

Chapter 161 It Was Really A Gentle Night!

After Madelyn finished speaking, she still cried.

She had liked him before, maybe she still did now.

Even though the person in front of her had many flaws, even though he had a bad temper and was introverted, and especially loved doing that kind of thing, Madelyn knew in her heart.

She liked him!

But no matter how much she liked him, she could only guard her own heart.

She didn't want to become a mess!

Benjamin gently wiped the corner of her eye with his warm fingertips, but the gentler he was, the harder Madelyn cried... In the end, she couldn't stop herself.

He simply hugged her and lit a cigarette for himself.

Benjamin leaned against the sofa, slowly smoking, looking dashing and attractive.

Any woman would want to pounce on him.

Madelyn didn't speak, she just clung to him, silently shedding tears.

Her tears stained his shirt, hot and uncomfortable, but Benjamin let her be with her little temper...

He smoked more than half a cigarette before asking softly.

"Shall we try again?"

"This time we'll take it slow, if you don't want to do this kind of thing, we won't do it, I just want you to feel comfortable!"

...

Madelyn didn't say anything.

And Benjamin also knew what kind of person he was in her heart!

He was actually really busy, he didn't have many women before Madelyn appeared, so naturally he wouldn't act so urgently.

But when a woman he likes is always around at home.

If he didn't do it, wasn't he an idiot?

He probably guessed Madelyn's thoughts. He had seen her dating Bryson, going to art exhibitions and enjoying fireworks together... things that Benjamin didn't value.

"Only a wimp would play these games!" he thought.

However, he was immensely relieved that Madelyn had been dating Bryson for 10 days.

If it had been David instead, things might have been different!

He understood her thoughts and knew exactly how to please her.

Madelyn hesitated for a moment.

"There's a gathering in the music room tomorrow night."

Benjamin was considerate, "Drink less, and I'll come pick you up when it's over."

He was so accommodating that Madelyn couldn't refuse.

She murmured an agreement.

Benjamin pressed her against the back of the chair and kissed her deeply for a long time before speaking hoarsely, "Dress nicely the day after tomorrow, Madelyn... it's our first New Year's Eve together."

Madelyn looked at him in surprise...

Outside the car window, snowflakes began to fall.

Warm and soft, they softened the night and brought them closer together.

Benjamin knew when to stop.

He escorted her upstairs and didn't ask to stay overnight. When he went downstairs, Madelyn couldn't help but walk to the window.

It was a winter night with snowflakes floating in the air, and when she breathed out, white mist appeared...

Benjamin stood under the dim yellow streetlight, leaning against his golden Continental and smoking a cigarette. Even his exhales exuded a strong masculine scent.

Madelyn held a cup of hot cocoa and watched him quietly.

She thought it was really a gentle night.

Benjamin smoked two more cigarettes and flicked the butts onto the ground before looking up at Madelyn with deep eyes.

She didn't have time to hide.

She had to meet his gaze.

Benjamin smiled lightly, a little mischievous and very manly.

He waved at Madelyn and got into the car.

The golden Continental didn't immediately drive away. After a while, Madelyn received a message from Benjamin.

[Miss me?]

...

Just a few simple words kept Madelyn awake all night.

If it weren't for that dark night, she might have thrown herself into his arms immediately.

She had been enveloped in honey before, and although she was afraid, she also had the needs of a woman. After being strung along by Benjamin for so many days, she also had some desires...

She guessed that he wouldn't let her go the day after tomorrow.

Madelyn didn't know if she was secretly looking forward to it, but on New Year's Eve, she did dress up seriously.

Champagne-colored silk maxi dress wrapped around her body, particularly enticing. Outside, she wore a thin white down jacket that could be removed to admire her graceful curves...

Madelyn blushed as she applied her makeup and even despised herself.

She knew that Benjamin had lured her...

Chapter 162 Benjamin, Be Gentle To Me!

The banquet was lively and colorful.

With a capacity for 200 people, the dinner was exquisite, and Penelope had even invited the famous emcee Gredax to host, creating a great atmosphere.

Madelyn, as one of the partners, couldn't avoid drinking and socializing.

Vivian helped her fend off quite a bit.

The two girls were in the bathroom, touching up their makeup.

Madelyn looked at Vivian with concern and asked, "I saw you drinking quite a bit just now. Are you okay?"

"I'm fine! What could possibly happen?" Vivian's expression was playful, deliberately pulling down her neckline to reveal some cleavage. "It's sexy! Grayson loves it. He's like a dog when he gets into bed, all over the place, biting and nibbling."

She spoke while laughing, her body shaking with mirth.

However, Madelyn knew that Vivian wasn't feeling good inside.

Vivian hadn't completely moved on from her marriage with Jackson, and those sexual encounters were just a way to numb herself. When she woke up sober in bed, the feeling of emptiness was unbearable.

Madelyn patted her gently and said, "Vivian, you've had too much to drink."

Vivian flipped her hair and smiled, but she also showed concern for Madelyn's private affairs.

During Samuel's hospitalization, Vivian had gone to visit and happened to bump into Benjamin.

At that time, Vivian knew that things weren't completely over between Madelyn and Benjamin.

Vivian asked, and Madelyn didn't hide anything, whispering softly, "We haven't reconciled yet. It's just physical."

Vivian fell silent for a moment before telling Madelyn, "Eleanor got married! The wedding was just these past two days, and all the Clark family went to England for it, but Benjamin didn't go. Probably to avoid suspicion!"

Madelyn was surprised.

She really didn't know about this.

Vivian had drunk too much and leaned her head lightly on Madelyn's shoulder, crying vulnerably.

"Madelyn, we seem to be helpless."

"We've both fallen in love with the wrong man!"

...

Vivian was disappointed in Jackson, and Grayson was just a bedmate to her.

But after sleeping together for a long time, feelings inevitably arose.

She didn't want to get emotionally involved, but she seemed to have lost control.

