

Chapter 1591: Explosion

This brought out the responsibility and mission of a reporter.

Shen Fanxing sneered, "Say that again. Who are you seeking justice for?"

For some reason, the reporter felt fearful of Shen Fanxing's words.

"You... even if it's not for anyone, you should clarify yourself, right? The comments online about you are very bad..."

The reporters restrained themselves and the pressure emanating from Shen Fanxing made them wary.

Hearing this, Shen Fanxing smiled faintly.

"Who said I didn't clarify?"

The reporters were dumbfounded.

Clarify?

When had it been clarified?

"So... don't waste my time with your stupidity."

There was no need for Shen Fanxing to be nice to these reporters who were being used.

They had already given them a lot of time today.

Shen Fanxing's voice was cold. The bodyguards escorted her into the district.

A servant alighted from the car and jogged after her.

When they saw the reporters, they were indignant.

"You're so stupid to believe that old witch's words! You've been fooled by her. How hateful and ridiculous!"

The reporters: "... "..."

What was going on?

They were tricked by that old witch?

"What happened? Did the old servant lie?"

The reporters were puzzled, but the servants stopped responding to them. They glared at them angrily and followed the bodyguards into the apartment.

The reporters were left staring at each other in confusion.

"What exactly happened?"

"Clarify? When did she clarify?"

There were only a few news media outlets in Ping Cheng City. Almost every magazine agency had someone guarding them.

Since she had already clarified, none of them had received news of her clarification.

When was the clarification?

While feeling puzzled, someone reacted and took out his phone to browse the latest news.

At first, there was no news online. However, a few minutes after they held their phones, a trending topic appeared out of nowhere.

The topic occupied the most prominent position under the trending topics.

The Truth About the Bo Family's Servants Leaving Together

The person who started the topic was the magazine agency that Shen Fanxing had given him.

Opening the topic, the first post had nearly 50,000 replies.

Moreover, the post lasted less than ten minutes.

The title of the post was also concise. It was the title of the trending topic.

In addition, there was a clear color video.

In the video, Mother Chen was sitting on the balcony with her legs crossed, eating fruits.

She looked like she had some power and authority. She was as ugly as she could be.

She even ordered the servant to come forward and kick the servant's leg, making her kneel and wipe the floor. She even deliberately threw the apple remnants on the ground for the servant to clean. Just looking at her made one gnash their teeth.

There was even—

"I have the final say in this family! You'd better behave yourselves and be obedient. Otherwise, get lost!"

"... The soles of your shoes are dirty. Wash them clean!"

"... If you want to stay here, you better behave yourself! Otherwise, you can go wherever you want! You still want to complain to Old Master? Why don't you try? Let's see if Old Master trusts you or me."

"Do you think you can quit just because you want to? Do you think the contract you signed here is for show? It's fine if you don't want to do it. You can leave after paying the double penalty fee!"

Mother Chen's every word and expression could be seen clearly in the video.

The comments below were all complaints and curses about Mother Chen's actions.

"This old witch deserves to be hacked into pieces!"

"She thought she was wronged in front of the media just now! Damn b*tch! She lied to me!"

“F*ck! I’m so angry that I want to curse! This is a f*cking white lotus and green tea!”

“What a piece of trash! The Bo family actually let such a shameless person be their butler. Are you blind? How many years has it been since I saw this old thing?!”

“She’s even more f*cking hateful than the toothbrushes in ancient times! This damned witch, she’s the one who calls the shots in the Bo family now! F*ck! We don’t even know if the old master’s son and daughter-in-law are dead or alive! The old lady is still around, right? If she’s not remarried, could she be taking in a concubine? What a f*cking rich person!”

“To be interested in such trash, there’s most likely something wrong with her eyes.”

“Isn’t that so? First, he doesn’t like his daughter-in-law. Now, he doesn’t like CEO Shen! Instead, he stubbornly wants his biological grandson to marry the eldest daughter of the Yuan family! Old Master Bo’s gaze is really amazing!”

“If the Bo family can continue to hire this old b*tch, I’ll call on my grandparents to refuse to touch anything from the Bo family.”

“You can’t judge a book by its cover. Who knows what will happen next!”

“Good job! Be gentle! I can cripple her if you want me to! I don’t think I’ll let her have the chance to continue causing trouble in front of the media!”

“She has so much power. She didn’t listen to her and got someone to pack up and scam. She even threatened the servants not to complain to Old Master... Don’t hold me down. I want to kill this old witch!”

“I knew it. How could CEO Shen take away those servants for no reason? So that’s the truth!”

“It’s great that CEO Shen appeared in time. I felt so relieved when I saw her abusing Mother Chen!”

...

There were many similar comments. There were even many unbearable words. Almost all the vicious words were used.

The onlookers felt relieved as they watched.

There was nothing better than eating Shen Fanxing’s melons.

In less than 15 minutes, the topic had exploded.

This was because the entire incident, from the start to the process, to Mother Chen’s “explanation” of the situation, to the huge reversal, only happened in an afternoon.

To be precise, it was less than three hours.

The tempo was too fast and dramatic. The rapid reversal of the situation affected everyone’s emotions.

As a result, her emotions had reached its peak!

Everyone in the mainstream magazines in Ping Cheng City was excited.

The reporter who had been “blessed” by Shen Fanxing was still in a daze as she stared at the soaring figures online.

He was still holding the USB drive that Shen Fanxing had given him. Although his gaze was fixed on the computer screen, the advice that Shen Fanxing had given him kept replaying in his mind.

“—Don’t be in a hurry to announce it. You need to wait a while... If you insist and can’t wait to announce it, trust me, the consequences will definitely be like a stone sinking into the sea... How to maximize its value will depend on your judgment...”

She wanted him to wait, so she wanted him to wait for the Bo Consortium’s press conference?

She had already expected this press conference...

Chapter 1592: Serves You Right!

She had already expected this press conference...

Seriously...

She had to admire him.

In the past, from a male’s point of view, he felt that there must be a man with a powerful background helping her.

Otherwise, she wouldn’t have been able to turn the tables so easily.

Until her relationship with the young master of the Bo family was exposed, he believed that everything he thought was true.

All of this was because the young master of the Bo family had secretly helped her.

But today, he had overturned everything he had believed in.

This woman was really smart.

It wasn’t that others couldn’t think of what she could think of. It was just that she would always be the first to be thought of by others and they would think of an accurate solution.

Actually, thinking about it carefully, she had always been like this. She thought of all the possibilities and planned ahead. She was always in a state of anticipation.

If he thought about it now, the Bo Consortium would definitely step forward to clarify the matter.

After all, the Bo family cared about their reputation, and the Bo Consortium wouldn’t allow any unimportant matters to affect the company’s interests.

The reason why they were inferior to Shen Fanxing was because they had to take things one step at a time. At most, they would deal with whatever came their way.

As for Shen Fanxing, she had already prepared a fatal blow against them.

The USB drive she had given him was.

Moreover, he felt that this old servant must have offended her in the past, to the extent that she...

He had to force her into a corner.

