

Chapter 171

Hassan was a little unconvinced. But looking at her pretty face, he couldn't say anything at all.

Anyway, it was time to say goodbye. If they were destined to meet again in the future, they would definitely meet again.

Hassan looked at Alyssa and smiled, "You've done a good job and got my approval. Once Sky's case is over and the investment is successful, you will get a bonus."

"Yes, I'm going to get a bonus again! I'm so happy."

"That's all, you can leave!"

Alyssa nodded and prepared to go. But when she thought about it, she felt something was wrong. He sounded as if he was kicking her out.

She took a few steps, thought of Melany's words, and hesitantly turned her head.

Seeing Alyssa staring at him, Hassan couldn't help but laugh, "What are you looking at me for?"

"I just thought that you seemed different today. Is something wrong?" Alyssa got more and more confused, "Are you in some kind of trouble?"

"I'm not in any trouble! I'm fine! Instead of worrying about me, why don't you worry about yourself?"

Alyssa frowned. She did think too much. What kind of trouble could Hassan be in?

He was sophisticated in the business world, and he wouldn't get into any trouble. Melany probably thought too much about it.

Alyssa smiled and turned to leave.

Hassan looked at Alyssa's back and turned on his computer, continuing to write the resignation he hadn't finished before.

In two months, he would leave Citic.

He didn't feel much attachment to this place, except for that intern.

In his mind, Alyssa was not just an intern, but more like an adult who was brave enough to face any problem.

He liked Alyssa's integrity and determination.

In the mire of temptation, she could still retain the justice in her heart.

He hoped that he would meet her again sometime in the future.

Hassan couldn't help but smile when he thought of Alyssa.

Alyssa came out of Citic and went to see Riley.

Riley was very enthusiastic to see Alyssa, "Alyssa, why are you here? Why didn't you tell me before you came here? It's a mess here. There's no place to sit."

Recently, Sky moved to a new studio.

The previous place was too shabby and the rent wasn't cheap, so Alyssa convinced Riley to move to a new place and told him that the tailor made the man. Finally, Riley agreed to move.

He asked her to help him choose a place. Alyssa didn't refuse and deliberately chose a place belonging to Hunter Group.

Leon gave her face and rented Riley a new studio at the cheapest price.

With a good studio, there could be a new future.

Sky's move to a new studio also hit the headlines. Soon, Sky became a very popular company.

Alyssa looked at Riley's sweaty face and smiled, "Professor King, when you're done, get ready to work with a new company! Mr. Wood has found many companies for you. Which one do you like better? I need to introduce you to the company you're interested in."

After hearing Alyssa's words, Riley quickly sat down and talked with Alyssa.

They talked for nearly four hours. In the end, Riley chose YS Group.

YS Group was a former technology company. The most important thing was that this company was reliable. Moreover, the person in charge of the partnership was also a friend of Riley's.

Now that Riley had made his decision, Alyssa directly told Hassan. He immediately made an appointment with the head of YS Group.

She was in charge of the approach. The financing case had been divided to two companies. In three days, the two parties would meet for the first time.

Alyssa felt that everything went well. She was also in a good mood.

It was the first project that had been done by her alone.

In the evening, she told Leon about it.

Leon bought her a cake to celebrate.

"This cake is so good. How come I didn't find it so good before?" Alyssa ate the sweet cake and just thought the cake was delicious.

"If you like it, I'll have them make it for you every day."

"Really?"

"As long as you like to eat it."

"I like it."

Alyssa smiled while eating.

Looking at Alyssa's smile, Leon wanted to hide her from anyone.

Later, Leon carried Alyssa to rest.

She was probably tired and fell asleep quickly.

The following three days.

Alyssa took the lead in making the partnership between Sky and YS Group.

The rest was out of her hands. Both companies would draw up their own contracts, so naturally, she didn't need to tell them what to do.

When she returned to Citic, she was surprised to see Javon.

When Javon saw Alyssa, he walked to her with a big smile on his face, "Hey, girl, you didn't think we'd see each other again, did you? I can't believe we're meeting at Citic!"

Alyssa saw Javon and felt ridiculous, "Mr. Reed, you didn't remember the lesson I taught you last time. Today, do you want to try it again?"

