

Chapter 16

Jenny left Fenghua.

When she left, there were a few smears of affection to see her off, but most of them were face-saving efforts.

After all, she's leaving the industry, but she's not leaving the industry, and she may have to see you again in the future.

One more friend is better than one more enemy!

Jenny also did not pierce, to the car park, after putting the things in the car, before driving to the Mushi drive.

Patrick Hong is a man of his word, and the company's transfer documents as well as the check were already prepared.

When Jenny arrived at Mu's, Patrick Hong was in a meeting, and she was received by his side, Chu's secretary.

Three subsidiaries, two of which were realised as per her request last night, leaving only one.

Jenny was quick to sign the document, and handed over his half of the marriage certificate to the other party.

The marriage certificate was softly and forcibly signed by the Mu family back when Mother was still alive.

At that time, she and Rovell had just been together for a short time, and they were both still very young, so an engagement wasn't appropriate, so they changed to this traditional way.

Half a month after the marriage papers were signed, my mother died unexpectedly.

Now that I think about it, I wonder if she had anticipated the accident and made the arrangements before she left.

Unfortunately, she has failed even her mother's last effort and now not only does she have no home, but also no fiancé.

Thinking of this, Jenny smiled to himself.

After all the formalities had been handed over, Mouhon's meeting was not yet over.

The secretaries asked her if she wanted to sit and wait for a while until the chairman came out to say hello before leaving, but Jenny declined.

She already had what she wanted, and there was no need for the Mu family to see her again.

It's still early after leaving the mooch.

Jenny went around the shop again, the clerk who had taken her leave had returned to work, and when she saw her, she happily got up from behind her desk.

"Sister Jenny, business is good today, it's only been half a day and we've sold dozens of orders."

Jenny smiled and encouraged her, "Good job, keep up the good work!"

The clerk, Zhang, a young girl of ten, received her encouragement with an excited little red face, happy.

Jenny felt a white a4 paper from his bag and posted it on the window.

Xiao Zhang curiously leaned over to look at it, and was shocked when he saw the words shop transfer on it.

"Ning, you're turning the shop around, huh?Not doing it?"

Jenny nodded.

“Well, not anymore, but you can keep working here and I’ll talk to the new boss.”

Xiao Zhang’s face changed slightly.

In fact, Jenny was helpless in making this decision.

If she wants to open her own agency, she’ll have to devote all her time to it, and I’m afraid she won’t be able to focus on this.

And no matter how good a business is, it’s limited to generating income, so on balance, it’s best to transfer it.

After labeling, Jenny chatted with Xiao Zhang a few more times before leaving.

There was nothing to do in the afternoon, so she asked Nina Hua to go shopping.

Nina Hua, the number one beauty in the entertainment industry, was once rated by the media and magazines as “a rare beauty of our time”.

She is also the daughter of the chairman of the Huasheng Group, and was high school classmates with Jenny Jing, and they are very close girlfriends.

Once we met, Nina Hua tsked twice.

“I said sister, as soon as I heard you were dumped by a man, I rushed over to comfort you, but look at you, I don’t see how sad you are!”

Jenny was a little surprised.

“How do you know?”

The?”

“Well, it’s all over the world, it’s hard not to know!”

Nina Hua handed her an invitation for her birthday party, and Jenny Jing flipped it open to see that it was sent jointly by Clara and Rovell Mu.

She was momentarily speechless.

Nina Hua smiled and said, "Go ahead! When did you break the couple's adulterous affair?"

"A few days ago!" Jenny Jing looked at her gloating face and was a bit depressed, "I said, why are you so happy that I've been dumped by someone?"

"Of course I'm glad you got dumped! Rovell is simply sc*m, and this kind of person should be separated early and superfluous to save you from being stupid enough to pay more for others."

Jenny: "....."

Nina Hua had always disliked Rovell, she had known this for a long time.

When she first knew they were together, she had been persuaded a few times, but where was the little girl to believe it when she was so young and in love?

Now it seems that she actually got it right.

Jenny accosted him with a smile, not saying anything.

They went shopping at a nearby mall.

