

Chapter 1751 - 1751 Spectacular Transformation

1751 Spectacular Transformation

Then, Han Rui soon witnessed what it meant to completely transform oneself.

Previously, when Han Rui used a mask to approach those guys, there was not much change in his body despite having changed his face, and he could only make adjustments in height.

Moreover, he could only adjust upwards and not downwards.

However, Xia Xibei could miraculously become shorter!

Xia Xibei was 1.7 meters tall, which was quite noticeable among girls. If she were to be disguised as a janitor, she would be even more noticeable.

!!

Somehow, she moved her joints, and her whole body became almost ten centimeters shorter!

What in the world?!

Han Rui was frightened and took a step back.

Was this magic?!

He looked at Xia Xibe in horror, as if he were looking at a monster.

What kind of skill was this?!

On the other hand, Qiao Yanjue remained calm and composed, as if he had just seen something completely mundane.

“You... Have you seen this before?”

Han Rui felt himself becoming breathless.

Watching a person perform such a spectacular transformation in front of him was terrifying!

“Hmm,” Qiao Yanjue nodded, looking nonchalant. “I can do it too.”

Before Han Rui could say anything, Qiao Yanjue moved his bones.

Click, click, and in an instant, he became almost ten centimeters shorter!

“D*mn!” Han Rui was scared, he cursed and even bounced backward.

He looked at them incredulously, as if he had just seen a couple of monsters.

“You... You guys...”

What kind of witchcraft was that?!

They could even change their height and body shape!

He had seen soft bone skills before, but soft bone skills were generally incompatible with walking.

Han Rui felt like his understanding of the world had been completely refreshed.

What kind of creatures were Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei?!

Why did they have such terrifying skills?

They hadn't been out of touch for a very long time, so how on Earth did they suddenly develop such magical skills?

With such skills, they could go anywhere in the world! After all, who could possibly discover their identities?

Their appearance had transformed, their height had changed, and who would even suspect them?

Han Rui finally understood why Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had so much confidence in helping him before.

Apart from having magical equipment, they also had these incredible skills!

Han Rui felt like he had been played by them.

“Don’t worry, there’s no need to be surprised,” Qiao Yanjue patted himself, quickly returning to his original appearance.

Watching Qiao Yanjue return to his original height, Han Rui froze.

“How did you do that?”

He still couldn’t believe it. This was nothing short of a miracle!

“Oh, it’s something you can’t learn,” Qiao Yanjue lightly said, dismissing him. “Our master taught us.”

“Your master?” Han Rui was very confused. “Since when did you guys have a master?”

If it was those masters who taught martial arts back at home, he didn't remember them having such capabilities!

If they had, they wouldn't even have to teach.

Qiao Yanjue raised his eyebrows, "Oh, it's a secret. Anyway, all you need to know is that we are better than you."

The reason why he and Xia Xibei could do this was because of their unique cultivation techniques.

They could use their qi to protect their bones, preventing discomfort.

However, it was troublesome because once they transformed, they couldn't engage in vigorous exercise like running.

Therefore, they normally wouldn't use this method.

Still, there was no need to tell Han Rui this. As long as he thought they were awesome, that was enough.

Chapter 1752 - 1752 Janitor

1752 Janitor

After their little display, Han Rui was still curious, but he didn't pursue any further.

He knew that even if he did ask, Qiao Yanjue wouldn't tell him.

Besides, even if Qiao Yanjue did tell him, it wouldn't be of much use. It was obvious that it would take at least some time to practice and master it.

Han Rui didn't have that kind of time, so he decided to give up on pursuing it.

"Alright, let's get started," Qiao Yanjue said.

!!

That night, Qiao Yanjue sent someone to take the disguised Xia Xibei to the hotel they had visited before.

The hotel wasn't owned by Qiao Yanjue or any of the families, it was just an ordinary hotel.

It was precisely because of this that those guys had chosen this hotel to be their hiding spot.

