

Chapter 2151: Great Kindness

That answer surprised Jiang Yao because Lu Xingzhi had just told her a few days before that the only remaining member of the Qian family was lying in a hospital bed, clinging to life with the help of his medicine and doctors.

“You mean Old Master Qian?”

“Old Master Qian’s condition is very bad,” Jiang Yao said, her voice low and disbelieving.

“Is it possible he is confused, believing that the Qian family’s destruction has anything to do with Xingzhi and me? Is that why, even if he dies, he wants to drag me down with him? He believes we killed his son, so he wants to kill my child and make me pay in blood so I’d feel his loss as well?”. Please Keep reading on FreeWebNovel.com

“Old Master Qian’s condition is very bad. He has not been awake for long lately. Furthermore, the hospital stated that he had not seen any outsiders when he was awake. He has always been alone. No one has visited him,” Shao Fucheng said. “The monkeys scatter when the tree falls. Furthermore, before the Qian family fell, it dragged many people down, so everyone now wanted to avoid the Qian family. As a result, no relatives or friends have ever visited Old Master Qian in the hospital.”

“The hospital did not have a phone, so Old Master Qian would not have a chance to call Sergeant Hu’s father,” Shao Fucheng said. “So that matter should have nothing to do with him.”

“I’m a little confused by what you said.”

Jiang Yao rubbed her temples. “Let’s start from the beginning. Tell me, how did Sergeant Hu’s father have anything to do with the Qian family? Why would he work for the Qian family?”

“Sergeant Hu’s father was a soldier in the northern military region when he was young. He made a significant mistake during a mission. That mistake almost led to his being court-martialed by the Qian family. Then, the matter was settled. When the accident happened, Sergeant Hu’s mother was only a few months pregnant with Sergeant Hu. Their family’s situation was also very bad at that time. Sergeant Hu’s mother’s physical condition was not very good. She had to rely on money to make up for it after she became pregnant. Qian Zhibin paid for Sergeant Hu’s father’s injury at that time. Only after Qian Zhibin pleaded with Old Master Qian that Qian Zhibin used many of the Qian family’s connections to save Sergeant Hu’s father.

“Therefore, ever since then, Sergeant Hu’s father had always been grateful to Qian Zhibin and the Qian family. Even after he retired from the army, he still remembered the Qian family’s kindness to him. If Sergeant Hu’s father really went to the military court and was sentenced to prison, the Hu family would probably have dissolved. Perhaps Sergeant Hu might not even exist. At that time, the Qian family not only protected Sergeant Hu’s father’s future but also protected his family and the birth of his child.”

Jiang Yao clicked her tongue. “If that’s the case, Sergeant Hu’s father is extremely indebted to the Qian family.”

If the Qian family had asked Sergeant Hu’s father to do something, then it would naturally be very difficult for Sergeant Hu’s father to refuse.

“Yes, that is the correct way to describe it because Qian Zhibin relied on Old Master Qian’s connections to help Sergeant Hu’s father advance. However, Qian Zhibin was a person who would not give up without benefits. Therefore, Qian Zhibin should have plotted against Sergeant Hu’s father from the beginning and obtained what he wanted. However, Sergeant Hu’s father was an honest person. He might not understand that and simply think that he had met a noble person,” Shao Fucheng said. “Unfortunately, that was a long time ago, and we had no way of looking into it.”

Chapter 2152: 19 Years Old

Old Master Qian was getting on in years and had lived a long life. However, with the death of their family members at the time, many of the Qian family’s subordinates had already dispersed.

Those who fought on the battlefield in the early years of the war were all scarred. How many of them were fortunate enough to live a long time?

Many of them died in their forties or fifties many years ago.

“Sergeant Hu’s father is an honest man.”

He would not have committed suicide by lying on the tracks and leaving a suicide note if he had not killed two people.

“That’s not right!”

