

Chapter 1581 - Easy battle 2

Latest URL: On the barrage.

“Strange, who can tell me in the first battle, how did the Jagged Brothers win? How can I not understand?”

“I do n’t understand +1, it ’s too weird to win. South Korea clearly has such a powerful potion of Ningshen Mixture, and it has 3 million more sets of 160 dark gold equipment than the Jagged Brothers Alliance. “

“It’s weird. No one knows what’s going on. Officials don’t allow interviews now, so wait for follow-up.”

Countless players explored. For the first battle, almost everyone believed that the Jagged Brothers Alliance was a failure. First, the equipment is not as good as the other, the potion is not as good as the other, and the second is, the momentum is not as good.

If Lu Yang used good command to make this war evenly matched, they could accept it, but the battle turned into a unilateral slaughter at the beginning, and they could not understand it.

Hitomi said, “Just like South Korean players and Huaxia players acting, South Koreans actively offered a lot of equipment to Lu Yang.”

Du Bin said deeply: "We must conduct an exclusive interview with Lu Yang in this battle to know how it was done. It is amazing. For several consecutive battles, the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood was attacked from the most critical moment. He just turned around. "

On the barrage, no player, even South Korean and Indian players, could not swear Lu Yang. It was a magical battle for Lu Yang. Both internal and external difficulties, everyone thought that Lu Yang might collapse in the next second. At the time, God reversed.

Players all over the world knew that Zhou Tianming was shot by a angered Galga and shot 0.5 centimeters away from his heart, almost killing him.

Whether you say that Zhou Tianming is stupid, or that he is stupid and loyal, Zhou Tianming has paid for Lu Yang and the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood.

Players are no longer convinced, they can only sigh, Lu Yang's personality is too charismatic, and can let heroes like Zhou Tianming kill him for his life.

The internal rebellion is even more legendary. Who can think that the top communication talents such as Alice are the object of concern of the most powerful guild presidents, why Alice obviously has no subordinates, but no one dares to look down on him because Alice's elegance and astute mind are terrifying.

Once you offend Alice, she will set off civil strife in the area you control. This kind of civil unrest can't be prevented, but Lu Yang can let a master like Alice trap. The ten main guilds are all Luyang deliberate For her, in this battle, Alice lost her helmet and gave up her armor, without even entering the game.

Now the Korean region is determined by World War I. Everyone thinks that Lu Yang is proud and arrogant. With 5 million ordinary players, he dare to shake the elite players in South Korea. However, the Korean side defeated in the first battle. In the second war, few people were optimistic about South Korea.

Under the city of Yizhou.

The two sides of the Jagged Brothers Alliance came out side by side, colliding with the prominent wings of the South Korean side, and in a blink of an eye, the South Korean side was unable to carry it.

The blood of the devil was condensed, and there was no armor on the Korean side. Seeing it was another defeat, Kim Kwang-soo looked at the scene stunned. The battle only lasted for one hour, and Kim Kwang-soo's men once again broke.

"Run away, Yizhou City can't stay."

"Run, you can't win."

...

The remaining two to three million people on the South Korean side fled.

There are only 3 million people left on Lu Yang's side, which is not much more than South Korea's side, but Lu Yang's side has formed a semi-encirclement to the enemy. With the advantage of injury, the South Korean side loses more and more.

Now that the South Korean side has escaped, it is easier to fight. Lu Yang watched Chen Qiang and they all went into a crazy state. The team did not know how many groups they were divided into, hunting down Korean players everywhere.

Every time a Korean player is killed, one or two pieces of 160-level dark gold equipment will be called up. Almost every Chinese player who participates in this battle can get rich returns. With good luck, even the wind elves and escape dagger capital explosion. When it comes out, antiques or something, one that bursts out will make a lot of money.

Lu Yang watched this killing battle last for more than three hours before it was finished. Chen Qiang and bitter love half-life and others ran back to Lu Yang excitedly.

Chen Qiang said excitedly: "Boss, we have made a fortune in this battle, and none of our brothers has gained a lot."

The spirits breeze blushed and said: "In each of the two battles, we got at least 5 pieces of 160 dark gold equipment. The South Korean side was greatly weakened and we were greatly enhanced."

Lu Yang nodded and said: "Yes, with the equipment, it will be easier to win the battle below. Tell the brothers that if you are willing to participate in the battle, stay and prepare. If you are not willing, you can quit the battle. I will change People participate. "

He loved for a long time and said with a smile: "Boss, who is willing to go offline at this time, waiting to continue to get rich, who can give this opportunity, who will give up."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "I still have to ask."

"Yes." Tianyao, half-loving half-life and old man in the twilight responded together, and each sent a message to ask.

Soon, the news went from the head of the legion to the head of the regiment, then to the captain, and finally to the ears of ordinary players, when they learned that they were going to be replaced.

"Just, where the boss fights tonight, I'll follow it, let me go, no way."

"Absolutely don't leave, just do it."

"Haha, I decided to get together a set of 160 dark gold suits tonight. I'm missing two. Don't leave."

...

Even if people who originally wanted to fight one or two battles and left, or who had something to go offline, saw that it was so easy to get equipment, no one wanted to leave at all, unless there was an urgent matter.

The statistics of the three vice-chairmen did not leave 10,000 people. Soon, another 10,000 people made up the battle sequence.

While supplementing manpower and rest below, Lu Yang opened the map, pointed to the fortress of Yizhou, and said, "It's almost evening. Ma Chanlie's 5 million people will go online in Guang'an and Suiyuan. When they go online, it will be a night war. . "

Tu Feng said: "Ma Canlie is different from Jin Guangxun This person has a deep understanding of the game, I'm afraid that if you don't use it twice, the other party will find that there is a problem with Ningshen mixture."

For a continuous month of data collection, there are detailed notes about Ma Chanlie's life. This is a very cunning, fierce, and very tough character. There is no possibility for him to surrender.

Lu Yang pointed at the Jiangping Fortress behind the Yizhou Fortress and said, "If we want to win Ma Chanlie, we must push our opponents to the Blue Water Basin on the south side of the Fortress."

The Lanshui River Basin is famous for the Lanshui River flowing next to the Jiangping Fortress. The moonless fortress connected to the Indian region is flanked by mountains and mountains. There is a waterfall on the high mountain to the south of the Moonless Fortress.

The waterfall is blue. The Wuyue Fortress is named for Wuyue Mountain on both sides. Because the mountain is so high that the moon is blocked, it is called Wuyue Mountain.

This mountain is rich in minerals, so when the water flows down, it will carry minerals, causing the river water to turn blue.

The river here forms a crisscross lake and swamp, and the flowing water everywhere makes it one of the most unpopular areas in Korea.

Chapter 1582 - Kim Kwang-Soo

Latest website: Tianyu Shencheng.

Inside a hotel, Ma Chanlie was sneer looking at the battlefield of Yizhou City, and several spies placed under Jin Guangxu's hands were spitting about the defeat of Jin Guangxu.

"Mr. President, please believe me, Jin Guangxu was defeated because he was a fool, he didn't understand tactics, and was defeated by Lu Yang with a curse." A thin spy with a straight lower body and a 90-degree bow in the upper body Said.

"I also agree with this view. During the two wars, Jin Guangxu and his vice presidents who did not understand the war were all caught in Lu Yang's trap." A chunky spy followed respectfully.

Ma Chanlie laughed and said scornfully: "Jin Guangxu that stupid man, I let him fight in the day, but he thought he had won me. In fact, I lied to him and fought in the day. He was the strongest brother in the Jagged Brotherhood. No, he's stupid. "

Vice President Li Zhixian smiled and arched his hand and said, "During the day, the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood Brothers fought two battles in a row, and they must be exhausted. It just gave us a chance to kill. I suggest that our people from Guang'an and Suiyuan Lu attacked at the same time, hitting the Iron Brother Brothers players in Yizhou City. "

Ma Chanlie nodded and said, "Yes, the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood now alternates day and night with players, and the formation must be chaotic. We were caught by surprise."

Li Zhixian said, "I'm going to Guang'an City for the whole team."

Kong Dongrun, the second vice chairman, said, "I will go to Suiyuan City for the whole team."

Ma Chanlie smiled and said, "I'll go to Jin Guangyu and talk to him about the command of the battlefield."

Everyone laughed and knew that Ma Chanlie was going to humiliate Jin Guangyu.

On the other side.

Jin Guangxun was sitting in pain in a tavern in Tianyu Shencheng, and beside him were Vice President An Zhenmin and Liu Zaixu.

“We lost, we lost completely.” Jin Guangyu shed tears and cried, “I want to dissolve the guild, I must keep my promise.”

An Zhenmin burst into tears immediately, holding Jin Guangxu’s arm and shouting, “Her Excellency President, you can’t give up like this.”

Liu Zaixu shouted, “Yeah, we were defeated for a while, and we still have a chance.”

Jin Guangxi shook his head and said sadly: “I have been defeated twice in the two million-level battles, and I have no face to continue to be president. I confess, everyone, please go to Ma Chanlie.”

It just so happened.

Ma Chanlie came in, and he wanted to ridicule two of Jin Guangxi. When he heard this, he couldn’t help but look surprised, and asked, “President Jin, what’s wrong with you?”

Jin Guang sighed and said with a bitter smile: “I have recognized my own shortcomings. I am not good at commanding battles. I failed very thoroughly in these two battles, so I decided not to be the president, Chan Lie. , Korea will leave it to you in the future. “

Ma Chanlie was shocked and asked, “You just gave up? We still have a chance.”

Jin Guangxi said helplessly: “No need to persuade me anymore, I’m already frustrated, come on.”

After speaking, Jin Guangxu turned and left, leaving only Ma Canlie and An Zhenmin who were astonished.

Ma Chanlie was ecstatic. The only person in Korea who could **** the chairman from Korea was Kim Kwang-soo. Now Kim Kwang-soo has given up. Then he alone has the power. "What do you think?"

An Zhenmin quickly bowed his head and said respectfully: "I will listen to President Ma's arrangements later, please give instructions."

Liu Zaixu, Pei Dongxu, and others were unwilling and okay. They quickly bowed their heads and said, "We will be loyal to President Ma in the future and do our best for you."

Ma Chanlie was even happier. In a blink of an eye, he changed from a chairman of 5 million to a chairman of 10 million. All the coalition forces in the entire South Korean region were managed by him alone. This feeling was very happy.

"Haha." Ma Chanlie laughed loudly and said, "Okay, as long as you work with me, I won't treat you badly."

Pei Dongxu, An Zhenmin and others glanced at each other, relieved, at least, their guild survived.

"We must go all out," Liu Zaixu said loudly.

Ma Canlie nodded and asked, "Now tell me, how did you fail?"

In order to cope with the war at night, Ma Canlie and his 5 million men had been sleeping until they went online half an hour ago to learn about the results of the war. At the same time, all the spies they had installed in the Iron Brotherhood were killed by the previous rebellion The Brotherhood of Iron Blood was removed, and they did not know how the Brotherhood of Iron Blood won.

Liu Zaixu sighed and said, "We don't know, just slap and we lose."

Pei Dongxu said: "Our equipment is stronger than the Brotherhood of Iron Blood, but I suspect that Brotherhood of Iron Blood also has special items. When they hit us, we are just as defenseless."

Ma Chanlie frowned, and said, "Is there such a potion?"

Pei Dongxu said, "I don't know, but we failed too weird."

An Zhenmin went on to say, "The problem is that the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood has won us twice and stole a lot of our 160-level dark gold sets. Now we don't have much advantage over them."

Ma Chanlie said indifferently: "Some equipment doesn't matter. After all, it is within our South Korean scope. I have decided to hit Lu Yang by surprise. Now my people are attacking Yizhou City from Guang'an and Suiyuan. I will kill them under the city of Yizhou. "

Pei Dongxu thought about it and said, "It is estimated that Lu Yang's man is chasing after us, but now we can fight a great victory."

Ma Chanlie laughed and said, "I think so too. Come with me and mobilize the teams you can mobilize. We gather everyone and fight Lu Yang for a decisive battle."

"Yes." Pei Dongxu and others were unwilling to fail like this. Compared to Jin Guangxun, Ma Canlie's commanding ability is better, and Ma Canlie's men are more powerful , Flew to Yizhou City, we and Lu Yang decided to fight. "

...

Korean players in the Celestial City are not willing to discuss the reasons for defeat, and suddenly heard the orders of their respective presidents, most of them took out the teleportation scroll and flew to Yizhou City.

Ma Chanlie also flew over, just after landing, he quickly went around the city wall to inspect, but did not see the trace of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood, which surprised him.

A vice-chairman named Zheng Changxian ran over and said, "Her Excellency President, we found a player from the Brotherhood of Iron Blood, 40 kilometers west of the fortress of Yizhou, as if in the entire team."

Ma Chanlie frowned, and said, "Are they in the same formation? Why are they in the team?"

Zheng Changxian said: "Half an hour ago, all the hunting teams of the Iron Blood Brothers League stopped hunting and started the whole team."

Ma Chanlie frowned, and said, "Sure enough, I am a bit patient."

Chapter 1583 - Battle of Yizhou City

Latest website: Zheng Changxian asked, "What are we going to do now? Players from Guang'an and Suiyuan are heading for Yizhou City."

Ma Chanlie sneered and said, "Then gather under the city of Yizhou, we will fight against Lu Yang. Our total number is seven or eight million, and the iron brotherhood is piled up."

So far, Ma Chanlie's perception of the battle is which side wins more. From the way of his rise, we can see that he has been fighting all the way. He has always said that the more players he has, the stronger his ability to control.

"This time is our major league of Korean players. We don't want to surrender to the Jagged Brothers Alliance." Zheng Changxian's eyes were full of hope, and said: "We will definitely defeat Judge Brothers under the leadership of President Ma. Alliance. "

Ma Chanlie laughed and shouted on the regional channel: "South Korea is our South Korean, not South Korea of the Jagged Brotherhood. Let us Korean players get angry and drive away the invaders."

Outside the Guang'an Fortress and Suiyuan Fortress, countless thousands to tens of thousands of small guilds, obeying Ma Chanlie's order, rushed to the Yizhou Fortress.

Because of domestic news trends and deliberate propaganda by Ma Canlie and Kim Kwang-soo, Korean players are very dissatisfied with Lu Yang's management. When most people have a 160-level dark gold set, they also want to compete with the Iron Brothers. Gesture.

"Korea is Korean for Koreans."