After all, the procedures and management here would be simpler.

Qiao Yanjue didn't show up in person. Instead, he got someone to take Xia Xibei there as a "job applicant."

The person had some connection with the hotel, so they took Xia Xibei in through the backdoor to become a housekeeper.

Since it was just a housekeeping job that didn't require any particular skills, it was easy for her to get hired.

Xia Xibei dressed up as a woman in her thirties, about 160 cm tall, with an ordinary appearance and a somewhat haggard look.

This was the kind of look that wouldn't draw any attention walking on the street.

The next day, the supervisor assigned tasks to Xia Xibei.

The supervisor had received instructions, and Xia Xibei only needed to take care of a few rooms.

The supervisor was unhappy at first, but once they found out that she wasn't going to be paid, he didn't have any objections.

After getting things ready, Xia Xibei pushed the cart to do her job.

She first cleaned the other two rooms on the same floor, and luckily, they weren't very dirty.

After she finished, she went to the room where those guys were staying.

She knocked on the door twice and said, "Hello, housekeeping."

“No need!” a voice from inside turned it down.

Finally, the person inside opened the door.

Looking at the ordinary janitor, the guy nodded and said, “Fine, come inside, but don’t touch anything you shouldn’t!”

“Don’t worry, we have professional ethics. How could we do anything to harm our guests?” Xia Xibei said as she walked in.

The room was indeed in a mess, with clothes and bedding all over the place.

Moreover, the room was filled with the strong smell of smoke, which made her frown.

She held her breath, opened the window, and said, “I mean, you paid for this place, but does it have to be this messy? We talked about cleaning up before, but you guys just weren’t willing to do it! In a couple of days, who knows what it’ll look like!”

“What did you say?”

One of the men glared at her and snapped, “Just do your job!”

“I’m trying to clean up too!” Xia Xibei put her hands on her hips. “But with all four of you crammed in here, what am I supposed to do?”

Seeing her fierce manners, their faces didn’t look too good.

“Four grown men staying in one room... Come on, are you really that broke? You don’t seem like it though...” Xia Xibei continued to grumble, taking on the persona of a middle-aged woman who loved to nag.

“I’m telling you...”

One of them wanted to say a few curse words, but was stopped by his companion.

“Alright, just clean up already!”

“You guys need to get outside for a bit. If you all stay in here, how am I supposed to clean?” Xia Xibei shooed them out, “Wait outside, I’ll be done in a while.”

Chapter 1753 - 1753 Collateral Damage

1753 Collateral Damage

Although Xia Xibei wanted to throw the men out, how could they really just leave?

If nothing else, they wouldn’t want her to see the guns in the room, or other things.

Although the housekeeping staff here wouldn't dare to touch their things, they had to watch out.

So, they just stood at the door, with their eyes staring straight at Xia Xibei's movements.

If she were a real cleaning lady, she would have died of embarrassment.

!!

Xia Xibei ignored them and continued to clean the room.

Seeing that her movements were normal and she worked efficiently, the men didn't think too much about it.

At this time, the door to the nearby room opened, and a tall man came out of it.

The man in white had an ordinary appearance, but he had a powerful physique.

Not knowing what was going on, the man in white pointed inside and cursed, "Damn it! I told you to come back with me!"

"Bah! I'm not going back with you!"

An angry roar came from the inside.

“Get out of here!”

This was originally a matter in the next room and had nothing to do with these men.

The next second, however, the man in white was pushed by the man who came out from inside and fell towards them.

This turn of events startled the men, who hurriedly pulled up the man in white.

The man in blue was furious, “Did you bring these people?! Damn! I knew you weren’t so nice!”

The man in blue cursed, his eyes were fierce, and he waved his fist and struck.

The man in white immediately dodged.

However, while the man in white dodged the strike, the fist struck the man behind him in the face.

Being suddenly punched, the man in black was a little confused, and then also angry.

