

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

Chapter 2182 - 2191

Shen Weiyi said with a smile: "Okay dad."

She turned her head and led her two younger brothers, looked at Christopher and said, "Uncle Yan, let's go."

Christopher: "..."

Now, he has absolutely no idea what kind of medicine is sold in this little clever ghost gourd.

However, when he heard Arron instruct him to take the little prince and the little princess to go home first, Christopher did not ask much, and said respectfully to Arron: "Okay Fourth Master, I will send the three of them home immediately."

On the way back, Christopher still couldn't help asking Shen Weiyi curiously: "Little princess, my eldest lady, little queen, can you..."

Before Christopher could finish his question, Shen Weiyi smiled.

Laughing crookedly.

The two little princes who were laughing didn't know what their elder sister was laughing at. The two little princes just raised their heads and looked at their elder sister with incomparable admiration.

Shen Weiyi said triumphantly: "Uncle Christopher, among the projects my father and this woman cooperated with, one of the projects is to build the overpass in the Xicheng Development Zone.

After the overpass is repaired, it will be a prosperous area in the near future.

And that circle is the overpass, the most important construction in that area.

Do you know who are the designers involved in the design of that bridge? "

Christopher: "..."

He didn't know very well, but it wasn't that he didn't know at all.

It is said that the designer who participated in the design of this overpass is a famous designer from a western country, but the teacher of this designer is a domestic person.

This architectural designer has been living in China for the past few years, and he plans to settle in China in the future instead of going back to the West.

Because his teacher is here.

Because he likes this land.

This designer is world famous.

what do you say that is?

Christopher couldn't remember for a while, he didn't pay much attention to foreigners.

Not much attention is paid to architecture.

So at this moment, the only time Christopher was asked, Christopher's answer was not very smooth.

He asked Shen Weiyi in a still questioning tone: "Little Queen, you told you to ask your father to take that aunt to the hospital, is there any necessary involvement?"

"Of course, because, my mother is a hundred times more beautiful than her.

It is also a hundred times more capable than her! "

What the little girl said was cloudy and foggy.

Christopher still didn't understand.

However, Christopher knew that the little girl was very thoughtful, and she was never too sure.

He just smiled and looked at the little queen behind him: "I hope you don't make things out of control, you little thing, then you will be in trouble again."

"Humph!"

Shen Weiyi sneered: "In this world, nothing is more important than the feelings of my parents, whoever wants to interfere in it and destroy the feelings of my parents, I must make her ugly!"

I don't know who she is!

Will it affect the business of the Fu Group?

The Fu Group will belong to me and my brother in the future, I don't care!

My brother doesn't care either!

I only care about my parents and brother, the five of us, together forever! "

Christopher couldn't help but respect her in awe of what the little girl said.

Yes!

Although children are cunning and cunning, their temperament is pure after all.

That Wen Lan obviously had an idea for the fourth master.

Not to mention being as smart as Shen's only little queen, even an outsider like him can detect it.

Either way!

Who made that woman think differently?

Deserved!

Christopher smiled: "Well, the little queen is the best! It's only natural for the little queen to maintain her parents' marriage. Uncle Christopher supports you! Come on! If you need Uncle Christopher's help, just say it!"

"Uncle Christopher, you just need to watch the show."

"Good!"

Driving all the way to take Shen Weiyi's three siblings home, he saw that Suzi had come back from get off work.

Suzi has also been very busy these days.

Chapter 2183

Busy with drawing.

Busy with the exhibition.

The day after tomorrow, Suzi will participate in this large-scale exhibition.

So she was so busy that she didn't have time to pick up the child.

Fortunately, Christopher is reliable. Suzi can concentrate on his career with confidence.

Seeing that Christopher sent the child home safely, Suzi said gratefully, "Thank you, Christopher."

"Shen Gong." Christopher called Suzi this way: "In the past two days, it is estimated that Shen Gong has a good show."

Suzi: "What?"

Christopher looked at Suzi's three children: "You should ask your three precious children."

Suzi looked at Shen Weiyi again.

Although there are three precious children, the two little ones below are obviously the little followers of my sister.

Shen Weiyi asked the two younger brothers to go east, and the two younger brothers did not dare to go west.

