

Chapter 1921: What Kind Of First Love Was That?

He scratched his hair, which was only slightly longer than Lu Xingzhi's. "Ruoran has liked kittens and puppies since she was young. She's also very fond of children, and she was looking forward to being pregnant. She wanted a child of her own. She must have been happy about it. She might not want to live if her baby died."

Jiang Yao pondered that. She wanted to ask a question, but she did not dare to do it.

"Should we go to the hospital to see Sister Ruoran?"

Jiang Yao was unsure of Liang Yueze's feelings for Luo Ruoran. She thought that he cared for Luo Ruoran.

Otherwise, he would not have rushed over immediately when he heard that something had happened to Luo Ruoran. When he saw Luo Ruoran's husband, he even acted impulsively. He wondered why Luo Ruoran's husband could not take care of her.

However, Jiang Yao was also afraid that she was wrong.

What if Liang Yueze only cared for Luo Ruoran because they grew up together? What if Liang Yueze only treated Luo Ruoran as his sister?

If that were the case, Luo Ruoran would not have a peaceful life if she had said anything about it.

"What nonsense was he saying? What did he mean by old flame?" Liang Yueze frowned.

"He doesn't know you, so he probably heard Sister Ruoran mention you and your former partner, right? Didn't you have another partner before you married Sister Ruoran?" Jiang Yao decided to ask it casually.

How should she put it? Jiang Yao always thought that Lu Xingzhi's brothers were like Lu Xingzhi, pure and persistent in their love affairs.

Therefore, she did not think that Luo Ruoran and Liang Yueze's divorce was because Liang Yueze had someone else in his heart.

"Just listen to his nonsense. What old flame would I have?" Liang Yueze snorted, but his expression changed again after he said that.

Jiang Yao learned her observational skills from Lu Xingzhi, so Liang Yueze's subtle change did not escape her eyes.

"So it seems like there is one?" Jiang Yao clicked her tongue.

"There is one." Liang Yueze admitted it. "I had someone when I was still in school, but the relationship ended in less than a week. But I have completely forgotten about her."

"That is your first love, Big Brother. Only for a week? After that, you had no contact with her?" Jiang Yao thought it was strange, but Luo Ruoran did not seem to think so.

'What kind of first love was that?'

Was that really his first love? Liang Yueze did not think so.

Okay, I'm very annoyed. You go back to the hotel with your two big men. I'll find a place to smoke and then go back to Jindo City. "Liang Yueze was addicted to smoking, so he did not have the patience to continue talking about his past with Jiang Yao.

"Big Brother, won't you go see Ruoran?"

Jiang Yao was shocked when she heard that Liang Yueze did not want to go to the hospital. "Did you go to the hospital?"

"I did, but it was an impulsive decision." Liang Yueze chuckled faintly. "I was afraid to see her; I might just bring her home with me. You have no idea how much patience I exerted when I divorced her and let her marry someone else. I thought—"

Liang Yueze thought she wanted to look for Gu Haoyu; he did not expect her to find someone he did not know. Liang Yueze was unwilling to accept that.

When he went to the hospital, he was so anxious that he did not think of anything else. He had calmed down since then. He knew that Luo Ruoran was fine, so he wanted to go to the hospital again..

Chapter 1922: Not Enough

"What's the point? It's not like I will be with her for the rest of my life."

"Big Brother, let me ask you a question. Can you answer me honestly?" Jiang Yao decided to ask the question, at least, for Lu Xingzhi's sake.

Liang Yueze was frustrated. He did not expect Jiang Yao to speak so seriously.

"Did you want to know if Xingzhi had someone before you?" Liang Yueze blurted out.

"Do you love Sister Ruoran? Do you still love her now?"

Liang Yueze did not expect that question. He was shocked to hear it.

However, Liang Yueze felt that Jiang Yao's question was a little ridiculous.

"If I did not love her, why did I marry her? If I did not love her, why did I rush here in such a hurry?" Liang Yueze's answer was sincere. "I've loved her for more than ten years, but what's the use? Didn't she end up marrying someone else?"

Liang Yueze was so annoyed that he even swore. Then, he realized he should not have spoken like that in front of Jiang Yao.

So, he thought for a few seconds and asked, "The baby won't hear me, right?"

Jiang Yao laughed and shook her head.

She liked Liang Yueze's slightly rude honesty.

