1911 Assaulted (1)

Sun Lizhi was Wang Tianze's friend and also his partner in crime.

The Sun family had a different status in the City of Xiang, and everyone had heard rumors about their family, but no one could find any evidence of their illegal activities.

With their wealth, they could easily cover up any wrongdoing.

The City of Xiang was unlike other cities in that anything could happen here.

That was why Wang Tianze approached Sun Lizhi.

This time, they would rely on Sun Lizhi's help.

Most importantly, there was no one protecting Qi Xibei by her side.

If they wanted to make a move, now was the perfect time.

After learning about Wang Tianze's intentions, Sun Lizhi hesitated.

After all, Qi Xibei had caused such a big commotion before, and everyone knew about it.

She had become a well-known and important figure in the country of Hua and needed protection.

After all, with her exceptional abilities, which country wouldn't want her?

If they were caught, it would be troublesome.

It would be like confronting the country itself.

Furthermore, if Qi Xibei could develop more and better medicines in the future, wouldn't that benefit them as well?

However, Wang Tianze managed to persuade him.

Wang Tianze claimed that Qí Xībèi and them were not allies, but actually opponents.

If Sun Lizhi were to seek treatment from Qi Xibei in the future, she might refuse!

After all, they were allies.

However, if they could get rid of Qi Xibei, it would be their world! Especially with Yang Mo by their side!

Although her strength wasn't perfect, she was still at the top.

If it weren't for Qi Xibei this time, Yang Mo would also have gained fame.

As long as they dealt with Qi Xibei, they could bind themselves with Yang Mo.

So what if Qi Xibei was powerful? How could she compare to Yang Mo, who willingly collaborated with them?

Moreover, Qi Xibei's enormous wealth posed a threat to them.

Brainwashed by Wang Tianze's words, Sun Lizhi finally made a decision.

Of course, he also wanted to earn more money.

After all, who would complain about having too much money?

However, they couldn't collaborate with Qi Xibei.

Since they couldn't work together, they might as well eliminate her!

After all, this was their territory, and if they did something to Qi Xibei, they could easily cover it up.

Besides, they still had Yang Mo!

Although she was young, her future was promising.

After making their decision, Sun Lizhi collaborated with them, determined to keep Qi Xibei in the City of Xiang.

With an ally by her side, Yang Mo also felt relieved.

If they could get rid of Qi Xibei, it would be her world!

She couldn't allow Qi Xibei to be more powerful than herself!

Still, finding such an opportunity was not easy.

These past two days, Qi Xibei had been treating Zhang Xun.

The effects of the treatment were clearly visible each day, which made Yang Mo feel uneasy.

If this continued, in just a week, Qi Xibei would successfully heal Zhang Xun!

This would be a tremendous embarrassment for her!

No, it couldn't happen! Absolutely not!

However, if Qi Xibei continued to stay at the Zhang residence, their plan would fail.

They couldn't just let someone come in here and take action, right?

After all, the Zhang family was not an ordinary household. They wouldn't allow anyone to cause trouble here.

Knowing the situation at the Zhang residence and not wanting to expose herself, Yang Mo persuaded someone else to come up with a reason to take Qi Xibei out.

The reason was that Qi Xibei had been staying here for several days without going out, and it was getting boring.

So, on the third day, someone accompanied Qi Xibei outside.

Chapter 1912 - 1912 Assaulted (2)

1912 Assaulted (2)

Facing the invitation to go out and have fun, Qi Xibei quickly agreed.

The other party was surprised by how readily she accepted, but more than that, they were excited.

They had initially thought it would take a lot of effort to persuade Qi Xibei, but she agreed so quickly.

Since they were in the City of Xiang, it was only natural to visit the classic attractions there.

This time, Qi Xibei was accompanied by Zhang Hongbin's cousin, who belonged to another family.

Zhang Xun had only two sons, both of whom were already married.

However, their two daughters-in-law had their own matters to attend to, so they had their cousin entertain Qi Xibei.

The cousin's name was Liang Feifei, a wealthy young lady whose family background was slightly inferior to that of the Zhang family.