"North of Dingzhou Fortress are all Koreans, not Huaxia."

"Kill the Chinese people out."

Like the ant colony, with this slogan shouting, not only Ma Chanlie and Kim Kwang-soo's men joined it, even ordinary Korean players ran in.

In the end, when these people came together, the total number reached 10 million, accounting for almost one-tenth of the total number of South Korean players entering the game, and one-fifth of the total population controlled by Lu Yang.

Outside the city of Yizhou.

Lu Yang listened to Tu Feng's report, his face was sneered, and he muttered to himself: "It's really feeding unfamiliar white-eyed wolves. After so many battles, which has caused the Korean side to lose, I'm desperate. Only by trying to get our brothers in the Jagged Brothers League to level 160, there is no disaster in South Korea. All the hostile forces are blocked by us. They hid inside to upgrade and fight equipment. Now they are equipped. The level has risen to the bottleneck. I'm idle and looking for something. I found it on my head. "

He said bitterly for a long time: "Boss, we must also give them a profound lesson this time, let them know that they will never dare to resist us."

Tu Feng said, "According to the news from the spy, before Jin Guangxu left, he gave all the Ningshen mixture to Ma Canlie. Now Ma Canlie sends the potion to everyone in the war, but the amount of potion is limited. It can only be thousands. Ten thousand people use it once. "

Lu Yang opened the map, looked at the distance between Yizhou City and Jiangping Fortress, and said to the bitter lovers and Tianyao: "It looks like we have no chance to hang Ma Chanlie for the second time. Only this time, you must use Ningshen Mixture. Opportunity to drive Ma Canlie back to the vicinity of the Blue Water River. "

"My boss is assured, there is absolutely no problem. They are the first soybean rot, no matter how many people, you sent the main force of the main force, how they fight and win."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Gather the team, get ready to go."

"Yes." The bitter love half-life, Tian Yao and the old man responded together.

The three turned around and returned to the team to start the whole team. The 5 million brothers of the Iron Blood Alliance quickly acted, and a large three-kilometer formation slowly formed.

In the last two wars, the formation of the Jagged Brothers Alliance was just a simple square array with two crane wings. This time, Lu Yang used the entire team's time to set up an extremely complex army formation. The army formation master Xu Cailiang had already Standing on a high platform at the rear, you can command the battle at any time.

The forbidden wizard group also completed the assembly. Lu Yang tuned in to the forbidden wizard group guarding the sky sword fortress, and added the forbidden wizard group left by Li Wenxing and the Iron Blood Brotherhood Alliance, a total of 180,000. Forbidden Mage.

The total number of cursed mages in South Korea is only 130,000, and the Brotherhood of Iron Blood has more than 50,000 cursed mages.

In addition, Lu Yang also deliberately transferred the ten strongest legions of the tiger's mouth. The first was the Starbreaker Legion under the town of Hell and Pluto, with a population of 10,000. These Starbreaker shooters have been They are all in the fortress of the tiger's mouth. Their equipment is extremely sophisticated. The 160-level dark gold sleeve is just a beginner. The gems are all level 15. The arms are still the best 15 black light gems with the best value now.

On them, each person has a shuttlecock, which can add an additional 200,000 damage. In the ordinary case, the 200,000 damage is not outstanding. Now the enemy has no defense and is particularly powerful.

The second is the Ice Queen of the lovely queen, and the rest are the Theocracy Knights of the Blazing Hell, the Archbishop Priest of the Voice of Heaven, Wan Zhonghui's Blood Oath Shaman Army, Liu Ruohuai's Blood Army Corps, Jiang Chen's Divine Assassin Legion, the imposing Blood Wolf Legion, and Liu Yunpeng's ancestor Tauren Legion.

These ten legions are the main force of Lu Yang's main force, as mentioned in the bitter love half-life, such as ice crown battle flags, rosary beads, and the heart of the wind elves. This legion has everything, as well as high-end scrolls and special Pharmacy.

Lu Yang saw that the team was almost together, fell in front of his own formation, replaced the war horse mount and watched Ma Chanlie's side. The elite army commanders such as Wan Zhonghui and Liu Yunpeng followed Lu Yang, everyone had an excited look on his face. .

"I haven't played this kind of abuse for a long time, I really look forward to it." Liu Ruohuai said with a smile.

Pleasantly asked: "Are you sure you want to kill casually, then we're welcome."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "The other party really needs some lessons and fights casually, but remember to drive the enemy near the Blue Water River."

"Okay, I'll suppress their right path." Said with pride.

Liu Yunpeng said: "Then I will suppress the left."

The lovely queen said: "I took the town **** king, Jiang Chen, the fiery **** and the voice of heaven and pushed them in the middle."

Lu Yang said, "Yes, that's it."

This kind of ill-fighting operation does not require much command, and the vice presidents and chiefs of the army know how to fight.

Tu Feng was a bit worried, saying, "Boss, the enemy also has special legions like blood wolves and patriarch tauren. The number is smaller than us, but there are."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "You'll know when you hit it."

Special occupations such as the Blood Wolf Legion and the Patriarch Tauren Legion, it is meaningless to take it alone, and it is a special legion formed by South Korea. As for why, Lu Yang is also curious. It came to a conclusion that South Korea's internal friction was serious, and no one was convinced, leading to the most powerful group battle professions such as the Blood Wolf Legion. There were obviously thousands of people, but they were scattered in dozens of guilds.

Ma Canlie was able to gather tens of millions of players this time. It was not Ma Canlie who unified the entire South Korea region, but these people gathered spontaneously. After the battle ended, they still gathered together into small groups to fight each other.

Under the city of Yizhou.

Ma Chanlie was still in the thrill of commanding thousands of people. Seeing that his own square had been arrayed, he tore the scrolls, raised a soil platform under his feet, and raised him to a height of 30 meters.

Ma Chanlie looked at the army formations on Lu Yang's side, and found that the formations were strange, some were tai chi, some were crane wings, some were tiger shapes, and some were turtle shapes. The various formations gathered together, making people feel chaotic.

"Ha ha ha ha." Vice President Li Zhixian said with a clasped stomach and laughed, "Lu Yang's lineup is really bad, it is not a lineup at all, see how neat our lineup is, the whole is a large square, and charge forward Both wings are easy to charge. "

Ma Chanlie is also very proud. He can put tens of millions of players into a huge square in just two or three hours. He thinks he is very powerful.

"Lu Yang." Ma Chanlie shouted loudly with a loudspeaker: "Today is the day when our South Korean players and your Chinese players will have a decisive battle. From today on, South Korea will be our Korean South Koreans, and you will no longer have Any relationship. "

On the endless turquoise green plain, the total number of people on both sides adds up to more than 15 million. When both sides are silent, and only Ma Chanlie shouts alone, it seems that Ma Chanlie's voice is magnificent, like a thunder. Echoes on the grassland.

"well said."

"We South Korean players are the strongest in the world and do not accept rebuttals, Smeda."

"Hmm ~~ Smida! Smida ~~~!"

South Korea's Smecta rushed up and down, Lu Yang didn't hold back, smiled, and said, "Fortunately, I don't spend much time in South Korea. I listen to Smecta every day, and I must be crazy."

Liang Yun burst out of his head and said quietly: "Actually Korean girls are still very good, but the men are a little bit worse."

The bitter lovers, Tianyao, and others looked at Liang Yun, showing smirk expressions, and the cute queen sneered at Liang Yun with scorn.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, "Some people just can't see themselves clearly, let's get started, let Korean players know, what is the gap between them and the blood brotherhood of the rest of the battle?"

Xu Cailiang raised a new podium next to Lu Yang, took him and Lu Yang to a height of 50 meters, waved the flag in his hand, and shouted, "The whole army is preparing, and the special regiment will attack with two wings."

"Brothers, I'll go first." Pride and affection turned into a blood wolf form, and Yang Tian made a long beep, followed by 100,000 blood wolves followed by transformation, ran towards the right side of the army.

"My old Liu is gone too." Liu Yunpeng picked up the totem pole and ran quickly to the left with 30,000 tauren.

The cute queen waved a banner on her right arm and exclaimed: "The former army attacked."

Left, center and front, a total of 230,000 main forces, slowly launched an attack on South Korea.

Chapter 1584 - Bet

Latest website: Ma Chanlie stood on the high platform and saw Lu Yang's party launching an attack. His whole body was so excited that he shouted, "Korean Army, attack ~!"

“Smida ~!” Li Zhixian, who was standing in the middle of the first row of the Korean Army, roared and ordered: “Anti-War Corps, attack forward.”

South Korea’s play is still midway defense and two-wing attack. This is the simplest large group army battle routine and the most effective.

At this point, the two armies were only a kilometer apart. As they marched at the same time, they could quickly see each other’s face. The lovely queen standing in the front row of the Chinese army saw the opponent’s play at a glance and said with a smile: Fools, they do n’t have defense or magic resistance, so what ’s the use of shield wars? ”

The King of Plutonium asked, “Sister, we kill more people than anyone else.”

The cute queen rolled her eyes at Hades, said, “I’ll let you all add up, not as many as my ice mage army kills, believe it or not.”

Scorching Fire Hell said, “Big sister, flash your tongue carefully.”

The cute queen saw that the distance between the two parties was only 100 meters, and he hummed and said, “I won the gambling show, I won, and you boys will give the old lady a little swan.”

The king of the prison stared, and he smiled and said, “We won, you dance thighs.”

The lovely queen flushed instantly and said, “That’s it.”

She shouted loudly: “The people of the Ice Mage Corps all listened. I and the Pluto King bet who killed many people. I won. Several of them jumped the little swan at the annual meeting and they cheered me up. “

Jiang Chen shouted, “Brothers, the older sister said, if he loses, he will perform a thigh dance. If you want to see it, give me a hard fight, a rare opportunity.”

Nearly 100,000 people from the former army boiled. This is a good thing. Where do they go? The cute queen is always known for being petite and cute, plus the ghosts and monsters. They are sometimes known for their iron blood brotherhood. It's too beautiful, and unlike Xia Yuwei's cold appearance and busy with her work, she is very grounded, and any boy is willing to stay with the cute queen.

"Lao Tzu fights." Dao made a sorrowful roar and drew out his sword and shouted, "I am always bullied by the queen. We must bully this time, brothers, with Lao Tzu, Jagged Brothers, kill ~! "

"Fight, kill ~!"

The leaders of the seven legions shouted in unison, and more than 70,000 people from the former army rushed out of the army at about the same time and ran into the enemy 50 meters away.

Lu Yang quickly received the news of the former army on the high stage, and smiled and said to Xu Cailiang beside him: "This is probably the least aggressive charge of the Brotherhood of Iron Blood."

Xu Cailiang said with a smile: "Just think so. If you look at the Korean side, I'm afraid this is a charge they still remember in their lives."

On the court.

The 3,000 theocratic knights in the first row brought by Jiang Chen slammed into the Korean legion with a roar.

"Divine power is invincible"

Jiang Chen's divine knight blood has reached level 3, and the additional damage has become 2.2 times. Every blade cut is the damage of other people's crit.

Take Jiang Chen's current 160-level dark gold sleeve as an example. His damage is more than 3 million, which becomes 2.2 times the damage is more than 6 million. The sword is smeared with demon blood and chopped on the opponent's defense with the Ningshen mixture. Ignore the armor, each knife is more than 6 million health, once the crit appears, it is more than 12 million.

"Holy Storm"

Jiang Chen yelled again, a golden flame lit around his body, and he turned around half a circle, standing in front of the three Korean players, receiving sacred damage.

Like Jiang Chen, the 3,000 Divine Knights in the first row simultaneously used Divine Storm, so that each Korean player was attacked by three Divine Knights at the same time.

Korean anti-war players have about 60 million HP. In the face of this first attack, they were barely able to resist with the help of rear treatment.

"Anti-war, resist, the Paladin has to ignore the armor skills, resist them for 30 seconds, hold on, the subsequent treatment will give you full blood." Shouted Li Zhixian.

The front-row shield battle of the Korean side was frightened. The formation was a bit messy. Many people wanted to run away. When they heard Li Zhixian's shout, they all stabilized and stayed in their original positions.

Jiang Chen watched if the other party would be broken at 1:30, and frowned and shouted, "Heaven King, what are you waiting for, do you want to jump Little Swan?"

"The Starbreaker Legion is preparing, the Wrath of the Starlight." The voice of the town prince Hades heard from the rear, and said loudly: "The target enemy's healing legion, extended 30 meters, and fired."

The 10,000 Starbreaker shooters stood in three rows at the rear of 80 meters away. At the same time, they raised their bows and arrows and struck the starlight against the priest group in the enemy position.

“Hold a shield”

Li Zhixian was in the battle, and immediately ordered his players to raise the battle shield and protect the priest player above their heads. In the blink of an eye, countless blue-violet stars in the sky fell.

“Don’t panic, the priests are protected by war, and you can safely add blood to the former army.” Li Zhixian shouted.

The priests let go of their hands and feet, and continued to steadfastly add blood to the forward defense, while the shield battle sneered to welcome the attack of the shooter. From the start of the game to the present, the shooter has rarely been able to break the defense armor, especially in the defense. When fighting for a shield.

“Stop the damage, don’t let the treatment be attacked.” Li Zhixian watched the first starlight fall on the shield of the shield battle.

“-3295869”

“I didn’t ask ...” The attacked shield battle didn’t wait to finish the last “inscription”. When he saw his blood loss, he suddenly stunned his chin and shouted, “Similar ~! How is an enemy shooter possible? Killing me more than 3.2 million health, this is impossible. “

Li Zhixian just looked forward, but found that countless starlights fell in the sky, and each shield battle was hit by six stars at the same time. He watched that the shield battle blood in the team dropped tens of millions.

In less than three seconds, he didn’t wait for him to react from surprise, and defended the nearly 10,000 defensive battles against their injuries beside the treatment, and instantly died on the ground.

The average healing blood is less than 20 million points. After only resisting for a second and a half, they were all killed by the cluster starlight strike of the Starbreaker shooter.

The front shield battle lost treatment and added blood instantly. Seeing that the blood volume fell from 60 million to 50 million and then fell to 30 million, and finally fell to 10 million. An anti-war shouted in horror: "Oh, Smeda ~! What about the treatment?"

Many shield battles looked back, but found that behind them did not know when they were beaten out of a huge space of 700 meters in length and 50 meters in depth, the treatment and anti-warfare in it were all dead.