They were just standing in the doorway, but they encountered this unwarranted disaster!

They had never encountered such a thing or suffered such an aggravation!

However, they still tried to pull the two angry men apart.

The process was a little tough. After all, these two men were too strong.

They talked to each other and calmed the two men down.

If they were in other places, they would have taught such fools a lesson. They wouldn't have needed to hold back.

If it were not for the fear of making a scene here and bothering the police, they would have done it.

As the two men were pulled apart by four big men, they could only curse and grumble, but soon stopped fighting.

Finally, the man in white put down a harsh word, "Just you wait!"

"I will!"

Some harsh words later, things finally came to an end.

The men also breathed a sigh of relief.

Didn't they say that it was quite safe here in Hua? Why did they fight at the drop of a hat?

When they reacted, their hearts jumped and they immediately looked into the room.

In the room, the janitor was still slowly cleaning the inside, as if not affected by what was happening outside.

The man in charge walked in, "You're not going to check out what just happened?"

"No," Xia Xibei replied slowly. "This kind of thing happens all the time. As long as no one gets killed, we don't have to take care of it. Besides, I don't dare to get close. What if it hurts me?"

The corners of the man's mouth twitched. This woman's mentality was really stable enough.

"Okay, I'm done. Please take care of the room in the future. If not, we can come and clean it once a day."

"Okay, okay. We know."

The men hurriedly sent Xia Xibei away.

Chapter 1754 - 1754 Altered

1754 Altered

When they returned to the room, the first thing they did was look at the travel bags they had placed on the table.

Their life-saving weapons were inside these bags.

These things could not be found by anyone.

Otherwise, they would not be able to leave Hua.

After all, the crime of carrying a gun was very serious.

!!

Although their bags had been moved to a different position, the desktop was a bit wet, indicating that it had indeed been cleaned.

The bags had not been tampered with.

Still cautious, they opened the bag and took out all the firearms inside.

The stuff was still there, and the bullets were there.

They breathed a sigh of relief.

“Don’t think so much,” the man in the lead laughed. “That’s just an ordinary woman, don’t worry.”

This was Hua. These women were a bit nagging, but she was not a superhero. How would she dare to do anything?

“That’s right,” the others nodded their heads.

Everyone then relaxed and went back to their work.

Xia Xibei left the room and went back down.

She had done a lot of work today.

She usually had a part-time worker to take care of the cleaning in her house.

However, she had done this kind of work before, so she was not a stranger to it, and her hands and feet were quite nimble.

She did not take the firearms away. After all, these things were so special, they would certainly find out.

She didn’t want them to find out and thus escape.

It was okay if they didn't use them, but if they did...

The result would be interesting.

Xia Xibei smiled and went to talk to the supervisor about resigning.

The supervisor was confused. What was this?

Was there such a willful employee?

She only did one day of work- Oh no, only half a day!

It's only half a day of work, and she quit?

If Xia Xibei hadn't said she didn't want to be paid, she probably would have been livid.

Since she didn't want to be paid and nothing bad had happened, and since Xia Xibei was a connected person, she didn't think too much about it and just waved her hand and let Xia Xibei go.

Xia Xibei nodded at her, turned around, and walked away.

The supervisor froze for a moment. She just felt for a moment that this employee's demeanor was particularly different!

However, she didn't think too much about it. It was just an ordinary woman or an ordinary woman who was picky about work. What could be so special about her?

She shrugged off any thoughts about Xia Xibei.

After settling this matter, Xia Xibei left the building and took a ride back to her home.

Only after she returned to her home did she resume her original appearance.

In fact, she could have just taken the identity of one of the janitors, but she chose to use this method so as not to involve the real janitors.

After she changed her clothes and came out, Han Rui and Qiao Yanjue were already waiting for her.

The two men who messed up just now were, of course, them.

They had attracted the attention of those men and let Xia Xibei do something to the guns.

Now it seemed that everything went well.