Their destination this time was a famous temple located on the outskirts.

It would take about two hours by car from Zhang's residence to reach the temple.

Liang Feifei had arranged a luxurious business sedan to ensure a comfortable journey.

During the ride, Liang Feifei was in high spirits, engaging Qi Xibei in lively conversation.

Although Qi Xibei didn't respond to every question, her calm demeanor was enough to impress Liang Feifei.

She had feared being ignored by Qi Xibei, but she was pleasantly surprised by her amiable nature.

Soon, they arrived at the temple.

The temple was situated halfway up a mountain, with a stretch of sea not far in front of it.

Therefore, the scenery here was beautiful, making it a must-visit place for many tourists.

After the car stopped, the two of them got out.

As soon as she stepped out of the car, Qi Xibei couldn't help but take a deep breath, her expression filled with delight.

The scenery here was indeed remarkable, and the air was fresh.

At the same time, her little companion, Greenie, also emerged from her hand.

This place was filled with lush greenery and a captivating spiritual aura.

The abundant spiritual energy here was enough to attract many tourists.

Unexpectedly, even Greenie seemed to love this place.

Greenie remained wrapped around Qi Xibei's wrist, unwilling to leave her side.

Its body was translucent, giving it a beautiful appearance. If one didn't look closely, they would mistake it for a crystal chain.

Moreover, it was tiny in size, so there was no need to worry about it being noticed.

Upon arriving here, it instantly fell in love with the environment. The lush forest reminded it of its days in the island forest.

Although it enjoyed being by Qi Xibei's side, it had grown up in the forest and naturally loved such surroundings.

So, once they arrived here, it dashed out ahead.

Liang Feifei felt her vision blur as if a green light flashed by, but upon closer inspection, she couldn't find any issues.

It must have been her imagination.

With that in mind, Liang Feifei continued walking inward, accompanied by Qi Xibei.

Today, they had planned to have a vegetarian meal here.

The vegetarian food in this place was not only delicious but also quite famous. If it wasn't for making a reservation in advance, it wouldn't be easy to get a spot.

Since it wasn't a weekend or a holiday, there weren't many visitors here today.

Coupled with the vastness of the mountain, the place felt a bit deserted.

However, for Qi Xibei, this was a good thing. She didn't have to worry about being recognized by others and could clearly appreciate the beautiful scenery.

Liang Feifei chattered away, introducing the scenery to Qi Xibei with great familiarity.

She mentioned that the divination here was highly effective and suggested that if Qi Xibei liked, she could try getting a divination.

Qi Xibei declined the offer, and Liang Feifei sighed before leading her further inside.

As they reached a certain courtyard, Liang Feifei suddenly stopped, her body going limp as she fainted.

Chapter 1913 - 1913 Assaulted (3)

1913 Assaulted (3)

As Liang Feifei suddenly fainted, Qi Xibei's expression turned cold, and she immediately rushed forward to catch her.

Without hesitation, she rolled to the ground with Liang Feifei in her arms.

Puff, puff, puff...

Several bullet holes appeared on the ground.

Qi Xibei turned her head and immediately spotted a group of men.

They were dressed casually, of average build, and wore masks that obscured their faces.

In their hands, they held silenced guns, aimed directly at them.

Qi Xibei's expression remained cold, but she was not surprised.

They had come for her.

Moreover, the smoke in the air here had a sedative effect, capable of inducing drowsiness.

Once entranced, it would be easy for them to eliminate her.

Qi Xibei took a sniff, sensing the composition of the smoke, and a cold smile formed on her lips.

It was Yang Mo's doing.

Of course, Qi Xibei was not surprised.

She knew that Yang Mo would never let her go.

If anything were to happen, Yang Mo would undoubtedly be the one to benefit.

The men couldn't fathom what was going through Qi Xibei's mind as she skillfully dodged the bullets.

They stared wide-eyed in disbelief. How could an ordinary person dodge bullets?

It was inconceivable!