"Sister Ruoran divorced you because she thought you loved your previous lover. She did not want you to resent her in the future, so she decided to leave so that you could be with the other woman." Jiang Yao wanted to pat Liang Yueze's shoulder, but she was short and wearing flats. So, she touched her nose instead. "Sister Ruoran and her son are safe. The baby weighs more than four kilograms, and he is very handsome!"

If it were not for Luo Ruoran's desperate plea to Jiang Yao in the operating room, she would not have meddled in other people's business. She was afraid that she would do the wrong thing instead.

However, Jiang Yao believed that she had done well. She had to let Liang Yueze know.

All was well because he was in love with Luo Ruoran.

Furthermore, she had saved Luo Ruoran and her baby. She had to tell the father of Luo Ruoran's child.

A woman's pregnancy was always hard, and the labor was painful. Liang Yueze missed both times. Therefore, he should accompany Luo Ruoran to witness the child's growth.

"Four kilograms is really fat."

Liang Yueze clicked his tongue. "That kid is really lucky."

Jiang Yao rolled her eyes at Liang Yueze. Then she went back to the hotel.

She had wanted to send Liang Yueze a message. He was an idiot!

Who could give birth to a four kilograms premature baby?

Liang Yueze did not understand why Jiang Yao suddenly left, but it was good that she did. He wanted to smoke.

Liang Yueze crouched at the corner of the police station and smoked for almost half an hour. When he took out his phone to call Lu Xingzhi, his throat was hoarse from smoking.

"You're out?" Lu Xingzhi's tone carried a hint of sarcasm. "You're not still in jail, right? How do you feel?"

"It was not fun enough."

Liang Yueze felt that it was not enough. "If I had known that Ruoran had given birth to a baby boy that weighed more than four kilograms, I would have beaten the man until he was crippled. I grew up with Luo Ruoran, so the man got it so easy. She even birthed a baby for him. We were married for half a year, and we didn't have anything. I couldn't get her pregnant. That man was too fast. "

Chapter 1923: He Looks Like Me

Lu Xingzhi was speechless.

He had been envious when he heard that the baby weighed four kilograms. However, he calmed down when he remembered that Jiang Yao was also pregnant.

Then, Lu Xingzhi snapped back to his senses.

Lu Xingzhi's smile gradually widened as she listened to Liang Yueze's words on the phone.

Lu Xingzhi might not have known about it in the past, but he was gradually getting familiar with pregnancy. He had read so many books on pregnancy during those few days.

“Big Brother, most full-term babies don’t even weigh four kilograms.”

Lu Xingzhi did not say it directly. Instead, he gave Liang Yueze a hint to figure it out himself.

Liang Yueze was stunned. A few seconds later, the phone in his hand dropped with a thud.

Liang Yueze knew that full-term meant nine months of pregnancy. Therefore, if a full-term baby weighing more than four kilograms was considered rare, how could Luo Ruoran give birth to such a big baby in just three to four months of pregnancy?

Liang Yueze had a thought that shocked him.

He picked up his phone and dialed Lu Xingzhi’s number. He asked, “What are your wife’s symptoms in the early stages of pregnancy?”

“She ate and slept more, gained weight, and had a glow.”

Lu Xingzhi felt that Jiang Yao’s pregnancy symptoms were incredibly reassuring. “But some pregnant women have massive symptoms in their early stages of pregnancy. They might have poor appetites, can’t stand some smells, and are lethargic.”

Lu Xingzhi knew those symptoms like the back of his hand. Do not ask him how he knew all that; just ask him which books were in his study room and what he did not mention.

“When she and I divorced, she seemed tired and sleepy. She slept early and woke up late, and sometimes during the day, she looked like she hadn’t slept enough. She seems to have avoided eating with me. I heard the servants mention that she did not have a good appetite. ‘

Liang Yueze’s voice began to tremble. “So, are you saying that she had my baby?”

Even though he did not want to admit it, Lu Xingzhi had no choice. “Yes, my wife must have hinted at you when she told you that.”

Lu Xingzhi did not want to admit it. He wanted to deny it because he would be the first to become a father if he did. He would lose to Liang Yueze that day.

The two men talked about various issues regarding babies.

Liang Yueze hailed a cab and went straight to the hospital. When he arrived, Luo Ruoran had not woken up yet. Mrs. Luo was taking care of Luo Ruoran and the baby.