Han Rui couldn't help but feel particularly different about this collaboration.

He had worked with others before, but he was always worried about revealing his identity.

This time, using the mask given by Xia Xibei, he did not worry about this at all.

Even if he was more arrogant, it would not reveal his identity.

This mask was really good stuff!

"Okay, our side is done. We're going to look at the other side."

Qiao Yanjue lifted his chin at Han Rui.

Han Rui nodded.

Next, it was Han Guangxiang's turn.

After checking out Han Guangxiang's side, it was time to do something about it.

"I have an informant on my side," Xia Xibei said.

Chapter 1755 - 1755 Disguised Identity

1755 Disguised Identity

Xia Xibei's informant was, of course, Han Hui.

Han Hui was a child of the Han family, so she could naturally move around freely inside.

However, Han Hui's strength was not good. If she really wanted to find out what was going on inside, she couldn't do it herself.

If Han Hui was discovered, it would be a real problem.

So, Xia made an appointment with Han Hui.

!!

Han Hui and Xia seldom saw each other and rarely contacted each other.

It was good to have less contact because it meant nothing was wrong.

However, she didn't expect that Xia would be looking for her again this time.

When she figured out what was going on, Han Hui was taken aback.

“You said... They are connected to drugs?”

Han Hui couldn't believe it.

However, after the shock, she calmed down and quickly accepted the matter.

Those people in the Han family were all animals, so what was so remarkable about being connected with this kind of stuff?

“Right. Those drugs that you guys took before, many of the ingredients should be refined there.”

Xia Xibei's explanation made Han Hui's expression even uglier.

“Tell me, what do you want me to do?”

She didn't ask any detailed questions and got straight to the point.

Han Hui had known Xia Xibei for so long that she naturally knew what kind of person she was.

If she didn't need help, Xia Xibei wouldn't have taken the initiative to find her.

No one else would even know that they knew each other.

Of course, it was also the best for them.

If others knew that they were connected, they might even track the relationship to the source, which would be really troublesome.

The corners of Han Hui's mouth twitched.

Just her identity and she called it nothing?

However, she still nodded her head, "Okay, tell me what you want to do."

Seeing that Han Hui was so sensible, Xia Xibei nodded, "It's simple, you tell me everything about the Han family, then I'll use your identity to go undercover at the Han family."

Han Hui frowned. "Uh... This really wouldn't affect me?"

"Of course not," Xia Xibei shook her head. "I'm more concerned about your safety."

"OK."

In fact, Xia Xibei was really quite good to her.

Han Hui didn't think too much about it and nodded, "What do you need to know?"

Half an hour later, Han Hui and Xia Xibei parted ways.

Back at home, Han Hui took pictures of the house.

The next day, the two met again to talk about the Han family.

On the third day, Xia Xibeidisguised herself as Han Hui and infiltrated Han's house.

The Han family's mansion was particularly large. After all, the Han family had many years of history.

The Han family's mansion was not as big as the Qi family's, but it was more gorgeous than the Qi family's mansion.

Looking at the golden decoration style, Xia Xibei's face was expressionless. She just felt a little pain in her eyes.

This kind of pompous and luxurious style really existed!

She complained madly in her heart as she continued to walk forward.

However, when she passed a corner, her footsteps stopped.

There was an “acquaintance” in front of her.

“Brother Jiang,” Xia Xibei stopped in her tracks and greeted the man.

“Oh, Little Hui.” Han Jiang also stopped in his tracks. “Long time no see. How are you now?”

“I’m fine. How about you, Brother Jiang? I heard you’re in a relationship now?”

Han Jiang and Cui Tong were a couple.

Before, Xia Xibei gave Cui Tong a kind of medicine, saying that if Han Jiang did anything wrong, she should give him the medicine.

Afterward, Cui Tong said that Han Jiang was no different. So, the relationship between the two was pretty good.

After that, Xia Xibei didn’t pay attention to this matter anymore.

