

Chapter 206

Yesterday, Leon had said that he had the company all set up.

But Colton was a tough nut to crack. Even though grandpa said Leon could handle everything, she was still not sure.

"Leon, can you take me with you? I don't know anything, but I know a little bit about the rules of finance. I might be able to help you. Why don't you take me with you?"

"I'll take someone with me."

"You're still lying to me. To be honest, you're going to bring your bodyguard, aren't you?"

Leon knew he couldn't hide it from Alyssa, so he said softly, "I can handle this. You don't have to worry. Alyssa, since you guessed it, I won't hide it from you. You're pregnant now and not fit to travel. Country L is just the end of my journey. But I have to change planes halfway. I just want to force Colton out and see what Colton is going to do!"

"Then I can't let you go alone. What if you run into danger in Country L? Besides, are you comfortable with me being home alone?"

Of course, he wasn't relieved! But this was the Hunters' place after all.

Colton, no matter how crazy he was, didn't make a move on him.

This fully showed that he was still afraid of the Hunters' power.

Leon coaxed Alyssa, "You just stay here at ease. If anything happens, you can go to grandpa. Grandpa will help you solve any problem."

"I don't want grandpa. Grandpa is so old. How can I let him worry about me? Leon, I don't care what you think or how reasonable your reasons are. I don't think you're right. I must go with you!"

After saying that, Alyssa started to pack her clothes.

Worried that she wouldn't be able to catch up with Leon, she even asked Wendy to help her.

Leon watched as Alyssa hurriedly packed her things and walked over to coax Alyssa, "Alyssa, you really can't go with me. I only have one ticket. You can't board the plane."

"You just did it on purpose!"

Seeing that Alyssa was angry, Leon said, "You're not a kid anymore. Our children would laugh at you if they knew you were so angry. You also saw the increasing number of people staring at me. If I don't do something about it, Colton will probably make it worse. I can't let him affect our future life."

"You're right." Alyssa agreed with Leon. She looked at Leon, "Then you want to go to Country L alone? Do you know that's dangerous? You're abroad and Colton also has power abroad, and ... what's even worse are the people who want to fight for the rights of the Koherrs. What if those people do something to you?"

Alyssa thought of this and got even more scared.

She looked at Leon calmly, "No matter what the result you think of is, I can't let you go. It's really too dangerous."

There was absolutely no need for Leon to take any risks.

Alyssa took Leon's hand, "We can take our time to work it out. You can't go now."

Leon looked at Alyssa's nervous expression and said softly, "Alyssa, I know you don't want to be followed. Colton will probably do it at some other time, if not at this time. Instead of us being caught off guard by him, let's figure out how to fix this now."

"You have a point too." Alyssa certainly knew that Colton would surely think of other ways soon. He might even have more tricks against them.

According to Leon, it was really better to do this sooner rather than later.

Alyssa looked at Leon and said, "If that's the case, then I have to go with you. Leon, don't lie to me. I know you'll be in danger when you go to Country L this time. What if you go and Colton starts targeting me?"

"No, he won't!"

"But I think he will. I'm your wife, and I'm pregnant. What if he kidnaps me and threatens you?"

Leon frowned.

She was good at convincing him.

If he said he wouldn't, she would definitely think of another way to beg him.

Leon had a hard time thinking about being separated from Alyssa. Looking into Alyssa's eyes, he took her into his arms, "Why don't we go together?"

"Yeah."

Alyssa nodded seriously.

Leon was finally willing to take her with him to Country L.

Leon regretted it when he finished.

What did he just say?

Before, he had said that he would not let Alyssa go with him.

Now, he couldn't stand Alyssa's persistence, so he agreed to her.

He watched Alyssa hastily pack her things and suddenly felt that it would be good for her to go with him. He would take good care of Alyssa and not worry about Alyssa being aggravated.

When he thought about it, Leon thought that he did the right thing.

He also felt very warm knowing that Alyssa was willing to go with him.

Three o'clock in the afternoon.

Leon and Alyssa got on the plane.

Alyssa looked around and tightened her grip on Leon's hand.

"What's wrong?" Leon sensed that Alyssa was nervous and took Alyssa's hand, "What's wrong with you?"

"I forgot to tell grandpa that we went to Country L together. Will they be worried?"