With red eyes, Vivian said, "Madelyn, I'm already like this. You should find a good man to marry!"

Madelyn knew Vivian had drunk too much.

To avoid losing her composure in public, Madelyn took her phone and called Grayson.

At first, Grayson thought it was Vivian and said directly, "When are you coming back? I've been losing quite a bit of money playing cards by myself."

Madelyn spoke softly, "I'm Madelyn. Vivian's a little drunk. Can you come and pick her up?"

Grayson immediately threw down his cards. "Where are you? I'll come over right away."

Grayson arrived quickly, dressed not very warmly for nearing the new year, but there was always that smell of a well-dressed young playboy.

Moreover, he had a woman's perfume on him.

Madelyn instinctively didn't like it.

Grayson, on the other hand, looked very enthusiastic when he saw her and called her sister-in-law as soon as he took Vivian.

Madelyn said blandly, "Bryson and I have nothing going on. Don't call me that again."

Grayson looked at Madelyn and smiled.

Tonight was supposed to be enjoyable, despite this little interruption.

However, this did not affect Benjamin's mood. When Madelyn didn't react, all the crystal chandeliers in the hall turned off, leaving only a small orange night light.

In the dim light, the atmosphere became ambiguous.

Madelyn hugged his neck, thinking he would want to make a move.

But he didn't, instead holding her close. "I'll play the piano for you." he said.

Madelyn never knew that Benjamin could play the piano, but with such an intention, no woman would refuse.

However, she didn't expect him to pull her onto his lap.

"Benjamin..." Madelyn tilted her head slightly, her voice filled with unease.

Benjamin lightly touched her chin and turned his head to kiss her, lingeringly kissing her for a long time...even the air heated up ambiguously.

Madelyn was kissed until she lost her strength, leaning against him.

Her face was red and hot.

She thought, fortunately the light was dim, otherwise he would definitely make fun of her.

At that moment, the sound of the piano rang out.

It was Moonlight Sonata, which she liked...

Outside, gentle snow was falling.

Inside the apartment was warm, and she was in his arms, intimately entwined with him.

At this moment, even a heart of stone would melt, let alone her who had always liked him. Madelyn's heart softened.

She had also drunk alcohol, so her emotions were even stronger.

Benjamin was also affected, but he wasn't like a young boy, instead gently insisting on giving her a beautiful night...

She sat on his lap, and she knew exactly how he felt.

Madelyn also had desires as a woman, and sitting on his lap for two hours had already had feelings.

She really wanted...wanted him to kiss her...

"Benjamin!" Her voice was full of moisture.

He clearly knew what she wanted, but he pretended not to, asking her instead, "What's wrong, Madelyn?"

Madelyn couldn't stand it anymore.

She turned around, boldly sitting in his arms, tilting her head up to kiss him actively.

The snow continued to fall...

The large French window reflected the intertwined figures of a man and a woman. Benjamin suddenly lifted her onto the piano...

The piano immediately shook!

"Benjamin..."

"Benjamin...don't torture me like this!"

Madelyn's voice and the sound of the piano merged together, unable to distinguish between crying or trembling. Her pitiful state made her feel extremely ashamed, but she couldn't care about that anymore. She wanted him to do more to her.

Tonight, Benjamin was particularly bold.

He leaned down to kiss her, but didn't actually do anything. He hoarsely called her name.

"Madelyn, feel it carefully. It'll be different!"

...

Madelyn opened her eyes and looked at him.

Her eyes were moist with tears, pitiful and watery. Benjamin had never done this kind of thing to a woman before, but tonight he wanted to make her happy...

He covered Madelyn's eyes.

In front of her was darkness, but her body was under his spell.

She trembled lightly in fear, only able to call his name over and over again, hoarse and quiet.

Benjamin...

Benjamin...

Benjamin...Ben...jamin...

Chapter 163 Madelyn Is William's Daughter

Madelyn felt like she had been pulled out of water.

On this Chinese New Year's Eve, Benjamin gave her an experience she had never had before, subverting all her previous knowledge.

The lights were suddenly turned on.

He kissed her, admiring the way her face turned red.

"Madelyn, you look so beautiful right now. Do you want to see?"

Madelyn covered her eyes.

She didn't want to see, not at all!

But Benjamin picked her up and headed straight for the bathroom in the master bedroom. Madelyn leaned against his shoulder, biting the flesh on his shoulder hard, but it was no use.

He pressed her from behind against the sink, holding onto her waist and admiring her with her.

"Madelyn, your face was even redder just now."

He whispered shamelessly into her ear.

Madelyn wanted to escape, but as soon as she turned around, he turned her back again!

He gently pinched her delicate and small face and lifted it towards the mirror.

Madelyn knew that she was a mess right now. Even if she looked presentable now, she was played by him into that state just now...

Madelyn knew that he didn't have loose private life, but he was still in that circle.

She wondered if he understood women better than those people like Grayson.

Did excellent people do better in all aspects, even in such situations?

She closed her eyes lightly and begged him softly.

"Benjamin, don't do this!"

Benjamin had teased her enough.

He still held her and admired her appearance in the mirror with great care. He also helped her straighten her dress carefully. Then he couldn't resist saying, "Don't go back tonight! I won't do anything, we'll just spend the night together."

They both had to be with their families on New Year.

So tonight, he wanted to celebrate the new year early with her.

Madelyn calmed down a bit.

She slowly opened her eyes, and her ears were red.

For her, tonight was like the first snow of winter melting away. With all the romantic things he had done for her, no woman could resist.

Madelyn didn't want things to progress too quickly.

She was a little desperate because she couldn't resist Benjamin's charm. As long as he put in a little effort, she surrendered completely.

But she didn't want to show it!

As the sky began to brighten, Madelyn woke up from Benjamin's embrace.

His phone had been ringing non-stop, but Benjamin seemed tired and hadn't woken up.

Madelyn nudged him, "Benjamin, your phone."