Jiang Yao slapped her thigh. “I suddenly remembered the suicide note left by Sergeant Hu’s father. The note mentioned an old friend. According to what you just told me, Qian Zhibin must be the one who has been helping Sergeant Hu’s father. Then, the person he mentioned in the note has to be Qian Zhibin’s son!”

Jiang Yao suddenly raised her eyes and looked at Shao Fucheng. “So the one who really encouraged Sergeant Hu’s father to do that was Qian Zhibin’s son!”

It was the illegitimate child that Qian Zhibin had sent abroad!

Qian Zhibin brought the illegitimate child home and placed him for adoption because Jiang Yao remembered that Qian Zhibin and his wife did not have children.

“That child shouldn’t be very old this year, right?”

Jiang Yao was also shocked by that.

“Nineteen years old.”

There was a hint of admiration in Shao Fu Cheng’s eyes. He did not expect to have such an easy conversation with Jiang Yao. Jiang Yao had already guessed what he had not mentioned yet.

“A 19-year-old boy already has such shrewdness?”

How could Jiang Yao believe that?

Look at Ye Jianguo. A 20-year-old boy was still as innocent as a young boy.

How could a 19-year-old boy, raised by a wealthy family like the Qian family, have such terrifying shrewdness and scheming?

“A 19-year-old boy can calculate a person’s mind with such precision. He must have known that Sergeant Hu’s father would not expose him. Therefore, when he asked Sergeant Hu’s father to do those things, he must have had nothing to fear, right?”

Jiang Yao’s heart sank. “We didn’t think it would be that child because of his young age. I think we can understand it better now.”

Jiang Yao said, “Madam Chai was his biological mother, and she died in prison. Chai Xianglong was his half-brother. He fell from the hospital building and died. Qian Zhibin, his father, had also died. In this world, he only has Old Master Qian. Furthermore, I heard that because Old Master Qian always thought that Qian Zhibin adopted the boy, so he did not value him very much and did not love him much.”

“Yes, that’s why he hates you and Colonel Lu. He should still hate Colonel Lu’s brothers.” Shao

Fucheng gave Jiang Yao another piece of bad news. “I guessed someone must have investigated

Qian Zhibin’s illegitimate son’s current whereabouts. Unfortunately, he had already dropped out of school. No one knows where he is now. After he was sent abroad by Qian Zhibin, there was no record of him entering the country. He must be hiding abroad or has used special methods to return to the country and hide here.”

Chapter 2153: Like A Crazy Man

“Have you heard about the Zhou family murder case in Yuan City?” Jiang Yao considered it alongside the case of Zhou Xiaoxia’s family because she knew Qian Zhibin’s illegitimate son was a major suspect. “Do you think he could have done it?”

“How many city dwellers in the country are unaware of the case?” Shao Fucheng asked. He paused for a few seconds before shrugging his shoulders and saying, “I agree with you. I think it’s very likely that the child did it.”

Yuan City police had searched for a long time, but they found no suspicious targets. The Zhou family’s social circle was small. Nobody held a deep grudge against the Zhou family. However, that illegitimate child believed it was perfectly normal for him to harbor a grudge against Zhou Xiaoxia’s family.

Jiang Yao shuddered when she thought of the boy’s unusual thoughts.

He could kill innocent people to get rid of her child. He was indifferent to the numbness and cruelty of life. It was terrifying to even think about it.

The Zhou family was the fuse that caused the downfall of the Chai family. So, the child held a grudge against the Zhou family. It was entirely possible for him to kill Zhou Xiaoxia’s family.

Qian Zhibin’s illegitimate child could be described as an executioner. He was a cold-blooded individual who saw no right or wrong. He was only concerned with himself.

'I really want to slap Qian Zhibin's illegitimate child to wake him up.' She wanted to know which of the Qian and Chai family members who died were innocent. Which of them did not have the blood of others on their hands?

The Chai family's mother and son were evil. How tragic was Zhou Xiaocheng's death? How innocent was she?

