

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 136

As soon as Anna Yun's voice fell, the people who had been hiding in the corner holding one after the other suddenly jumped out, and smugly moved towards the photo he had just taken.

"Miss, don't worry! I not only captured the action of the woman hitting you, but also captured the expression on her face."

Anna Yun lowered her head and glanced with satisfaction, curled her lips silently, and then whispered.

"Print it out and find someone to send it to Mrs. Lu as soon as possible. What I can't do is pediatrics for her."

"The old lady is a woman like Zoey Gu. The closer you get to Liam Lu, the worse her fate will be!"

When Zoey Gu walked back to the living room, Mr. Fu was sitting on the sofa in the living room making tea. Seeing her coming, he couldn't help but pull his lips.

"The little girl looked sick, but she didn't know how to start."

Obviously, he had seen everything about her and Anna Yun just now.

Zoey Gu pursed her lips and walked over, looked down at Mr. Fu, and asked softly.

"Actually, she saw you before seeing me, right?"

Mr. Fu glanced at Zoey Gu, poured a cup of warm water and handed it to her, motioned her to sit down opposite, laughed vaguely.

"You're not stupid. Before you woke up, she sat with me for three hours, talking about your life stains and bad conduct."

"Oh, by the way, she gave me a sky-high price, wanting to buy your life."

Hearing this, Zoey Gu was startled.

Then he lowered her eyes and laughed mockingly.

This is like Anna Yun's usual style of doing things.

"She was right to find you. I'm right under your nose, Mr. Fu, and you are my attending doctor again. It's perfect to let you take my life."

Mr. Fu paused while drinking tea, and looked at Zoey Gu calmly.

For a moment, there was no explanation, but the tea cup was put down.

He stretched out his hand and took Zoey Gu's hand to look at the injury, his face eased a little, and he whispered.

"The drug resistance in the body has been broken down, and the wound has recovered quickly. When the right time comes, I will arrange a repair operation for you."

After he finished speaking, he let go of Zoey Gu's hand and stood up, turned and walked outside, and motioned for her to follow.

"Let's go."

Zoey Gu stood up, confused, "Where to go?"

"I will accompany you to buy the ingredients for the sour noodle soup, a large portion."

Zoey Gu: "..."

The old man's behavior changed too quickly. Before Zoey Gu could react, he was pulled into the car to the hypermarket.

They went straight to the biggest store in the city center, and there was a supermarket on the first floor.

Before entering, Mr. Fu handed Zoey Gu a brand new mobile phone.

"Liam Lu said that before coming to Qingcheng, your mobile phone was lost and it was specially prepared for you before leaving."

Zoey Gu didn't expect such a small thing, but Liam Lu took it to heart, took the phone in a daze, and found that there were only two names in the address book.

Liam Lu and Shiyue.

Mr. Fu sneered and asked, seeing her expression different.

"Girl, Liam Lu, is it really your husband?"

Zoey Gu was taken aback, and looked up at Mr. Fu in a panic, "We..."

As a result, she turned her eyes inexplicably, but suddenly she saw a familiar figure standing just a few meters away from her.

Back view.

Stature.

Profile.

It all looks like...

The next second, the person suddenly turned his face and looked in her direction unconsciously.

Zoey Gu was shocked instantly, his eyes widened like a ghost, and he froze in place!