Benjamin woke up.

His handsome and slightly charming eyes looked at her before he took hold of her small face and kissed her.

"You have... a phone call."

Madelyn was panting.

He was really like that hadn't seen a woman in several lifetimes so he just wanted to kiss her anytime and do something. But men like Benjamin always wanted her body, and she couldn't deny her happiness for that.

Benjamin laughed and let go of her.

He was about to answer the phone, but his face darkened when he saw the caller ID, and then he hung up.

After Madelyn was surprised, she understood.

It was Eleanor's call.

She didn't say anything and wanted to get out of the car, but Benjamin pulled her back and held her tightly in his arms.

"Madelyn, there's nothing between us!"

"She's married!"

...

Madelyn made a soft sound.

But she didn't think that Eleanor had stopped bothering them, or else she wouldn't have called so early in the morning. In fact, it was probably only the third day of Eleanor's marriage!

She couldn't wait to call her first love?

Monatiz, Dimont.

Eleanor was wearing a sexy lace nightgown sitting in the living room.

There were sounds of men and women playing downstairs in the servants' quarters, which was quite ambiguous.

That was her husband and the maid having an affair, and she chose to turn a blind eye because she didn't love him at all!

At this moment, Eleanor's gaze was cold.

She was staring at a letter in her hand.

It was sent by Gredax, a successful jeweler who briefly regained consciousness after treatment and sent the information William wanted to know through a letter.

William had been looking for his biological child!

That jeweler found a clue.

The letter included a photo, a photo that Eleanor couldn't be more familiar with...

It was Madelyn!"

Chapter 164 Benjamin, Let's Try Again!

Benjamin never answered her calls.

Was he... in love with Madelyn?

Madelyn, who was actually Daddy's biological daughter!

How could this be!

How could she take everything that belongs to her!

Eleanor's face twisted into a paranoid expression, a hint of cold laughter at the corner of her mouth.

So what if she was William's real daughter?

As long as she destroyed the evidence and took care of that half-dead jewelry merchant, no one would know the truth, and Eleanor would be William's only Eloise on hand!

Eleanor laughed lightly.

She tore the letter to shreds!

Downstairs, her husband was sleeping with the nanny again, making a lot of noise and completely ignoring his new wife...

Eleanor didn't care anymore!

New Year's Eve in Gredax.

At the end of the year, Benjamin had many social engagements, and they hadn't seen each other for several days.

Madelyn spent the New Year with Mr. and Mrs. Green.

"Oh... the pipe burst!"

Camila exclaimed from the kitchen, her apron soaked with water dripping onto the floor.

Samuel quickly said, "Quickly change your clothes, don't catch a cold."

Camila felt warm being cared for by her husband.

She walked towards the bedroom, saying to Madelyn, "Maddie, call the property management to come and fix the pipes, otherwise we won't be able to have our New Year's dinner."

Madelyn nodded.

She found the property management number and gave them a call.

The property management was fast, and roughly half an hour later the doorbell rang. Madelyn went to answer it.

Ten minutes later, Madelyn sat in the golden Continental car.

She bit her lip lightly, "I didn't agree to meet your parents."

Benjamin lit a cigarette and rested his hand outside the window...

He smiled teasingly, "If I met your parents, shouldn't you meet mine? Or do you think that getting married doesn't require telling our parents and we can just make a private arrangement?"

Madelyn turned her head in anger.

Benjamin held a cigarette in one hand and grabbed her head in the other.

He kissed her...

After kissing for a long time, he leaned his forehead against hers and murmured, "You don't need to tell them when we sleep together, but you still need to tell them when we get married."

Madelyn didn't want to rush things.

She asked him, "Didn't you say you have a New Year's gift for me?"

Benjamin smiled and stubbed out his cigarette, then started the car.

The car headed towards his apartment, but halfway through, he stopped the car once.

Benjamin got out and bought a pack of cigarettes, as well as a small box that he put on the console.

Madelyn was angry and blushed.

She turned away from him slightly, "Benjamin, is this your New Year's gift to me?"

Benjamin buckled his seatbelt and brushed her blushing face lightly, laughing softly, "Did you think that this was meant for you, Ms. Green? Are you thinking about having sex with me when you see this?"

He shamelessly teased her, but Madelyn couldn't be bothered to deal with him.

Benjamin sat up straight and looked ahead.

He coughed lightly, "Um... Madelyn... am I good in bed?"

This was a topic that Madelyn couldn't talk about.

She had never been with anyone else except Benjamin, but she could vaguely guess that Benjamin had a high demand for sex and was very skilled at it.

She didn't say anything, but the blush on her face told him the answer.

Everything else after that was natural.

Adults didn't need to say too much, just a glance could tell each other's desires.

As soon as they entered the apartment, Benjamin embraced Madelyn from behind. Her waist was particularly slender, and he liked it very much. He hugged her back and whispered, "In the living room or the bedroom... hmm?"

Madelyn was lost in the sensation of being kissed by him.

She tilted her head slightly and tensed her fair neck...

"Let's go to the bedroom..."

"Benjamin... don't..."

Chapter 165 Madelyn, Do You Like the Diamond Ring

Benjamin must have been waiting to have sex for a long time.

He had sex with her all afternoon. Madelyn couldn't count how many times he did climax...

It was dusk when she woke up.

The faint golden sunlight flooded in, and her bedroom was haloed in yellow.

Madelyn felt limp and run down and could barely move.

"You're awake."

Benjamin's voice rang out.

Madelyn looked over at him and saw that he changed into fresh clothes after a shower.

He was well-dressed and handsome.

Madelyn blushed a little.

She pulled the covers over herself and sat up softly. "What time is it?"

Benjamin walked over, sat down on the edge of the bed, stroked her delicate face, and said in a muffled voice, "We've had sex four times."

"Benjamin... Stop it!"

...

Benjamin smiled and then called out toward the outside.

There was a pattering of walking on the floor.