"How could this be? How did our treatment die?" South Korean anti-war yelled in horror.

The scorching fire **** sneered and said, "You'll know when you die, give me death."

In the last sword, the defense was chopped to death in the state where no one was adding blood. At the same time, the 3,000 theocratic knights along with the fiery **** were hacked and blocked in front of them.

The cute queen looked at this scene, shook her head shyly, and said, "It's too slow, the first team of the ice masters, aiming at the second row to the tenth row of defense, extreme cold field, let go!"

10,000 ice-based arch mages are arranged in three rows. In the first row of 3,000 people, the spells are read at the same time. In the next second, within a range of 5 kilometers in length and 500 meters in width, countless blizzards are falling, in which the enemy guilds are fighting. HP drops rapidly.

Chapter 1585 - Ma Chanlie\'s first crash

Latest website: Li Zhixian watched his hard-built defensive position easily broken by the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, and his eyes were unbelievable.

Normally, defensive battles form positions that can't easily be penetrated by enemy attacks. In many cases, the defensive legions that stand in front can persist until a medium-sized war is over.

Even a top-level decisive battle, a few kilometers wide and 60 rows of defensive positions, is not likely to be so easily defeated.

“There is a problem.” Li Zhixian thought frowning before he died.

The Chinese army collapsed, and the army of the Jagged Brothers rammed into the Korean army’s army, which surprised the Korean players who were not ready in the Chinese army.

“Damn, we haven’t attacked yet, why was the Chinese army penetrated?” Song Zhishuo, who was responsible for the attack on the left, was frightened, and quickly sent a message to Li Zhixian and asked, “How did you fight?”

Li Zhixian just resurrected, watching the news of his companion, but said helplessly: “Your news, there must be something special in the Brotherhood of Iron Blood to restrain us. My shield array was shot through by the archer’s starfall skills. This is not right.”

Song Zhishuo frowned, and said, “How is this possible? We have the same equipment and the same skills. We only have one more Ningshen mixture than the other. Is there a problem with this Ningshen mixture?”

Li Zhixian said, “I do n’t know. I ca n’t find anyone to test. We do n’t have a spy on the Iron Brotherhood. But my shield is broken. There is only one possibility. I have never heard of a shooter. Defying defense skills like this is definitely a problem. “

“Woo ~~ woo ~~!”

Song Zhishuo was preparing to report to Ma Chanlie. Hearing the trumpet commanding the two wings to attack, he couldn’t wait to think about it again, and yelled, “The whole army is attacking.”

On the other side, Bo Nan, who was responsible for organizing the attack, also yelled. On the Korean side, there were 4 million people on both wings, with 10,000 people in a row. They rushed out from the two wings of the army formation and cut to the Chinese army of the Iron Brotherhood. A stance that encompasses three sides of the Iron Brotherhood.

On the high platform, Lu Yang sneered and said, "I really want to thank Ma Canlie for his profound sense of justice. If he hadn't pulled the team out for a decisive battle, we would have defeated them for a short while."

Xu Cailiang waved the banner and issued an order: "The two wings attack and penetrate the enemy's enclosed army."

With enthusiasm and esteem, he ordered the 100,000 blood wolves behind him: "It's time for the enemy to see the fighting strength of the Iron Brothers Alliance's elite main force. The Blood Wolf Legion is preparing, the Iron Brothers Alliance, oh ~!"

"Woohoo ~!" The 100,000 blood wolf neatly raised his head and raised an additional attack power for himself, and formed a 10,000-person combat formation, rushing towards Song Jishuo's main force.

Song Zhishuo's side was originally an offensive side, but they watched the blood wolves rush towards them with extremely high speeds.

"Be prepared to kill the Huaxia people." Song Zhishuo roared, and the ten thousand paladins in the first row turned invincible, and at the same time started the punishment angel status.

With pride, he saw a patch of invincible light shining in front of him, with a sneer on his face, and shouted, "Hold the scrolls bravely, prepare, and listen to my orders."

The 10,000 blood wolves in the first row showed sneer expressions. Everyone had a black scroll in their mouths, and they continued to charge towards the enemy only 50 meters away.

"Three, two, one, throw." Seeing a distance of 10 meters, he no longer hesitated, roared, and smashed the scroll seal in his mouth.

The scroll was broken, a dark light appeared, and a huge black light spear appeared, and shot against the Paladin in the first row.

“噫”

“嘭”

“嘭”

...

The Paladin players in the first row watched the heroic throwing skills hit their invincible Holy Light. Instantly, the Holy Light disappeared and the Holy Shield was broken.

“Mad torn bite”

Pride rushed forward to a Templar with two claws slamming forward, hitting two 4 million injuries.

“Bold Roar”

With a roar of pride, the Templar knight in front of him was about to put his skills, was stunned in place, then launched a fast claw attack, hit 6 attacks within 2 seconds, and the Templar knelt down to death!

The 10,000 blood wolves standing in the same row as the pride and arrogance suffered the same damage as the pride and arrogance. In just 3 seconds, 10,000 people in the first row of Song Zhishuo were easily killed.

Song Zhishuo only felt that for a moment, his first row of Paladins was dead. Watching the second row of Paladins being attacked, he quickly shouted: “Quickly release invincible.”

The Templars in the second row had long been feared to be killed, and could not help releasing the Aegis in advance. They were just killed in the second row, and sneered, roaring: “Second row, heroic throw, let go!”

“Woohoo ~!” The second row of blood wolves shouted in unison, and then took out the scroll to bite the seal, and 10,000 black light spears condensed behind the lofty people.

“Hoo ~!” As if the wind was blowing, 10,000 black light spears passed through the side of the first row of blood wolves, such as the lofty passion, and hit the second row of players on the Korean side precisely.

Bursts rang out, and the second shield of Holy Shield was also completely broken. Pride and rushing up while the enemy was stunned, it was a simple three-second solution to the battle, and it was extremely easy to kill.

Next, the third row, the fourth row ... Song Zhishuo can only watch his legion swallowed up by the blood wolf legion of the Jagged Brothers League, each row takes only 3 seconds, his 400 There were only 400 rows per 10,000 people. At this speed, it would take less than half an hour for him to be knocked down.

On the other side, the situation of Nan Bianbo was worse than that of Song Zhishuo. The Blood Wolf Legion was just assault, and the strongest head-on battle was the ancestral Tauren Legion, the heavy legion of the Iron Brotherhood.

“Scramble”

Liu Yunpeng carried the totem and jumped into the army of the south side. The ancestor white shadow flickered, and the huge totem in his hand slammed twice in place, suddenly turning into a road roller. He turned the huge totem that should have been attacked once every 12 seconds. Five speeds hit the ground frantically, and all enemies within 30 meters were attacked by totems.

The totem attacked the entire game, with more than 8 million damage in a single attack. This allowed Liu Yunpeng to output this way. The South side Boss collapsed from the beginning. Even the invincible Paladin was turned on in the face of the smashing hammer. Broken Aegis, the Korean player on the right collapsed.

Lu Yang watched Liu Yunpeng use the totem to hammer the ground like a convulsion, and said with a smile: “If the other party still has defense, at least he can block it, without defense, and let Liu Yunpeng’s 30,000 tauren fight like this. I really do n’t know south What does Bo think? “

Xu Cailiang said with a smile: "Boss, not every enemy is familiar with our combat routine. South Korea has not experienced a war for two years, and it knows nothing about our play. They were attacked by Liu Yunpeng and they really No way. "

Vice-chairmen such as White Lion and Xia Yuwei appeared next to Lu Yang. Xia Yuwei said: "Deficiency, the Korean side has died terribly."

The White Lion nodded seriously and said, "It's too bad."

Lu Yang looked at a few of them angrily and asked, "Why don't you go to bed and run here?"

"Look at you bullying others." Xia Yuwei said.

Lu Yang laughed and said, "Why do I bully people They asked for it."

Jiang Ze said, "From the moment you transferred the ten main legions of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, we knew you were going to bully people. The Korean side is too miserable. Tens of millions of people, look at you."

"Well, Liu Yunpeng hit too hard. This is not the posture to break the other side, lightly." Jiang Ze suddenly found that the South Korean side 's Korean army was collapsed, and started running towards the back. But can you run at this time? After losing pressure, Liu Yunpeng chased the enemy's mammoth.

"Well, it 's true that you are so arrogant. You said you raided, and you killed the commander of the other side, and you see, it collapsed over there," Jiang Ze said.

Lu Yang also sighed and said, "It's too hard. Both of them are playing so hard. I haven't finished yet."

Jiang Ze looked at Lu Yang and said, "If you end up using your mixed spells, I'm afraid they will collapse before we come."

The power of mixed spells is too strong. With Lu Yang's current spell damage, when the enemy has no magic resistance, he deals 9 times the damage and releases it once to kill all non-defense class players in front of him.

Chapter 1586 - Korean players who know the truth

Lu Yang leaned comfortably on the chair, sighed long, and said, "If every battle can be done like this, you say I have more peace of mind and a more comfortable life."

Xia Yuwei, the White Lion, and others looked at Lu Yang, their faces showing distressed and sad faces. The battles in the past few days were really too much for Lu Yang to work, he was too tired.

But the Jagged Brothers Alliance has reached its current height, and there is no easy way to face the enemy. This time it was Zhou Tianming who fought his life and let the major organizations around him launch an attack in advance. Otherwise, he would give Jin Guangxian another month. Even giving 10 more days, why didn't Jin Guangxuan and Ma Canlie investigate this Ningshen mixture carefully.

Xia Yuwei said: "Don't think about that much, there will be more fighting in the future."

Lu Yang stretched lazily and said, "Let's go down, the battle is won, go to the Blue Water River to prepare for the next battle."

On the field, Ma Canlie's tens of millions of players collapsed from three directions as a whole, fleeing back crying desperately.

There are tens of thousands of Korean guilds, and each player who comes to the battle brings his own equipment. He is going to die when he is dead. No one wants to defeat the Jagged Brothers to grab equipment, but no one wants to chase after him. Killed and dropped the equipment by himself.

Seeing that they couldn't beat him, the loosely organized Korean players were self-conscious, and no one was willing to contribute, even if there was no one who stopped to fight back.

Seen from a distance, seven or eight million players fled along the Great Plain under Yizhou City in the direction of Jiangping City.

In the live room.

Dubin zoomed out the screen and said with a smile: "From a wide angle, Lu Yang's 5 million team was a little too crazy to kill, and the formation turned into an umbrella, eating on three sides."

Guest Ma Feng frowned and said, "It is true, but it feels to me that Lu Yang seems to be forcing the enemy to Jiangping Fortress."

Du Bin nodded and said: "After this battle, Ma Chanlie will not admit defeat. I think Ma Chanlie should be able to find the reason for his failure."

"What's wrong?" Hitomi asked.

Dubin said: "Some people on the forum broke the news that Ningshen Mixture seems to be powerful, but it is actually very flawed. Once it encounters demonic blood, Ningshen Mixture will not only increase defense, but also make the original defense and magic resistance Becomes 0. "

Ma Feng nodded clearly and said, "No wonder the Iron Brothers League is so easy to kill. Obviously it is a group of players with a level 150 dark gold set, but it defeated the players with a level 160 dark gold set. The reason is here."

Dubin Haha said with a smile: "I just don't know who is doing this wicked thing, digging such a big pit for South Korean players. Otherwise, South Korea cannot be defeated so badly."

Ma Feng said with a smile: "Not only can't be defeated so miserably, Lu Yang can't win so quickly. With the financial resources of Jin Guangyu and Ma Canlie, the two cooperated with the nine strongest guilds outside the tiger's mouth, entangled three or four hundred in Luyang. Ten thousand players will not be a problem, and it may even lay the Dingzhou fortress. "

Du Bin nodded with a deep sympathy and said with a smile: "Unfortunately, everything is settled. Because the two presidents of the two congresses have failed to scam, the three wars failed. The 160-level dark gold equipment that Lu Yang obtained was combined into a suit. I'm afraid that there are no less than two or three million sets. In the last battle of the Jiang Ping Fortress, the Korean side is afraid that it will have no chance. "

...

Inside the Jiangping Fortress.

Ma Chanlie just learned the defeat from the mouth of Li Zhixian and Song Zhishuo. In addition to the words on the forum, Ma Canlie found the blood of the demon in Tianyu Shencheng, poured it on his long sword with two hands, and chopped Song Zhishuo's armor hard.

The armor was easily penetrated like tofu, and Song Zhishuo's blood loss was as much as Ma Canlie's injury. Immediately, Ma Canlie understood that he screamed hard, threw the weapon to the ground, and called the phone. Kim Kwang yelled: "Kim Kwang Min, you stupid pig, you killed Korea, you killed us Korea, I will kill you."

At this time, Jin Guangxi also knew the course of the event on the forum. He heard Ma Chanlie's curse, and he was ashamed in his heart. He was upset and fainted in the game.

Ma Chanlie's reality is that Jin Guangxi is offline. He thought that Jin Guangxi had run away. He hung up the phone under anger and watched Li Zhixian and others scold: "Tell everyone, stop using Ningshen Mixture. We are in Jiangping this time. Regroup outside the fortress, and fight against Lu Yang, Smecta ~! "

"Yes, Smida ~!" Li Zhixian and Song Zhishuo and a dozen other vice presidents responded loudly, and everyone's face was full of anger.

Inside Jiangping Fortress.

A large number of South Korean players were resurrected in the city. When Li Zhixian and others reached the outer city walls, they saw that more than 3 million people had gathered in the safe area. Suddenly, Li Zhixian was shocked.

“Smida ~!” Li Zhixian gritted his teeth and cried, “How can Lu Yang slaughter our player like this? He is really a criminal of extreme crimes. I must punish him with the power of justice, Smida ~ ! “

Kong Dongrun shed tears of “movement” and shook his fist and said, “Smida, you can’t just let it go, Smida ~! We want revenge, revenge, Smida ~!”

“I’ll arrange them out of the city and prepare for battle.” Pei Dongxu said.

“Well, we will go too,” said Li Zhixian and An Zhenmin.

More than a dozen vice-chairmen came to the city and began to shout that players were out of the city, but players who should have been actively fighting at this time, although anger was high, but no one moved.

A Korean warrior player roared: “Because of you, I lost two 160-level dark gold sets, Smida ~! You must compensate me, Smida ~!”

A Korean fire mage player shouted with a sharp voice: “I lost a 160-level dark gold staff, Smida ~! That’s all my property, pay me, Smida ~!”