“Not bad, Little Wang. When you were arguing with the deputy editor-in-chief just now, we thought that you would definitely be fired! You’re really bold! If someone else were to get the news first, the deputy editor-in-chief would definitely blow up our magazine agency!

“That’s right! Also, if we had listened to the deputy chief editor and posted this news immediately, the effect wouldn’t have been as explosive as now! It’s really the best time!”

“This timing is simply too good. Xiao Wang, remember to treat us to a meal after the bonus is distributed this month!”

Xiao Wang (Yes, the person on the 18th Route doesn’t deserve a name) smiled. Even now, she was still a little confused.

The number of views online was still increasing. The speed was shocking.

Shen Fanxing was the apple of the media’s eye.

She couldn’t imagine how boring the entire Ping Cheng City would be without her.

Not long after Shen Fanxing approached the entrance, she stopped and turned to the servant behind her.

“I don’t lack people here for the time being. Auntie Zhang is at Grand View Manor. You guys can go there later.”

The servants weren’t familiar with Grand View Manor, but when they heard that Aunt Zhang was there, they couldn’t help but feel happy.

“Thank you, Madam, for helping us. I saw what those people said online when I was in the car just now. If you need to clarify... We’re all involved and can testify collectively... Madam Chen’s words are all flattery. We can also explain the situation clearly...”

Shen Fanxing smiled and raised an eyebrow.

“It’s fine. I’m sure everyone knows by now.”

The servants looked at each other, not understanding what Shen Fanxing meant.

However, they didn’t ask. After all, they had been servants for a long time. It had become an unwritten rule not to deliberately inquire about their employer’s family.

Shen Fanxing went upstairs and arranged for the bodyguards to bring a few servants to Grand View Manor.

The servants got into the car with doubts. When they took out their phones and saw the trending topic, they suddenly screamed.

“Ahhh! There are videos online! This is when Mother Chen bullied us today!”

“Yes, yes! This is from the surveillance camera, right?”

“It’s so clear! I think I hit Mother Chen too lightly! I should be more ruthless!”

“The internet has already scolded Mother Chen badly! She deserves it! She’s an old and disrespectful old witch! She’s evil to the extreme! Let’s see who Old Master will believe this time!”

After the press conference, Madam Chen went to the Bo residence with Bo Yuelin.

After the press conference, Madam Chen went online to take a look.

Seeing how some people were scolding Shen Fanxing online, she was even happier.

Serves him right!

She would show off in front of her again!

He took the servant away and bullied her like that!

This was her retribution.

She was in a good mood.

Since the servants were gone, she could hire more. After all, the Bo family’s salary was very high. Some people would probably fight to enter the Bo family!

However, she never expected that in the short time she was on the way home, the situation had changed.

Bo Yuelin did not put on airs and allowed her to sit in the same car as him.

Seeing that Madam Chen seemed to be in a good mood, he pursed his lips lightly.

“I’ve already gotten someone to arrange for the servants to stay at your house. After you go back, you can take the assessment and leave a few capable ones behind to facilitate your management. I’ll have to trouble you with some private matters in the Bo residence in the future.”

You’ve suffered today. How about this? Since you’ve worked hard for the Bo family for so many years, I’ll increase your salary.”

When Mother Chen heard that, she forced a smile.

“Thank you, Second Master. It’s what I should do. Miss Shen even said today that she would give those brats 10,000 yuan a month... I’ve been in the Bo family for so many years, but my salary has never exceeded theirs... 10,000 yuan is almost as much as mine...”

Even the driver felt goosebumps all over his body.

It was obvious that she wanted to tell Second Master that she wanted to increase her salary by double. Seriously...

Whether they were Second Master's chauffeurs or assistants, they didn't receive a salary of tens of thousands a month.

What an ungrateful old thing.

Bo Yuelin smiled faintly and said, "Then I'll double it for you this time. It's what I should do..."

This time, Madam Chen ignored the pain on her face and smiled brightly.

"Thank you, Second Master, thank you..."

"This Miss Shen is too much. No matter how close she is to Young Master, she can't just barge into the Bo residence. She even took all the servants away to make Old Master angry... Young Master, why do you have to be so devoted to this woman..."

Bo Yuelin smiled faintly, but there was coldness and impatience in his eyes.

It was past four o'clock when they arrived at the Bo residence. The winter evening had already begun to darken.

Madam Chen followed Bo Yuelin's instructions and hurried to see the servants he had arranged. She planned to choose a few to prepare dinner.

However, just as she entered the living room, she saw a pair of suitcases piled at the door. More than ten people stood in the huge living room with their hands crossed in front of them. Their heads were lowered and they didn't say a word.

Old Master Bo sat on the sofa with his hands on his walking stick, his face ashen.

Chapter 1593: Appreciation?

Old Master Bo sat on the sofa with both hands on his walking stick. His face was ashen.

Seeing this, Mother Chen's happy mood instantly sank.

Even the smile on her face became unnatural.

After being stunned for a long time, she reacted and hurried forward to criticize the servants.

"What's going on? Why is the servant here? Come, follow me to the back..."

When the servants saw her, their expressions changed drastically.

There was fear, disdain, anger, disdain, disgust...

Their expressions varied.

Seeing their expressions, Mother Chen was instantly enraged and her face turned cold.

"Hey, didn't you hear what I said? Don't you have ears? The servant is in the backyard. Hurry up and go!"

Her tone was impatient and her words sounded harsh.

The servants pursed their lips. "We don't intend to do it here! We're here to greet the family. After saying that, we're leaving!"

A servant spoke first and didn't give Madam Chen a good look.

Madam Chen's face darkened. "You don't intend to do it here? Why did you come here in the first place?"

"Of course we planned to work here in the beginning, but who knew that you were such a person? We would rather earn less every month than be bullied by you every day!"

Someone spoke again and couldn't help but roll his eyes.

This time, Madam Chen's voice turned cold. "What do you mean by bullying? I've already clarified everything in front of the reporters, yet you're still causing trouble for me? If you don't want to do it, scram... Leave. With your attitude, it seems like you won't be disciplined in the future..."

At first, her words were a little careless. But when she thought of the old man sitting in the living room, she changed her words.

"Old Master, I don't think these servants are sincere. Why don't we let them go? We can find someone else..."

"I'm the one sitting here today and you're speaking to me with such an attitude. If I'm not around, will you become worse?"

The old man, who had been silent all this while, suddenly spoke in a deep voice. He sat there without moving his eyelids.

Madam Chen paused, feeling a little nervous.

"Of course not, Old Master. As long as they do their jobs well, I won't make things difficult for them."

"Is that so?" Old Master said coldly.

However, when the servants heard Mother Chen's words, some of them couldn't help but sneer.

She looked up and said to the old man,

"Old Master, we've already made it clear. This is the money we earn. We're not afraid of anyone controlling us, but Madam Chen... forgive us for not daring to work under her. Instead of being bullied and chased out by her in the future, why don't we not start now? I'm really sorry for troubling you today."

Someone took the lead and bowed to Old Master Bo before leaving.