The two younger brothers listened to their parents, but not as much as their elder sister.

So Suzi looked at Shen Weiyi and asked, "Weiyi, tell mother, what bad idea did you come up with?"

Shen Weiyi: "Hey hey, mom, you...the day after tomorrow, when you go to the exhibition, you must wear very beautiful clothes, and you must be flamboyant, understand!"

Suzi: "You little thing, you are going to do something bad again!"

Your mother, I don't have time to make a face when I'm so busy now, I'm still overpowering Qunfang, I'm an old woman, who am I overpowering! "

"Anyway, you must be flamboyant and overwhelming!"

Suzi: "..."

Christopher said on the side: "Little Queen, don't worry, just like your mother, Shen Gong's temperament, even if you don't dress up at all, you will definitely be able to dominate the crowd."

Shen Weiyi smiled: "Well, that's what I said, let's go mom, let's go home."

Suzi was full of doubts.

But it's not good to ask anything.

After saying goodbye to Christopher and returning home with her three children, she asked Shen Weiyi in detail.

Shen Weiyi told Suzi about Wen Lan.

Suzi sneered.

Why, after so many years, her husband is almost forty years old, and there are still people who are thinking about her husband like this?

Daughter is right.

In this world, she, Suzi, would never allow any woman to think about her husband.

She patted her daughter's head and smiled confidently: "Baby, you are awesome, you are mom's best daughter! Mom, please rest assured, mom must be the most glamorous one at the exhibition."

As a mother, of course, you must set the best example for your children.

She must make her children proud of herself.

Shen Weiyi also gave his mother a high five and said, "Mom, you are the best!"

"Well, let's go, let's play with my brother." Suzi said.

After watching Shen Weiyi take his two younger brothers to the toy room, Suzi took out his mobile phone and called Arron.

At that end, Arron and Wen Lan had already seen the emergency room.

Wen Lan's ankle was not light, and her ankle was swollen. After the doctor applied the medicine, she bandaged her and put a small splint on her.

It seems that in the past two weeks, I can't wear shoes.

Not only can she not wear shoes, she is also in a wheelchair.

However, Wen Lan was happy in her heart.

Because the reason why her foot was swollen was Arron's responsibility.

Who made his children so mischievous?

That's still a slap in the face.

It seems that when she can't walk for a while, should Arron take care of her as a substitute?

Ha ha!

The more you think, the happier you are.

When Arron borrowed a wheelchair to push her in the hospital, Wen Lan's heart was full of joy.

She raised her head and looked at Arron: "Shaoqin, let's have a meal together, you are busy tonight."

As soon as he finished speaking, Arron's cell phone rang.

Arron didn't answer Wen Lan's words, but picked up the phone and connected it immediately, with a very gentle tone: "Suzi, are you off work?"

Chapter 2184

Suzi's voice was gentle and calm: "Well, I just got off work."

After a pause, she said, "Shaoqin, take good care of your guests."

"I see." Arron said.

"Then I hang up."

"good."

The conversation between the husband and wife was very brief, but they were tacitly aware of each other.

After closing the line, Arron pushed Wen Lan out, and Wen Lan asked, "Did your wife call?"

Arron nodded: "Yes."

"Does my wife still have a job?" Wen Lan said in a slightly playful tone.

She grew up in a Wen family in Southeast Asia, and she has never suffered any grievances since she was a child.

So much so that, even though I have always heard that Arron was decisive in killing, he was very cold and ruthless.

But Wen Lan didn't care either.

Not only did she not care, but she also felt that Arron was not as inaccessible as outsiders described, and he couldn't be half as bad in front of him.

In addition to being relatively strong in cooperation projects, Arron is not so difficult to approach in life?

Or is it because she is an exception to this big beauty?

The more Wen Lan thought about it, the more delighted it became.

"Let me guess, what kind of job does your wife do?" Wen Lan said wisely without waiting for Arron to answer.

"Huh? Entertainment workers?" She could imagine.

Like this, most of the women who used to live at the bottom, and later relied on pregnancy, were very longing for such a bright moment in front of people.

It is nice to say that entertainment workers.

In fact, what Wen Lan wanted to say was that she should be a little star, right?

