

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 160

Seeing her visibly suffocated, Liam Lu suddenly smiled, raised his hand to jam her chin and crossed her face, looking at her with a smile.

“Are you hesitating. This time I am sick, should you donate blood or give yourself to help me?”

The next second, without waiting for Zoey Gu’s reaction, he jammed her waist, turned and pressed her onto the big bed behind him, whipped up her clothes neatly with his hands, and skillfully attacked the city.

Zoey Gu was stretched all over, and his hands pushed against him subconsciously, but his body couldn’t help but tremble slowly under his attack.

She gasped quickly and stared at the man on her with shame and annoyance.

“Liam Lu, it’s not what you said, there are old ladies here, we can’t do this...”

Before she finished speaking, she was bitten heavily on her lips, and her clothes were torn apart in an instant.

“Ah...Liam Lu!”

The man clung to her tightly, allowing her to clearly see the pain on her face and the body’s abnormal desire for her, and he whispered in her ear.

“Nobody is there anymore. Zoey, now you want to save me as many times as you want, come as you please.”

What seemed like a rescue was actually Liam Lu’s rap-eating tofu affair, and it ended in Zoey Gu’s desperate begging for mercy.

After it was over, Zoey Gu seemed to have been washed with water, lying limp on the bed, leaving only the strength to breathe.

Liam Lu was refreshed, fastened the last button of his clothes, and bent over to hug her.

“Tired? I’ll take you to the bath.”

As he walked, the shackles on his feet inadvertently made a fierce crashing sound, which was unusually sharp.

The crimson on Zoey Gu’s face hasn’t faded yet, but his expression has suddenly dimmed. When I watched Liam Lu, he was filled with distress.

Liam Lu pulled his lips and looked at her deeply.

“What? Worried that I can’t move you with my fetters?”

Zoey Gu shook his head, propped up his body wrapped in the quilt, reached out his hand to touch the half of his face that had disappeared, and asked softly.

“Being treated like this by your own grandmother, are you...uncomfortable?”

Hearing this, Liam Lu smiled without anger, held her hand with his backhand, and kissed her on his lips.

“Zoey, you are too naive, and you overestimate the Lu family’s care for feelings. Isn’t that the best proof that the old lady can start with me? She has only medicines that can aggravate my condition, but no cure. “

Zoey Gu’s eyes widened suddenly, looking at Liam Lu in shock.

But seeing him suddenly laughed, he raised his hand and scratched the tip of her nose vigorously.

“Don’t show the pity and sympathy in my eyes, besides, don’t I have your best antidote?”

He said, possessed and hugged her in his arms, buried his head in her neck and sniffed deeply, closed his eyes slightly, and his voice became dark.

“There is one week left. You stay by my side obediently, avoiding the eyes and ears of the old lady. After this month, we will return to Berven City to get the certificate.”

After a pause, he kissed her sideways on her earlobe again, and his voice suddenly dropped.

“Just being Mrs. Lu, you may be wronged in the future.”

After all, Alina Yin was not the child of him and her.

The men of the Lu family were short-lived.

After Liam Lu weighed in, he finally opened his mouth.

“Zoey, Alina Yin is actually me...”