Just at this time, a black Rolls Royce passed by, Vicky saw two women who were walking in the mall, surprised: "Huh? Isn't that Miss King?"

Biden Lu lifted the gaze that was placed on the data and cast it in the direction that Vicky pointed, pausing slightly.

"Stop the car!"

.....

Jenny Jing and Nina Hua strolled around for a long time and finally entered a women's clothing shop.

It's a luxury brand shop with a high-end décor and a clean, luxurious smell in a pale, cool colour palette.

Nina Hua had ordered a long skirt earlier and came over to pick it up today.

Naturally, the shop assistant knew her, and after asking her clearly, she took her to the first floor vip room to try on the dress, and if there was any inappropriate part, she could modify it on the spot.

Nina Hua greeted Jenny before he left, "Jenny, sit down for a while, I'll try it on and come down ha."

Jenny nodded.

After Nina Hua went up, she was bored waiting and simply wandered around the shop.

It's Monday, there aren't many customers in the shop, and the shopkeepers are chatting in groups or buried in their heads or playing with their phones, and no one is entertaining her.

Jenny didn't care, and after shopping around, she saw a dark blue dress hanging in the window in a nice style, somewhat like the work of a certain French designer she had seen in a magazine.

She had always liked that designer, sort of a big fan of his, so she couldn't help but reach out and touch it.

"Eh! Look okay but don't get your hands on it, you can't afford to break it."

A woman's voice suddenly came from behind her.

Jenny froze and turned back to see a young clerk standing there, glancing at her with displeasure and disgust.

She knitted her brows slightly.

"Don't you hang the clothes out for customers to try on? Why can't we touch it?"

The clerk snickered, "It's okay for others to touch, not you."

"Why?"

The clerk rolled her eyes, as if annoyed with her for asking for it.

"Do you know how much this dress costs? How many thousand dollars a month do you make as an assistant? A year's salary wouldn't even be enough to buy it, you know?"

I said, and got annoyed when I came up and snatched the fabric out of her hand, then pushed aside the racks full of dresses.

"I'm not satisfied with this," he said, "I've been coming here all day to look at things and not to buy them. It's annoying!"

Jenny: ....

She was laughing outright.

Not the first time I've been out shopping with Nina Hua, but the first time I've been treated like someone's assistant.

Chapter 17

King. Assistant. Ning was stubborn and worked his arm up to sneer, "What if I had to try today?"

The clerk frowned, and someone next to him had heard the commotion over here and came over.

"What's wrong?"

The clerk and his colleague whispered something to each other, and the visitor squeezed out a false smile for a moment.

"This lady, this dress is our brand's new seasonal model, it costs $88,800, are you sure you want it?"

Jenny Jing sneered, "Asking to buy before even trying, your shop can really entertain its customers!"

"I'm really sorry, we also want to protect the interests of other customers, after all, the clothes in our shop are very expensive, if everyone tries on and doesn't buy, then in the end the clothes won't all become second-hand goods?Wouldn't you say?"

The shopkeeper had a smile on his face, but his eyes were full of mockery and sarcasm.

Jenny felt that he probably didn't watch the yellow calendar when he went out today, so how could he have met such a stupid idiot?

That's right, Miss Jing, who had always been well-bred, now just wanted to open her mouth to curse!

She fished a check out of her purse and slapped it on the counter.

"Can we try it now?"

The clerk looked away, shocked.

On the cheque, excluding the opening number does not count, followed by several zeros, without counting, also know that at least a million.

The two of them looked at Jenny again and their gazes immediately became different, even smiling in a pleasant manner, "Of course, wait a moment, I'll take it off for you."

Jenny snorted, and for the sake of that designer she liked so much, she didn't bother to bother with them anymore and took the dress into the fitting room.

The dress fits perfectly, and it's true to her favorite alex's handiwork, the dark blue gradient is understated and luxurious, and you can't fault the workmanship or the design at all.

When she wore the dress out, the clerks were amazed.

Before, seeing her casually dressed and low-keyed behind Nina Hua, they all thought she was Nina Hua's assistant.

But no one feels that way now.

After all, the woman in front of her was not something you would find on an assistant, whether it was from her figure or her looks, or even that cold and gorgeous aura.

