

Chapter 2065: No One As Powerful

The chief still showed concern for Jiang Yao even though he knew she was fine.

“Yes, she’s alright,” Lu Xingzhi replied faintly. “I’ll go home and pack some things. Remember to inform me when Colonel Ye and his family come back.”

Lu Xingzhi was worried about Jiang Yao in the hospital. It would be a waste of time for him to stay on the base. The chief did not need anything from him at that moment.

Zhou Junmin eagerly followed Lu Xingzhi after noticing that he was leaving.

“A cannon must have damaged Colonel Ye’s brain. Maybe he thinks he won’t be demoted even if he were transferred to another base, especially with his current rank,” Zhou Junmin said as his feet crunched on the dried leaves on the ground. “He’s too naive to think that.”

While Lu Xingzhi remained silent, his lips were pursed in mockery, and the corners of his mouth twitched.

Zhou Junmin did not need to ask about the target of that mockery. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

It was almost five hours later when Lu Xingzhi received news about Colonel Ye and his family’s return to the base. Many people were already having lunch when that happened.

Colonel Ye’s family was summoned to the chief’s office before they had time to return home. Lu Xingzhi put the things he had packed for Jiang Yao into the car, and then he went to the chief’s office.

There were no other people in the office—only the chief and Colonel Ye were there; even Colonel Ye’s wife was not there.

The little chubby kid might not have been scared after his wrongdoing the previous day. However, his courage had diminished after the little incident in the morning.

The little kid immediately hid behind his father when he saw Lu Xingzhi walk in from the door.

Lu Xingzhi felt disgusted when he saw the child’s fat face. He did not hide his expression when he walked into the room. He stood beside Colonel Ye with a darkened expression. He said, “Colonel Ye, I must admit that you are quite impressive.”

Without waiting for Colonel Ye to explain, he scoffed, “First, you taught your daughter to do everything possible to damage our reputation. Then, your son almost killed two people. No one else in that world is as powerful as your family.

“I thought we had seen enough of you and your family yesterday, Colonel Lu. I didn’t expect you to prove me wrong today. My wife had just recovered, but you and your family decided it was a good idea to provoke her in the hospital. You even made her faint from anger. Well done, Colonel Ye.” Lu Xingzhi’s voice was cold. It was as cold as the winter breeze.

It seemed like he was complimenting Colonel Ye, but his tone was sarcastic.

“Do you honestly believe that the situation will be resolved if my wife says she forgives you, Colonel Ye?”

Lu Xingzhi looked at Colonel Ye, who was standing beside him, clenching his fists and enduring patiently. He was too lazy to waste more of his breath on the man. “I have something to ask your son.”

“Dad, I want to go home.”

The little chubby kid immediately cried out in fear when he saw Lu Xingzhi glance at him. “Dad, I want to go home. I don’t want to stay here.”

Then, the kid wanted to run out of the room, but Zhou Junmin, who was outside the door, stopped him.

“My son did push her. What else do you want to ask?” Colonel Ye was puzzled. Many people had seen that with their own eyes. He knew that there was no use in denying it..

Chapter 2066: Not My Father

What questions could be asked of a six-year-old who made a mistake because of his mood?

“I just want to know why he pushed my wife for no reason.”

He knew that the chubby boy was afraid of him, but he still stared into the kid’s eyes. “Did someone instigate it? Ye Xueli?”Support our FreeWebNovel.com

Of course, Colonel Ye would not let Lu Xingzhi interrogate his son like that. “He is just a child who doesn’t know how to behave. A six-year-old child—who else would instigate him?”

Colonel Ye would not allow that matter to be connected to Ye Xueli, regardless of whether that was truly the child’s responsibility or if an older sister like Ye Xueli was responsible behind the scenes.

Ye Xueli could no longer live in her old home. She did not even dare leave the place she was staying. Even the elders in the house despised Ye Xueli for embarrassing them when she returned to their hometown. They had to endure other people’s criticism, so they wanted to get rid of Ye Xueli as soon as possible.

Ye Xueli already had a bad reputation. What future could she have if they linked her to that matter?

Additionally, Colonel Ye was confident that Lu Xingzhi would imprison Ye Xueli if his son stated that Ye Xueli was the one who had set that up.

“If it was not Ye Xueli, perhaps it was you, Colonel Ye?” Lu Xingzhi laughed coldly, but it was his sneer that shocked the little chubby kid that he even trembled.

Lu Xingzhi stood there looking down at the little chubby kid who was almost scared out of his wits. Then, he asked, “Who instigated you to push my wife yesterday? Was it Ye Xueli or your father? I don’t believe you would do that alone, right? If it wasn’t you, then

Before Lu Xingzhi could even finish his sentence, the little chubby kid was so scared that he fell on his butt and started crying loudly.

“It wasn’t my father or Ye Xueli. It was an uncle. He said that he hates Jiang Yao, and my big sister and my parents hate her too. So, if I were a man, I would have to avenge my big sister and parents. He even bought me ice cream.”

The little chubby kid was so frightened that he told them everything. “If I pushed her, he said he would treat me to a soda every day.”

Even the chief did not expect Lu Xingzhi would get an answer from a few threatening words.

It was not only the chief; even Lu Xingzhi was shocked by that result.

He had only wanted to scare the little chubby kid and test if Ye Xueli had a hand in that matter. He did not expect to get a huge clue out of him.

Colonel Ye was also dumbfounded. He never thought that someone would use his son behind his back.

After the incident, Colonel Ye suspected that his son had heard the quarrel at home and harbored animosity toward Jiang Yao since he had always been spoiled at home. The Ye family and Lu Xingzhi had also been at odds for a few days. He thought that was why he pushed Jiang Yao.

“Who told you to do that?”

Colonel Ye seemed to see the light at the end of the tunnel. There was someone else who wanted to use a child. His son’s mistake would be far less severe if he captured the person who provoked him..
