

Chapter 176

Alyssa was woken up by Leon's kiss. She came into Leon's arms and opened her eyes in a daze.

Seeing that Leon still kissed her secretly, she couldn't help but smile, "Leon, not yet."

"When will the three months pass? I've been waiting for a long time."

"You can't do that even after three months. The baby is most important."

"Is the baby important or me?"

Leon couldn't help but be jealous of his unborn child.

What kind of thing was this?

This child hadn't even been born and already started stealing his woman from him!

It was too much.

Leon felt very unbalanced.

Alyssa had sensed Leon's imbalance. She pulled Leon's neck and kissed him, "Why are you jealous of a child! After the baby is born and I have recovered, I will have several more children with you, okay? Don't be angry. It's getting late. Let's get some rest."

After hearing Alyssa's words, Leon still felt uncomfortable, "Then which do you think is more important, the baby or me?"

"You're both important."

Alyssa just wanted to sleep now.

She and Leon were both quite busy, and Leon had worked overtime for so long. Why didn't he look tired at all?

She was so tired that she didn't have any energy left.

"No, you have to say who is more important."

"I won't say anything." Alyssa was really going to cry. She was dying of exhaustion. Now that everything was settled, she just wanted to get a good night's sleep. But Leon was so full of energy now that he didn't want her to sleep at all.

"Alyssa, which is more important, me or the baby?"

Leon was obsessed with getting an answer.

Alyssa couldn't sleep. She opened her eyes and answered seriously, "Leon, does the baby come from you and me?"

Leon was speechless.

Yes!

The child was indeed their child!

When Leon didn't answer, Alyssa said, "If I didn't love you, would I want to have a child with you so badly? This is not a choice question about whether you or the baby is more important. Why are you thinking so much?"

Alyssa closed her eyes again. She was really sleepy and tired.

She wanted to sleep.

Seeing Alyssa close her eyes, Leon hurriedly took Alyssa's hand and whispered, "Alyssa ..."

His voice slightly trembled.

Hearing Leon's voice, Alyssa couldn't stand it anymore. She had no choice but to open her eyes again.

"Say what you have to say in one go. I'm really sleepy and I really want to sleep." Worried that Leon still wouldn't let her sleep, Alyssa added, "You can't abuse a pregnant woman. Pregnant women need to rest."

When he heard Alyssa's last words, all Leon's emotions disappeared.

His big hand gently patted Alyssa's shoulder, "I'm sorry. You can sleep! It's my fault for asking questions that I shouldn't ask. It's all my fault. You've worked hard today, so you should go to bed early."

"Okay."

Hearing Leon's words, Alyssa felt much better.

After a while, Alyssa couldn't sleep again, because Leon's big hand kept patting her. At first, she felt comfortable, but as time went on, she felt a little uncomfortable. She simply opened her eyes and looked at Leon.

Seeing Alyssa open her eyes and look at him, Leon froze slightly. After a long time, he responded, "You're awake?"

"I didn't want to wake up, but your hand kept patting me. Leon, I suddenly found that you are really a naughty boy."

Leon frowned. He moved to her ear and whispered, "You're the naughty one. Otherwise, how could I care about you so much?"

"You make a fair point."

Alyssa pondered for a moment.

Then, she suddenly laughed.

"No laughing." Leon heard Alyssa's laughter.

Hearing Leon's words, Alyssa wrapped herself directly around Leon, "Sleep."

Alyssa quietly closed her eyes and went to sleep, but Leon couldn't sleep. He looked at Alyssa and thought Alyssa looked good with her eyes closed.

He went over to hug Alyssa and felt Alyssa's body soft and fluffy.

Leon wanted to move when he suddenly saw Alyssa's body move slightly. Then, she quickly got up from the bed and ran to the bathroom.

Leon hurriedly followed her and heard Alyssa's vomiting in the bathroom.

In an instant, all his emotions disappeared without a trace.

Early the next morning.

Leon took Alyssa to the hospital.

"I told you that I didn't have to see the doctor, but you had to bring me here. The test result is normal!"

Alyssa sat in the car and complained. She was really tired. She yawned and leaned to the side, closing her eyes.

"It's good that you're okay. These days, you have been unwell. Given that, I'd better bring you to the hospital so that I can feel relieved."