Madelyn looked at Benjamin...

A charming smile broke on Benjamin's lips. "This is my New Year's gift to you. See if you like it."

Just as he finished speaking, a little white dog entered the bedroom.

This was the little white dog that Madelyn used to feed.

Snowy looked different now. Its fur was shaved, and it wore a beautiful collar.

Madelyn was so surprised. She wanted to hug the dog, but she had no clothes on.

Benjamin picked up the dog.

He removed a small object from Snowy's neck and said, "I have Snowy neutered, and it's yours now."

Madelyn didn't notice the object in his hand and happily petted the dog.

It was indeed a great New Year's gift.

Snowy recognized Madelyn and tamely let her pet him.

After she played with the dog for a while, Benjamin let the dog go out. He took Madelyn's hand and said in a husky voice, "I have another gift for you!"

When Benjamin drove back to the Clarks' mansion, it was already 7:00 pm.

Eloise was so happy and asked, "Where did you get that dog?" I can't tell what breed it is."

Benjamin walked into the living room and saw Daniel.

Benjamin sat down, leaned back on the sofa, and said lazily, "It's the dog from downstairs! Madelyn likes it so much, so I brought it back. Madelyn will take care of it."

Eloise sniffled.

"I wondered why you are in love with animals. It turns out that you're trying to suck up to Madelyn with that dog."

Brianna walked out of the kitchen.

She saw Benjamin coming back alone and became upset. "I heard from Paisley that you went to Mandelyn's house. Why didn't you bring her back for dinner?"

Benjamin said casually, "I'll bring her back on the fifth!"

Brianna was pleased. The fortune teller was right. Brianna had to properly thank him for this.

...

Daniel had been looked at Benjamin coldly.

Benjamin was languid and slouchy since he came back home.

Men knew men best!

When one had sex many times, he would be too sexually gratified to move.

Daniel could tell that Benjamin had sex with Madelyn today...

Madelyn would come over for dinner at the Clarks' mansion on the fifth. Daniel thought to himself,
"Does that mean Benjamin and Madelyn are going to get married? Is Madelyn going to be my sister-in-law?"

Daniel's blood turned cold.

No one knew he quietly clenched his fists...

"Daniel, why aren't you eating?"

Benjamin put a pork rib on Daniel's plate and said gently, "Look how skinny you're lately. Come on, eat up, or Eloise will feel sad about you!"

Eloise said loudly, "No, I won't feel bad for him!"

Daniel came back to his senses with a start.

Benjamin was smiling.

He said to Eloise, "I'll take you to set off the fireworks later, take some pictures and send them to Madelyn."

Pleasure welled up inside Eloise's heart.

She turned to Daniel and said, "Daniel, you take pictures of me and Benjamin later, and make sure he looks good in the pictures. Madelyn must be thrilled at his pictures and can't wait to marry Benjamin."

Daniel looked pale.

Benjamin smiled faintly. "Actually... I gave her a ring today."

Chapter 166 Benjamin, I Only Have Eyes for You

On the night of New Year's Eve.

Madelyn saw the best fireworks in the world.

Benjamin set off a lot of fireworks at the Clarks' mansion...

Eloise ran around him with a small firework in her hand, glowing with happiness. And a pleasant, enticing smile spread over Benjamin's chiseled, handsome face.

The clock struck twelve o'clock at midnight.

Madelyn picked up Benjamin's call, and he said, "Happy New Year, Madelyn."

Madelyn leaned against the window.

She stared into the darkness, and her heart started to melt. "Happy New Year to you too!"

They didn't hang up the phone and they talked occasionally...

Madelyn could hear voices on the other end of the line.

She could even hear Daniel talking, but now her heart belonged to Benjamin. She didn't have room for anyone else in her heart.

As she was drifting off to sleep at 2:00 a.m., she heard Benjamin's voice.

Madelyn thought to herself in a daze, "It's such a good year!"

...

It was the fourth of the month.

Benjamin came to pick Madelyn up, and Samuel and Camila said their goodbyes to them.

Madelyn got in the car and took off her jacket. "Where are we going?"

Benjamin held the steering wheel with one hand and turned to look at her sideways.

Madelyn was wearing a red wool dress underneath because of the New Year, and the little piece of skin that was exposed was as white as snow. She looked so beautiful.

Benjamin said in a low and hoarse voice, "You look so good!"

Madelyn couldn't help but blush.

Benjamin held her hand gently without saying anything and drove GT Aurum to his apartment.

When Madelyn arrived at the apartment, she tried to get Snowy to come.

Benjamin hugged her from behind. "Snowy is in the Clarks' mansion, and you'll meet it tomorrow!"

Madelyn felt he was unbearably hot.

She knew vaguely what he was up for, but she must act bashful and reserved and couldn't immediately make love to him. How could Benjamin not know what she was thinking?

Madelyn was a little embarrassed, and her face flushed.

She was still embarrassed until she reached the Clarks' mansion.

Benjamin pulled over the car, turned sideways, and pinched her cheeks. "Madelyn, there's nothing embarrassing about buying gifts for your future in-laws and sister-in-law! You're so thin-skinned. Who was on top of me last night and wouldn't get off?"

Madelyn was about to have a fit...

The car door opened.

Eloise came over with Snowy in her arms and said affectionately, "Madelyn, you're here!"

Madelyn had to let Benjamin get away with this.

Madelyn got out of the car and handed Eloise a gift. "This is for you."

Eloise exclaimed before she even opened her gift. "How do you know I love it?"

Benjamin laughed.

Eloise was enthusiastic!

He took Madelyn to meet Alexander and Brianna. When Madelyn entered the hall, she saw Daniel sitting on the couch.

She met someone from her past in the New Year...

Daniel's eyes were deep.

Madelyn had considered that she would not be able to get rid of Daniel if she was with Benjamin. She only loved Benjamin... It was a long time ago, and the past was the past.

It was not like she and Daniel had been in a real relationship!

