

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 165

Zoey Gu pursed her lips and said nothing, but looked at the old lady quietly.

She had already explained her purpose.

In this case, she didn't believe that the old lady didn't know what she wanted.

really.

The old lady glanced at Liam Lu and said clearly.

"The reason why the men of the Lu family are short-lived is because their blood disease can only be relieved and cannot be eliminated! I have given him a medicine that aggravates his condition, and what I can give is only the antidote to this medicine.

Hearing this, Zoey Gu changed her face slightly.

Lu family man, short-lived...

First Mr. Fu and Mrs. Lu, two people have already said that.

Zoey Gu didn't know the truth or not.

But as long as she thinks that Liam Lu might leave her at any time, she feels heartache and choking fear.

Depressing this emotion, Zoey looked at the old lady decisively and gritted her teeth.

"I know. What I want now is the old lady's medicine to aggravate his condition."

As for Liam Lu's blood disease, as long as they are together for the rest of their lives, they will definitely find a solution.

Old Mrs. Lu looked at her with an accident in her eyes.

For a moment, she turned his head and looked at the housekeeper beside him.

"Give Liam the antidote."

The housekeeper nodded, dared not delay for a moment, took out the antidote and handed it to Liam Lu, then turned around and reached out to Zoey Gu.

"Miss Gu, the old lady's antidote?"

Zoey said nothing.

After waiting for Liam Lu to take the medicine, her face and breath changed significantly, she took out the medicine bottle from her pocket and handed it to the housekeeper.

Seeing that she hadn't relaxed yet, Liam Lu stared at herself for a moment, smiled suddenly, and approached her.

"Zoey, don't worry, I'm really better. Don't believe me, I will let you check it yourself later?"

In the end, he took Zoey Gu's hand and sat at the dining table, wrapped her with one hand, and put it on the dining table with one foot lifted up.

The meaning is obvious.

Zoey Gu said and did everything that should be said and done. Now they can only let the old lady handle it.

Even so, there was no expression on Liam Lu's face, Zoey Gu was in his arms, as if everything had become unimportant.

The old lady took the medicine, and the pain in her abdomen gradually subsided, and her expression eased.

Then she raised her head, quietly looked at Zoey Gu in front of her, and said unclearly.

"You know? You are the first one to marry the Lu family and dare to hurt me like this and challenge me so much."

Zoey Gu tensed her body subconsciously, pursed her lips, and said softly.

"Sorry old lady, if it wasn't for nothing, I definitely wouldn't do such a thing to you."

Liam Lu on the side held her tightly, squinting at the old lady while shaking his fetters.

"Okay old lady! She's not that brave, and everything she does is only my instruction. What you want to do, just come to me."

The old lady snorted and glanced at Zoey Gu coldly.

"She's a yellow-haired girl, it's not worth doing."

After speaking, the old lady looked up at the housekeeper and pointed her chin in the direction of Liam Lu.

"Open his fetters."

Finally, he turned his head again to look at Zoey Gu, got up and stood up.

“Let Liam go first, you stay, I have something to tell you.”

As soon as the voice fell, Liam Lu, who had been arrogant, suddenly changed his face and stood up and looked at the old lady coldly.

“What do you keep her for?!”