The clerk who had received her before came up excitedly, "Miss, you look so good in this dress, I haven't seen anyone who looks as good in it as you do with so many people here!"

Others chimed in.

Not so much for flattery, but the truth.

Jenny Jing curled her lips and smiled, placing her dress generously on the counter after changing it off.

"Wrap it up for me."

The shop assistant was naturally pleased, having just thought she would hold a grudge and refuse to pay the bill because of what they had said earlier, but now it seemed that they were completely overthinking it.

However, at that moment, a young man and woman walked in from outside.

"Yo, isn't this Miss Jing?"

Jenny turned back, then his face sank.

It sure has been a bad day, I can really hear the dog barking everywhere I go.

She didn't bother to pay attention and turned back to the clerk and instructed, "Wrap it up better for me, and check for any flaws along the way."

"Okay."

The shopkeeper was about to wrap it up with the dress in her happy hands, but was stopped by a visitor.

Mu Hongshui looked at the tag on her skirt and laughed, "Yo, just extorted a sum of money from my brother, this is out to charge big money ah! A dress costs over 80,000 yuan, Jenny, do you deserve to wear it?"

Jenny Jing lowered his eyebrows, "It's not your turn to interfere whether I'm worthy or not! fu*k off!"

"Gee, why are you getting so mad? Don't worry, I'm here to ask you for money again, a few million our family is still not in the eye, as a few years you sleep with my brother's overnight fee.

After all, it's been six years, 2,000 days and nights. It's not expensive. A chicken on the street costs a couple of thousand a night! Xie Chuan, don't you think so?"

Fedora covered her lips and smiled delicately.

Xie Chuan beside her is a third-tier actor under Fenghua, who had previously taken on a few films under Jenny Jing's care, but had been lukewarm, and then the company didn't throw resources at him.

I don't know how I climbed onto Mu Hongxin.

Xie Chuan was full of embarrassment and said neither.

Jenny sneered.

"Mu Hongsheng, go back and ask your brother if we've had half a relationship in the past few years."

Fedora raised her eyebrows.

She's not young enough to know any better what goes on between men and women.

In her perception, it was impossible to be in a relationship for so many years and not have something happen.

After all, what age was this, and her brother wasn't Willow.

So with a sneer, "Just keep pretending! My brother isn't stupid, although you're annoying, you're still okay looking, he'll let go of the meat sent to his mouth?"

Jenny also laughed and shook his head regretfully.

"You're right, your brother isn't stupid and I'm not ugly, so...why do you think he doesn't touch me?"

Afterwards, she even tilted her head slightly and stared at her with amusement.

Mu Hongshui was staring at her heart somehow a little apprehensive.

I can't say why I'm apprehensive, but there's just an uneasy feeling, like she's hiding some secret she's not telling her.

Her face changed a little.

"What do you mean?"

Jenny Jing smilingly said, "It's nothing interesting, although I have a bad temper, but my character is okay, I don't like to badmouth people behind their backs, if you're curious, just ask him yourself!

After all, your family's third generation is a single family, and if there's something wrong with it, it's a big deal to break the fragrance! A man as traditional as Uncle Mumbo would be devastated to learn that."

Fedora's face completely changed.

"Jenny! That's bullshit! My brother can't be what you say he is."

Jenny shrugged his shoulders, "Just take my word for it!"

She said, turning to take the card out to the clerk to swipe.

But Mu Hongxin stopped her.

"Wait!"

Jenny knitted her brows.

What she hated the most was such a dog-like annoyance like Fedora, impatient, "What more do you want?"

Mu Hongsheng snatched the skirt from the clerk's hand and brashly said, "I'll take this skirt, no selling it to her!"

Jenny was directly pissed off.

"Mu Hongxin, are you young? You think you own the mall? So outrageous?"

Mu Hongsheng lifted her chin, "You really guessed it right, this mall is owned by our family, and we said we wouldn't sell it to you!"

She said, turning to the clerk.

"I'm the eldest sister of Mu, Mu you should know that by now!"

The clerk turned pale and nodded, "Yes, of course I know, one of the shareholders of the mall."

Fedora raised her eyebrows proudly at Jenny.

