

Chapter 123

This drug only works with a combination of alcohol and the fact that you are interested in the other person.

Otherwise, once the effects of the drug wore off, it would just be ordinary ecstasy.

It's still a little hard on the body, but not as overbearingly strong as an aphrodisiac.

Jenny didn't know the nature of the drug, and she leaned back against the back seat, only to feel her head stay dizzy and her consciousness fuzzy.

It was as if the eyelids also weighed a thousand pounds and couldn't be opened.

There were several times when she tried forcefully to clear her head, but she failed in the end.

Even if you just bite the tip of your own tongue, it's as if your teeth have lost their strength and you can't bite at all.

The driver in front of her, through the rearview mirror, finally noticed something was wrong.

"Girl, are you okay?"

Jenny didn't say anything.

It's not that I don't want to talk about it, I just don't really have the strength.

The driver asked again, "I see that you don't look right, are you not feeling well? Why don't I take you to the hospital?"

Jenny still didn't speak.

Consciousness was growing fuzzy, and it was as if the head had fallen into chaos.

The whole body was so weak that it couldn't make any strength, and the whole person had a feeling as if he was in a dream.

Even to the things around us, the senses seem to become blurred.

The driver waited a moment for no answer from her.

Through the rearview mirror, I saw that she seemed to have really passed out, and a dark glint in her eye.

Such a pretty little girl, but she was so drunk.

Looking at her flushed face and looking miserable just now, she couldn't have been drugged, could she!

He's been a taxi driver for years. What kind of woman hasn't he seen before these days?

This woman looked like this in the middle of the night, and she was going to an upscale place like Land Garden, she wasn't a serious woman at first glance.

Most likely a rich man's mistress or mistress of the eyes, tsk! Rich people really know how to enjoy, this woman is a Judas at a glance, ordinary people all their lives can not even hope to reach, but can be rich people want to play with.

When you think of this, the driver's eyes lust is even heavier, especially when you see the fair and delicate legs exposed under the skirt of Jenny, you feel your body like a fire, burning your heart.

The car drove off a viaduct and into a rather remote and deserted stretch of road.

The driver gritted his teeth, but eventually swung the steering wheel around and pulled over on the side of the road.

He got out of the car, went to the back seat and pulled the door open.

"Miss, wake up! Wake up!"

He reached out and patted Jenny's face.

The woman in the backseat, however, was still sleeping with her eyes closed, showing no signs of waking up.

The driver's eyes were obscure.

He looked around to make sure no one was around before he got into the car and closed the door.

.....

Biden Lu drove the car all the way in the direction of the land garden.

He didn't ask Xie Er and his group to follow him, only telling Vicky to find out what had happened at Jing's tonight, while he drove alone along the road to Lu Yuan to find out.

Just looking all the way around, there was no sign of anything suspicious.

Calling her, the phone was also in an unanswered state.

He made a call back to the villa and Aunt Liu answered.

"Sir."

"Is the wife back yet?"

Aunt Liu was stunned, "No."

Biden Lu's brows furrowed fiercely and hung up the phone.

The car drove over the viaduct and saw a taxi parked on the side of the road from a distance.

Biden Lu didn't care, the black Maybach drove quickly.

Past.

Soon after, however, it fell back.

The man's face was gloomy, and he stopped the car, got out and walked to the taxi.

Inside the taxi, the driver is excited at the sight of the dazed, conscious beauty in front of him, and is reaching out to undress her.

Just then, however, the car window was knocked on from outside.

He froze, unhappily pressed down on a line of windows, and said angrily, "Who is it? Bad for me."

Before he could see clearly who was standing outside the window, he heard a loud bang.

The windows were smashed and a thousand shards of glass flew inwards.

Seri screamed, and the next thing he knew, the door was open, and then only a tremendous force picked him out of the car and threw him heavily onto the road.

Biden Lu's face was cold as frost, looking at the scantily clad woman in the carriage and then back at the driver who had fallen to the ground.

The taxi driver was already a bully and fear of the Lord, but tonight is to see Jenny consciousness dizzy, which is the lust and courage, actually where to see such a battle.

Having just been thrown out of the car, he knew he'd just kicked the can down the road today, and seeing the Maybach parked next to him, he realized the other man was someone he couldn't afford to mess with.

He even got down on his knees and begged for mercy.

"Boss, I'm sorry I was wrong, I deserve to die! I really didn't do anything to her, I just wanted to go see if she was okay, I wanted to take her to the hospital, I really wanted to do something to her."

Biden Lu sneered, his voice sounding like a devil oozing with cold in the night.

"Didn't want to do anything to her? You think I'm blind?"

The driver was so scared that he kowtowed and begged for mercy.

"I'm sorry, I'm, I was momentarily distracted, your lordship, let me go!"

