

Chapter 191

"Alyssa, do you not trust Leon's solution to this thing?"

"No, I just want to get this over as soon as possible. Leon might have something else to do. I just want to find a shortcut."

"Silly girl, every company has its own management style. If you don't believe me, we can make a bet that Leon can solve this problem in two days. We'll see."

Alyssa nodded at grandpa's words. Grandpa had a point. Leon was the president of Hunter Group. This should be easy for him to handle. If he wasn't even capable of doing that, then how could the company's employees trust him?

She might be too impatient. Grandpa had a point. Many things had to be done slowly.

She shouldn't interfere in this matter. Leon had his own ideas. She didn't need to bother.

"What are you thinking, Alyssa?" Milo looked at Alyssa, "Grandpa is here today to give you a heads-up. You have to understand one thing, and that is that you have to trust Leon. No matter what decision Leon makes in the future, you have to trust him. Do you understand what I mean?"

Alyssa nodded. She finally understood what grandpa meant.

In the matter of trusting Leon, grandpa understood it better than she did. In this regard, she was really not as good as grandpa.

Thinking of this, Alyssa felt very ashamed.

Since Alyssa had understood his meaning, Milo naturally did not say anything more. He said softly, "Well, it's late, and I have an appointment with my good friend to play chess. You have a good rest. By the way, did the doctor say when you can be discharged from the hospital?"

"Oh, the doctor said I could be discharged long ago. But Leon wouldn't let me leave the hospital. He asked me to stay in the hospital for a few days for observation to make sure I was okay before I went home. Anyway, this place is no different from home. Look at that bed over there. Leon sleeps there. I think it's pretty convenient."

Milo nodded, satisfied with Leon's approach.

"Grandpa, let me see you off! Actually, I have been able to get out of bed and walk around for a long time. But Leon just wouldn't let me get out of bed, making me look like a cripple. I have to sit in a wheelchair even when I go out for a walk. There were several times when people looked at me with pity as if I were crippled."

Alyssa said as she stood up. It felt good to be on her feet.

Milo saw that Alyssa had no problem standing up and nodded, "The Grahams' daughter can't be too pampered. Talk to Leon if you want to go for a walk, and don't rely on him too much."

"Sure."

Alyssa knew what Grandpa meant, of course.

They had to keep progressing together, too.

The only way to reach the final destination was to move forward together.

Alyssa was smart and cute. Milo really liked her. But it was late and he couldn't always stay here.

Alyssa walked grandpa out, just in time to see her parents coming back. She handed him to them directly, "Dad, Mom, I'll leave grandpa to you. You guys take care on the way. I'm going back."

"Alyssa, why are you down here? The doctor didn't let you out of bed, did he?" Azul looked at Alyssa worriedly.

Alyssa smiled and said, "Mom, I've been able to get out of bed for a long time. I've long been fine."

Alyssa even spun around in place to show she could stand up.

Watching Alyssa spin around, Azul shook her head helplessly, "Well, we all know you're better now. Nonetheless, you need to take care of yourself. What if something goes wrong with you physically?"

"I'm fine."

It had been so long ago.

She had long felt that she was well.

"We are relieved that you are healed. We will go first. You take care of yourself. If anything happens, you have to call us immediately. The Grahams will always be your strong support."

Jalen nodded at Alyssa and pointed to the back, motioning for Alyssa to hurry back.

Alyssa nodded and turned around to go back.

With a backup like the Grahams, she really wasn't worried at all.

After the problem with the Hunter Group's construction materials was exposed.

Leon became even busier.

But Leon came to see Alyssa as soon as he had time.

He didn't show any sadness on his face. Everything seemed to be as usual.

Alyssa began to understand what to ask and what not to ask since she got the advice from her grandfather.

In just a few days, Leon had solved all the negative news.

Alyssa didn't even know how Leon did it, but he just did.

This day, Leon prepared a lot of delicious food for Alyssa. She looked at him bringing a lot of meat and was instantly happy.

"How do you know that I want to eat meat? You really know me! I must eat more today to deserve the knowledge you have about me."

Alyssa had wanted to eat meat for a long time. After her pregnancy, she was already fond of eating meat. During this time, following the doctor's words, she had been very cautious about eating lately. It was rare for her to eat meat now, so of course, she wanted to eat more.