Jenny: "....."

Just at this moment, an ice-cold voice suddenly came in through the door.

"I don't know when a small shareholder has the right to dictate the decisions of a guest."

The crowd froze and looked up, only to see a young man walk in with a few others.

Jenny Jing's pupils shook.

Chapter 18

Soompi?

Why is he here?

Jennynton tensed up and looked behind Vicky, but didn't see the man's shadow.

Fedora didn't know him and frowned unhappily, "Who are you?"

The shopkeeper, who didn't know him but knew the mall manager behind him, was busy gently pulling Clara's sleeve and whispering a few words.

Vicky sneered, directly to the people behind the command: "Lu's has always had a rule, that is, never shop big bullying customers, a small shareholder of the store dared to be so rampant, to come to the shop to bully customers, in the long run will not also be a bad reputation of the Lu's?"

Manager Li, take down Miss Mu's words today and dump them back to Chairman Mu, don't say that we Lu's kicked them out despite the contract, from now on, let them Mu's not get involved in this part of Times Square."

Manager Li was ruthlessly shocked and agreed.

Fedora changed her complexion with a swish.

"You're a Lucian?"

Vicky sneered, "Miss Mu has finally reacted."

"...Even if you're Lu's man, you can't just make random decisions!"

"Can we make a decision, Miss Mu will just go back and wait for the notice, I'm sure Chairman Mu will tell you properly when he gets home tonight."

After he finished speaking, he had no desire to talk nonsense with Fedora, and walked over to Jenny Jing and whispered, "Miss Jing, the president is waiting for you outside..."

Jenny turned pale and bit her lip.

"My friend is still upstairs..."

"I'll take care of explaining it to her."

Jenny looked up at him and eventually nodded.

When I left the shop, I walked about ten feet to the left, and sure enough I saw some man standing there.

Dressed in a black suit, still with that meticulous look, with deep brows, handsome and upright, he stood there as if he was a landscape unto himself.

Seeing her, he waved at her.

Jenny walked over to him and stood a step away from him, barely smiling.

"Lu, what a coincidence! Are you out shopping too?"

Biden Lu held his lips and lifted his hand to tug her over.

Jenny was unaware and stumbled a step, but he was pulled into his arms and was shocked.

"What are you doing?"

"Don't move."

Biden Lu reached out to remove a little crumb from her hair from somewhere, his movements gentle and natural.

Jenny was startled, and her face involuntarily flushed.

She stepped back slightly and raised a hand to gather a stray strand of hair behind her ear, inexplicably afraid to look him in the eye.

"That...thank you ah just now, for sending Vicky in to help me out."

Biden Lu smiled and faintly said, "I happened to pass by and found someone arguing in the shop, and I heard a voice like yours, but it turned out to be true, and I have to say we're really destined to meet each other, shopping around."

Jenny: ....

She looked up at him, a little curious.

"Shouldn't you be working at the office this time of year?Why are you out shopping?"

The man lied without changing his face, "I'm off today."

"So!"

Although Jenny was a little confused as to why Biden Lu would be off on Monday, but thought about about being the boss, the rest time was set by himself, so he was relieved.

She looked around and didn't see anyone else, so she asked, "Are you shopping alone?"

Biden Lu nodded.

"Wouldn't that be boring?"

"It is a bit, so can you hang out with me later?"

Jenny was stunned.

That's a question...not easy to answer!

She forced a smile and declined, "I'm with my best friend, you're... not very convenient, are you?"

Lu Jing thought deeply and nodded, "Indeed."

He suddenly felt a black hot card in his pocket and placed it in her hand.

"Then this

You take it."

Jenny was startled.

If she wasn't mistaken, this card should be the VIP Black Gold Card of Lu's shopping mall, the huge amount of money inside was second to none, the most important thing was the symbol of identity.

It can be said that holding this card is a disguised acknowledgement that you are a Lu's person, and no one will dare to belittle you wherever you go in the future.

She opened her mouth slightly in surprise and looked at Biden Lu.

"You're giving this to me?Why?"

In the meantime, Biden Lu slightly browsed as if he didn't like this question of hers.

"Is my land jungle wife not even worthy of a black card anymore?"

