

Chapter 2303– 2304 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2303

Before Mark left Gritsberg, he had instructed Xue Renyang, the old man of the Xue family, to see Xu Lei, just like him!

Therefore, it is not so much that Xu Lei is the head of the Xu family, more so as the co-owner of the Xu and Xue family.

There is Mark's reputation outside, and Xue family members inside. The energy Xu Lei has now is undoubtedly terrifying.

How easy is it to rely on Xu Fengliang alone to seize control of the Xu family from Xu Lei?

It is estimated that after Xu Lei's beating tonight, Xu Fengliang will be more honest in the future.

With Xu Lei's departure, the entire Xu family's house undoubtedly completely restored calm.

The Xu family members also went back to their rooms to rest.

The entire Gritsberg city fell into silence after a day of hustle and bustle.

However, on the same night, the Japanese capital, Dongjing City, which is thousands of miles away, was never peaceful.

In a military base on the outskirts of the winter capital.

There are heavy troops stationed, and various infrared detectors are constantly scanning the periphery of the base.

Outside, there are thousands of warning signs standing up there, saying, military heavy ground, no entry.

Boom~ At this time, there was a roar, and an army-green off-road vehicle came slowly in from outside.

The car door opened, and a middle-aged man walked down.

After seeing the man in front of him, the surrounding guards saluted thousands of them and called Commander Sato together.

“Yeah.”

Sato nodded, and then asked, “Is the base still peaceful today? Is there any outsider breaking in?” “Back to the commander, everything is as usual, no different.”

In front of him, someone replied respectfully.

Sato nodded, but the jealousy and doubts between the eyebrows did not completely fade away, but continued: “Well, it’s not unusual. But still can’t relax.”

“The last time the military area was almost breached. , I don’t want to go through it again.”

“According to my order, from now on, the number of patrols at night will be doubled.”

“The patrol range will be expanded to one kilometer outside the military area.”

“Detect in time, give early warning and respond in time. .”

Sato said three times in a row in a low voice, sounding in everyone’s ears.

However, his subordinates were somewhat confused.

“Commander, the number of patrols has increased several times compared to two months ago. There is no need to increase it, right?”

“It’s not in a wartime state, I think...”

“Huh?” Sato frowned, and an old face immediately became cold, and said with displeasure, “Are you questioning me?” , Immediately panicked, and hurriedly bowed his head and said: “The subordinates don’t dare.”

“Since I don’t dare, then do it right away!” “Also, the number of guards around me has doubled.”

“I will do it tonight. !” After speaking, Sato left immediately and went to rest in the camp.

After Sato left, those subordinates were still talking.

“You said, what happened to the commander?” “Commander Sato used to be known as brave and tough in our army. But now, why is he so cautious? It gives people a feeling of greed and fear of death?” This is not the first time. During this time, Sato not only added patrol manpower, but also mobilized heavy troops to be stationed around his camp. Even the guards accompanying him had increased several times, and all were in the army. Of fighters.

This abnormal behavior naturally caused everyone's doubts and puzzles.

Chapter 2304

"I'm going, really?" "Really someone, rushing into the armies single-handedly, to kill the commander?" Outside the camp, many soldiers were talking in low voices.

Some of these people have just returned from field exercises, and some have just joined the army.

Therefore, many people are naturally not clear about what happened a few days ago.

In this way, while these people were talking, they also followed Sato's orders to perform their tasks.

Sato entered the air-raid shelter located underground.

This air-raid shelter is the place with the highest level of safety in this base.

Not only can it prevent air strikes, it can also stop nuclear explosions.

It is not an exaggeration to say that it is an underground fortress.

Logically speaking, buildings like this can only be used when facing irresistible crises such as nuclear leaks and nuclear weapons explosions.

But Sato can't take care of these.

Earlier, he almost died in the hands of the grandmaster, so in order to protect himself, he could only live here.

After all, the Sanshen Pavilion did not provide him with asylum at all. As for the Chu family, they also withdrew the personnel used to protect Sato on the grounds that the crisis had been resolved.

Without the protection of martial arts powerhouses, Sato can only hope that these strong fortifications can save his life.

"Yamamoto, you go out and have a look and ask the patrol. What did you find?" "I don't know what happened today. My eyelids are always twitching and my heart flustered."

Sato lay on the bed, unable to sleep for a long time.

I don't know what's going on today, and he is always restless.

"Commander, you are too tired."

“The madman before, hasn’t it been solved?” “The Chu family also said that after the madman is solved, the commander can sit back and relax. You don’t have to worry about someone coming to search again. Enmity.”

Sato’s confidant, Yamamoto Kuma comforted.

Although the truth is so, Sato is always worried.

As the saying goes, once I was bitten by a snake for ten years, I was afraid of well rope.

Because he killed Brian Chu, he suffered revenge several times before and almost died several times.

Although the Chu family said that the crisis had been completely resolved, how could Sato feel relieved?

What if the lunatic didn’t die, and then come back?

No way, at Sato’s request, Yamamoto Kuma went out to ask the situation.

However, after Yamamoto left for a long time, he never returned.

“Huh?” “This Yamamoto, why didn’t you come back?” “Okada, you go out and hurry up!” Sato frowned and sent another person out again.

However, this is still the case. After the second person went out, there was no news.

Telephone contact, but also delayed contact.

In desperation, Sato once again sent a third person and a fourth person... In the end, there were only four of the ten personal guards beside Sato.

The remaining six people did not return after being sent out by Sato.

At this time, in the underground air-raid shelter, there was dead silence, there was no sound of wind, only the dim light, falling silently.

Outside, the night is lonely, and the darkness that can’t see the five fingers is like the huge open mouth of an evil ghost, swallowing everything.

Phoo~
