight. She also knows how to observe the seemingly unimportant people around her and recognize the two police officers in the Police Crime Squad. But her close combat skills are not satisfactory.”

“That’s all?”

Colonel Lin frowned. “If you’re so dissatisfied, why don’t I help you apply for a new one?”

“No need, there’s no time. If she’s here, it means that someone else thinks she’s outstanding. If we get another person, they might not be as skillful as her.” Then, Lu Xingzhi sighed regretfully. “If I were to make arrangements for those people in the coffee shop, she might not be able to notice anything even if I gave her half an hour.”

Even though he said that, Lu Xingzhi was still quite satisfied. His future partner could see so many flaws in just five minutes; it seemed that she was not entirely brainless.

Chapter 1209: Buy A Durian

After Colonel Lin heard Lu Xingzhi's words, he snorted and left the other man's office. When he was back in his own room, he thought about it again. He recalled how Lu Xingzhi had dismissed his report—that guy needed a beating.

Therefore, he used the office phone to call Jiang Yao to show that he was concerned about her progress. Then, he said, "I showed your assessment report to your husband."

Jiang Yao immediately asked, "Did he praise me?"

Colonel Lin thought about it for a second and chuckled. Then, he said, "I'll repeat his words to you—as a spy, how can she be involved in the mission if she doesn't even have her own judgment. If she believes in whatever other people say, doesn't have her own opinions, can't think for herself, can't analyze or evaluate on her own, then just tell her to go home."

Jiang Yao was dumbfounded. She felt frustrated.

"He didn't praise me at all?"

Jiang Yao did not give up.

"It's not like there's nothing good about her. Her marksmanship is passable. Her performance in the coffee shop is not bad. She was very vigilant and didn't let anyone get any information. Her eyesight was not bad. She even knows how to observe the seemingly unimportant people around her. She can even recognize the two police officers in the Police Crime Squad with one glance. However, her close combat skills are not good. That was what he said." Colonel Lin smiled.

Jiang Yao was speechless.

She felt stifled, so she hung up the call with Colonel Lin without another word, and then she sent a text message to Big Ke.

When Big Ke got the notification for a new text message, he did not really want to open it. When he saw that it was Jiang Yao's text message again, he was even more reluctant to get his phone.

"It's Director Jiang. Why don't you open it and see?" Ah Lu saw that Big Ke was silent and did not move, so he raised his leg to kick him and urged him again. "Check and see if Director Jiang wants you to buy something again."

"Jinx!"

Big Ke cursed Ah Lu before he hugged the palm-sized cactus pot plant silently in his arms with a worried expression. "Director Jiang said she wanted a cactus as big as a washing board, but I couldn't find it even after checking everywhere in Jin City. In the end, I only bought this small and exquisite pot plant. Will she think that I'm useless when she sees it later?"

Ah Lu laughed out loud. Then, he reached out and took the phone for Big Ke and opened the message. Then, he read it out loud.

“Buy me a durian. A humongous one. The bigger, the better.”

Ah Lu laughed out loud again. “Big Ke, Director Jiang wants you to buy a durian again!”

Big Ke was dumbfounded; he hugged the cactus and wanted to cry but could not. “Why don’t I continue looking for a cactus the size of a washboard?”

Big Ke even doubted the possibility of buying a durian in China! That was an imported fruit!

Not only was it expensive, but it was also not easy to find!

If Big Ke and Ah Lu had not been to a particular country when they were on a mission overseas and happened to know of such a smelly and fragrant fruit, he would not have known anything about it.

“If you can’t even buy durian, Director Jiang will think that you’re useless.”

Ah Lu said, “Of course, you can’t find one in Jin City, but I remember seeing durian at an imported food shop in Jindo City. It’s still early. Take a bus to Jindo City and see if you can get one from there.”

Chapter 1210: You’re In Jindo City

Big Ke looked at Ah Lu helplessly. What else could he do?

Jiang Yao had wanted two items; he could not go back empty-handed, right?

Big Ke envied Ah Lu. They were bodyguards, but why did Jiang like to send him to buy things? Was it fair to ask him to get two items simultaneously?

Perhaps she did it because he was more honest than Ah Lu.

Not long after Colonel Lin left, Zhou Junmin went to Lu Xingzhi’s office and handed a document to the sergeant. “Young Master Liang sent this for you.”

“Big Brother is back?” Lu Xingzhi glanced at the special document bag from Jindo City hospital. He did not need to open it to know what was inside; he was not in a hurry to look at it. Instead, he asked curiously, “Is he in the barracks now?”

“It’s Liang Yuekai, Young Master Liang. He dropped the item at the entrance. When he saw me, he told me to bring it to you. Then, he left. It seems like he has other things to do,” Zhou Junmin said. “Didn’t Second Young Master Liang go on a business trip? Didn’t he say that he won’t return to Jindo City in the next few days?”

“Ruoran is going abroad with Second Brother today. I thought he’s back to see her off.” Lu Xingzhi picked up his phone. Would his wife go to Jindo City to see his sister-in-law off that morning?

Luo Ruoran’s flight was in the morning. If she had gone to Jindo City, she should have been back by then.

Furthermore, if she had gone to Jindo City to send Luo Ruoran off, there was no reason to hide it from him.

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. It seemed like his wife's whereabouts were really a mystery.

He did not know what she was doing and how long until she would be home.

"Thank you. Continue with your work." Lu Xingzhi waved the document he had received and asked Zhou Junmin to do his work. Like him, Zhou Junmin had to go on a mission in two days, and he would be transferred to the special forces with him. Therefore, Zhou Junmin would have been very busy those few days.

The office was silent again. Lu Xingzhi had just opened the document bag. There were two thin pieces of paper in it. Lu Xingzhi glanced at the words on the first page that he could not understand. Then, his gaze fell on the last line of the last page.

The results showed that the two samples were immediate relatives. The DNA test results were 99.9% similar.

Lu Xingzhi's mood sank when he saw the report. After a few seconds, he snapped back to his senses; he burned the report. Then, he took his phone and made a call. "Go to my hometown and get a sample of that idiot's blood."

He would not believe Xie Qiuran's report blindly. He had not wanted to do the test without telling Jiang Yao, but Xie Qiuran had noticed her and done the test in advance. He had no choice but to confirm it personally.

After the call, Lu Xingzhi looked at his watch and called Liang Yueze.

He did not know if Liang Yueze was busy or if he did not hear the phone. It rang for a long time before someone picked it up.

"What's the matter, Lu Xingzhi?" Liang Yueze's voice came through the phone. He sounded tired; his voice was unbelievably hoarse.

"Where are you?" Lu Xingzhi asked.

"Yuan City," Liang Yueze replied. "Didn't I tell you that I'll be on a business trip in Yuan City for a few days?"

Lu Xingzhi was silent for a moment. "Big Brother, based on my understanding of you, you should be in Jindo City today."