“Smith ~!”

Millions of people roared in unison Li Zhixian, Kong Dongrun and others were embarrassed. As the players below yell, they also knew that this time it was Jin Guangxuan and others who made a wrong decision and used Ningshen Mixture. However, they are not able to pay so many players equipment, it is not a matter of hundreds of millions of dollars, but billions of people, no one can afford it, and would not be willing to pay.

Inside the Jiangping Fortress, white light flashed through. More and more people were killed. After hearing Ma Chanlie's shout on the Korean regional channel, he returned to the Jiangping Fortress. After landing, I heard players are asking for compensation for the equipment. Coming also followed, and for a while, millions of people were following the noise.

Among this group of people, there are many Korean spies, and they started to pick things up. When they saw such good results, the leader immediately sent a message to Tu Feng.

On the way from the fortress of Yizhou to the fortress of Jiangping, Tu Feng forwarded it to Lu Yang after receiving the news, saying: "The enemy is in chaos and we may fight the next battle more easily."

Lu Yang said with a smile: "A loose organization like this, once lost, will lose completely, without any chance of defeat."

Chapter 1587 - Water Soul Mage is in place

If any organization wants to have strong cohesion, there must be a person with high prestige. This is the case with Lu Yang. This is the case with Japan's Sanyoumen, Russia's Radvidev, and so on. Therefore, they can control their own country. Of most players.

Ma Chanlie and Jin Guangye are only slightly prestigious among the crowd. Now Jin Guangye is gone. Only Ma Canlie is left. The sudden defeat has made Korean players very dissatisfied with Ma Canlie's command, and more against Jin Guangye's potion. Deceived and dissatisfied, but Jin Guangxi left, all these angers were exerted on Ma Chanlie's head alone.

Lu Yang looked at the real-time picture transmitted from the spy. Millions of South Korean players began neatly calling for compensation equipment, and Ma Chanlie was afraid to come forward.

“Order,” Lu Yang said loudly, “The deep sea immediately took the Blue Dragon Master and the Water Soul Master to the Blue Water River Plain to ambush.”

“Yes.” The deep sea was right next to Lu Yang. He beckoned, behind him 3000 blue dragon mage and 10,000 water soul mage rushed out of the army, rushed towards the blue water river, and rushed out to his subordinates, he pinched Broken the acceleration scroll, turned on the wind sprite, and the overall movement speed was more than twice as fast.

Lu Yang was also worried that the Water Soul Master and the Blue Dragon Master could not successfully reach the Blue Water River, because, in the next war, the Water Soul Master and the Blue Dragon Master were absolute protagonists, relying on the developed waters, and randomly a water ghost, You can hit 100 meters away, and players in the same vertical row will be hurt.

The key is that this skill is released indefinitely where there is water, and the sea dragon wave of the blue dragon mage has the same effect, and the water skills of the blue dragon mage are more, causing more damage.

On the other side.

The Korean side is still arguing, and Ma Chanlie can be regarded as having a solution. The reason he has no road surface is that he has invited the presidents and vice presidents of the major guilds in trouble, and is spying with them in the room.

“Smida ~!” Ma Chanlie said excitedly: “As long as two hours from Lu Yang’s arrival at the Jiangping Fortress, we have tens of millions of people, and you alone have lost only one or two pieces of equipment, as long as we work together, We can definitely defeat Lu Yang. As long as Lu Yang loses, won’t everything come back? “

The leaders who led the troubles were Yin Xiaozhen, Li Luyun, and Chi Youtian, who had been divided into eight fortresses, including Xuanzang Fortress and Ningzhou Fortress. They originally belonged to Jin Guangxu.

After Jin Guangxi's withdrawal, some of them were not convinced by Ma Canlie's leadership, and several of them were dissatisfied with each other, so that they had to listen to Ma Canlie's arrangements, which led to the defeat in the fortress of Yizhou.

Now, a few of them know the reason for the failure, and they are "very clear" about the next war. As long as they are united by tens of millions of players in Korea, they will be able to defeat Lu Yang's Jagged Brotherhood. After all, the number of people is 2 to 1.

The reason for provoking trouble is because they want to gain more benefits, or say the right to speak, can not let Ma Chanlie's people have all the right to speak, and they only have the right to execute.

Yin Xiaozhen looked at the time on the watch and said leisurely, "Yeah, Lu Yang, they will be here soon, President Ma has not solved the problem."

Ma Canlie knew exactly what Yin Xiaozhen wanted, but he didn't want to give it. He wanted to fight it once. Seeing Yin Xiaozhen, they dare to let the Brotherhood of Brothers approach and not go out.

Now he finds out that he failed. Yin Hyojin and others really prefer South Korea to defeat again rather than ceding his own interests. He gritted his teeth and stared at Yoon Hyojin and others, saying, "Well, I will appoint you six to join the Korean Army. As a permanent member of the council, we have as many members as ours, so that's always okay. "

On the Korean side, after Kim Kwang-soo left, Ma Chanlie temporarily set up a committee. The members were divided into two groups. One was Ma Chan-lie 's relationship, occupying 6 places, and the other was the other guilds. All Ma Chanlie has the right to speak.

Now he has added 6 places to Yin Xiaozhen and others, which is equal to the right to decide everything in the future. He no longer has to decide by himself, but really needs to be discussed.

Yin Xiaozhen was very satisfied with Ma Chanlie's approach, stood up with a smile, and stretched out his hand, saying, "I wish us a happy cooperation this time, win the Jagged Brotherhood, and recapture our own region."

Ma Canlie and Yin Xiaozhen shook hands and said, "Everyone quickly quell their anger and leave the city array. If Lu Yang comes and sees us, we will lose."

"Okay." Yin Xiaozhen glanced at Li Luyun and Chi Youtian, and motioned them to go back to calm their anger.

Soon, the millions of players who originally belonged to Jin Guangxu's side were persuaded by Yin Xiaozhen and others to stop making troubles. The team went out of the city in batches to prepare for the battle. Each formation stood up, and some people in the team took After returning to the city, the scroll flew to Tianyu Shencheng, took out spare equipment in the warehouse, and returned to the battlefield.

The battlefield here is the blue water river grassland with developed water channels, and most of the players step on the shallow water and warm grass.

The reason for the whole team here is because Lu Yang's main force is pressing over here, and only this area can quickly form the team.

The deep sea has reached this area at this time, is using the water stealth skills into the water, watching the entire team of players around him.

When the enemy team is complete, the position where the deep sea is standing should be the enemy's squadron, which is the area with the most mages, shooters and priests.

A battle will start in a while 10,000 Water Soul Masters launch their skills at the same time, and instantly turn a million players around them into residual blood. After two seconds, they will be killed. The horror of the mage, a group of ghosts hidden in the water, once attacked, it will be enough to destroy the large group army.

After two hours.

Tens of thousands of players from South Korea finally finished the team and formed a huge square array of tofu blocks. Two-thirds of them stood in this crisscross waterway, and only one-third stood on the dry grassland. .

Ma Chanlie's chest once again aroused his lofty aspirations, learning to land in the sun, tearing the scrolls, and a 50-meter high platform appeared at his feet, pushing him into the air.

Tens of thousands of players all looked at Ma Canlie with a stunned look. At that moment, Ma Canlie felt the supreme glory, and the cool feeling made him blurt out and shout: "Smida ~!"

"Damn brotherhood of blood, that **** Lu Yang, lied to us with potions. Now, we know the truth. This time, we did n't use potions again, and they never had a chance to break our armor, our quantity. It's twice theirs, Smida ~! We want revenge, we must avenge the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, Smida ~! "

Chapter 1588 - Battle singles

Tens of thousands of players were ignited, all raised their weapons and shouted: "Revenge, Smida ~!"

Ma Chanlie listened to the roar, and his whole body was as relaxed as an electric shock. He finally felt the feeling of directing ten million people to work in one direction.

"Report boss, the enemy is here." Li Zhixian sent a message.

Ma Chanlie looked to the far side of the blue river steppe. Where the sun rose, a black line appeared slowly. Over time, this black line became more and more dense. When the black line appeared opposite the one kilometer away, He sees the enemy coming.

Lu Yang rode on the Komodo giant and walked in the first row. He raised his right hand, and the five million Iron Blood Brothers players slowly stopped and stopped completely at a distance of 500 meters.

"Oh ~!"

The sound of 5 million people's footsteps stopped through the grassland, and Lu Yang nodded with satisfaction, saying, "My strongest soldiers, went to the South Korean players to compete and let them understand how big the gap is with us."

"I'm coming first." Liu Yunpeng picked up the totem pole. He was a 2-meter-tall tauren, striding toward the center of the two army positions, and 300 meters away from the enemy array, he smashed the totem pole heavily. On the ground, watching the South Korean player yelled, "Yu Yunpeng, the head of the Tauren Legion Army Corps of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, came to the challenge, who dares to fight!"

Ma Chanlie's face showed an angry look. He understood that it was Lu Yang who humiliated him, and did not challenge the commander and chairman of the legion. He actually did, but Ma Chanlie was unfamiliar with his opponent. He only knew The methods of the vice chairman who are close to him are unknown to the rest.

"Nan Bianbo, you will meet him." In the vice chairman of Ma Canlie, Nan Bianbo's strength is the strongest.

Although there is no explicit stipulation, in the New World War, when the two sides engaged in war, the ranks were almost equal. One side was the vice president, the other was the vice president, or the rank of the main army commander.

"Okay, see how I killed him." Nanbian Bo was full of anger and had three defeats, and now he was desperate for revenge.

Nan Bianbo walked out of the army 200 meters, and came to a place 100 meters away from Liu Yunpeng. He is a human player, his occupation is an afterimage warrior, and the main is the afterimage strike.

"I'm Nan Bianbo, remember my name, I will let you see in a while, our Korean players are powerful, Smida ~!" Nan Bianbo raised his two-handed sword and approached Liu Yunpeng slowly.

Liu Yunpeng sneered and yelled: "I never remember my name when you kill someone, and you are not qualified to let me remember my name and die for me."

Originally Liu Yunpeng was an arrogant person. However, he changed his career into a rare career and experienced a period of trough. After being brought back to teach by Lu Yang, Liu Yunpeng's strength improved greatly, and he followed Lu Yang to win countless wars. It is no longer imaginable for ordinary people.

In the past two years, there have been at least tens of thousands of players he killed, and the South Side Bo just added a number to these tens of thousands of people.

“Tauren Jumping”

Liu Yunpeng ran to a distance of 60 meters, suddenly jumped forward, gathered his two-meter-long totem pole with his hands, and slammed it along the south side.

Nan Bian dare to cope with this attack and quickly retreated to a distance of 2 meters. At the same time, he immediately launched an attack after Liu Yunpeng landed.

“Give me death.” Bo Meng from the south slammed into Liu Yunpeng, but Liu Yunpeng instantly opened the badge to release control. At the same time, he raised the totem pole again and smashed to the ground.

Bo Meng opened his eyes wide to the south. The ancestors' tauren attacked every 12 seconds. Now Liu Yunpeng's attack was only spaced for 1 second. This only proves that Liu Yunpeng used a slamming skill when he skipped. Rattled hands.

Liu Yunpeng looked at Nan Bian with a sneer and said, “Give me to death.”

For a moment, Liu Yunpeng, who was more than two meters tall, was crazy. Totem poles that were more than two meters long in his hand smashed into the south side Bo at a speed of 0.2 seconds. The south side Bo continued to escape, but unfortunately, he could not carry it. The ground hammer attacked Liu Yunpeng and killed him on the ground.

“Drink ~!” Liu Yunpeng roared holding the totem pole and said, “Waste.”

Ma Chanlie and South Korean players were furious.

“I’m here.” Wan Zhonghui first stepped on the war horse and quickly ran out of the crowd. He came to a place 300 meters away from the South Korean military formation, stopped, raised his sword and roared loudly: “Iron Brothers The Alliance Blood Oath, Shaman Regiment leader Wan Zhonghui came to the challenge, who dares to fight ~! “

“Let’s go together, too. They are too weak and waste time time and time again.” Pride and passion turned into a blood wolf and ran forward.

“Hey, that’s a good idea, let’s go together,” said the fiery hell.

The others nodded eagerly, replaced the war horse and ran out of the army, and came to Wan Zhonghui’s side. The cute queen waved the ice staff in her hand, and the first coquettishly said: “Iron Blood Brotherhood Ice Master Archmaster. The cute queen is heads-up, who dares to fight. “

“The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood Brothers Theocracy Knight Legion came to Hellfire to challenge him, who dares to fight.” Hellfire was in a gold suit, and pulled out his large sword from his waist.

“Liu Ruohuai, the head of the Theology Brotherhood of the Iron Blood Brothers, came to the head to challenge, who dares to fight.” Liu Ruohuai is a green-skinned orc, with a sword in both hands, and his face is astonished.

Jiang Chen pulled out the double daggers around his waist and sneered and said, “Jiang Chen, the leader of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood Assassin Army, came to challenge, who dares to single out.”

Six sounds cut through the grassland, Ma Chan was furious and roared: “Song Jishuo, Pei Dongxu, Yin Xiaozhen, Li Yunlu, Kong Dongrun, Liu Zaixu, kill me a few of them.”

The named people were so angry that they took out their weapons and yelled at Smida and rushed towards the Iron Brotherhood.

“Blood oath against”

Wan Zhonghui saw the opportunity, and one person hacked Song Zhishuo face to face.

“Mad torn bite”

Pride and enthusiasm escaped Pei Dongxu’s frontal attack Three side combos pressed Pei Dongxu to the ground.

“The extreme cold field”

The cute queen instantly killed Yin Xiaozhen.

Liu Ruohuai slashed Li Yunlu with a sword.

The fierce fire **** opened the divine power mode and killed Kong Dongrun.

The prisoner Pluto shot Liu Zaixu with an arrow.

In a blink of an eye, the six vice-chairmen on the Korean side were all killed by the elite legionnaires of the Jagged Brotherhood. For a time, South Korea was horrified, but players around the world were looking at their blood.

“Good job.”

“You have to kill it like this, it is indeed the main army commander of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood.”

“Haha, that’s my brother, my brother.”

Chapter 1589 - Water Soul Mage and Flame Array Mage debut

In the live room.