As they raised their guns again, ready to fire at Qi Xibei, their palms suddenly stung, and cries of pain filled the air.

“Ah-”

“Ah!”

Their agonized screams echoed, filled with unbearable pain.

They looked down and were horrified to find two small snake bites on their palms.

The snake appeared radiant green and beautiful, but its color sent shivers down their spines.

It was undoubtedly poisonous!

The next moment, their heads grew heavy, their vision darkened, and they also lost consciousness.

They collapsed to the ground, silent and motionless.

Qi Xibei gently released Liang Feifei and approached the fallen men.

She extended her hand, and Greenie immediately slithered onto her wrist, coiling around it affectionately.

It wagged its tail, displaying a remarkably intimate gesture.

Qi Xibei caressed its small head and praised it, "Well done. You did a great job."

Greenie had been wandering nearby and sensed Qi Xibei's presence.

It swiftly returned and managed to incapacitate the assailants with its venom, ensuring that they merely fainted and did not die.

Looking at the unconscious Liang Feifei, Qi Xibei's eyes grew deep and contemplative.

Liang Feifei must have deliberately arranged their meeting, but whether she was aware of the danger remained uncertain.

Observing the unconscious men, Qi Xibei removed their masks.

Then, she lightly tapped each of them on their bodies.

One of them gradually regained consciousness.

“Who sent you?” Qi Xibei inquired, her gaze fixed on the awakened man.

“It was the boss who sent us,” the man replied with hollow eyes.

“Who is your boss?”

The man struggled for a moment before answering, “It’s Sun Lizhi.”

“How did he instruct you?”

“To kill Qi Xibei.”

“Afterward, where were you supposed to go?”

The man stared blankly for a moment before responding to the question.

Upon obtaining the answers she sought, Qi Xibei smiled and administered a pill to him.

She had made extensive preparations for this encounter!

After ingesting the pills, the men regained their clarity.

However, something seemed off in their expressions.

Then, as if unable to perceive Qi Xibei's presence, they simply departed.

Chapter 1914 - 1914 Assaulted (4)

1914 Assaulted (4)

Qi Xibei smiled coldly as she watched the backs of those people leaving, made a call to the police, and then turned back to wake up Liang Feifei from the ground.

When she woke up, Liang Feifei was a bit confused.

"What happened?"

"Nothing."

Qi Xibei gave her an intense look and shook her head.

Liang Feifei frowned, this expression... It did not look like there was nothing.

However, looking at Qi Xibei, it was obvious that she was not willing to explain, so she could only stand up.

“I don’t understand, how did I suddenly pass out? I think I just smelled something?” Liang Feifei couldn’t help but complain.

She looked around but found no problem.

“Maybe you’re too tired. Okay, just keep walking.”

Qi Xibei had said so, and Liang Feifei had no choice but to keep walking.

After walking for a while, the two of them finally stopped.

After eating a vegetarian meal, it was time to leave.

When they got off the mountain and were about to get into the car, Qi Xibei suddenly stopped and pulled Liang Feifei along.

“What’s wrong?” Liang Feifei looked at her in confusion.

Qi Xibei curled her lips and smiled coldly. “There is a bomb in the car.”

“What?! A bomb?!” Liang Feifei shrieked and almost jump up. “You’re kidding, right?!”

Looking at the shock and panic on Liang Feifei’s face, Qi Xibei nodded slightly.

It seemed that Liang Feifei did not know the details.

Qi Xibei shook her head, “I’m not joking. Call the police.”

“Call the police? Oh yes, call the police!”

Liang Feifei didn’t know how Qi Xibei knew there was a bomb in the car, but she understood that Qi Xibei wouldn’t make up a story.

She immediately took the driver away from the area and called the police.

When the police heard about the bomb, they were shocked and quickly came over.

The bomb disposal expert went up to take a look and was also shocked.

There was really a bomb here!

However, the bomb hadn’t gone off yet.

If the car started, the bomb would start, and if the car stopped halfway, it would explode.

When the time came, the car would be blown to pieces.

At that time, the people inside would also be blown to pieces.