The resources are soft, but there is no acting skills at all.

Those who can't make any good films look like first-tier actors, but they are actually 18th-tier young actors, right?

If there is a little bit of fame, Wen Lan won't know who it is.

That must be the film that no one watched.

Or maybe it was Arron who refused to let it out?

what!

Guess so.

“No.” Arron replied calmly.

At this moment, his attitude towards Wen Lan was extremely good.

To be honest, he has a little sympathy for Wen Lan.

After earning billions of dollars, his wife and children are also counted.

This woman is pitiful.

But, poor people must have something to hate, who made this woman have to provoke several ancestors in his family?

“If it’s not an entertainment worker, what else can it be?” Wen Lan was a little surprised.

After asking, she also looked up at Arron.

Just at this moment, Arron’s cell phone rang.

It was Dalia who called Arron.

Dalia seldom called Arron. She is now in Kyoto and has two children. In addition, Yingzi is not by Dalia’s side, so Dalia is even more busy, so she seldom contacts outsiders.

At this time, she called Arron, which must be related to Yingzi.

Arron immediately connected: “sister-in-law.”

He has always respected Dalia.

On the other hand, Dalia’s attitude was always humble and gentle: “Mr. Fu, I’ve been busy these two days, so I didn’t bother to ask you guys, but I’m calling Suzi this afternoon, she’s also very busy, she said that these two days because of Dr. Pan’s affairs have been delayed for several days, so I have been working overtime today.

No, I just called you, no... I didn’t bother you, did you, Mr. Fu? “

Chapter 2185

“Sister-in-law, what are you talking about?” Arron smiled and said, “You want to ask about Yingzi?”

“Well, yes.” Dalia said truthfully.

She heard Yingzi tell her about her and Pan Haoyang, when Yingzi told Dalia, she cried while talking.

As long as I talked, I cried for a long time.

Yingzi already understood that Pan Youming was not Pan Haoyang.

However, she loves Pan Youming more.

She felt sorry for Pan Youming, and she still called Hao Yang when she called Pan Youming.

She even felt that Youming and Haoyang were the same person, that is, their souls were united.

She told Dalia that Pan Youming was very pitiful. From childhood to adulthood, and Pan Youming’s current father was actually Fu Zhengxiong.

And Pan Youming’s pitiful mother.

All of this makes Yingzi feel distressed and Pan Youming has nowhere to tell.

I had to find Dalia to vent.

Dalia knows that although Yingzi is about the same age as her, Yingzi has never dealt with worldly things because she has been in exile with her brother for many years. , and fragile.

She can’t handle such complicated things.

She knew that her Haoyang was wronged, and she loved Haoyang and Pan Youming.

“Sister Shan, I like Hao Yang so much. Hao Yang is very pitiful. Sister Shan, I can’t go to Kyoto to take care of you. I want to stay and stay with Hao Yang, always with him. He is very pitiful.” What Yingzi said to Dalia.

Dalia was very pleased at the time.

She hopes that Yingzi can have a good home.

Fortunately, she didn't understand the situation, so after Yingzi hung up, she called Suzi.

As a result, Suzi was busy in a meeting and told her to call her later in the evening.

Dalia was really worried about Yingzi.

That's why I called Arron.

Arron said to Dalia: “Sister-in-law, please rest assured, Youming has a good character. Now Youming lives with his mother and Yingzi, and it will get better and better in the future.”

Dalia smiled and said, “Yes, I'm relieved to hear you say that. Think about the few of us, whether it's Suzi, me, Yingzi, or Rayna, all of us are from the society. Climbed up from the bottom.

Back then, who would have dared to think that we would blend into the top class society?

However, good people have good rewards, and God still favors us. “

After a pause, Dalia sighed and suddenly laughed: “However, maybe, this is just like gathering like things, people are divided into groups, haha, we women at the bottom of society, you infect me, I infect you, all married into the rich and powerful. ?”

Dalia was originally a joke.

She never thought that Arron had Wen Lan, who had just sprained his foot, beside him.

Because Wen Lan and Arron were so close, Wen Lan heard everything Dalia said.

Especially that sentence, we are all women who have climbed up from the bottom of society, maybe we are like people to gather people and divide them into groups.

