

Chapter 226

Jingshu came and the house was enough to live, but they were still crowded in the same house. There was no need to worry about Zhang Fan. At night, Jingshu and Shaohua were crowded on the same bed.

"Sister-in-law, you are white and have a good figure. You look so big! ~" Six months of college life has made Jing Shu understand a lot of things.

"God, are you in love? Be careful of your brother's heart attack! Although he doesn't speak to your face, he often asks me about you. Tell your sister-in-law if you're talking to someone. "

"No, we have not many boys in this department, and all of them are sissy. You don't know that a boy in our class knows skin care better than I do. What weather what lipstick is used?"

"Why, don't you like it?" Shaohua asked roundly.

"No, I want to find one like my brother. An indomitable man! No bean sprouts, Ma Baonan! "

"God, you know all this. It seems that Xiao Jingshu has really grown up. But besides being a little black, your brother is actually pretty good-looking. I wonder why there is such a big skin gap between your brother and sister. Look at your white, and look at your brother. "

"The sun is shining! Maybe I had too much sun when I was a child and couldn't change! " Jingshu wades in Shaohua's arms.

"Jing Shu, tell me something about your brother when he was a child." Shaohua hugged Jingshu and said.

"Well, my brother, how to say, he has been strong since childhood. At that time, the conditions at home were not good. He followed some older boys to look for scrap iron and parts all over the factory, then secretly took it out and sold it, and then saved the money to buy delicious food for me. Once, he was caught by his uncle in the factory and sent to his home. My father smoked him with a belt for more than two hours, but he just didn't admit his mistake. Not a word. My mother cried! "

"But now I can't feel his stubbornness at all, and he's easy to talk. He laughs at everyone. "

"I guess he was trained in college. He didn't go home several times in college. It was only a few steps to get home in the urban area. He didn't go home much, and he didn't ask for money at home. My mother often wept about this. In fact, he is very strong. I can't. I can curry favor with him for an ice cream all day, and he would rather drool than talk to his parents. "

"Why?" Shao Hua was surprised.

"Because he is the boss of the family, he always puts pressure on him consciously. Sister-in-law, I really thank you. Without you, I guess my brother will have a hard time in the past two years. He will never cherish himself. Reluctant to eat, reluctant to spend money on themselves. You know, he paid me tens of thousands of yuan in his first year of work. I was wondering if my brother was working hungry every day. "

"It's all over. Don't you think your brother is doing well now!" Shaohua gently wiped away Jingshu's tears.

"Well! In the past, it will get better and better in the future. " They slowly went to sleep. Zhang Fan, who originally wanted to go back to his dormitory, also lived in the study prepared for him.

Because Zhang Fan gave up his vacation home, the hospital also gave Zhang Fan a few days' rest. The director of the anorectal department will fly to travel and get married next week, so the medical department is not in a hurry to let Zhang Fan take up his post. The hospital leaders have trusted Zhang Fan very much. Zhang Fan said yes, there is absolutely no problem.

The little girl is still green when she grows up. Although she gives a lot of living expenses, she is estimated to have saved it by herself, because Shaohua found that Jingshu's underwear was still in summer and bought it for her. Shao Hua really cherishes his sister-in-law. He is too sensible.

The next day, Zhang Fan got up early to exercise. This fitness can also be addictive. As long as he doesn't work overtime, Zhang Fan will definitely get up early to run. Back home, Shaohua's mother cooked half the table again. The old couple went to the market before dawn. The market here is called bazaar especially on weekends. Many specialties that can't be seen at ordinary times will also appear in the market on weekends.

"Jing Shu, eat more. I love cooking for you. Watching you eat, I feel very comfortable. Unlike Shaohua, who eats two mouths at a meal, it's better not to do it! "

"Well, thank you, aunt. It's delicious! My sister-in-law is probably afraid of getting fat. "

"Fat is not afraid. Look at the one in the street like her."

"Eat quickly and talk about it in the morning." Shaohua's father couldn't see it because he didn't eat very well. Shaohua is with his father.

After dinner, Zhang Fan wanted to go to the study to read, but Shaohua pulled her out. She was going to buy clothes for Jingshu. Vientiane exchange, the largest super shopping mall in chasu City, has the highest consumption level in chasu city.

Generally, Shaohua will bring Zhang Fan here for luxury only after the Chinese new year or when Zhang Fan attends a meeting. She seldom comes here, and she never comes here to buy things herself.

But she is generous to Jingshu, and her sister-in-law is like a mother. Zhang Fan has entered the role of parents, and Shao Hua is not.

"Go around by yourself and wait for us on the second floor." Zhang Fan didn't react, but he still found a place to sit. The things in the mall are the same, and there's nothing to see. Zhang Fan is also happy.

Shaohua turns slowly with Jingshu. She is also a person with a heart. Although she wants to buy underwear for Jingshu, she can't go to the place where she sells underwear at once. Jingshu is no longer a little girl and will be shy.

"This is very good. Try it." Shaohua handed Jingshu a spring dress.

"Sister in law, I don't want it. I have clothes."

"Be obedient. Go and have a try. I'll tell you good news later. Good! Go. "

Half a day, Shaohua bought several sets of clothes for Jingshu, including underwear. Jing Shu is reluctant to buy it. Shao Hua can also see that the clothes Jing Shu wears are a little deformed.

"Tut Tut, I dare not let you go to school. It's really beautiful to clean up. If your brother is half as white as you, I'll be so happy." In front of Jing Shu, because her skin is white, she is wearing an orange sweater, a pure cotton winter skirt and gray leather boots.

"Sister in law!" Jing Shu is a little shy.

"In a few days, after I ask for a good annual leave, I'll take you to Thailand. How are you? Are you happy?"

"Happy! But sister-in-law, you'd better forget it. It's not easy for you to make money. " Jingshu, who jumped for a while, thought that her brother's was not easy, but began to persuade Shaohua.

"It's really not easy for me to make money. I've been salivating all day for a little salary, but your brother's income is really great now. A trip to Thailand doesn't hurt your brother. Besides, doesn't he make money to make his family comfortable and happy? "

"Where is my brother going? He hasn't been there either. "

"Ah! Your brother probably can't go. "