She just didn’t expect to see Han Jiang here.

“Yeah, I’m in love,” Han Jiang smiled, a hint of shrewdness flashing in his eyes.

Chapter 1756 - 1756 Don't Be Naive

1756 Don't Be Naive

Han Jiang was Cui Tong’s boyfriend, and Xia Xibei had met him before and heard Cui Tong mention him many times.

Previously, Xia Xibei was worried that Han Jiang, like the rest of the Han family, would use those drugs and treat Cui Tong as a target for exploitation.

Therefore, she provided Cui Tong with the antidote drugs.

If Han Jiang had any deviant ideas, he would be sorry.

However, Cui Tong said later on that Han Jiang did not do anything unusual, and the two of them had a pretty sweet relationship.

!!

Although Cui Tong couldn’t show off her love on the internet, she often called and talked to Xia Xibei about these things. After all, Xia Xibei was her best friend.

Xia Xibei thought that Han Jiang may not be very reliable. After all, he was from the Han family and the same muddy pond, it would be too difficult for him to stay clean.

However, as long as Han Jiang did not cause harm to Cui Tong's health, Xia Xibei did not care that much.

After all, Cui Tong was an independent individual, not someone she could manage so much.

To be honest, if other people were telling her what to do with her own feelings, she would also feel annoyed.

Even if it was a close friend, there should still be a sense of boundaries.

So, Xia Xibei did not care about these things.

However, when Xia Xibei saw Han Jiang today, she felt that Han Jiang's expression was not quite right.

Xia Xibei had met Han Jiang once or twice before as Cui Tong's best friend, and every time, Han Jiang was always very gentle and polite.

In the eyes of others, Han Jiang was a stylish rich guy.

Today, Xia Xibei was using Han Hui's identity.

Han Hui and Han Jiang were cousins and had a fairly close relationship.

Being close, one might be able to know different things.

Xia Xibei laughed, "Brother Jiang, you are so lucky to have such a beautiful girlfriend!"

"Yeah." Han Jiang raised his eyebrows at her, "And the Cui family is also very rich!"

That made Xia Xibei's smile pause for a moment.

The Cui family was indeed rich, but it was still no match for the Han family.

Xia Xibei reacted.

The Han family was indeed rich, but the assets of the Han family were not equally divided.

It could be said that the sons and daughters of the Han family needed to show their strength in order to acquire more assets.

If they didn't have any ability, there was no way to get more assets and occupy a more favorable position in the family.

So, some of them didn't have much to offer except pocket money.

Was this also the case with Han Jiang...

“Brother Jiang, how can you say that?” Xia Xibei shrugged. “What do you need money for when you’re this golden couple? I just envy your relationship so much!”

Han Jiang laughed, a little sarcastically, “Little Hui, let me teach you to be smarter.”

He shook his head, “Forget about feelings, money is the most important thing!”

He hummed. “You girls are just so overwhelmed by emotions. For the sake of the so-called love, you give all of yourself away. This is not good. As a man, I can’t be as selfless as you girls. Don’t be too naive.”

Perhaps he was complacent and wanted to find someone to show off, so he educated Xia Xibei, “Don’t be foolish, you could lose everything.”

“Uh...” Xia Xibei frowned. “Brother Jiang, isn’t your relationship with Sister Tong quite good?”

“Yeah,” Han Jiang nodded his head, unfazed. “She is my god of wealth, so of course it’s good!”

As he was talking, his phone vibrated, and after taking it out and looking at it, he said, “Okay, I have to go. I’ll talk to you later.”

Chapter 1757 - 1757 Dealing with the Hans (1)

1757 Dealing with the Hans (1)

Xia Xibei's face turned cold as she watched Han Jiang leave.

From what Han Jiang had said, it was clear that he had never had true feelings for Cui Tong, but only treated her as an ATM instead.

Xia Xibei found Han Jiang's behavior ironic.

