

Chapter 190

"Your parents love you so much that they won't allow you to leave them. Besides, we don't know anything about the foreign market. I think it's better if you don't go. Ella, we don't have enough experience. I suggest that you should stay in A City for some experience. What do you think?"

"You're right. I'd better wait until I learn more later."

"Actually, I think there's no difference in any job. We just got out of school, and it's enough for you to go to Lloyd Group to gain experience. We don't have to think about anything else."

Alyssa felt that they didn't need to think about that much for now.

In the future, they would definitely have opportunities to practice. Sooner or later, they would have the opportunity to make a good career.

Alyssa thought of this and smiled to comfort Ella, "Our task now is to study, so it is necessary to study hard. Just don't think too much about it. It's also important for us to focus on our profession."

"What you said makes sense, then I won't bother about it. Right now, I can't help my cousin much even if I go out with him. In the future, with experience, I can earn money by going to another company."

Alyssa couldn't help but laugh.

"I'm happy that you think that way."

"Well, I know you're right about everything, so now I'm going to go buy the gold necklace. You must have a good rest and take good care of yourself. This time, you look pretty good, so I'll spare you. But if I find that you've lost weight or look bad the next time I come to see you, don't blame me for being angry with you."

Alyssa made a face at Ella like she did when she was little.

Ella laughed, "You're still the same as before."

Hearing Ella's words, Alyssa instantly felt warm.

This warm feeling existed all the time after she was reborn.

After Ella left, Alyssa's family came over.

Looking at Alyssa's face as before, Azul happily put the chicken soup she brought in front of Alyssa.

When Alyssa didn't eat it, she became anxious. She came over and unscrewed the lid, "You drink this first. This is very nutritious. I made this soup myself, and it's been cooking for more than four hours. You drink some, and this is definitely good for you."

Alyssa nodded and drank the soup quickly.

Azul was pleased to see her daughter being so docile.

"You must eat more. You are carrying twins and need more nutrition."

"I know, Mom."

Alyssa smiled. Looking at her gentle mother, Alyssa really regretted that she hadn't been reborn earlier. If she had been born again a little earlier, she would have been able to spend more time with her mom.

"Mom, I saw a dress last time. It's a blue dress. I took the picture in my phone. Why don't you take a look? I wanted to buy it for you last time and I was worried you wouldn't like it."

She knew her mother liked blue dresses. When she was very young, her mom used to wear blue dresses.

"Yeah? Show me quickly."

Azul was really interested.

Alyssa took out her phone and found the picture of the dress, "Look, how about this dress? Is it pretty?"

"Alyssa, you have a good eye. This dress is also well designed."

Hearing her mother praise the dress, Alyssa bought it immediately.

"Alyssa, this dress costs 17,000. It's too expensive. You'd better return it!"

The Grahams wasn't short of money, but they all lived a simple life. She had never spent so much money on a dress before.

"Mom, it's not expensive. It's not a big brand dress. A big brand dress would be more expensive. I will buy you anything as long as you are happy. I'm worried now that I can't buy what you like."

As long as her mother liked it, she was happy.

"I'll give you the money, it's just too expensive. I can't let you buy it for me." Azul thought simply. Alyssa was still in school. After she married Leon, they had never given Alyssa money.

She didn't know if Leon gave Alyssa money.

Alyssa hadn't made any money yet. The money she spent must be the Hunters' money.

She didn't want her daughter to be criticized for anything. She had to pay Alyssa the money for the dress now.

Alyssa smiled and said, "Mom, I earned some money. It has nothing to do with the Hunters."

"When did you make money?"

"Before, I worked at Citic for a while. The last project I took over went smoothly, so naturally, I got a lot of commission. Just don't worry! This is the dress I bought for you. I just want to give you a gift."

Hearing Alyssa's words, Azul was more upset, "Alyssa, this is the money you earned. You should buy what you like. Don't spend money for me, okay?"

"You are my dear mother. If I don't spend money on you, who will I spend it on?"

Azul's eyes were red. Her daughter was more understanding. She had never been this understanding before. Now, she suddenly knew a lot and it really made her happy.

Jalen was a little angry when she heard Alyssa's words, "When you were in trouble, it was your grandfather and me who tried to save you by all means. Now, we finally got you out. You have money to buy things for your mother, but not for me and your grandfather. You ungrateful girl."

