

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 173

Zoey Gu was shocked.

Before she understood the meaning of these words, the man sneered again and opened his mouth.

“The old lady said that your father and younger brother died in the water. Since you are going on the road, it is best to use the same method.”

“Miss Gu, go all the way!”

Immediately after that, the man gave an order, and one of the men next to her suddenly bent over, picked up the sack containing Zoey Gu, and threw it into the sea hard—

Under the moonlight, a bright silver arc crossed the sea.

thump!

A huge vortex appeared on the water instantly, and a large swath of cold sea water madly rushed towards Zoey Gu.

She was bound all over, and the sea water instantly filled her facial features, taking all her breath for life.

Before she could even struggle, she was completely drawn into the whirlpool, and was swallowed in an instant...

For two days and two nights, Zoey Gu seemed to have suddenly evaporated from the world, and there was no news.

Liam Lu stayed up day and night, sitting in the middle of the living room like a sculpture, his face covered with s*um and scarlet eyes.

When I opened my eyes, I saw two lovers shirts lying quietly together.

Closing her eyes, what appeared in her mind was that that day she held his hand and said to him, “Liam, put on a white shirt, you must be the most handsome groom.”

In five years, she survived all the hardships and bravely walked to him on this day, but he lost her.

Whenever I think of it, Liam Lu’s heart feels like a heavy blow, and the pain cannot be said.

Suddenly there was footsteps in the hall, and Shiyue came in like a gust of wind.

Without waiting for him to speak, Liam Lu stood up abruptly, looking straight at him with scarlet eyes.

“what news?”

Shiyue pursed his lips, and handed Liam Lu the image data that had just been printed on A4 paper.

“I deliberately found someone to work hard to restore the image of Miss Gu being taken away that day.”

“After being tricked into getting out of the car, Miss Gu was taken away by an off-road vehicle, all the way out of the southern capital. But when she arrived in the suburbs, the surveillance in that area was destroyed in advance, and we could not find out what happened later. Mysteriously disappeared.”

When Shiyue finished speaking, he raised his head and looked at Liam Lu cautiously.

“The only certainty is that Miss Gu is not in the southern capital.”

Liam Lu’s face was frosty, crazily blood flowing under his dull eyes, and the blue veins on the back of his hand holding the information.

“Look! Keep looking! Even if you look around the ends of the world, you will find her for me!”

At this moment, Alina Yin’s loud cry suddenly came upstairs.

Liam Lu twisted his eyebrows, looked up subconsciously, and walked upstairs.

Within a few steps, a servant hurried in from outside and screamed cautiously at Liam Lu’s back.

“Sir, there is a woman outside, saying that she wants to see you.”

Liam Lu paused, and his scarlet eyebrows swept over instantly.

“What woman?”

The servant was frightened by Liam Lu’s horrible sight, and he kept explaining.

“She has been here several times, and she stands outside the door every day and refuses to leave, saying she wants to see you.”

Hearing this, the coldness in Liam Lu’s eyes became more intense.

Zoey Gu’s disappearance, and Alina Yin’s constant crying for days, all of Liam Lu’s tense emotions have almost reached the tipping point.

“Her name is Zoey Gu?”

“No...no!”

“Just let her go! You go too! Except Zoey Gu, I don’t see any women!”