"Bang!"

Biden Lu didn't bother to listen to his nonsense, he just kicked the man and fell heavily to the ground.

The driver saw that he wouldn't leave him alone, coughed a few times over his chest, then climbed up and ran.

Biden Lu didn't bother to chase after him, just took down the taxi's license plate number and flipped out the driver's license from the box in front of the driver's seat.

Then, before returning to the back seat, he took off his coat and wrapped it around the woman and carried her out.

So much movement, Jenny was somewhat aware of it.

It was only very fuzzy consciousness, but Rao was still vaguely aware of the man's scent.

That familiar warm embrace, with a hint of a faint, crisp, cold fragrance, wouldn't be available to anyone other than Biden Lu.

She hummed softly and wrapped her arms around his neck, "Biden Lu, is that you?"

The man looked down at her, his face dark as water.

"I'm so dizzy and sick!"

Jenny softly hummed softly, Biden Lu placed her on the passenger seat and fastened her seat belt, which is why he said, "Sit quietly and don't move, we'll be home soon."

Jenny nodded obediently.

Biden Lu gave Vicky a phone call.

"Bring a doctor over here, at Land Park."

As soon as Vicky heard that, he knew that he had found Jenny and even agreed.

A smooth drive back to the land garden, the woman on the road seems very quiet, not noisy, except for a few times in the middle of the body because of weakness almost fell, was his eyesight and quick hands to hold, and then no other accidents.

The black Maybach stopped at the entrance of the villa, Aunt Liu had heard Biden Lu's tone on the phone before and was a little worried, so she had been waiting at the door.

Seeing him take the woman out of the car, he greeted her evenly.

"Sir."

Jenny's face was trapped in the middle of Biden Lu's coat collar, her face a scarlet colour.

Aunt Liu was shocked.

"What's going on, ma'am?"

Chapter 124

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "It's fine, go fetch a basin of hot water over here."

Sister-in-law Chen responded evenly, "Yes."

Carrying Jenny back to the bedroom, Mrs. Chen also fetched water.

Biden Lu sent her out, then wrung out a hot towel and wiped her face and hands finely, along with her body.

The good news is that after some examination, the woman, though dazed and unconscious, didn't seem to have any injuries.

Lu Jing deepened his relief.

It wasn't long before Vicky came over with a doctor.

After some examination, it was determined that it was nothing serious, and although the rice medicine had been taken, it was not strong, nor was it of any particularly malignant kind.

After all, the Jing family's background was placed there, and it wasn't really a despicable family, so naturally the family wouldn't have those too messy things.

The doctor gave Jenny a shot of antidote and reduced her fever before leaving.

Vicky had been waiting for orders in the living room downstairs, and after Biden Lu made sure that Jenny Jing was fine, he tucked her in and went downstairs.

"Did you find out? What happened at King's tonight."

At the mention of this, Vicky looked a little embarrassed.

He aimed at Biden Lu's face and said in a deep voice, "This medicine was given to the young lady by Old Lady Jing because..."

Vicky told Biden Lu all about the events that had happened tonight with the Jing family, one by one.

Biden Lu's already gloomy face became even darker to the point where it could drip water after hearing the whole thing.

"President, everyone in the Jing family is here tonight, including her own father, but they still did this to her, do you think we should..."

Biden Lu sneered.

"I'll take care of that myself, now you go and help me with another matter."

He said, handing that driver's license to Vicky, "Go check out this company and this person, I don't want to see them in Visterdem again."

Vicky was fiercely shaken.

He took a look at the driving licence, and though he didn't know how the man had offended his master, he didn't dare ask too many questions.

Respectfully, he responded, "Yes."

Summers left.

Aunt Liu came over worriedly, concerned, "Young Master, is the young lady alright."

"Nothing."

Biden Lu turned around and went up the stairs, and paused again as soon as he took the steps.

"Go make a glass of honey water and bring it up."

"Yes."

By the time he returned to the bedroom, Jenny was already awake.

The antidote the doctor injected into her was very effective, but within half an hour, the person had woken up.

Seeing Biden Lu, she went into a trance for a moment before asking, "How did you find me?"

At the mention of this, Biden Lu was a little angry.

He stepped forward, gently cupped the woman's chin, and said in a quiet voice, "Why don't you be good where you are and wait for me?"

Jenny was stunned, looking at him in confusion.

"I'm afraid the Jing family will find out! I won't last long, and if they find me, I won't be able to run away."

"Then you can find a safe place to hide."

Just the thought that she had the nerve to get into a stranger's car in that situation and almost get into danger, he couldn't help but be angry.

Jenny deflated her mouth in aggravation, "I didn't think of that! I was panicked and confused, where else would I have thought of that?"

She said, aiming for his face and spreading her arms around him.

