

Chapter 186

Colton looked at Leon's back and his face gradually turned grim.

He immediately chased after Leon, but it was too late. When he chased out, Leon had already driven away.

He guessed that Leon should have gone to the prison. But when he arrived at the prison, he didn't see Leon.

He called and found out that Leon had gone to Hunter Group.

At the same time, he learned that Audrey had taken George into the finance department without any formalities and asked the head of the finance department to hand over his power.

He cursed them in his heart for their stupidity!

How could there be such stupid people in this world! No wonder they hadn't taken over Hunter Group for so long.

Now that the situation was still unclear. How could they attempt to take over Hunter Group at this time?

Hunter Group was full of Leon's people. The board of directors all supported Leon, and on the surface, they were against Leon, but in fact, they just pretended to be.

They were too stupid to do it at this time.

They deserved to lose!

Colton didn't want to hear anything about Audrey anymore.

He would do everything easier without this stupid teammate. He could just plant the stabbing of Kevin and the framing of Alyssa on her and send her to jail.

With a scapegoat, Colton was in no hurry.

He wanted to see what Leon would do next.

He liked Leon. He was smart and decisive, and the way he handled things was very impressive.

And soon enough, Leon made his move.

He united with the Hunter Group executives that day not only to secure his position as president of Hunter Group but also successfully eliminated the Coles' remaining parties.

Because of Audrey's actions, and the proof of the finance department, the board of directors jointly took Audrey and George to court.

After the board meeting was over.

George stopped Leon.

"You've been preparing everything to deal with me and my mother, haven't you? To solidify your position in Hunter Group?" George had just been wondering what was going on. The only explanation was this.

"You should ask your mother what's really going on. Even if I told you this, you probably wouldn't understand."

He had been with his mother for so long.

It was time for him to wake up.

Being sued could be an experience. He should let George grow up from that experience.

"My mom is right about everything. You're the one who got grandpa hurt."

George glared at Leon. He didn't feel he had done anything wrong.

Leon glanced at Audrey and shifted his gaze back to George, "Since you want to know what happened so much, I'll play a conversation for you."

Quickly, Leon opened the recording he had made earlier.

George listened to the entire recording and turned his head to his mother, "Mom, what's going on?"

Audrey immediately said, "Son, don't believe this recording. Leon got someone to record it, and he did it on purpose. He wants to provoke our relationship. I won't hurt your grandfather."

Leon's expression was instantly cold. Audrey still tried to lie at this point. He said, "As for whether or not you hurt grandpa, I will soon have other evidence. Audrey, you have been in contact with Colton for so long. You think you didn't leave any evidence? It's not possible! There must be evidence. I'll collect them for you little by little, huh?"

"You ..."

Audrey looked at Leon with a grim face, constantly recalling her previous meetings with Colton. She did meet with Colton frequently, and might also leave evidence.

Thinking this way, Audrey suddenly panicked.

She turned around and pulled George, looking at him in panic, "George, help me! Mom didn't want this before. I just wanted to help you and make you the president of Hunter Group. I did it all to help you."

George froze!

He wasn't stupid and understood what his mother meant.

Before, he had thought that Leon was talking nonsense.

Now it seemed to be true.

He looked at Audrey with a complicated look on his face, "I never said I wanted to be the president of Hunter Group. I've told you this before, haven't I? I just want to pursue my studies. Mom, why are you so naive? How could you hurt grandpa for that position? How could you do such a heartless thing when grandpa treated you and me so well?"

"George, I did it all for you. I would do anything for you to get Hunter Group. How can you blame me?"

Audrey took George's hand tightly, "I just want you to help me now. I don't want to go to jail. George, help me, okay?"

"Me? Now, I can't even protect myself. How can I help you?"

George now regretted having done something so stupid, but there was nothing he could do.

He knew that he would be punished for his mistake.

Next, no matter what Leon would do to him, he wouldn't complain at all.

Soon the police took them away.

Audrey was really scared, crying and begging for mercy.

George, however, calmly followed Audrey away and didn't say anything.

Leon watched them leave. At that moment, his phone suddenly rang.

"Mr. Hunter, something has happened in the prison. A female inmate who worked with Mrs. Hunter earlier said Mrs. Hunter's clothes looked good and wanted to steal Mrs. Hunter's clothes. As a result, they got into a fight."

Leon gripped the phone hard, "How is Alyssa doing?"

"Nothing happened to Mrs. Hunter, but that female inmate was beaten by Mrs. Hunter and got a nosebleed."

"..."