Wen Lan couldn't help sneering when he heard it.

It's really like gathering people in groups!

They are all people who have climbed up from the bottom of society!

Not at all!

After the call between Arron and Dalia, Wen Lan smiled at Arron gently: "Shaoqin, since your wife is so busy, I will accompany you to attend the overpass seminar the day after tomorrow?"

She is no longer interested in Arron's wife's work.

She is now certain that Arron's wife really can't do it.

Arron looked down at Wen Lan's feet and asked her, "Is your feet convenient? If you really don't show up, you don't have to attend."

"Ha!" Wen Lan smiled: "Why don't you show your face? Don't I have a wheelchair? Anyway, I'm not a hostess at any seminar. I need to dress up brightly. I think, in my capacity, even if I sit in a wheelchair, you should also be respected by others, right?"

I, should not be a vase, right? "

Arron nodded: "Of course you are not a vase."

"Then, the day after tomorrow, how about we attend the seminar together?" Wen Lan asked.

Chapter 2186

Arron nodded without hesitation: "Okay."

The main participants of the overpass project are the Fu Group and the Wen Group. Arron and Wen Lan naturally appeared at the seminar at the same time, which is no problem.

“That’s great.” Wen Lan was as happy as a little girl.

To be able to attend seminars and make appearances together with Arron, she will let Arron see her style and social skills.

The main designer of this overpass was a foreigner who thought he had settled in China. The reason why he settled in China was because he had a teacher who was a domestic man.

And the designer’s reputation is world-renowned.

Then, although his master is reclusive, his reputation must be higher than this designer.

The projects that Fu Group and Wen Group will collaborate on in the next few years are all related to architecture, so it is a good thing for Fu and Wen to get to know such a world-renowned designer.

Wen Lan just wanted Arron to see how she made friends.

Although she is a female, but she can take charge of the huge Wen Group company, of course she can’t give it for nothing.

Wen Lan just wanted to show Arron, even if she had a cramped foot and was sitting in a wheelchair, her demeanor and brilliance were not comparable to the pregnant wife in his family.

It was God who helped her Wen Lan.

Thinking like this along the way, Wen Lan was happily sent to the hotel and said goodbye to Arron very satisfied.

When Arron returned home, Suzi was still working overtime.

Seeing his wife so busy, he couldn’t help feeling distressed. From the back of his wife’s work, Arron even saw the shadow of his mother.

Twenty years ago, my mother worked so hard.

Sometimes mothers stay up all night to work on a new design and architecture.

Just for the sake of not relying on the Fu family.

Just to give him an example to this illegitimate son, and to make his son proud of his mother.

How difficult is the life of a mother?

Not to mention the ruined family, in the end still love the wrong person.

She loved someone who was not worthy of her trust all her life, ruined her life, and never saw her father until she died.

When he thought of his father, Arron gritted his teeth with hatred but was helpless.

My father is in his seventies, almost eighty.

Such an old man, he himself regretted washing his face with tears all day long, what else can you say?

Whether it is mother, or Yuming's mother.

are all victims.

including their children.

suffer too.

Thinking of this, Arron was very fortunate, fortunate that he only loved Suzi in his life.

No matter how good the women in the outside world are, they will not attract Arron to take a second look.

He only loves his wife.

No outsiders are allowed to show any contempt for his wife.

With this thought in mind, Arron couldn't help but support Suzi's shoulders and gently massage her shoulders.

Suzi noticed something, she turned back immediately, and saw that the man was reaching out. She smiled wearily, resting her head directly on her husband's chest, and said gently, "Shaoqin, are you back?"

"Yeah." Arron's hand was neither light nor heavy, and the soreness on Suzi's shoulders suddenly eased a lot.

"It's so late, still not sleeping?" the man asked distressedly.

Suzi forced his eyes and said lazily, "Well, it's a seminar, but in reality, it's an exhibition, everything must be done in advance, and this is Daniel's biggest event in China. Field design, if he succeeds, will also benefit him in the future.

I am also his half teacher.

Although he is famous in the world, he is not accurate enough for some domestic customs and some structural features, so I have to help him.

Help him, and help me.