As Xia Xibe thought of Han Jiang's expression just now, she found it extremely ironic.

Although she knew that most men were far more pragmatic than women, she didn't expect Han Jiang to be so blunt.

!!

Furthermore, Han Jiang was really good at suppressing his nature for his own interest!

Seeing his triumphant and arrogant look just now, he was nothing close to the gentle and humble man that he was before.

Maybe once he gained enough benefits from Cui Tong, he would turn against her!

It was true that you could know someone by their appearance, but not by their heart!

As she thought about this, Xia Xibei took a deep breath to regain her composure.

There were more pressing matters at hand, and the most important thing at the moment was to handle these things.

So, she stopped thinking about Han Jiang and Cui Tong.

She followed the address Han Hui gave and began making her way inside.

After a while, she arrived at her destination.

It was a small villa, where Han Hui said their lab was located.

Xia Xibei didn't know what was inside the lab, but she knew it definitely wasn't anything good.

She looked around and walked forward calmly.

When she reached a spot where the surveillance cameras couldn't see her, she stopped.

Then, she took out a tiny signal distractor.

These signal distractors could make the surveillance cameras stop functioning.

After she was done with the signal distractors, Xia Xibei unleashed her spiritual power.

Once she was sure that no one was around, she hid and restored her own height.

With her height restored, Xia Xibei scaled the wall and infiltrated the building in a swift manner.

Fortunately, the main figure in charge, Han Guangxiang, was not around, and only a handful of men were still working inside.

Xia Xibei carefully searched the area with her spiritual power spread out like wildfire.

Luckily, she soon found what she was looking for – several pounds of white powder inside a safe.

Looking at the few men who were still immersed in their work, Xia Xibei's lips curled in a cold smile.

She took out a stick of incense from her pocket and lit it, holding her breath as the aroma permeated through the door.

The men began to feel drowsy.

They shook their heads but found themselves getting increasingly tired, with even the objects in front of them starting to sway.

“I’m so sleepy...”

“I’m exhausted too...”

“Maybe we’ve been working too hard lately. Let’s take a nap first.”

“Alright. Let’s lie down for a bit and then get back to work.”

After the men fell asleep, Xia Xibei cautiously opened the door and slipped inside.

Her hands were already covered with gloves, so she wouldn’t leave any traces behind.

Her objective was clear, and she went straight to where the powder was hidden.

Upon opening the safe, she shook her head in dismay.

She surveyed the area and found a bag of regular powder, which she used to switch out the contents of the safe.

Once she was done, she looked around to ensure that she was in the clear, before leaving with the bag of powder.

It wasn't until some time had passed that the workers in the lab finally woke up from their drowsiness.

They were startled, wondering if there was a problem.

After checking themselves and the lab thoroughly and finding no issues, they let out a sigh of relief.

Chapter 1758 - 1758 Dealing with the Hans (2)

1758 Dealing with the Hans (2)

After completing everything, Xia Xibei left the Han family using Han Hui's identity, before switching back to her original identity.

Han Hui asked her, "Did anything happen?"

"No," Xia Xibei shook her head and replied, "Oh, I saw Han Jiang. He said something to me."

"What did he say?" Han Hui immediately asked, fearing that she might encounter the same person as Xia Xibei did, and not be able to explain clearly.

"Not much, just that you shouldn't trust your feelings too much, and that money is the most important thing." Xia Xibei summarized, and to ensure safety, she repeated those words again.

!!

As she listened to these words, Han Hui fell silent, the look in her eyes complicated.

“That’s exactly what they would say and do,” she said.

Every man in the Han family was shrewd, and these women were brainwashed to be selfless and mighty, and to dedicate themselves to them.

If it weren’t for Xia Xibei’s help, she would have been sold off as a commodity and married off to someone else’s family.

“Okay, I’ll go back now,” Han Hui said.

“Sure, go ahead,” Xia Xibei replied, without saying another word before they went their separate ways.

