

Chapter 136

"You're awake? Did you have a dream? Or something else?" Leon hurried in when he heard the commotion inside the room. Seeing the sweat on her forehead, he gently wiped her sweat.

"I woke up and felt strange around me, and I couldn't remember where this place was. I was just a little confused."

Alyssa felt a little embarrassed. She was relieved to see that Leon was still there. She came over to Leon, "It's good you're still here. Can we go home now? I still want to go home."

"Your head is all sweaty and it's cold outside. Besides, the house is still being cleaned. How about we eat something at the old house at noon before we go back?"

"Why are you cleaning the house?" Alyssa didn't understand and looked at Leon.

Leon told Alyssa that his men had found drugs in the villa that could have an effect on the baby. His men also interrogated the cook, who confessed that she had been paid by Emily.

Alyssa's whole body trembled.

Leon could see that Alyssa was scared and hurriedly hugged Alyssa, "Don't be afraid. My people have secretly searched through the villa. Moreover, Wendy also helps. You can rest assured. This time I've already made it clear to Wendy, and Wendy promised that she will take care of you wholeheartedly."

Alyssa nodded. She still felt scared at the thought of Emily trying to hurt her baby.

"Don't be afraid. I'm always here for you."

Leon sensed that Alyssa was still scared and hugged Alyssa tightly.

She usually looked quite bold, but now she suddenly became so timid.

"I still remember that before New Year's Eve, you followed Susan because of the Summit Group case, and Susan probably wanted to get back at you. I reminded you at that time, but you were not even afraid. You look so timid now. I didn't see that you were scared at all at that time."

"That's different." Alyssa leaned her head on Leon's shoulder, "At that time, I was alone. No matter what kind of problems I faced, I could face them alone. But now it's different. I have a baby. I must protect my baby."

After becoming a mother, she was naturally different from before.

In her last life, she could never be a mother.

This life was different.

She fell in love with Leon and had a child with Leon. No one knew better than her how much she cared for this child.

"Don't be afraid! At that time, you were alone, but now, I, the baby are by your side. We will not let anyone who dares to bully you go. It's not good for you to get agitated like this. Before, the doctor also said that you should keep a good mood and not panic, didn't he?"

Leon hugged Alyssa tightly.

He was worried that Alyssa's fear would affect her emotionally.

He hugged Alyssa for a while and felt that Alyssa's mood was much better before he let go of Alyssa.

But just as he let go of Alyssa, Alyssa grabbed his hand.

"You can hold me a little longer. I'm a little scared."

Hearing Alyssa's words, Leon hugged Alyssa tightly again.

Bam!

There was a sudden sound of the door being touched outside.

Alyssa subconsciously grabbed Leon's hand. They looked back together and saw George appearing at the door some time ago.

When he saw Alyssa's hand holding Leon's, George's face darkened slightly. He didn't feel embarrassed to see the intimacy between lovers, just showing a particularly grim face.

Alyssa was a little embarrassed to see George outside. It was also uncomfortable to be stared at intently. She subconsciously burrowed into Leon's arms.

George immediately said loudly, "I wondered why Leon kicked my mother out. So it was you who instigated Leon. Leon, this woman is a bitch. If you continue to listen to her, something terrible will happen to our family sooner or later."

He had just seen clearly from outside. It was this woman who wrapped her arms around Leon.

Otherwise, Leon would have left by now.

His mom and cousin were both kicked out because of this woman. If it weren't for this woman, how would his family have become torn apart?

George was angry at the thought of it. He walked toward Alyssa. He was just about to hit her when Leon stopped him. Then Leon pulled him to the other side.

Bam!

His back slammed into the wall.

George looked up and glared at Leon, "Are you out of your mind? How could you hit me for this woman! Do you know that she is up to no good?"

"I think you're the one with bad intentions. At this time, you should be at school. What are you doing at home?" Leon's face deepened. He asked Alyssa with his eyes if she was okay. Seeing Alyssa shook her head, he was relieved, "You go back to school now and don't go home for nothing."

"This isn't your home only, it's also my home. Why should I need your permission to come back?"

George glared at Leon, "I'm going to tell grandpa."

"Go ahead! People like you will only go to grandpa if something happens, just like you did when you were a kid. When you were little, whenever you were bullied by others, you would only go to grandpa for help, and never find a way to solve the problem yourself. So, you just go and cry to grandpa!"

"Leon ..."

"Is this the attitude you have when you talk to your brother?"

"You drove my mother and cousin away because of this woman. I'm definitely going to talk to grandpa about this. It's time for you to think about what exactly you should do. If you really can't tell right from wrong, you shouldn't be the president."

George turned around and left angrily.

Soon, the room was quiet.

Watching George's back disappear, Alyssa looked up at Leon, "You are using me."

"Why do you think so?" Looking at Alyssa's pout, Leon couldn't help but laugh, "You're smart now. I wish you were born stupid and didn't know if I was using you."

"Any fool can see that."

Seeing that Alyssa seemed a little angry, Leon didn't dare to really mess with his pregnant wife. He came close to Alyssa, "I don't want him to get involved in this. After all, his last name is Hunter, so I hope you understand."

Alyssa looked at Leon and suddenly laughed.

"What are you laughing at?"

"I'm surprised! You're so mean to Audrey, but you're extra careful with George. Outsiders always say that you and George are incompatible with each other. In fact, they don't know that you are not like that."

"So you stay out of this. I'll handle it. I'll make sure you're safe, okay?"

"Okay."

She trusted that Leon would take care of this.