The bomb had not yet started, so it was easy to dismantle.

So, the police immediately arranged for the bomb to be defused.

A police officer came to ask about the specifics. Liang Feifei looked bewildered.

“I don’t know why the car has a bomb... It wasn’t here before!”

She was scared to death. She almost passed out watching the bomb being dismantled from the car,

The car actually had a bomb!

If not for Qi Xibei’s quick reaction, it would have been all over by now.

If the car had started, the bomb would also go off. At that time, they would really have no way to survive.

This feeling of coming back from the dead made her heart pound and she looked at Qi Xibei with an expression of admiration and gratitude.

If not for Qi Xibei's quick reaction, everyone would be dead now!

However, how in the world did Qi Xibei know?

The police looked at Qi Xibei and froze for a moment.

Qi Xibei had made a slight disguise for this trip.

Her hair was down, she wore a big sun hat and black-rimmed glasses, and with her plain face and ordinary clothes, she looked much more inconspicuous.

However, how could the police be unfamiliar with Qi Xibei, who has just become famous?

After seeing her, they were taken aback.

"Miss Qi, may I ask what's going on?"

“I don’t know.” Qi Xibei was very blunt and shook her head straight away. “My intuition saved me.”

Chapter 1915 - 1915 Assaulted (5)

1915 Assaulted (5)

Intuition?

The policeman’s mouth twitched.

This bomb hadn’t been activated, and it didn’t make a ticking sound, yet she saved herself by intuition?!

That was not easy!

“So do you have anyone you suspect? Anyone who doesn’t get along with you?”

“Many,” Qi Xibei nodded. “There are a lot of people who don’t get along with me.”

The policeman’s mouth twitched again at these words.

She was a star, so how had she offended so many people?

The police officer knew a lot about the entertainment industry and naturally knew how much Qi Xibei was hated.

It was not really a lie to say that she offended a lot of people.

Only, who would put a bomb on them?

This was beyond the scope of general grudges.

This was a terrorist attack!

Liang Feifei had an idea, "I've got it, it has to be Wang Tianze!"

Liang Feifei was indignant.

"They were the ones who encouraged me to invite you out before! It must be them!"

Liang Feifei was not a fool, she naturally knew what it meant.

She didn't want to get involved with Qi Xibei before, but she was persuaded by Wang Tianze to associate more with Qi Xibei.

If she could make friends with Qi Xibei, she could help her if something happened to the two families.

That was why Liang Feifei took the initiative to invite Qi Xibei out to play and to become closer.

Who would have thought that there would be these things involved here?

Moreover, the bomb appeared only after they went to the temple, indicating that the other party had already prepared for it!

“Wang Tianze?” the police officer immediately asked. “Who is he?”

“A bastard!”

Liang Feifei was angry.

Listening to Liang Feifei’s accusation against Wang Tianze, Qi Xibei was not surprised.

Besides Wang Tianze and Yang Mo, there would be no one else who could do this attack.

However, Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were not from here and it was not that easy to arrange an attack here.

Of course, the idea was theirs, but it was Sun Lizhi’s people who did it.

The person who just attacked them was Sun Lizhi's confidante, strong and powerful.

If it wasn't for Greenie, because of having Liang Feifei around, there could have been a bad fight just now.

Wang Tianze had probably told him about how powerful and special she was. That was why they had attacked them in two ways.

It was just a pity that Qi Xibei was simply not something they could deal with.

The police asked a lot of things from Liang Feifei and asked Qi Xibei some more questions.

By this time, people from the Zhang family had rushed over.

Hearing that Qi Xibei had suffered a bomb attack, the entire Zhang family almost

Had their blood curdled.

If something happened to Qi Xibei, then what could their patriarch do?

Moreover, if something happened to Qi Xibei here, there was no way they could explain it!

Zhang Hongbin quickly left the work at hand and rushed over, then said to the police with an angry face, "This is despicable! I hope you can catch the culprits as soon as possible!"

"Yes, we will!"

The police did not expect that the person who came would be the young master of the Zhang family, and they were taken aback.