Leon looked at Alyssa's tired face and somewhat regretted bringing Alyssa here. She looked obviously more tired.

The car quickly started and drove in the direction of the villa.

They had just returned to the villa when Leon's phone rang.

"Okay, I got it. I'll be right there." Leon put down the phone.

Alyssa saw that Leon was leaving and hurriedly said, "Did the people who followed you yesterday say something? I want to go with you."

"You can't go. You were just sleepy, weren't you?"

"I'm not sleepy now. I'm in good spirits."

Alyssa looked at Leon and smiled, wrapping her arms around him, "Just take me with you. I'll just watch and listen, and I won't give you any trouble, okay?"

Leon hesitated. He did not want to take Alyssa with him, but Alyssa begged him. He suddenly felt that he had no strength to refuse Alyssa. Finally, he had to agree with Alyssa.

Ten minutes later.

Leon took Alyssa to the place.

They had explained clearly. They just did what they were told to do, so they had no idea of who exactly told them to follow Leon.

Alyssa frowned at this news. Looking at Leon's gloomy face, she asked softly, "What should we do next?"

"I'll be more careful. And you won't be in any more danger. You can rest assured."

"The point is that the person behind them is mysterious."

This person spent the money but didn't show up. After things got out of hand, this mysterious person simply disappeared.

They didn't even know what this person really wanted.

Alyssa looked at Leon, "Why don't you check out who you've offended before? Maybe the person who followed us was sent by one of those people?"

Since that person didn't show any traces.

Then they could only start with the people around them.

Leon obviously felt Alyssa's nervousness. He gently patted her shoulder, "Alyssa, don't be too nervous. My people have already begun to investigate. I have certainly offended many people in doing business, but not many people really dare to do so. Can you understand what I mean?"

"Yes."

Alyssa calmed down at Leon's words.

Leon could do everything perfectly without leaving any problems, just like he did the last time he faced Jones Group.

In the business world competition, he was not aggressive, but he could handle things clearly and effectively.

So, these people who followed Leon might have nothing to do with the business world.

But after thinking about this, Alyssa did not feel relaxed, but more nervous.

If it was not someone from the business circle who did this, then who could it be?

The range was suddenly expanded. Alyssa looked at Leon and only felt more nervous.

Leon looked at Alyssa's face and said comfortingly, "I will take care of this. Don't worry!"

Alyssa nodded. Despite this, how could she not be worried?

Now, they had met the enemy, but they didn't even know who the enemy was.

Leon sent Alyssa home.

When they arrived home, Alyssa refused to let Leon go. Leon didn't want to be harsh to Alyssa. So, he carried Alyssa to the bedroom to rest. He watched her fall asleep before he went to the office.

As soon as Leon left, Alyssa had a dream.

She dreamed that there were many people trying to catch Leon, some with two heads, some with four hands, and some with seven eyes, all looking like monsters.

She watched Leon being chased by those monsters. She hit those monsters as hard as she could, but it didn't work. The monsters still chased Leon.

Leon was beaten by them even though he had run fast.

Suddenly, a cliff appeared in front of Leon. She watched Leon jump off the cliff. In a panic, she woke up from her dream.

Her body was all sweaty. As soon as she woke up, she started looking for Leon.

After looking around, she called Leon.

When the call was answered, she realized that Leon had gone to the office.

Alyssa was relieved to hear Leon's voice.

She closed her eyes and sighed. She was too tense and should relax a little.

But for some reason, she just couldn't relax. She always felt that something was going to happen.

Luckily, nothing happened in the next few days.

Alyssa felt better and Leon went to work and left work on time.

Alyssa thought that she might think too much, and that was why she felt that something was going to happen.

No one had followed Leon for the past few days. She also felt much better. Life was beautiful.

One day, Leon left work early and Alyssa took Leon for a walk.

"We haven't gone for a walk in a long time. Let's go for a walk." She looked at Leon petulantly, hoping he would take her for a walk.

Leon nodded, "Okay."

Soon.

They walked around the yard.

Alyssa was a little dissatisfied, "I thought you were going to take me out for a walk! We've been walking here for quite a while. Can you take me for a walk far away? It's nice to take a break."

"It's no different as to where you go, is it?" Seeing the way Alyssa pouted, Leon walked over and took her hand, "I've been so busy these days that I neglected you. Don't be mad at me."
