

Chapter 213

Leon deliberately took the isolated road, and the car behind him still followed him.

After a few minutes, Leon stopped the car. At that moment, the man who had been following him realized that he had already been exposed.

He was pulled out of the car by Leon. Then, he punched at Leon, who dodged. At this point, he tried to run but was quickly pulled back by Leon.

Leon was quick. He grabbed the man's left hand and kicked him hard in the knee.

Bam!

The man fell straight to his knees.

"Where's Colton?"

"I don't know!"

"Then I'll send you to jail."

"No!"

"Then are you going to tell me?"

"He's at the Bangkok Clubhouse!"

"Show me the way!"

Half an hour later.

Bangkok Clubhouse.

Leon saw Colton smoothly.

When Colton saw Leon, he greeted Leon warmly and asked him to sit down.

Leon didn't sit down and said directly, "I won't go back with you, so you just give up, which is good for you and me. Your power in A City is already controlled by my grandfather. You hurt my grandfather before, and you even tried to hurt me abroad. Do you really think I won't do anything to you?"

"Leon, you are my sister's child, a man of the Koherrs. You can't be fooled by your grandfather. The Hunters has George as well as you, but the Koherrs only has you. You come back to the Koherrs with me, inherit the Koherrs, and there will be surprises you won't expect."

Colton pressed Leon's shoulder and smiled at him, but his smile had something sinister.

Leon lifted his hand to distance himself from Colton. Colton was only a few years older than Leon, but they had completely different temperaments.

"If the Koherrs is as good as you say, then why don't you inherit the Koherrs?"

Colton laughed at Leon's words, "I can't inherit the Koherrs. I have to protect you. I will do the business after dark, and you will do the daytime business. This way, we can make the Koherrs flourish. Can you understand that?"

Colton thought he could not have arranged it better.

Leon would work with him if he was smart enough.

Leon understood Colton's point, but he was cool, "I'm not interested in either the night business or the day business."

"But it's the same as what you do at Hunter Group, isn't it? You just have to take care of the Koherrs' daytime business. The Koherrs only has you and me left. Your grandfather is still in the hospital. I don't know if he will make it this time. You are one of the Koherrs, so you must go back to the Koherrs."

"Uncle, you just want me to be a puppet, don't you?"

"I don't think that way. Don't get me wrong. The Koherrs does need you."

"You think I haven't investigated you?" Leon looked at Colton and said faintly, "Two years ago, my grandfather planned to set up Koherr Group, and also opened some car washes, supermarkets, and flower stores for money laundering through some means. Later, he took the money into the business. Grandfather was smart and soon ran Koherr Group successfully."

"Those are all fake, not profitable at all. Leon, you can see the accounts."

"That's because of bad management."

"It's because that kind of business doesn't make any money!"

Colton was unconvinced. It was too slow to make money in those previous businesses.

He no longer wanted to waste time.

The old business was better to make money fast.

Colton said with a smile, "Leon, you will find that the feeling of making money fast and slow is different when you go back with me. By then, you will love that feeling. I once got thirty million in one night."

"Uncle, I now have some evidence that you made money by illegal means. I came here today to make it clear to you. If you want to be safe and sound, you should stop doing that kind of business. You inherit Koherr Group. Grandfather was right before, and it was you who was wrong all along."

"You mean you don't want to go back with me?"

Leon didn't say anything, turned around, and left.

Colton immediately clapped his hands and there were several bodyguards at the door.

Those bodyguards stopped Leon.

He could not go out now.

Colton's face was grim, "You don't think I dare to do anything to you, do you? You're right. I just want to bring you back to the Koherrs as a puppet. The Koherrs is black from the beginning, so how can it become white! Do you know why your father didn't like your mother? It was because your mother's last name was Koherr. How could a man like your father accept that your mother had done that? All you have to do is to come back with me and use your talents to run Koherr Group. What's so difficult about that?"

"I don't believe you."

"You don't believe me? Then you go back and ask your grandpa how your mother got together with your father in the first place. Then, they had you. How could your father like your mother? Your mother deserved to die in depression. She should not have fallen in love with someone who despised her at all. People like us can't find true love."

Leon glanced at Colton with a cold look in his eyes.