Madam Chen was infuriated by the servants' words and attitude.

She glared at them angrily. "You don't dare to work under me? What do you mean?"

The servants ignored her and tried their best to avoid her.

“Wait a moment.”

Old Master suddenly called out to the servants.

She raised her head and looked straight at Madam Chen.

His gaze was cold. Although Old Master wasn't usually that friendly with others, it was rare for him to treat her so coldly.

“Madam Chen, I trust you the most.”

Madam Chen nodded repeatedly. “Yes, I've always been grateful for Old Master's kindness and appreciation.”

The old man sneered. “...Appreciation?”

Old Master's sneer made Mother Chen's scalp tingle.

She looked at the old man carefully. The emotions in his eyes were cold and filled with sarcasm.

After a long while, he sighed and closed his eyes, shaking his head repeatedly.

“Appreciation? Hehe... In everyone's ears, this word will only make me seem even more stupid! I have eyes but can't see to let an arrogant and obsequious person like you stay by my side for decades!”

Mother Chen's mind went blank.

Even Bo Yuelin, who had entered from behind, froze on the spot.

“What happened?”

Bo Yuelin's words snapped Madam Chen back to her senses.

“Yes, Old Master, did I... do something wrong? I've already made myself clear at the press conference just now. I shouldn't... have said anything wrong...”

She paused and suddenly saw a few servants standing beside her. Her eyes were filled with hatred and she suddenly said sternly,

“Tell me! Did you gossip in front of the Old Master? What did I do to offend you? Why are you looking for trouble with me the moment you arrive?!... Oh, your motive is so obvious. Did you take someone else's money to deliberately defame me?”

The servants' eyes almost rolled into the sky!

All of them looked at her in disdain. “Who wants to defame you on purpose? Do you still need others to defame you? You still have the cheek to appear in front of the media to defend yourself. Don't you find it embarrassing? You've long been in such a state. Do you think you're an impressive big shot? You still want others to defame you on purpose?”

In reality, she was Shen Fanxing's loyal fan.

Madam Chen had no idea what she was referring to. She only felt that the situation was extremely disadvantageous for her. She quickly took two steps towards the old man and said earnestly, “Old Master, don’t be affected by their words. I’ve served you for so many years. Don’t you know what kind of person I am? Everything was fine in the past, but today... they must have been bribed by Shen Fanxing!

Not only did she take away all the servants in our house, she even arranged for someone to continue to annoy you. That’s too much...”

“So you were bribed by her too?”

Madam Chen was stunned. “What?”

The old man pursed his lips and picked up the remote control to continue playing the television.

In the interview, Madam Chen’s face was unrecognizable and she was crying.

Even after the press conference ended, Madam Chen still had no idea what went wrong.

But in the next second, the image on the television suddenly changed to another video.

It started with the scene of her eating fruits on the balcony in the afternoon.

With that one glance, Mother Chen’s eyes widened and her face turned pale.

Chapter 1594: Fan Girl

With that one glance, Mother Chen’s eyes widened and her face turned pale.

Her legs were trembling.

After that, she forced the servants to kneel and even threatened them to scam.

That scene and the quality of the painting was like a super member’s 1080P HD. Every expression and every sentence was obvious.

In the end, Madam Chen threw the apple residue on the ground and forced the servants to clean it up. She even threatened them to brush her shoes.

Madam Chen bent her legs and collapsed to the ground.

From the moment Old Master Bo turned on the television, he had turned his head to the side. He wanted to ignore it, but when the sound reached his ears, he was so angry that he was out of breath. The veins on his forehead throbbed.

Hearing the commotion, he looked coldly at Madam Chen, who was sitting on the ground.

“Why? Could it be that you were bribed by that woman and cooperated with her?”

“I...”

Mother Chen’s lips trembled and her mind was in a mess, but she didn’t know what to say.

“Mother Chen... Is this how you’ve been by my side for decades? You’re saying that I understand you? Are you treating me like a fool?!”

“No, Master, I didn’t...”

“How do you explain the video?!” The old man shouted angrily as he banged his walking stick.

Madam Chen clenched her shoulders in fear and closed her eyes. Her body trembled along with the old man’s angry shout and the sound of his walking stick.

“Master, I just want them to be obedient and work hard. In the past, they were used to Auntie Zhang’s management. It’s too difficult to discipline them...”

“Then what do you think they’re like? To make them bow down to you and be your servants to brush your shoes every day?!”

Old Master’s voice shook the sky, scaring Mother Chen to tears.

“No, Master...”

“Mother Chen! They’re all employees hired by the Bo family to take care of us! We don’t even dare to say that we’re treating them like slaves. You... They’re all children that others dote on! How shameless are you to do that to them?!”

Shen Fanxing was right about one thing. You’re even more vicious than the women in ancient houses! You still... have the cheek to complain in front of the reporters? What’s there to be aggrieved about?! Go and see how those people outside judge you! You’re simply shameless!

The old man was probably so angry that his angry roar sounded like it was going to explode.

He panted as he stared at Madam Chen with bloodshot eyes. Other than anger, his face was filled with endless disappointment.

“You’ve made me a joke in the eyes of others again! First, there’s Yuan Sichun, and then there’s you! You’re really capable. Do you know how much the company has lost in just half an hour because of you?!”

“There was a time when I didn’t understand why Madam didn’t like you. Now, I finally understand. I was blind and misjudged you. It’s been decades, but I haven’t even figured out who the people around me are. I still have to trust and protect them...”

As the old man spoke, he smiled bitterly.

What was going on?

The grandson he was most proud of had been bewitched by a woman.

Her eldest son had even relinquished his power for his woman!

The old woman had refused to live with him for many years.

Even the eldest daughter of the Yuan family, whom he had watched grow up, was an unsightly person.

Now, there was another Mrs. Chen who had been by his side for decades...

The person closest to him!

The person he trusted the most...

All of them had betrayed him!

After venting all his anger, he calmed down.

The few young servants who came to apply for the job didn't expect to experience this personally. They hid at the side in fear and didn't say a word.

The living room was silent, and Mother Chen's sobs sounded even more piercing.

After a long while, the old man took a deep breath and exhaled heavily.

"Go, go! The Bo family can't tolerate you."

When Mother Chen heard that, she stopped crying and was stunned for a moment. She hurriedly crawled to Old Master.

She hugged the old man's thigh and wailed.

"Old Master, I know I've done something wrong. I'll change, I'll definitely change! Please give me another chance. On account of the fact that I've served you loyally for so many years, I really have no disloyalty to the Bo family. Old Master, I can guarantee this..."

Second Master had just promised to double her salary on the road, but before she could really taste the sweetness, she was about to lose her job. How could she...

"I don't need your guarantee! Back then, Lou Ruoyi chased you away. I've already given you a chance when you found Yuan Sichun! This matter has severely affected the Bo family's reputation and the company's interests. I don't want to see you again! Leaving you behind will only cause trouble for myself! You'd better stay out of my sight and never appear in front of me again!"

Madam Chen's eyes widened in fear as she hugged Old Master's leg tightly and shook it vigorously.