‘Yueze, why are you here?’

When Liang Yueze entered the room, Mrs. Luo subconsciously turned her head to look at the baby in the crib and hurriedly pulled the blanket.

However, no matter how fast Mrs. Luo was, she was no match for Liang Yueze’s eyes,

“Mom, I’m just here to see the baby and Ruoran.”

Liang Yueze spoke to his mother-in-law as smoothly as he could, as if he was still the Luo family’s son-in-law.

He pretended as if he had not seen what Mrs. Luo did. He walked to the side of the crib and reached out to poke the baby's face. Gently and carefully, he said, "He's handsome." Mrs. Luo nearly choked. Sure enough, she heard Liang Yueze say, "He looks like me!"

Chapter 1924: Who To Blame?

"Yes, you look so much like your father." Liang Yueze's eyes were gentle. The baby had a small nose and mouth. His eyebrows were so faint that they could not be seen, but he looked like him. He looked like Liang Yueze when he was a child.

Mrs. Luo was relieved when she heard that. She had been worried about how they would conceal the child's situation. It looked like she no longer had to think about that.

"You know, right?"

Mrs. Luo smiled helplessly. "Do you blame us for lying to you?"

Liang Yueze had to tear his gaze away from the baby and look at Mrs. Luo.

Blame them?

He only realized his son's existence that day. He had missed Luo Ruoran's pregnant days, and he almost missed his son's birth.

However, who would he blame?

Had it not been hard for Luo Ruoran to handle her pregnancy herself?

Did her parents feel sorry for her?

Who could they blame?

Had it not been hard for Luo Ruoran to handle her pregnancy herself?

Did her parents feel sorry for her?

Who could they blame?

That had happened because he had not been good enough. He did not understand Luo Ruoran as he thought he did. They must have blamed him for not taking good care of Ruoran, so she left him. They did not hesitate to hide her pregnancy and even let her marry someone else.

He thought he had been more tired than Luo Ruoran during their six-month marriage. He thought that she was heartless. However, it seemed like she had been more worried than him. She did not live as carefree as he thought she did.

"Mom, I'm sorry. I didn't take good care of Ruoran." What right did he have to hit others? What right did he have to blame others?"

"We didn't know why you two got divorced. But we know that both of you are very opinionated and stubborn. We thought that your strong personalities would make you two unsuitable for each other. We didn't even expect that you two would want to get married. Ruoran's father and I even had to think about it, but eventually, we agreed. We thought you two would compromise.

We didn't expect you two would get a divorce, and we only knew after the fact."

Mrs. Luo turned to look at Luo Ruoran, who was lying on the hospital bed, and sighed helplessly.

"If you two continue to be like this, you will never be able to live like a normal couple. Look at Lu Xingzhi. Have you seen him lose his temper with Jiang Yao? You have to learn more from him."

Mrs. Luo paused for a few seconds and then said, "Of course, Luo Ruoran's temper is incomparable to Jiang Yao's, who is tough and independent. That's why they can be friends. Jiang Yao treats her husband with such softness, which is very good. I also hope that Ruoran can do the same, but she can't change. So, I can only be biased toward my daughter. I hope you can learn to change and tolerate her temper. She loves you so much."

Which parent would not want their daughter to marry a husband who loved her? However, love was not enough. They need to learn to compromise with each other. If they did not change, their love would not last..

Chapter 1925: I Understand

"However, if you decide to end things with Ruoran, then pretend I didn't say anything." After a few moments of thought, Mrs. Luo decided to clarify things. "If you do not stay with Ruoran, we will not let go of the baby. He is Ruoran's lifeline. She went through so much to birth him, so I will not let him go. We will do anything for our daughter."

Mrs. Luo's tone sounded heavy; it seemed like she was threatening Liang Yueze.

"Mom, I understand what you mean."

Liang Yueze did not feel angry. He knew how much his in-laws loved Luo Ruoran. As long as Luo Ruoran did not say anything, the Luo family could do anything for the child.

"Even if we don't get back together, I won't take the baby from her. She will always have him."

Mrs. Luo was relieved by Liang Yueze's reassurance. The Liang family would never go against Liang Yueze's wishes. So she did not have to worry about losing the baby to them.