Jenny: "....."

It's so...it's hard to know what to say.

"I haven't agreed to..."

"We've been licensed."Biden Lu directly interrupted her and added seriously, "The reason for giving you three days is to take into account the fact that you may have a hard time accepting the fact that you're married to someone, but that doesn't mean that you can use it to deny our relationship, and you should understand that."

Jenny: "....."

The phone suddenly rang just then.

She had to answer the phone first.

The call was from Nina Hua.

"Hey, Jenny, I heard a guy say you had to leave in a hurry?What's going on?"

Jenny Jing looked at Biden Lu.

The other party looked innocent, so she could only blame the suspicion on Vicky and said, "Nothing's wrong, I'll be back soon, don't worry."

"Oh, no, that one I just got a call from my agent, there's a temporary announcement, I might have to rush back right away, it's fine on your end, we'll meet up next time."

Jenny had no choice but to agree, then hung up the phone.

Biden Lu was all smiles.

"Does your best friend have to go first for something?"

Jenny Jing stared at him suspiciously, "Mr. Lu, it can't be that you've pulled some tricks from this!"

The man shook his head, "To go shopping with you, so you went to the trouble of getting your best friend away?Don't tell me I'm not that boring and I don't know your best friend!"

Jenny thought about it, as if it were.

All right!Well, then, for the time being, he's off the hook.

Only when Biden Lu saw her face slow down did she smile, "So Mrs. Lu, now I have the honor of inviting you to go shopping with me?"

How can you refuse when you've said that?

Jenny's skin tugged at the corners of his mouth with a smile, "What do you want to buy?"

"Well...help me pick out two outfits!"

.....

Jenny had lived half her life and had been in one relationship, but had never accompanied a man to buy clothes.

Rovell didn't even have that distinction.

But I have to say that Land King is really a walking coat hanger.

Broad shoulders, narrow waist, slender figure, good head to body ratio, and most importantly, handsome!

Didn't look at that clothing shop girl one by one was fascinated, all of them cover the chest red face, a look like a girl with spring enchanted look.

Oh, my God!Where is this little fairy brother from!That's awesome!Mum, I'm going to marry him!

Jenny sat there speechless, and she nodded her head every time Biden Lu came out with a new set of clothes.

Well, this set will do, and this set will do, and this set will do.

After seeing more, she realized that there was no dress that Land's End couldn't handle.

No matter what style, what style, to his side naturally have an unexplainable taste, or handsome and dashing, or elegant and reserved.

In short, if this man were to become a model or enter the entertainment industry, I'm afraid he wouldn't have anything to do with the flow of fresh meat right now.

She sighed in disbelief.

If you say this guy is rich, he's rich! Why do you look so handsome?

It's a waste to be too handsome to sell your face!

King. Public relations. Brokers. Ning, began her fantasies again, picturing in her mind how popular Biden Lu would be if he were an artist under her hand, and would surely become the most valuable cash cow she had!

Chapter 19

Shop from afternoon until evening.

Jenny was ravenously hungry.

Biden Lu thanked her for helping him to "choose" the clothes, and invited her to dinner.

Jenny was already hungry, so naturally she wouldn't be able to say no to any more pretense, so at seven o'clock in the evening, the two of them went to a nearby Tauranju for dinner.

Newly launched hairy crab from Yangcheng Lake, she ate ten of them in one sitting.

The guys at the next table are looking straight at it, wondering how a guy who looks so elite and handsome can starve his girlfriend like this. How many days has it been since you've eaten?

Jenny was so hungry that he ate and had never been too concerned about his image.

It's something she's worked out over the years on the job.

Because most of the time it's so busy, and when it's so busy, it's luxury enough to eat on time, so where's the image?

Just want to eat and do things quickly.

When he finished the tenth one, Jenny still wanted to reach for it, but the plate of crab on the table was suddenly taken away.

She stared up at Biden Lu blankly and asked blankly, "What are you doing?"

Biden Lu handed the plate to the waiter to take away and said in a deep voice, "The crab has too much body cold, change something else to eat."

Jenny pouted her lips in dissatisfaction, but knew that he was telling the truth and could only stop.