"Old Master, please, give me another chance..."

Mother Chen's heart-wrenching cries were deafening. Not only was Old Master angry and disappointed, but his head was also buzzing from Mother Chen's voice.

His lips trembled as he roared impatiently.

"Get lost!"

His voice was so loud that it could split the entire villa in half.

Madam Chen shuddered and stopped crying.

"... Old Master, I really don't have any feelings for you. I've worked for the Bo family for so many years and have long treated the Bo family as my home. Now... where do you want me to go..."

"..." Old Master Bo remained silent.

Seeing this, the servant guessed that the old man's heart would soften on account of their decades of relationship.

Hence, she quickly said,

“You treat the Bo family as your home, but aren’t the other servants too? Back then, when you bullied those people, didn’t you take advantage of the fact that they had left the Bo family and didn’t have a more suitable place to go? Now that you’re afraid, do you know how sad and helpless they were when you bullied them and threatened them to pack up and leave?”

Madam Chen looked over with a cold and hateful gaze. It was that girl again!

The girl who spoke seemed to be frightened by Mother Chen’s gaze and hid behind her companion.

She looked absolutely terrified. “I... I’m just telling the truth... Why are you so fierce? It’s as if you want to eat me...”

The girl’s words made Old Master Bo notice the hatred in Madam Chen’s eyes. His softened heart hardened again.

He pushed Mother Chen aside and shouted angrily,

“Leave now! Immediately!”

Chapter 1595: Bad People Have No Regrets

She looked absolutely terrified. “I... I’m just telling the truth... Why are you so fierce? It’s as if you want to eat me...”

The girl’s words made Old Master Bo notice the hatred in Madam Chen’s eyes. His softened heart hardened again.

He pushed Mother Chen aside and shouted angrily,

“Leave now! Immediately!”

The viciousness in Madam Chen’s eyes instantly turned into grievance and pleading.

“Old Master, Old Master! Give me one last chance... I swear I’ll change. I’ll change everything that’s wrong. Just let me stay...”

The old man closed his eyes and the muscles on both sides of his face tightened. His anger did not decrease.

“... Someone, chase her out!”

When the guards outside the door heard the commotion, they immediately walked in.

She picked up Madam Chen and dragged her out.

Madam Chen collapsed to the ground like a rascal, her entire body rejecting him.

“Old Master... you can’t be so heartless. I’m loyal to the Bo family...”

In the end, Madam Chen was dragged out of the living room. Her voice drifted into the courtyard and gradually disappeared.

The servant who had just hidden stood up, her eyes filled with smugness.

The goddess would definitely not hate someone for no reason. Since she had spent so much effort to deal with a servant, this servant was definitely unforgivable.

However, in reality, this old witch was indeed not a good person.

Silence returned to the living room, and the sky outside darkened completely.

“... The few of you can stay. In the future, you can do the work in the residence.”

After a long while, the old man said slowly.

She exuded a sense of exhaustion.

With that, he stood up, his body swaying slightly.

“I have no appetite, so I won’t be having dinner. You guys can have it yourselves.”

With that, he walked up the stairs silently.

Bo Yuelin’s gaze was fixed on the television screen. The news had already switched to the scene of Shen Fanxing being blocked at the entrance of the apartment.

Her calm attitude made it seem like she wasn’t surprised at all that she was blocked at the entrance of the apartment.

In fact, ever since he started paying attention to her, he had never seen her panic in front of the media.

This woman...

Was she used to being calm and collected, or had she guessed that she would be blocked by the reporters?

Or perhaps...

Knowing that those reporters were actually his doing?

Or did she have other guesses?

He narrowed his eyes and the expression on his face was indeed not good.

In just one day, Mother Chen was the catalyst. She had fought this battle exceptionally beautifully.

She was an old servant who had served the Old Master for decades. Even Lou Ruoyi had failed to chase her away. In the end, within a day, no, half a day, she had completely ruined Madam Chen’s good impression of the Old Master.

Moreover, Madam Chen’s future...

He really didn’t leave anyone with a way out.

His actions were even more decisive than a man.

Mother Chen was chased out of the Bo family immediately. After working in the Bo family for decades, she didn't even stay overnight.

She walked to the city with her luggage. She was exhausted, but she was recognized by a large group of people. All of them pointed at her, and the disdain and disgust in their eyes made her unable to raise her head.

"Has she been chased out?"

"What's there to pity? Compared to pitying her, it's better to be oppressed by her. You even brushed the shoes of the other servants!"

"She's definitely living better than you. She's living a carefree life like a rich lady in the Bo family. She hired a bunch of servants to serve her and even gave her a high salary. Why are you pitying her?"

"She's an old witch. Let's see who dares to want her in the future!"

"Hahaha, who's crazy? Spending money to invite an outsider home?"

"Pfft... I think only Old Master Bo..."

"Let's go. I'm disgusted by that ugly face. What's there to see?"

Madam Chen carried her luggage with both hands and lowered her head, avoiding the gazes and comments of others.

Every word they said was like a nail piercing her heart.

She felt wronged, helpless, angry, and resentful.

These emotions filled her and she probably regretted it.

Bad people would never become good people because they had different values from ordinary people.

Three views determined a person's character and temperament. They were influenced by their upbringing and gradually settled their thoughts.

Just like Shen Qianrou, she had always liked to snatch Shen Fanxing's things. She was jealous and disgusted by everything about Shen Fanxing. Hence, she hid in a corner and hated her.

Just like Yuan Sichun. As the eldest daughter of the Yuan family, she thought that she could have whatever she wanted. Hence, the Yuan family was hers, the shares were hers, and Bo Jinchuan was hers. Whoever touched her "bread" would be her enemy, the kind that would ruin her reputation.

He wanted them to repent and admit that they were wrong?

Was that possible?

Some things couldn't be changed. They were deeply rooted.

Just like Mother Chen now.

No matter what, life had to continue.

When she arrived at the office, the staff shook their heads when they saw her. Disdain and rejection were written all over their faces. However, because it was a formal department, they still asked her to fill in the form and wait outside.

“What kind of job do you want?” asked the staff on duty.

The staff member glanced at her and smiled silently. He shook his head and filled in her request on the personnel record.

“Do you have any requirements for your salary?”

“The minimum salary is fifteen thousand yuan.”

Madam Chen said matter-of-factly. When the staff heard that, she stopped writing and looked up at the old woman with a swollen face.

After staying in the Bo family’s mansion for a long time, she was indeed different from others.

Although she was old, she looked fairer than others. Although she looked disheveled, she was still cleaner than the women from the poor mountains.

It was just that the arrogance of “I’m from a wealthy family” was annoying.

The staff member sneered sarcastically.

“A salary of fifteen thousand?”

Madam Chen nodded, her expression arrogant. Even when she looked at the staff, her eyes were filled with disdain and contempt.

“That’s my bottom line. I used to have more money than that.”

The staff sneered and wrote “15,000+” on the form.

“Then you can return to your previous workplace.”

Chapter 1596: Stubborn

“Then you can return to your previous workplace.”