After Han Hui left, Xia Xibei also returned home.

“It’s done,” she said. Han Rui and Qiao Yanjue breathed a sigh of relief when they saw Xia Xibei return safely.

Xia Xibei then explained what she had done.

“So, can we start acting now?” Han Rui asked.

“Yes,” Xia Xibei nodded, “and you can also tell your teammates about this.”

“What?” Han Rui was surprised, “Do we really need to tell them?”

If he were to tell them now, wouldn't it be like testing them?

It made him hesitate.

“Yea, aren't you worried that there's a mole among your teammates? If so, we have to find out!” Xia Xibei said.

It was a matter of life and death, how could they give up easily?

Thus, it was crucial to find out the truth.

Han Rui hesitated.

Qiao Yanjue slapped him on the back, “If everything is fine on their side, then you won't have a problem! It's not like you'll go up to them and accuse them of being suspicious!”

This made Han Rui come to his senses.

His friend was right.

Although it wasn't right to suspect his teammate, this was a matter of life and death, and he couldn't take any chances.

He had to do it for his own safety.

"Alright!" he nodded immediately. "Let's do it!"

He took out his phone and called his teammate.

His teammate was startled when he received the call.

"Are you alright? We haven't heard from you in a long time! We were so worried about you! You scared us!"

"Don't worry, I'm fine," Han Rui shook his head. "It's just that... They found out about my identity,"

"What?!" His teammate exclaimed. "They found out?! Are you okay?! Where are you now?"

"I'm in my own country right now, but I was afraid of implicating you guys, so I didn't get in touch with you before. Now I'm also looking for the whereabouts of those guys."

“Are you injured?”

“No.”

“That’s good. Have you found the whereabouts of those people?”

“I have, and I’ll be able to catch them soon. That way, I can find out who exposed me.”

“Exposed you? You were exposed by someone?!”

“Maybe. Not sure yet. We’ll get to know soon.”

Chapter 1759 - 1759 Dealing with the Hans (3)

1759 Dealing with the Hans (3)

After speaking with Han Rui for a while, he hung up the phone and called another teammate.

“I couldn’t tell if there was a problem,” he shook his head.

That didn’t mean much. After all, they were all accustomed to hiding their thoughts. Without being face to face, they couldn’t discern the truth from each other’s micro expressions.

Sometimes, voice alone wasn't enough to clarify a situation.

"Then let's just wait," Qiao Yanjue comforted him, "Besides, we have a wiretapping device over there, don't we?"

!!

When Xia Xibei went to work as a cleaner before, she had planted a wiretapping device.

The device was very effective, so they didn't have to worry about not being able to hear anything.

If his teammate really was a traitor, they would definitely receive the information over the device.

Then they would be able to confirm the truth.

"Hmm," Han Rui nodded, praying that his teammate wouldn't betray him.

He couldn't bear the pain if that happened.

After making the call, Han Rui contacted the chief of the police.

His identity was special, so he could contact the chief directly.

This was a big issue involving drugs, so they needed to get in touch with the cops.

Currently, the bag of powder Xia Xibei had retrieved was in Han Guangxiang's car.

As long as they found something in his car, they could follow the trail to Han's house.

In addition, she also placed a wiretapping device in Han Guangxiang's car, so they didn't have to worry about him moving anything.

When they received the report, the police were surprised at first, then immediately started making arrangements.

The state strictly prohibited these things from appearing or circulating, and many anti-narcotics police officers had died because of these things each year.

Moreover, this report came from a member of their superior department, so they had to take it seriously.

When the police moved, Xia Xibei, Qiao Yanjue, and Han Rui disguised themselves and waited on the route that Han Guangxiang must take.

Of course, this so-called "necessary route" was designed by them.

Qiao Yanjue was the head of the Qiao family, so he could choose to collaborate with the Han family.

Although they hadn't worked together much before, there were no permanent enemies, only permanent interests.