"You're about to lose your backing. I advise you to quit your job quickly. Otherwise, when the time comes, it will definitely be you who is unlucky. If you don't take my case, just wait for your bad luck!"

"I really want to know which one of us will be unlucky!"

Alyssa really hated Javon.

Why did Javon show up at Citic?

But no matter what the reason was, she wouldn't take over his case.

"Humph, you will definitely regret it! You can take Sky's case, why don't you take my case? You did it on purpose. You and Hassan are in cahoots. I'll bring down Hassan, and you'll have the same fate."

"Bullshit!"

Alyssa said it directly out.

As a result, everyone around her looked in her direction just as she said it.

Javon, feeling humiliated, said coldly, "Bitch, I'll make you pay for this. How dare you talk to me like that! Do you know who my uncle is?"

"Hurry up and get lost!"

Alyssa glared at Javon.

This man was more annoying than a fly.

She just took one look at him and couldn't wait to kick him out in disgust.

"You ... who did you tell to get lost?" Javon looked at Alyssa with anger. He had long lost his original composure. When he saw Alyssa, he just wanted to slap her. How could this woman be so arrogant in front of him! Even Hassan wouldn't dare to do this to him. She had too many guts.

As he thought this, he suddenly gained some momentum. He walked directly to Alyssa and raised his hand to slap Alyssa.

But before his hand could fall, it was pressed hard by a pair of large hands.

He turned his head, only to see Hassan's gloomy face as he grabbed his wrist.

Javon was completely unable to move. But the thought that Hassan would soon be out of Citic gave him more confidence, "Hassan, you still want to be a hero here! You can't pretend any longer. You're going to be fired soon. You might even be in a lawsuit. If you have time, you might as well think about what you can do about it. I can't believe that you still have time to be a hero here."

Hassan looked at Javon and suddenly smiled. His smile gave people a chill down their backs.

"You ... Hassan, you even can't protect yourself now. Hurry up and let go of me."

"How dare I not let go of you! I'm worried that you're going to forge evidence to say that I enrich myself."

Hassan let go of his hand and pushed Javon against the wall.

Javon fell to the ground, pointing at Hassan, and couldn't say a word.

At this moment, he didn't dare to speak. He was worried that he would be beaten up by Hassan if he said too much.

Hassan looked at Javon, who was too afraid to speak, and turned his head back to him, "Get out!"

Javon heard Hassan's words and hurriedly turned around and ran away.

Watching Javon run away, Alyssa looked at Hassan, "What's wrong? What did he just mean? Tell me clearly."

"Nothing. He's so bitchy and deserves a beating."

Hassan turned around and hid all his emotions.

When he looked at Alyssa, his face was full of tenderness, nothing like the harshness he had just shown.

But Alyssa looked at Hassan's face and knew that something must have happened to Hassan.

"You must have encountered something."

"Well, if you say so, I really have a decision. I want to quit my job."

"Citic is yours, isn't it?"

"I just have some shares. I'm going to sell my shares and resign."

"Why?"

"I'm tired of being here and want to move to a new place."

Looking at the anxious look on Alyssa's face, Hassan couldn't help but be happy. He could see that Alyssa was worried about him!

When he thought about it, he was actually a little smug.

He had helped this little girl a lot at work. Now, she would care about him too.

"Can you still have your current position after you go to a new company? Mr. Wood, something must have happened to you."

"I won't leave my job until next month, so I won't leave your case alone. You're here to report Sky's case to me, right! I already knew about it. This time, you did a good job. I will report your work to the leader who hands over my job before I leave. With your performance, you should be promoted smoothly."

Hearing Hassan's words, Alyssa knew that Hassan did not want to continue that topic just now.

Since that was the case, she would not pursue it. Anyway, she didn't really want to inquire about anything else.

Alyssa nodded and said softly, "Mr. Wood, there's no need to bother. I don't feel well lately, so I don't want to work here anymore. Sky's case should be the first case I finish independently, and it's also the last case I take over at Citic."

Hearing Alyssa's words, Hassan subconsciously glanced at her stomach.

Alyssa frowned. Watching the way Hassan looked at her stomach, she subconsciously covered her stomach. She always felt that something was wrong with his eyes.

She turned away from Hassan, "Since you know that Sky's case is almost done, I'll go back now."