But after looking at the other dishes on the table, it seemed a bit full and I didn't really want to eat.

So simply put the chopsticks.

Biden Lu saw her put her chopsticks away and stopped eating herself.

Calling the waiter over to pay the bill, they got up together and walked out.

The black Rolls Royce was parked at the side of the road, and Vicky got out of the car and respectfully opened the door for them.

Jenny Jing greeted him with a smile, "Su Special Assistant, have you eaten yet?"

Vicky always felt that there was something eerie in that smile, and even nodded his head with a compensatory smile, "I've eaten."

"Well, that's good."

Jenny Jing got into the car and whispered to Biden Lu, "Mr. Lu, this assistant of yours actually dared to drive your car and run out to eat, leaving you at the hotel regardless, I think it's also too arrogant."

Vicky ton stiffened and explained bitterly, "President, I didn't, I just ate at a nearby restaurant."

Biden Lu, however, nodded as if he couldn't hear what he said, smiling imploringly.

"Well, it's a bit arrogant, I'll punish him later."

"Good."

Jenny's revenge was successful, Vicky looked bitter, and Biden Lu touched her head in favor of her.

The car started, and Biden Lu suddenly took out a bag from the back and handed it to her.

"Here you go."

Jenny was stunned and took a look at it, but it was actually the dress she had tried on in the shop.

"Why did you take this out?"

Biden Lu laughed, "Don't you like it? Summers saw that you liked it, so he bought it."

Jenny Jing looked at Vicky.

Vicky received a rescue tip from his own president and nodded his head incessantly.

"Yes yes, Miss Jing, I bought it, that... I lied to your lady friend before, and it was just a casual remark, so don't worry about it if you're an adult."

Jenny looked at him for a moment and suddenly smiled.

Actually, she was just teasing this Suteuke, but she didn't expect him to be so nervous.

She nodded and pulled her phone out, "I'll transfer the money to you then."

"No no no."

Vicky even refused, God knows, this money is from the president, how would he dare to accept it?

He accosted and released, "That... actually I just had an idea and decided it was still the president's doing, so if you want to give it back, give it back to the president."

Afterwards, he even shut up and played dead, never speaking again.

Jenny looked at Biden Lu in surprise, and Biden Lu said in a soft voice, "I'm not short of money."

Jenny: "....."

Wouldn't she know that he wasn't short of money? Do we need him to say it?

Biden Lu turned to look at her with a smile, "You

If you want to return it, why don't you do something for me?"

"What is it?"

From the pile of papers beside him, Biden Lu drew out a piece of paper.

Jenny took a look at the case of a male artist who was recently very popular under Anning International.

The male entertainer named Xie Snap, finally acted in a Qingju drama fire, there is "Qingju little prince" title.

But the "prince of clean clothes" ended up in a scandal, that is, his ex-girlfriend suddenly jumped out, accusing him of not only cheating during the relationship, domestic violence, but also cheated her of a large sum of money when there was no fire, has not yet returned.

Infidelity is already a toxic spot, add cheating and domestic violence.

Regardless of whether it's true or not, this news is bound to have an extremely negative impact on the artist.

If it were more serious, it would not be an exaggeration to say that his acting career was cut short and his future ruined.

Jenny Jing looked at Biden Lu and was a little suspicious.

"He's an artist under Serenity International, doesn't your company have anyone to do PR for him?"

"It's done, but it's not very effective, and there are too many artists in the company at the moment to focus all of their efforts on him alone."

Jenny frowned.

"It shouldn't be your turn to worry about that, either! Isn't it a bit of a waste of energy for you, a hallowed group president, to worry about an artist?"

Lu Jingzhen pursed his lips and paused.

It took a moment before he said, "He's my cousin."

Jenny: ....

.....

Because of this cousin, Jenny had the privilege of learning about President Lu's family history in advance.

I didn't even realize there was a story about a prince and Cinderella.

It is said that Biden Lu's father was also a gentle and elegant, graceful and beautiful young man.

But instead of liking the blind date arranged by the family, he fell in love with a girl from a poor family.

The family objected, he eloped with that girl, and then came back, the child was someone thigh high, the two elders saw the situation, could not be forced to break them up again, can only agree.