Du Bin looked at the barrage and said to the guest Ma Feng, “Bullying, Lu Yang is too bullying. All the commanders of his army are trained by his world’s best master. What is the strength? The average master can do it. “

Ma Fengqiang smiled and said, “It is true that the official information shows that these elite army commanders under Lu Yang are ranked around 7,000 in the full service. This is already a remarkable number. Players, they waste so much time every day on management and guild battles, and they can have this ranking to prove that they are really powerful. “

Hitomi replied: “The South Koreans they sent from South Korea, in the official data, are ranked outside 1 million, no wonder they died face to face.”

Dubin sighed and said, “Oh, this time, the morale of the South Korean side is down.”

Ma Feng and Tongtong nodded together.

On the court.

The morale of the South Korean side has become extremely low. Looking at the heads of several legions still standing in the same place as the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, Ma Chanlie was mad and yelled: “The whole army is ready, we will kill the past and take revenge for them. Revenge for ourselves. “

“Kill ~!” Nan Bianbo and others have been resurrected by their priests and returned to the army. When they heard Ma Chanlie’s words, they raised their weapons and roared.

Tens of millions of Korean players are actually divided into hundreds of small guilds. When their respective chairmen heard the orders, they drove their men to launch an attack. For a time, tens of millions of people in South Korea roared loudly and attacked the Iron Brotherhood. Come over.

Lu Yang sneered and said, “Defend the offensive. Press me on the line 200 meters ahead. They are not allowed to take another step forward.”

“Yes.” Xiao Liang stepped out of the army against the shield, brought him a shield battle of 100,000 shields, gathered with 300,000 legions, and 1.2 million healing professions came to Lu Yang in front of five rows. A defensive position of 10 kilometers and 20 kilometers was formed, of which the treatment was hidden in these five platoons of defense battles. There were special defense battles for them to form a shield array above their heads. Overall, Xiao Liang’s formation looked like a Huge iron house.

“Boom”

“Boom”

As soon as Xiao Liang set up the shield here, Vice Presidents Li Zhixian and Pei Dongxu rammed the team with them. The South Korean side never thought that the Jagged Brothers side had used a defensive position. This made Li Zhixian some of them did not know how to fight .

“What is it, isn’t it right? How can you defend?” Li Zhixian cursed as he looked at Xiao Liang’s iron shield.

Xiao Liang smiled and said, “Do you guess?”

rear.

Lu Yang saw that the formation was stable, and the South Korean side was blocked. He said to Luo Siyu, "The Yan Formation Masters quickly came forward to form a battle. Whether they can win or not depends on you."

The secondary curse can only be released once every six hours. Both sides threw the curse out in the last battle. Now no one can put out the curse. The competition is real strength.

However, the Iron Brotherhood Alliance has a flame formation mage. Their attack is in the 10X10 range. The damage is 190% of the magic damage after the formation is completed, which is equivalent to each attack being a spell crit. With such a large area and a shield battle With them blocking the enemy in front, they are a bunch of harvesters on the battlefield.

"Yan Zhen Master Group, marching forward 150 meters." Luo Si Yujiao sang, and with the Yan Zhen Masters in three rows marching forward 150 meters, stopped, Luo Yu Yu shouted again: "Yan Up, up ~! "

A 10,000 red gold six-horse star array appeared at the feet of each Yan Zhen Master. Every three Yan Zhen Masters stood next to each other in a triangular position, occupying two-thirds of the shield formation from left to right.

"The first team is ready."

"The second team is ready."

"The three teams are ready."

...

Luo Siyu set every 1,000 people as a team. After the team was finished, she immediately reported to him. She saw that the ten teams were ready, and she said, "Yan Zhen Master Group, today is our first appearance. In the battlefield, if you can make our reputation known, it's up to you, listen to my orders, Yan Zhen Masters, attack ~! "

“Yan Cannon!” 10,000 Yan Zhen Masters roared almost at the same time. At one instant, 10,000 Red Golden Ghost-faced Fire Flakes were fired from one side of the Yan Zhen Master Group. They passed through a space of 50 meters and fell in front of Xiao Liang Among the South Korean players.

“boom”

“boom”

“boom”

The piece of damage falls in the Korean army’s front. Every three Yanjin mages attacking a place is equivalent to that area of 10X10 being attacked by 6 mages. In just a moment, it caused tens of millions. s attack.

“Treat, cure soon.” Li Zhixian was also among the bombed crowd. He saw that the blood volume had dropped by more than 10 million and knew it was not good.

When it can be charged, the treatment is the least. At this time, at least hundreds of thousands of people were injured at the same time. The only tens of thousands of treatments could not be added at all. After 2 seconds, the second wave of attacks fell.

Facing this attack, the Templars had to open the shield to defend them. At the same time, they started to punish the angels and attack the shield team of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood.

Xiao Liang’s total health value was 60 million, which was instantly cut off by 20 million. However, the next 20 seconds, 20 million HP was returned. On average, 5 treatments added blood to a defense, and the archbishop’s priest decreased by 50%. Injury, defense is impossible to die.

In the face of this dense defensive position, only the two wings of the Iron Brotherhood can attack, the front is absolutely impossible to break, but the two wings are the strongest main elite legion of the Iron Brotherhood, blood wolf, tauren, blood oath shaman , Ice Arch Mage, and Starbreaker Sagittarius are all there. There is a meat grinder. Whoever will die.

When Ma Chanlie saw that the attack of the former army was blocked, he immediately issued an order asking the two wings of the army to launch an offensive against the two wings of the Iron Brotherhood, and this time there should be enough healing to follow. A large number of treatments were pulled from the Chinese army and ran to the two wings .

In the invisible state, the deep sea looked at the priests and healing knights who were about to leave, and said to the players of the two wizard groups around them: "It's our turn, give them a fatal blow and kill their priest army. "

"Water Ghost Sting"

10,000 Water Soul Masters, standing in stealth in the Chinese army of the Korean Mage Corps, lined up in three horizontal rows, launching their skills in front of them at the same time 嘭 "

"嘭"

"嘭"

...

More than 3,000 parallel sharp water spikes suddenly surged from the surface of the water and wrapped the Korean army in a straight line.

Three Water Soul Mage attacked the same straight line with a length of 100 meters. The blood volume of each treatment was instantly destroyed by 6 million points, and the total health of the healing professional fax level 160 dark gold set was only 12 million.

"Sea Dragon Wave"

Before the priests responded, the deep sea appeared with 3,000 blue dragon mage, and hit a cone-shaped blue shock wave in front of the attacking treatment team in front.

Hai Longbo's attack is not a straight line, but a range attack. It is often a skill that hits a player within 50 meters in front of him. Therefore, there is only half of the blood treatment team left, and he died instantly.

Chapter 1593 - Sneak attack on the fortress

The iron door bolt means to tie the tiger's mouth. The two ghost shot doors are Claudio in the southeast corner and Harrican in the southwest corner. These two idiots should now be about to move.

Lu Yang recalled White Lion, Xia Yuwei and others, and said, "Let's go to bed, and leave half-life, the old man and Tianyao, let them take the brothers to kill and grab equipment."

Everyone laughed, and as Lu Yang went off to rest together, on the other side, as Lu Yang guessed, the area where Harriken and Claudio were located was during the day, and the presidents of the two guilds gathered the most The trusted vice chairman discussed the war situation between the Jagged Brotherhood and the nine strongest guilds.

Harricken's goal is smaller. All he wanted was to take the opportunity to kill the Diamond Sword Guild established by the twelve South African countries and Radvidev's Russian-Moroccan federation. He had no idea about other regions.

Claudio is not the same. Claudio, who is a fierce soldier, decided to send 15 million players this time, and attack the four guilds of Jerz, Tom, Olma, and Gelga at the same time. He will attack the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, taking the whole area of the eastern part of the New World in one round.

After some discussion, the two sides reached the same conclusion. They both need to hold on for a while, at least 5 more days, so that the nine strongest guilds can be exhausted.

"I'm looking for Lu Yang." Claudio picked up the phone happily, he is very happy now, because he is using Lu Yang as a gunman, there is no need to pay a penny, Lu Yang has to obey His arrangement, desperately fighting the enemy, made him feel very excited.

“Sorry, the call you dialed has been turned off!” Claudio’s interest was drowned in cold water, and he cursed, “Don’t dare to shut down at this time, not afraid of something wrong.”

Natalia said with a smile: “It’s late at night in China time, and Lu Yang has just won a Korean player. He must have gone to sleep.”

“Then I’ll call him at night, it should be morning over him.” Claudio was uninterested, and continued to study strategies.

China region.

Lu Yang slept overnight until dawn the next day. He originally thought that he could sleep well. Unfortunately, he didn’t sleep well that night. Nightmares continued. First, Jin Guangxu and Ma Canlie defeated the victory. The entire South Korean region was unified by the two of them.

Followed by the rebellion of Darvi and Karp in the Indian region, seizing the Moonless Fortress and the Holy Spirit Fortress, the Indian region was snatched by Shilov, and finally turned into a tiger mouth fortress and was jointly attacked by the nine strongest guilds. The Huaxia area was occupied by the enemy, his guild fell apart, and the game city in reality was disbanded, leaving people empty.

This dream scared him with cold sweat all over his body. After waking up and looking at the surrounding scenes, he knew that the dream was scared.

“It’s just a dream.” Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief, rubbed his sore forehead, and looked outside. Lan Yu was making breakfast. He had smelled a pungent scent.

Lu Yang has n’t eaten breakfast at home for a long time, almost two months, he has come out early and returned late, and even lived in the office for ten consecutive days.

“Eat breakfast ~!” Lan Yu stood in the door with a beautiful light blue apron and smiled at Lu Yang.

Lu Yang smiled and nodded. He hasn't experienced this kind of warm life for a long time. He washed and dressed, and accompanied Lan Yu to a rich breakfast. He returned to the studio and just put on his helmet. , The talker rang.

A bitter call for half a life, he said, "The war in South Korea is over. All Korean players on the Ma Charlie side have been killed by us and returned to the Celestial City. Boss, what should I do next?"

Lu Yang sneered and said, "You take your main force and stay in the Korean area, and I will let Qing Qian Zimeng provide you with the most accurate information. No matter which betrayal guild returns, you will immediately go and kill me. Explosion of their equipment, this time, I want to make South Korea the opposite, it can't slow down for six months. "

"Yes," said bitter love for a long time.

I just hung up the phone, and the white lion called to report the situation of the tiger mouth fortress. The next one is the turbid wine to report the situation of the Tianjian fortress. The third one is Dalvey, which reports the situation in India. The stability is no exception.

The next call was Tu Feng, reporting on the income and expenses of the battle all day yesterday. Rare items such as wind elves and escape daggers. For the time being, just a 160-level dark gold suit, and 80 were hit. 10,000 sets, this is still obtained by the guild of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood, ordinary players get more.

Four decisive battles, plus one night of killing, each player received at least 4 to 5 pieces of 160-level dark gold equipment, gems and mixtures and other items are countless, all made a fortune.

Tu Feng said, "Boss, now our brothers in the guild have a high will to fight, and they are asking to participate in a decisive battle against Indian players."

Lu Yang smiled and said: "India will not fight for the time being. Ask them who will accompany me to fight the G8."

Tu Feng smiled and said, "I think there are a lot of willing and unwilling, I went to ask."

Lu Yang hung up the phone. Mu Yi had already prepared 3 million sets of 160-level gold equipment. He spent a great deal of money to get these equipment. The total attributes are better than the 160-level dark gold set. It is a little more than 10%, and it has a lot of attributes than ordinary players with incomplete level 170 parts.

Anyone who is willing to follow him out of the Blue Island to fight the nine strongest guilds, he will send a set of equipment to each of them, but he is now worried that his two ghosts have shot the door, why did the two ghosts not find him, If he doesn't call him again, he can only find them.

"Dididi"

The intercom rang, and he picked it up and took a look. It was Harriken's. Lu Yang laughed and said, "Whoever he wants, he will call."

He pressed the on button and said, "President Harriken, what's the matter?"

Harriken said anxiously, "President Lu Yang, what arrangements do you have today?"

Lu Yang said, "I haven't figured it out yet, what's wrong?"

"How can you not think about it, you should continue to attack Radevjev's Russian Guild and Stephen's Diamond Sword Guild." Harriken said.

Because Lu Yang won South Korea, and only India remained unresolved. If Lu Yang went to solve India now, it would be a break for the nine strongest guilds outside the tiger's mouth, which he did not want to see.

Lu Yang said, "But you don't give me a certain attack time, and I worry too."

Harrican smiled and said: "This is the thing, I can give you certain news. Just 5 days later, I must attack Stephen and Radvieff, and promise to drag the two of them back, you After playing for 5 days, I can win them. "

Lu Yang said, "You are sure."

"OK," Harriken said.

Lu Yang said: "Then we can set it up, you have to fight."

"Relax, be sure to fight," Harriken promised, patting his chest.

Lu Yang said, "Okay, that's it."

As soon as the call was hung up, Claudio followed him and said, "President Lu Yang, why is your call so difficult to get through, I have been dialing since you went online."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Busy, I deal with all kinds of wars every day. When I get up in the morning, the phone never breaks. Why, what?"

Claudio said with a little arrogance: "You have to step up the attack. I'm ready here. As long as they are tired, I will immediately send troops to kill them for you."

Lu Yang said, "You think I should fight for a few days with that intensity attack yesterday."

"At least a week." Claudio lit a cigar and said as he smoked.

Lu Yang sneered and said, "If you want to talk like this, there is nothing to talk about between us. There are many people who want to cooperate with me, not just yours."

"What do you mean?" Claudio was furious, angrily holding a cigar in one hand and holding the phone in one hand. "Why, you're not afraid they'll hit you together?"

Lu Yang said: "Why should I be afraid, I just need to tell Jerz and Tom now that you want to hit them, I believe they will never hit me again."

This time is different from the past. Now Lu Yang speaks with confidence. South Korea has calmed down. India's enemies have shrunk in the northeast corner. He only has enemies outside the tiger's mouth. All these siege equipment have been destroyed by Zhou Tianming.

Want to make up the first batch of equipment to attack again, as soon as a week later, Lu Yang now has time to deal with Claudio.

Claudio's heart was awful, but he knew that Lu Yang now had the capital to say so, shrugged his shoulders, and sighed, "Well, then you say a specific attack time, let's fight together."

Lu Yang said: "After 5 days, after 5 days my army will start from both the tiger's mouth and the blue island. You will send troops from the southeast direction. Stephen, Tom, Gerga and Olma are the hometowns of any two of them. "

"This condition is fine, you are very good." Claudio was happy, as he expected, which proves that Lu Yang has sincere cooperation.

