1761 New Discovery (1)

The group of men in black had been searching for Han Rui's whereabouts relentlessly.

However, after arriving in the country of Hua, they lost track of him. Other than the contact they had initially, it was like Han Rui had vanished afterward.

Perhaps being in his own country, Han Rui had hidden himself extremely well, making it impossible to find him.

Their impatience grew with each passing day, but they knew that if Han Rui wasn't dealt with, who knew what would happen next?

Despite their best efforts, they couldn't locate Han Rui.

They reached out to Han Guangxiang, as he knew more about Han Rui's situation.

However, since yesterday, there had been no word from Han Guangxiang, which left them puzzled.

Could Han Guangxiang have betrayed them?

Before they could figure out what was going on, they sensed that something was amiss in their surroundings.

These men had come through gunfire and danger and had developed a keen intuition for danger.

When they woke up that morning, they felt as though someone was watching them.

It was a terrifying feeling, as if they would be captured the next second.

Their leader made a quick decision to pack up and leave.

Before they could, the police stormed in, blocking their escape.

They were all stunned by the sudden appearance of so many police officers.

Who in the world had snitched on them?

Regardless of who it was, they knew they had to leave first.

They drew out their guns, but when the first person attempted to fire, the weapon exploded, nearly blowing off their hand!

This sudden turn of events shocked them all, and they dared not try to use their weapons again.

With so many police officers wearing bulletproof vests, they all broke out in a cold sweat.

Finally, they had no choice but to raise their hands and allow the police to take them away.

When they got downstairs, before getting into the police car, the leader erupted in anger.

The others joined in, causing chaos, which enabled their escape.

In the blink of an eye, they had slipped away from the police's grasp.

During the struggle, the leader had even managed to obtain a key from one of the officers.

Amidst the chaos, with lots of by-standers gawking, the police dared not to open fire and had no choice but to let them loose.

No one had realized that Han Rui was following closely behind them.

Han Rui didn't immediately jump out and capture the leader, but quietly followed him.

The man wrapped his hands in his clothes, and no one could see the handcuffs.

He rushed into a shopping mall, looked around, and then rushed into the restroom.

Han Rui continued to follow.

Han Rui looked pretty ordinary today, and no one paid attention to him as he walked down the street.

There weren't many people in the men's room.

After a while, a man walked out of one of the closed stalls.

Han Rui didn't think too much about it at first, but when he glanced over, his face sank.

He noticed a mark on the man's hand, as if it had been strangled by something.

However, this man looked way too ordinary and different from the guy he was following!

If it were before, he might have been careless and let the man escape.

Now, after using the mask given to him by Xia Xibei, he knew that there were many mysterious things in this world that he couldn't comprehend.

Moreover, the man had the same hair color as before, but had completely changed his face.

Han Rui's heart skipped a beat.

He calmly washed his hands, then walked out and continued to follow him.

Chapter 1762 - 1762 New Discovery (2)

1762 New Discovery (2)

After changing his appearance, the man became composed and calm.

Instead of immediately leaving the shopping mall, he continued to wander around.

Han Rui followed him closely, carefully observing his every move.

The man took out an earphone from his pocket and put it into his ear, then said something to the other end.

Although Han Rui couldn't hear what he said, it was likely that he was contacting someone.

The look on Han Rui's face turned more solemn.

After a while, the man looked around and continued to circle around, even encountering many police officers, but his attitude remained natural, with not a hint of trouble seen.

Han Rui was holding a cup of milk tea, drinking it while following behind.

At the same time, he also sent a message to Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue.

It was part of their plan to let this man escape.

Although these men were the main force, there were definitely more powerful figures behind him.

They needed to take down all of these people in one go to solve any potential problems in the future.

Otherwise, when Han Rui left, they didn't know what they might do and could potentially threaten their families.

They also wanted to know what this man was hiding behind him.

After receiving Han Rui's call, Xia Xibei was very surprised.

"He also has a mask?"

“Yes,” Han Rui nodded and took a sip of milk tea. “I saw him enter, but he came out a minute later with a completely different appearance, except for his height and build.”

With so many people in the mall, who would have thought that someone could completely change their appearance like this?

“You continue to follow him, we’ll head over now!”

Xia Xibei’s expression became solemn.

Hearing how concerned Xia Xibei was, Han Rui told her the address without asking further, despite his curiosity.

After hanging up the phone, Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei both had grave expressions.