That child was naturally Biden Lu.

Snap Xie, on the other hand, is the only child of his mother's sibling, and although the two families haven't moved around much over the years, they still help out when things really go wrong.

Jenny was overjoyed after hearing that.

"I can't tell, your father is quite capable, so he and your mother should be living happily now."

Biden Lu cast his gaze out the window, his voice tinged with a hint of depression, "I guess so! If they are still alive."

Jenny stalled.

The smile froze at the corners of his mouth.

It took a few seconds for her to respond, and she was too busy restraining herself and whispering, "I'm sorry ah, I didn't know..."

"It's okay."

Biden Lu looked back at her, "It's been many years in the past, I've long since accepted the reality."

Jenny didn't know what to say, and the atmosphere suddenly became tight and awkward.

She had to bring the conversation back to the Xie Snap's case, "I can help you with that, it's just that I've been free lately, but let me see him first."

"Well." Biden Lu nodded, "The day after tomorrow! He's been out of the country for a walk recently, so I told him to book a flight back tomorrow."

"Good."

After it was finalized, it didn't take long to get down to the apartment building where Jenny lived.

She pushed the door open and got out of the car, waving goodbye back to Biden Lu.

In the deep darkness of the night, but somehow, suddenly feel that the gentle and elegant man sitting in the trunk of the car is a little lonely, like a lone light in the long night, can not say the silence.

Her heart suddenly felt like something was stabbing her, and her heartbeat was racing a little faster.

Biden Lu smiled at her and motioned for her to go upstairs, Jenny Jing nodded, and without much hesitation, turned around and walked to the apartment building.

The car behind her left only after her figure had completely disappeared into the building, and Jenny turned back, looking in the direction the car had left, and thought, pulling out her mobile phone to make a call out.

"Hey, I'm looking for someone to get to know you, are you familiar with Snap Shea?"

Chapter 20

The next day, King's birthday party for Maya.

8 p.m., Imperial Hotel.

The party had just begun, but most of the guests had already arrived.

In the lavishly decorated hall, most of Jin City's dignitaries and celebrities are gathered here, mingling under the gorgeous crystal lamps.

Clara wore a lavender hand-embroidered floral patterned dress, bralette design, lined only to the ankles, the outside is layer after layer of transparent soft yarn, all the way down to the floor, looking fairy and beautiful.

With her glass of wine, she moved through the crowd, greeting each of them.

He is a perfect model of a debutante, with graceful manners and good manners.

There was a low sound of praise all around.

"This young lady of the Jing family has really come out beautifully, worthy of being one of the top tier little flower dancers in the entertainment industry today."

"Of course, not only is she pretty, but she's good at marrying! It's not just anyone who can climb up to be the youngest proprietor of a mooch."

"But she's got power herself, and it's only been a few years since she started, can anyone else climb to such a high position?"

"The Jing family is also considered to be blessed with such an outstanding granddaughter, and with Mu joining hands, I'm afraid it will be hard to meet any more enemies in Visterdem."

The low discussion in the banquet hall continued, and Clara's lips curled up in satisfaction.

After all, it's a proud thing to be recognized by everyone for anyone else.

The faces of the Jing family members present were also full of smiles, and even Kelly Wang couldn't stop being proud when she heard it.

She looked around the hall at the guests and asked Kevin Jing with a slight tilt of her head, "Is Jenny Jing here?"

King whispered, "Not yet."

In the meantime, Kelly Wang was imperceptible.

King mumbled quietly, "Mom, she's not coming, is she?"

"It shouldn't." Yu Xiulian also had a hint of worry on her face, "Jenny is a man of her word, could it be that there was a traffic jam on the road, or some temporary situation? Should we make a phone call to find out?"

King smirked, "What will happen? We informed her two days ago. What's the point of putting it off until now if it can't be done ahead of time?"

And it's not like it's rush hour at this time of the day, so why the traffic jam? I think she just deliberately doesn't want to come and embarrass our entire Jing family!"

Yu Xiu Lian barely smiled at the sight.

"Actually, if she doesn't come, the other guests' side won't notice anything, but it's Old Lady Yu's side..."