The arrogance in Mother Chen’s eyes changed instantly. She stared blankly at the staff opposite her with a defeated expression.

The staff member quickly filled in the form and placed it aside. He looked up and shouted,

“Alright, next!”

Madam Chen sat on the chair without moving. It was the lady who came out to look for a job who nudged her gently.

“Excuse me, it’s my turn to fill in the registration form...”

The woman who spoke was honest and honest, and she spoke carefully. It wasn't that she didn't know this woman. In this society, it was fine to not have a diploma, but at least she could read.

Almost everyone knew how to use smartphones and the Internet. The old phones that their children didn't use were barely usable in their hands.

The news was all over the Internet. Even if they didn't search on purpose, they could still see it.

This person's face was almost identical to the one at the press conference. He was very recognizable.

But just because she was a bad person didn't mean that she shouldn't be a loyal and honest person.

She lowered her voice as she spoke, not intending to provoke her.

Even so, Mother Chen stood up from her chair and pushed the lady forcefully, hitting the spot that the lady had just hit.

Her voice was sharp and filled with disgust. "If you want to talk, then talk. Why are you touching me?! Don't you know how dirty you are?! You're disgusting! Country bumpkins are indeed poor, vulgar, and dirty!"

The woman was pushed to the side. When she heard Mother Chen's words, her face turned red.

She quickly looked at herself. Although her clothes were old, they were still very clean.

It was just that her clothes had been washed a few more times and turned white.

That wasn't the case.

It was just that country bumpkins were thin-skinned and honest. She really didn't know how to deal with Mother Chen's sharp and merciless words.

"Why are you shouting?! After you're done filling in the form, go and find a place to stay! Do you think you can do whatever you want everywhere?!"

Having interacted with these women from the countryside all year round, the staff felt a little impatient. However, when they met such an arrogant and despotic woman like Mother Chen, they were instantly enraged.

Mother Chen turned her head and glared at the staff member fiercely.

"I've already filled out the form. I hope you can arrange a job for me immediately. Staying in this place for a long time is simply a slow suicide. What kind of tasteless things are these?!"

As she spoke, her gaze swept across the woman with disdain.

"You can't even take care of yourself, yet you want to take care of others? Aren't you afraid of dirtying the air in their house?"

She had been suppressing her frustration for the entire afternoon and was worried that she wouldn't have a place to vent it. Now, it was obviously a time for her to explode.

"What do you want?"

Madam Chen's sharp voice was still echoing in the hall when a young woman in a business suit suddenly appeared in front of them. She asked the red-faced woman with tears in her eyes.

Big Sister was shocked and looked at her in fear.

"What?"

"What job are you looking for?" the young woman asked patiently again.

Seeing that she was dressed like a rich person in the city, the woman quickly wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes. She straightened her body and replied, "I can do anything. Take care of the children, clean the house, cook, wash the dishes..."

Madam Chen snorted coldly and said, "Cook? Wash the dishes? Who knows if the pigs will eat the food..."

"Okay, I'll give you fifteen thousand yuan. Come with me!"

Before Madam Chen could finish speaking, the young woman spoke coldly.

Madam Chen was stunned.

"Are you serious? You're giving her fifteen thousand yuan? What can she do?"

The young woman didn't bother with her at all and went forward to handle the handover procedures with the staff.

The woman snapped back to reality after a long time and hurried forward to ask, "Miss, what do you want me to do? Where do I work? I..."

She knew that there was nothing to lie about, but she was still a little afraid.

The young woman had already completed the procedures. She looked at her sister and said calmly,

"The Bo family. Go and take care of the Bo family's Old Master."

Hearing this, Mother Chen, who was indignant, instantly raised her head.

"What did you say?!"

Was she crazy to let this lowly woman serve the old master?

The woman still didn't look at her. "I'll try it for three months. After three months, my salary will be doubled."

Double?

Wouldn't that be 30,000 yuan?

This number shocked the woman and she quickly shook her head.

"No, no, no. I don't need that much salary. I can only do that little thing and earn as much money as I can... This salary is too high... I... I don't have that much ability..."

The woman smiled and said, "It's okay. We'll talk about it when the time comes. Maybe you won't even pass the probation period?"

The woman nodded. "I'll try my best."

"Alright, bring your things and follow me."

"Hey, okay! Okay!"

Big Sister agreed excitedly.

"Wait a minute!"

Seeing that the woman was about to leave, Madam Chen suddenly called out to her. She strode towards her and scrutinized her before saying,

"Who are you? Why are you hiring for the Bo family? Why haven't I seen you before? You even want a country bumpkin like her. Do you have good taste..."

"Everyone is better than you. Madam Chen, don't say that you used to work in the Bo residence and have no right to ask about the recruitment of employees. Now... you have no right to go overboard with the Bo family's matters... I advise you to understand your current situation. What else can make you behave so atrociously?!"

In the end, the woman stopped in her tracks and looked at Madam Chen coldly. She paused and continued,

"As for why I should hire people for the Bo family? It seems like you've relied on the Old Master's trust in you to be domineering in the Bo residence all these years. I'm afraid you've forgotten that there's a real mistress in the Bo residence. Why don't you ask Old Lady Bo personally? Why should she hire employees for the residence?"

Madam Chen's face turned completely pale.

"Old... Old Lady Bo..."

That's right!

She had forgotten!

The Bo family still had a legitimate old lady.

But...

"I just left the Bo residence not long ago. Why is she..."

"That's right. Although Old Madam doesn't like you, who asked Old Master to use you? I wanted to let you experience the suffering of the world..."

"It's fine if you repent and admit your mistake. If you should go back, you have to go back. After all, people have a few years to live. Since Old Master likes you, he will at most let you serve him for a few more years. However... you haven't changed..."

Chapter 1597: Same

"It's fine if you repent and admit your mistake. If you should go back, you have to go back. After all, people have a few years to live. Since Old Master likes you, he will at most let you serve him for a few more years. However... you haven't changed..."

Madam Chen's expression was rather interesting.

Green and white alternated before her face turned ashen.

"... What did I do wrong? Why did I choose her and not me? No one knows me better than I do..."

"You're asking me why?" The young woman sneered coldly. "Your question is enough to answer it."

Until now, she still didn't know what she had done wrong. Such a person would never change. Even if she was called back, she would still be the same.

Moreover, she had no intention of letting her go back.

It was true that she had come here to find a new servant for Old Master, but as for Mother Chen...

Her mission was to give her a deeper blow and despair.

The reason why he gave her hope was entirely to complete the mission.

Not long after, the woman who had just been hired arrived with a small luggage bag. The woman said calmly, "Let's go," before leaving the office under everyone's envious gazes.

The others only wanted to find a job to earn money to support their families. They only wanted to watch the show and did not dare to say anything.

After the commotion dispersed, the hall returned to its original state. Everyone was waiting for work, leaving Mother Chen alone. She was stunned for a long time before the staff urged her coldly.

"After you're done registering, find a place to wait. Don't hinder us."