“It should be related to Jiang Rongguang!” they said in unison.

They really didn’t know that the man would have such a disguise mask with him!

Having a disguise mask meant that they were connected to Jiang Rongguang!

At present, Xia Xibei only knew of one person who had the ability to create such a mask, and that was Jiang Rongguang.

Even Yang Mo didn't have such skills.

Back when Yang Mo was learning from Xia Xibei, she only studied medicine and alchemy, and had no particular expertise in crafting tools.

After all, she had only studied with Xia Xibei for a few years, and while she was pretty talented, it was impossible for her to learn so much in such a short time.

Therefore, even if Yang Mo wanted to make a mask, she didn't have the fine craftsmanship required.

Apart from Jiang Rongguang, no one else could achieve that level of skill.

The men in black and the drug lords were related, and Jiang Rongguang also owned properties in this area.

Both were related to Country M...

It would be strange if there were no connections between them!

They had previously tracked Jiang Rongguang, trying to find out where his properties were hidden.

However, they hadn't found much useful information these days.

Jiang Rongguang was too cautious and never exposed himself.

Even Dolores, who had followed him for so many years, only knew where he often appeared, but not the specifics.

If Dolores didn't know much, how could other people find out in such a short time?

Moreover, Qiao Yanjue didn't want his people to be discovered by Jiang Rongguang and get into trouble, so he had no choice but to slow down.

Due to this, they had to hold off on their plan.

Unexpectedly, today they were able to find some new clues from Han Rui's side!

Chapter 1763 - 1763 New Discovery (3)

1763 New Discovery (3)

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue quickly got a good disguise and rushed over toward the direction where Han Rui was.

Fortunately, they were not far from Han Rui.

The two parties soon met up.

“He’s up ahead, the man in the black jacket,” Han Rui said, pointing ahead.

That man was wearing gray clothes before, but when he came out, he changed into black clothes.

In addition, he also changed his appearance and hairstyle.

If Han Rui hadn’t kept an eye on him, he might have gotten away long ago.

“Okay, we’ll just follow him. You go and take care of other things,” Xia Xibei shooed him away.

Han Rui’s mouth twitched, “You guys are too strange, this is my mission.”

“No need for so many people to follow,” Qiao Yanjue explained. “You go back to the police station to deal with those people, and you may be able to get some different information. We’ll just follow this person. If there are too many people, it’s easy to be exposed.”

Han Rui was speechless, “But I am the one who is carrying out this mission...”

“Don’t worry, just leave it to us. We will help you get the credit,” Qiao Yanjue patted his shoulder. “Besides, we have a little something to take care of.”

Han Rui was confused. What other things could they have to deal with?

However, after hesitating for a moment, he nodded, "Okay, I'll leave it to you guys then. Don't lose him!"

"Don't worry, we won't lose him even if you lose him!" Qiao Yanjue grunted.

"Go now, or he'll be suspicious."

Xia Xibei waved at Han Rui.

Han Rui was helplessly driven away by them.

When Han Rui left, the two continued to stare at the man in front of them.

The two of them were posing as boyfriend and girlfriend, arm-in-arm, so no one paid much attention to them.

Although the two were tall, they looked ordinary. Not many people paid attention to them, much less cared what they did.

Xia Xibei leaned her head on Qiao Yanjue's arm and whispered, "Do you think he really has something to do with..."

These were life-preserving tools, which Jiang Rongguang could not distribute everywhere.

So, this definitely had something to do with Jiang Rongguang!

The two of them chatted while continuing to follow the man.

The man was caught by surprise today and had no money on him.

He only had a communication headset on him, not even a cell phone, much less a way out of there.

So, he wandered back and forth in this mall and occasionally went into a store.

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue pulled away and followed him around.

After half an hour, when they were impatient, the man finally made other movements.

He walked towards the outside of the mall.

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue whispered for a moment, then Xia Xibei walked quickly past.

As she approached the man, she suddenly stumbled.

“Oops!”

She bumped into the man's back.

"Sorry, sorry, sorry!"

She apologized repeatedly, having placed the bug on the man's clothes when he didn't notice.

"Are you okay?!" Qiao Yanjue rushed up and also apologized to the man. "So sorry! We didn't mean to do it!"

When the man was bumped, his face darkened for a moment. When he turned around and saw that it was an ordinary-looking couple, he did not think too much and waved his hand.

