

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 121

After a few sounds, the closed door of the dark room was opened again, and a group of people carried a huge circular container and slowly walked down the steps.

Nearly, I could vaguely see that it was in the shape of a huge stove.

If you get closer, you can clearly see the red flames inside, and when you hear the fire burning, it makes a “cracking” piercing sound.

With a “bang”, a group of people slammed the huge stove in front of Liam Lu.

Shiget next to him took a closer look, his eyes widened suddenly, and he took a long breath.

The next second, he suddenly turned his head to look at Yun Zhihan, and cursed.

“Yun Zhihan, you are an old pervert, what do you want to do?!”

Yun Zhihan pulled his lips and laughed comfortably, and pointed his finger at the stove in front of him.

“You have said that I am an old pervert, I will naturally ask you Liam Lu to pervert.”

“Did you see the soldering iron on the stove? Liam Lu, my request is very simple. Add the soldering iron, don’t have to do more, to get rid of the ill-will in my heart, I can say anything!”

Following his words, a cluster of hot sparks suddenly popped out of the stove.

Snapped!

The soldering iron hung by the fire, and it had long been burnt red.

“Yun Zhihan, dare you!”

Shiyue’s expression changed drastically, and he rushed out to stand in front of Liam Lu first, “If you let the old lady know, she will strip you off!”

“Then it’s better to let my grandfather go and talk to Mrs. Lu to see if this woman can keep it?”

“you!”

It’s rare for Shiyue to get angry and stand in front of Liam Lu, gritted his teeth and said.

“Master Lu, if you must do this, I will do it for you!”

When the voice fell, the others had been pushed away by Liam Lu.

“No, this is a matter between me and the Yun family.”

Liam Lu stood quietly by the fire, facing Yun Zhihan’s request, without frowning.

The fire light reflected his three-dimensional and deep face, hard and firm.

He took a step forward, raised his hand to pick up the soldering iron from the fire, and chuckled abruptly.

As soon as he lifted it up, the trouser legs were suddenly caught tightly!

The blood on Zoey Gu’s face was lost, and sweat was dripping from the big one on her forehead. The pain made her face distorted, but she said with a hoarse voice.

“Don’t...”

She shook her head vigorously at Liam Lu, enduring the pain and crawling up his trouser legs.

“Liam Lu, don’t do such a thing for me, I said it’s not worth it. I can bear it or wait. You take me to the hospital and find a good doctor, and you can solve it slowly...”

As she talked, tears fell.

She was not good enough for him.

She could not afford to let him save her in this way.

Liam Lu’s deep eyes locked her face tightly, raised his hand, and slowly dropped to his side, only to whisper.

“It hurts too much. You have already suffered so much, you don’t need to bear it anymore. Be good, close your eyes, it will pass soon.”

When the words fell, he suddenly stretched out his hand to push Zoey Gu away, and without hesitation took the soldering iron and pressed it to his body.

“No!” Zoey Gu suddenly shouted heartbreakingly.

In the next second, she had already conditioned and made the most instinctive reaction