Where did he get the courage to carry out those so-called vengeance acts?

"I received a message as well, very early in the morning. Someone moved Zhou Xiaocheng's grave, and her remains are missing." Jiang Yao gently touched her lower abdomen with her hand. Her voice sounded distant as if it came from a long distance away. It was bitterly cold.

"He won't let go of an unborn child, and he won't let go of the living. So, now he won't even let go of the dead?"

"He must be a pervert, right?"

Even a grown man like Shao Fucheng had goosebumps on his arm. "Or rather, he might be a lunatic."

"Is he left-handed? The clues in Yuan City indicate that the murderer is left-handed." Jiang Yao wanted to confirm the last piece of news.

Shao Fucheng changed his sitting posture and nodded. "Yes, Qian Yunen is a leftie. When it comes to writing, I heard that he can use both his left and right hands."

Jiang Yao's tense body leaned against the sofa unexpectedly. That point also matched. It appeared that Qian Yunen, Qian Zhibin's illegitimate son, was responsible.

A nineteen-year-old boy who had killed six people on his own. "Qian Yunen seems to have returned to the country," Jiang Yao said.

"That seems to be the case."

Shao Fucheng was perplexed by the clues of the Yuan City murder case and the murderer's left-handedness. As a result, when he saw that case, even though he linked it to Qian Yunen, he only assumed that Qian Yunen had found someone to assist him in killing someone.

It was the same as when he used Sergeant Hu's father's hand to harm Jiang Yao's child.

However, it appeared that Qian Yunen had already returned to the country and had even taken action in Yuan City.

"Right now, we do not know where Qian Yunen is, so do not leave the army base unless absolutely necessary."

Shao Fucheng gave the order and then stood up. "I'll leave now. If there's any other news, I'll inform you again."

Chapter 2154: Almost Done

“Thank you for coming, Colonel Shao.” Jiang Yao thanked him and sent Shao Fucheng to the door personally.

Her mood could be described as gloomy with minimal effort.

If Qian Yunen had truly moved Zhou Xiaocheng’s remains, it was difficult to say whether or not they could find Zhou Xiaocheng’s remains.

Jiang Yao hurriedly called Liang Yueze, believing that Qian Yunen had returned to the country. After all, the Liang family had significantly contributed to the Qian family’s case. She needed to warn Lu Xingzhi’s brothers about Qian Yunen causing trouble behind their backs.

“If Ruoran is in Jindo City with her child, Big Brother, send a few more people to protect them. That Qian Yunen is a pervert. It’s hard to guarantee that he won’t make a move on you. While you’re at it, you should also remind Fourth Brother and Fifth Brother. Maybe ask Second Brother about Qian Yunen’s previous travels abroad. Perhaps he has someone working for him abroad as well.”

The more Jiang Yao thought about it, the more she felt it was possible. “Qian Yunen must have someone overseas. Otherwise, how could a boy who had just left the country have access to special means to return to the country? There are only records of him leaving the country, but there are no records of him returning to the country.”

Liang Yueze was also a little surprised. “I understand. You don’t have to worry about me. Xingzhi has been carrying out missions in Lanning recently. If you have nothing to do, don’t leave the army base. It’ll be difficult for Qian Yunen to reach the army base. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have found Sergeant Hu’s father to take care of things last time.”

It could only mean that Qian Yunen did not have anyone he could use in the army base. That was why he went to look for Sergeant Hu’s father.

“Also, thank you for what happened last time. I’ve almost investigated everything.” Liang Yueze searched through Lin Qianyun’s information thoroughly. In addition, after asking Luo Ruoran a few times, he finally understood why Luo Ruoran divorced him back then. Support our BONNOVEL.COM

Liang Yueze felt aggrieved. There was nothing between him and Lin Qianyun. The reason he got together with Lin Qianyun was to anger Luo Ruoran.