"You can stay here. I'll go back to Ruoran's place to get some things she needs." Mrs. Luo decided to head home when she realized that Liang Yueze had no intention of leaving. Luo Ruoran had had an accident that caused her to have her baby half a month early. She had rushed to the hospital, so she did not have time to make any preparations.

Liang Yueze stood up when he heard that. "Mom, I'll go. Ruoran might be scared if she doesn't see you when she wakes up. You can tell me what you need, and I'll go get them."

It was a reasonable thought, so Mrs. Luo nodded in agreement. She picked up a pen and wrote down the things she wanted. Then, she said, "If you can't find them, ask the servants at home. They must have prepared dinner too."

Liang Yueze took the keys from Mrs. Luo and left the hospital. Then, Mrs. Luo returned to the baby. She touched the baby gently. "Don't be as stubborn as your parents when you grow up. I don't know if this is a blessing for you, but I hope you can be a happy child."

The baby was asleep; he had no response to that. His grandmother smiled. Then Mrs. Luo looked at her daughter. Suddenly, she remembered that she did not tell Liang Yueze where Luo Ruoran lived.

Liang Yueze also did not ask. He must have left and gotten into his car.

Mrs. Luo thought of some possibilities and laughed silently. Liang Yueze must have paid attention to her daughter, so he did not need to ask where her home was.

Liang Yueze got into the cab and went straight to Luo Ruoran's residence. It was in a two-story house not far from Luo Ruoran's company.

The servant was cooking at home. When she heard the door open, she came out of the kitchen. When she saw the man at the door, she asked, "Sir, you're back? Did you come back from the hospital?"

However, the servant did not hear an answer. When she took a closer look, she realized that the person was bigger than the man who had stayed there. "Who are you?"

The man must have used a key to open the door, which meant that he was one of their relatives.

"I am—"

Liang Yueze did not want to reveal his identity as Luo Ruoran's ex-husband because it meant that he would have to explain more later. "I am Miss Luo's brother.."

Chapter 1926: I Have A Question

Then, Liang Yueze went upstairs without saying anything else.

The house was not big, so there were not many rooms. There were only two rooms, one big and one small. Liang Yueze entered the big room. Sure enough, as soon as he went in, he could feel Luo Ruoran's aura everywhere in the room. The bed in the room was messy. One look, and it was obvious that it was the habit of that lazy girl, Luo Ruoran.

Luo Ruoran was too lazy to tidy up the house, and she never argued about that. She said that the servants could do that for her. She would use the time to read more files for her work. She thought that housework was a chore. It was a waste of time and money.

No one could argue her reasoning.

There was a thick stack of documents on the table in the room. Someone from her office must have left them there.

Liang Yueze started to pack some clothes for Luo Ruoran. She had to stay in the hospital for a week, so Mrs. Luo had asked him to bring some comfortable clothes for Luo Ruoran. He would need to bring some underwear too.

When he entered her closet, he noticed that it was neat and tidy, unlike the bed outside. Luo Ruoran had to organize those things herself because the servant did not understand the classification of the clothes' style, texture, and brand. Luo Ruoran said that only when the clothes were neatly arranged and beautiful, like a beauty waiting for her to visit, would it arouse her desire to wear them.

She had only lived there for half a year, but her aura filled the room.

Liang Yueze took a look at the not-so-small closet, then stood there and laughed weirdly.

He took out his phone and called Lu Xingzhi. His third brother answered slowly, not because he was busy, but because he saw that it was Liang Yueze. Lu Xingzhi thought that the man had wanted to show off his son, so he wondered if he should answer it.

"What does he want?"

Finally, Lu Xingzhi picked up the phone, but he deliberately made it sound like he was busy and did not have time to listen to Liang Yueze's bragging.

Liang Yueze and Lu Xingzhi had been brothers for many years. How could he not know what Lu Xingzhi's tone meant?

Liang Yueze did not disappoint Lu Xingzhi's expectations. He said, "My son looks exactly like me, and he will be a handsome boy in the future."

"Mm."

Lu Xingzhi did not believe him.

He had read many books on that subject. He knew that newborn babies were not good-looking. Their facial features had not fully developed, and they were all wrinkled from the amniotic fluid in their mothers' stomachs. They would look like monkeys. How could anyone say that they were good-looking? "Tell Jiang Yao to give birth to a daughter so that she can marry my son in the future."

Liang Yueze was too cocky.