Alyssa looked at her father and said with a smile, "Dad, aren't you happy that I make Mom happy?"

Jalen couldn't help but laugh.

"After getting married to Leon, you're like a different person. You are not only more outgoing but even more gentle. I'm very happy to see the changes in you. Whether you send me a gift or not is secondary, the most important thing is that you are different from before now. As long as you are all right, we are relieved."

"Got it, Dad, I'll be good with Leon from now on and not let you and Mom worry about us."

Jalen didn't know what to say. He was happy that his daughter could become better and better.

Milo noticed that Alyssa hadn't finished her chicken soup and turned his head to glare at his son and daughter-in-law, "I didn't see you guys talking so much at home. But when you get here, you just keep talking. Can't you see that Alyssa hasn't even had time to finish her chicken soup yet? Stop talking and let Alyssa finish the chicken soup!"

Hearing Milo's words, Jalen and Azul both stopped talking.

Alyssa looked at her grandfather and smiled, then nodded her head and continued to drink the chicken soup.

Jalen gestured for Azul to go out for a walk. They were usually very busy, and it was rare that they had free time. Now they finally had time to go out for a walk.

Alyssa saw her parents go out and smiled at her grandfather, "Grandpa, you want my parents to go out for a walk, right! They seem to have very little time to go out for a walk together in recent years."

"Your father is right. You're so smart. But it's good to be smart, so you won't get bullied."

Alyssa stopped drinking her soup and looked at her grandfather, "Grandpa, you have something to say."

"I have nothing to say."

"Grandpa, you're not honest! If you have something to say, just say it! Don't hide it from me."

"Lately, Hunter Group is not peaceful, do you know that?"

Alyssa shook her head.

Leon had been handling the work of Hunter Group himself lately.

Nothing should be happening, right?

But grandpa said so. There must be something going on.

Alyssa looked at her grandfather, "Grandpa, just tell me what's going on. Do you think it's good for a pregnant woman to bother like this? I feel like my stomach hurts again now." Alyssa turned down the corners of her mouth with a sad look on her face.

"Oh, forget it, I'll tell you. Hunter Group was reported to have problems with the construction materials they purchased. They also found a previous agreement between Hunter Group and Brown Brothers, a small, unknown building materials company. They took advantage of this and questioned how Brown Brothers was able to work with Hunter Group and whether Brown Brothers was capable of taking on Hunter Group's building materials merchandise."

Alyssa had understood what Grandpa meant.

Looking at Alyssa's dumbfounded expression, Milo thought that Alyssa didn't understand what was going on. He continued, "Someone must be trying to screw Leon. In fact, the building materials are not important. It doesn't matter how capable Brown Brothers is, as long as Leon accepts them. But they raised these questions, and this matter will be difficult."

"I see. I know Brown Brothers, and I knew it before Leon signed a contract with Brown Brothers. Leon was going to do business with Jacob, but he was rejected by Jacob. Leon offered a buyout-like deal with Brown Brothers, and Brown Brothers agreed. I think this is a matter between Brown Brothers and Hunter Group, which has nothing to do with anyone else. I don't even understand why anyone would make such a big deal out of it."

"Brown Brothers is too small. Now Hunter Group has downtown projects going on, and this thing is being used by them. They ask to inspect the materials on the site, which will also take a long time. The work on the site can't stop."

Alyssa understood what Grandpa meant. She looked at her grandfather and said softly, "Grandpa, I know what you mean. Leon might be in a lot of trouble."

No wonder Leon had to handle so much work by himself now.

Alyssa looked up at her grandfather, "Grandpa, do you have any solutions now?"

"Humph, you think of grandpa when something comes up. Why didn't I see you so attentive just now!"

"Grandpa, I know you're the most resourceful person in this world. Since you know about this matter, you must have some good idea. Since you already have a solution, then you should share it with me!"

"Why should I?"

"I'm your baby girl, aren't I?"

Alyssa came closer to Milo and her little head rested on Milo's body.

"Grandpa, just tell me! A few days ago, Leon told me that he got a piece of white jade. He thought that white jade was especially suitable for you, and he was about to give it to you!"

"Really?" Milo nodded, "That's not bad."

"So are you going to tell me how to solve this matter?"
