

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 159

Hearing this, Zoey Gu's body stiffened suddenly, and he suddenly turned sideways to look at Liam Lu.

She could vaguely guess.

He was using the same method just now to eliminate the old lady who stayed with him.

But she still couldn't tell from his attitude whether she was going or staying?

This man...

Facing her obviously cold and unhappy look, Liam Lu's thin lips twitched, walked slowly to her side and squatted down, his slender fingers provoked her chin and laughed inexplicably.

"Well, I've played it just now. It's not fun, throw it to Xiaolan's room downstairs, I want to play slowly."

"Yes."

Zoey Gu was temporarily locked up.

Said it was closed, but the door was not locked, only a man was left outside. Every time Zoey opened the door furiously, he could always see an expressionless face.

She didn't know why Liam Lu wanted to do this, but she knew that she was worried and angry, and her whole body became more restless.

Until the early morning of the next day, there was a door slamming outside.

"June! Come out in June!"

Hearing the chef calling her, Zoey Gu jumped up from the bed, and rushed towards the door like a gust of wind.

Opening the door, the chef was standing outside with a panic face, and when he saw her he couldn't help but pulled her back and turned away.

"Hurry up! Xiaolan is not here, you will take over all her affairs. The Second Young Master hates people who are late and snub him the most!"

Zoey Gu was dragged along, but he still didn't react.

"Then who was guarding outside my room last night?"

The chef pulled her past the living room, pointing his finger at the shards and glass residues that had filled the living room, and said without looking back.

“The man answered the phone in the middle of the night and went out temporarily. When he came back, he was accidentally hit by the chandelier in the living room, and he was sent to the hospital with a bloody head.”

Zoey Gu: “...”

How does she feel that this is not like an accident, but more artificial?

Xiaolan was disassembled and packaged to the old lady. The person in charge of her was accidentally sent to the hospital. When the new person came, she was already Liam Lu’s personal maid.

It makes sense.

Zoey Gu subconsciously raised his head and glanced at a room upstairs.

Could it be...

The chef next to him handed Zoey Gu a tray full of breakfast. Before leaving, he did not forget to whisper to her.

“After going up, be smarter, the young master has always had a bad temper. He started to get sick again this morning. Please pay attention.”

Hearing this, Zoey Gu’s face changed, and his heart sank suddenly, turning around and going upstairs without looking back.

Walking quickly to the outside of Liam Lu’s room, she pushed the door and walked in without knocking.

“land...”

As soon as his lips opened, a tall and leaning figure instantly rushed towards her, pushing her hard against the door.

Zoey Gu was caught off guard, shaking his hand and the tray suddenly fell to the ground.

Snapped.

The man stuck her waist and lifted her up, lowered his head to find her lips, and pressed down aggressively.

“Still angry?”

He raised his hand to catch her face, looked at her with a smile, lowered his head and gently pecked her lips.

“Don’t want to stay? I don’t try to get the old lady’s people away, how can you make sense?”

He was explaining why she was shut down.

A simple sentence almost instantly dissipated Zoey Gu’s anger all night.

She pursed her lips, and just turned her head to talk, the man had already looked into her eyes deeply and bowed his head and k!ssed it.

Zoey Gu tilted her head, and the man’s unusually hot k!ss landed on her neck.

“Liam Lu, can you be more serious? Let me look at your face first!”

She pressed against him hard, reached out and took his face to look.

The blue veins on one side of Jun’s face were violently violently filled with blood, and he really fell ill again!

Only this time...