"I want a son."

Lu Xingzhi felt that Liang Yueze's suggestion was not bad. "An older boy will be more mature. He will learn to dote on others. Teach your son to dote on his wife. I'll keep him on observation until he is three years old. I'll decide then if I'll let my daughter get married to your son."

Liang Yueze felt that his son was being picked like a winter melon.

"If there's nothing else, I'm hanging up now."

Lu Xingzhi missed Jiang Yao even more after Liang Yueze showed off.

Maybe she could book an earlier plane ticket home?

"I have a question.. What does it mean when a married woman doesn't have anything of her husband in the bedroom? Not even a single piece of clothing?"

Chapter 1927: I Want To See You

“Maybe they were separated? Or they had a disagreement?” Lu Xingzhi’s answers were quick, and they hit the proverbial nail on Liang Yueze’s heart.

Lu Xingzhi guessed that Liang Yueze was asking about Luo Ruoran. Did she separate from her husband? However, did she not just get married?

Since Luo Ruoran’s child might be Liang Yueze’s child, Lu Xingzhi felt that he might not have understood the situation with Luo Ruoran and her husband.

So Lu Xingzhi thought about it and asked, “Are you sure that the child is yours?”

“Nonsense! Do you think I can’t recognize my own son? I told you that the baby looks exactly like I did when I was young. My mother-in-law has also admitted that the child is mine.” Liang Yueze clicked his tongue and hung up the phone.

He had already gotten the answer he wanted, so he no longer needed Lu Xingzhi.

It was not as if he had not thought about Lu Xingzhi’s answer, but he could not believe it. He wanted someone else to confirm his suspicions.

So, he reexamined Luo Ruoran’s room, and he was in a great mood. He thought he would see hints of another man’s presence in the room, so he did not dare to look so carefully.

However, his mood had changed; everything looked good. He felt as if he was picking flowers in a field.

Lu Xingzhi, who was in the army base, had started to miss Jiang Yao. He was counting down to when Jiang Yao would be home.

However, he also felt a little helpless. He wanted to see his wife immediately.

Lu Xingzhi sat there. After a few minutes, he picked up his phone again and sent Jiang Yao a text message.

[Take a photo and send it to me.]

Jiang Yao was sleeping when she received that text message. The room was quiet, so the sound woke her up. She groggily grabbed her phone from the bedside table and opened it. After reading the text message, she cursed Lu Xingzhi in her heart for disturbing her sleep for no reason! She was angry!

However, Jiang Yao still snapped a photo of her flat abdomen. It was not really a great photo, but it showed her fair skin clearly. Her skin looked tender. One might not resist the temptation to take a bite.

After Jiang Yao sent the message, she turned around and went back to sleep. Lu Xingzhi, who was far away in the army base, was excited when he heard the notification of a new message. Jiang Yao had replied so quickly; she was probably thinking about him too.

However, his expression froze when he saw the text. He did not know whether to laugh or cry as he held his phone.

Did she think that he wanted to see his son?

Did she think that he was thinking of his son instead of her?

So heartless!

Lu Xingzhi sighed helplessly and sent another text message.

[I want to see you.]

The notification sound disturbed Jiang Yao's sleep once again. She did not need to look at it to know that it was Lu Xingzhi. She thought that he wanted to know about his son. Instead, he wanted a photo of her. Jiang Yao felt an inexplicable sense of satisfaction in her heart.

At least he had a conscience and remembered his child's mother.

Jiang Yao picked up her phone happily and rubbed her eyes as she took a few shots of herself. Then she took the phone and flipped through them. Finally, she sent one she thought was the most beautiful..

Chapter 1928: Give Me My Baby

Lu Xingzhi, who had finally received Jiang Yao's selfie, looked at his phone with satisfaction. He thought that Jiang Yao might be jet-lagged. After she became pregnant, she would go to bed early every night. She must have been resting at that time.

So, he did not call Jiang Yao. He was afraid that she would not be able to go back to sleep after that.

Lu Xingzhi tidied his desk and left the office. Along the way, he took his phone and glanced at the photos from time to time. He did not put his phone away until he entered the house.

After he took a shower and lay on his bed, he thought for a long time before he called Big Ke. He told him to book their plane tickets after Jiang Yao was done with her business.