"Forget it, it's okay."

Chapter 1764 - 1764 New Discovery (4)

1764 New Discovery (4)

When he left, Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei exchanged a look.

Done!

Soon, the man got into a car.

After taking down the license plate number, the two of them also hailed a taxi.

Soon, they followed the man to a stop.

!!

Listening to the sounds of “Welcome” coming from the headphones, Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue soon knew the exact location.

This was a leisure club, spa, massage, treatments... It had everything.

Moreover, this was a high-end club. Each visit would cost at least five figures.

Ordinary people would not dare to go in.

Although they changed their appearance, Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue were rich people, so naturally they dared to go inside the club.

Moreover, before going in, the two changed their appearances again.

After all, they just had a close encounter with the man, so if they didn't change their faces, they would be recognized sooner or later.

There were male and female guests here.

After changing their clothes, the two were taken out separately.

In addition to separate programs, there were also mixed programs for men and women outside.

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue soon met.

The clubhouse was in a nice environment, and the sunlight in the glass garden was very comfortable.

The two of them sat together and chatted, then listened to the sound coming through the headphones.

There was a rustling sound from there, and it should be the man taking off his outer clothes.

This was good, he would not find anything on his body.

He was also cautious as he tested himself with a bug detector.

The buzzing sound coming from the other end made Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue look at each other with a smile.

These bugs were personally improved by Qiao Yanjue, and there were not many of them.

The materials used to make these bugs were not ordinary, and each bug was expensive.

It would definitely not be detected by the instruments here. After all, Qiao Yanjue added a lot of techniques that were only found in the Land of Fantasy.

After the man tested to make sure that there was no problem, he started talking about the business.

Qiao Yanjue and Xia Xibei were wearing bathrobes, lying on lounge chairs, with a drink each. They occasionally chatted, looking very comfortable.

The two of them had long legs that people couldn't help but pay attention to.

However, after seeing the faces of the two, everyone felt sorry for them.

They had such great figures and nice long legs, so how come their faces looked so ordinary?

It was too mismatched!

However, everyone just lamented in their hearts and went on with their own business.

The two people who were lamented about were lying on the lounge chairs with a leisurely posture. No one knew that they had headphones in their ears, which were playing the conversation over there.

“Something happened?” a young male voice rang out.

“Right. The police suddenly came to my door today and all my brothers were arrested.”

It was the voice of the boss who had escaped.

“What’s going on?”

“I don’t know. It was fine before, and today the police came.”

“Could it be that you have exposed yourselves?”

“No way! We were hiding well.”

The man was a little upset.

The young man laughed lightly with a little sarcasm, “If you really hid well, you wouldn’t be here now.”

The man choked for a moment and hurriedly changed the subject, "Okay, that's not why I'm calling you today. I just want to know, what should we do next? I suspect the man found us out."

"No need to suspect, you are indeed exposed." The young man's voice was light and airy. "But you don't have to worry, as long as you leave here, there will be no problem."

"Don't we have to find that cop?"

"You don't have to worry about that, I know what to do."

Chapter 1765 - 1765 New Discovery (5)

1765 New Discovery (5)

"Leave the rest to me. I'll arrange for you to leave," said the young man confidently.

"What about my mates?"

"We'll have to find a way to get them out. You're not of much use here," replied the young man.

The leader was clearly unhappy at being looked down upon.

However, he had no choice but to say through gritted teeth, "Alright then, I'll await your arrangements."

!!

The conversation made Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue exchange glances.

Something was definitely off here.

The young man was either the boss or had a close relationship with the boss, as he was able to come and go so freely.

They were even more curious about the young man's relationship with Jiang Rongguang.

After a while, they heard what they wanted to hear.

"Don't worry, my godfather will take care of everything," said the young man reassuringly.

Godfather?

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue stopped in their tracks and exchanged another look.

This "godfather" must be Jiang Rongguang!

This instantly caught their attention.

Fantastic!

This was a breakthrough!

They had spent a lot of effort trying to find people with connections to Jiang Rongguang but to no avail.

Jiang Rongguang was sly as a fox indeed, not giving anyone the chance to go against him.

Although Jiang Rongguang was operating in Country M, his family, such as this godson, was in the country of Hua.

Even if the police had caught the woman whom Jiang Rongguang controlled, Dolores, they would not have found anything useful.

Now, by helping Han Rui, they had found Jiang Rongguang's godson.