Lu Yang said: "That's what I promised. The whole territory of Galga will be for you I only need Ralbag to get money and go to the purgatory fortress in the area of Olma, these two places are me After entering and exiting the central area in the future, the two of us attacked westward and divided the new continent equally. "

"That's it," Claudio said with a happy sip of cigar. "You are such a good partner."

Lu Yang sneered on the phone. What a good partner is just a good use of tools. Unfortunately, Claudio thought he was too powerful.

He took out the teleportation scepter and flew outside the Tiger Mouth fortress, and issued a command: "All the forbidden mage legions immediately entered the fighting state, and we went to the enemy outside."

"Yes, the whole team immediately," Hei Yan said.

“Yes, the whole team immediately.” Li Wenxing said.

“Observe,” said Davy.

Lu Yang’s three major banned spell masters, 130,000 in Huaxia, 50,000 in Li Wenxing’s South Korean region, and 200,000 in Dalvi’s Indian region. A total of 380,000 banned mages were immediately mobilized.

Chapter 1595 - Day and night bombing

Late night in Italy.

Xue Yiming was patrolling in the camp outside Heisha Tongtian Fortress. After yesterday’s raid by White Lion, Xia Yuwei and others, Sanyouweimen and others thought that it was not a wise choice to stay outside the tiger mouth and waited, and collectively withdrew the Tongtian Fortress.

At this time, the fortress and all the fortresses previously occupied by Lu Yang were repaired by them. The nine strongest guilds agreed to an alliance with each other. Players can teleport to the fortresses occupied by the nine guilds.

Xue Yiming glanced at the black gauze and typed, “The first batch of trebuchet parts could be shipped to the Tongtian Fortress this afternoon and assembled tonight.

Now the three guild presidents of Sanyouweimen have sacked the lower half of their hands to the surrounding map to upgrade the monsters, and the other half are guarded around the four walls of Tsuten Fortress to prevent your sneak attack. “

Lu Yang said, "Give me a detailed defense plan."

"No problem." Xue Yiming was well prepared and passed the defense plan to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang opened the mailbox and looked at it. In the defense picture, Roland is guarding the north side of the Fortress, Sanyoumen Gate is the west side, Olma is the south side, and Heisa and Jerez are the east side.

This defense map is very powerful. It has detailed coordinates on it and coordinates of the enemy's location. With these two things, Lu Yang can directly order the wizard wizard to put the cursed mage group into the designated safe area to the enemy. Forbidden bombing.

He hung up the phone, sent a message to Jerz, and said, "I will bomb the Sky Fortress for a while, leaving some players with poor equipment, and the elite are removed."

Jerez is depressed in the camp on the east side of his city wall. If the Brotherhood of Iron Blood exits the tiger, the first hit is the east side defense zone of the fortress fortress. He is very worried and can see the news from Lu Yang. Jerz With an expression of whether to cry or laugh, he said, "I really don't know if I should thank him or scold him."

Jelz approached the deputy vice president and said, "The brothers of the elite army in the battalion were ordered to go to war and upgrade immediately, and the Brotherhood of Iron Blood was not coming out. Let's not waste time here."

Vice Chairman Waldmar frowned and said, "If our elites are withdrawn, who will defend?"

Jerz said: "Change the newcomers in the guild, let them come over, and say that they will give 5 times the guild points."

"Is this okay?" Waldmar asked.

"Just do it, quickly." Jerz said.

“Okay.” Waldmar immediately issued an order, the Polish five players left the camp swiftly, and the newcomers kept coming out of the resurrection point in the eastern part of the fortress and entered the camp.

An hour later, Jerz sent a message to Lu Yang: “I’ve changed.”

Lu Yang laughed, thinking that Jerz could give him a message. He looked back at Hei Yan and Li Wenxing and asked, “How is the preparation?”

Hei Yan said in a loud voice: “The 130,000 Huaxia curse mage is ready.”

Li Wenxing went on to say: “South Korea’s 50,000 forbidden spell mage is ready.”

“India 200,000 forbidden spell mages are ready,” Dalvy said.

Ayala said: “Spain 80,000 forbidden mage is ready.”

The total number of forbidden spell mages has reached 460,000, and Lu Yuming said loudly, “The Elven Master is ready to launch the first wave of bombing at any time.”

Lu Yang opened the map sent by Xue Yiming and said according to the coordinates: “The attack began, and the first 20 waves bombed Jerz’s Free Army.”

“Yes.” Lu Yuming personally led the team, 10,000 rays of light flashed, 10 kilometers outside the east wall of the fortress, the players of the five Polish nations who were playing monsters were curious and looked at the surrounding lights.

“Strange, what is this?”

“I don’t know, is there any treasure?”

“No, it feels like someone’s skill.”

As they discussed, the film burst into bursts of light, revealing the 10,000 Forbidden Spell Master led by Hei Yan himself.

“Elf mage kills the surrounding enemies, curses the mage regiment, targets the Polish camp 500 meters away, curses, puts it!” Heiyan roared.

The 10,000 forbidden mage quickly read out the secondary forbidden spell. In a blink of an eye, the cloud over Jertz’s camp was covered by dark clouds. Ten seconds later, 10,000 forbidden spells fell suddenly, and the players in it died in large numbers.

Claudio is mobilizing the team and heard reports from his men that Jertz’s army was bombed by Lu Yang’s curse, and his face was soothing, saying, “The army continues to gather. After 5 days, look at my left hook. The punches crashed their gang. “

Throughout the day, Lu Yang caught Jerzi’s camp and exploded. When the night was changed, Sanyouweimen looked apologetically at Jerz who was crying and said: “Tomorrow for you Switch to the north, don’t mind. “

Jerz’s expression of pain and aggrieved expression, he said, “It’s okay, and it doesn’t affect us much.”

Radevjeev scolded Jerz’s heart and said, “You kid, pretend, you are so close to me, but I have a spy with you, and you **** must be colluding with Lu Yang like me Now. “

Sanyouweimen shook Jerez’s hand vigorously, turned to look at Radvidev, and said, “I’m afraid that Lu Yang will be bombed tonight. I suspect we have an inner ghost here, and we can always coordinate our coordinates. Report to Lu Yang and try to catch him. “

It is possible to continuously and accurately bombard Jerz’s camp in a nobody’s place. This is not what the Jagged Brothers can do. Someone must help cover it.

Radvedev chuckled in his heart: "You're a bitch, and you want to pit me."

On the surface, Radeviev said, "Rest assured, I will try my best."

He found a ghost, and Lu Yang had just told him that he would explode tonight. The people he sent to the camp except for the 20,000 outside were wearing a 160-level dark gold suit, and all inside were 130-140. Player, Lu Yang casually blasted.

That night.

Lu Yang was also rude. He bombed Radvijeve one night, or Ayala in Spain with someone. It was learned that Radvijeve had killed at least two million people. Rickon sat in the office and laughed for several minutes.

Waiting until the next morning, Sanyouweimen held Radvedev's hand in the same sorrowful expression and said, "Tough work for you."

Radvedev forced a look of anger and cursed: "When our trebuchet is here, I must make Lu Yang look good."

Sanyouweimen nodded strongly, but when he sent off Radvidev and others, he felt that Lu Yang was wrong when he stared at the two of them. Could it be that Lu Yang secretly attracted some of the nine of them? Individuals, ready to hit them in turn?

He quickly sorted out the data in his mind, thinking if there was no place for him. The alliance in the central region is still secure now, and no problems have appeared. Steige and Liu Jie in the northern region are fighting.

Lu Yang in the eastern region and the northeastern region did not come out, and some of the strongest guilds in the northwest and western regions were also superficial and not climate.

The two major guilds in the southeast and southwest have civil strife ...

“Civil strife?” Sanyou Weimen frowned, and he reacted, and quickly put the map of the New World into the space in front of him. Looking closely, the southwestern region connected with Radevigev has four Swiss countries, hesitating the area where Stephen is connected. There are six countries in Argentina in the southeast region.

“Did Lu Yang form an alliance with them? Do they have this strength?” Sanyou Weimen thought to himself.

In his heart, he has always looked down on many of the strongest guilds in various regions of the New World, thinking that they have just made the name of the strongest guild, and it is not true.

On the bright side, these guilds are very large, but they do not necessarily represent strength. The true strength of a guild is the command and dispatch ability of the guild in the millions or even millions of scenes, and the players on the battlefield. Dare to fight.

The entire New World, except for the Huaxia region and the Liu Jie region in the north and their nine strongest guilds in the central region, have not experienced such a war in the rest of the regions. Otherwise, the top Spanish guilds occupying the same size as the eastern region and the Luyang region will not. Was so easily defeated by Lu Yang with 300,000 people.

On the one hand, Lu Yang sent a high level of elite and well-equipped, on the other hand, Alfonso’s weak command of the Spanish Guild, and he did not have the kind of person who really directed the big scene, which made Lu Yang a small Broad and easy to occupy the entire Spanish area.

Now, half a year has passed Every month, Lu Yang can receive hundreds of millions of euros from the Spanish region. The end is to make a lot of money, but the nine major guilds in the central region are also very profitable. Players from the money country are all in the central region and they are divided by two-thirds.

Sanyouweimen thought for a long time and did not think that the two top guilds in the Southeast and Southwest had the strength to fight with them. Their spies were not many in these two regions, but they could also collect some information. The civil strife on the two sides had not been resolved yet. .

When Sanyouweimen couldn’t figure it out, the light flickered outside the fortress fortress.

“Yanxi ~!” A terrified sigh came from the door, and the first vice-chairman Furukawa rushed in and said excitedly: “Iron Brotherhood’s Forbidden Mage appears outside the East Gate and is attacking with Forbidden Curse. we.”

Sanyou Weimen stood up fiercely, he didn’t want to think about other things anymore, and ran out of the door, and he saw a large number of forbidden spells falling in his camp.

“Asshole.” Sanyouweimen yelled and shouted, “Immediately order the Archer Army and the Mage Army to arm 1 km outside the city, and the stealthy thief army also went to arm. Once an enemy sneaks in, it is immediately culled.”

“Yes.” Furukawa rushed out and issued an order.

σ? ,,

Unlike Radevjev and Jerz, Sanyoumonemon and Jagged Brothers are really fighting. In less than half an hour, hundreds of thousands of Sanyoumenmon men rushed out of the stationed area. Whenever the cursing army appeared, it was soon slammed by the enemy’s mage and archer regiments.

Lu Yang saw this situation and ordered his forbidden mage to change the attack location, and became a fat puppet Olma.

Furukawa Xiong once again returned to the front of Sanyouwei with great interest, and said, “Chairman, the cursed mage of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood ran to hit Orma.”

“Lu Yang is trying to use a tired enemy.” Sanyouweimen said frowning.

Olma area.

“Rush out and kill the Jagged Brothers.” Olmara roared loudly with a donkey face, and rushed out of the camp with hundreds of thousands of people in despair.

Seeing this, Lu Yang changed his position again, this time becoming Roland ...

For a whole day, Lu Yang just let the forbidden mage regiment bombard the four areas of the fortress with 400,000 forbidden mage and bombarded it. The nine strongest guild players who played were exhausted, especially next to the southeast region. Jerz of the Sun King Harican and Radvidev in the southwestern region and Stephen of the Diamond Sword Guild of the Twelve Nations in South Africa.

early morning.

In the conference room of the Inner City Guild Hall of the Tongtian Fortress, Radvedev yelled and shouted: “Including yesterday and the day before yesterday, it has been two days in a row, so Lu Yang’s cursed mage group is raging around the Fortress I can’t stand the bombing. I will fight against Lu Yang.”

Orma slapped the table and cursed: “Yes, that’s the decisive battle. We have enough reserves for two days to hit the trebuchet, and we are not afraid to confront Lu Yang.”

Jerz shouted cheerfully: “I agree.”

Sanyouweimen was hurt by the noisy head, and his head was frowning contemplatively. Radevjeev saw this and deliberately raised an eyebrow at Jerz.

Jerz also raised his eyebrows in homage. The two countries are too close together, and everyone knows what is going on. In this connection, both people found that the other party has recently moved a large number of people on the defense, and then look at the map. Both of them understood, and they both got in touch with Lu Yang.

Hexiu watched the crowd clamoring and frowned, “I don’t agree to fight now. The reconstruction of the tiger’s mouth guild has been completed. It is another 16 walls and tens of thousands of lightning towers and catapults. The attack is too inappropriate. At the beginning, I persuaded them not to evacuate from the tiger, otherwise their defense towers would be built again. They would not listen. Now that we have built them, we have no siege facilities. I really do n’t understand them.”

Radvedev took a scornful glance at the black veil and said arrogantly: "It's something, dare to talk to us here, get out if you don't want to stay, no one wants to listen."

"!" Hei Sha was anxious.

Stephen smiled lightly and said sarcastically, "Don't think that you can talk about anything, in front of us, nothing, get out."

"They." Heisha was stunned.

Olma scolded: "Get out, don't understand what we say?"

The black veil was so angry that he turned and left.

Everyone inside the room laughed, and Jerz said sarcastically: "A president of a garbage junk guild dared to make a noise in front of us without looking at his strength. It's just kidding to want to teach us. "

The eight strongest guild presidents in the house, they are such a big guild punched by their strength, not like a black veil like a white devil and Alice's puppet, a few people look down on him, let alone Respect her words.

"I propose to attack the tiger's mouth," Radvedev said.

Jerz said: "I agree."

The two said so intentionally, because they knew that Sanyouweimen 's think tank would not agree. Sure enough, Sanyouweimen shook his head and said, "Everyone calm down. Yes, otherwise, Lu Yang suddenly attacked and forcibly destroyed our trebuchet, and we are in an awkward position again, believe me, everyone will wait. "

Radvedev and Jerz and others looked at each other. Sanyouweimen was still very authoritative among them, and nodded one after another: "Well, listen, we will wait another three days."

Sanyou Weimen breathed a sigh of relief, but he didn't know that it was these three days that reminded him of this incident in his life and felt regretful.

Radvedev and Jerz both told Lu Yang the results of the conversation. Lu Yang also continued to launch day and night sneak attacks on the nine strongest guild players outside the Tongtian Fortress. The top priority was to attack the G8. .