He thought he could wait for her if she wanted to stay in Nanjiang City for a few more days. However, he realized that he did not have much patience to wait for her.

Jiang Yao slept soundly without any more messages from Lu Xingzhi to disturb her. She only woke up about three hours later

She called Mrs. Luo after she woke up. She decided to go to the hospital with Big Ke when she realized that Luo Ruoran had not woken up.

Jiang Yao was not surprised to see Liang Yue staring at the baby in the crib.

"Jiang Yao? Why are you here? Why didn't you rest in the hotel for a while longer? You are pregnant now, so don't tire yourself out." Mrs. Luo did not know that Jiang Yao would go to the hospital after they had spoken on the phone. She would advise her not to go to the hospital if she did.

Jiang Yao was pregnant. She was grateful that the younger woman could perform the surgery for Luo Ruoran.

"Auntie, it's okay. I've rested for a few hours, so I feel refreshed now." Jiang Yao smiled. She had wanted to check on Luo Ruoran's condition. Luo Ruoran slowly opened her eyes.

Luo Ruoran had woken up, and she looked for her baby as soon as she did.

"Where's my baby? Where's my son?"

Luo Ruoran sounded panicked. She was not awake during the surgery, so she did not know if her baby was a boy or a girl.

“Here!”

Liang Yueze practically carried the child and ran to Luo Ruoran’s side. Then, he put the sleeping baby beside Luo Ruoran.

“My baby!” Luo Ruoran looked at her baby with tears in her eyes. She reached out to touch the baby’s face gently. She felt melancholic. “Why do you look like him? Why don’t you look like your mommy?”

“Isn’t it good for the child to look like me?”

Liang Yueze carried the child back into his arms. It had only been a few hours, but he did not seem like a novice at all. It showed just how adaptable he was; he had learned to carry the baby so carefully.

Suddenly, Luo Ruoran realized that the person holding the baby was not Jiang Yao, her mother, a nurse, or a doctor. It was someone she had not expected to see there—Liang Yueze.

“Why are you here?”

Luo Ruoran was shocked. Then, she quickly looked at the child in Liang Yueze’s arms. She raised her voice abruptly and shouted, “Give me my baby! Give him to me!”

Liang Yueze, Jiang Yao, and Mrs. Luo were shocked. Liang Yueze was so stunned that he quickly handed the baby to Luo Ruoran. His heart twitched when he realized just how fearful Luo Ruoran was when she looked at him..

Chapter 1929: What Would He Do?

Had she been that worried that he would snatch the child from her?

“Ruoran.”

Even though Liang Yueze realized that Luo Ruoran was wary of him, he still wanted to approach her.

Luo Ruoran’s emotions quickly calmed as she held her baby in her arms. She touched the baby’s tiny face before she looked at Liang Yueze. However, she quickly turned away after that. Perhaps she felt guilty.

“You two should talk. There’s always a solution to everything.” Mrs. Luo looked at Jiang Yao, and the two left the ward.

Mrs. Luo held Jiang Yao’s hand as carefully as she did Luo Ruoran’s when she was pregnant. She did not let go until they sat down on the bench outside the ward. She said, “Thank you for saving Ruoran and her baby.

I was so happy this morning that I forgot to thank you. You were the one who told Liang Yueze, right? Ruoran’s father and I have been thinking about whether we should hide it from him. Thank you. We have been so worried about this issue, and that’s why we hesitated. We probably thought too much about it.”

Mrs. Luo had guessed that it was Jiang Yao who told Liang Yueze when she saw the man in the hospital. She sighed in her heart. It seemed like Jiang Yao was more sensible than her about that matter.

If her daughter had Jiang Yao's personality, she and Liang Yueze might not have gotten to where they were that day.

Mrs. Luo hoped that the baby would be a turning point for the couple.

"It's fine, Auntie. Just don't blame me for being nosy. I've always been hesitant to tell you about the two of them. Whenever they came to me with something, I didn't know whether I should tell you. I was afraid that it would turn into a bigger issue if I did, or if I didn't."

She did not know what to tell Mrs. Luo since she did not know precisely what had happened between Luo Ruoran and Liang Yueze.

If Luo Ruoran had not begged her and told her that the baby was the only bond she had with Liang Yueze, if Luo Ruoran had not revealed her love for Liang Yueze, Jiang Yao would not have given him all those hints.