"Honey, I was wrong~~"

The cold colour under Biden Lu's eyes cracked.

Jenny hugged his wrist again and said pitifully, "I thought you'd find me soon! Where did you get the idea that the driver was so bad? And I don't.

Are you okay? Even the bad guys won't dare to bully me now that my wise and powerful husband is here!"

The woman's voice was incomparably soft and glutinous, obviously deliberately made flesh, partial call life not half a trace of resentment, but very useful.

Biden Lu sneered.

In the end, she let go of her chin and said coldly, "Count yourself lucky."

He couldn't imagine what the consequences would have been if he hadn't noticed something wrong with the car, or had just missed it.

Just the thought of it made his eyes darken a bit.

Jenny, however, was oblivious to all of this.

It was hard to escape death, and after a struggle, the little bit of food I had eaten during the night had been digested by now long ago.

She touched her stomach and whispered, "Honey, I'm hungry."

Biden Lu paused and looked at her with haunted eyes, "Hungry?"

"Well, I'm so hungry, I didn't have much to eat tonight and I've made such a scene, is there any leftover dinner or anything I can have at home?"

"Why do I get the feeling you should want to eat me more than dinner?"

Jenny: "....."

Is it really good for you to say it like that?

She blushed and blushed, embarrassed, "Ahem, no, that...the doctor got me the medicine and I feel much better now, no, it doesn't have to be that or anything."

Biden Lu laughed, and couldn't tell if it was mocking or what, and turned around to go out.

"If you want to eat, come down yourself."? Jenny was stunned.

"Oh."

Downstairs, in the restaurant.

Biden Lu asked Mrs. Chen to prepare some food, and Jenny Jing sat there alone to eat.

The man, on the other hand, is on his phone on the living room couch.

Jenny scanned his face and saw that he seemed to be angry again and felt aggrieved.

Why is he angry when she's the victim?

I don't get it!

But she was also a little angry at the thought of tonight's events.

When Kelly Wang takes things to this point, it can be said that her relationship with the Jing family is completely deadlocked.

She thought carelessly as she sipped her soup.

She originally wanted to use this opportunity to return to the Jing family to stay and check on their relationship with the Kyoto side of the family.

She always had a sneaking feeling that there was something fishy going on, and she didn't feel at ease until she got to the bottom of it.

But I didn't expect to be shady for once.

Just the thought of last night filled her with fury.

Just then, the phone suddenly rang.

Jenny picked it up and saw that it was Xiao He.

"What's wrong?"

"Mr. Jing, early this morning, several people claiming to be your grandmother and father came over and said they wanted to see you, but we couldn't stop them and have now gone to your office."

Jenny Jing was stunned, his face changing slightly.

Followed by a smirk.

That's good. You still have the nerve to come to me, don't you?

She said quietly, "I know, come right over."

After hanging up the phone, Jenny drove directly to Starlite.

The Jing family had come over early in the morning to make a scene, and word had already spread in the company, and the eyes of one and all looking at Jenny Jing revealed a gossipy look.

Without looking away, Jenny Jing entered the lift directly.

As soon as they left, a couple of employees who came in later immediately pulled up to the front desk and asked, "Eh, what's going on? Was it King's family that called?"

"Right." The receptionist looked embarrassed and looked like she wanted to stop talking.

Those employees are all people savvy, and they knew there must be something inside when they saw it, so they even asked, "What's going on? Quickly tell us about it."

Chapter 125

"Alas! It's not easy for me to say that, but it's also really appalling, you know? As soon as her family came, they said that she had been kept by wild men outside, that she had corrupted her family, that she was willing to go to work for others as an eye woman for money, that she was unfaithful, that she disobeyed her elders at home, that she persecuted her sister, in short...tsk, tsk, it was so scary."

"No way! Jing doesn't look like that."

The receptionist added, "I don't know about that, but I see that they are talking in a well-placed manner, not necessarily fake, they also said that they had a hard time finding a nice family for Jing to go back for a blind date, but she didn't want to even if she didn't want to, but she actually beat up the other guy."

"So savage!"

"Isn't it? It is said that by virtue of that golden lord of hers, even her family dare not say anything and dare not be angry."

"Who's the Kingpin behind her?"

"Who knows? But even the Jing family dares to offend, so he should be a very powerful man!"

"Huh...that's disgusting!How could she?"

"Yeah, I used to think she was some kind of strong woman, but she also ended up relying on men to get to the top, so she has no shame!"

"What's the solution?I told you, the richer and more capable men are, the more they really eat this one, isn't there a saying?What you can't get is always in commotion, and the more you act like you're clean and self-possessed, the more men like it."

"Heh!!'d love to see who that is behind her."

"It's mostly older married men who keep young girls these days, and I'm guessing she's no exception."

