

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 145

Zoey Gu instantly tightened his body and suddenly turned his head back.

The moment I saw someone coming in, my whole body was erected!

The visitor squinted her eyes, scoured her room quickly, and then frowned at Zoey Gu.

“We found someone in the yard and came up to have a look. Miss Gu, are you okay? Have you found any suspicious people?”

Zoey Gu was taken aback, then turned around.

Liam Lu was long gone when he found the huge empty room.

The shadow of the tree swayed outside the window, and there was no movement for a moment.

Zoey Gu didn't know what it was like in her heart, pursed her lips and lowered her eyes, and shook his head gently at the visitor.

“No, I was alone in the room and I didn't notice any accidents.”

“Oh.”

The visitor frowned, glanced at her quite carefully, pushed out and closed the door.

There was soon footsteps in the corridor.

Zoey Gu suddenly stepped forward, dropped the lock with a “click”, turned and rushed to the window like a gust of wind.

Lifting the curtains, you can vaguely see a tall figure suddenly turning out of the surrounding wall of Fu's house.

In a moment, there was no figure.

he's gone.

She seemed to be taken away from her strength in an instant, and her feet limp to the ground.

When I cast my eyes down, I saw what Liam Lu had left behind.

A red string, a special coin, and a ring.

The coin was their token of love. Liam Lu took it away when he left Berven City and used it to humiliate her. She stayed with her.

And that ring was not the original one used to humiliate her.

Brand new, smooth lines, simple ring, exactly what she imagined as a wedding ring.

Unexpectedly, he actually designed it himself...

Zoey Gu shook his hand slightly and tremblingly put the ring into his finger.

It's not too big or small, and even the temperature of a man's body still remains.

At this moment, Zoey's nose sore, tears fell instantly.

After this day, Liam Lu never appeared again.

Not to mention Liam Lu, even in the Qingcheng news, Yun Zhihan, who tried every means to attack Liam Lu, disappeared.

Zoey Gu never mentioned Liam Lu again.

She actively cooperated with Mr. Fu to take medicine and surgery, and made Mr. Fu's favorite sour noodle soup.

Everything is working towards the best direction.

One month later, Zoey Gu recovered completely and offered to go back to Berven City with Mr. Fu.

Mr. Fu didn't want to stay, only ate her last bowl of sour noodle soup. Before leaving, he handed her a delicate box and reminded her.

"Whenever you encounter a predicament that you cannot get rid of, opening this box may help you."

After Mr. Fu finished speaking, he turned around and muttered something vaguely.

"Anyway, soon, you still have to come back here..."

Zoey Gu did not hear what Mr. Fu said clearly, thanked him, and took the earliest flight that day and flew directly back to Berven City.

After getting off the plane, she took out her mobile phone from her pocket as she walked forward, hesitating whether to call Logan Fu and talk about finding someone to be paid.

As soon as she turned out the call log, she suddenly heard a familiar cry from behind her.

“No! I don’t want to come back here, they won’t let Dad come back, and I don’t want to stay here!”

“I want dad, I want dad...”

Zoey Gu turned around and saw the source of the crying, she was stunned and shouted subconsciously.

“Alina Yin?”

Alina Yin looked up and saw that it was Zoey Gu. She stopped crying and ran all the way towards her.

Zoey Gu squatted down and held the little girl in his arms with open arms. Seeing her crying, he couldn’t help but frown and asked.

“Alina Yin, why are you here? You just said...what happened to your father?”