There couldn't have been so many coincidences.

The conversation continued, but there was no more important information.

They decided to focus on arranging for the man to leave first and worry about the rest later.

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue continued to enjoy their beverages and lounge on their chairs, as if killing time.

In fact, they were memorizing every detail of the conversation.

They knew that once they caught the man, they could find more clues.

Unexpectedly, the phone rang just as the man was leaving.

The young man answered the call with a clear voice, “Zhelang? You’re coming over from the City of Ao? Alright, I’ll treat you to dinner tonight!”

The man spoke in a clumsy Ao language that sounded as awkward to the Ao natives as speaking Mandarin would to them.

Someone from the City of Ao?

Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue exchanged a glance, and an idea immediately occurred to them.

After a while, they left the club.

Han Rui was still at the police station dealing with the matter and waiting for their reply.

It wasn't until the evening when he received a call from Qiao Yanjue that he finally breathed a sigh of relief, knowing that they were fine.

However, what Qiao Yanjue said next left him speechless.

"You can't come back yet? What exactly are you doing?"

"We've gotten hold of some new information here," Qian Yanjue replied, "Don't worry, everything's fine. Alright, we'll talk when we get back. We still have some things to take care of."

"What new information- Hey, hello?!" Han Rui looked at his phone, feeling annoyed.

Did they really go to meet someone, rather than enjoying a date?

On the other end, Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue, who had disguised themselves, followed the young man to the restaurant they had agreed to meet at.

When they arrived, they were both stunned.

This was because standing beside "Zhelang" was another familiar-looking face!

Chapter 1766 - 1766 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (1)

1766 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (1)

Since Xia Xibei finished her filming work in Country M and returned to the country of Hua, she had not been in contact with the Wang family at all.

She never expected to see Wang Tianze here.

The previous incident had caused such a big stir, with both the Qi and Wang families turning completely against each other, thus making the two of them having even less contact afterward.

Although Wang Tianze did not get sick because he took the medicine in time, his status in the family was still affected.

Many wealthy young women thought he was their ideal husband and had a huge crush on him, but his image was shattered after the incident.

What did it matter how good-looking he was when he was homosexual?

Friends were one thing, but who would marry him as a wife when they knew he was only into guys?

They weren't out of their minds!

Who knew if he would cause any problems?

What if their love rival was not a woman, but a man? How horrible!

Therefore, the girls who were once interested in Wang Tianze disappeared without a trace.

Wang Tianze also kept a low profile after that.

Xia Xibei hadn't heard any news about him in a long time.

She never expected to see him today.

Seeing Wang Tianze, Xia Xibei thought of Yang Mo.

As for Yang Mo's experiment... The results should be out by now.

Thinking of the reactions that would follow, Xia Xibei couldn't help but sneer inwardly.

It was perfect, Yang Mo would reach the peak of success and then fall hard right after!

When Wang Tianze, Xue Zhelang, and He Xuan, who was Jiang Rongguang's godson, saw each other, they were all beside themselves with joy.

Xia Xibei had just learned that He Xuan and Xue Zhelang had been good friends for many years and had studied abroad together.

Wang Tianze had met them during their studies.

They were all Chinese and of similar ages, and thus had a lot to talk about.

After seeing Wang Tianze, He Xuan was even happier.

After everyone hugged each other merrily, they sat down in the room.

There were no wiretapping devices in the room.

When Qiao Yanjue saw Wang Tianze appear, his face darkened instantly.

Although Wang Tianze could not do anything to Xia Xibei, he still had had improper thoughts toward her before!

Now this idiot had come to the capital of the country of Hua, and he didn't know what he was up to.

Moreover, He Xuan was Jiang Rongguang's godson and knew about Jiang Rongguang's business, so...

Wang Tianze should also know, right?

In other words, could they have some kind of collaboration in this area?

The thought put a cold smile on Qiao Yanjue's face.

They followed the three of them and watched as they entered a private room.

How were they supposed to hear their conversation without a wiretapping device in the room?

Xia Xibei looked at Qiao Yanjue and gestured with her finger.

The two heads leaned in together, and soon they had a plan.

In the room, Wang Tianze and his companions were waiting for their food when they heard the door open.

That was fast!

They turned to see a stranger.

"I'm here, bro... oh, sorry! I got the wrong room!"

The man froze when he saw the three of them in the room and immediately apologized awkwardly.