Mother Chen was no longer in the mood to be arrogant. She carried her two suitcases and looked around the hall, only to realize that there was no empty space.

Even if there was, everyone was looking at her warily.

She didn't bother to squeeze with the dirty village women and went outside with her luggage.

The cold wind was piercing. Madam Chen shivered and looked at the dark sky outside. She didn't know what to do.

Although she had some money, she couldn't rely on it to survive.

She could find a place to stay, but she had to wait for her employer to pick someone. Once she left, she would miss her job.

So she could only wait here.

The wind was cold and she missed her life in the Bo family.

She should be eating now. Every meal at home was sumptuous. She would save a portion for herself before all the dishes were served.

She would eat whatever the Bo family ate.

There were delicacies everywhere.

She had eaten everything.

But now...

Her life in the past was too good, so her current situation was exceptionally sad.

She waited in a daze until the next morning.

She was woken up by hunger. When she opened her eyes, she saw a group of smiling women carrying luggage and following behind the well-dressed people. It was obvious that they had found a job.

She got up quickly and ran into the hall.

Seeing the new staff, she quickly asked, "Did anyone ask about me?"

The staff member glanced at her and his face turned cold.

"What's your name?"

"Chen Huifang."

The staff flipped through the registration form and stared at her file. Suddenly, she sneered.

"The minimum salary is 15,000 yuan? Just you wait!"

Mother Chen could see her sarcasm. Her body was already numb from the cold last night. Now that she heard this, she started to lose her composure again.

"I have decades of experience working in the Bo family. I've lowered my salary by 15,000 yuan..."

The staff couldn't be bothered with her and shook his head sarcastically.

When the surrounding people heard Mother Chen's sharp voice, they looked over.

"A salary of 15,000 yuan? Who's that?"

"The housekeeper of the Bo family? The one with a pig's head on the television yesterday?"

"Her? You still have the cheek to ask for fifteen thousand yuan? Haha, I won't hire her even if it's fifteen hundred yuan!"

"I don't even dare to accept 150 yuan! If I hire her, why would I hire an ancestor at home?"

The unconcealed discussion around them made Mother Chen gradually understand something.

She hurriedly took out her phone and browsed the news online. Seeing that the comments online were no different from what these people had said, her body went limp and she suddenly collapsed to the ground.

She had just appeared on television yesterday when someone released the surveillance footage of the Bo residence...

She was going to be despised by the world!

How did this happen?

If the surveillance footage was exposed, who would want to use her?

He had already forced her into a corner.

Early this morning, Lou Ruoyi gave Shen Fanxing a video call.

“Mother Chen has always been a thorn in my heart. In the past, Old Master had always protected her. He didn’t listen to anything I said. It wasn’t easy for him to chase her out, but he was chased back by that girl from the Yuan family. I’m so angry.”

Shen Fanxing leaned against the head of the bed. She had no makeup on and her eyes were blurry. Her hair was slightly messy and her collarbones were exposed.

She smiled and rubbed her hair. Her voice was low and hoarse from waking up.

“Your health is more important. There’s no need to care about an outsider.”

Lou Ruoyi sighed softly and said, “I understand the logic, but temper... I can’t control it! I hate her the moment I see her! She gets angry the moment I hate her. It’s a vicious cycle. Damn it, Old Master trusts her and protects her every time!”

Shen Fanxing smiled and said, “Alright, I won’t have to see her again.”

Lou Ruoyi nodded and her face brightened instantly.

“You’re the best! You’ve finally gotten rid of that annoying old man. Moreover, I heard that he was chased away by the Old Master himself! He should understand something now, right? I really want to see his expression after all these years of trust!”

Although Lou Ruoyi was indignant, her slightly angry tone was still adorable.

Shen Fanxing smiled and her eyes twinkled. The smile on her lips was filled with indulgence and indulgence.

“I wonder how that old man is doing now... He got so angry because of an old servant... Is there really no servant in the house now?”

She knew that Lou Ruoyi had a sharp tongue but a soft heart.

Shen Fanxing stared at her silently.

Lou Ruoyi pursed her lips, her expression unnatural.

“I’m not concerned about him!” She emphasized, “I don’t want your father to have any regrets... No matter how cold he looks on the surface, he’s still my biological father... He keeps saying that he’s fine and doesn’t let me care, but... can I really not care? I can’t just let him take care of my emotions!”

“I think I can tolerate it. As long as he’s happy, he won’t be in such a difficult position... Isn’t he just a stubborn old man? No matter how stubborn he is, I’ll still occupy his son...”

Chapter 1598: Peppa Pig

Shen Fanxing could totally understand Lou Ruoyi.

Wasn’t she the same?

How could she bear to make things difficult for Bo Jinchuan?

“I understand,” replied Shen Fanxing. Then, she smiled and said, “Old Master can’t beat us. In this world, we’re the ones who have stayed by his son and grandson’s side the longest.”

Lou Ruoyi couldn’t help but laugh. “Yes! No matter how unwilling he is, he can’t deny it!”

Shen Fanxing smiled indulgently again, her eyes curving into crescents. Even Lou Ruoyi couldn’t help but shake her head.

“If it weren’t for the fact that I have your father and you have my son, I would definitely find a chance to do you! This little look... No wonder you can make my stubborn son dizzy.”

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

This didn’t seem like something a mother-in-law should say...

These two women...

Was she wrong?

She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry at Lou Ruoyi’s strange train of thought. She lowered her head and covered her exposed skin with her hand.

“Stop covering yourself. At most, I’ll just take a look. It’s not like I can touch you! You’ve benefited my son! Where is he? Isn’t he beside you?”

Shen Fanxing tilted her phone. The bed beside her was empty and there was no sign of Bo Jinchuan.

“Where did that kid go? Didn’t he eat his fill early in the morning? Why did he let you disappear?”

Shen Fanxing wanted to hang up.

Her mother-in-law spoke too freely!

She didn’t blush at all when she said such explicit words!

“Are you done chatting? It’s time to eat.”

Bo Sichen’s gentle voice sounded from the video. Shen Fanxing smiled. This was a tone only used in front of her mother-in-law.

Just as she was about to say goodbye, the video on her phone flashed.

Lou Ruoyi switched to the camera and Bo Sichen's figure appeared.

At first, Shen Fanxing thought she was seeing things.

Fortunately, she was able to accept it.

The video was a little shaky, but she could still see Bo Sichen in simple home clothes. He was wearing a pink apron and there were four pink pigs in the middle.

Although Shen Fanxing didn't watch cartoons, with Wanwan around, the topic would more or less mention these animals.

This was probably the family of Peppa Pig.

Pig Daddy, Pig Mommy, Piggy Page, Piggy George.

For some reason, she suddenly thought of her in-laws, Bo Jinchuan and Bo Jinhang.

She couldn't help but laugh softly.

Lou Ruoyi raised her phone in all seriousness. It was obvious that she was lying to Bo Sichen. She thought that the person on the screen was her.

Bo Sichen thought that she was still talking to Shen Fanxing face to face. His wet hands wiped the apron in front of him skillfully before he bent down to pick up the clothes.