Every time I complete a design that has always been important, it is an experience and an achievement for me. "

In recent years, Suzi has been reluctant to show his face.

In fact, she never made a public appearance.

Because she doesn't have these ethereal fame.

As long as she really does her job and really protects her family, it will be fine.

Chapter 2187

Sometimes it is not good to be surrounded by stars holding the moon in the middle.

Although Daniel is designing the overpass in name this time, Suzi completed 70% of the structural design, because Suzi is a designer with practical experience and has a lot to say about the firmness of the structure. right.

Daniel also trusted her.

The cooperation between the two is perfect.

Although Daniel has a great reputation, Daniel and Suzi attended the seminar the day after tomorrow.

Therefore, Suzi has to do everything completely before attending the seminar.

She has this confidence.

More this put me.

“Is it almost finished?” Arron asked distressedly.

Suzi nodded, his voice very tired: “Well, it’s all sorted out.”

“Can you sleep?” Arron asked again.

“Ok.”

“Hold you over there?”

Suzi was a little shy.

They are both old and married, why is he still so nauseous when he speaks?

Just like, they are still in love with young men, like little girls.

Couldn’t help blushing.

However, Arron didn’t give her a chance to struggle, he raised his wrist and then bent over, then hugged Suzi in his arms.

The woman blushed shyly.

The man held the woman in his arms and went directly into the bedroom. The bedroom was naturally sweet.

The next day, both of them were in good spirits.

From last night to this morning, the woman didn't ask a word about Wen Lan.

This is trust.

A woman's trust in her husband.

This kind of trust made Arron feel at ease.

The next day's work was also very smooth. During this period, Arron received several calls from Wen Lan, and most of the time, Wen Lan was taking care of him.

Is it female.

Even the current president of Wen's Group.

The first thing she thinks about is not about the group company, but how to be able to win the crowd in tomorrow's seminar and exhibition.

This is woman.

Arron couldn't help sneering.

"Shaoqin, it's agreed that we will attend the seminar together tomorrow."

Arron cut it short and said, "Well."

"Let me tell you, Shaoqin, Daniel's reputation is very famous all over the world, especially his teacher, his mentor. Although that person doesn't show up often, he is also a more famous and respectable designer than Daniel. , then I will create opportunities to let us all get acquainted."

Getting to know such a person is also the purpose of her Wen Lan.

If you can get along well with these people, even Arron must give her a high look.

"Okay." Arron's voice was calm: "It's okay, I'll hang up."

“Okay, see you at the scene tomorrow.” Wen Lan was still full of interest.

“See you there.”

Tomorrow is coming soon.

Arron came alone, because Suzi had been there for a long time, and she was teaching the staff over and over how to explain in detail to the guests who came to the exhibition. When Arron came to the door, he saw Wen Lan in a wheelchair waiting outside the door.

I have to say that Wen Lan has a broken foot, but today’s dress can still make her shine, Galia Qunfang.

“Shaoqin, can you push me in?” Wen Lan raised her eyebrows and said confidently.

Arron’s tone was flat: “I’m sorry, Miss Wen, I said I would attend this exhibition with you today, but I can’t help you push your wheelchair today.”

Wen Lan was startled, and immediately became unhappy: “Why?”

“Because, my wife is here too today.” Arron said.

Chapter 2188

Wen Lan: “...”

My heart was suddenly sour.

But after thinking about it, I was happy again.

Since your wife is here, that’s good!

I’d rather have a try with her.

“Where is your wife? Why didn’t you come with you? Shaoqin?” She was always so gentle when she called Arron’s name.

Arron answered very briefly: “She is already inside.”

“Ha!” Wen Lan smiled.

Because, through the glass door, Wen Lan had already seen several ladies standing in the exhibition hall.

They were all dressed in jewels, spoke shrill voices, wore makeup that was more courtesan than a courtesan, and gestured with all their hands.

Such a woman, Arron naturally does not want to go in and out with her.

No wonder his wife came here early.

Wen Lan also saw a group of women complimenting one of the women.

The woman was very young, well-maintained, and chattered. Before she spoke, she laughed by herself, which made her look very frivolous.

Not only frivolous, but also triumphant.

That woman must be Suzi.

Although Wen Lan has never met Suzi, she can definitely tell!