Back then, he did not care about Lin Qianyun, and it was the same at that moment.

He and Lin Qianyun confessed to each other because of Luo Ruoran. Lin Qianyun also knew about it, so he generously gave Lin Qianyun a sum of money to go abroad to further her studies. That sum of money was his reward for Lin Qianyun helping him. From then on, he and Lin Qianyun had nothing to do with each other.

However, he did not expect that the extremely childish actor he had hired at the time would go on to become a screenwriter, successfully separating him from Luo Ruoran.

Liang Yueze could not help but clap his hands in admiration for Lin Qianyun. She was competent.

Jiang Yao attempted to call Lu Xingzhi again after hanging up with Liang Yueze. His phone was still turned off, so she texted Lu Xingzhi, telling him exactly what Shao Fucheng had told her. She wanted him to tell his people to find Qian Yunen.

After sending the text message, Jiang Yao sent Du Chen Qian Yunen's identity and name. She asked Du Chen to check and see if he could find out where Qian Yunen was staying.

When Zhou Junmin returned to the army, he had already eaten lunch. The first thing he did was send some fruits to Jiang Yao. Before Lu Xingzhi left, he told him that Jiang Yao could not go out for the time being, and because Jiang Yao's parents were from the countryside, they would not know how to get to the city. So he asked Zhou Junmin to help him buy some fruits and meat for Jiang Yao..

Chapter 2155: Found A Letter

When Zhou Junmin arrived, he was carrying a large bag full of items. He immediately assisted in carrying it to the kitchen as soon as he entered the door. Mrs. Jiang stood to the side, embarrassed, and thanked him.

"Auntie, don't thank me. Colonel Lu ordered this. Don't feel embarrassed for spending his money. This is the Colonel's money. How much have I spent? The Colonel will pay me back every cent. Auntie, please wash the fruits for Mrs. Lu. I'll put the food away."

Halfway through, Zhou Junmin noticed the letter in the bag and realized he still had something for Jiang Yao. He took the thin envelope from his pocket and went to the living room to tell Jiang Yao. "Here is a letter for you. I noticed it at the entrance when I returned to the army base. It stated that it was for Lu Xingzhi's wife, Jiang Yao. I am not sure if it was the mailman who dropped it at the entrance. Fortunately, the envelope was white, so I could see it clearly.

Thankfully, it did not rain today. "

Zhou Junmin reasoned that if the envelope was green, it might not be seen even if he remained at the entrance for a few more days.

"There's such a careless mailman?"

Jiang Yao smiled and reached out to take it. She glanced at the envelope. There was a message for the recipient but nothing about the sender. "That's strange. Who would write me a letter?"

She had a cell phone, so they could call if they needed her.

"There's no postmark on the stamp. '

Jiang Yao discovered something strange. "Zhou Junmin, do you see a postmark? There should be a postmark on the stamp.'

"There really isn't one!"

Zhou Junmin, who had bent down to look, was also taken aback. "Mrs. Lu, won't you know who wrote the letter to you after you open it and take a look? But that stamp does not have a postmark, and it appears it can be used again. It is very cost-effective. Can you tear it off and give it to me later? It is a shame. That is just a regular stamp. It is available at all post offices.

Some post offices have special stamps that retain their commemorative and collectible value.”

Jiang Yao tore off the stamp and handed it to Zhou Junmin before opening the letter.

She did not expect the letter to be a printed A4 sheet with a line of words on it.

“If you want to know the whereabouts of Zhou Xiaocheng’s corpse, come to Yuan City.”

There was no signature, and the entire paper only had one sentence.

Zhou Junmin glanced at it and realized that the letter had not been dropped by the postman but had been purposefully left at the army’s entrance.

“Someone wants to lure you to return to your hometown.”

Zhou Junmin immediately said, “You’re not allowed to go! Before the Colonel left, he told you not to leave the army base.”

“I didn’t say I was going.”