In the end, she hugged all the dirty clothes.

He looked like a good man. He could cook and wash clothes easily. This level of proficiency was definitely not something he could achieve in a day or two.

Shen Fanxing covered her mouth and chuckled softly as she watched Bo Sichen walk out of the bedroom. The camera followed him.

When he reached the door, Bo Sichen stopped and turned around.

"If there's nothing else, hurry up and eat... Lou Ruoyi, what are you doing?"

Lou Ruoyi didn't expect Bo Sichen to suddenly turn around. She was caught red-handed.

It was too late to hide it.

In the video, Bo Sichen strode over, his mature and handsome face filled with anger.

Lou Ruoyi quickly switched the camera and ran to the side with her phone.

"What are you doing? I'm chatting with my daughter-in-law!"

"You secretly took photos of me just now?"

"No!" Lou Ruoyi denied firmly. "Fanxing has always been looking at me! Why would I take photos of you? If you don't believe me, ask your daughter-in-law!"

Lou Ruoyi took out her phone and faced Bo Sichen.

Shen Fanxing hurriedly sat upright. Her hair was spread out in front of her, covering her exposed skin.

Then, she called out softly, "Dad."

Bo Sichen pursed his lips and hummed softly. He didn't ask the question he had argued with Lou Ruoyi. Instead, he said,

"Why did you deliberately make such a big fuss yesterday?"

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips. Indeed, his father-in-law was wise and astute.

She had already tried her best to attract everyone's attention to Mother Chen and used her as a cover. In the end, he could still tell.

"The International Economic Summit is about to begin. The end of the year is when the company's results are tabulated. It will directly affect the ranking of Forbes and the international top 500 companies."

"The businesses left behind by my mother and Stars International are all on the right track. In addition to the Yuan Corporation that just landed in my hands not long ago... Although these combined can't compare to the Bo Consortium's scale, they are still a threat to the Bo Consortium."

"No matter what, as long as I'm in the top 500 or Forbes, I'll definitely be in the limelight as a rising star in the business world. Second Uncle has just taken over the Bo Consortium and he won't allow such a thing to happen."

"Whether it's for the reputation of this international economic summit or the future threat to the Bo Consortium and the stability of his current position, he must be thinking of controlling us fundamentally and eliminating all threats."

Bo Sichen listened quietly and wasn't surprised by Shen Fanxing's words. Instead, he asked calmly,

"So? You want to lure him to target you?"

Shen Fanxing didn't deny it and said, "He will definitely target us! Jinchuan will affect his position as the chairman and my businesses will also affect the Bo Consortium's reputation internationally."

"He'll make a move on us sooner or later. Why don't we lure him to the development path I need from the start? Since we're going to fight head-on, I won't lose just because he's someone we can't afford to offend."

Bo Sichen was silent for a while before he smiled and looked at her through the screen.

"So, you've schemed against us?"

Shen Fanxing smiled apologetically and said, "I'm sorry about that..."

"Forget it, you're right. Any businessman with a brain won't let go of anything that poses a threat to them. It's inevitable that he will attack you. It's already good that you're prepared!"

"But are you sure that he will obediently jump into the pit you dug?"

Shen Fanxing smiled and said, "Anyone with desire and greed will jump in... Second Uncle obviously wants a lot..."

Chapter 1599: Caught between laughter and tears

"Anyone with desire and greed will definitely jump in... Second Uncle obviously wants more."

Bo Sichen nodded in agreement with Shen Fanxing.

How long had he suppressed himself all these years? Now, he had gone through so much trouble to get the company?

"Since you want to do this, it's up to you. Anyway, if you cause trouble, someone will bear the consequences for you."

Shen Fanxing smiled and nodded lightly.

This person was naturally referring to Bo Jinchuan.

It seemed that Bo Jinchuan had perfectly inherited his father's genes of spoiling women. It seemed that the father and son would have a lot in common in the future.

"...What nonsense are the two of you talking about? Get up, get up..."

Lou Ruoyi wanted to interrupt them but she didn't have the chance. Now that there was a gap in their conversation, she immediately pushed Bo Sichen away.

"Fanxing and I are the perfect partners now, okay? Why are you chatting so much with her? Fanxing, Fanxing, you have to take good care of yourself. And my chubby grandson. Oh my, my grandson is really my lucky star..."

Lou Ruoyi was unhappy that Bo Sichen had occupied her time with her daughter-in-law. She pushed him aside and tried to find a topic to chat with Shen Fanxing.

Lou Ruoyi's enthusiasm warmed Shen Fanxing's heart. She smiled warmly at the camera.

No wonder her father-in-law doted on her so much. Even she wanted to dote on such a cute and kind woman.

"I'll take care of myself. Don't worry."

She promised Lou Ruoyi warmly.

Lou Ruoyi nodded with a smile.

"Aiya, why aren't you leaving yet? I still have to chat with my daughter-in-law..."

"It's time for breakfast." Bo Sichen's deep voice sounded.

"I don't want to eat... I'm not free now. I'm chatting with my daughter-in-law."

"Let's talk after dinner."

"I won't..."

“Lou Ruoyi!”

“... How dare you scold me?! You... Fanxing, look at your father. He’s so handsome!”

Shen Fanxing didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

Was this an argument or a compliment?

Bo Sichen couldn’t do anything to his wife.

Crying. She must be faking it.

She wasn’t really angry, but she was pretending to cry. He couldn’t handle her persistence.

In all these years, he had never found a way to truly restrain her.

He was simply incorrigible to her.

“I’m not being fierce. Be good and have breakfast first.”

“But I still have to chat with my daughter-in-law,” Lou Ruoyi said angrily.

“Mom...” Shen Fanxing was about to speak when Bo Sichen’s helpless voice sounded. “I’ll bring breakfast over.”

Lou Ruoyi smiled and said, “Okay, I’ll wait for you.”

Without any hesitation, she planted a kiss on Bo Sichen’s cheek in front of Shen Fanxing.

She was completely different from the angry woman just now.

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

“Who are you chatting with? Hmm?”

Shen Fanxing was blushing from their public display of affection when she heard a familiar voice.

When Lou Ruoyi and Bo Sichen heard the voice, they followed the video and saw Shen Fanxing turning her head. Her vision blurred and she gasped. Bo Jinchuan’s unique scent assaulted their senses.

Lou Ruoyi’s jaw dropped and her eyes widened.

However, the scene only lasted for a few seconds before the camera flashed.

Perhaps Shen Fanxing had deliberately stopped them from watching inappropriate videos.

Perhaps Shen Fanxing had lost her balance and dropped her phone.

Anyway, he couldn’t see anything, but... the sound...

Lou Ruoyi blinked uncomfortably, but...

She threw the words “see no evil, hear no evil” to the back of her mind.

She strained her ears to listen to Bo Jinchuan and Shen Fanxing’s conversation.

“Don’t... Ah Chuan...”

Shen Fanxing sounded surprised and anxious.

Shen Fanxing gritted her teeth, afraid that Bo Jinchuan would go overboard.

