

Chapter 134

A few minutes later, Leon's men found something powdery in the kitchen. He immediately asked them to send it for a lab test.

Snow and Yummy were re-caged finally.

Alyssa thanked Wendy and the cook. Watching Leon nod, she knew he had nailed it.

Regardless of whether the cook had a problem or not.

They would better not have breakfast at home for now.

Looking at the foods on the table, Alyssa couldn't eat them and had to pretend that she wanted to throw up.

She pouted and tears came to her eyes. All these delicious foods were wasted!

Seeing that Alyssa was not feeling well, Wendy poured water for her and asked her how she was feeling, very concerned about Alyssa.

The cook was hiding in the lounge. She said she didn't feel well in her stomach and never came out.

Ten minutes later.

In the black car.

Alyssa looked at Leon, "Something is definitely wrong with this cook."

"There were some powdery items in the kitchen. I've taken it to the lab and there should be the result soon."

"So fast."

Leon nodded.

Alyssa smiled and went over to kiss him, "I'm still hungry!"

"I have prepared everything. Let's go get something to eat and then I'll take you to school."

Alyssa smiled when she heard that she would get something to eat in a moment. But on second thought, it seemed that Emily was still near their house. If they went to get something to eat, they would be watched again. She looked at Leon, "Is anyone watching us?"

"I've taken care of it all. You can rest assured."

"Really?"

"Of course."

Alyssa nodded and said happily, "Then I'm going to eat a lot of things. The food we just had at home is very much to my liking. I'm so hungry."

"I've got it all ready for you."

Half an hour later, Leon took Alyssa to the Hunters' old house.

"Why did you bring me here?"

"You've told your family about your pregnancy, and my grandpa should know about it. Otherwise, if my grandpa knew about it, he would think we deliberately kept it from him. I'll tell you a secret, and you can't tell anyone."

"What secret?" Hearing the secret, Alyssa hurriedly moved over.

Leon whispered in her ear, "My grandpa can be so petty."

Hearing this, Alyssa curled the corners of her mouth, "Okay, I'll listen to you."

Anyway, she didn't want to hide this matter. It was only right for grandpa to know about it.

Hearing Alyssa's words, Leon smiled and took Alyssa to the villa.

Just after walking into the villa, Alyssa smelled something delicious.

Kevin heard the sound and came out, "It's been half an hour since you called me. Alyssa, why did you wear so little? Leon, why don't you take care of Alyssa and let her wear more? It's cold today. Alyssa, are you cold? Hurry up and sit down. I'll make you some tea."

Alyssa hurriedly stood up, "No, grandpa, I'd rather do it by myself."

"Alyssa, I'll go."

Seeing that Alyssa was about to move, Leon hurriedly stopped her and went to pour the water.

Kevin smiled as he watched Leon, who was usually arrogant, pour the water himself, "Leon is different from before since he's been with you. It is because of you that Leon is different. Leon seems to have grown up. Married people are indeed different."

He had brought up Leon personally, so of course, he knew best how he had changed.

He used to have nothing but indifference in his eyes, but now he has light in his eyes.

Alyssa took Kevin's hand and smiled at him. Since Leon was the one who told her grandpa and dad that she was pregnant, she should be the one to tell Kevin that she was pregnant.

Looking at Alyssa's smile, Kevin couldn't help but smile too, "No wonder Leon didn't want to marry anyone but you. You look so pretty when you smile. Your eyes are so bright and shiny as if they can bring hope. I have seen many girls, but they are not as smart as you. I didn't expect Leon to like a girl like you at all. I thought he liked the kind of strong woman who was an even match for him."

He thought he did overthink it.

Now, Leon and Alyssa were very close.

"Grandpa, I'll tell you a secret." Alyssa smiled and came up to Kevin. But then she said very loudly, "Grandpa, I'm pregnant."

Leon happened to pour warm water and came out from the kitchen. Hearing Alyssa's words, he laughed.

He only saw his grandpa freeze for a moment, but he quickly reacted. He took Alyssa's hand with his old hands. He was too excited to speak for a moment. And he simply took Alyssa's hand and trembled.

"Grandpa, Leon and I will have a baby."

Alyssa could see Kevin's excitement. She said it again, but she was worried she might scare grandpa. So, she said softly, "Grandpa, don't be nervous. This is just my first child with Leon. We will have other children in the future. I've already thought about it. I'm going to give Leon many babies, okay?"

"Good, I'm so happy. I didn't expect the good news to come so quickly. I thought I'd have to wait a little longer. Leon is going to be a father and I'm going to be a great grandfather. It's great that the Hunters finally have an heir. Alyssa, what do you want to eat? Tell me and I'll have the cook make it for you."

"Grandpa, I'm fine now. Besides, Leon and I have just asked for lots of good food. I'm really hungry now. Let's go have breakfast together!"

"Okay, let's go eat breakfast together."

Kevin now understood. All the delicious food Leon asked to prepare just now was for Alyssa.

However, could she eat that much?

"Alyssa, how do you feel now? Do you feel uncomfortable? You must tell me at once when you feel uncomfortable."

"I'm fine." Alyssa knew grandpa cared about her. She smiled and said, "Don't worry about me, grandpa. I'm still the same as before. I can eat and drink. If you want to see your great-grandson, you have to take care of yourself. You have to be in a good mood, not get angry too often, and smile more often."

Kevin nodded, "Yes, I'm fine! Alyssa, you are the best. I don't have a sweet girl like you in my family. Come on, let's go eat first."

Kevin was really happy. His old face was all wrinkled with smiles.

But his eyes were full of light. His old hand took Alyssa's hand and led her forward. Leon followed behind them.