Jiang Yao guessed who had directed the letter’s delivery to her.

Qian Yunen appeared to be more capable than she had anticipated. Du Chen had only discovered the problem last night, and then the letter was in her hands.

Qian Yunen was in Luo City. Or did he arrange for someone to be there?

“That’s good. This letter is obviously trying to lure you out of the army base. The Colonel will beat me to death later if you fall for it.” Zhou Junmin took the paper from Jiang Yao’s hands. He tore it into pieces and threw it into the trash can.

Jiang Yao smiled at Zhou Junmin’s actions, but she was not unhappy..

Chapter 2156: I Won’t Go Anywhere

Of course, she was not going.

Who knew how deep Qian Yunen had dug in Yuan City to await her?

Furthermore, Zhou Xiaocheng had passed away. Never before were the dead more important than the living. She needed to protect herself, as well as her baby. As a result, she had to suppress her emotions and persuade herself to stay at the army base and wait for news.

Qian Yunen was young, but he was already unfathomable. She was terrified, so she would not go to Yuan City.

Zhou Junmin tore the letter, and Jiang Yao pushed the matter to the back of her mind as well. However, the appearance of that letter reminded Jiang Yao to be cautious as Qian Yunen was keeping an eye on her.

Qian Yunen was like a poisonous snake hiding in the dark with its tongue sticking out to get Jiang Yao. He was also extremely poisonous. If she was careless and he found an opportunity to bite her, it would be a fatal event.

Cheng Jinyan's news came back on the fourth day.

Li Hong's parents' whereabouts have been discovered. In such a short time, the family of four had settled in a small town in a small country.

"Li Hong's father had also deposited a large amount of cash in a local bank. He rented a bank safe and hid two gold bars. The family of four had a very comfortable life in that small town," Cheng Jinyan said. "Our people are now confirming whether people are guarding and protecting them. When we are sure there aren't, we will take action to bring that family back to the country."

"It seems like someone is burning money."

Jiang Yao was at a loss for words to describe the person who gave money to the family. How could he spend money in such a place?

"There is also news in the country."

Cheng Jinyan said, "The Cheng family investigated for two days and then asked two neighbors in the same building. Before Li Hong's parents went abroad, they saw two tall and slightly dark-skinned men there. The neighbor said that they were the son's college classmates. They seemed to be from the northwest. Not long after the two men left, the family went missing."

"He spent a lot of money and effort just to do those meaningless things."

Jiang Yao did not understand. "Is there something wrong with that person's brain?"

"Who?" Cheng Jinyan asked.

"Qian Yunen, the grandson of Jindo City's Old Master Qian. When something bad happened to me back then, there was a good chance Sergeant Hu's father did it. It caused me to stay at home to recuperate recently." Jiang Yao gritted her teeth. "I had been resting all day, and my bones were on the verge of collapsing."

After saying that, Jiang Yao had a sudden thought. "Don't tell me Qian Yunen is helping Li Hong? Qian Yunen is a lunatic, a selfish lunatic. Perhaps he could not harm my child through Sergeant Hu's hands, so he deliberately spent some money to do those things to disgust me."

The more Jiang Yao considered it, the more she believed it was possible. "He is rich. Qian Yunen clearly has a lot of money. Even if he squandered his money like water, he still had the backing of Old Master Qian. He has connections abroad, so he might have earned some money and come home to do whatever he wanted."

"I'll get someone to investigate Qian Yunen's affairs abroad," Cheng Jinyan said worriedly. "Don't go out for a while."

Chapter 2157: Haunted By Nightmares

In any case, anyone who saw Jiang Yao would be reminded of that sentence.

"Don't worry. I know what's important."

Jiang Yao reflected on Qian Yunen, who had been waiting for her to leave, and decided that even if the army base were cut off from water, electricity, and food, she would not leave.