They could only promise that this matter would be properly investigated.

After leaving the police station, Zhang Hongbin frowned.

"Dr. Qi, this matter..."

"You can ask her," Qi Xibei pointed at Liang Feifei and said.

Liang Feifei immediately said all her suspicions.

Knowing that this matter was actually related to Wang Tianze, Zhang Hongbin's face became even more grim.

He really didn't expect Wang Tianze to be so rampant!

Qi Xibei was the savior of their family!

Chapter 1916 - 1916 Solving Yang Mo (1)

1916 Solving Yang Mo (1)

Zhang Hongbin could never have imagined that Wang Tianze would hire hitmen to kill people!

It was too much!

Moreover, Qi Xibei was their family's benefactor and a key person for Zhang Xun to be able to walk freely and recover his health.

Their family held Qi Xibei in high esteem, but Wang Tianze wanted to kill Qi Xibei!

"This is outrageous! It cannot be forgiven!" Zhang Hongbin said with a stern face. "If you hadn't been lucky this time, you could have..."

Thinking about the possible result, his heart chilled and he quickly stopped imagining.

It would be terrible if something happened here.

Luckily, Qi Xibei was fortunate and nothing happened.

What he didn't know was that Qi Xibei didn't rely on intuition but on her strength to spot the danger.

She came over to the City of Xiang this time just to deal with Yang Mo.

Whether it was to reprimand Yang Mo or to reveal the truth without mercy, it was to make Yang Mo panic.

In this situation, Yang Mo could have done anything.

Since she knew that Yang Mo would do something terrible, how could she not take precautions?

Qi Xibei also knew that she was now popular and that many people wanted to get rid of her.

Therefore, she was very cautious every time she traveled.

This time, it was obvious that Yang Mo and the others were behind the attack on this trip.

She was not a fool to not take so little precaution when she knew there would be danger.

So, before getting into the car, she scanned the car with her spiritual power.

Soon, she found the problem.

Qi Xibei was speechless.

It seemed that Yang Mo and the others wanted her to die very strongly.

So strong that they prepared two attacks.

Not only did they have people use guns, but they also used bombs.

It seemed that Sun Lizhi was so powerful in the City of Xiang that he could control a lot of things.

Otherwise, he wouldn't dare to do it like this.

However, she had already prepared a big gift to give them.

Along the way, Zhang Hongbin was giving Qi Xibei assurances that he would take care of her safety and would never let this happen a second time!

Liang Feifei asked unconvinced, "What about the people who tried to hurt Dr. Qi?"

If the killers were not dealt with, who knew what would happen later?

Zhang Hongbin was serious. "I will take care of this matter!"

They had a good relationship with the Wang family, but not to the point where they could let Wang Tianze screw around here!

Wang Tianze had a young master's temper, and always wanted people to obey him.

However, while he could do anything at home, he could not mess around here!

Given Qi Xibei's identity, Wang Tianze could not do whatever he wanted!

If something happened to Qi Xibei, their father would be hopeless!

This was absolutely inexcusable!

With the thought of driving Wang Tianze and Yang Mo away, Zhang Hongbin went to his father and brothers to discuss how to resolve this matter.

No sooner did they come up with a countermeasure than they heard that something had happened to Wang Tianze and Yang Mo.

They were walking outside when they were shot!

If they hadn't avoided it quickly, they would have been shot in the vitals and died on the spot.

Although they didn't die, the incident was a big deal.

Both of them were now sent to the hospital, and things were getting pretty serious.

Zhang Hongbin was about to explode.

What was going on here?

As for the person behind these things, she was calm and relaxed.

This matter was completely under her control.

Chapter 1917 - 1917 Solving Yang Mo (2)

1917 Solving Yang Mo (2)

After Sun Lizhi dispatched his confidants, he waited for news at home.

However, he wasn't worried.

With their strength, they would definitely be able to kill Qi Xibei.

They had thought through every aspect of this plan.

First, they had to make sure that Qi Xibei was not protected by anyone.