Then he quickly backed out and closed the door.

The three of them were puzzled, but they just thought the man had really entered the wrong room and didn't think too much about it.

Of course, before starting their conversation, they checked the room for any devices.

Better safe than sorry!

However, they found nothing.

Once they had confirmed that it was safe, they began their conversation.

Chapter 1767 - 1767 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (2)

1767 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (2)

"Tianze, didn't you say before that you couldn't come because you had some family matters to attend to?"

He Xuan poured a glass of wine for Wang Tianze and chuckled at him.

“Yeah. I’ve dealt with most of it,” Wang Tianze lifted his glass and drank it in one go, his face somewhat gloomy. “If it weren’t for...”

“What happened?” Xue Zhelan looked at them curiously. “Is there something I don’t know?”

He was in the City of Ao, competing with his brothers and sisters for the family’s assets, and hadn’t had time to be in touch with them.

As a result, he didn’t know about what happened to Wang Tianze before.

Moreover, what happened to him was too embarrassing, and he wouldn’t bring it up on his own.

Due to this, he was kept at home for a long time and his family did not allow him to communicate with the outside world, especially his grandfather, who was extremely disappointed in him.

Originally, he had thought that Wang Tianze was the most outstanding descendant of the Wang family and wanted to pass on the power to him.

He never thought he would make such a joke of himself.

His grandfather was disappointed, so naturally he didn’t pay attention to him, and this made his father, Wang Qun, even angrier.

His other uncles and brothers ridiculed him like never before, which made him feel miserable for a while.

Apart from Yang Mo, he didn't get in touch with anyone else during that time.

Several months had passed since the incident, and he had slowly recovered from the impact.

"Don't mention it!" Wang Tianze was extremely dejected with an awful look on his face. "If it weren't for that bitch, I wouldn't be so embarrassed now!"

"Who?"

"Qi Xibei!"

He spat out each word through gritted teeth.

"Qi Xibei?" They were both stunned. "Is she the child of the Qi family?"

They sure knew about the Qi family's situation, but did the Qi family have a child named Qi Xibei?

"Yes," Wang Tianze nodded. "She is Qi Zhi'an's daughter."

"Wait a minute, you're talking about Qi Zhi'an's daughter... Isn't that Qi Xin?"

However, wasn't Qi Xin the daughter of the Qi family?

When did it become Qi Xibei?

Who was this girl that appeared out of nowhere?

"She is the biological daughter of Qi Zhi'an, and was mistaken for someone else because of some things that happened before," Wang Tianze explained in a few words. "She wasn't found until last year."

The two looked at each other, feeling surprised.

"Then why didn't the Qi family announce it to the public?"

If the Qi family had announced it, they would have known about Qi Xibei's existence and wouldn't be as clueless.

"How would I know?" Wang Tianze coldly snorted in response.

"Perhaps the Qi family doesn't care about her?" they proposed.

"It's very likely!" Xue Zhelang speculated. "Although she's a child of the Qi family, she didn't grow up there. What could she possibly amount to? She must have been looked down upon!"

As far as they were concerned, blood relations were the most unreliable thing.

So what if there was a blood relation?

It was like Xue Zhelang, whose father had three legal wives because of the special laws in the City of Ao.

Apart from the children of the three wives in the family, he also had several illegitimate children out there!

Strictly speaking, Xue Zhelang had many siblings.

If they really were to talk about blood relations and feelings, it would be ridiculous.

To them, that was the most impractical thing.

Personal interests were the most important of all!

Moreover, having been away for so long, the Qi's biological daughter certainly wouldn't be able to keep up when she returned to a place like the house of Qi.

If she couldn't keep up, sure enough she would be looked down upon.

Chapter 1768 - 1768 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (3)

1768 Wang Tianze's Purpose of Visit (3)

However, their speculation was denied by Wang Tianze.

"No, she's different," he shook his head. "Do you know Xia Xibei?"

"Xia Xibei? Qi Xibei?"

Xue Zhelang and He Xuan looked at each other in surprise. Was it really what they were thinking?!

"Same person?!"

!!

"Yes," Wang Tianze held his wine glass, his eyes fierce. "That's her!"

"Jesus Christ!"

Both of them were in shock.

This was too much to believe!

Xia Xibei was Qi Xibei?

No wonder they felt something was off when they heard the name earlier.

The only difference was the surname!

Then they became even more surprised.