Jiang Yao returned to her bedroom after lunch to nap. She had been sleeping well since she became pregnant, but she had a lot of dreams in the afternoon.

Jiang Yao closed her eyes. Most likely because she was shocked by Qian Yunen's incident, a red color seemed to sweep her mind into another world. It was as if it had been dyed red by blood. She could almost smell the stench of blood.

She was suspended in the air. Her feet were red, as was the top of her head, and everything within her reach was red.

A thin youth stood before her in the dream, holding a dagger and gesturing at her abdomen. She wanted to run to protect the baby, so she tried her hardest to move. Support our BONNOVEL.COM .Her feet appeared to be immobilized by something, and she could not move.

She could not see the face of the person who wanted to kill her child, but she knew it had to be someone with a ferocious face.

Jiang Yao's body began to float as soon as the knife was raised. She fell suddenly and rapidly into the bottomless abyss. She abruptly awoke with a cry.

Opening her eyes, she raised her hand and touched her forehead. Only then did Jiang Yao notice her forehead was drenched in a cold sweat.

Jiang Yao's scream terrified Mr. and Mrs. Jiang. They hurriedly opened the door and entered Jiang Yao's room. They did not even knock.

"What's wrong?"

"What's wrong?" Mrs. Jiang was worried when she saw Jiang Yao's pale face. "Are you sick? Why is your face so red, but your skin feels so cold? "

"Nothing. I just had a nightmare." Jiang Yao shook her head. "What time is it?"

"It's past four o'clock," Mr. Jiang replied.

Jiang Yao was surprised. She thought she had only slept for a short while. How could it have been more than two hours?

"Did Xingzhi call me when I was asleep?" Jiang Yao asked. "I haven't been able to contact him for a few days."

"No." Mr. Jiang shook his head. "A lawyer called you. He said he found out that the person who helped Li Hong seemed to have some background. He said that when he went to Li Hong's house to investigate, he met a neighbor who was a teacher. The teacher said he saw two lanky men visiting his neighbor. They were tall and strong, and their skin was slightly dark. They spoke the dialect of an ethnic minority in Lanning. He had taught in the Lanning branch for half a year, so he knew a few local dialects."

"Lanning?"

Jiang Yao said, "Xingzhi is in Lanning now! How could the person who helped Li Hong be one of Lanning's people?" She thought it was Qian Yunen.

"I haven't finished speaking."

Mr. Jiang patted Jiang Yao's back to tell her not to worry. "The teacher's neighbor heard the two people say a few words in a dialect. They were to return to Lanning to meet the young master after they finished their business there. He also said that they were ready to sacrifice themselves."

"Young Master?"

Jiang Yao felt that she had received too much information that day. Her mind was in a daze, and her reaction was slower than usual.

A young master?

Young master?

She thought she was reading a wuxia novel..

Chapter 2158: I Guess So

It did not look like the person supporting Li Hong was very old.

Jiang Yao carefully thought about the title of a young master. No matter how she looked at it, she felt it was comical. Since the Emperor's throne had been deposed for hundreds of years, it was common for the servants and wealthy families to address their children as young masters. That was really impressive for a young master.

It was hardly ever heard of.

They might be from an association, a gang, or a powerful organization. Then who was that young master?

Was it Qian Yunen?

Qian Yunen was only the illegitimate son of the down-and-out Qian family. Was he capable of becoming the young master of such an organization?

Then who was the old master?

What was the point of that young master assisting Li Hong if he was not Qian Yunen?

No family or friends would spend so much money to help Li Hong without any reason. Jiang Yao did not think that Li Hong was an intelligent person who could be valued and used by others.

He could not have taken a fancy to Li Hong, could he?

"Does Lanning have such a rich person?" Mr. Jiang was surprised by that and said, "People of our generation have never been outside. However, in our opinion, Lanning has always been a poor place. There is no fertile land there. There is sand everywhere. Some said it was a barbaric place."