Then, they had to have Qi Xibei taken to a place where she would not attract attention, so as not to cause a commotion. Then, they could strike.

Finally, they also made multiple preparations to ensure that nothing would go wrong.

As long as Qi Xibei really went over, it would be no problem.

Even if Qi Xibei could escape from those people's guns, she would still be dead by the time she got in the car.

Therefore, Sun Lizhi was not worried about how this matter would unfold.

As long as Qi Xibei was killed, there would be plenty of benefits afterward.

Of course, he was also afraid that what he had done would be discovered, so he prepared a way to escape.

This was the City of Xiang, which was his territory, and it would be easy to erase the traces.

So Sun Lizhi waited here for the good news.

By the afternoon, those people finally came back.

When they came back, Sun Lizhi was very happy.

The fact that they had returned safely meant that the matter had been successfully resolved.

So, he immediately walked up.

The next second, the men raised their guns at him and pulled the trigger!

If the shooter hadn't been knocked out of the way by someone and missed, Sun Lizhi might have been hit in the vital parts.

The change caught him off guard, and if he hadn't dodged quickly, he could have been killed.

This change also made the others immediately react, catching these people.

Of course, a few people died in the process.

Due to the silencer, the action here did not attract the attention of the outside.

However, Sun Lizhi gnashed his teeth with hatred looking at the chaos here.

After catching the men, he immediately grabbed one of them.

“What are you doing?”

Sun Lizhi covered his bleeding arm, angry.

Obviously, these people were his confidantes. How come they suddenly betrayed him?

What was going on here?

Several people were caught and tied up, but their eyes were closed. They had probably passed out.

Sun Lizhi was about to ask someone to wake them up when the man named Da Zhi, who had just saved him, jumped in with a grim expression.

“Boss, something’s wrong!”

“What’s wrong?”

Sun Lizhi’s expression was very ugly.

Of course, he knew something had happened. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have been injured!

“Boss, we’ve been set up!”

“Set up?” Sun Lizhi’s brows were furrowed. “What do you mean? Why would they do that?”

When his people went out, Da Zhi was the only one who stayed normal, which had to make him suspect the whole thing.

Da Zhi looked terrified and gritted his teeth. “So we went over there today to deal with that woman named Qi, right? But when we got there, we saw the man who came to you before, and he was with this Qi woman!”

“What?!”

Sun Lizhi was immediately shocked... Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei were together? How was that possible?

“Yes!” Da Zhi nodded heavily. “The two of them were together! Moreover, I heard their conversation!”

“What conversation?” Sun Lizhi’s expression became even more unpleasant.

“This time, it’s actually not about dealing with that woman, but about us!”

“What?!”

Sun Lizhi was shocked.

Chapter 1918 - 1918 Solving Yang Mo (3)

1918 Solving Yang Mo (3)

What did he mean by dealing with them?

Sun Lizhi was so anxious that his face turned pale, “Hurry up and tell me!”

“I heard them say that they are going to kill us all this time!”

Da Zhi was very angry.

“All of us?”

“Yes! And that woman had a lot of people protecting her! It’s not like there’s no one to protect her at all!”

Sun Lizhi was even more shocked. This was different from what Wang Tianze had told him!

“Moreover, they said that they could pin something on us this time and arrest us!”

Sun Lizhi’s expression was steely and ugly, and he gritted his teeth, “Go on! Tell me everything!”

Da Zhi hurriedly re-told everything.

They went over today to deal with Qi Xibei, but because of a sudden stomach ache, Da Zhi went to the toilet first. When he returned, he found that his brothers were caught. Moreover, he found that Qi Xibei was with Wang Tianze.

He was terrified and rushed to hide.

Then, he found that there were several tall men standing guard around them.

Da Zhi was certainly anxious as he watched all his brothers being arrested.

Those men probably thought they had caught everyone, so they let down their guard.

After a while, his brothers were let out!

He felt strange and did not contact them, but followed them.

He didn't expect that when his brothers came back, they would make a move on Sun Lizhi!

Luckily, he jumped out immediately. Otherwise, Sun Lizhi might have died.

