

Love At First Night

Chapter 229

“Edwin, I’ll call Rita later and tell her about this...” “Whatever. Marilyn. Rita is a reasonable person. She will not twist the truth because of jealousy.” Edwin’s last sentence was very straightforward. “Edwin, you...” Marilyn trembled with anger. She shot Judith a glare and then pulled Ann away. Edwin’s attitude suddenly changed when he glanced at Judith. He asked with a warm smile, “Where are you going, Judith?” Judith smiled apologetically. “Edwin, I want to go to the bathroom. Sorry!” Judith left quickly. Edwin smiled faintly. He looked at Judith’s back and narrowed his eyes. Keeping low key when conducting oneself, one would be more and more stable. While staying high profile in doing things, one would be more and more excellent. Judith was exactly the kind of person who kept a low key in conducting herself but high profile in doing things. When she was despised, she could laugh it off and fight back with confidence. She had made the best of life! Edwin found it a pity that he couldn’t stay a little longer. He had something else to do today. He glanced in the direction where Judith had left and curled his lips. Turning around, his slender figure gracefully left. At the same time, Frank and Lucas came over. But none of them saw each other. When Judith came out of the bathroom, Edwin had left. She was a little amazed that she saw the other side of Edwin today. Over the years, she had formed a habit of enriching herself rather than pleasing others. As long as she was capable, she could walk tall. As for Edwin, he actually smiled today.

What a rare sight!

“Mom, where have you been?” Lucas and Frank had waited for a long time but didn’t see her come back, so they could only come out for her. Frank looked at her with a half-smile. He was like, “Judith, are you constipated?” Judith didn’t reply but held her forehead. She said, “Sorry, I was delayed by a small accident.” “What is it?” Frank frowned and asked.

Just now, he and Lucas were engrossed in choosing the toys. After they bought the one they wanted, they discovered that Judith had not returned yet. “Nothing! Mr. Taylor, let’s go back!” Judith felt a little guilty. She could not get rid of Frank, so she could only hide from him.

When Frank heard this, he instantly looked outside strangely. Who had she just met? “No, Judy, you promised to let Lucas eat dinner with me. Let’s go get something to eat!” Frank said firmly. His deep gaze lazily landed on Judith, who was slightly stunned. No matter who she had met just now, she would have to have dinner with him tonight! He had stayed with them for a whole day today. He was very happy and must share with them his happiness. Because of Gina’s intervention, he had once lost Mila and indirectly lost Jodie. But now, Jodie had returned! She had even brought back a big surprise for him! Judith looked at him helplessly and asked, "Mr. Taylor, I don't know why you are so interested in a married woman, but today, we..."

"Judy, you are overthinking, Frank suddenly interrupted her with a mischievous smile.

Well...

Would he be interested in a married woman?

Of course not. But if she was a married woman, he would not let go! The prerequisite was that it had to be her! He would never let anyone touch his girl.
