

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 146

Alina Yin hadn't answered yet, so the nanny on the side replied in time.

"Miss Gu, Alina Yin is okay. It's just that Mr. Lu is too busy to get out of the Lu's house, and asked me to take her back to Berven City first. She has a temper."

Upon hearing this, Zoey Gu was taken aback.

These days, Liam Lu has been dealing with Yun Zhihan in Qingcheng, and there is little news.

The Lu family is in the southern capital.

Now, it was the nanny who brought Alina Yin back to Berven City from the southern capital alone, and said that Liam Lu was also in the southern capital.

During this period, what happened to her that she didn't know?

As a result, as soon as the babysitter's voice fell, Alina Yin in her arms suddenly retorted.

"It's not what the nanny said! Dad is not busy, he is obviously..."

"Alina Yin!" The nanny suddenly interrupted Alina Yin, frowning and shaking her head at her, "Did you forget what you promised your dad?"

After the nanny said, Alina Yin seemed to suddenly remember something, pouted, and shook her head at Zoey Gu.

Seeing their interaction, Zoey Gu suddenly felt an inexplicable anxiety. But knowing that the nanny is by her side, she categorically couldn't ask anything.

Simply bent down, bent over to hug Alina Yin, and walked outside the airport.

"Okay, since Dad is very busy, can I send Alina Yin back?"

Who knows Alina Yin shook her head and said.

"Aunt Gu, what you said is wrong. Dad said that when you come back, you want to live in Guiyuan with Alina Yin."

Zoey Gu was taken aback again.

This time, even the nanny on the side spoke in agreement.

“That’s right, Miss Gu. Mr. Lu specifically confessed that no matter when you return to Berven City, you must send someone to pick you up to Guiyuan. You will also be responsible for everything in Guiyuan. “

Hearing the sound, Zoey Gu’s heart tightened, and she was inexplicably congested, making her mood instantly suffocated and depressed.

She wanted to refuse.

But when she turned her head to see Alina Yin, she didn’t know what she remembered, she pulled her lips up and nodded gently to the little girl.

“Okay, then I will bring Alina Yin home?”

“Good! Alina Yin likes Aunt Gu the most!”

It was around noon when the car drove into the garden. The little girl shouted that she was hungry all the way, and when she entered the living room, the kitchen put the dishes on the table.

The little girl clung to Zoey Gu and sat beside her, shouting for her to feed.

The nanny looked at them every step of the way, for fear that Alina Yin would say something to Zoey Gu that shouldn’t be said, as if she was facing an enemy.

The more she was, the stronger Zoey Gu’s anxiety was.

After thinking for a while, Zoey Gu turned slightly to look at Alina Yin, speaking slowly with her mouth.

Distressed, uncomfortable.

Because they had played similar games before, the little girl instantly understood that she lost her chopsticks, held her belly with her hands and bent down.

“Ouch-my stomach hurts, Alina Yin’s stomach hurts!”

Hearing this, the nanny rushed over like a gust of wind, and looked at Alina Yin with a fierce look.

“Alina Yin, what’s the matter with you? Mr. is not here, don’t you scare me 1”

Zoey Gu on the side said promptly.

“Does the family doctor live next to him? Ask her to come.”

The babysitter reacted all of a sudden and turned around and ran outside, “Okay, I’ll go right away!”

In a blink of an eye, people disappeared.

Zoey Gu hurriedly put down his chopsticks, held onto Alina Yin's shoulder, and asked urgently.

"Alina Yin, tell the truth to your aunt. What happened to your father?"

The little girl flattened her mouth, looking as if she wanted to cry, and grabbed Zoey Gu's hand tightly.

"It's too grandma!"

"My grandma locked up my dad, not letting him go out, and kept my dad in pain. It hurts all the time. It hurts to roll on the bed."

"Aunt Gu, Dad is very uncomfortable. Alina Yin is so sad when he sees it. Will you go save him?"