Xia Xibei was known for her stunning beauty!

As children of wealthy families, they barely watched television, but that didn't mean they were unaware of what was going on in the entertainment industry.

On the contrary, they were quite familiar with it because many of their girlfriends were from the industry.

The entertainment industry was never short of beautiful women, so they sure would look for potential partners from the industry.

They remembered Xia Xibei very well, given her stunning beauty.

Coupled with the sensational news in the media about Xia Xibei from time to time, she was hard to miss.

"I even invited her out to dinner before, but she rejected me," He Xuan touched his chin as it dawned on him. "So this is where she came from!"

He had invited Xia Xibei before, but her agent had refused.

This displeased him a little. After all, it was the first time he had been rejected.

He just didn't expect that Xia Xibei came from the Qi family!

No wonder she had such confidence!

"Yeah," Wang Tianze nodded. "She even plotted to frame me!"

This shocked his two close friends, "Frame you?"

"Yes."

Wang Tianze didn't hide anything in front of his two buddies.

In other words, they had been good friends and partners in crime for many years, and knew each other's dirty secrets too well.

Besides, he had been locked up for so long and was desperate to vent to someone.

After telling them what had happened, He Xuan and Xue Zhelang were stunned.

“She did it? Are you kidding me?”

“I’m not kidding!” Wang Tianze shook his head. “Would I joke about something like that?”

“But... How was she even capable of that?”

They still found it hard to believe.

From Wang Tianze’s story, it wasn’t that simple to get something like that done.

Xia Xibei was only a teenage girl, how could she possibly come up with such a scheme?

Even if she could, it was the Wang family that she was dealing with! How was she even capable of that?

“It was Yang Mo who said so,” Wang Tianze affirmed, “Yang Mo said she was definitely capable in that area!”

Wang Tianze trusted Yang Mo’s words very much, especially since Yang Mo had actually produced results from her research.

Besides, Yang Mo was also one of the victims. How would she casually slander someone who had nothing to do with it and let the real culprit escape?

“So you’re saying... This young lady is a special one!” Xue Zhelang exclaimed, his eyes glimmering with admiration. “Now she’s caught my attention.”

“I can’t wait to teach her a lesson! She must know the consequences of offending me!” Wang Tianze had a fierce look in his eyes.

He came to the country of Hua this time for a purpose.

Of course, Xia Xibei was his purpose!

Chapter 1769 - 1769 Wang Tianze’s Purpose of Visit (4)

1769 Wang Tianze’s Purpose of Visit (4)

Wang Tianze had been grounded for such a long time, and it wasn’t something he could just let go of easily.

He hated when people refused his offer for truce and chose to give him a hard time instead.

Besides, the humiliation that Xia Xibei had brought upon him was too much to bear.

Later, he found the man who had escaped abroad long ago and learned that someone had hired him to stir up trouble at the Wang family.

Although he wasn't sure who it was, the whole thing was definitely related to Xia Xibei!

Even though there was no proof for it, one could figure out who the mastermind was by linking it to the person that was entitled to the greatest benefit.

Apart from Xia Xibei, his cousin, Wang Tianxin, was nothing close to a good man either.

No matter what, he was determined to teach Xia Xibei a lesson!

"But if she's the daughter of the Qi family, it can be a bit challenging for you to teach her a lesson," He Xuan said.

The Qi family was a powerful one, more powerful than their own.

If Xia Xibei was the daughter of the Qi family, then they would certainly protect her.

If Qi Zhi'an found out that they had the guts to mess with them, they would be in trouble.

If things got out of hand and both the families ended up in conflict, it would turn ugly.

"I know that," Wang Tianze sneered, "but what if the Qi family is too busy to deal with her?"

"Oh?" He Xuan immediately raised an eyebrow. "Do you have a plan?"

"I sure do," Wang Tianze grinned with confidence.

He hadn't wasted his time while he was locked up at home, but had come up with many ideas during the time he was grounded.

He had investigated Xia Xibei thoroughly and had formulated a very detailed plan.

"Tell us about it," He Xuan and Xue Zhelang were eager to know.

Wang Tianze was like a brother to them, and they sure would lend a hand if their brother had a problem.

"If something were to happen to the Qi family, they wouldn't have time to deal with her, would they?"

"You're not planning on waging a trade war with them, are you?" Xue Zhelang asked, puzzled.