Benjamin went upstairs to meet Alexander. Eloise played with the dog in the yard. Only Daniel and Madelyn were left in the hall...

Daniel sneered.

"Have you made up your mind? Are you really going to marry Benjamin?"

Madelyn said coldly, "Daniel, can we just stay out of each other's way?"

"No!"

Daniel narrowed his eyes. "You think I can stand you and Benjamin being intimate every day?"

Even though Madelyn had been prepared for his snide remarks, she was still sad.

"Daniel, in fact, our four-year relationship is nothing but a scam to me. Stay away from me. Let bygones be bygones. It's good for both of us!"

Daniel's eyes fell on her.

He saw the diamond ring on her finger...

He was devastated and froze for a long time, before he spoke, "Are... Are you getting married?"

Madelyn was about to say something when footsteps sounded from the second floor.

Benjamin and Alexander slowly walked downstairs.

Benjamin was a few steps ahead, looked at Daniel, and then Madelyn's red eyes. His eyes became unfathomable...

Chapter 167 Madelyn, I Feel Sorry for You

The atmosphere was weird.

Madelyn knew quite a bit about Benjamin, and she was afraid that he would be angry.

Instead of being angry, he walked up to her and asked very gently, "What happened?"

Madelyn shook her head.

She looked up at him with trusting eyes.

Benjamin smiled, turned around, and said to Alexander, "Dad, this is Madelyn!"

He gently put his arms around Madelyn. "This is my dad!"

Alexander was over fifty years old and looked remarkably well-preserved. Benjamin more closely resembled Alexander.

Madelyn greeted Alexander respectfully.

Alexander slowly walked downstairs.

At this time, Brianna came over. When she saw Alexander did not say anything, she nudged him.

"Madelyn said hello to you. Stop putting on airs."

Alexander's eyes were contemplative.

Alexander knew that Ben had brought a girl home on Eloise's birthday!

But Ben did not introduce the girl to Alexander on that day. Therefore, Alexander did not take that girl seriously.

Alexander never thought that Ben was in a serious relationship with her!

Alexander looked Madelyn up and down with his shrewd, sharp eyes.

She was good-looking and demure...

It was said that her career was booming!

Alexander was very fond of Madelyn, but he had never shown his feelings. He just nodded lightly and said to Brianna, "It's just Madeline's first visit to our house. And we are celebrating the New Year. Could you give her a New Year's present, please?"

Brianna then gave Madelyn a big New Year's gift.

She gave Madelyn a big wad of dollars and an expensive Taurus bracelet.

Madelyn was surprised.

Brianna said lovingly, "You're a Taurus, and it's your birth year. Wearing a Taurus bracelet can bring you good luck."

Madelyn smiled and thanked Brianna.

Benjamin looked at her with a half-smile, and Madelyn was annoyed but thought it was sweet.

After playing with the dog, Eloise rushed in.

Daniel was the only one unhappy in the hall when he knew that Benjamin and Madelyn were getting married.

During the dinner, Alexander was in a good mood and drank 250 milliliters of hard liquor.

Brianna didn't stop Alexander from drinking. She rarely allowed him to drink.

Madelyn was a bit restrained. And Benjamin was rarely attentive to a woman.

"Madelyn, the soup is nourishing."

After William left, the hall was deadly silent, and everyone felt bad about it.

Alexander slowly finished his cup of coffee.

He looked at Benjamin, his favorite son, and Madelyn, and said, "You two come with me to the study!"

In a moment, Madelyn followed Benjamin to the study on the second floor.

It was obvious that Alexander was not in a good mood!

Alexander looked at Madelyn gently and spoke amiably as if he treated her like his own family.

"Madelyn, please go make a pot of coffee!"

Madelyn was slightly astounded.

She was not stupid. She guessed that Alexander cared a lot about William, and she would have to compromise and make certain sacrifices.

It was useless for her to argue.

Madelyn quietly made coffee...

Alexander did not say anything while Madelyn was making the coffee.

He quietly eyed Madelyn up and down.

Madelyn was likable, meek, and educated. She was so much better than Eleanor!

Alexander was fond of Madelyn, and he used to be Benjamin's age and in love. Alexander never wanted to hurt Madelyn, but William risked his life to save Eloise back then!

Alexander could never repay William for his kindness!

Madelyn poured them coffee, and Benjamin's eyes fell on her with tenderness.

He spoke to Alexander. "Dad, it's not appropriate!"

Alexander made a gesture. "Ben, I need you to listen to me!"

Alexander looked down at his cup of coffee and seemed to be caught in memory.

"Your Uncle Bennett had saved Eloise, but it was not like that we had to give everything to repay his kindness! There's one thing you don't know. Eleanor was adopted by your Uncle Bennett and Mrs. Bennett. It's partially because Mrs. Bennett is barren. But it was also because your Uncle Bennett had been in the icy water for so long that his fertility was affected. He lost his fertility!"

Both Benjamin and Madelyn were shocked!

Benjamin spoke with difficulty, "Dad, you never told me that!"

Alexander smiled bitterly.

How could he let others know about such a private matter unless he absolutely had to?"

He sighed softly. "Your Uncle Bennett has a missing child, but he couldn't find the child. But even if his child is found, his status and social standing will prevent him from recognizing the child."

Benjamin fell silent.

Alexander helplessly smiled. "Ben, it's entirely reasonable for you to fight this lawsuit!"

Alexander looked at Madelyn, and his tone was quite gentle. "Madelyn, I'm so sorry! I'll make it up to you! Don't worry. Ben and Eleanor are never going to get back together. You have to trust him on that."

Madelyn knew Alexander meant well.

Alexander was a man of honor and status but treated her with such kindness.

He already treated her as his daughter-in-law, and if she stopped Benjamin from doing this, she would be seen as mean and thoughtless.

Actually, Madelyn was very reluctant.

But now, she had no other choice but to be a bigger person!

She looked at Benjamin and met his eyes.