"I think that they might have taken some pills!" Da Zhi said to Sun Lizhi. "When I was waiting for my chance outside earlier, someone took a bottle of pills and went in. Then, the other side released the brothers. I suspect that there must be something wrong here!"

These words made Sun Lizhi's expression very interesting. "Pills?"

"Yes!" Da Zhi immediately nodded. "Didn't that woman invent a very powerful medicine? She may have given our brothers some strange pills! Otherwise, there's no way to explain this!"

"So it's because of these pills that they would attack us?"

"Probably more than that!" Da Zhi shook his head. "I think I also heard some strange sounds coming from inside, like hypnosis from the TV... Yes! It's hypnosis!"

"Hypnosis?" Sun Lizhi's expression changed. "Are you sure?"

“Yes! I’m sure!” Da Zhi let out a cry of regret. “I was wondering why they got released! I bet they were given other ideas!”

These words made Sun Lizhi’s face look even more unpleasant.

If what Da Zhi said was correct, then this time...

Sun Lizhi called a doctor to come over, and after his wound was treated, he had the doctor look at those people.

Soon, the doctor’s findings came out.

“Although I do not have much experience in this area, it does look like they took some kind of hallucinogenic drugs.”

The doctor’s words made Sun Lizhi’s face darken.

In other words, what Da Zhi said was true!

It was also true that since Qi Xibei was able to develop a miraculous anti-cancer drug, it was not impossible to develop these hallucinogenic drugs.

Moreover, she used hypnosis!

Hypnosis was a very magical skill. They have heard about and seen it in movies and on TV, but in reality, they have not been exposed to it.

However, that did not mean that it did not exist.

Now the situation was so weird. There must be a problem!

Chapter 1919 - 1919 Solving Yang Mo (4)

1919 Solving Yang Mo (4)

Had they not been delirious, the shot might have hit Sun Lizhi directly in the vitals.

These brothers had excellent shooting skills!

Only their delirium would have made them miss.

This explanation could explain what was wrong with this matter.

Sun Lizhi immediately believed Da Zhi's words and said to the doctor, "Can you get them back to normal?"

If they could not return to normal, there was no way to learn the exact truth from them.

“I’ll try,” the doctor said with a frown.

He felt quite miserable as the Sun family’s doctor.

Not only did he have to deal with gunshot wounds, but he also had to deal with these things that he didn’t understand at all.

However, the effect of the “hypnosis” was weak, so while they were figuring things out, the men finally came to their senses.

The men were stunned finding themselves tied up.

“Why did you tie us up?”

“What did we do wrong?”

“Why are we here?”

Their questions made the possible “hypnosis” even more likely.

Only hypnotized people would not know what they had done before.

Moreover, this also meant that everything they did before was the result of hypnosis!

Sun Lizhi was burning with rage as he stared at them and said, "You don't remember what happened before?"

"What happened to..."

The men looked at Sun Lizhi's bandaged wound and became anxious.

"Boss, what happened to you? How did you get hurt?"

This innocent reaction made Sun Lizhi believe even more in what Da Zhi said.

It must be that they were hypnotized, that was why they did such a thing.

As for why they so easily came out of the hypnosis, it should be because Qi Xibei's strength wasn't too strong, so they could be un-hypnotized easily.

The most important thing was that this matter was actually related to Wang Tianze!

"You guys really don't remember what happened?" he asked with a sullen face.

"I remember... We seem to have been arrested and then fed a pill, and then what happened after that... I don't remember."

The man who spoke shook his head, frowning with a pained expression.

This reaction made Sun Lizhi understand that it was really the aftermath of hypnosis.

"Someone hypnotized you guys to come and kill me."

"What?!" The men immediately got anxious. "No way?! How can we do such a thing?!"

He was their boss!

They could finally understand why they were tied up.

However, who had hypnotized them?

"Oh yeah! I remember now!" a man immediately said. "I remember that when I went over, I was quickly knocked out. Then, I heard a somewhat familiar male voice... By the way, it sounded like your friend, Boss!"