Wen Lan smiled, and then looked at Arron: “Then trouble Shaoqin to push me in, I also like to know your wife. The contract between Wen’s Group and Fu’s Group has been signed, but I still have it. I have never seen Mrs. Fu.

This time, I finally got a chance to see it. “

Arron raised his hand and pushed the wheelchair forward, saying, “Okay.”

Pushing the door in, there was a little noise in the exhibition hall.

The most noisy among them were the few ladies.

“Oh, it’s better for you to marry. This entire company belongs to your husband. It’s great that you spend your time at leisure every day.”

“I heard that the old man is not as harsh as before, right?”

“More than not being harsh, the old man likes you very much now, right?”

“When are you traveling abroad? I heard that your husband bought a winery for you abroad. The wine in that winery is the most delicious. I am so envious.”

A group of at least five or six noble ladies complimented one of the young women.

The young woman did not hide her smile.

When he spoke, he was also beaming: “That is, my husband is not good to me, who is good to me?”

If he dares not be nice to me, I dare to beat her!

hum 1

Who am I afraid of?

Anyway, I’m barefoot and I’m not afraid of wearing shoes.

Who let me, my surroundings. All are women from the bottom like this.

what!

It’s more fun to think about it now. “

Women speak not only loudly, but also without scruples.

“Haha! The tone is really big!” A sneering voice came from behind.

The woman looked back and saw a strange woman in a wheelchair.

The strange woman is very beautiful.

Even though she was sitting in a wheelchair, it was still difficult to conceal her beauty and nobility. The woman wore a short black and white dress, which set off her very clean and not complicated at all.

The white cloth and small splint wrapped around the wound on her foot were also exposed openly.

This shows her calmness and ability even more.

Very unique style.

Just, who is this woman?

Why come up with a sarcastic tone.

Do they know each other?

The woman who was still laughing just now looked at Wen Lan with anger on her face: "Who are you! Do I know you?"

"Of course you don't know me." Wen Lan pushed the wheelchair by herself and moved towards the laughing woman.

After Arron pushed her into the door, he knew that she was going to these ladies, but Arron was unwilling to accompany her.

Instead, he said to her: "Fu does not like places with many women, can you do it yourself?"

What's not to like about places with a lot of women?

Obviously, I don't want to watch my wife make a fool of myself in front of a group of noble ladies.

Arron is fine if he doesn't go.

Chapter 2189

She played it alone.

Pushing her wheelchair to the big laughing woman, Wen Lan raised her head with contempt in her eyes: "Mrs. Fu, when your husband and I signed the contract for a major project, it was estimated that you were lying down in a beauty salon doing beauty treatments. Bar?"

Do you know the hard work of those of us who are decision makers walking in the market?

Because you are a natural beauty.

As long as you rely on your beauty, you can firmly hold Mr. Fu in your hand.

Oh!

By the way, not only did you get Mr. Fu right.

Now, even Mr. Fu's father, the former president of the Fu Group, has been suppressed by you, and he dare not criticize you for what?

Presumably, when you held your belly and went to the Fu family with the child in your belly, Mr. Fu disagreed, right?

Mrs. Fu, your wrist is really amazing.

Wen Lan I admire, admire. “

The laughing woman looked at Wen Lan angrily and funny: “Your name is Wen Lan?”

“Yes! Your husband's partner?”

“Who is my husband?” the laughing woman asked again?

“Mrs. Fu, you are so innocent and lovely. Who in the audience doesn't know that you are Arron's wife, how about Mrs. Fu?”

“Haha!” The laughing woman began to laugh again.

When she laughs, she is very reckless and has no scruples.

There was an obvious kind of laughter, she didn't care about Arron at all.

No scruples at all.

“You, you... you actually think of me as Mrs. Fu? Ah ha ha ha!

Are you going to die of laughing at me, Wen Lan?

Are you also a partner of the Fu Group?

You, a woman walking in a shopping mall, the female president, speak so sourly.

Although I am not Mrs. Fu.

But I can hear what you said. What you said just now was jealous.

is jealous!

You are jealous of Mrs. Fu.

No, you! “

The laughing woman suddenly roared, “You’ve taken a fancy to Arron!”