"I've known you wanted to eat meat for a long time. Yesterday you even talked about wanting to eat barbecue when you were dreaming." Leon bought not only roast meat today, but also bacon and fried meat.

After her pregnancy, she loved meat. She loved fish before, but now she didn't like it as much.

Alyssa knew that Leon loved her.

The meat tasted great. But it was a little awkward for her to eat alone. She looked up at Leon, "It's kind of awkward for me to eat alone if you don't eat."

"I'll eat with you."

Leon smiled at Alyssa's words.

He sat down and ate the meat with her. He really didn't think the meat was so good before.

It turned out that whether the food was good or not was not determined by how it tasted, but by who you ate it with.

Before, he thought the meat tasted very ordinary. Now standing with Alyssa, he only felt that the meat was the best on earth.

Looking at Alyssa's bulging mouth, he couldn't help but smile.

"Don't think I didn't see you laughing at me because I was eating the whole time. I really don't know what you're laughing at. Just eat! We all look the same when we eat."

Leon quickly stopped chewing.

Looking at Leon's nervous face, Alyssa suddenly thought it was funny to tease him.

Leon turned his head and looked at the mirror. Watching him in the mirror, still elegant, he knew immediately that he had been tricked by Alyssa.

He wanted to teach Alyssa a lesson, but when he turned his head and looked at Alyssa smiling at him, he suddenly felt reluctant. For the sake of her pregnancy, he had to forgive her.

Leon couldn't help but get a little excited at the thought of Alyssa being pregnant with twins.

Seeing that Leon hadn't moved and kept staring at her, Alyssa inexplicably blushed. His eyes were so hot that she couldn't stand them.

It felt as if he was going to eat her up at any moment.

Her heart beat faster and faster, and her face grew red.

After a long time, his hot gaze still didn't retract.

"Ahem!"

Alyssa coughed softly. She looked up at Leon, "How much longer are you going to stare at me? If you're a little later, I'll eat all the meat and leave you hungry."

She actually didn't want to let Leon starve! Besides, there was so much meat left!

It must be different for two people to eat than for one.

Leon knew that she was giving him an excuse. He didn't say anything and walked up to her. Watching her eat quickly, he hurriedly stopped her, "You should eat less, don't eat so fast."

"It's really delicious. You didn't try the bacon, right? Leon, where did you buy this bacon?"

"My assistant bought it. I don't know where he bought it from. Since you like it, I'll ask him later."

Leon didn't expect Alyssa to like bacon. Watching her happily eating bacon, he made a mental note that Alyssa liked bacon.

"Leon, I'm fine. Can we go home now? I'm in the hospital every day and I can't go out. I feel like I'm turning into a criminal."

"How can there be a criminal like you?"

"Well, you're right too. I have food and drink every day, and my favorite meat. I think I am the happiest person, but I still want to go home. I miss Snow and Yummy."

She hadn't seen those two bunnies for a long time and wondered how they were doing now. She really wanted to go back and see them.

It had been a long time since she had seen the two bunnies and she really missed them.

Leon was unmoved by Alyssa's words.

Alyssa took Leon's hand, "Let's go back! I'm fine. There's absolutely no need for me to stay in the hospital! I really don't want to stay here anymore. There's no Snow or Yummy here, and you have to come here every day. It's cold here, and we don't have a big warm bed at night, so let's just go back, okay?"

Leon heard Alyssa mention the big bed.

He was tempted!

That tingling feeling made him instantly want to carry her home and just throw her on the bed.

He looked at Alyssa's big eyes and gulped.

Looking into her eyes, he couldn't help but want to get close to her and kiss her.

Alyssa didn't know what Leon was thinking. Right now, she was focused on the meat.

How could Leon refuse such delicious meat?

What was he thinking?

Alyssa looked up and saw Leon staring at her blankly. How he looked exactly like a fool, dumb and cute?

Alyssa noticed another thing about her husband, cuteness.

He was just as cute as a fool when he was dumb.

But he didn't notice it at all.

Alyssa looked at Leon, "You look pretty cute right now."

Leon froze, "What?"

"Nothing, just sit down and eat your meat. Later, the meat should be cold. Why are you so nice today, preparing delicious meat for me? Before, you let me eat whatever the doctor told me to eat. You didn't consider my feelings at all. Now, you even start to consider my feelings. It's really rare."
