

Noble Husband At the Door Chapter 220

The old woman's hands, which were holding the invitation card, shivered nonstop. After the middle-aged guy left, she still did not cool down.

In the past, the Sue family had been cool to every other, as well as they did not even have an opportunity to attend the birthday celebration banquet.

Now, the Heavenly household had actually voluntarily sent an invite. This was a significant leap for the Sue family.

"The Sue Family is finally mosting likely to stand out. We are ultimately going to stick out," the old lady said excitedly.

Harvey was also extremely excited. As a second-class Childe in Cloud City, when he was enjoying himself outside, he had to be humble when he satisfied the individuals of the A-list families.

But now, Harvey saw the hope of him becoming the first-line Childe. In the future, who would attempt to make him reduced his head?

"Yes, yes, yes." The old madam claimed excitedly and also opened up the invite card.

Presented on the invite were the variety of individuals in addition to the area and number that the Beautiful family members had arranged for them.

"The Heavenly Household has actually provided us a great deal of face by having 10 individuals present," Harvey claimed excitedly when he saw the contents of the invite. This suggested Sue family would have an independent table at the birthday banquet. This standard was not something that a normal individual might get.

She claimed, "This time, the Sue family has actually won the support of the Divine family members. It appears that we are going to become a first-class family soon."

"Granny, the Heavenly family should value the Sue family. We are currently in charge of the project in the west of the city. In the future, the new city will certainly remain in our hands. Would the Incredible household attempt to look down on us?" Harvey said happily.

"Grandmother, we can't belittle ourselves. It's absolutely nothing to be valued by the Beautiful family. We will most definitely be able to compete with the Divine household in the future. They are afraid, so they do not attempt to embarrass the Sue family members." Yara said with a smile.

The old madam considered it carefully and also understood that there was without a doubt such an opportunity. She did not anticipate that there would be such a day in the Sue family members.

The Sue household, who were enjoying their self-satisfaction, had no suggestion why the invite would certainly be sent to them.

"The job in the west of the city? The standing of the Sue family?"

This was not something that the Heavenly Household thought highly of.

Although the west of the city was an excellent project, and the Sue family could certainly make a great deal of cash because of it, even if of this, Tian Changsheng needed to give face to the Sue family members, and also they had actually ignored the Beautiful family.

The invite was sent to him due to Samuel. If Tian Changsheng had not provided him encounter, the Sue household would have been so cold-shouldered this year.

"Grandma, because just 10 individuals can take part, you have to meticulously think about the candidates," Harvey claimed. He was extremely relieved because he was certainly one of the candidates.

When it comes to the various other loved ones of the Sue family, they were all expecting being chosen by the old woman.

"Well, I will think of it carefully. I will certainly notify you in a couple of days." Such a vital point could not be ignored by the Old Madam, so she planned to think of it thoroughly.

Right now, Harvey looked at Samuel as well as stated, "Grandmother, you have actually not thought of a great prospect yet, yet you know who will not have the ability to go. Samuel is not a member of our Sue family members. He is certainly not certified."

"Him?" The old woman sneered as well as claimed without hesitation, "Certainly he is not certified. Exactly how can he take place such a vital event?"

Also if he doesn't go with the Sue household, he must be able to show up. Harvey claimed to Samuel with a teasing tone.

Checking out Harvey's complacent appearance, Samuel grinned faintly and claimed, "We will absolutely fulfill. I hope you will not be as well stunned then."

"You're still trying to act cool at a time similar to this. You'll only admit it after I put you in the face on the day of the birthday celebration reception. Alright, if you're right here, I, Harvey, will stoop down before you at the birthday banquet and also bark like a pet," Harvey claimed with a demanding expression.

Samuel might not aid laughing. He had actually never ever seen such a stupid person that would certainly compel him into a dead end.

"Well, if I do not drop in you once, I'll kneel down for you as soon as," Samuel stated faintly.

Harvey really felt a little guilty when he saw Samuel's tranquil fashion. Was this fellow actually certified to go?