"Is it the man who came to me before?" Sun Lizhi's expression was grim to the core.

“Yes! That’s him!” the man nodded vigorously. “I was not completely unconscious at that time, so I could hear such a voice, but what exactly they said, I don’t know.”

Well, this matched what Da Zhi just said.

One person could lie, but two people couldn’t lie.

This time, it was really planned by Wang Tianze.

Wang Tianze was trying to harm him!

“Crap! Cops are coming!”

Someone received a call and his face changed.

“Hurry up!”

The men moved quickly.

Sun Lizhi evacuated while making a phone call.

Chapter 1920 - 1920 Solving Yang Mo (5)

1920 Solving Yang Mo (5)

Soon, Sun Lizhi found Wang Tianze.

Wang Tianze and Yang Mo were now out shopping!

Sun Lizhi gritted his teeth learning this news.

This time, he was fooled by Wang Tianze! And he got screwed!

The things Wang Tianze said before were just to make him let down his guard!

Wang Tianze had cooperated with Qi Xibei, and his Sun family was used as a sacrifice by Wang Tianze!

He was trying to wipe out the Sun family and use it as a sacrificial offering!

The police had always wanted to wipe out the Sun family, but hadn't found a way to do so.

After all, the Sun family had not done these things for a long time, and the police could not find any clues.

This time, Wang Tianze is trying to get them to take the initiative, so that they can follow the clues and catch them!

After thinking about this, Sun Lizhi hated it so much.

He treated Wang Tianze as his brother, plus the prospect Wang Tianze described before was very good. That's why he chose to cooperate with Wang Tianze and go after Qi Xibei.

Otherwise, how could he have offended Qi Xibei?

Who would have thought that it was all self-interest on Wang Tianze's part!

It was all set up by Wang Tianze!

Wang Tianze wanted the Sun family to be destroyed!

Now, they were carrying guns, and there were people with gunshot wounds, and people had died... If they were caught, it would be trouble.

The more he thought about it, the more Sun Lizhi hated it.

The rage in his heart also became more fierce.

If Wang Tianze had gotten his way, would he still be able to do anything?

If this matter was leaked, would he still be able to live?

While he was on the run, Wang Tianze was out shopping with a beautiful woman?

How dare he?!

“This is outrageous!”

Da Zhi fled after Sun Lizhi, panting like an ox and very angry. “That bastard! You trusted him, and he stabbed us in the back! If I hadn’t had a stomachache and found out the problem, now...”

Da Zhi’s words made Sun Lizhi’s expression very ugly.

Yeah, if Da Zhi hadn’t had a problem and hadn’t been caught, this whole thing wouldn’t have been discovered at all.

After all, who would have known that Wang Tianze and Qi Xibei were privately working together to hypnotize his brothers to turn on him?

They used a gun and couldn’t be found out!

If they were discovered, there would be trouble.

Who could have thought of such a trick?

Thinking of this, Sun Lizhi did not care that he was on the run and called the others.

The other end received instructions and immediately set off.

Looking at his phone, Sun Lizhi's expression was sinister and venomous.

Why should he be messed up and Wang Tianze be so free?

If Wang Tianze dared to hurt him, he must get him killed!

As for that Yang Mo, let her die along with him!

On the other hand, Wang Tianze and Yang Mo, who were shopping in the mall, were in a good mood.

In their plan, today's development would go well.

With Sun Lizhi's strength and arrangement, there would be no problem this time.

After all, Sun Lizhi was the boss here!

Moreover, they had already laid a dragnet. As long as Qi Xibei arrived at the temple, she would not be able to escape!

As long as Qi Xibei died, it would be easy for them.

Due to this good mood, the two of them went on a shopping spree.

After they finished shopping, they were ready to go to eat.

However, halfway there, they heard an ear-piercing gunshot.

Wang Tianze covered his stomach, blood gushing out, held by Yang Mo as he rolled away to the side.

There was another sound, and Yang Mo had a hole in her thigh.

“Ah...”

“There’s a gun!”

The scene was chaotic.
