

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 193

Lydia Lin!

She personally ruined her innocence, ruined her life, and ruined her family, her stepmother Lydia Lin!

The moment he reacted, Zoey Gu had scarlet eyes, gritted her teeth and rushed on like crazy, and rushed Lydia Lin to the ground!

thump!

The two fell to the ground together.

Zoey Gu didn't know where her strength was, regardless of the pain, so she suddenly stood up, and instantly lifted her leg and pressed Lydia Lin firmly.

Snapped!

Zoey Gu raised her hand and slapped her severely.

“Lydia Lin, you dare to show up?!”

Lydia Lin's head tilted away, and the peaked cap on top of her head flew far away, and blood leaked from the corner of her mouth.

But at this time Lydia Lin didn't seem to feel any pain at all.

With shaggy head and dirty face and tattered clothes, let alone the exquisite and elegant Mrs. Gu, even the appearance of an ordinary middle-aged woman is gone.

She let Zoey Gu pressure her, her muddy eyes stared at the bag in her hand, and her mouth kept reading.

“Eat, I want to eat...”

Zoey Gu was startled.

Lydia Lin under her body suddenly grabbed her bag and squeezed out a few pieces of chocolate from it.

Then the eyes lit up, and the package was too late to be torn, and the whole was stuffed into his mouth.

“It’s delicious! Zoey, you don’t know. After Aunt Yun escaped from Anna Yun, she hid all the way to Tibet. It has been a long time since she had eaten anything...”

Zoey Gu was shocked immediately and looked at Lydia Lin in surprise.

She always thought that she was the cause of the Dongchuang incident, knowing that her good days had come to an end and fled abroad alone.

Unexpectedly, she was arrested by Anna Yun from the beginning.

Thinking of the things Lydia Lin had done, thinking of the secrets she knew, Zoey Gu couldn’t stop trembling.

“Lydia Lin, tell me, did I give birth to a child with the strange man who took my virgin blood?”

She held her breath, and her heart hung high.

For so long, she just wanted to get an exact answer from the person Lydia Lin.

But Lydia Lin was really hungry. At this moment, she was all thinking about stuffing her mouth.

“Um... delicious...”

With blushing eyes, Zoey Gu gritted her teeth and broke Lydia Lin’s face, took out a stack of thick paper money from the wallet, and slammed it on her face.

“Tell me the truth!”

“I can forget everything in the past. You just tell me, did I have a child? Where was that child sent? I will give you all the money!”

Lydia Lin saw Zoey’s eyes light up, struggling violently to grab it, but Zoey Gu gritted her teeth and grabbed the hair and dragged it back.

“Say it!”

Lydia Lin was forced to look up, staring at the stack of thick banknotes, and suddenly said abruptly.

“Yes, yes, you have given birth to a child. You accidentally fell to your head after pregnancy and was in a coma for a long time. I simply gave you a caesarean section before you woke up and took out the baby.”

Zoey Gu suffocated her breath, tears welled up instantly.

“What about the kid?”

“After the baby was born, I originally wanted to contact the family where you bought your blood, and wanted to ask for a better price. As a result, a group of people came on the same day and offered a sky-high price and took the baby away.”

Hearing this, Zoey Gu trembled all over, and a heart with her words fell rapidly.

After a long time, I asked with difficulty.

“Who did you sell the child to? Where did you take it?!”
