

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 150

Xiao Lan was taken aback, looking at Zoey Gu in a daze, as if she hadn't expected that at this time, someone would actually propose to do this kind of thing.

But when she reacted, she shook her head firmly.

"No! You are new here, you have to stay with me for two days!"

After speaking, she lowered her head, wringing her fingers nervously.

It can be seen that she is scared.

Zoey Gu saw her fear, and walked to her without giving up, stretched out her hand and prayed softly.

"Xiao Lan, let me help you! The old lady and the butler are not there, no one will find out."

"If you are worried, I will follow you and watch, and never enter the room for half a step. This way, it can be regarded as cheering you up, okay?"

When Xiaolan heard the words, she raised her head and glanced at Zoey Gu subconsciously, apparently being moved.

After a long while, she nodded gently.

"In this case, then we will say yes. You follow me, you can only watch and listen, but you must not talk too much!"

"it is good."

It was agreed, Xiao Lan took the tray from the chef.

Just turning around, a tall figure suddenly stepped into the door.

Seeing that familiar face, Zoey Gu was taken aback, and subconsciously wanted to avoid it.

The other party did not squint, strode past several people, and walked upstairs without looking back.

Xiaolan next to her immediately leaned over, lowered her voice and whispered in her ear.

"This is the second young master's personal assistant Shiyue, responsible for all his affairs."

Zoey Gu lowered his eyes, followed Xiaolan silently, and walked up the third floor.

After walking to the end of the corridor, Liam Lu suddenly heard an unusually angry roar from a room not far away.

“Shiyue, what exactly do you do?!”

“What I want is not the news of her missing, but the living person of her.”

“Liam, don’t be angry. You know that the more anger you get, the harder you can control...”

“To shut up!”

Hearing the sound, Zoey Gu suddenly turned back.

The more angry, the more difficult it is to control, which means that Liam Lu is really sick...

Her heart was pulled, the steps under her feet were empty, and the whole person suddenly moved forward and suddenly hit Xiao Lan’s back.

Only then did Zoey Gu react and panic lowered her head to apologize.

“Sorry, I just...”

Unexpectedly, instead of being angry, Xiao Lan in front of him glanced at Zoey Gu clearly.

“I understand that in his situation, anyone will feel terrified.”

After Xiao Lan finished speaking, she suddenly slowed down, opened the door with the tray, and walked in step by step.

Soon, she heard her cowardly voice, “Master, it’s time to eat...”

“roll!”

After a violent rage, the sound of things falling all over the floor was not unexpected.

Snapped!

Zoey Gu pursed her lips and hurriedly walked over.

Through the half-opened door, you could see Xiaolan squatting on the ground with her back facing her, picking up the broken debris.

Not far in front of her stood her familiar Shiyue.

In front of Shiyue, there was the straight and broad figure she was most familiar with, the familiar face.

But wait for Zoey Gu to really see what he looks like at this time...