Moreover, they didn't have any grievances before, they just hadn't collaborated much.

So, as soon as Han Guangxiang's company received news that the Qiao Group wanted a collab, they immediately sprang into action.

Han Guangxiang, as the head of the company, had to take charge of the negotiations as expected in order to show his sincerity.

The route that he had to take was exactly this one.

Xia Xibei and the other two were waiting by the roadside.

Soon, they saw that the car had been stopped by a group of police officers.

Then, the police officers actually found a package of white stuff in the car.

When Han Guangxiang saw the package, his face turned ashen.

"It's impossible! This is not mine!" he denied frantically, his face turning pale.

Although he had come into contact with these things, it was definitely not his!

“If you have anything to say, save it till you’re at the station!”

The police officers took him.

Han Guangxiang didn’t understand what had happened even after being taken away by the police.

Why did these things appear here? They were supposed to be locked in the safe!

Right! The things at home must never see the light of day! If they did, he would be finished!

At this time, the police had already sent people to Han’s house.

Xia Xibei learned from Han Hui’s feedback that the police had also found those packages.

Chapter 1760 - 1760 Dealing with the Hans (4)

1760 Dealing with the Hans (4)

Han Guangxiang was just arrested, and before his family could react, the police were at their doorstep.

The search by the police frightened everyone.

Among them, Han Hui also put on a shocked face, anxiously looking around, but inwardly sneering.

This corrupt and putrid family should have been destroyed long ago!

If she had enough power, she would have torn apart these disgusting things herself!

!!

However, it didn't matter. Even if she didn't have the ability, she could ask Xia Xibei for help.

With Xia Xibei's help, things became much easier.

When the other girls in the family saw the police, they were all frightened, with the younger ones almost in tears.

When the police actually found several packages that were meant to be kept secret, everyone was in great shock.

How did these things appear in their home?!

They wanted to say that they were framed, but soon the police said that all the bags had Han Guangxiang's fingerprints on them.

The packages found both in Han Guangxiang's car and the house all had his fingerprints on them.

Since these things were all handled by Han Guangxiang, it was not surprising that his fingerprints were on them.

This also completely obliterated Han Guangxiang's escape route.

These bags added up to several pounds! Enough for a heavy sentence!

This incident also plunged the Han family into chaos because it was the beginning of their downfall.

Although it appeared that only Han Guangxiang had contact with these things, who would believe that the other members of the Han family hadn't had their hands on them?

Soon, the police found some drugs in the Han family's laboratory, some of which contained illegal ingredients.

This made things even more complicated.

In fact, many of the personnel in the Han family's laboratory were Han family boys.

Most of these boys majored in chemical medicine or biological experiments.

The Han family had many children. It should be said that among all the families, the Han family had the most children.

They relied on quantity to win!

There were many things that outsiders could not know, and could only be handled by their own people.

Therefore, the boys in the Han family generally did well in biochemistry.

Apart from a minority of researchers, those who could be in the center of the lab were all Han family children.

The drugs found by the police were all made by these children.

Therefore... It would be even more absurd to say that it had nothing to do with these children.

Even a fool wouldn't believe it!

Those people were all taken by the police.

Among them was Han Xiang, a good friend of Gu Yinglei. He was usually carefree, but surprisingly talented in this area.

However, he never thought of being arrested!

After many boys from the Han family were taken, things became even more chaotic.

The media, like sharks smelling blood, somehow got ahold of the news and swarmed in.

The news of the Han family's drug involvement spread like wildfire and caused a huge uproar.

The Han family also owned two pharmaceutical companies, not well-known but sizable, with several well-known drugs.

This time, when the reporters found out they were involved in illegal drugs, they went bananas and kept digging deeper and deeper.

Within two days, all sorts of mind-blowing news kept popping up, like mushrooms after rain.

At the same time, Han Group's stock prices plummeted, causing massive losses.

At this point, Han Rui led the police to arrest those men in black.