

Chapter 1995– 1996 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 1995

However, the old lady persuaded him.

“Mark, just go, and treat it as a gratitude.”

“They have guarded the Chu family for fifty years, and they are kind and righteous to the Chu family. I’m so busy, I always have to help.”

Persuaded painfully.

For so many years, the old lady has been alone in the old house of the Chu family, and has always been in peace.

In addition to the prestige and power of the Chu family, it is of course also related to the asylum of Vietnam.

One hundred thousand soldiers, guarding Fenghai City for fifty years.

Even if the other party is to repay the favor.

But this sincerity and perseverance was enough to make the old lady very moved.

Now for so many years, for the first time someone has come to ask for help, how can the old lady be ashamed to refuse.

In the end, looking at the face of the old lady, Mark nodded and agreed.

However, the old lady here is happy, but Yuyun over there is not happy.

When practicing swordsmanship in the backyard, Yu Yun asked Mark.

“You went to the military area, what about the training that night?” “Dragon body, don’t practice anymore?” Yu Yun asked coldly.

When Mark heard this, he suddenly smiled and said: “Why, Miss Yu Yun can’t sleep without my company at night?” “I’ll tell you the business.”

“If you talk nonsense, I must kill you!” Yu Yunqi You have to grit your teeth.

This guy molested her all day.

Fortunately, there is no one here.

Otherwise, if people who know her know everything about her and Mark, her image of Yu Yun might completely collapse.

“Don’t worry, it must be more important on your side.”

“It won’t delay our business.”

Mark had already planned it.

Even though the military area is busy, Mark must still focus on cultivation.

After all, the mastery of Yinlong’s body is related to his own strength, so naturally he won’t be delayed.

As for the after-rhyme, naturally I don’t want to interrupt it.

After all, she had finally made up her mind to repair the dragon body with Mark.

If it’s just like that, wouldn’t it be a waste of emotions?

What’s more, Yu Yun also needs a protective martial arts like Yanglong body to improve her defense.

The cultivation of the Dragon God Body is a win-win thing.

Early the next morning, Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong went to the old house of Chu family again.

The moment they saw Mark, these two people were undoubtedly shocked.

A pair of old eyes are staring huge!

“Chu...Mr. Chu?” “I’m going, why are you here?” “Haha~” “This world is too small, I didn’t expect that I could meet you here.”

I saw someone recommended by the old lady It was Mark, Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong, who were undoubtedly surprised and delighted.

“Huh?” “It’s you?” “Aren’t you in Gritsberg? Why did you run to Noirfork?” Mark was also surprised.

At the beginning, Lu Tianhe and the others invited Mark to be the chief instructor of the Gritsberg Military Region, but he has already refused once.

But he didn’t expect that good luck tricks people, he still followed their way after all.

“Haha~” “Order from the superior. The old lady should have told you.”

“The above transferred us to the Noirfork Military Region, where we will secretly train a special warrior team.”

“You know, Gritsberg and other places, Too many eyes are staring, there is no secret.”

“Although Noirfork is a small place, it is more suitable for this task.”

Lu Tianhe laughed.

He was undoubtedly extremely surprised to be able to invite Mark this great god.

As early as years ago, Lu Tianhe invited Mark to be the chief instructor, but the purpose was actually for this incident.

Mr. Chu?

“I’m going, why are you here?”

“Haha~” “This world is too small. I didn’t expect that I could meet you here.”

“The person recommended by the old lady was Mark, Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong, and they were undoubtedly surprised and happy. “Huh?”

“It’s you?”

“Aren’t you in Gritsberg? Why are you running to Noirfork?”

“Mark was also surprised. At the beginning, Lu Tianhe and the others invited Mark to be the chief instructor of the Gritsberg Military Region. He had already refused it once. But unexpectedly, he still followed their way after all. “Haha~” Superior command.

The old lady should have told you.

“The above transferred us to the Noirfork Military Region, where we secretly train a special warrior team.

“You also know that in places like Gritsberg, too many eyes are staring, and there is no secret.

“Although Noifork is a small place, it is more suitable for this task.”

“Lu Tianhe laughed. He was undoubtedly very surprised to be able to invite Mark this great god. As early as a year ago, Lu Tianhe invited Mark to be the chief instructor, in fact, the purpose was for this incident.

Chapter 1996 Three Chapters

At that time, Lu Tianhe, Fang Shaohong and others considered for a long time and weighed repeatedly. Mark became the chief instructor and presided over the training of special teams, which was undoubtedly the last choice.

But no matter what, Mark refused.

Now that the peak has turned, Mark agreed, Lu Tianhe and the others are naturally happy.

“Haha, thank you, Madam.”

“I, Lu Tianhe, on behalf of the Huaxia Military Region, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to you, Madam.”

“If it weren't for you to come forward, we can't help this great god.”

Ah.”

Lu Tianhe thanked the old lady again and again.

Afterwards, he looked at Mark: “Mr. Chu, thank you for your support to our Vietnamese military.”

“Don't worry, the treatment you promised at the beginning is still valid.”

“After you report to the military area, I will immediately suggest to the commander-in-chief to grant you the title of general.”

“Maybe you will become the youngest general in the history of our Huaxia Military Region.”

Lu Tianhe laughed and was in a great mood.

But Mark replied calmly: “I don't care about these false names.”

“I don't care if you give titles or not.”

“However, before I get a job, I need to make three chapters with you.”

“First, I.”

I need to have the right of freedom of entry and exit. I do not need to ask for instructions or permission from others to enter and exit the military area.”

“Second, even if I was selected as the instructor of the special forces team, I have full authority to handle the training. No one should interfere. “Third, I will not stay in the Noifork Military Region for too long. The time is right and I will leave. Of course, you can rest assured that before leaving, I will definitely train this team.”

“This At three o’clock, you might agree?” Mark looked at Lu Tianhe and the others, and asked in a deep voice.

“This~” Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong looked at each other before smiling bitterly.

“Mr. Chu, we can agree to the last two points.”

“After all, the military region has a military region management system. The key to militarized management is the need to restrict access.”

What’s more, this mission is extremely confidential, and you want the right to come and go freely, I am afraid it will cause dissatisfaction with your superiors.”

“Furthermore, if your privileged behavior is known to military officers, it may also cause criticism. “So, Mr. Chu, do you think?”

Lu Tianhe said from the side.

However, before Lu Tianhe finished speaking, Mark directly interrupted his words sharply: “These three requirements are not discussed.”

“You know, I am a person and I don’t like to be restrained.”

The reason for rejection is because of this.”

“If you don’t agree to the first condition, then you won’t have to talk about it.”

Mark’s tone was decisive and there was no room for negotiation.

It’s not that Mark is unkind, the main reason is that Mark needs to come back in two days to repair the dragon body with Yu Yun.

Therefore, Mark must fight for the right of freedom of entry and exit in the military area.

Otherwise, he would be given the rank of general, and Mark would not agree to be an instructor.

“This~” Seeing Mark’s side, there is no room for change, Lu Tianhe and Fang Shaohong couldn’t help but feel embarrassed.

No way, Lu Tianhe had to ask his superiors for instructions first, trying to help Mark fight for this right.