Wen Lan sneered: “You also said that you are not Mrs. Fu, not Mrs. Fu, how can you be so angry, and how dare you call Arron’s name?”

Mrs. Fu, what evidence do you have that I have a crush on Mr. Fu?

I just wanted to tell you.

On this occasion today, it’s not that you are useless, you only know where you can show off too much.

Today’s occasion is the site of a seminar specially organized by the most famous architect Daniel in the world for the overpass he designed. Daniel’s master is also present today.

His master was also a great woman, and also a young man.

Mrs. Fu!

I really don’t know why Mr. Fu has a crush on you. People like you really don’t deserve to stand by Mr. Fu’s side.

You are not as good as Daniel’s master, a hundred times!

Is it appropriate for you to be so noisy at other people’s seminars? “

Wen Lan is indeed a strong woman walking in the shopping mall.

With just a few words, she easily led the fire to Daniel's master.

Since then, she can wait and watch a good show.

She didn't want to have a confrontation with Arron's wife in person, she just wanted the host of today's seminar to hate Arron's wife.

Today's seminar is equally important to Arron.

If Arron's wife makes trouble at this venue, then Arron will definitely scold his wife when he returns home.

what!

Wen Lan was extremely happy in her heart, but she looked at the laughing woman calmly.

Unexpectedly, the woman laughed even more, she leaned forward and backward with a smile: "You...you, haha, I suspect that you have a problem with your IQ."

Wen Lan: "You..."

"What's the matter, Miss Wen, is there anything my friend disrespectful to you? She's never been used to it." A graceful voice suddenly came from behind.

The voice didn't wait for Wen Lan to turn around, and said angrily to the laughing woman: "Galia, restrain yourself!"

"Got it, Suzi." Galia said obediently.

"Suzi?" Wen Lan turned around suddenly.

Chapter 2190

Suzi is standing behind Wen Lan.

Her arm was clinging to Arron's arm.

The two slowly walked towards Wen Lan.

Wen Lan was stunned.

For a few minutes, she took the laughing woman as Suzi.

She thinks that the person who can laugh so unrestrainedly in such a public situation, who is not Arron's wife?

But never thought, it really isn't.

It turned out that Suzi was behind him.

And...

Suzi was wearing a professional attire today.

Minimalist style from top to bottom.

The upper body is a pure white small suit, which pinches the waist very well and fits very well.

Inside is a black suspender, and the pants are also pure black long-leg pants.

Same black and white.

They are also exquisite minimalist styles, but famous people can see at a glance that Suzi and Wen Lan are better than Wen Lan.

Wen Lan's minimalist style is a bit showy.

On the other hand, Suzi's minimalist style is capable, appropriate, and has a natural sense of beauty without knowing it.

In particular, Suzi is tall and has long legs. She wore a pair of high heels and black tube pants, which showed her first-class figure, but at the same time, she was not enchanting at all.

On the contrary, there is a sense of stamina throughout his body.

Suzi, who was holding Arron's arm like this, looked at Wen Lan with awe.

Her tone didn't mean anything to the big president Wen Lan:
"President Wen! Although my friend Galia is a little naughty, where is she talking about you?"

You should treat her as me, and then add Accusation?”

This question has a double meaning.

First, did Galia offend you?

Another point is, where did I, Suzi, offend you?

After asking, Wen Lan was speechless.

The reason why she was speechless was not because she recognized Galia as Suzi.

However, Suzi’s temperament was so outstanding.

Not looks.

is the air.

It was completely different from what she had imagined.

Wen Lan thought that Suzi would be a little birdie, coquettish, whining, and a family lady.

Obviously, Suzi’s first impression on Wen Lan was not.

Wen Lan was stunned.

Before she was stunned, Galia sneered and said to her, “Miss Wen, right?”

Wen Lan looked at Galia blushing: “Yan, Miss Yan.”

“You didn’t say that just now. , the chief designer of this seminar is Daniel, and Daniel has a master, who is from Nancheng and a woman? Then do you know who Daniel’s master is?” Galia asked.

Wen Lan’s heart suddenly froze.

Could it be that Daniel’s master is Suzi?

How can this be?

She had never heard of Suzi in the architectural world.