"And you know they'll be worried. If you knew they would be worried, you shouldn't follow me to Country L."

Alyssa lowered her head in embarrassment, "If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have come!"

"I already told them, but what I said was that we were going on a trip."

Alyssa relaxed at Leon's words.

"You're still thoughtful!"

"Later, we may encounter various dangers."

"I'm not afraid! With you by my side, I'm not afraid of anything. Besides, when you go to Country L, you still have to change planes, don't you? Can we stay in Country F for a longer time? I heard that there's a Four Seasons Castle over there, which is perfect for taking photos!"

Leon had long arranged a trip to Country F's Four Seasons Castle. He knew Alyssa should like that kind of place.

Four Seasons Castle had been featured in many travel magazines. It had even become an online celebrity gathering place in recent years.

Since he brought Alyssa along, he naturally had to organize the trip. They could have fun while escaping.

Alyssa looked at Leon happily and nodded.

She knew Leon would have everything set up. She leaned against Leon reassuringly. Then she yawned like a little lazy cat.

"You want to sleep now?"

"Well, I want to sleep as soon as I sit down. It's so warm in the cabin and your arms are also warm, so I'm so sleepy."

"Then you can sleep."

Leon looked at Alyssa's sleepy face and said softly, "You take a nap!"

"Okay."

Alyssa quickly leaned on Leon's body and closed her eyes.

Leon watched Alyssa close her eyes and smiled, "You shouldn't walk around when you're pregnant. You are really naughty, aren't you!"

"Now is supposed to be my lunch break. I should be sleeping right now. I just want to sleep."

Alyssa's voice had dropped considerably.

Leon could hear Alyssa's even breathing when he lowered his head again.

Just now when she came with him to the airport, she was still in good spirits. But now, she was so sleepy. He said he wouldn't let her come with him, but he finally gave in. He wasn't right either, but he just wanted to watch her all the time. He was content to have her with him all the time.

Three hours later.

Alyssa finally woke up.

As soon as she opened her eyes, she saw Leon.

She was content to go into Leon's arms and kissed him on the chin without hesitation.

Leon was kissed in the cabin, but he did not feel embarrassed at all but felt quite happy.

It was nice to enjoy the world only for two. Alyssa liked this feeling.

"Leon, I'm not feeling well." Alyssa rubbed against Leon's chest, "I still want to sleep."

Leon touched Alyssa's forehead. She didn't have a fever.

"What's the problem?"

"I'm a little airsick."

Leon patted her shoulder and said softly, "Don't be afraid. I'll ask someone to get you airsickness medicine."

"I can't take medicine. I'm pregnant. You get me an eye mask. I'll put it on and sleep for a while. I'm fine."

Alyssa knew she would get airsick, so she was a little nervous when she got on the plane just now.

But now she wasn't that nervous because Leon was with her. After sleeping for a while, she didn't feel well.

"What's wrong?" Leon asked Alyssa patiently.

"I feel a little sick."

Alyssa's voice was small and sounded weak. She also looked very aggravated.

Leon gently held Alyssa's hand, "Don't be afraid. I'm here!"

"Well, Leon, I'm so dizzy."

"Why did you come with me when you knew you would get airsick? Why are you so disobedient?"

"I'm fine. Now that I speak to you, I feel much better. Leon, I don't feel safe for you to go to a foreign country alone. I follow you here, and although I look like a drag, I can make them relax their guard, right?"

"Yes!" Leon never knew Alyssa thought that way.

He lowered his head, looked at Alyssa's pale face, and touched her forehead. Her forehead was covered with cold sweat.

She was really sick.

"We'll be off the plane in a few more minutes."

"Hmm."

"After we get off the plane, we'll go to the villa I booked in advance. At noon, I called and asked them to clean up the rooms. The rooms there are the same as the ones we have at home. You will definitely like them. I even got the chef to make your favorite food."

Alyssa smiled, "I knew you would take care of everything. I feel so happy with you. I don't have to worry about anything."

Leon looked down at Alyssa and kissed her on the forehead.

Soon Alyssa's eyes were covered with an eye mask. Because of the darkness in front of her, Alyssa was not as uncomfortable. She leaned into Leon's arms, still sleepy.

Leon soon put her to sleep.

He was relieved to see her asleep.