After a long time, Madelyn whispered, "I trust him!"

Alexander really liked Madelyn. He felt so sorry for Madelyn and offered her a house, but Madelyn refused to take it!

Chapter 168 Benjamin Wasn't Home Late at Night

After walking out of the study, Benjamin pulled Madelyn over.

He held her in his arms without speaking... Madelyn was aggrieved.

Madelyn was in his house now during New Year's holidays, so she didn't lose her temper.

She leaned over his shoulder, smelling his nice perfume, and asked in a low voice, "When are you coming back?"

Benjamin had to go to the office later.

The lawyer of Eleanor's husband was waiting to have formal conversations with Benjamin.

Benjamin thought for a moment and said, "I will be back before dinner! I'll have dinner with you, and then we'll go back to the apartment... Madelyn, this is not going to affect our lives."

Madelyn forced a smile.

In the afternoon, Benjamin left after Alexander.

Brianna had intended to hang out with Madelyn and Eloise, but she was in no mood for it now...

The atmosphere at the Clarks' mansion was a bit depressing.

Madelyn waited for Benjamin from day to night, but Benjamin had not returned yet.

Benjamin made a call to Madelyn and asked her to eat first. He would have the driver take her back to the apartment. He said he would be back later.

Madelyn did not ask what time he would be back home.

When it came to Eleanor, Madelyn felt her self-esteem was hurt.

When Madelyn left with Snowy at 8:00 p.m., Brianna felt so sorry for her.

Madelyn smiled faintly. "I'm all right!"

But she knew that she felt bitter inside the whole day...

She got into the car.

The driver did not drive immediately, and the door to the rear seat passenger was pulled open.

Daniel appeared in the night.

The driver was so sensible that he could see there was something between Mr. Campbell and Ms. Green. The driver thought he'd better keep his mouth shut.

Daniel held the roof of the car and looked at Madelyn. "I have something to tell you."

Madelyn was in a bad mood and didn't want to talk to him.

Daniel grabbed her by the arm and forcefully dragged her out of the car...

The night wind was strong.

Madelyn goggled at him. Daniel lowered his head and lit a cigarette. He blew smoke rings and raised his eyes at her. "Do you want to be with Benjamin after all this? The international divorce case can take up to two years. Are you gonna watch Benjamin interact with his old flame all this time? Every time Eleanor cuts her artery, Benjamin will visit her in the hospital, as his father tells him. Madelyn, is that what you want? Are you going to put up all of this?"

This was hard to hear. What Daniel said disgusted her.

But what he said was right!

Madelyn said calmly, "Daniel... It's none of your business whether I'm happy or not!"

Daniel slammed the roof of the car!

The driver was startled.

Daniel looked horribly angry in the darkness as he questioned her, "Madelyn, you think I'm inhuman and don't want the best for you, don't you? But has it occurred to you that I want you to have a damn good life?"

Daniel was fuming.

His fingers were trembling as he held the cigarette. "Don't lose your head. You're better off with David than you are with Benjamin!"

Madelyn's face was pale.

Daniel stared at her quietly, and spoke very gently all of a sudden, "Madelyn, would you consider giving me another chance? I won't let you down again."

When Madelyn said this, Penelope got choked up, smiled, and derided. "Bad girl, I want to date a handsome man abroad and never come back. You're holding me up with the music studio!"

Although they were laughing, both of them felt bitter in their hearts!

Penelope's stomach cancer was terminal. How long could she live?

Penelope was going to leave. Madelyn wondered what it was like to see her again!

Madelyn was in a particularly depressed mood!

She had a meal with Penelope as a farewell, but she didn't think she would meet Benjamin here.

Madelyn and Benjamin hadn't seen each other for almost a week.

They spoke only a few words on the phone!

When Madelyn met Benjamin at this moment, she couldn't help but sigh!

Benjamin was not alone but was accompanied by Paisley and two other strange men.

Madelyn knew Benjamin was talking business and only nodded lightly.

She was going to take Penelope home.

Penelope refused, shaking her head gently.

Penelope was a shrewd and sane woman. She could tell at a glance that Madelyn and Benjamin were estranged, and she smiled faintly, "I'll just take a taxi."

Madelyn hailed a cab for Penelope and watch her get in the car.

Penelope's thin figure faded into the night.

Madelyn felt sad and stood alone in the dark for a long time.

...

"Madelyn..."

Madelyn turned around and saw Benjamin standing under the neon light.

Benjamin was handsome and dignified, and even the brightest lights couldn't throw the slightest bit of his temperament into the shade.

After a long time, Madelyn asked very slowly, "Are you done with your business?"

Benjamin merely said, "Hmm."

He took the car keys from her hand and said gently, "You don't look right. I'll drive."

Madelyn did not object.

When she got into the car, he asked her, "Do you want to come to my apartment?"

Madelyn leaned back in her seat and said wearily, "Snowy is at my place. Take me home!"

Seeing that she was cold and distant with him, Benjamin frowned.

Instead of showing his displeasure, he said thoughtfully, "Then we're gonna spend the night at your house. You have an early night, and I'll walk the dog!"

Madelyn did not object.

She thought it would look like she was being petty and caring for him if she objected!

Benjamin seemed to be eager to talk to her and casually asked, "You just had dinner with Ms. Waylon? She didn't look good."

Madelyn nodded and told him the whole story.

When she finished, Benjamin pulled up to the intersection. There was a red light ahead.

He looked ahead and whispered, "Why didn't you ask me if you need money?"

The Green family even sold their house and lived in a smaller place.

It was impossible that Benjamin didn't mind this at all!

Madelyn lowered her eyes. "Benjamin, I don't feel like spending your money right now!"

Silence filled the car...

After a long time, he asked, "Is it because you feel insecure?"

Madelyn did not answer.

She was not unrepentant. It was vaguely sexual and sweet those nights, and she easily agreed to have sex with him! She took a lot of nerve to open herself to such a relationship...

