

Chapter 172

"Alyssa!" Seeing that Alyssa was about to leave, Hassan immediately said, "Let me buy you a meal!"

Alyssa smiled, "No need, I can see from your eyes that you seem to dislike pregnant women. Mr. wood, no matter what the reason for you to leave Citic, I believe that soon you will find a new job. With a new position, a person like you should be able to use your talents no matter where you go."

"Is that a blessing, little girl?"

"I'm not a little girl. I'm a married woman. No, I'm a married pregnant woman."

Alyssa's joking words didn't bring a smile from Hassan.

Hassan really didn't know how to joke.

Other people would at least give her face and smile perfunctorily, but he didn't smile at all.

After a long time, Hassan looked at Alyssa and smiled.

Alyssa looked at Hassan's smile and smiled as well. His smile was a bit insincere, but he did smile after all!

"See you later!" She waved her hand and turned to leave.

Hassan looked at Alyssa's back as she left, lost in thought.

There were so many people who wanted to invite him to dinner!

But Alyssa didn't give him any face and always refused his invitations.

Forget it!

He might have a chance later!

He went to the window and watched Alyssa drive away before packing his things and getting ready to leave.

Alyssa drove back to school with Hassan's departure on her mind.

She did hear from Melany earlier that something had happened to Hassan.

But she hadn't taken it seriously at that time, thinking that someone like Hassan shouldn't quit.

Hassan not only had a position at Citic but also had shares, which supported him to continue working at Citic. But now, he decided to leave.

She started to get confused about how chaotic this circle was.

When she arrived at school and didn't see Ella, she realized that they didn't have classes this afternoon. She went to the library, and sure enough, she saw her in the library.

Ella hadn't seen Alyssa in days. She was surprised to see Alyssa now.

She and Alyssa found a place where they could talk.

"We don't have class this afternoon, and I thought you wouldn't come. What brings you here?" Ella handed Alyssa a glass of lemon water, "This is good and nutritious. The point is you can only drink this."

Alyssa looked at Ella and smiled, "Thanks, Ella! My job at Citic is coming to an end again."

"You haven't been working very long, have you?"

"Well, I don't last very long at anything."

Alyssa lowered her head, a little apologetic.

It was true that nothing she did lasted very long.

Ella looked at her and smiled, "Don't worry! You're a special case. Hassan thinks that you are very smart, and he is very partial to smart people. To him, it doesn't matter if a smart employee is undisciplined, but he'll never indulge the stupid ones."

"But as far as I know, he seems to quit, too."

"How is that possible! My cousin has shares in Citic."

Alyssa nodded, drawing circles on the table in bewilderment. After a long time, she said, "I thought so, too. But that's the way it is. I'm not worried that your cousin will starve to death after he leaves Citic. He's smart! I'm just curious about who can get him out of his position at Citic. Your cousin is very good. There are few cases he can't handle."

Ella nodded, "I've heard that he is great, but I really don't know the cases he's handled."

Looking at Ella's dumbfounded look, Alyssa said softly, "Let me tell you something. Before, your cousin showed me all his great achievements like treasures and wanted me to learn from them. I think those are indeed useful to me. Now, let me tell you about them."

Ella nodded.

Alyssa talked for an hour.

She hurriedly took a sip of water. Looking at Ella's obsessed look, she couldn't help but say, "Hey, you're drooling. If Hassan wasn't your cousin, you'd be in love with him."

Ella smiled and said, "I love him now too, but it's the kind of love between family members. Not only that, but I adore him. Anyway, I think my cousin is so awesome. I didn't even know he was that good before! I am so surprised."

Alyssa nodded.

Yes!

Why would someone that awesome still be forced out by Citic?

Hassan definitely didn't leave willingly.

He still had a stack of unprocessed cases on his desk that he had just taken over.

If he had planned to leave, he wouldn't have taken on so many cases.

The more Alyssa thought about it, the more she realized something was wrong.

Her doubts continued all night.

When Leon returned, she was still moping about it.

They had spent a lot of time together, and Leon could tell right away what was on Alyssa's mind.