Old Lady Yu, the godmother of Jenny's mother, Mo Caiwei, was also the notary when Jenny and Rovell Mu made the marriage contract.

The Yu family is also considered an old family in Visterdem, although the power is not as strong as before, but still should not be underestimated, especially in the business sector.

After all, Mrs. Yu's maiden name was Guan, but everyone in China knew that the Guan family in Kyoto was not to be trifled with.

Although Old Lady Yu has been married for many years, she has been in contact with Kyoto and is something the Jing family must not offend.

Kelly Wang frowned tightly for a moment and said in a deep voice, "Go call her and ask her where she is. Just tell her if she doesn't come again, don't blame me for turning my back on her!"

Kevin Jing was so energized that he said "yes" and walked away to make the call.

At that moment, Old Lady Yu came over accompanied by her own grandson, Yu Si Bai.

"Why hasn't Ning girl arrived yet? You guys said before that the marriage was abandoned by Jenny of her own accord before I was willing to come over and take a look, but now it seems that it's not like you're lying to me, right?"

King's family is unobservable.

The change of face.

Kelly Wang was busy piling on a smile and smiled pleasantly, "How could it be? We wouldn't dare to lie to you even if we were lying to anyone na, that child also called us just now and said that there was a traffic jam on the road and it would be a while before she arrived, so she will naturally explain it to you when she arrives."

Old Lady Yu swept a circle around them before she snorted heavily.

"It better be, or if I find out that you're bullying Ning Ya, I'll never stop, and you don't want to hold a grudge against my Yu family!"

The smile on Kelly Wang's face stiffened, and for a moment, she nodded, "Of course."

It was only then that Old Lady Yu snorted heavily and turned to leave.

Mrs. Yu had just left on the front foot, and Kevin Jing also returned holding a mobile phone.

Kelly Wang sank to her knees and asked, "How is it? Is she here or not?"

"It's coming, it says it's on its way."

This eased her mood and she took a deep breath, "That's good, I forgive the dead girl for not daring to play any tricks."

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Vicky also just happened to send an invitation to Biden Lu to follow.

"President, Miss Jingjia is celebrating her birthday today and invited you to attend, want to go?"

The invitation had actually been delivered to him two days ago, but Biden Lu was busy with his business and he was also busy, so he forgot about it.

It was only now that the party had all started that he remembered it, and he was too busy taking it to him to go through it.

Biden Lu lifted his eyes from the papers on his desk and swept the two names on the invitation.

"Is she going to be there?"

No need to ask, Vicky also knew who the "she" he was talking about was.

Even replied, "It will be there, I saw Miss King's name on the list."

Biden Lu's hand that was signing, for a moment, nodded, "Go prepare a congratulatory gift, we'll leave later."

"Yes."

.....

The ballroom continued to sing and dance.

The Jing family, however, was becoming a little disturbed.

For no other reason, Jenny never showed up.

Old Lady Yu sent someone to ask Kelly Wang several times, and every time the answer she got was that it was coming right away.

But seeing that more than an hour had passed and Jenny had not yet arrived, the old lady was losing patience, almost suspecting that the Jing family was lying.

Just as he was about to attack, he heard a loud noise at the door.

The crowd curiously turned to look around, and when they saw the source of the noise, they all sucked in a breath of cold air.

Oh, my God!Who's that?It's beautiful!

Jenny wore a dark blue starry skirt today.

Tall and slender, this long dress set off just right, a little starlight seems to spread from the bottom of the feet to the waist, the more slender waist seems to be more and more not to hold.

A delicate face, stunning underneath the light makeup, with long, slightly curly chestnut hair falling loose over her shoulders, swaying gently as she walked.

She walked into the hall and stood still not far from the door, her cold gaze looking over the guests in the hall, all emitting an aura of indifference that refused to let anyone in.

Some of the guests came in contact with her gaze and felt a slight chill come over them, but they couldn't help but feel the urge to run away.

But the face was so beautiful that it seemed as if it would be a loss if one missed a glance, so even though the heart felt apprehensive, it was still reluctant to move its eyes, hoping to look at it for just a few more minutes.
