

Catch Me If You Love Me Chapter 174

The servant shuddered by Liam Lu's almost bloodthirsty tone, and his legs collapsed to the ground.

Looking up again, Liam Lu was long gone on the stairs.

Shiyue closed his eyes and sighed, walked to the servant's side, helped him up, and yelled at him coldly.

"You know how terrifying Lu Shao's emotions are these days, and you want to run into the gun. Isn't this looking for death?"

The servant looked at Shiyue with a suffocated expression.

"Assistant Shi, I really can't help it. I am responsible for the flowers and plants inside and outside the courtyard. The woman was chased away in the guard room, and she came to pester me every day."

"She said that she has known Liam for a long time, and there is something very important to see him. If Liam doesn't see her, he will regret it."

Shiyue was taken aback for a moment, and his brows wrinkled.

"The tone is not small! Where is the person? I will meet her!"

Liam Lu opened Alina Yin's bedroom door and went in.

Alina Yin was sitting on the floor wearing a white seersucker dress, holding a toy in her hand, and crying uncontrollably.

The babysitter squatted beside her, coaxing softly and helplessly, but it didn't work.

Seeing him coming in, the nanny stood up on the initiative, "Sir, look at Alina Yin..."

"You go out first, I'll accompany her."

Liam Lu walked away from the nanny, closed his breath, and waited for the coldness and bloodthirsty in his eyes to fade before he walked over and sat down beside her cross-legged.

He hugged the little girl on his lap, reached out to hug her, and asked softly against her cheek.

"Tell Dad, why did you lose your temper again this time?"

Alina Yin's eyes were red from crying, her face turned pale, and she raised her head and asked.

"They said, Dad, you lost Aunt Gu, when will she come back?"

Liam Lu's face suddenly fell cold.

"Who has such a big mouth?!"

Seeing him like this, the wise Alina Yin knew what she was asking was true, and immediately started crying again.

"Wow..."

She whimpered and cried, took the woolen toy in her arms and the painting lying on the ground, and handed it to Liam Lu.

"Before Aunt Gu went to find her father, she specially made toys for Alina Yin. She said that when you come back, she can be my mother."

"Alina Yin is so happy, so I specially drew you and Aunt Gu on the painting, and I want to give you a gift. Woo..."

Liam Lu looked down at the wool toy in his hand, and the picture of a family of three, silently hugged his daughter and closed his eyes severely.

My heart seemed to be blocked by a cloud of blood.

"Sorry Alina Yin, it's your father's fault, and your father lost Aunt Gu."

The little guy hugged Liam Lu's neck and cried more and more sadly. "The kids in the kindergarten all laugh at Alina Yin, saying that Alina Yin only has a father and no mother."

"Dad, how did I get here? Where did my mother go?"

A line of milky and milky questioning seemed to hit Liam Lu's soul with a heavy weight.

"Dad, Alina Yin doesn't want to be different from others, Alina Yin wants her mother..."

At this moment, the bedroom door was suddenly pushed open, and Shiyue leaned in.

"Liam, the woman looking for you outside..."

Liam Lu hugged Alina Yin tightly, his eyebrows swept toward Shiyue sharply.

"Even you need me to teach you how to do things?"

Shiyue didn't move abnormally, his face was strange, and he stood awkwardly on the spot for a while before speaking with some difficulty.

“The woman said that she is Alina Yin's biological mother...”
