

Chapter 143

"You can take me to work later. I can't drive with such a serious injury."

"You have to show your weakness, don't you? If you go to work now, it will prove that you are strong, won't it? You might as well stay home and rest for two days. All your work is ready to be done before the New Year. There shouldn't be a need for you to be there now. So, do you have to go back?"

"I have to go to the company. I happen to have a pretty important project in the next few days. I have to keep an eye on it personally."

Recently, Hunter Group and MJ's cooperation case was secretly ongoing.

This project had already started a year ago.

Later, because MJ had doubts about Hunter Group, the cooperation was never successful. After a year-long investigation, MJ finally agreed to work together. Now they were in the final stage of review. The contract was all set. At this time, he not only had to put the Coles' power down but also had to sign a big contract with MJ. In this way, Hunter Group would have better development in the future.

After hearing Leon's words, Alyssa knew he was busy and didn't continue to stop him from going to work.

After helping Leon to wash up, she sent Leon to work.

When Leon was driven to the office by Alyssa, he told Alyssa to rush home, and Alyssa said, "I have to go to school. I'm not on vacation yet! I have to prepare for my exams."

"Why are you still going to school?"

"If I don't go to school, I have nothing to do at home. It's so boring for me to be home alone."

Alyssa still wanted to go to school to study.

Leon understood Alyssa's thoughts and had to agree.

Half an hour later.

Alyssa went to school.

As soon as she arrived at the classroom, she saw Ella.

Seeing Alyssa coming, Ella smiled at her. She gestured to Alyssa not to talk and to focus on the lecture.

An hour later.

Alyssa and Ella sat in the pavilion.

"Alyssa, did my cousin say something to you? Nothing is wrong, right?"

"No, it's all over."

"So something still happened?" Ella was sorry, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault. Don't be mad at me."

"Mad?" Alyssa looked at Ella and smiled, "I'm not mad. What makes you think I would be mad?"

"My cousin insisted on seeing you yesterday. I actually sensed what he wanted to say to you, and I always had a strange feeling. My cousin seems to be particularly interested in you. I mean my cousin seems to like you quite a lot."

"What are you talking about?" Alyssa laughed and looked at Ella, "Probably because of the work stuff, he still wants me to work at Citic. But I have to pursue postgraduate studies. Besides, I'm pregnant. How could I possibly go to work?"

"I see. Then there's nothing else?"

"What's wrong?" Looking at Ella's expression, Alyssa probably understood what she was thinking, "How is that possible! Leon and I are already married. I'm going to be a mother soon, and Mr. Wood always has a good eye. He won't like someone like me. Come on, don't overthink it."

Alyssa looked at her belly and laughed again.

How could Ella think like that?

How could she think that they had anything to do with each other! It was impossible.

Hearing Alyssa's words, Ella lowered her head in embarrassment, "I don't know. I've never seen that look in my cousin's eyes. Alyssa, I really don't think this is right. You don't think Hassan has any special feelings for you?"

"He probably just wants me to work at Citic."

How could Hassan possibly like her, a married woman!

He just wanted her to work for him!

It was impossible for him to like her.

He probably thought it was a good deal to use an intern, so he tried to use her again.

Hearing Alyssa's words with such certainty, Ella was finally relieved, "That's good, Alyssa, I was worried yesterday that my cousin would do something to you. It's good that you said it's okay. I don't have any classes today. Let's go to the library!"

Alyssa nodded. Walking forward with Ella, she always felt that someone was following them.

Seeing that Alyssa was distracted on the way, Ella asked softly, "What's wrong? Is there something wrong with you? Why are you so distracted?"

"I feel that someone is following us."

Ella heard Alyssa's words and tried to turn back.

But Alyssa immediately stopped her.

"Don't turn back. There's a fork in the road ahead. Let's split up and move fast." Alyssa came up to Ella's ear, "Be careful."

Ella nodded. Seeing that they were dressed in similar colors today, Ella understood what Alyssa was up to.

They quickly walked to the fork in the road and separated.

The man who had been following them noticed that they had separated and tried to see them clearly, so he ran out in a hurry. But as soon as he ran out, he was exposed.

Alyssa and Ella came out from behind together and saw Ryan looking around.

Ella glared at Ryan angrily. She was about to confront him, but Alyssa stopped her immediately.

She pulled Ella to the far side.

"Alyssa, why don't you just let me ask him what he wants? That bastard has been up to no good to you. I should have cursed him out just now."

"What's the point of cursing him? We're the only ones who know he's following us, but no one else does. Besides, this is the school. There's no surveillance here. If it gets out of hand, we can't make it clear."

"As long as we want to talk about it, we can definitely make it clear."

Ella thought that everyone would believe them. They were good students, and the teachers would definitely believe them.

Alyssa shook her head. She was thinking about whether to tell Ella about Emily. But on second thought, she thought it would be better not to say anything about it.

Ella simply had nothing to do with the Coles.

Ryan inexplicably followed her. She just couldn't help but associate this with Emily.

After all, they used to be very close partners.

Alyssa looked at Ella and said softly, "The less trouble, the better. We're all about to graduate. If something goes wrong because of this, it will be bad. Just let him follow us if he likes. We don't need to pay attention to him. It's not difficult for us. That we graduate smoothly matters more than anything else."

Ella nodded at Alyssa's words.

Seeing that Ella was convinced by her, Alyssa smiled and said, "Well, it's nearly time. Let's go to the library."

In the library, Ella read her book carefully, but Alyssa couldn't concentrate.

Since Ryan was here, she could ask Ryan what they were up to.

She could just go and ask Ryan.

Alyssa told Ella she had to go to the bathroom, and Ella hurriedly said, "Do you want me to go with you?"

"No."

"Don't be ridiculous! You need priority protection now. What if Ryan is going to do something to you? I have to go to the bathroom with you."