Everyone thought that Lanning was poor. The women would never marry a Lanning man, no matter how far they traveled. When everyone heard about Lanning, they would think of suffering, not having enough to eat, and not being able to wear warm clothes.

Mr. Jiang's question prompted Jiang Yao to consider something. So, did the young master live or work in Lanning?

There were not many wealthy people in Lanning. It would not be difficult to investigate that person if they lived in Lanning.

Lu Xingzhi happened to be in Lanning at the same time. Jiang Yao reasoned that she only needed to contact Lu Xingzhi and ask him to contact his comrades who knew Lanning better.

"Weren't the rich people in every city the center of attention? Just like how the Lu family was well-known in the small county town, so everyone in the small county town knew about the Lu family's situation."

"Yaoyao, did that young master deliberately go against you because of Xingzhi?" Mr. Jiang was worried. "Xingzhi has been in Lanning recently. Could that person be doing something to Xingzhi in Lanning? Give Xingzhi another call. Why haven't we been able to contact him for so many days? The more I hear you mumbling, the more worried I am."

Mr. Jiang urged Jiang Yao several times. "Hurry up and make a call. If you can't get through, call the troops. Didn't you go there last time? Do you have the phone number of his comrades over there?"

Jiang Yao shook her head. She did not have any phone numbers of Lu Xingzhi's comrades in the Lanning.

Jiang Yao paused again, and she immediately nodded. Mr. Jiang was worried. "You're shaking your head and nodding your head again. Do you have it or not?"

"I guess so."

Jiang Yao suddenly remembered a person. Chen Feitang. She was at the Lanning army base. Last time, Jiang Yao met her on the plane.

Jiang Yao did not have Chen Feitang's phone number, but Chen Feibai would have it. If she wanted to contact Chen Feitang, she could just call Chen Feibai and ask him..

Chapter 2159: Tell Me

"I'll call Xingzhi again. Maybe we can contact him." Jiang Yao picked up her phone and called Lu Xingzhi. However, she was angry that Lu Xingzhi's phone was still switched off.

"Still switched off? Then call the person you know and ask them," Mr. Jiang said.

Jiang Yao did not hesitate and called Chen Feibai instead. Chen Feibai and Zheng Yi were volunteers at the border. The two of them were still bickering like enemies every day. It would be unpleasant for them to stay together. One had a mean mouth, and the other had a vicious tongue. They would not give in to each other. They were on equal footing.

Chen Feibai had already lost his gloomy look when the accident happened after enduring the most difficult period, or rather, after staying at the border for some time. He had returned to being Young Master Chen.

Jiang Yao called out after the call was connected. Instead of hearing Chen Feibai's voice, she heard a roar from an unknown wild beast. Her phone almost trembled on the ground because she was so terrified.

Chen Feibai's arrogant laughter came from the phone after the wild beast had finished roaring.

"Are you scared? Do you recognize the animal? "That's Little Flower, my new mount."

"Little Flower?"

Jiang Yao had the impression that the cry she had just heard was not that of a pet, such as a kitten or a dog.

"A golden leopard," Chen Feibai replied.

Damn!

"Your taste is truly enticing. You named a powerful golden leopard Little Flower?" Jiang Yao's contempt for him was unmistakable.

"It's not a bad name. You'd like this name if you heard the name that Zheng Yi came up with."

Jiang Yao overheard Zheng Yi yelling at Chen Feibai on the phone as soon as Chen Feibai finished speaking. However, because they were so far apart, Jiang Yao could not hear what Zheng Yi said. There was one word, however, that she could still make out. Stupid.

She was probably scolding Chen Feibai for being stupid.

Even after being chastised, Chen Feibai remained calm. "Zheng Yi wanted to name it the God of Wealth!"

Chen Feibai put his sloppy attitude aside after teasing Zheng Yi and asked, "What is the matter?"

It is unusual for you to call me. You must need something. What is it?"

