

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 13

Something pierced her body.

The kind of familiar and unfamiliar sharp pain made Zoey Gu subconsciously resist, struggling to get up.

But she couldn't open her eyes, her hands and feet were even more crushed, she couldn't use her strength at all, and it didn't take long for her to plunge into darkness again.

Zoey Gu was awakened by the pattering rain in his ears and the biting coldness on his body.

She struggled to open her eyes, and instantly met countless flashing lights, as well as pairs of surprised and contemptuous eyes.

At this moment, she was leaning against the outer wall of Gu's old house, her body was soaked with rain and her clothes were disheveled. The large and small traces that were ravaged by Liam Lu became more and more glaring in the light.

Zoey Gu sat up straight and looked around in a panic.

This is Gu's old house!

Why is she here?

At this moment, in the Gu's hall not far away, Lydia Lin is holding a small banquet in order to win the relationship.

It was raining outside, and the people who had not yet entered the banquet held umbrellas, straightened up to Zoey Gu, whispering.

"Isn't this Zoey Gu, the eldest lady in the Gu family? She has disappeared for five years, so why is she back again?"

"Why? Retribution! Back then, she was full of trouble in chasing a poor boy, but then she got tired of playing and turned her head and dumped people. It is estimated that she was tired of playing outside these years and was Abandoned!"

"Look at the traces of her body, it's really intense."

In the face of the rumors and strange gazes of the crowd, Zoey Gu's face was pale, and he opened his mouth to explain something, but couldn't talk about it. He could only gritted his teeth and slowly stood up by the wall.

"Zoey Gu!"

Behind the gate of the courtyard, Lydia Lin suddenly screamed angrily.

In the next second, the door opened, and Lydia Lin followed the servant behind him and walked out quickly under the umbrella.

When he walked to Zoey Gu, he couldn't help but slap his hand up and throw it over.

Snapped.

"You still have the face to come back?"

Zoey's face turned away, and the whole person staggered back a few steps, a fiery pain on his face.

Lydia Lin stood under the flashlight, pointing to Zoey Gu's nose with anger and disappointment and cursing.

"Back then, you disregarded my dissuasion and gave up sincerely to your boyfriend, It was romantic..."

In order not to let your family control you, you followed other men for five years."

"Your father was so angry that he had a cerebral infarction hemorrhage. If I hadn't been sent to a foreign hospital overnight, I was afraid that he would not be able to save his life. In these years, if it weren't for your brother to stay with him while studying abroad, if not for me Supporting the Gu family, how can we get to now?"

"It's good for you, you have had enough fun with other men, and you want to go home only after being abandoned? You have lost all the people in your family!"

After she finished speaking, she took advantage of the flashing light and everyone talked about it. Unconsciously, she grabbed Zoey Gu's collar and suddenly leaned into her ear and said.

"Little b!tch, if you don't cooperate with me, you know the result!"

The surrounding rain "crushed", the voices of people burst, and the flashes became more dazzling. Everyone looked at Zoey Gu quietly, waiting for her to speak the answer.

Have you admitted all the charges mentioned by Lydia Lin? Or is there another secret?

No one knew, all of this was broadcast live to Liam Lu through a certain lens on the scene.

At this moment, he is sitting in the office on the top floor of the Jingrong Center, with the computer turned on in front of him, and his eyes are gloomy and staring at the screen, as if he is also waiting for Zoey Gu to speak.

“Zoey Gu, speak up!” Lydia Lin reminded impatiently.