On the third day, players from various countries were overwhelmed. On the fourth day, they were even more irritated. By the fifth day, players from various countries began to be tired. At the same time, the boulder carts of the nine strongest guilds were finally delivered enough to fight the five-day hard battle. Quantity.

Tiger mouth fortress outside.

The nine strongest guilds gathered and stood by. Tens of thousands of players re-arranged the attack formation outside the Tiger Mouth Fortress. This formation alone took more than four hours. When it was time to prepare for the war, it was three o'clock in the afternoon.

Over the Tiger Mouth Fortress, tens of billions of viewers in the world are watching the preparations for the battle through the official video of Dubin.

The party of the nine strongest guilds was divided into nine squares. The flags were displayed and the military capacity was very strong. The trebuchet square had more than 20,000.

This time all nine guilds are here. In the past few days, the players of all nine guilds have been suffocated and vowed to fight Lu Yang to death.

On the 15th wall of the Tiger Fortress at UU Reading, there are elite players of the Jagged Brotherhood. There are not only Huaxia, but also South Korea, India and Spain. More than ten thousand.

Lu Yang stood inside the tower of the first city wall, took out the phone and called Harriken, and asked, "Are you ready?"

Hareken laughed and said, "My 10 million players have been divided into two parts and have secretly reached the 5 km mountain of Stephen's Diamond Fort and Radev Jeff's White Bear Fort. As long as that attack is launched, I hide The fortress in the distance, but at any time teleported tens of thousands of players to the past, and raided Russia and South Africa. "

"Wait for me." Lu Yang hung up the phone and called Claudio, and asked, "How is the preparation?"

Claudio laughed and said, "Brother, I mobilized 15 million players this time, which is not interesting."

Lu Yang was happy, and asked in surprise: "Where are so many people?"

Claudio said: "In my area, there are still many people who have fortresses. I ordered them to join me to attack the outside and gain benefits. They can occupy 30%."

Chapter 1597 - Serial meter

"Great." This time, Lu Yang really admired this time. Claudio knew that this time he could take advantage of the situation, in order to take more advantage, he could give 30% of the benefits, which is not what ordinary people can do. of.

It is conceivable that Claudio can take greater advantage, and can even dispatch more free labor in the future, because in the later stage, Jerz, Tom, and Olma they reacted and must fight back at that time. Help, it would be nice without loss.

“Why aren’t you playing there? One second more, we have a chance to be exposed, that would be boring,” Claudio urged.

“I’m going to fight now. They don’t come to hit me. I attacked. On the Blue Island side, 3 million people have logged in.”

The 3 million people were convened in Lu Yang’s five days. The reason given was to rock the island and the enemies. As for the reward, he did not say, but only said that he would not treat the people who came. In addition to the 3 million elites of the Jagged Brothers League, there are only 3 million of them.

On that day, Lu Yang ordered them to close all chat software, and sent everyone a 160-level gold gear, and told them that if they were damaged, they could ask for them again.

These players are just ordinary members of the Jagged Brothers League. Before, they killed domestic rebellions with Lu Yang and killed Korean players four times, causing them to make a fortune. These people know that thanks to Lu Yang, regardless of gain or loss, coming.

“White Lion, move forward at full speed, and must engage with the enemy within half an hour,” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” Inside the forest near the coastline of the tiger’s mouth, white lion, bitter love half-life, Xia Yuwei, Tianyao, blazing fire and Zhou Tianming are waiting for the order, get instructions from Lu Yang, six people command the army to move forward quickly .

In the live room.

Dubin didn’t know that such a legion was approaching. He said to the audience who watched the live broadcast: “Today is really a big war. Since five days ago, Zhou Tianming struck a counterattack against Georgia and killed 100,000 of the nine strongest guilds. Catapult, we have been looking forward to this decisive battle today, which is really exciting. “

On the barrage, the words of Dubin made the players boil.

“Iron Brotherhood will win.”

“Nine strongest guilds must break through the tiger’s mouth.”

“Get off, Lu Yang must kill the nine strongest guilds.”

“Iron Brotherhood is the strongest.”

“Sanyou Weimen is the master, and the Jagged Brotherhood is trash.”

“The Russian legion is the strongest.”

...

Players from dozens of countries have set off a scolding battle in the video. Chinese players have never given up on cursing others. The barbaric theory has all kinds of backlashes. The two sides in the video are no longer visible on the barrage, and Dubin has to separate one. Video to watch the battle on the field.

500 meters outside the Tiger Mouth Fortress, Sanyouwei spent nearly half an hour, and finally confirmed it again, with Radvidev and Olma and other nine strongest guild presidents stopped and looked proudly. Lu Yang on the wall of the tiger mouth.

Sanyou Weimen is a formal watch. Today he is wearing a suit and his hands are folded over his sleeves. He said loudly: “President Lu Yang, the scene five days ago made Sanyou Weimen deeply admire, but, You can only use that kind of trick once to delay your defeat for a few days. Now we have regrouped tens of millions of players and tens of thousands of stone throwers. Today, let us make a decision. “

Lu Yang looked at Sanyou Weimen in the distance. This man has always thought of himself as a think tank, and he has a long way to go. Unfortunately, he is in the details. He is a so-called tactical genius and a strategic dwarf.

If fighting in the wild, Lu Yang believes that he and the Sanyoumon Gate Association are singled out, and there is not much chance of victory. From the perspective of the overall war in the New World, Sanyoumongate still cannot see the situation.

Lu Yang looked at Sanyou Weimen with a smile and said, "Who told you I only have this trick, believe it or not, I still have one trick."

Sanyou Weimen is a very formal battle with Lu Yang this time, because, from his mind, Lu Yang is a respectable enemy, so he must also let this enemy wither like cherry blossoms at the most beautiful moment. But Lu Yang's words made him feel very light-hearted, as if it were a joke.

"Asshole." Sanyouweimen pointed at the landing and cursed: "I'm officially declaring war on you, I hope you know how to respect your enemy."

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile and said, "No, no, sir, you have misunderstood what I said. I really have a trick to deal with you. I don't look down on you."

Radvedev and Jerz were horrified. They thought that Lu Yang was about to expose the two of them, and they suddenly burst into a cold sweat.

Sanyouweimen also felt it was wrong, and frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

"Boss, we are in position and can attack at any time." The White Lion sent a message.

"Listen to me to attack, immediately launch an attack." Lu Yang replied and looked at Sanyou Weimen and said loudly, "Do you really think that I only have Zhou Tianming as the second hand? Tell you, this time I will give you With a serial meter, Zhou Tianming is just one of the most important points. From the moment your trebuchet was attacked by Zhou Tianming, you have won this serial meter that can never get rid of. "

In secret, Lu Yang sent a message to Radvedev and Jerz: "The enemy is only half an hour away from your fortress. My people are in the forest on your side. Don't fight, prepare to retreat."

"Thank you."

"I owe you personal affection."

Radvedev and Jerz said one after the other.

On the court.

Sanyouweimen still didn't understand, and asked aloud, "Serial meter? What serial meter, you can say clearly."

Lu Yang smiled and said loudly: "One of the two tricks in this series one of them is called the iron gate bolt, the second trick is called the second ghost shoot gate, these two ghosts are the Harry in the southwest region Ken's Legion and Claudio Legion of the Sun King in the southeast region, listen to my order, Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, kill ~! "

The whole audience was stunned. Sanyouweimen and Olma and others have not yet responded, nor did they respond to what Lu Yang meant by killing, but a few seconds later, in the forest on the south side of the tiger mouth.

"Iron Brotherhood, kill ~!"

"Kill ~!"

"Kill ~!"

The voices of White Lion, Xia Yuwei, and others sounded one after another. Millions of players from the Brotherhood of Iron Blood rushed out of the forest and attacked the wings of the nine strongest guilds 5 kilometers away.

Sanyouweimen opened his eyes wide, hesitating to think about other issues, and immediately shouted, "The flanking legion charged back and killed the enemy."

Sanyouweimen has long been prepared for Luyang to launch an attack in the direction of the Blue Island, and specially arranged a man on the flank to lure the Iron Brothers Alliance into the country. Starting from the login of the Blue Isles, Sanyouweimen knew, but unfortunately, he did not know. However, he arranged to block the Brotherhood of the Jagged Brothers from the army of Radvidev and Jerz, who had already given up resistance.

Chapter 1598 - The 9 Strongest Guilds in Retreat

σ? ,,

Lu Yang didn't look at the battle over there, and sent a message to Claudio and Harriken: "The army attacked, and I fought with Radvidev and Jerz on this side."

Harrican and Claudio were watching a video of the battle outside the Tiger Mouth Fortress, and when they saw it, they both sneered.

"It's an **** to call us two ghosts, and my move is obviously called right uppercut." Harrick said uneasily.

Claudio snorted and said, "I'm calling the left uppercut, and when I'm done, I'll find Lu Yang to settle the bill."

White Bear Fortress and Diamond Fortress.

"Evil Dragon Army, kill ~!"

"Grab the White Bear Fortress."

“It’s time to grab the diamond.”

At the moment when war was waged here, Harien’s secretary, Viennen, contacted Dubin and said, “The Dragon Army in the southwest region officially declared war on the Double-Headed Eagle Guild and the Diamond Sword Guild. The army immediately attacked the White Bear Fortress and Diamonds. Sword Fortress, by the way, our action plan is called Right Hook Action, not two ghosts shoot the door. “

Although Wei An’s voice is a female voice, she is extremely loud. She can hear clearly in the live broadcast room, and the players in the world can also hear it clearly. For such an instant, the exclamation of players in the world is rising and falling.

“Hurry up and connect the White Bear Fortress and the Diamond Fortress.” Dubin shouted excitedly.

The screen switches. Outside of the White Bear Fortress, Hariken personally led 5 million main force shocks, and above the White Bear Fortress, the number of defensive players was less than 300,000 at a glance.

“One side is the absolute main force, and the other is the reserve. The White Bear Fortress is over.” Dubin said.

As Dubin said, hundreds of spell-casting mages threw their skills onto the walls, and most of the players who defended the city were killed or injured. Harricken boarded the White Bear Fortress without wasting any effort.

Looking at the Diamond Fortress again, 5 million people were led by the first vice-president Strand personally and quickly attacked the walls of the Diamond Fortress.

Tiger mouth fortress outside.

Radvedev and Stephen were frightened and yelled, “Fucking Harriken, the army retreated and quickly returned to the Shadow (Gold) fortress.”

The shadow is the nearest fortress to the White Bear, and the gold is the closest to the diamond. The number of people who block the attack of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, instantly reduces the number of players in Russia, which is equal to half.

As soon as Russia and Stephen's men left, a call was connected again in the live broadcast room, and Natalia said with a loud voice: "The Sun King Association of Southeast Asia officially formed the Book of Truth, the Freedom Corps, the Group of Eight and Heisa The guild is at war, and at the same time we declare that the name of this plan is called the left uppercut action, not the second ghost shoots the door. "

Dubin heard it, and his mouth was closed. Who could have thought that it should be a decisive battle between the nine strongest guilds under the tiger's mouth and the Jagged Brotherhood, but in the end it became the Northeast, Southwest and Southeast The three strongest guilds in the three regions jointly attacked the nine strongest guilds. The main one was the ban on Radvijef, Stephen, Galga, Jerz and other guilds in Lu Yang for five consecutive days. After the bang.

The players of these guilds are in a state of extreme fatigue. In the face of the two strongest groups that have been accumulating power for a long time, they are about to fight hard. turn.

"Retreat, the army quickly flew back to the Shuihe Fortress." Jerz gave the order without hesitation, leaving the Sanyouwei gate standing aside with a cold heart.

Jerz also withdrew, and the 3 million people flanked by the Brotherhood of Iron Blood were completely defensive. He quickly shouted to Olma next to him: "With people retreating, this battle cannot be fought, can Run as much as you want. "

"Why can't you fight?" Olma was eagerly preparing to lead people to the flanks and fight against the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood.

"Stupid." Sanyouweimen scolded: "Gelga and Tom will immediately return with people, and hurried away, especially the catapult, how much can be taken away."

On the court.

Gelgar and Tom also reacted and quickly ordered the army to return to the city to fly to their respective forts to prepare for defense.

The 3 million people of the White Lion originally had a gap of 5 times from the enemy. In the blink of an eye, only the poorly equipped Black Veil Army remained on the field.

“Boss, what should we do?” He Peng asked dumbfounded.

Black gauze was even more dumbfounded. When she encountered this situation, when she didn't know what to do, Xue Yiming, who was with her at the scene, whispered, “Hurry up with people to retreat. Lu Yang's first One goal is for Japanese players and Olma's men. “

“Why?” Heisa said, “We have deeper hatred with Lu Yang.”

“No.” Xue Yiming said with a smile: “The battlefield is playing with money. Lu Yang kills us and we don't make any money. Killing the two of them will make a lot of money. If we grab the trebuchet, we will make more money. . “

Heisha understood and asked quickly: “Where shall we go?”

Xue Yiming said: “Believe me, immediately take your troops back to the front of the Soul Fortress behind the Qingling Plain to the front of the Crescent Fortress. At the same time, send someone to guard the five mountains of Liruma, Silent Ridge, Lingshui River Plain, Dusk Hills and Shalulu Waterfall. In another place, he applied to Claudio for an alliance. He must be willing to let us block Lu Yang's way out for him. “

“Then we didn't use them as guns,” Heins said with a frown.

Xue Yiming sneered said: “If you do n't use them as guns, this guild will be gone. If it wasn't for Claudio attacking three guilds at the same time, you ca n't come here, thinking that you can have the opportunity to occupy these eight Fortress? At least these 8 fortresses and 4 170-level areas can be upgraded to play equipment. “

Heisha came to understand and whispered, "Thank you, I will report to Alice to tell me the news."

Xue Yiming secretly sent a message to Heisha, saying, "I should help, I should acquaint myself with each other, and I would like to invite me for a meal."

The black gauze was touched a bit. For the first time, someone was so good to her. She said, "Okay, I owe it. The army retreated to the deep mountain on the north side of the tiger mouth. Several brothers of He Peng occupied the soul from the heaven and the soul. The eight fortresses between Elbagh and the Eagles hesitate to crescent fortress. "

"Yes." He Peng and others quickly led people to the deep mountains on the north side. Sure enough, the White Lion and Xia Yuwei and others did not pursue, but quickly chased to Sanyouweimen and Orma's legion.

Originally, the two also hoped that the guilds of Roland and Anatoly could help stop them, but when they saw the army dispersed, they quickly ran into the forest of no one and fled with the military back to the city.