Leon thought that he was overthinking.

The bodyguard continued, "But now Mrs. Hunter isn't feeling well. She says she has a stomachache."

"I see."

As soon as Leon thought that Alyssa had a stomachache, he immediately called Jalen and asked Jalen to apply for medical treatment.

Jalen agreed and hurriedly contacted his lawyer to go to the prison.

He had just put down the phone when the call from the hospital came in.

Leon answered the phone.

"Mr. Hunter, Kevin just woke up. He said he wants to see you immediately. You better come here quickly!" The doctor was so excited. He really did not expect the patient to wake up so quickly.

Ten minutes later.

Leon arrived at the hospital.

He saw his grandfather who had woken up.

Grandpa was still very weak, but he was very happy to see Leon.

"Leon ... It was Colton who stabbed me when he was talking to me. Later, I saw him call a woman in. He also gave the woman the knife in his hand. I don't know what happened after that."

Kevin took Leon's hand, "Leon, you can't go with Colton. He is ruthless. You must be careful."

"Grandpa, I won't go with Colton. You have to get better quickly. I've made it clear to Colton. I'm from the Hunters, and you brought me up. I won't go with him. Don't worry!"

Hearing Leon's words, Kevin nodded and soon fell asleep again.

He was about to speak when he saw the doctor shaking his head at him.

He immediately followed the doctor out.

"How is my grandfather doing?"

"He woke up, and all indicators are normal. It looks like there is nothing wrong with him. He should be fine as long as he has a good rest. Kevin is so lucky and blessed this time. Mr. Hunter, you can rest assured now. Just now Kevin was just too tired to fall asleep. After all, he's badly injured and he's old."

The doctor tried his best to please Leon.

It seemed that he didn't have to leave A City.

He could still stay as a doctor.

Leon looked at the doctor and nodded, "Take good care of my grandfather."

"Mr. Hunter, don't worry."

He would definitely take good care of Kevin. Otherwise, how could he stay in A City in the future!

Prison.

Alyssa was personally received by Jalen in the car. Looking at Alyssa's pale face, Jalen was heartbroken.

"Dad, I'm fine. Where are we going now?" Alyssa looked at her father's eyes and only felt sorry. How could her father be in a place like this if it weren't for her?

"Let's go home first to see your grandfather. Your grandfather specifically instructed me to take you home first."

Seeing that her daughter had lost weight, Jalen didn't say anything.

Go home first!

He could see that Alyssa needed to rest now.

Alyssa originally wanted to see Leon first to find out how Kevin was doing. But since grandpa wanted her to go home first, she went home first. Grandpa must also be concerned about her and wanted to talk to her about it.

Just as well, she also had a lot to tell grandpa.

Half an hour later.

The Graham's.

Alyssa saw her grandpa and mom.

It was 9:30 p.m. at the moment.

"Grandpa, mom." Alyssa smiled at them with a pale face and subconsciously covered her stomach.

Somehow, after the fight with the woman who bullied her, her stomach began to ache vaguely.

At first, she thought it was because she had hit her stomach during the fight.

But now her stomach hurt more and more. She sensed that something was wrong.

Now, watching her family looking at her worriedly, she didn't say anything and walked in quickly.

In the study.

Alyssa and her grandfather sat face to face.

"How are you, Alyssa?" Looking at Alyssa's pale face, Milo took Alyssa's hand, feeling her hand a little cold.

Alyssa shook her head, "Grandpa, I'm sorry for making you worry about me."

"Silly girl, how can I make you admit to something you didn't do? I told you a long time ago that no matter what happens to you, you have the Grahams to back you up. I, your mom and dad, are the ones who will always back you up. What are you afraid of?" Looking at her granddaughter who had lost some weight, Milo was even more distressed, "You must have a hard time in the prison!"

"No, I'm not like the others. You and Dad took care of everything for me, and Leon sent me a lot of things. My daily meals are different from everyone else's. I don't feel bitter at all."

Milo smiled, "Leon is smart. It's good that you're okay. Now Hunter Group is stable. All of Audrey's connections in Hunter Group have been eliminated. She and George are arrested for pressuring the head of Hunter Group's finance department. What awaits them is the punishment of the law."

Alyssa nodded. She had guessed all of this.

But she didn't know about Colton yet.

"Grandpa, have you heard from Colton?"

Milo shook his head, "He probably escaped a long time ago."

"We should catch him and break him of the idea of bringing Leon back to the Koherrs."

Milo smiled at Alyssa's words.

"What are you smiling at, Grandpa?"
