Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 149

"Because I am short of money."

When the voice fell, a group of people laughed again and again, very dismissive.

But the housekeeper looked at Zoey Gu and curled his lips with satisfaction.

The girl in front of her had freckles on her face, but she couldn't hide her beauty. The body is thin, but the temperament is good.

The point is that she lacks money.

Only lack of money can let people do their best under huge rewards.

The butler raised his hand to Zoey Gu, then waved to the long line, "Let's go away, it's her today."

Then turned his head to look at her, and said blankly, "You come in with me."

Zoey Gu closed her eyes, subconsciously heaved a sigh of relief, and hurriedly followed up.

She followed the housekeeper into the courtyard, all the way through the long corridor, and finally into the living room.

As soon as he lifted his foot in, the butler in front of him suddenly turned his head and said, looking at her very seriously.

"Our young master is a little different from others. If you can come and take care of him, you must take care of your expression and mouth!"

Hearing this, Zoey Gu was obviously startled.

She could vaguely hear that what the housekeeper said vaguely was what Liam Lu looked like when he fell ill.

But now, it's less than the fifteenth, why is he…

Bang!

Suddenly there was a loud noise from upstairs, followed by the sound of glass and porcelain cracking all over!

Then there was a man's painful and suppressed growl.

"Get out! Get out of me!"

"Come here again, believe it or not, I break your neck!"

In the next second, the door of a bedroom on the third floor suddenly opened, and a girl rushed out with an empty tray holding on to the railing tremblingly.

The legs were so frightened.

Upon seeing this, Zoey resigned, and rushed upstairs without thinking about it.

The housekeeper beside her took her hand and stared at her.

"what are you doing?!"

Zoey Gu choked, the nervous expression on his face was too late to stop, and she immediately lowered her head when he reacted.

"I, am I not Young Master's personal servant? I just want to see him…"

The butler squinted at her.

"You are not afraid of the same end as the girl just now? What are you doing so desperately?"

Zoey Gu gritted her teeth, tried her best to show that she was extremely short of money, and answered honestly.

"For the high salary of the Lu family, I am not afraid of anything!"

When the housekeeper heard this, he sneered, without saying anything, and led her into the kitchen directly, while instructing her.

"You are new here, and you have been helping out in the kitchen these two days. By the way, you can adjust to the work you have to do. You can regret it at any time before you see the master."

Zoey Gu was taken aback when he heard the words, and then subconsciously asked.

"Can't you go to see the young master now?"

The butler turned around to leave, and when she heard that, he suddenly laughed unclearly.

"It's really not afraid of death."

Zoey Gu rushed to see Liam Lu, but suffered from the rules set by the housekeeper and could only wait patiently.

At dinner, the kitchen in charge of Liam Lu's diet made the food, and turned to look at the servant standing not far away.

"Xiao Lan, the second young master's food is ready, you can bring it up soon."

Hearing this, Xiaolan shrank her body subconsciously, as if thinking of the terrible experience in the afternoon, she stretched her body without moving.

"Can I…not go?"

Hearing this, Zoey Gu looked at the opportunity and stood up all at once.

"I will send it for you!"