A few kilometres away, people's mouth "old man" Biden Lu Lu, general manager, sneezed viciously.

Shit!Who's yelling at him?

The receptionist who provided the scoop laughed, "I see that when the Jing family came over today, it was raging, and I think it's also true that the Jing family is considered to be a respectable family in Visterdem, but they actually produced such a shameless daughter, so it's only right to be angry."

"It wouldn't?There's a good show today, let's go, let's take a quick look."

A group of people have gone into the office with the intention of watching a good show.

On the other hand, as soon as Jenny Jing entered the office, she keenly felt the eyes of the people around her looking at her, not quite the same as before.

There was scorn, mockery, sympathy, and envy.

She frowned under her breath, and as soon as she reached her office door, she heard yelling and cursing inside, and immediately understood what was going on.

A clear, delicate face sank to the bottom in an instant.

“Bang!”

The office door was pushed open with great force, and the people inside were startled.

The original slanderous cries also came to an abrupt end in an instant.

Jenny looked coldly at the circle of people sitting in the office.

Good, Kelly Wang, Kevin Jing, Yu Xiu Lian, Clara, and all the members of the Jing family are here!

I dare you to come here and ask for help!

She smirked and walked over to her desk, dropping her handbag on the desk with a pop.

“Yell at me! Why don’t you keep yelling? The rightful owner is here. Listen! What did you just say? Who’s shameless and who’s beating people up?”

Jenny Jing was dressed in a black suit, heroic, stern and cold, standing there with his arms folded, having a drum of powerful aura flowing out.

Kelly Wang looked at her like she was so high and mighty, she was shaking with anger.

“Well, you’re finally here.

!Good, I thought you could hide from me until you didn’t even come to the office! Looks like you haven’t got that much guts!”

Jenny snickered.

“My own company for why I dare not come? Rather, there are some people who deliberately spread rumors outside to ruin my reputation, I’ve recorded them one by one, when I’m free later, I’ll definitely sue her for slander, I’m sure it shouldn’t be difficult.”

The office was silent as the words were spoken.

Kelly Wang was livid, and Kevin Jing was also a little guilty.

When Clara saw this, she even came forward and pulled Jenny Jing's arm and said softly, "Sister, don't be angry, we are all family, and grandmother is even your elder, what would she say about you outside? It's just some pissed off gaslighting that no one will take seriously."

Jenny Jing looked at her off to the side and sneered at the corners of his lips.

"Oh? Really? Well, why don't I take you out for a walk now, I'm sure there are a lot of people who haven't shut up and still hear something."

Clara: "....."

She lowered her head in embarrassment, then looked at Kelly Wang with embarrassment.

Kelly Wang had calmed down by now, her gaze sharpened as she stared at Jenny and sank into a deep breath.

Only then did he say coldly, "OK! You don't have to threaten us, and we didn't mean to slander you, so how dare you say that what we said isn't true? You misbehaved and seduced yourself out there, and you're blaming others for not telling?"

Jenny found it funny, she laughed and asked with interest, "I'd like to hear how I've misbehaved? Who have I hooked up with?"

Kelly Wang sneered disdainfully, "You know what you've done yourself! If it wasn't for that, why would I have bothered to rush to find you a wife? If you want to die, no one will stop you. Don't drag the whole Jing family into your funeral.

In the end, you are good, it's just as well to disappoint my good intentions and beat someone to death, are you unwilling not to get our Jing family killed?"

Jenny Jing raised his eyebrows, a little surprised.

It was reasonable to say that someone like Xu Tianhong deserved to die.

But because she was drugged yesterday and her hands were weak and limp, she didn't do it with much force.

She was aiming for the spot to hit, and it was reasonable to assume that spot would only put someone into a brief coma and never cause harm.

Jenny Jing didn't have time to speak, next to him, Clara followed and echoed, "Yes sister, big brother Xu is still lying in the hospital right now, you two were so close before, even if you really have any conflicts, you should go and take a look, it's good to talk about any misunderstandings."

Jenny's eyelids jumped.

The anger almost coaxed the person right out.

"We're close? From which eye did you see that?"

Clara pretended to be innocent, "We can all see that ah! Yesterday, you and Brother Xu were laughing and he held your hand, but you didn't resist, did you?"

You knew that the family called him over to arrange your blind date, but you didn't object at all, and you even agreed to get a marriage license at the end of the week, so doesn't that just show that you like him too?"

Jenny felt the veins on his temples popping out.

She laughed in anger, "I see you speak for him like this, calling him brother Xu, you should be the one who likes him more.

Oh, also, you've always liked anything that's mine anyway, and isn't Rovell an example of that?"

Clara's face turned slightly pale.

Kelly Wang suddenly said in a furious voice, "Shut up!"