Colton looked at Leon's eyes and suddenly smiled, "That's the kind of attitude you should have. The Koherrs should have that look in their eyes. Leon, I can't be wrong. You come with me, and I will make you an emperor."

"But I don't care!"

Leon finished his sentence and swung his fist to fight with the man at the door. The man at the door was caught off guard by Leon's fight and was soon unable to stand up.

The other man was also defeated after fighting with Leon for a while.

Looking at Leon's good fight, Colton felt that Kevin made Leon an excellent man.

It was just a pity that ... no matter what, he had to take Leon with him today.

Colton looked at the men hiding in the corner and nodded at them.

Soon the people in the corner rushed over in Leon's direction. With seven or eight people fighting against Leon together, he obviously felt overwhelmed. Half an hour later, Leon had been forced into the corner.

He saw the window behind him and wanted to open it to escape. Suddenly, someone slammed him at the back of the neck. The next second Leon fell to the ground.

Hunter's House.

Alyssa looked at the time.

It was now eight o'clock in the evening.

She hadn't seen Leon since the morning.

She called Leon in the morning and he answered the phone, but now he just didn't answer it.

What was he doing?

Could it be that because she couldn't have sex with him during her pregnancy, he just couldn't help himself and went to another woman?

No, Leon was not that kind of person.

He probably stayed at the old house for dinner. The reason he didn't call her was probably that he was worried she might eat too much!

Alyssa felt aggrieved when she thought about it.

However, he just did it all for the good of the children.

She decided to call grandpa.

"Grandpa, is Leon with you?"

Kevin felt strange hearing Alyssa's voice, "It's dark and you're looking for your husband?"

Alyssa blushed. Grandpa really didn't treat her as an outsider. Otherwise, he wouldn't say such things. She pursed her lips, "Grandpa, don't make fun of me."

"It's nothing to be embarrassed about. You're family, and it's only right that you look for him to come home." Kevin didn't see Alyssa but could guess Alyssa's expression now.

Her face must be red!

Alyssa couldn't help but smile. The older, the wise. Grandpa knew everything.

"However, Leon left a long time ago. I didn't hear him say that he was going to the office. He should have been home long ago."

"He hasn't come back yet."

"Don't worry. He may have been delayed by something on the road. You can rest assured of Leon's character. He won't be with other women. If he really has a relationship with another woman, I'll break his legs for you."

Alyssa chuckled at grandpa's words.

Kevin was also happy to hear Alyssa's laughter.

"Grandpa, I won't bother you. I'll wait for him a little longer."

"Good, if you're tired, go to bed early. You can scold him when he comes back. You tell him that if he comes back this late in the future, you'll lock the door and not let him in."

"Grandpa's idea is the best."

"Get some rest early. You must take care of yourself."

Kevin finished and hung up the phone. He suddenly had a bad feeling.

He immediately called someone to check Leon's whereabouts. Something was not right. He sensed that Leon's failure to come home on time had something to do with Colton.

Leon might have met up with Colton.

When he thought about that, Kevin couldn't help but worry.

Hunter's House.

Alyssa didn't listen to grandpa and went to rest.

She was used to being with Leon. She couldn't sleep without him.

She called Leon a few more times, but no one answered the phone.

She wondered if it was just her imagination.

She felt as if something had happened to Leon!

She was really worried, so she stood up and put on her jacket and went out.

Wendy saw Alyssa going out and stopped her, "Mrs. Hunter, where are you going?"

"I'm going to look for Leon. He's never been home this late."

"Mr. Hunter used to work late at the office, and he also came back late. Mrs. Hunter, you'd better not go out. It's too dark outside."

"But he used to call me when he came back late. This time, it was so strange that he didn't call me. The weirdest thing is that I can't even get through to him."

His phone couldn't be reached, which made her anxious.

Wendy couldn't talk Alyssa out of it and watched as Alyssa walked out. She wanted to follow her. But she had two children to take care of. As she hesitated, Alyssa had already driven out.

When Wendy went out after her, Alyssa was gone.

Alyssa went to Hunter Group first, and Leon's office had its lights off. She went to ask the security guard and found out that Leon hadn't come to the office.
