

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 128

“The guard at the door said that their master was going out to meet guests tonight and was not at home. But before I came, I asked clearly that this person is usually very reluctant to pay. He stays at home most of the time and does not go out. This is clear...”

Liam Lu lowered his eyes, his face darkened slightly.

Yun Zhihan was right about one thing.

The only person who could help Zoey Gu was a medical weird who had a strange temper and was hard to approach or even get along with.

After silence, Liam Lu looked back at Zoey Gu, put a blanket on her lap, and whispered.

“Wait for me in the car.”

After speaking, without waiting for Zoey’s reaction, he pushed the door and got out of the car and walked again towards the courtyard not far away.

Shiyue watched him go far, turned into the car in frustration, pulled the door to sit in the driver’s seat, bowed his head and sighed.

“How long have been with Liam, this is the first time we have been turned away.”

Zoey Gu heard it in the mist, frowned and looked at Xiang Shiyue, and asked puzzledly.

“Liam Lu brought me here, what is he going to do?”

When Shiyue heard the words, when he raised his head to look at Zoey Gu, there was a slightly more complicated expression in his eyes, and he explained in a low voice.

“Miss Gu, your arm is seriously injured, and...”

Shiyue concealed Yun Zhihan’s administration of medicine in her body, “Ordinary treatments are not feasible, let alone prolonged.”

As Shiyue said, he raised his hand and pointed his chin to the courtyard in front of the car.

“There is a well-known old genius doctor in Qingcheng who has magical methods for all kinds of intractable diseases, so Liam will take you to try your luck.”

“Who knows that this doctor is a freak, he doesn’t treat people easily, he doesn’t treat women, he doesn’t treat couples, it’s a pervert!”

Zoey Gu reacted and leaned sideways on the window to look out.

Liam Lu was standing in front of the courtyard, leaning slightly and whispering something to the people in front of the courtyard, patiently.

Zoey Gu lowered his eyes, and the corners of his mouth twitched bitterly.

For her, there is no difference between a burn and an arm full of pinholes.

But it seems that he cares more than her client.

“But I hurt my arm and I can’t die. Just cover it up, why bother?” She whispered.

Shiyue frowned, really felt that Zoey Gu was a little bit ignorant.

“I also think that Lu Shao is making a fuss. After leaving Qingcheng, Lu’s family has so many means to find a good doctor. But Lu Shao said, you have suffered a lot before. Now, he doesn’t want you to eat anything. A little bit of bitterness.”

Zoey Gu’s heart was bitter and indescribable.

Looking out the window again, Liam Lu, who had always been aloof, stood quietly outside the courtyard, behind him was a large area of thick night. Seeing time passed by every minute, but there was still no intention to leave.

Zoey Gu’s eyes were astringent, and she quietly looked at him through the glass for a long while, not knowing which muscle was wrong, and suddenly sat upright.

Before Shiyue could react, she suddenly turned sideways, pushed the door with her uninjured hand and jumped out of the car.

When the car came in, the scream became louder and louder.

“Miss Gu, wait! Liam explained...”