He gently cupped Alyssa's face in his hands and asked softly, "What's wrong with you?"

When she saw Leon, all the uneasiness and doubts in Alyssa's mind popped up. She came up to Leon's side and leaned against him, "Hassan said he was going to quit. It's so strange. In fact, I feel that for him, Citic is like his home. How can he suddenly quit?"

"In this circle, it's not a big deal. You just don't know this. You will naturally know as time goes on. You care about Hassan?"

Thinking about it, Leon looked at Alyssa nervously.

Looking at Leon's nervous gaze, Alyssa suddenly laughed out. At this moment, all her bad emotions disappeared.

"What are you laughing at? Why do you care so much about Hassan? I don't allow you to care about Hassan like this."

"Then who do you want me to care about?"

"Care about me!" Leon took Alyssa's hand, "You can only care about me."

"Of course, I care about you! However, I think Mr. Wood is a little strange. Leon, can you help me find out what's going on? I actually feel that I have something to do with this. So, can you help me?"

"What does it have to do with you? His resignation is his business, and it has nothing to do with you at all. You're pregnant and you're imagining things. How do you feel today? Did you feel uncomfortable? Did you throw up?"

Talking about Alyssa's health, Leon started to get nervous.

"I feel fine today! Ella and I spent some time together. I don't think there's anything wrong. Maybe because I was a little tired earlier, so I felt sick. I'm much better now."

Alyssa felt that her pregnancy sickness had a lot to do with her emotions. Now Sky's project was done. She felt relaxed without anything on her mind anymore.

"The fact that you let me investigate Hassan for you shows that you care about him."

"Nonsense! I just want to know if I have anything to do with this. I may have offended Javon before. Here's the thing, listen to me."

Alyssa told the story of what happened between her and Javon.

Leon nodded, "It's not your fault. Javon was notorious in the circle. You did the right thing."

"It's one thing for me to do the right thing, but ... I seem to have offended him and gotten Hassan involved because of it. But that's not what I meant to do. Leon, I seem to have made a mistake."

"Alyssa, if this is really caused by you, Hassan can directly fire you, but he doesn't do that."

Alyssa thought that Leon had a point, but she still wanted to check it out.

She pulled Leon and her little head came into Leon's arms. She looked at Leon and smiled, "Leon, I know you're the best. Just help me, okay? I'm begging you."

"Okay, I'll ask my assistant to check. You can sleep in peace."

"Well, I still have something to tell you. I've thought about what you told me last time. I don't have any job right now. Since Hassan will leave Citic, I mentioned my resignation to Hassan today. However, I think I'm not responsible."

"Really?"

"Really."

Alyssa nodded.

Seeing Alyssa nod, Leon was satisfied.

He believed that Alyssa only had him in her heart. Otherwise, he would not have considered so seriously what he had said.

Leon's work efficiency was high.

It didn't take long for him to receive the result of his assistant's investigation.

Alyssa frowned as she heard Leon talk about his findings, and didn't say anything for a long time.

Seeing Alyssa frowning, Leon said softly, "This has nothing to do with you. Javon's uncle Alexis Reed has always been at odds with Hassan, and Hassan has had problems with Alexis before. Now, I don't think it's Hassan who has lost. He probably has a better place to go."

Alyssa nodded, "What you said should be true. I believe you."

"Good girl, don't worry about those things."

Alyssa leaned into Leon's body, feeling warm.

This matter might not have much to do with her. What had passed should not be taken too seriously. If Hassan really lost to Alexis, then at least it meant that Hassan was not as good as Alexis.

This was the way it was in any circle! In front of love, there were winners and losers.

No!

Alyssa thought she was wrong.

Love was not a competition.

Not everyone was like Ryan.

More people were like Leon who were together only because of love.

Alyssa turned her head to look at Leon and hugged him tightly.

Feeling Alyssa hugging him tightly, Leon turned his head to look at Alyssa, "What's wrong?"

"I feel so happy to be with you."

"Get some rest."

Alyssa nodded and wrapped her arms around Leon's body like water plants.

This night, Alyssa held Leon and wouldn't let him leave her.