Suzi has never been seen before.

Daniel's master is well-known internationally. Many European buildings and some classic Chinese and Western styles are all from the hands of this female architect.

The shape designed by this female architect is not only in line with international standards, but also has the unique delicate feeling of women, and it does not lose solemnity.

Don't follow suit.

Very distinctive.

Most importantly, this female architect is the best designer who combines Chinese and Western styles.

This designer also has the biggest characteristic, that is, she is very familiar with the structure and very experienced. The rationality of the structure she designed is full of opportunities.

Mistakes are rare.

These structural things can only illustrate one thing.

That is, she has a lot of practical experience.

Chapter 2191

In other words, this female architect must have been working on the first construction site for many years people.

Otherwise, it is impossible to accumulate such rich experience.

Scrambling around at the front-line construction site?

Wen Lan suddenly thought that Suzi came from the bottom.

This Galia also said just now that the friends around her are all from the bottom, and Galia and Suzi are good friends.

sky!

Wen Lan suddenly felt dizzy.

Could it be that the female architect she had admired for a long time turned out to be Suzi?

But she regards Suzi as a vase who only acts like a spoiled child at home and only shows people in color?

Still so cheap?

Wen Lanzhi's face was blushing for a while, and she hesitated and said, "Could it be, you, you are..."

At this time, Suzi asked Wen Lan again: "Miss Wen, you haven't answered me yet, Why do you hate me so much? You say so much to a girl who is not me? Although you are blaming my friend

, but you are actually blaming me.

Miss Wen, what did we have to do before? Have you? Have we met?"

Yes

, they had never met before, so she just caught a woman who was not Suzi and criticized Suzi.

This is really stupid.

So many people at the scene looked at Wen Lan.

"Yeah, you are a strange person. Why do you criticize Mrs. Fu in such a bitter tone for no reason?"

"Where can you get yourself? Sitting in a wheelchair with a splint attached to it, you are not at home and take good care of yourself. , you went to such a serious occasion to quarrel with people? You also said that Mrs. Fu is uncultivated, but I think you are an uncultivated shrew."

“Where did you come from? Are you here to act wild?”

“I think you are a shrew. Was she dumped by your man?”

“Would any man want her with such a woman and such a face?”

A group of people agreed, with different opinions.

These people were all just pissed off by Wen Lan.

He didn't recognize her again, and rushed over with a wheelchair, which was just an accusation.

Do you still think you are so precious?

Wen Lan looked at the people around her who accused her.

She really wanted to find a seam to dig into.

Growing up, I have never experienced such an embarrassing scene.

In particular, she was still sitting in a wheelchair, with one leg stretched out and tied to a splint. Really ugly.

Such an ugly woman, facing such a capable, concise and incomparably noble Suzi, the two women stand above each other.

She could actually laugh at Suzi like that.

I really hit myself in the face, and I didn't give a shit.

I slapped myself in the face, and I don't leave any room for myself.

However, what made Wen Lan even more embarrassed was that a male voice suddenly came from not far away: “Teacher, my teacher has arrived?”

Wen Lan could tell that it was Daniel's voice.

She has met Daniel several times and is quite familiar with Daniel.

When Daniel came, Wen Lan's face immediately filled with joy.

After all, Daniel was her friend, and he came here just in time to help her out of the siege.

“Daniel, Daniel! You, come here quickly.” Wen Lan wished she could get out of the wheelchair and jump directly to Daniel’s side.

Daniel followed the voice and came over.

When he came to Suzi and Wen Lan, he was also stunned and didn’t say a word for a long time.

It was Wen Lan who took the lead: “Daniel, you... come here, my old friend, oops, how long have we not seen each other? The last time we were at the Burj Al Arab in Dubai, we had lunch together, that was...”

Daniel interrupted Wen Lan unceremoniously: “I’m sorry, Miss Wen, I still have business today, and I’ll chat after the meeting.”

Wen Lan was embarrassed and could only smile: “Hehe... ..”

Daniel then looked at Suzi with reverence: “Teacher ... I didn’t expect you to arrive earlier than me.”

Teacher?

Wen Lan’s eyes widened: “Suzi, are you... the Chinese female architect?”
