

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 20

Chase Gu dodged his expression, glanced in an unknown direction beside him, and said something lowly.

“Daddy is fine, don’t worry.”

For no reason, Zoey Gu’s heart instantly gave birth to a bad feeling.

“I don’t believe it, Chase, you are obedient, let me see Dad!”

As soon as the voice fell, Chase Gu, who was already lifeless, suddenly raised his head, and instantly rushed to the camera, staring at her with red eyes, screaming regardless.

“Sister, why are you being coerced by a bitch like Lydia Lin? Since you’ve gone out, run and run!”

“My father and I are not your burden, rather than drag you down, we would rather die!”

“Sister, I know Brother Liam is back, tell him the truth, he will help you, he will definitely help you! Even if he will be angry with you for the past, he will not die...”

Snapped.

A slap instantly hit Chase Gu’s face, and someone dragged him away from the camera.

“Chase?” Zoey Gu suffocated abruptly. His eyes were red and he slapped the phone screen like crazy, “Chase, what happened to you?!”

The camera shook, and Lydia Lin’s vicious face appeared in front of her eyes.

Zoey Gu stared at that face, trembling all over. If it weren’t for a screen, she would have rushed to die with her.

“Lydia Lin, you dare to hurt my father and brother, I will never let you go as a ghost!”

Lydia Lin sneered in the camera.

“Don’t worry, they live well, so you can do your best to do what you should do. Zoey Gu, I only give you half a month. The future of your father and brother depends on you.”

beep...

The phone was hung up mercilessly, Zoey resigned and shook the phone, and fell to the ground in despair.

There is no refund.

Even knowing that Liam Lu hates her, and will never let her go, she still has this way to go...

Eight PM.

The black Bentley drove into the private villa area in Berven City, where Liam Lu returned to the garden.

Shiyue in the driver's seat was driving while reporting to Liam Lu in the back seat about tomorrow's itinerary.

Who knows, the guard room just opened the guardrail of the courtyard, a thin figure suddenly rushed out of the grass, open arms to block the front of the car...

The harder he brakes, the body leaned forward with great inertia.

"Sorry Liam Lu ." Shiyue raised his head and looked forward, "It's Miss Gu."

Zoey Gu didn't know if she was frightened or was frozen, standing in front of the car shivering all over, looked at Liam Lu in the car and shouted tremblingly.

"Liam Lu, I know you don't want to see me. But I beg you, can you give me some time? Can you..."

"Drive." Liam Lu's temperatureless voice came from the car.

Immediately afterwards, the window of the car slowly lowered, revealing Liam Lu's gloomy face. He did not look at her, but his thin lips lightly opened, and he said coldly, "Follow."

Zoey Gu was stunned, then she was happy on her face, hurriedly stepped aside, and trot all the way to the back of the car into the garden.

As everyone knows, Guiyuan covers a large area, even if it is driving, it takes some time to reach the living room.

Not to mention her who is obviously physically weak.

The car drove past the fountain in the courtyard, all the way to the garden, and even the tennis court in the backyard. After going back and forth countless times, he slowly drove towards the living room.

Zoey Gu gritted his teeth and panted, and trot all the way behind. After a long time, I feel that the whole person seems to be floating on the cotton, which is very vain.

She knew that Liam Lu was deliberate.

It's not so easy to get in where he knows better.

Seeing the upright figure of the man slowly disappearing into the living room, she followed with one last breath.

As soon as he entered the living room, Zoey Gu looked up and saw a small familiar figure not far away.

Liam Lu's daughter Alina Yin.