The Qi family had a lot of assets and had built a very powerful conglomerate. It wouldn't be easy to go after them.

“Who said we’re going to fight them head-on?” Wang Tianze sneered.

“Oh?”

The two of them took the hint instantly.

If they weren’t going to fight them head-on, then it must be a covert operation!

The thought of this piqued their interest.

They had plenty of experience in that area!

If they had to confront the Qi family openly, it would be too much of a challenge and they would only end up being rebuked.

If they were to use underhanded tactics, the Qi family won’t be able to defend against it.

“I can help too!” said He Xuan, his eyes shining with interest.

“Me too!” added Xue Zhelan.

The trio immediately became engrossed in discussing the sneaky tactics they could use.

Unbeknownst to them, their conversation was being picked up by a wiretapping device and transmitted to Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue, who were dining in a nearby restaurant, while eavesdropping on every word they said.

As they listened to the brutal and ruthless plan being hatched, they stopped eating, and their expressions turned grim.

Xia Xibei couldn't help but sneer inwardly.

These people had some nerve!

That was such a cruel plan!

They were going to destroy the Qi family!

At that moment, she felt grateful that she had insisted on helping Han Rui, or she would never have found out about any of this.

Later that evening, when Han Rui met with them, Xia Xibei thanked him before he had a chance to say anything.

Han Rui was taken aback.

Han Rui looked confused, as he thought he should be thanking them for helping him, but now it seemed like they were thanking him instead.

When he finally understood what Xia Xibei meant, he was shocked.

“So, you’re saying that you found out about their plans by helping me, and so you should thank me?”

He pointed to himself, still in disbelief.

What a miraculous turn of events!

Qiao Yanjue nodded and patted Han Rui’s shoulder, “You’re kind of useful after all.”

Han Rui’s face sank and he elbowed Qiao Yanjue, “Get lost!”

He then turned to Xia Xibei and asked, “Are they really that vicious?”

Xia Xibei’s words had him taken aback.

Those people seemed relentless in their desire to destroy the Qi family.

What kind of deep hatred could lead to such cruelty?

“Yes,” Xia Xibei confirmed.

In truth, Wang Tianze had initially intended to show some mercy.

With the addition of He Xuan and Xue Zhelang’s input, however, the situation quickly escalated.

If they were to use all of their tactics, the Qi family would still suffer immensely even if they didn’t fall apart.

If they hadn’t heard about these plans beforehand, they might not be able to resolve the situation in time.

If they had let it fester, things would have become even more troublesome.

“This is outrageous!” Han Rui seethed. “I’m going to kill them!”

Although he wasn’t part of the Qi family, he was still infuriated after hearing about those guys’ shameless behavior.

“Don’t worry,” Xia Xibei replied, shaking her head.

She sneered, “Since they have the guts to come, I’ll make sure they won’t be able to leave.”

She hadn’t planned on being this ruthless, but now she realized that some people wouldn’t appreciate her lenience.

Since they wanted to play, she would show them who was more savage.

“What’s your plan then?” Han Rui asked curiously. “Do you need my help?”

“I’ll ask for your help when I need it,” Xia Xibei said. “For now, you should focus on capturing that guy.”

“That guy?” Han Rui finally caught on. “Oh, you mean the one who ran away today? Sure, I’ll take care of it!”

The three of them gathered again to discuss their next steps.

After listening to their plan, Han Rui couldn’t help but give them a thumbs up.

“You guys are amazing!”

They were planning to undermine the enemy from within.

Qiao Yanjue chuckled, "Thanks for the compliment."

In fact, their approach was rather gentle compared to the brutality of Wang Tianze and his gang.

They were such kind souls!

The next day, several people went to the airport with the police.

The man in question was scheduled to leave the country of Hua today.

To avoid coming to the police's attention, he didn't depart from the capital, but instead went to the neighboring city to catch his flight.

After all, no one expected him to go somewhere else.

The man had changed his appearance and had a very legitimate passport in his hand.

He felt secure, surrounded by strangers.

He felt great just thinking about leaving this place and returning to his comfortable life.

However, while he was waiting, he heard an announcement broadcasted over the airport loudspeaker

“Would Peter Green please come to the boarding gate...”

Peter Green was a very ordinary pseudonym that the man was using.

He was taken aback.

What had happened?

He gritted his teeth and went forward.

Little did he expect that he would be grabbed from behind as soon as he arrived in the office!