She didn’t even have the time to turn off the video call...

Upon hearing Shen Fanxing’s shout, Lou Ruoyi shuddered and shouted at the camera,

“Bo Jinchuan! Take it easy! Your wife is pregnant with my chubby grandson! Don’t mess around...”

Bo Jinchuan was speechless.

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

Bo Sichen stood at the side. Even though he was refined and handsome, he couldn’t help but support his forehead.

What should he do with her?

Didn’t she know how to avoid such matters?

Couldn’t she tell that her daughter-in-law was thin-skinned?

Hearing her voice, Bo Jinchuan let go of Shen Fanxing.

He got up and supported her with one hand. His slender fingers helped her tidy her clothes and messy hair. Looking at her flushed face, his lips curled up slightly.

Shen Fanxing glared at him and punched his shoulder twice.

Bo Jinchuan chuckled and said,

“How many times have I said it? You’re scratching me like a cat.”

Every word he said made Shen Fanxing’s scalp tingle. His voice and tone were...

It was overwhelming.

Moreover, there were two living people watching.

Even though they were separated by the phone.

“Brat, hurry up and stop, okay? If you hurt my precious grandson, I’ll cut your ****!”

Shen Fanxing’s lips twitched uncontrollably.

She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

Bo Jinchuan pressed his lips tightly and his face darkened.

Chapter 1600: Little Cat

Bo Jinchuan pressed his lips tightly and his face darkened.

She straightened up and picked up the phone that had fallen beside her bed.

The next second, Lou Ruoyi hung up the call.

Lou Ruoyi, who was about to speak, blinked when she heard the beep. Her eyes widened in anger.

“Hey, how dare this brat hang up on me!”

With that, she immediately replied.

He disconnected the call.

The reply was cut off again.

Without thinking, Lou Ruoyi knew that this was definitely Bo Jinchuan’s doing!

After some thought, she sent a voice message.

“Fanxing, if you let your husband hang up on me again, I’ll... I’ll cry for you!”

After thinking about it, Lou Ruoyi felt that she shouldn’t threaten others. She felt a little guilty when she said, “I’ll cry for you to see.”

However, her confidence was not weak!

Fanxing was her favorite daughter-in-law. How could she bear to see her cry?

When she called again, the video call was indeed connected.

Shen Fanxing’s blushing face appeared in the video.

Lou Ruoyi was rather smug.

See, his daughter-in-law was the most likable.

“Fanxing, did he do anything to you?”

Shen Fanxing blushed again.

“No...”

“When I get back, I’ll teach him a lesson for you... If you feel aggrieved again, let him be a hooligan during this period...”

Shen Fanxing was speechless.

She regretted answering the call.

Bo Jinchuan smiled silently and ruffled Shen Fanxing’s hair.

“Time for breakfast.”

The video call continued.

Shen Fanxing and Lou Ruoyi ate happily on opposite ends of the video call.

Bo Jinchuan and Bo Sichen exchanged glances before turning their heads to look at their wives.

Bo Sichen sat beside Lou Ruoyi, his apron still on.

Bo Jinchuan sat beside Shen Fanxing, his apron still on.

In the center of the pink-blue apron was a white cat with round eyes.

From that first glance, the two extraordinarily handsome men had never looked at each other again.

However, they felt especially helpless.

It didn't seem like a good thing for her mother-in-law and daughter-in-law to get along too well.

How could they eat together on a video call?

How did one become so thick-skinned? Shen Fanxing felt that it was forced.

What happened just now was enough for her to hide in a hole. Moreover, she would definitely not meet Lou Ruoyi and Bo Sichen for a long time.

However, she could still eat breakfast with the two of them calmly. Moreover, she could convince herself that there was no point in arguing. It was better to forget everything and get along naturally.

Cough...

She finally understood why Yuan Sichun and the others could appear in front of the public as if nothing had happened after their reputation was ruined. They also felt superior.

After breakfast, Shen Fanxing and Lou Ruoyi looked up at each other. They exchanged glances before turning away. Suddenly, they burst into laughter.

Bo Sichen and Bo Jinchuan looked at her in confusion. "What are you laughing at?"

Shen Fanxing covered her mouth and shook her head, her smile reserved.

Lou Ruoyi pointed at the screen and laughed hysterically at Bo Jinchuan.

"Why is it a kitten? Hahahaha... It's so cute. Why is it so strange on you? Hahaha..."

Bo Jinchuan looked down at the apron that he was used to wearing. When he saw a white kitten in the middle, his face darkened.

Lou Ruoyi was still laughing wantonly. Bo Jinchuan took off his apron and rubbed it before throwing it on the chair beside him.

Bo Sichen stole a glance at Shen Fanxing, who was smiling implicitly. He pursed his lips and took off Peppa Pig's apron silently.

Her expression wasn't good.

Seeing her son's dark expression, Lou Ruoyi stopped laughing.

“Alright, alright, that’s all for today! Fanxing, let’s have breakfast tomorrow. Eat more. After I’m done with my arrangements, I’ll go back to accompany you and my precious grandson!”

And what about Bo Jinchuan? Was he completely neglected?

“Don’t call me if there’s nothing!”

Bo Jinchuan’s face darkened.

Lou Ruoyi paused and pursed her lips. The corners of her eyes drooped as she turned to look at her husband aggrievedly.

“Wuwuwu, Hubby, look at how fierce your son is...”

Bo Sichen reached out to wipe the soup from Lou Ruoyi’s lips and gave Bo Jinchuan a sidelong glance. Even without saying anything, Shen Fanxing felt a chill run down her spine.

Without another word, Bo Jinchuan ended the video call.

Silence returned to the dining room and Shen Fanxing heaved a sigh of relief.

Shen Fanxing glanced at Bo Jinchuan cautiously before scooping another bowl of porridge.

“This porridge is delicious. You’re amazing. You’re the best at everything.”

This was obviously flattery.

However, she didn’t look good.

Bo Jinchuan glanced at the almost empty porridge and his lips curled into a smile. He lowered his head and lifted Shen Fanxing’s shirt before patting her gently.

Her stomach was bulging and it even made a light thumping sound.

He looked up at her. “Are you sure you want more?”

Shen Fanxing pushed the bowl to Bo Jinchuan.

“It’s for you.”

Her obedient look melted Bo Jinchuan’s heart.

How could this woman be so cute?

He stood up and carried her to the dining table.

“If those employees in your company see you like this, will their faith be shattered?”

Who would have thought that this businesswoman, whom they regarded as their goddess, would be so soft and cute at home?

Shen Fanxing’s eyebrows twitched and her eyes sparkled.

“Why don’t I try?”

Bo Jinchuan snorted softly and pressed his lips against hers.

His low voice was filled with threat.

“Don’t you dare.”

Shen Fanxing chuckled and said, “I don’t dare to. If they know that I’m so easy to bully, how can I manage them?”

“You’re easy to bully?” asked Bo Jinchuan with a faint smile. “How did I bully you?”

Shen Fanxing narrowed her eyes and asked, “What do you think?”