Jiang Yao was embarrassed by Chen Feibai's words, but it was the truth.

Chen Feibai and Zheng Xinyi had been out for so long. If they did not call her, she would not remember to call them to ask how they were doing.

"I do need something. I want to ask you for Chen Feitang's phone number." After Jiang Yao said that, she felt embarrassed and chuckled softly, "Then, I'll also ask how you two have been doing recently. It's not too late for that, right?"

"Why do you want Chen Feitang's cell phone number? Did that woman do something again? What did she do?" Chen Feibai's mouth was still as vicious as ever, especially toward Chen Feitang. He was even more merciless.

“No.” Jiang Yao quickly said, “She has been transferred to the Lanning, right? I have something to ask her.

Chapter 2160: Medicine

Chen Feitang had apologized to her at the airport. Jiang Yao had never met Chen Feitang again, nor had she heard from her since.

Maybe Chen Feitang had come to her senses and realized her error. She had been very well-behaved.

Lu Xingzhi had contacted his Lanning unit comrades several times, but he had not heard anyone mention Chen Feitang’s name. When Chen Feitang joined the Lanning unit, she appeared to have become very low-key.

Many people were unaware of Chen Feitang’s shocking background.

“Really? Alright, I’ll ask the old man later and send her phone number to you,” Chen Feibai muttered softly, “I don’t know what’s wrong with her. She actually stayed in the Lanning unit for so long. I thought she was just putting on a show for me.”

After muttering to himself, Chen Feibai said, “Forget it, forget it. Let’s not talk about her. Did you ask how Zheng Yi and I have been doing recently?”

“Well, I’m really enjoying my time here. Even though the girls here are rather dark-skinned, they all look very innocent. They blush when they talk to me. It’s fascinating when they tease me. Oh, right, that silly woman, Zheng Yi, was injured. Two days ago, when we were chasing the poachers, one of them stabbed her foot. The wound is quite extensive. The local doctor said that it was fortunate that there was no harm to the bone. Otherwise, she’d be in big trouble.”

“It’s a good thing that she did not hurt her bones. Most of the thieves are fugitives who have real guns and bullets in their hands. It’s also a good thing that it was only a stab wound. You two have to be careful over there. Have you used up the medicine that I sent you?” When she heard that Zheng Yi was injured, Jiang Yao wanted to persuade the two of them to return home. However, she felt that it was probably useless to convince them. Zheng Yi and Chen Feibai seemed to be having a good time.

“Medicine? Medicine... medicine, that medicine,” Chen Feibai stuttered. He glanced at Zheng Yi, who was glaring at him. He thought for a moment and suddenly ran away. As he ran, he said, “Hey, I finished the medicine quite some time ago, especially the hemostatic medicine. I wanted you to send us more two months ago, but Zheng Yi refused. She said that you must be tired while pregnant. It must be hard to make the medicine for us. She doesn’t want you to be tired.”

Chen Feibai probably ran too fast and was panting, “It’s not that I’m selfish. But if you have nothing to do, just spend maybe ten minutes a day making the medicine. When you have enough, please send them to us. Oh, right, I almost forgot. We also need some anti-mosquito medicine. Zheng Yi and I used it as soon as we came here. I told her that mosquitoes don’t bite people here, but we used it up a month ago. As soon as we came back, we were bitten until our faces were swollen. It’s not an exaggeration to say that the mosquitoes here are really fierce! Is there any medicine to keep our temperature regular? The food here is too hearty, and they make our tempers flare. Hey, what are you throwing at me, lady?”

F*ck! You threw your stinky slippers at me! Have you forgotten that you stepped on shit in those shoes the last time you went out? I'll kill you!

When she heard that, the phone beeped. Jiang Yao held her phone and almost burst into tears from laughter.

Chen Feibai and Zheng Yi were much happier when they stayed together. Jiang Yao found it very interesting when she reflected on the two of them being hospitalized together..