She still had courage but was a little timid.

Chapter 169 Madelyn, Call Me Ben!

When they came back to Madelyn's apartment, Snowy wagged its tail to greet them.

Madelyn took off her coat and touched Snowy's head. She said, "Good dog!"

Snowy even shook its butt very happily, showing the intention of going out to play! Madelyn handed the traction rope to Benjamin and said, "You take it downstairs for walking, and I will cook a bowl of noodles for you."

Benjamin glanced at Madelyn deeply, with a little eagerness in his eyes.

Then he bent down to tie the rope to the dog and went out to walk the dog.

The kitchen was facing the outside, and Madelyn could see Benjamin when she was cutting up vegetables. Benjamin looked very elegant and charming with his slender figure.

Madelyn watched for a long time.

When Benjamin came back, he felt hot because of the good heating in the room.

Benjamin took off his coat and rolled up his shirt sleeves. He sat at the small dining table to eat noodles, still looking elegant.

Madelyn took a morning paper and sat next to him to read it.

She didn't take in a word but saw a few pinholes on Benjamin's arm. Probably because the pinholes were so dense, that piece of skin was all bruised.

Madelyn had a lump in her throat.

She touched Benjamin's skin lightly and looked at him. She asked, "You've drawn blood many times, right?"

Benjamin followed Madelyn's gaze and said yes.

These days, Eleanor had been moody and made trouble out of nothing, and the Bennett family and the Clark family had suffered a lot. Certainly, Benjamin suffered the most. As Daniel said, there was insufficient Rh-negative trait in the hospital, and as long as Eleanor hurt herself, Benjamin would go to the hospital to save her.

Madelyn didn't speak but just stroked that piece of skin.

She felt a little distressed.

She thought, "Eleanor doesn't love Benjamin. Even if she has loved him, it is extremely distorted and selfish love!"

But Madelyn couldn't speak this out.

Madelyn didn't know how important Eleanor was in Benjamin's heart!

After eating the noodles, Benjamin habitually took a cigarette to light up it, but Madelyn gently took it away.

"Smoke less!"

Benjamin looked up at Madelyn with deep eyes.

Madelyn lowered her eyes and cleaned up the dishes, but Benjamin gently pressed the back of her hand.

"Clean up tomorrow!"

Benjamin gently carried Madelyn in his arms and walked straight toward the bedroom, meaning obviously that he wanted to have sex.

...

"No!" Madelyn put her arms around Benjamin's neck.

Benjamin stopped and looked down at her. He said in a husky voice, "What's the matter?"

Madelyn stroked the neckline of Benjamin's shirt and murmured, "You've drawn blood several times, and you should have a good rest."

Benjamin stared at Madelyn with deep eyes.

Madelyn also looked at Benjamin with teary eyes and complicated emotions.

After a long time, Benjamin said, "It doesn't matter!"

Benjamin had always been overbearing, and Madelyn couldn't dissuade him and had to have sex with him.

Perhaps because of drawing blood excessively, Benjamin's body was not as good as before, and he only made love once.

The reason why Madelyn endured these days was not only because she really liked Benjamin and didn't want to give up easily, but also because of the romance and promise he gave. They were really happy when they were together.

Eleanor just chuckled.

She lowered her head and fiddled with her fingernails.

She said casually, "Ms. Green, do you believe Benjamin won't leave me alone as long as I call him and slash my wrists? No matter what he is doing with you, he will stop it immediately and rush to the hospital for a blood transfusion, even if you are making love!"

Madelyn was shocked by Eleanor's shamelessness!

She said in a cold voice, "Eleanor, what is your purpose in doing this? You know he will never get back together with you!"

Eleanor changed her face slightly.

Then, she looked at Madelyn viciously and said word by word, "I can get the pleasure of torturing you! Especially you Madelyn, why can you get Ben? You've already got his body, and why do you still want to marry him? Let me tell you. You don't deserve it!"

Madelyn didn't want to follow Eleanor's thoughts.

She thought, "Eleanor is just a lunatic. Now she is just trying to irritate me and make me do something extreme."

Madelyn calmed down.

She said indifferently, "The most unworthy person in the world is you! And I, whether I have a future with Benjamin or not, I have a clear conscience. Even if I break up with him in the end, I won't pester him at all!"

Madelyn was much more comfortable after saying this!

Then she directly turned around and left.

Behind her, Eleanor burst into tears and screamed frantically, almost hysterical!

...

After going back, Madelyn was sad for a long time.

She wondered if Benjamin always faced this kind of Eleanor.

She took Snowy to drive to Benjamin's apartment.

Before Benjamin came back, Madelyn cooked soup and prepared a few dishes. Then she was making a report form while waiting for him to return for dinner.

Snowy played for a while. When it was tired, it curled up beside Madelyn.

Snowy's eyes were black.

Madelyn took out a pack of dog treats and fed it to Snowy. After eating, Snowy closed its eyes contentedly and fell asleep.

Madelyn looked at the clock.

It was half past ten!

At this moment, Benjamin opened the door and came in. He was slightly surprised when he saw Madelyn.

Then, he took off his coat and walked towards Madelyn. He leaned over and kissed her. He whispered, "Why did you come by yourself today?"

Madelyn put her arms around Benjamin's neck and replied, "I want to cook soup for you!"

She noticed that Benjamin didn't look well!

Benjamin rarely told Madelyn what had happened to him, and she rarely asked him about it in the past. It was mainly because William's kindness to the Clark family made her bite back the words.

But when Madelyn met such a crazy Eleanor today, she changed her mind a little bit.

Madelyn said gently, "Drink some soup first to warm your body."

Benjamin was not willing to let her go. He hugged her for a long time and flirted with her. "You want to be my wife so much, don't you?"

Madelyn couldn't help blushing.

"No, I don't. I am still young!"

Benjamin kissed Madelyn's slender neck. When Madelyn was lost and delirious, he said in a husky voice, "I'm not young anymore. I'll be 30 years old next year!"