She had been afraid that Mrs. Luo would blame her for being nosy. If she did not say anything, then the child would be the Luo family's child.

Luo Ruoran and Jiang Yao stayed at the door for less than five minutes before Liang Yueze came out and told them to accompany Luo Ruoran. Mrs. Luo asked anxiously, "How did the discussion go.

"Let's not talk about this now. Let's wait until she's discharged. I will stay here for a few days." Liang Yueze smiled; he looked helpless. He had only managed to say a few words. Luo Ruoran thought he was there to take the baby, so she insisted that the child had nothing to do with him.

Even though the child looked like him, she still refused to admit it.

It was not that Liang Yueze did not feel anything about it, but what could he do? Both of them were proud, so one had to learn to compromise.

What could he do? He could let go of his pride, but he could not make her accommodate him.

"If you were the one with this issue, what do you think Lu Xingzhi would do to you?,"

Liang Yueze did not know what to do, so he turned around and asked Jiang

Yao..

Chapter 1930: Time To Go Home

"Well, he would be even more sullen about it. But he would quietly accompany me, or he would be anxious and shout at me."

Lu Xingzhi was the same as Liang Yueze. He did not like to offer any explanation. If he were in such a situation, Lu Xingzhi would be anxious and furious.

He would be the same as he had been in his previous life; he would not know what to say. He would only do things discreetly, and he would not tell her even if he did something.

Of course, some words would lose their meaning once they were said.

Liang Yueze thought, 'Same as him?' It looked like they were the same.

"Well, I'd be angry and ignore him if he were to yell at me."

Jiang Yao told the truth. "He was like that when I first got married to him."

Jiang Yao felt that Liang Yueze and Luo Ruoran had fallen into the same strange circumstance that she and Lu Xingzhi were in at that time.

"What happened after that?" Liang Yueze listened attentively.

"I was the first to compromise."

Jiang Yao laughed when she thought of Lu Xingzhi, who was so shocked by her embrace during the summer vacation that he did not even dare move his hands. "Actually, when two people are together, one party has to learn to compromise first."

Would Lu Xingzhi be so clingy with her if it was in the past?

Would he tell her that he missed her so blatantly in the text message?

That had seemed like a dream.

The rest of his words would seem a little illogical once he had said some things first. It seemed like he would not feel embarrassed at all.

"Oh, right!" Jiang Yao suddenly looked at Liang Yueze cunningly. "You still have to learn how to be shameless."

Mrs. Luo burst into laughter when she heard that. She thought that Liang Yueze was the same as Lu Xingzhi. They were both cold-hearted, did not like to talk, and kept their words to themselves.

The word shameless was suitable for their fourth brother; perhaps they could say the same for their fifth brother.

Mrs. Luo did not dare to imagine Lu Xingzhi as a shameless person. No wonder Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao's relationship was so good. It turned out that Lu Xingzhi behaved so differently in front of Jiang Yao.

"How to be shameless?" Liang Yueze started to ask Jiang Yao for advice.

"For example, when Sister Ruoran chased you away, you should not leave. You should just stay there. She would chase you away a few times. If she couldn't chase you away, she couldn't do anything to you. Then, the two of you can spend more time together," Jiang Yao said.

"Lu Xingzhi did that with you?" Liang Yueze expressed his doubt.

It was true that she could not chase Lu Xingzhi away. However, his inability to do that was reflected in his domineering attitude, not his shamelessness. After all, the situation between her and Lu Xingzhi was completely different from Liang Yueze's and Luo Ruoran's.

After Liang Yueze heard Jiang Yao's words, he stood there and thought about it for a long time. It seemed like he was considering whether the methods Jiang Yao mentioned were feasible.

Meanwhile, the shameless and overbearing person that Jiang Yao mentioned had already gotten Big Ke to purchase a plane ticket for her without her knowledge.

Jiang Yao confirmed that Luo Ruoran and the baby were okay before she left the hospital. She had wanted to take a walk around, but Big Ke told her something else.

"Director Jiang, we should go back to the hotel to pack our things and then head to the airport. I have booked a flight, and it's in three and a half hours. We should have about 40 minutes to pack our things." Jiang Yao glared at Big Ke as soon as he finished speaking. So, he said helplessly, "Young Master Lu told me to do it. I'm just following his instructions. If you don't want to go back early, then please call Young Master Lu to tell him that.."