Chapter 1599 - Claudio attacking G8

σ? ,,

Seeing this situation, Sanyouweimen said to Orma: "Abandon the slinger, each person throws away one piece of 160-level dark gold equipment."

"Does it work?" Olma asked.

"Trust me," Mitomon said.

"Okay." Olma immediately gave orders. Even if the players were puzzled, managers at all levels looked at them and threw down their equipment.

Sanyou Weimen also ordered the equipment to be thrown away. At a time, 6 million people threw down the dark gold equipment on their bodies, and they were covered with glittering equipment on the road pursued by White Lion and others.

Seeing this scene, the White Lion said to Xia Yuwei not far away, "I can't follow it."

Xia Yuwei said with emotion: "Sanyou Weimen is indeed a smart man, so he must be careful in the future."

Among the 3 million Brotherhood Brothers players, the front row was bewildered by the equipment and rushed to start the rush. The players in the rear heard the shouts of the previous players and stopped chasing. They skipped the first row and rushed to the front to pick them up. The equipment went, and the entire Jagged Brothers League became a mess.

Sanyouweimen looked back at the chaotic Jagged Brothers Alliance sneer and said with a sneer: "If it's not that the formation was too chaotic when I ran away, I can't order my counterattack, otherwise, I must let the Jagged Brothers have a defeat and wait, I lost the second time, but we have more to come."

When Lu Yang took the main team of the Brotherhood of Iron and Blood to catch up with the White Lion and others, he just saw this scene. The White Lion and Xia Yuwei and others came to Lu Yang, and everyone's face was ashamed.

"Sorry boss, we failed." White Lion said.

Lu Yang smiled and said: "I understand the situation here, not surprisingly, our enemies are too strong, so we can train our elites well in the future."

Don't say that the White Lions lead the team. Even if Lu Yang personally led the team, he couldn't help it. He went on to say: "Anyway, we won, let them go and we return."

“Return?” White Lion asked in surprise: “Don’t chase it? If we continue to chase, we will cooperate with the Sun King Guild, and it will be no problem to destroy the two or three central guilds.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Why do you want to destroy the nine strongest guilds? Just kill one of the G8 nations in Galga. I also count on the remaining eight to help me kill Claudio and Ha. Where’s Ruiken. “

“What?” White Lion and others were stunned.

“Don’t be surprised,” Lu Yang snorted, and said, “Harrican and Claudio are not good things either. Seeing what the boss is doing behind it opens up an eye-opener.”

World Channel Lu Yang: In view of the chaos of the current guild level, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood has launched a new guild evaluation template. The Brotherhood of the Iron Blood, the Sun King and the Dragon Army have become the three king-level guilds of the world. Wait for the strongest guild.

World Channel Harikan: Agree, the only king-level guild in the Southwest, the Dragon Dragon Corps.

World Channel Claudio: Yes, the only king-level guild in the southeast region, the Sun King Guild.

Xia Yuwei looked at the news that the two responded quickly, and asked a little at a loss: “What does this mean?”

Lu Yang said, “The war has entered the next stage. From now on, the three strongest guilds in the world are only three of us.”

“But it’s too fancy,” Jiang Ze asked.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “All, I blocked all the channels between us and the enemy. In the future, some of the strongest guilds in the middle will be connected with their territories only the evil dragon legion and the sun king guild. Without us. “

“How is this possible?” Xia Yuwei said, “Should we not fight from the undead fortress in the Spanish region, and attack the ice fortresses, purple lilies, and Longshan orchids in the Galga region?”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “No, these areas have been given up, and the ministry gave it to Claudio.”

“Why?” Xia Yuwei couldn’t understand it. Seeing that the vast territory was about to be reached, and players from hundreds of millions of countries would enter their control. The Brotherhood of Iron and Blood would earn huge profits from now on. Claudio, she disagrees.

Lu Yang said there were no outsiders at the left and right, and he said to Xia Yuwei and White Lion, “We just see the benefits, not the chaos in the G8 region.”

“Chaos?” Everyone was puzzled.

Lu Yang said: “How long did the G8 fight with us, how much hatred, can killing a G8 guild make them surrender? If we occupy, even if Galga they completely withdraw from the game, but There are also successors, who will always encourage players to fight with us. In this case, why not give this trouble to Claudio? We thought that the vast area of the Group of Eight was gold inlaid, but in fact it was a huge trap. “If you go, you have to be trapped. I bet that Claudio occupied the G8 area. Not only did he not make any money, he also lost a lot of money.”

The Group of Eight, mainly composed of players from eight countries, and a large number of idle players in other countries. During this year’s war, players in the Group of Eight countries hated players in the Huaxia region. Once Lu Yang occupied it, he faced Right, there will be endless revenge. Just to keep the fortress, a lot of manpower and material resources will be required. This is also worrying that the players from the eight countries and Claudio formed an alliance to attack the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood. Even if Claudio does not send people to attack, It’s absolutely inappropriate for Lu Yang to give equipment to support their sneak attack In this case, it is better to switch to Claudio’s Argentine occupation. Then, the players of the G8 region were caused by the failure of Gellga. The anger will be vented to the six Argentine nations. Claudio will have to exhaust himself for this. Lu Yang waits for them to vent enough. The G8 people have no intention to toss any more. He goes out and kills Claudio. Let the players in the G8 region thank him.

Why not do it?

Xia Yuwei, the White Lion, and others looked at Lu Yang in astonishment. They did not expect this at all. Xia Yuwei said, "It is indeed the boss, it is amazing."

White lions and bitter lovers nodded.

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Let's make a badass, and quickly take someone with me to India, the White Lion and Jiang Ze to take the headquarters to the Flame Fortress, attack the Frost Fortress, Xia Yuwei and Tian Yao go to the Ascetic Fortress, jointly attack the Cold Wind Fortress, bitter Love half a lifetime and the breeze of spirits to bless the fortress and jointly attack the thundering fortress. "

"Yes." The crowd answered in unison, the things in the field were almost picked up, and the players who robbed each other were stopped by their respective captains. They heard that there were still battles to fight, and they could make money. They followed their respective vice presidents. Fly to the fortress of flames, penance and blessings in the Indian region.

Chapter 1600 - Daniel and others fled to Steige lightly

σ? ,,

Take a break in the fortress, allowing many players to put the items they stole into the bank, the army regrouped, and headed towards the northeast corner area controlled by India's richest man Slov.

In order to avoid trouble, Lu Yang did not allow Indian players to participate in the battle this time. This battle is not easy to fight. In front of players in other countries, kill people in their country. Once they arouse the feelings of their fellow citizens, a curse or a When the arrows fall from the Indian Alliance to Huaxia players, it is easy to cause a scuffle between the two sides.

Xia Yuwei asked, "Boss, why aren't you afraid of South Korea?"

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Teach a trick. Korean players have a special character and prefer civil wars. This is very similar to the character of Chinese people. If they encounter such a thing in the future, Korean players will try their best to let them fight civil war in India. Try to be as calm as possible. "

Xia Yuwei nodded clearly.

Lu Yang took out the phone and called Claudio, saying, "Brother, there is a sudden riot in my Indian region. I need to take the main force to fight the rebellion, otherwise it will be more prone to chaos. I can't fight anymore, sorry. "

Claudio is now leading the team to attack the area of Galga. The reason is that when he conflicts with Lu Yang, his main force is. First, he is not afraid of things, but he can relax on both sides. Fight on both sides.

He was worried that Lu Yang would send out the undead bird and the Red Wolf fortress, and seize the opportunity to seize the area of Galga. You must know that the G8 of the Garga is a very rich area, especially the British player area, is the richest. It is also the closest to Lu Yang.

Now Lu Yang gave up, Claudio was fainted by his interests, and he laughed excitedly: "Then the busy civil war, I'll fight first, but we both say okay, if I occupy the Eight Kingdoms Group area, you are not allowed to hit me. "

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Where is this? What am I doing? The three of us and Harriken have formed the strongest alliance. No matter what the situation is, the three of us will be unanimous."

"Okay, let's unify the outside world," Claudio Haha said with a laugh.

He believes that Lu Yang can't really come out now, because if Lu Yang thinks about it, sending 1 million people can lay the three fortresses of Bingchen, Purple Lily and Longshan Orchid.

The reason why it does not come out is that on the one hand, the Brotherhood of the Jagged Brothers was really attacked by Indian Slovakia; on the other hand, the Brotherhood of the Brotherhood was too tired and needed to rest.

Claudio hung up the phone and shouted with enthusiasm from his opponent: "Military attack, I want to sweep Gelga and Daniel's G8 to wipe them out completely."

The main force of the 5 million Sun King Guild, at the same time, launched a war against five fortresses of the Group of Eight, and the Group of Eight experienced five days of curse bombing. The level of players above 160 has now been reduced to about 160, the highest is only 162 Grade, could not stand 20 deaths.

Before everyone thought that Lu Yang was crazy, he sent 400,000 forbidden mages to give Galga and Sanyoumen their equipment, but they didn't know that Lu Yang's actual purpose was to consume the level of G8 players.

Inside a fortress of the Group of Eight, Daniel looked dimly at the Blood Butcher and Kerem and others, saying, "We're done."

"It's all over, now that we're talking this kind of frustration, we have to fight with Claudio." Gerga said excitedly.

Daniel grinned and asked: "How long can we fight, after today's battle, all of our main force levels will fall below level 160, we can't even wear the dark gold equipment of level 160, what to take and Crow Dior's elite fight? "

Gelgar stood in stunned place, and he also reacted, only to know what the specific intention of Lu Yang's bombing of them with the forbidden spell these five days.

"Then what do we do now?" The Blood Butcher asked.

Daniel was speechless. What they were facing was an end that was annihilated by Claudio, and Claudio would not even give them a chance to surrender, not to mention that they were not willing to surrender.

When the eight presidents of the Group of Eight did not know what to do, on the other side, Alice also panicked, and the guild survival problem was solved with the black yarn, but her biggest backer was Daniel. Without Daniel She couldn't imagine how her guild would be bullied.

“No, I have to find a way to merge Daniel into my guild, yes, merge Daniel.” Alice seemed to catch the last straw, and looked at Xue Yiming excitedly.

Xue Yiming shook his head with a smile and said, “No, if you merge Daniel or Blood Slayer into any of them, it will touch Lu Yang’s nerve, and he will die and even die. The Indian region is irrelevant. It will be destroyed first. “ “Why?” Alice asked puzzledly.

Xue Yiming said: “Because Zhou Tianming, the G8 and the conspirator injured Zhou Tianming together. Although he was not dead, he also walked around the gate of the ghost door. The bullet is 1 cm away from the heart. He will not allow the G8 to exist This area. “

“What then? Without Daniel, how can my guild live?” Alice cried.

Xue Yiming patted Alice’s shoulder lightly and had to admit that this woman was so attractive that crying made people feel sorry for her.

“I have a way to keep the G8 and split them apart.” Xue Yiming said.

“How?” Alice asked in surprise.

Xue Yiming smiled and said, “In the final analysis, except for Galga, this matter has little to do with the rest of us. It is better to let Daniel and some of them part ways with Galga.”

“Don’t they die faster if they’re separated,” Alice asked frowning.

Xue Yiming shook his head and said: “This is a deadly game. Lu Yang’s game was too aggressive. There is no way to solve it. The only way to keep Daniel them alive is to let Daniel surrender Steiger.”

“Steig?” Alice felt Xue Yiming’s brain was too big, and she could not keep up with the speed of change for a while, and asked, “Why Steig?”

Xue Yiming said: “The first point is to prepare for our retreat in the future. A few days later, Ralbagh will be Claudio’s place to the west of the Tenjin Fortress, and to the east of us, Lu Yang will occupy Qing again. At all the fortresses east of the Ling Plain, we are tucked into two king-level guilds, the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood and the King of the Sun. Do you think we can live too long? “

Alice shook her head with a serious expression, and said, “I am afraid that at that time, our players will actively leave our guild because they are afraid of the Brotherhood of the Iron Blood and the Sun King Guild. “

Xue Yiming said: “That’s right. The result is doomed. We might as well think of a solution in advance. The battle between Steiger and Liu Jie doesn’t occupy too many advantages. After all, Liu Jie’s African legion is large, strong, and Having occupied the area for so long, it is difficult for Steige to grab it back. If they had Daniel and Blood Butcher, they would be different, right? “

Alice understood it and said with a smile: “We can form a united guild with Daniel and then merge together into the guild of Steiger. In this way, we are also the king guild.”

Xue Yiming went on to say, “Is it time to be able to become the chairman of the management committee or the main vice chairman of this merger guild?”

“That makes sense.” Alice fully understood, and she immediately called Daniel to explain the situation.

Daniel was unable to find a way out. He heard that the blood butcher, Kerim, Richard and others were secretly contacted. At first, some of them did not want to cooperate with him because of Galga’s identity. Now he has this opportunity. Several people just found a way to get rid of him.

At the moment, seven people, including Daniel and Kerim, made a decision at the same time and agreed to Alice’s request. When Alice got a response, she called Steig immediately and said, “I hope we can merge and form one. Kings Guild. “

The battle between Steiger and Liu Jie was extremely unsuccessful. Originally, they had captured the Egyptian region of Tolemy. However, in the subsequent wars, Liu Jie took the main force to participate in the battle, and led by Ru Taishan to fight against them. After a few hard battles, neither side took much advantage, and it was deadlocked.

But this deadlock is not good for Steiger. For more than a week, Steiger's capital chain is in danger of breaking. He must lay more fortresses in the hands of Liu Jie to attract more. Many people have invested in him, and through the vast area, more players can come to him to upgrade and fight against monsters, so that his guild can survive for a long time.

Just as Steig was thinking about how to find more strength to help him, Alice's words were like sending charcoal in the snow, and he said immediately: "We can sign an agreement to form a federation, but only if we don't want Gerga."

"Rest assured, Daniel, they have severed their relationship with Galgar," Alice said.

"You can also talk about cooperation," Steiger said.

"Thank you, I'll discuss with them how to get to the area." Alice hung up the phone and called Daniel.

Soon, Daniel and the blood butchers discussed the results, quickly gathered their players, abandoned Gelga, and ran towards the area where Japan was.

This time they can take away only the most elite players who are with them. The average person has only between 200,000 and 300,000 people. They are not told to run, but to perform tasks. As for the rest of the guild, more than 10 million ordinary players were thrown away by them.