Madelyn turned Benjamin's face around. When she looked at his handsome face, her heart raced.

Benjamin wanted to kiss Madelyn again.

He pressed his forehead to hers and murmured, "We haven't made love for a long time. Madelyn, have sex with me once."

This night, Benjamin was so gentle.

When Madelyn followed Benjamin's movements, she couldn't help but get close to his ear and whispered, "Ben!"

Benjamin was shocked.

Chapter 170 I Love You So Much! Let's Try It!

Benjamin pulled Madelyn into his arms and kissed her. "Call it again!"

Madelyn refused.

She leaned on Benjamin's shoulder, smelling the slight smell of sweat on his body, and gently hugged him.

Benjamin wanted to have sex again.

Madelyn stroked his facial features with her slender fingers and then murmured, "Take a good break and drink the soup later!"

Benjamin looked at Madelyn with deep eyes and asked, "Your heart goes out to me, right?"

Madelyn's heart indeed went out to Benjamin.

Benjamin especially loved Madelyn's gentle and docile appearance, so he pressed her and wanted to make love again.

But his cell phone rang, and the ringtone was exclusive to William.

Madelyn hated William's call very much.

Sure enough, after saying a few words, Benjamin had a darkened expression and got up to get dressed.

Madelyn hugged him from behind and didn't want him to leave.

"Benjamin, can you just leave her alone? You know she's on purpose. How long will you let her hurt you like this? Benjamin, there is a time limit for requesting favors, isn't it?"

Madelyn thought, "I'm also a woman. I can't cook him a tonic soup every time as if nothing happened, and then watch him go to the hospital to give a lunatic a blood transfusion!"

Madelyn looked at the pinholes in Benjamin's arm and was almost suffocate!

Benjamin was silent and kissed her for a long time.

He soothed Madelyn's trembling body. When Madelyn calmed down a little, he said softly, "I'll be back soon."

"No, you won't come back. Eleanor won't let you come back..."

...

Madelyn talked to Benjamin seriously for the first time. "Benjamin, Eleanor is not your responsibility! You can go to court for her, but your indulgence will only make her crazy even more."

In fact, Madelyn wanted to say that Eleanor should go to a mental hospital if she was really crazy.

Benjamin probably knew what Madelyn meant.

He looked at her with deep eyes and complex emotions, making Madelyn bite back her words.

Finally, Benjamin put on his clothes and left.

As usual, Benjamin did not come back.

The spring night was actually quite cold. Madelyn lay down until 3 a.m. and then got up. Originally, she wanted to go back to her apartment, but she didn't want to wake up Snowy.

She just sat alone in the living room all night.

...

In the next half month, Eleanor hurt herself much more.

Madelyn could hardly see Benjamin.

The only two times they met, Benjamin didn't look good and directly fell asleep as soon as he laid down on the pillow.

Benjamin looked at Madelyn deeply. He was full of energy and wanted to have sex because they didn't do it last night.

Madelyn was very cooperative.

Benjamin stared at her and kept his movements.

Madelyn put her arms around Benjamin's neck and took the initiative to kiss him. Her face flushed and she had a lost look,

After the sex, Benjamin lay beside Madelyn, panted, and flirted with her. "What happened today? You're so proactive."

He lay on his side and pinched Madelyn's face. He said, "I heard that girls miss men when they're getting old. Madelyn, are you looking forward to this these days?"

"You are getting old!" Madelyn patted Benjamin away and got up to the bathroom.

When she came out, Benjamin was communicating with William about the lawsuit by the window by cell phone.

She hugged him from behind.

When Benjamin hung up the phone, Madelyn said softly, "Saturday is Valentine's Day. Can you come back?"

Madelyn was so meek, and Benjamin was in a good mood.

He stroked her hand and asked gently, "What gift are you going to give me?"

Madelyn thought of the invitation letter and was slightly grieved.

But she said in a cheerful voice, "I won't tell you!"

Benjamin turned back and kissed Madelyn. They hadn't had crazy sex for a long time, and Benjamin was free this morning, so he kept making love with her.

Madelyn was stunned for a moment but didn't refuse.

In the afternoon, Benjamin went to the law office.

Madelyn called Alexander. Obviously, Alexander had been waiting for her call for a long time, and he answered the phone quickly as soon as Madelyn put him through.

Alexander asked gently, "Have you made a decision?"

Madelyn gave a positive answer.

She said, "I want to take my father and Camila over there."

Alexander was very happy and immediately agreed, "There is no problem! This is very good, it's good to have family accompanying with you. You are very filial."

Then he asked, "Does Ben know?"

Madelyn shook her head and replied, "I haven't told him yet. I'll tell him in two days."

It was Valentine's Day in two days, and Madelyn wanted to prepare for it well.

Madelyn thought, "This is the first Valentine's Day for us. We should have a good time. After all, we may not be able to celebrate it in the next two years."

Alexander had been down this road before and guessed the reason.

He smiled and said kindly, "I'll ask Brianna and Eloise to go shopping with you. You can buy some new things. If you feel lonely, I'll let Eloise accompany you often. Anyway, she is usually free."

Madelyn shook her head gently.

Alexander was more or less touched, so he made an exception to say a few more words. As a high-ranking person, he was willing to coax Madelyn just because he attached great importance to her.

In the next two days, Madelyn handled her own business.

She also found a well-known studio in Gredax to design a black theme plan and changed the decorations of Benjamin's apartment on Saturday afternoon.

Although the cost was a bit expensive at 8 thousand dollars, Madelyn didn't feel distressed at all when she swiped her card.

It was the first Valentine's Day for Madelyn and Benjamin!

Madelyn carefully prepared candlesticks, champagne roses, and meals from Michelin.

Everything was very romantic...

At seven o'clock in the evening, Madelyn called Benjamin and asked in a cheerful tone, "When will you be back?"
